And alſo that the ſaid Commiſſioners, or two of them at the leaſt, ſhall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this Act, and of the ſaid Commiſſion to them directed, to aſſigne as well to euerie Deane, Maſter, Warden, Prouoſt, and other Incumbent, and Miniſter of any of the ſaid Colledges, Frœchappels, or Chaunteries, being within the limits of their Commiſſion, which hereafter ſhall be diſſolued or determined by vertue of this Act, and to euery ſtipendarie Prieſt & other Prieſt, whoſe ſalarie the King ſhall be intituled vnto by this Act, as to euery fellow and poore perſon, hauing yearely reliefe out of any of the ſaid Colledges, Frœchappels, or Chantries, being within the limits of their Commiſſion, ſuch ſeuerall yearely annuities, penſions, or other recompences, during their ſeuerall liues, as to the ſame Commiſſioners, or two of them, ſhall be thought meet and conuenient. And ouer that the ſaid Commiſſioners, or two of them at the leaſt, ſhall haue full power & authoritie by vertue of this Act, and of the Commiſſion to them directed, to inquire and trie by ſuch waies and meanes as they ſhall thinke meet and conuenient, what money, profit, and benefit any poore perſon or perſons, by vertue of any Conueyance, Aſſurance, Compoſition, Will, Deuiſe, or otherwiſe heretofore had or made, intended, or meant to haue continuance for euer, had or enioyed within fiue yeres next before the beginning of this preſent Parliament, out of any Colledge, Frœchappell, or Chauntrie, and other the premiſſes, giuen, limited, or appointed to the King by this Act, being within the limits of their Commiſſion. And thereupon to make aſſignements and orders in ſuch manner and forme, as all and ſingular ſuch ſaid money, profit, and commoditie ſhall be payed to poore people for euer, according to ſuch ſaid Aſſurance, Compoſition, Will, Deuice, or other thing had or made for the ſame, and to aſſigne and appoint lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, parcell of the premiſſes, for the maintenance and continuance of the ſame for euer, and alſo appoint to Fraternities, Brotherheads, and Guilds, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, parcell of the premiſſes, toward, and for the maintenance of Peeres, iutties, walls, bankes, againſt the rages of the Sea, Hauens, and Creekes. And that all and ſingular annuities, penſions, and other recompences, ſhall be halfe yearely payed to the perſons, to whom the ſame ought to be payed by the Kings Receiuer for the time being, of his lands, commonly called the ſuppreſſed lands, or other his reuenues, lying in the Countie or Citie, where ſuch Colledge, Frœchappell, or Chantrie, or other the premiſſes, giuen, limited, or appointed to the King by this Act, the firſt day of this preſent Parliament, were or remained, without any fee or reward therefore to be payed: The firſt payment to begin at the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell next comming. And that euery ſuch Receiuer, vpon his accompt ſhall haue full and due allowance of all ſuch annuities, penſions, and other recompences by him payed, by vertue of any ſuch aſſignement to be made by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or two of them at the leaſt. And be it &c. That the ſaid Commiſſioners and euery of them that ſhall take vpon him the execution of any of the ſaid Commiſſions, ſhal be bound as he will anſwer before God, to execute the Commiſſion to him and other directed, beneficially towards the Deanes, Maſters, Wardens, Prouoſts, and other Incumbents and miniſters aforeſaid, and towards the poore people concerning the ſaid aſſignements, and alſo toward the maintenance of piers, iutties, walls, or bankes, againſt the rages of the Sea, Hauens, and Creekes. And that all manner of Aſſignements and Ordinances to be made by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or two of them at the leaſt, and certified vnder their ſeales, or the ſeales of two of them at the leaſt, into the Kings Court of the Augmentations and reuenues of his Crowne, or to any other Court or Courts, by the Kings Maieſtie to be made or aſſigned, ſhal by vertue of this Act, and of the ſaid Commiſſions, be good and effectuall in the Law, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as though the ſame had beene aſſigned and ordained by authoritie of this preſent Parliament, by expreſſe and apt words, termes, and ſentences. Prouided alſo, that ſuch annuities, penſions, and other recompences, that the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any of them, ſhall aſſigne or appoint to be payed yearely to any ſuch Deane, Maſter, Warden, Gouernor, or other Incumbent, Fellow, or Miniſter, ſhall not extend to any more cleare yearely value, then ſuch Deane, Maſter, Warden, Prouoſt, Gouernour, or other Incumbent, Fellow, or Miniſter, or his predeceſſor lafully had or enioyed in money, meat, drinke, liuerie, or allowance of the ſame yearely, within fiue yeares next before the beginning of this preſent Parliament. Prouided alſo, that if any of the ſaid Maſters, Wardens, Prouoſts, Gouernours, or other Incumbents, Fellow, or Miniſter, ſhall at any time hereafter during his life be promoted by the King to any Benefice, or other ſpirituall promotion, being of a better cleare yearely value then his ſaid annuitie or penſion, or other recompence ſhall be of, that then the annuitie, penſion, or recompence that any ſuch Deane, Maſter, Warden, Gouernour, Prouoſt, or other Incumbent, Fellow, or Miniſter, that ſo ſhal be promoted, ſhall haue, ſhall immediatly after ſuch promotion had, ceaſe, and vtterly determine. And be it &c. That the ſaid Commiſſioners, or two of them at the leaſt, to whom any Commiſſion by vertue or meane of this Act, ſhalbe directed and deliuered, ſhall be bound vpon the forfeiture euery of them of a hundred pounds, to make certificate vnder their ſeales, or the ſeales of two of them at the leaſt, into the ſaid Court of Augmentations and reuenues of the Kings Crowne, or into any other Court, as is aforeſaid, within one yeare next after the Cõmiſſion to them directed, of all manors, lands, tenements, rents, tythes, portions, penſions, hereditaments, and recompences, by the ſame Commiſſioners, or two of them, aſſigned or appointed to any of the vſes, intents, or purpoſes aboue mentioned. And alſo be it &c. That our Soueraigne Lord the King ſhall haue and inioy

Money.

AGainst the perils and dammages which are of late come, and which hereafter may come of the money of England: It is thus ordained, That it be cried and defended on the Kings behalfe through the whole Realme, in all the Marchant Townes, that no man vpon grieuous forfeiture, be so hardie to dispend, receiue, or send money, of other coyne then of the coyne of the King of England, Ireland, and Scotland. And also that it bee defended of the Kings behalfe, that none bring money into this countrey, but onely for his expences, neither that he be so hardie to arriue into England, if the force of tempest doe not inforce him, by good witnesse, but at Douer, or at Sandwich, at London, and at S. Botolph, and at Southampton, and to other common Ports. And when he shall come to any of these places, he shall well and lawfully shew his money to him, that shall be assigned by the King, without any concealement, vpon paine of forfeiture of his bodie, and that which he hath, and that from thence he carrie not, nor essoine the same by himselfe nor by other, vntill that his money be viewed and examined by him whom the King shall assigne. And further, That it be cryed and defended on the Kings behalfe, vpon paine of forfeiture of his bodie and that which he hath, that no man be so hardie to send money betweene clothes, in fardels, or in bales, or in other manner, whereof suspition may be of any concealement. And if there be any such found, he which found the same, shall haue foure pence of the pound, and the rest to be to the King. And also that it be cryed and commaunded on the Kings behalfe, that if any find money coyned of any other coyne then of the coyne of the King of England, Ireland, or Scotland, or rounded money, that he breake the same, and that none be so hardie to gainesay the same, vpon payne of grieuous forfeiture, & he which findeth the same false, shall breake the same, the broken money shall be giuen to him who oweth it, and the false money shall be pierced without reskoing it, and the bodie of him in whose hands the false or clipped money appeareth to be found, be taken and holden, vntill such such time as he can find suretie, if he be a suspitious man. And because that many of the poore and rich people cannot know the light and clipped money, now it is ordained, That hereafter he which ought to receiue or pay money, shall receiue and pay the same by weight of fiue shillings of euen weight by the Tumbrell, deliuered by the Warden of the Eschange, marked with the Kings marke, as the measures are, and it shall be lawfull to any man to pierce the money which shall not weigh the Tumbrell: and the money of other coyne then of the coyne of the King of England, Ireland, and Scotland, the weight shall be as well deliuered and marked by the Warden of the Eschange, as the Tumbrell: the viewer and the Warden of the money which shall come from beyond the Sea, when hee shall haue any, he shall haue regard vnto the age thereof, and shall weigh the same, and if he find of the new money, that the pound weigheth not xx.s. by the number of foure pence, then he shall haue regard by the Tumbrell, where the default shall bee, and if he see money which is much vsed, if in the whole pound of twentie shillings it want but vj.d. then it shall be deliuered to him who brought the same, without gainsaying, and if it want more it shall be done of them as of the rest. And let the Warden aforesayd take good heed that he take no gift nor allowance, to make any meanes of sport, nor make any extortion, nor giue any maner of delay, as he will saue himselfe and his goods. 44 All manner of gold of the coyne of a Souereigne, halfe Souereigne, Royall, halfe Royall, and the fourth part of a Royall, the Angell, halfe Angell, and euerie of them, being gold, whole and weight, shall goe & be currant in paiment through all this Realme, for the summe that they were coyned for. And also as well all manner of groats of English coyne, and of the coine of other lands, now currant in this Realme for groats, or for iiij. d. being fluet and not clipped, minished, or otherwise impaired, except reasonable wearing, albeit they be cracked, as all manner of groats, or pence, or two pence of English coyne, or of the coyne of other lands now currant in this Realm, for halfe groats, or pence, or two pence, not clipped, minished, or otherwise impaired, being siluer, howbeit they be cracked, shall in likewise goe & be currant through all the same Realme, for the summe as they were coyned for. And ouer that, that all maner of pence being siluer, hauing the print of the Kings coyne, shall haue course and be currant for paiment as well to vs in all our receipts, as to all our Receiuers, and to all other Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and their Receiuers, and to all other within our Realme, without any manner of refusall or contradiction: except onely pence bearing diuers spurres, or the mullets, betwixt the barres of the crosse, and those pence so bearing the print of the spurre, or the Mullet, to haue course for halfe pence onely, and not aboue. If any person hereafter refuse any coyne afore rehearsed, to take it in paiment after the effect and tenor of this Act, that then he that so refuseth it, shall be compelled by the Maior, Sherife, Bailife, Constable, or chiefe Officer or Gouernour of the Towne, or place where any such paiment shall be refused, to accept & take the said paiment. And further more to be imprisoned, or otherwise punished by the discretion of the said Maior, Sherife, Bailife, Constable, or other chiefe Officer or Gouernour afore rehearsed. And if the said Maior, Sherife, Bailife, Constable, or chiefe Officer or Gouernour, refuse to take any such coyne in payment, as it is afore rehearsed, that then he so refusing the said paiment to be compelled by the Iustice of the Peace of the same countie where such paiment shall be refused, to accept and take the said paiment, and he so refusing the same, to be further punished for the said refusing by the discretion of the same Iustice. And also it is ordained by the said authoritie, That all manner of groats and halfe groats, or pence of two pence, as well English coyne as coyne of other lands, clipped, minished, or otherwise impaired (except reasonable wearing) shall not goe nor be in any wise currant for the paiment within this Realme, but vtterly be refused and forsaken in payment from henceforth: and that notwithstanding it shall not be lawfull to any person, hauing any such groates or pence of two pence clipped or minished, to bring the same to the Kings Mint, there to be changed after the custome of the said Mint, or conuert the same to plate, bullion, or otherwise sell or employ to his most profite & aduantage within this realme; Any other Act or Acts to the contrarie in any wise notwithstanding. And in eschewing and auoyding of such clipping in time to come, the King our Soueraigne Lord, by the aduise of his Councell, hath caused to be made new coynes of groats and pence of two pence, and that euerie piece of the same coynes shall haue a circle about the vtter part thereof. And also that all manner of gold hereafter to be coyned within this his Realme, shall haue the whole Scripture about euerie piece of the same gold, without lacking of any part thereof, to the intent that his subiects hereafter may haue perfect knowledge by the circle or Scripture, when the same coynes be clipped or impaired. And also it is enacted by the said authoritie, That if the Warden or Comptroller of the Kings Mint, hereafter duely executing their office, in searching the same coyne, find that it be not made perfect in forme as is aforesaid, before it passe from the Mint, that then the same Warden and Comptroller shall forfeit the said Office, and make fine for the same at the Kings pleasure. Moreouer, it is enacted by the said authoritie, That no manner of person shall carrie nor conuey, nor cause to be carried out of this Realme, any Bullion, Plate, or coyne of gold or siluer, into Ireland, ouer and aboue the summe of six shillings eight pence, nor conuey any such Bullion, Plate, or coyne, vnto any ship, boat, or other vessell, vpon paine to forfeit the said Bullion, Plate, or coyne, & to haue imprisonment, and make fine and ransome at the Kings will. And in likewise, that no manner person bring nor conuey, nor cause to be brought nor conueyed, any manner of coyne of gold or siluer, aboue the summe of three shillings foure pence, of the coyne of Ireland, into this Realme, vpon paine of forfeiture of all the same coyne aboue the said summe of three shillings foure pence, so brought into this Realm, and to haue imprisonment, and make fine and ransome at the Kings will. And that it shall be lawfull for euerie of the Kings subiects to take and seise all such money of the coyne of Ireland hereafter to be brought or conueyed into this Realme, ouer and aboue the said summe of three shillings foure pence, and to bring it into the Kings Mint, there to leuy the same vnto the Kings vse. And euerie person that so shall bring any such Irish money to the said Mint, shall haue the value of the one halfe of all such Irish money by him to brought to the said Mint, at the same time deliuered to him to his owne vse, by the Warden of the Mint for the time being. An. 19. H. 7. cap. 3.

45. Anno 1 H.8. cap. 13. and An. 3. H.8. cap. 1. two seuerall Acts were made to endure to the next Parliament, that the aforesaid Statute of 17. Ed. 4. cap. 1. (before 42.) should stand good, except the penaltie of Felonie, and that who should carrie any of the things specified in the Statute contrarie to thise Statutes, should forfeit the double value.

Mortdancester.

IF any heire after the death of his auncestor be within age, and his Lord have the ward of his lands and tenements, if the Lord will not render unto the heire his land (when hee commeth to his full age) without plea, the heire shall recover his land by Assise of Mortdancester, with the damage that hee hath sustained by such withholding, since the time that he was of full age. And if an heire at the time of his auncestors death be of full age, and be heire apparant, and knowne for heire, and be found in the inheritance, the chiefe Lord shall not put him out, nor take nor remove any thing there, but shall take onely simple seisin thereof, for the recognition of his Seigniorie, that he may be knowne for Lord. And if the chiefe Lord withholdeth such an heire out of the possession maliciously, whereby he is driven to purchase a Writ of Mortdancester, or of Coinage, then he shall recover his damages as in Assise of Nouel disseisin. And touching inheritances which be holden of the King in chiefe, this other shall be observed, that our Soveraigne Lord the King shall have the like seisin thereof, like as hee was wont to have before time. Neither shall the heire, nor any other intrude into that inheritance, before he hath received it out of the Kings hands, as the same inheritance hath bene wont to be taken out of his hands, and of his auncestors. And this must be understood of lands and fees, the which have accustomed to be in the Kings hands by reason of knights service, or Burrage, or right of Patronage. Marlebridge, cap. 16. An. 52. 4 It is to be vnderstanden, that the King ordained at Westminster the first day of Aprill, the 29. yeare of his raigne, That such as would purchase new Parkes, and men of religion, that would amortise lands or tenements, should haue writs out of the Kings Chauncerie, for to inquire vpon the points accustomed in such things, and that the enquests of lands or tenements that be worth yerely more then xx. s. by extent, be returned into the Eschequer, and there they to make fine for the amortisements, or for the hauing of the Parke, if the inquests doe passe for him that purchased them, and from thence it shall be certified vnto the Chancelor, or his Lieutenant, and that he take a reasonable fine therefore, according to the quantitie of the thing, and after to deliuer them. In like maner be it done for them, that will purchase lands or tenements holden of the King in chiefe. Also folke dwelling beyond the sea, that haue lands or tenements, or rents in England, and will purchase letters of Protection, or to make generall Attornies, they shall be sent into the Eschequer, and there shall make their fines, and from thence shall be sent vnto the Chancelor, or to his Lieutenant, for that that he ought to doe therein. In like manner they shall doe, that will purchase any Faire, Market, Warrein, or any other libertie. Also such as will purchase of tournament or chalment of their debts, shall be sent into the Eschequer. Also such as be not able to trauaile, and folke that dwell in farre Counties, which plead, or be impleaded, shall haue a writ out of the Chauncerie to some sufficient man, that shall retein their Attornies when need is. And for a remembrance of these things, be there an Indenture made, diuided into three parts, whereof one part to remaine in the Chauncerie, another in the Eschequer, and the third in the Gardrobe. 8 Whereas it is contained in the Statute De Religiosis, (7. Ed. 1. before 2.) that no religious, ne other whatsoeuer he be, doe buy or sell, or vnder colour of gift, or terme, or any other manner of title, receiue of any man, or in any manner, by craft or engine, cause to be appropriate vnto him any lands or tenements, vpon paine of forfeiture of the same, whereby the same lands and tenements in any manner might come to Mortmaine. And if any religious or any other doe against the said Statute by art or engine in any manner, that it be lawfull to the King, and to other Lords into the said lands and tenements to enter, as in the said Statute doth more fully appeare. And now of late by subtill imagion, and by art and engine, some religious Parsons, Vicars, and other spirituall persons, haue entred in diuers lands and tenements, which be adioyning to their Churches, and of the same lands by sufferance and assent of the tenants haue made Churchyards, & by Bulls of the Bishop of Rome, haue dedicate and hallowed the same, and in them doe make continually parochiall burying, without licence of the King and of the chiefe Lords: therefore it is declared in this Parliament, that it is manifestly within the compasse of the said Estatute. And moreouer it is agréed & assented, that all they that be possessed by feoffement, or in any other way, to the vse of religious persons, or other spirituall persons, of lands & tenements, fées, aduowsons, or any manner possessions, to the intent to amortise them, whereof the said Religious and Spirituall persons take the profites, that betwixt this and the Feast of S. Michael next comming, they cause them to be amortised by the licence of the King, and of the Lords, or else that they shall sell them, and alien them to some other vse, betweene this and the said Feast, vpon paine to be forfeit to the King, and to the Lords, according to the forme of the said Statute de Religiosis, as lands purchased by religious people. And that from henceforth no such purchase be made, so as such Religious or other Spirituall persons take thereof the profits, as afore is said, vpon paine aforesaid. And also that the same Statute extend and be kept of all lands, tenements, fées, aduowsons, and other possessions, purchased or to be purchased to the vse of Guilds or Fraternities. And moreouer it is assented, forasmuch as the Mayors, Baylifes, and Commons of Cities, Boroughes, & other Townes, that haue a perpetuall bodie, and others which haue offices perpetuall, and be as perpetuall as people of Religion, that from henceforth they shall not purchase to them, and to their Commons or Office, vpon the paine contained in the Statute de Religiosis. And also of that that others be possessed, or hereafter shall purchase to their vse, and they thereof take the profits, it shall be done in like manner as afore is said of people of Religion. Murder and Manslaughter.

IT shall not from henceforth be iudged Murder before our Iustices, where it is found misfortune only: but Murder shall take place in such as are slaine by felonie only, and not otherwise. Marlebridge cap. 25. Anno 52. H. 3.

2 Item the King remembring how Murders and slaying of his subiects daily increase in this land, the occasions whereof be diuers: one, that no men in Townes where such murders happen to fall and to be done, will attach the Murderer, where the Lawe of the land is, that if any man be slaine in the day, and the Felon not taken, the Towneshippe where the death or murder is done, shall be amerced. And if any man be wounded in perill of death, the partie that so wounded should be arrested, and put in suretie, till perfit knowledge be had, whether he so hurt should liue or die. And the Coroner vpon the view of the bodie dead, should inquire of him or them that had done that death, or murder, or their abetters, & consenters, & who were present whē the death or murder was done, whether man or woman, and the names of them that were present, and so found, to inroll and certifie, which law by negligence is disused, and thereby great boldnesse is giuen to slayers and murderers: And ouer this it is vsed, that within the yeere and day after any death or murder had & done, ỹ felon should not be determined at ỹ kings suit, for sauing of the parties suite: wherein the partie is oft time slow, and also agreed with, and by the end of the yeere all is forgotten, which is an other occasion of murder. And also he that will sue any Appeall, must sue in proper person, which suit is long and costly, that it maketh the partie appellant wearie to sue. For reformation of the premisses, the King ꝛr. will that euery Coroner exercise and doe his office, according to the Law, as is afore rehearsed. And that if any man be slaine or murdered, and therefore the slayers, murderers, abbetters, mainteiners, and comforters, of the same be endicted, ỹ the same slayers, & murderers, and all other accessaries of the same, be arraigned and determined of the same felony and murder, at any time of the kings suit within the yeere after the same felonie and murder done, and not tarie the yeere and day for any Appeall to be taken for the same felonie or murder. And if it happen any person named as principall or accessary, to be acquited of any such murder at the Kings suit within the yeere and day, that then the same Iustices before whom he is acquited, shall not suffer him to goe at large, but either to remit him againe to prison, or else to let him to baile after their discretion, till the yeere and day be passed. And if it fortune that the same Felons and Murderers, and accessaries so arraigned, or any of them to be acquited, or the principall of the said Felonie, or any of them, to be attainted, the wife or nert heires to him so slaine, as shall require, may take and haue their Appeall of the same death and murder, within the yeere and day after the same felony and murder done, against the said persons so arraigned & acquited, & all other their accessaries, or against the accessaries of the said principall, or any of them so attainted, or against the said principals so attainted, if they be on liue, and the benefit of his Clergie thereof before not had. And that the appellant haue such and like aduantages, as if the said acquitall or attainder had not beene, the sayd acquitall or attainder notwithstanding. And ouer that, the wife or heire of the said person so slaine or murdered, as cas shall require, may commence their appeall in proper person, at any time within the yeere after the said felony done, before the Sheriffe and Coroners of the Countie where the said felony and murder was done, or before the King and his Bench, or Iustice of gaole deliuerie. And the Appellant in any appeales of Murder of death of a man, where battell by the course of the common lawe lieth not, may make their Atturnies, and appeare by the same

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, that all Iustices of Assises in their circuites, and all Iustices of Peace within the limits of their Commission in their Assise and Sessions, and Stewards of Léetes, Lawdaies, and Liberties, at their Léets and Lawdaies, shal and may from time to time enquire, heare, and determine euery of the said offences, committed or done contrary to this Act, within the precincts of their Commission, Léete, or Libertie. And if anie person or persons shall be before the said Iustices of Assise, Iustices of Peace, or any of them, presented or indicted of any the offences aforesaid, that then the said Iustices of assise, or Iustices of peace, before whom such indictment or presentment shall be taken or had, shall and may by the authoritie of this Act, award such Processe against euery such person or persons so indicted, as vpon indictments of Trespasse is vsed and accustomed to be made: and if any such person or persons so indicted do appeare before the said Iustices, and confesse the same, or pleade to the same indictments, and after by verdict of twelue men, shall be of any the said offences contained in such indictment or indictments conuicted: that then the said Iustices before whom anie such conuiction shall be so had, shall and may award such person or persons so conuicted vnto prison, there to remaine without baile or mainprise, vntill such time as he or they haue payed or satisfied the moity of the forfeiture aboue said vnto the King and Quéenes Maiesties vse, and the other moitie thereof vnto him or them that shall come before the said Iustices, and giue euidence against the party to be conuicted at the time of the said conuiction, and by whose euidence hée shal be of the said offence conuicted. And if any such conuiction shall be had without any euidence openly giuen by any person or persons, that then the party conuicted, as aforesaid, shall remaine in prison, as is aforesaid, vntill he haue satisfied the whole forfeiture to the King and Quéenes vse. Prouided alwayes, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that if any the offences aforesaid, touching Captaines, petie Captaines, or other hauing charge of men, shall be cõmitted during the time that any army or number of men being vnder a Lieutenant, shalbe assembled, and continue together, or by any captaine, petie captaine, or other, hauing charge of men, that shal serue vnder any lord Warden, or other Chiefetaine: that then vpon complaint thereof, the Lord Lieutenant, or the lord Warden, or other Chiefetaine, during the time of any of his or their Commission, shall and may heare, order, and determine the same offences, by his or their discretions. Prouided alwayes, that this Act, ne any thing therein contained, shall not in any wise extend to take away or discharge any tenant or farmer, of his seruice or couenant towards his Lord, for the finding of horse, armour, or weapon, or for doing of seruice by himselfe, or by any other, which by the tenour of his land otherwise is bounden to do, before the making of this Act, but that he shall yéeld, doe, and pay the same in as ample maner and forme, as though this Act had neuer bene had or made. Prouided also, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that if any such captaine, petty captain, or other hauing charge of men, as is aforesaid, shall be at any time hereafter conuicted, or ordred by vertue of this Act, for any of his offences aforesaid: That then the same captaine, petty captaine, or other hauing charge of men, as is aforesaid, so conuicted, shall not otherwise or eftsones be vexed, troubled, sued, or conuicted for the same offence, whereof hée shall be so before conuicted or ordered. And where one Branch or Article contained in the statute made in the second and third yeare of the raigne of the late King Edward the first, intituled, An Act touching the true seruice of Captaines and Souldiors, (which see before in Captaines 6.) whereby the departure of any souldior (seruing, as in the said Act is expressed) without licence of the lieutenant, or other officer or officers named in the said Act, or in their absence, of their deputies, was made felony, is of no force, strength, ne effect, at this present, by reason of the Act of Repeale of certaine treasons, felonies and premunire, made in the first session of the parliament holden at Westminster, in the first yeare of the Quéenes Maiesties raigne: Be it for good and reasonable considerations enacted and established by the authoritie of this present parliament, That the said Branch or Article, and euery sentence and matter therein contained, be from henceforth wholly reuiued and continued, and be and remaine in full strength and effect to all intents, constructions and purposes, the said Act of Repeale notwithstanding. And that all and euery other Article, Clause, Prouiso, and matter contained in the same Act, shall stand, remaine, and be in their full force, strength, and effect: Anie thing in this Act contained to the contrarie notwithstanding. And yet neuertheless, where in the said Act is prouided, That no person or persons should be charged for the taking or receiuing of any gift or reward of his or their tenants or friends towards the relieue, aide, or help of the same persons being commanded to serue in warres, or otherwise to find men on horsebacke, or on foote, within this Realme or without, nor for the gift, reward, aide, or help reserued or couenanted to be payed or giuen to any person appointed to serue in warres, or to find horse or men to serue, by reason of any grant, couenant, reseruation, custome or tenure: Anie thing in the said Act to the contrarie notwithstanding, as by the said Act and Prouiso more plainly it doth and may appeare. Be it enacted by the authoritie of this present parliament, That no person or persons shall or may by colour of the said Prouiso, or of any words or matters therein contained, exact or demand, or leuy any summe or summes of money, horse, armour, or any other thing, other then shall bée employed forthwith in the present

ſalſe newes, lies, or other ſuch falſe things, of Prelates, Lords, and of other aforeſaid, whereof diſcord or any ſlaunder might riſe within the ſame Realme, and hee that doth the ſame, ſhall incurre and haue the paine an other time ordained thereof by the ſtatute of Weſtminſter firſt (that is to ſay, cap. 33. before 1.) which will, that he be taken and impriſoned, till he haue brought him forth that did ſpeake the ſame. An. 2. R. 2. cap. 5.

3 When any ſuch (that is to ſay, that is mencioned in the ſaid Statute of Weſtm. 1. cap. 33. before 1.) And anno 2. R. 2. cap. 5. before 2.) is taken and impriſoned, and can not bring him forth that did ſpeake the ſame, as is aforeſaid, that he be puniſhed by the aduice of the Councell, notwithſtanding the ſaid Statutes. An. 2. R. 2. cap. 11.

4 In Anno 1. & 2. Phil. & Mar. ca. 3. it is enacted that the foreſaid ſtatutes of Weſt. 1. ca. 33. An. 2. R. 2. cap. 5. Anno 12. R. 2. cap. 11. ſhall be and remaine in their full force, ſtrength and effect to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes. And further, the Iuſtices of the Peace in euery ſhire, citie, and towne corporate, within the limits of their ſeuerall commiſſions, ſhall by authority of this preſent Act, haue full power to examine, heare, and determine the cauſes aboueſaid, in the ſaid two firſt Acts ſpecified. (See W. 1. cap. 33. before 1. & 2. R. 2. cap. 5. before 2.) and to put the ſaid two firſt eſtatutes, & euery branch in them contained, in due execution, that from henceforth condigne puniſhment be not deferred from ſuch offenders. And foraſmuch as diuers and ſundry malicious and euil diſpoſed perſons, maliciouſly, ſeditiouſly, rebelliouſly, and vnnaturally, contrarie to the duety of their fidelities and allegeances, haue now of late not onely imagined, inuented, practiſed, ſpoken and ſpread abroad, diuers and ſundry falſe, ſeditious and ſlaunderous newes, rumours, ſayings and tales, againſt our moſt dread ſoueraigne Lord and King, and againſt our moſt naturall ſoueraigne Lady and Queene, and againſt either of them, of whom we are forbidden to thinke euill, and much more to ſpeake euill, which offence ſoundeth, and is as well to the great diſhonour, reproch and ſlaunder of their moſt excellent Maieſties, as alſo to the great ſlaunder of this their Realme, and other their Dominions: but alſo haue deuiſed, made, written, printed, publiſhed, and ſet forth diuers hainous, ſeditious and ſlaunderous writings, rimes, ballads, letters, papers and bookes, intending and practiſing thereby to moue and ſtirre ſeditions, diſcord, diſſention, and rebellion within this Realme, to the great peril and danger of the ſame: For auoyding whereof, be it &c. That if anie perſon or perſons, after the twentieth day of February next enſuing, and after open Proclamation made of this Act, ſhall maliciouſly of his or their Imagination, ſpeake any falſe, ſeditious, and ſlaunderous Newes, Rumours, Sayings, or Tale of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord and K. or of our ſaid moſt naturall ſoueraigne Ladie and Queene, That then all and euery ſuch perſon and perſons ſo offending, being thereof conuicted or attainted, in forme hereafter in this Act expreſſed, ſhall (for euerie firſt offence, in the ſame market place within the Shire, Citie, or Borough, where or neere vnto the place where the ſaid words were or ſhall be ſpoken) be ſet openly vpon the pillorie, by the Sherife or his Miniſters, if it ſhall fortune to be without any citie or towne corporate: And if it happen to be within ſuch citie or towne corporate, then by the principall officer or officers of ſuch citie or towne corporate, or his or their Miniſters; and there to haue both his eares cut off, vnleſſe he pay one hundreth pounds to the King and Queenes Highneſſe vſe, within one moneth next after iudgement giuen of his ſaid offence, and alſo ſhall ſuffer impriſonment, by the ſpace of three moneths, after ſuch his or their execution. And it is &c. That all and euerie perſon and perſons, which after the ſaid day, and after Proclamation made of this Act, ſhall maliciouſly ſpeake any falſe, ſeditious and ſlaunderous newes, rumours, or tales, to the ſlander and reproach of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, or of our ſaid moſt naturall Soueraigne Ladie the Queene, of the ſpeaking or reporting of anie other, That then all and euery ſuch perſon or perſons ſo ſpeaking and reporting, being thereof conuict or attainted in forme hereafter in this Act expreſſed, ſhall for euerieſuch Offence in ſome Market place within the Shire, Citie, Borough, or Towne, where, or neere vnto the places where the ſaid words were or ſhall be ſpoken and reported, be ſet openly vpon the Pillorie by the Sherife or his miniſters, if it ſhall fortune to be without any Citie or Towne Corporate. And if it ſhall happen to be within ſuch Citie, or Towne Corporate, then by the ſaid principall Officer or Officers of ſuch Citie or Townes Corporate, or his or their miniſters, and there to haue one of his eares cut off, vnleſſe hee pay one hundreth Markes to the Kings and Queenes Highneſſe vſe, within one moneth next after the Iudgement giuen of his ſaid Offence, and alſo ſhall ſuffer Impriſonment by the ſpace of one moneth after his or their execution. And be it &c. That if anie perſon or perſons, ſhall after the ſaid day, and after Proclamation made, as is aforeſaid, maliciouſly deuiſe, write, print, or ſet forth anie manner of Booke, Rime, Ballade, Letter, or Writing containing anie falſe matter, clauſe, or ſentence of ſlaunder, reproach and diſhonour of the King and Queenes Maieſties, or of either of them, or to the incouraging, ſtirring, or moouing of any inſurrection or rebellion within this realm, or any the dominiõs belonging to the ſame: Or whoſoeuer ſhall maliciouſly procure anie ſuch booke, rime, ballad, letter, or writing to be written, printed, or ſet forth, and the ſaid offence not being puniſhable by the Statute made in the fiue and twentieth yeare of the raigne of King Ed. the third, (S. ca. 2. which is in Treaſon 1. concerning treaſons or declaration of treaſon) that then and in euerie ſuch caſe the offender and offenders therein, after his or their conuiction or attainder, ſhall for his or their firſt offence, in ſome Market place within the Shire, Citie, or Borough, where the ſaid offence is, or ſhall be committed or done, by the Sherife, or his miniſters, if it ſhal fortune to be without any Citie or Towne Corporate, and if it be within such City or Towne corporate, then by the principall Officer or Officers of such City or Towne corporate, or by his or their Ministers, haue his and their right hand stricken off. And be it &c. that if any person or persons, being once lawfully conuicted of any of the offences aforesaid, now prouided to be punished by the erection of losses of eare, eares, or hand, as is aforesaid, do afterwards eftsoones offend in any of the offences aforesaid, that then hee or they so offending, shall suffer imprisonment during his or theyr liues without bayle or mainprise, and forfeit and lose to the King and Queenes Maiesties, all his and their goods and cattells. And it is &c. That Iustices of Oyer Determiner, within the limits of theyr Commission, Iustices of Assise in theyr seuerall circuites, Iustices of gaole deliuery, and Iustices of peace, as well within the Liberty as without, within the limits of theyr seuerall Commissions, in theyr generall Sessions or other Sessions (which they or two of them, whereof one of them to be of the Quorum, may and shall appoynt at theyr pleasure, where and when neede shall require) shall by vertue hereof haue full power and authority to enquire, heare, and determine all and euery the offences aforesaid, as in cases and triall of Felony. And that the party indicted and arraigned, shall haue aduantage of all manner of challenges to the Iury (peremptory challenge onely except) as in triall of Felony. And also, that euerie Iustice of Peace within the limits of his Commission, shall haue full power and authority to commit any person being vehemently suspected of any of the said offences to ward, there to remaine without baile or mainprise, vntill hee shall be deliuered, according to this Act. Prouided alwayes, and be it &c. That no manner of person or persons shall be molested or impeached for any of the offences concerning speaking or reporting, as is aforesaid, vnlesse hee or they be thereof accused and conuicted within three moneths next after his or their said offence so committed or done. And in case any person shal be imprisoned for any of the sayd offences, concerning speaking or reporting, and not thereof conuicted within iij. moneths next after his offence supposed to be by him done and committed, that then the person so imprisoned, shalbe set at liberty, and no longer detained in prison. Prouided also, and be it &c. That euery such Mayor or Mayors, Bailifes and other head Officer and Officers, of cities, boroughs, & townes corporate, which haue or hereafter shall haue iurisdiction and authority within the seuerall limits of theyr office or offices to hold and keepe Sessions as Iustice or Iustices of the Peace, shall and may by authoritie hereof, as well Arrest and Commit to Ward all and euery Person and Persons, being vehemently suspected of any of the Offences aforesaid, as also to proceed in the discussion, hearing, and determining of euery of the said Offences, and to see, and make due execution thereof, according to the purport, meaning, and effect of this present Act: Any thing in the same Act heretofore made to the contrarie notwithstanding. Prouided alwayes, that the said Iustice of Peace, as well within liberties as without, the which shall for any the offences aforesaid commit any person or persons to Ward, as is aforesaid, shall within tenne dayes next after such committing, with one other Iustice, whereof one of them to be of the Quorum, direct their precept to the Shirife or Shirifes of the Countie, where the offence shall be committed, or to other ordinarie officer, if it bee within any Citie or Towne corporate, where the Shirife cannot intromit, commaunding him or them by the same to impanell and returne, as they shall assigne foure and twentie good and lawfull men of his or their Bayliwike or Bayliwikes, to enquire of the said offence or offences, the which any such person or persons shall be so imprisoned for. And thereupon within one moneth after the date of the said precept to proceed and determine, as aboue is expressed. Euery one of the same Iustices, vpon paine of x. l. to be payed to the Kings and Quenes Highnesse, as often as they shall be found in default of any the same. Prouided also, and be it enacted, That this Act shall be proclaimed in all the Shires within the Realme, before the twelfth day of Februarie next comming, to the intent that all persons may haue notice thereof, and auoid the perill and danger that might ensue by offending against the same. And this Act to be onely in force vntill the end of the next Parliament, & no longer. Prouided alwayes, and be it &c. That none of the Peeres of this Realme shalbe arrested or imprisoned for any of the said offences, but onely by order or commaundement giuen from the King and Quenes priuie Councell, or of the heyres of the Quene, and that the said Peeres, and euery of them that shall hereafter fortune to be indicted of any of the offences aforesaid, shall be tried by their Peeres, as before hath beene accustomed in cases of Treason or Felony. Anno 1. & 2. Phil. & Mar ca. 3. And after Anno 2. & 3. Phil. & Mar ca. 21. it was continued to the last day of the next Parliament. And after Anno 4. & 5. Phil. & Mar cap. 9. it was continued to the last day of the next Parliament. And after Anno 1. Elizab. capit. 7. this Act was made to extend to the Queene, as followeth.

5 Be it declared, ordained and enacted by authority of this present parliament, That the sayd Act and Statute made in the said first and second yeares of the raignes of the saide late King and Quene, and continued, as is aforesaid, and all and euery branch, article, words, sentences, clauses, prouisions, and things therein contained, shal from henceforth by authority of this present parliament be expounded, iudged, taken and deemed in all things to extend to the Quenes highnes that now is, as fully and largely to all intents, constructions, and purposes, as though the same Act had by expresse words extended to the heires and successors of the said late Quene, any question, ambiguity, or doubt, growen, risen, or made, or hereafter happning to grow, rise or to be moued to the contrarie in any thing notwithstanding. Anno 1. Elizab. capit. 7. But those two Acts be repealed during this Queenes life, and another course taken, as here followeth, 6.

6 Whereas in and by the lawes and statutes of this Realme already made and ordained against seditious words and rumours, vttered against the Quéenes most excellent Maiestie, there is not sufficient and condigne punishment prouided for to suppresse the malice of such as be euill affected towards her Highnesse: Be it therefore enacted by the authoritie of this present Parliament, that if any person or persons, after the end of xl. dayes next ensuing thend of this present session of parl. shal aduisedly and with a malitious intent of his or their owne imagination, speake any false, seditious, and slaunderous newes, rumours, sayings, or tales against our said most naturall soueraigne Lady the Quéenes Maiestie, that now is, That then all and euerie such person and persons so offending, being thereof lawfully conuicted or attainted, in forme hereafter in this present Act exprssed, shall for euery such first offence, either be in some market place within the shire, citie, or borough where the said words were, or shall be so spoken, set openly vpon the pillorie by the sherife or his ministers, if it shall fortune to be without any citie or towne corporate: And if it shall happen to be within anie citie or towne corporate, then by the principall officer or officers of such city or towne corporat, or his or their ministers, and there to haue both his eares cut off, or at the election of the offender, to pay two hundred pounds, to the Quéenes Highnesse vse in her Maiesties receit of the Exchequer, within two months next after the iudgements giuen of his said offence, and also shall suffer imprisonment by the space of six months after such his or their conuiction without baile or mainprise. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all and euerie person and persons, which after the end of the said xl. daies, shall aduisedly and with a malitious intent against our said soueraigne Lady, report anie false, seditious and slaunderous newes, rumours, or tales to the slaunder and defamation of our said soueraigne Lady the Quéenes Maiestie (that now is) of the speaking or reporting of any other, that then all and euery such person or persons so reporting, being thereof conuicted and attainted in forme hereafter in this Act exprssed, shall for euerie such first offence, either be in some Market place within the shire, city, borough, or towne where the said words were, or shall be so reported, set openly vpon the Pillorie by the Sherife or his Ministers, if it shall fortune to be without anie City or Towne Corporate: and if it shall happen to be within any City or Towne Corporate, then by the principall Officer or Officers of such City or Towne Corporate, or his or their Ministers, and there to haue one of his eares cut off, or at the election of the offender, pay CC. Markes to the Quéenes Highnesse vse, in her Maiesties said receit of the Exchequer, within two Moneths next after the Iudgement giuen of his said offence, and also shall suffer imprisonment by the space of three moneths after such his or their conuiction, without baile or mainprise. And be it further &c. by the authoritie aforesaid, That if any person or persons, once lawfully conuicted for any of the offences aforesaid, doe afterwards eftsoones offend in any of the offences aforesaid, that then euery such second offence to be deemed and adiudged felonie, and the offender and the offenders therein, to suffer such paines of death and forfeiture, as in case of felonie, without any benefite of Cleargie, or Sanctuarie to be allowed vnto the offender in that behalfe. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that if any person or persons, after the end of the said fortie daies, either within this Realme, or in any other the Quéenes Dominions, or in any other place out of the Quéenes Dominions, shall aduisedly and with a malicious intent against our said Soueraigne Lady, deuise, and write, print, or set forth any maner of Booke, Rime, Ballade, Letter or Writing, containing any false, seditious, and slaunderous matter to the defamation of the Quéenes Maiesty, that now is, or to the incouraging, stirring or moouing of any insurrection or rebellion within this realme, or any the dominions belonging to the same, or if anie Person or Persons after the end of the said fortie dayes, either within this Realme or other the Quéenes Dominions, or in anie other Place out of the Quéenes Dominions, shall aduisedly and with a malicious intent against our said soueraigne Lady, procure or cause any such booke, rime, ballade, letter, or writing, to be written, Printed, Published, or Set forth, (and the said offence not being punishable by the Statute made in the fiue and twentieth yeare of the Raigne of King Edward the third concerning treason, or Declaratio of treason, (Which see in Treason 1.) or by any other Statute whereby anie Offence is made or declared Treason:) That then euerie such Offence shall be deemed and adiudged Felonie, and the Offenders therein being therein Conuicted and Attainted, shall suffer such paines of death and Forfeiture, as in case of Felonie is vsed, without anie Benefite of Clergie or Sanctuarie to be allowed vnto the Offender in that behalfe. And for that diuerse Persons wickedly disposed, and forgetting their Duetie and Allegeaunce, haue of late not onely wished her Maiesties death, but also by diuerse meanes practised and sought to know how long her Highnesse should liue, and who should reigne after her decease, and what changes and alterations should thereby happen: to the intent that such mischieues and inconueniences as may thereby grow in the common weale, to the great disturbance of the same, may be cut off and be preuented: Be it also enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, That if any person or persons, of what estate, condition, or degree soeuer he or they be, at any time after the end of the said forty daies, and during the life of our said soueraigne Ladie the Quenes Maiestie, (that now is) either within her Highnesse Dominions, or without, shall by setting or erection of anie figure or figures, or by casting of nativities, or by calculation, or by any prophecying, witchcraft, coniurations, or other like vnlawfull meanes whatsoeuer, seeke to know, and shall set forth by expresse words, deeds, or writings, how long her Maiestie shal liue or continue, or who shall raigne as King or Queene of this Realme of England, after her Highnesse decease, or else shal aduisedly and with a malitious intent against her Highnesse, vtter any maner of direct prophecies to any such intent or purpose, or shall malitiously by any words, writing, or printing, wish, wil or desire the death or depriuation of our Soueraigne Ladie the Quenes Maiestie (that now is) or any thing directly to the same effect, that then euery such offence shall be Felonie, and euery offender and offenders therein, and all his or their Aiders, procurers, and abettors, in, or to the said offences, shall be iudged as Felons, and shall suffer such paines of death and forfeiture, as in case of Felonie is vsed, without any benefit of Clergie or Sanctuarie. And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, that the Iustices of the Court, commonly called the Kings Bench, Iustices of Dyer and Determiner, Iustices of Assises in their seuerall circuites, and Iustices of generall gaole deliuerie, as well within Liberties, as without, within the limites of their seuerall Commissions, shall by vertue hereof, haue full power and authoritie to enquire of, and to heare and determine all and euery the offences aforesaid, and that the partie indited and arraigned of any of the offences aforesaid, shall haue aduantage of all manner of challenges to the Iury, as in triall of felonie is vsed. And also that all Iustices of Peace, as well within Liberties, as without, within the limits of their seuerall Commissions, in their generall or quarter Sessions, shall by vertue hereof, haue full power and authoritie to enquire of all and euery the offences aforesaid, and to cause the offender and offenders therein, to be indicted without any further proceeding therein. And that also euery Iustice of Peace within the limits of his Commission, shall haue full power and authoritie, to cõmit any person being vehemently suspected of any of the said offences, to ward, vnlesse he do put in sureties, to make his personall apparance at the next quarter sessions, or gaole deliuerie, and in default of finding such sureties, then to commit him to prison, there to remaine, vntill he shall find sureties for his apparance, as is aforesaid. And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, that all Offences made Felonie by this Act, which hereafter shall be done or committed by any person or persons out of this Realme of England, shall be from henceforth inquired of, heard, and determined before the Quenes Maiesties Iustices of her Bench for Pleas to be holden before her selfe, by good and lawfull men of the same Countie where the same Bench shall be kept, in like maner and forme to all intents and purposes, as if the same offences had beene done and committed within the same Countie where they shall so be inquired of, heard and determined: any thing to the contrarie notwithstanding. Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no maner of person or persons, shalbe molested or impeached for any of the offences, concerning speaking or reporting as is aforesaid, vnlesse he or they be thereof accused within one month next after such words so spoken or reported, before some one Iu. of peace, and the witnesses therein to be vsed, named to the same Iustice, and the same accusation and witnesses names put in writing by the said Iustice, and certified at the next Quarter Sessions or Gaole Deliuerie: And vnlesse such offender also be indicted within one yere next after his or their said offence so supposed to be committed or done. Prouided also, & be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, that euery such Maior or Maiors, Baylife, or other head officer of cities, boroughs & townes corporate, which haue, or hereafter shall haue iurisdiction and authority within the seuerall limits of their office or offices, to hold and keepe sessions as Iustice or Iustices of the Peace, shall and may by the authoritie hereof, as well arrest and commit to ward or baile, in maner and forme aforesaid, all and euery person and persons, being vehemently suspected of any the offences aforesaid, as also to enquire of all & euerie the Offences aforesaid, & to proceed to the indicting of euery such offender without any further proceeding therein: Any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding. Prouided also & be it enacted, That this present Act shall be proclaimed in all the counties within this Realme, before the end of 28. dayes next insuing the end of this present Session of Parliament, to the intent that all persons may haue notice thereof, and thereby to auoid the perill and daunger that may ensue by offending against the same. Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, That the Peeres of this Realme, and euery of them that shall hereafter fortune to be indicted of any the Offences aforesaid, shall be tried by their Peeres, as before hath been accustomed in cases of treason and felony. Prouided also, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, That this Act nor any thing therein contained, nor any attainder or attainders of any person or persons, for any offence or offences made felony by this Act, shall in any wise extend or be adiudged, interpreted, or expounded, to make the offender or offenders to forfeit or lose any lands, tenements, or hereditaments any longer, then onely during his own life, or to make any corruption of blood to any the heire or heires of any such offender or offenders, or to make the wife of any such offender to lose or forfeit her dower or title of dower, of, or in anie

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons ſhall bee hereafter indicted or arraigned, for any offence or offences, touching or concerning ſpeaking or reporting as aforeſaid vnleſſe the ſame offence or offences be proued by the teſtimony, depoſition, and others of two ſufficient witneſſes, at the time of his or their inditement, which ſaid witneſſes alſo, at the time of the arraignement of the party ſo indited, ſhall be brought forth in perſon before the party ſo arraigned face to face, and there ſhall openly declare all they can ſay againſt the ſaid party ſo Indicted, vnleſſe the ſaid party ſo indicted ſhall willingly and without violence confeſſe the ſame. And be it likewiſe enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the Statuts of the firſt and ſecond yeres of King Philip and Queene Mary entituled (An act againſt ſeditious words and rumors) and one other Act of Parliament made in the firſt yeare of the raigne of our ſaid Soueraigne Lady the Queenes Maieſtie (that now is) whereby it is prouided and enacted that the ſaid former act ſhall extend to and for our ſaid Soueraigne Lady the Queenes Maieſtie that now is, and euery clauſe, Article, and ſentence in euerie of the ſaid acts and Statutes, ſhall from and after the proclamation of this act, be repealed and void to all intents and purpoſes, for ſo long time as this act ſhall continue in full ſtrength and perfect force. And be it likewiſe enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act, nor any thing therin contained, ſhal haue continuance, or be in force for any longer time, then onely during the naturall life of our ſaid ſoueraigne Lady the Queenes moſt excellent Maieſtie that now is, whome God long preſerue to his glory, her Highneſſe honour and ſafety, and to the common wealth of all her Maieſties Dominions, Amen. Anno 23. Eliz. cap. 2.

Niſi prius.

FRom henceforth two Juſtices ſworne ſhall be aſſigned, before whom & none other, aſſiſes of Nouel diſſeiſin, Mordancester, and attaints ſhal be taken, and ſhall aſſociate with them, two or one of the diſcreeteſt Knights of the Shire, into which they ſhal come, and ſhal take the foreſaid aſſiſes & attaints but thrice in the yeare at the moſt, that is to ſay. Firſt betweene the Quinzim of Saint John Baptiſt and the guile of Auguſt, & the ſecond time betweene the feaſt of the Exaltation of the Croſſe, and the Mas of Saint Michael, and the third time betweene the feaſt of the Epiphany, and the Feaſt of the Purification. And in euery ſhire at euery taking of Aſſiſes, before their departure, they ſhal appoint the date of their returne, ſo that euery one of the ſhire may know of their comming, and ſhall adiourne the aſſiſes from terme to terme, if the taking of them be deferred at any day by vouching to warrantie, by eſſoine, or by default of iurors. And if they ſee that it be profitable for any cauſe, that aſſiſes of Mortdancester being reſpected by eſſoine or voucher, ought to be adiourned into the bench: it ſhall be lawfull for them to doe it, and then they ſhall ſend the Record with the originall writ before the Juſticers of the Bench. And when the matter is come to the taking of the aſſiſe, the Juſticers of the bench ſhal remit the mater to the firſt Juſticers before whome the Aſſiſe ſhall be taken. But from henceforth the Juſticers of the Bench in ſuch aſſiſes ſhall giue foure daies at the leaſt in the yere, before the ſaid Juſtices aſſigned, for to ſpare expence and labour. Inquiſition of treſpaſſe ſhall be determined before the Juſticers of both benches, except the treſpaſſe be ſo hainous that it ſhal require great examinatiõ. Inquiſitiõs alſo of other pleas pleaded in either of the benches ſhall bee determined before them, wherein ſmall examination is required, as when the entrie or ſeiſin of any is denied, or in caſe when one article is to be inquired. But Inquiſition of many and great articles, the which require great examination, ſhall be taken before Juſticers of the bench, except ỳ both parties deſire ỳ the Inquiſition may be taken afore ſome of the aſſociates when they happen to come into thoſe parts, ſo that frõ henceforth it ſhal not be done but by ỳ. Juſtices, or one with ſome knight of the ſhire, vpon whome the parties can agrée. And ſuch Inquiſition ſhall not be determined before any Juſticers of the bench, vnleſſe a day and a place certain be appointed in the Shire in the preſence of the parties, and the day and place ſhall be mentioned in a writ iudiciall by theſe words: Præcipimus tibi, quod venire facias coram Iuſticiarijs noſtris apud Weſtmonaſterum in Octauis Sancti Michaelis (niſi talis, et talis, tali die & loco ad partes illas priº venerint) duodecim &c. And when ſuch manner of Enquells be taken, they ſhall be returned into the Bench, & there ſhal iudgement be giuen and inrolled. And if any Inquiſitions be taken otherwiſe then after this forme, they ſhall be of none effect, except that aſſiſe of Darrein preſentment, and inquiſitions of Quare impedit ſhall be deliuered in their owne ſhire before one Juſticer of the bench and one knight, at a day and place certaine in the bench aſſigned, whether the defendãt conſent or not, and there the iudgement ſhal be giuen immediately. All Juſticers of the Benches from henceforth ſhall haue in their circuits, Clerkes to inroll all Pleas pleaded before them, like as they haue vſed to haue in time paſſed. Alſo it is ordeined, that the Juſticers aſſigned to take aſſiſes, ſhall not compell the Iurors to ſay preciſely, whether it be diſſeiſin or not, ſo that they doe ſhew the truth of the deed, and require aid of the Juſticers. But if they of their owne head will ſay, that it is diſſeiſin, their verdict ſhall be admitted at their owne perill. And from henceforth the Juſtices ſhall not put in Aſſiſes or Iuries, any other then were ſummoned to the ſame at the firſt. Weſt. 2. cap. 30. An. 13. Ed. 1.

2 Where we haue prouided, that none ſhall be impanelled any where out of the ſhire where hee is dwelling, in recogniſances, Inquells, and iuries, that that hath leſſe then an hundred ſhillings, of land or rent, whereby aſwell they that haue more lands by too often appearing as well in our Eſchequer, as before one Juſtices of either bench, are much impouerished: we therefore conſidering the intolerable dammage of our people, not onely for the diſcharge of ſuch Iurors, but alſo for the more ſpeedie miniſtration of Juſtice to all parties ſuing in our Court, haue prouided and ordeined, that inquells, and recogniſances determinable before Juſtices of either bench, from henceforth ſhall be taken in time of vacation, before any of the Juſtices, before whome the plea is brought, being aſſociate to one knight of the ſame ſhire, where ſuch enquells ſhall paſſe, vnleſſe it be an enquell that requireth great examination. And ſo from henceforth in taking ſuch enquells, the Juſtices ſhall doe as to them ſhall ſéeme moſt expedient, for the common vtility of our Realme notwithſtanding the Statute lately made at Weſtminſter, vpon the taking of ſuch enquells, containing that if any enquells be taken contrarie to the forme of the ſaide Statute, they ſhould be of none effect. And therefore we commaund, ſtraightly charging thée, that incontinent without further delay, thou ſhalt cauſe to be read & publiſhed in Cities, boroughs, market townes, and other ſolemne places thorowout thy libertie, where thou ſhalt thinke moſt neceſſarie, of the Articles aboueſaid, ẏ which we haue grãted, willing them to be kept and obſerued ſtedfaſtly and without cõtradiction, and that thou notifie and declare all and ſinguler the premiſſes to al our liege people without delay, witneſſe, &c. 3 Where it is conteined in a Statute made at Weſtminſter, the ſecond day of Aprill, the ſeuen & twentieth yeare of the raigne of the kings father that now is, that Enquells and Recogniſances, taken before the Juſticers of either bench, ſhould be taken before any Juſtice of the places, accompanied with ſome knight of the Shire where ſuch inquells happen to be taken, if they haue not néed of great examination: And that in ſuch inquells, the Juſtices ſhall doe as they ſhall thinke moſt expedient for the weale of the Realme: the which ſtatute néedeth to be better declared. It is agréed, that inquells and iuries that hap to be taken hereafter in pleas of land, that require not great examination, ſhall be taken in the country before a Juſtice of the place where the plea is, accompained with a ſubſtantiall man of the countrey, a knight or other, ſo that a certaine day be giuen in the Bench, and a certaine day and place in the countrey, in preſence of the parties demanding the ſame. none of the Juſtices of the ſame place goe, the Niſi prius ſhall be granted before any Juſtice of the K. bench, and doe as afore is ſaid of the Juſtices of the common bench: And the tenor of the record ſent to the ſame Juſtice, he ſhall haue like power as afore is ſaid of Juſtices of the Common bench, which be aſſigned to take Enquells and Juries of the Kings Bench and if it happen that none of the Juſtices of the one bench nor the other, may come in the countrey, where Enquells or Juries be to be taken, then the Niſi prius ſhal be granted before the chiefe Baron of the Eſchequer, if he be a man of the law, and he ſhall haue ſuch power as the Juſtices of the one Bench or the other haue by this ſtatute. And in caſe that none of the Juſtices of the one bench & the other, nor the chief baron of the Eſchequer being a man of the law, do not come in the Countrey where the Enquells & Juries be or ſhal be taken by the Niſi prius then the Niſi pri⁹ ſhal be grãted before ŷ Juſtices aſſigned to take aſſiſes in thoſe parts: So alwaies that one of the ſaid Juſtices aſſigned, be Juſtice of the one Bench or the other, or the kings Serieant ſworne. And the ſame Juſtices ſhall haue ſuch power as afore is ſaid of the Juſtices of the one bench and of the other. THe writ of Trespasse to heare and determine from henceforth shall not be granted before any Iustices, except the Iustices of either Bench, and Iustices in Eire, but onely for a great trespasse, where hastie remedie is required. And our Lord the King hath granted this of his especiall grace: neither also hereafter shall be graunted a writ to heare & determin appeales before Iustices assigned, but in speciall case, and in case when our Lord the King shall command it: But least that such appealées and indictées be too long kept in prison, let them haue a writ of Odio & atia, as in Magna Charta, & other Statutes, it is said. West. 2. cap. 29.

2 Per Statutum quod vocatur ragmana de Iustic. assignatis, it was ordeined, that Iustices shold goe through England to heare and determine trespasses, and other complaints of things done within fiue and twenty yeares before, and diuers matters be in that statute concerning those things.

3 For the punishment of felonies, robberies, Manslaughters, trespasses, and oppressions of the people committed in times past, it is accorded that our soueraigne Lord the King shall assigne Iustices in diuers place of this land within the Kings Bench and elsewhere, as it was done in the time of his said Grandfather, of great men of the land, which be of great power, with some of the Iustices of the one Bench or of the other, with other learned men in the law, to enquire aswell at the suit of the party, as at the Kings suit, and to heare and determine all maner of felonies, robberies, manslaughters, theft, oppressions, conspiracies, and grieuances done to the people against the law, Statutes and customes of the land, aswell by the Kings ministers, as by other whatsoeuer they be, and that aswel within Franchise as without. And also to enquire of Shiriffes, Coroners, Vndershiriffes, Hundredors, Bailifes, Constables, & all other ministers within Liberties and without, and of their Vnderministers. And to heare and determine at the Kings suit, and also the parties. And our Soueraigne Lord the King, and all the great men of the Realme in the full Parliament, haue taken vpon them to mainteine and keepe the P. And they and theirs to haue the Kings Iustices & aide them where they come, so that the iudgement and execution be not let, but executed. And that the offendors be not hid by them, nor mainteined priuily nor apertly. But the intent of the King & of the Councell is not, that by this act any preiudice should ensue to the great men of the land hauing liberties, nor to the City of London, nor to other Cities nor Boroughes, nor to the fiue Ports in the right of their franchise. pit. 16. And the like 35. Fliz. And the like 39. Elizab. And Anno 43. Elizab. A generall pardon with many exceptions, as followeth. The Quéns Maiestie most gratiously considering the good will and faithful hearts of her most louing and obedient subiects, which, as at al times, so at this present specially, they haue with most dutiful affection shewed towards her Highnesse: and for the defence of this Realme: And vnderstanding that the same her louing subiects haue many and sundry wayes by the Lawes and Statutes of this Realme, fallen into the danger of diuers great penalties & forfeitures: Is of her Princely and mercifull disposition most graciously inclined by hir liberall and frée Pardon, to discharge some part of those great paines, forfeitures, and penalties, wherewith her said Subiects stand now burthened and charged, trusting they will be thereby the rather moued and induced from henceforth more carefully to obserue her Highnesse Lawes and Statutes, and to continue in their loiall and due obedience to her Maiestie. And therefore hir Maiesty is wel pleased and contented, that it be enacted by the authority of this present Parliament, in manner and forme following: that is to say, That all and euery the said Subiects, as well spirituall as temporall of this her Highnes Realme of England, Wales, the Iles of Jerneley & Garnsey, and the towne of Barwike, the heyres, successors, executors, & administrators of them, and euery of them, and all & singuler bodies in any maner of wise corporated, cities, boroughs, shires, ridings, hundreds, lathes, rapes, wapentakes, townes, villages, hamlets, and tythings, and euery of them, and the successor and successours of euery of them, shal be by the authority of this present parliament, acquited, pardoned, and released and discharged against the Quénes Maiestie, her heires and successors, and euery of them, of all maner of treasons, felonies, offences, contempts, trespasses, entries, wrongs, deceits, misdemeanors, forfeitures, penalties, and summes of money, paines of death, paines corporall and pecuniarie, and generally of all other things, causes, quarrells, suites, iudgements, and executions in this present Act hereafter not excepted nor foreprised, which may be, or can be by her Highnesse in any wise, or by any means pardoned, before and vnto the vj. day of August last past, to euery or any of her said subiects, bodies corporated, cities, boroughs, shires, ridings, hundreds, lathes, rapes, wapentakes, townes, villages, and tythings, or any of them. And also the Quénes Highnesse is contented, That it be enacted by the authoritie of this present Parliament, that her said frée Pardon shall be as good and effectuall in the Law to euery of her said subiects, bodies corporate, and others before rehearsed, in, for, and against all things which be not hereafter in this present Act excepted and foreprised, as the same pardon should haue béen, if all offences, contempts, forfeitures, causes, matters, suites, quarrels, iudgements, executions, penalties, and all other things not hereafter in this present Act excepted and foreprised, had béen particularly, singularly, specially, and plainely named, rehearsed, and specified, and also pardoned by proper and expresse wordes and names in their kindes, natures, and qualities, by words and termes thereunto requisite to haue béen put in, and expressed in this present Act of frée pardon: And that her said subiects, nor any of them, nor the heyres, executors, or administrators of any of them, nor the said bodies corporate, & other before named and rehearsed, nor anie of them be, nor shal be sued, vexed, or inquieted in their bodies, goods, chattels, lands, or tenemẽts, for any maner of matter, cause, contempt, misdemeanor, forfeiture, trespas, offence, or any other thing suffred, done, or cõmitted before the said vj. day of August against her Highnes, her crowne, dignitie, prerogatiue, lawes, or statutes, but only for such matters, causes, and offences, as be rehearsed, mentioned, or in some wise touched in the exceptions of this present Act hereafter mentioned to be foreprised and excepted, and for none other: Any statute or statutes, laws, customes, or vsages heretofore had, made, or vsed, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding. And the Quénes Highnesse of her bounteous liberalitie, by the authoritie of this present Parliament, graunteth, and frely giueth to euery of her Subiects, and to euery of the said bodies corporate, and other before rehearsed, and euery of them, all goods, chattels, debts, fines, issues, profits, amerciamẽts, forfeitures, and summes of money by any of them forfeited, which to her Highnesse doe, or should belong or appertaine by reason of any offence, contempt, trespasse, entrie, misdemeanour, matter, cause, or quarrell done, or committed by them, or any of them, before the said seuenth day of August, which be not hereafter in this present Act foreprised and excepted. And be it enacted neuertheless, That all graunts thereof, or of anie part thereof, made by any such as haue so forfeited the same, and are hereby restored as aforesaid, and all executions thereof, or of any part thereof, had against any such after such forfeiture thereof committed or made, shall be of such force and effect, as if no such forfeiture thereof had béne had or made, and of no other the same forfeiture, or any thing before in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding. And that al and euery the Quénes said subiects, and all and singuler bodies corporate, and others before rehearsed, may by him or themselues, or by his or their deputie or deputies, or by his or their Atturney or Atturneys, according to the Lawes of this Realme, pleade and minister this present Act of frée pardon for his or their discharge, of, and for any thing that is by vertus of this present Act pardoned, discharged, giuen, or graunted, without any fée or other thing in any wise paying to anie person or persons for writing or entrie of the iudgements, or other cause concerning such plea, writing, or entry, but only xvj. d. to be payed to the officer or clerke that shal enter such plea, matter, or iudgemẽt for ỹ parties discharged in that behalfe: any law, statute, vsage, or custome to the contrary notwithstanding. And furthermore, the Qu. Highnesse is contented and pleased, that it be enacted by the authoritie of this present Parliament, that her said frée pardon by the generall words, clauses, and sentences be-

And also excepted out of this pardon, all maner of extortions whatsoeuer, and also excepted all couens, frauds, deceits, and other disorders and misdemeanors whatsoeuer heretofore committed or done by any Steward of her Maiesties manors or courts, vndersherife, or by any officer or minister, in anie of her Highnes courts, in, or by reason, or colour of any of their offices or places, or any their deputies or clerkes: And all offences of ayding, comforting, assisting, or procuring of any vndersherife, or anie such officer, minister, or clerk, in contriuing, doing or executing any such extortion, exaction, couen, fraud, deceit, disorder, or misdemeanor. And also excepted all offences, contempts, disorders, and misdemeanors, committed or done by anie person or persons, contrary to the Lawes of the Forests, within the circuit, or precinct of her Maiesties forests of Windsor and Waltham, or of either of them, and all penalties for the same. And also excepted out of this pardon, all issues, fines, and amerciaments, being totted, leuied, or receiued by any sherife, vndersherife, baylife, minister, or other officer, to, or for the Quenes Maiesties vse or behoofe, before the last day of this present Session of Parliament, and all issues, fines, and amerciaments, afferred, tared, set, estreated, or entred seuerally, or particularly, touching or concerning anie one person or moe persons, ioyntly, or seuerally, aboue the summe of fiue pounds. And also excepted all issues, fines and amerciaments returned, afferred, tared, set, or entred seuerally, or particularly in any Court of Record at Westminster, at any time sithence the feast of the holy Trinitie last past. And yet neuertheless, all other fines, as well fines pro licentia concordandi, as others, set, tared, estreated, or entred before the said feast of the holy Trinitie, and also all issues, and amerciaments, as well reall as others, within any Liberties, or without, being set, tared, estreated or entred before the saide feast of the holie Trinitie, and which seuerally or particularly extend to, or vnder the summe of fiue pounds, and not aboue, whether they be estreated or not estreated, or whether they be turned into debt, or not turned into debt, and not being totted, leuied, or receiued by any sherife, vndersherife, minister, or other officer, to or for the Quenes Maiesties vse or behoofe, before the last day of this present Session of Parliament, shalbe freely, cleerely, and plainly pardoned & discharged against the Qu. maiesty, her heires and successors for euer, by force of this present Act of free Pardon. And yet neuertheless, all estreats of such fines, issues, and amerciaments, as be now pardoned by this Act, and which be already estreated forth of the court of Eschequer, and beremaining in the hand of the sherife, vndersherife, or bailife for collecting of the same fines, issues, and amerciaments, shall vpon the returne of the same estreats, be orderly charged and deliuered by scrowes into the office of the Pipe in the Court of Eschequer, as heretofore hath beene accustomed, to the intent that thereupon order may be taken, that her Maiestie may be truly answered of all such fines, issues, and amerciaments, not by this Act pardoned, and which any sherife, vndersherife, bailife, or other officer or minister hath receiued, or ought to answere by force or colour of anie such estreate, processe, or precept to him or them made, for the leuying thereof: And yet that notwithstanding, all and euery sherife and sherifes, and other accountant vpon his or their petition, or petitions to be made for the allowāce of any such fines, issues and amerciaments, as by this Act is pardoned, shal haue all & euery such his, and their petition allowed in his and their account and accounts, without paying any fee or reward to any officer, clerke, or other minister, for the making, entring, or allowing of any such petition or petitions, any vsage, or custome to the contrary thereof notwithstanding. And also excepted out of this pardon, all goods, cattels, debts, actions and suites already forfeited, or whereof anie right or title is accrued or growen to the Quenes Maiestie by reason of any Outlawry, and whereof the Quenes maiesty by her Highnesse Letters Pa. hath before the last day of this present session of parliament made any grant, couenant, or promise to any person or persons. And also excepted out of this pardon all such persons, which haue committed or done anie offence or offences contrarie to the tenor or effect of the Statute made in the xrvj. yeare of her Maiesties raigne, intituled, An Act against Iesuites, Seminarie priests, and other such disobedient persons, or of anie part thereof: and all outlawries, proceedings, iudgements, and executions vpon the same offences or anie of them. And also excepted all persons, which haue committed or done any offence, contrarie to the Statute made in the xrij. yeare of her Maiesties raigne, intituled, An Act to retaine the Quenes Maiesties Subiects in their due obedience, or any part thereof: and all Outlawries, Proceedings, and Iudgements, and Executions vpon the same offences or any of them, for such or so long time as they shal continue disobedient or wilfully obstinate in any the same offences. And yet neuertheless, whensoeuer the same persons, or any of them shall willingly submit themselues in their due obedience to her Maiesty, and wil come to the church to heare diuine seruice, and willingly refuse the said wilfull obstinacy, and conforme themselues in the said causes of religion and doctrine, and continue in such their conformity and due obedience to her Maiesty, according as by the Lawes and Statutes of this Realme they ought to doe: That then and from thenceforth all and euerie such person and persons, so submitting and yeelding themselues in their due obedience towards her Maiestie, and so continuing the same shal forthwith be receiued and enabled by force of this Act, to haue and enioy the full benefit of this generall Pardon, as largely and fully in all respects, as any other of her Maiesties good Subiects haue or ought to enioy by vertue of this Act of generall Pardon. And also excepted out of this Pardon, all such persons as be and remaine maine ſtill attainted or condemned, and not alreadie pardoned, of, or for any rebellion, or levying of warre, or of, or for any conſpiracie of any Rebellion or levying of warre within this realme, or in any other the Quenes dominions. And alſo excepted all falſe forging and counterfeiting of any Cõmiſſion or Commiſſions to enquire of any lands, tenements, or her editaments, and alſo all falſe forging and counterfeiting of any vntrue Certificate, or returne of any Commiſſion or Commiſſions, obtained or gotte forth of any court or courts, to enquire of any lands, tenemẽts, or other things whatſoeuer: And all and all maner falſifying of any particular, or of any Bill or Bils ſigned by her Maieſtie, after the engroſſing thereof, and before the paſſing of the ſame vnto the great Seale. And alſo except out of this Pardon, all offences committed or done by any perſon or perſons in new building, dividing of tenemẽts, taking of inmates, new incloſures, and other Nuſances in any place within the Citie of London, and Suburbes of the ſame, or within three miles of the ſaid citie, contrary to the Lawe, or any her Maieſties Proclamations in that behalfe made. Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authorities aforeſaid, that it ſhall and may be lawful to all and euery clerk and other officers of the Quenes Courts, to award & make writs of Capias Vtlagat. at the ſuite of the partie plaintife againſt ſuch perſons outlawed as be pardoned by this act, to the intent to compell the defendant and defendants to make anſwer to the plaintife and plaintifes, at whoſe ſuite he or they were outlawed, and that euery perſon ſo outlawed, ſhall ſue a writ of Scire facias againſt the partie or parties, at whoſe ſuite he or they were ſo outlawed, before this Pardon in that behalfe ſhall bee allowed to him or them that is ſo outlawed. Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the authority of this preſent parliamẽt, that this act of general pardon ſhall not in any wiſe extend to any perſon outlawed vpon any writ of Capias ad ſatisfaciendum, vntill ſuch time as the perſon ſo outlawed ſhall ſatiſfie, or otherwiſe agree with the partie at whoſe ſuit the ſame perſon was ſo outlawed or condemned. Prouided likewiſe, and be it enacted, that neither this act of generall pardon, nor any thing therin contained, ſhal in any wiſe extend to any perſon, that is, or ſhall be put to execution, at any time before tenne dayes, after the end of this ſeſſion of parliament: Or to pardon and diſcharge any offence or miſdemeanor committed or done by any Purueyour, or other Taker whatſoeuer, in taking or purueying of any prouiſion whatſoeuer for the Quenes Maieſties houſhold, or otherwiſe to the Quenes highnes behoofe, or by pretence or colour thereof, contrary vnto, or againſt any the laws or ſtatuts in that behalfe made or ordeined. Prouided alſo, & be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that neyther this act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall extend to pardon or diſcharge any offece committed or done by any Commiſſioner, Captain, or other perſon whatſoeuer, in the corrupt taking or hauing of any money or other gift or reward for the changing, releaſing, or diſcharging of any Souldier preſt or appointed to ſerue her Maieſtie in the defence of the Realme or otherwiſe: or any offence cõmitted or done by any againſt ỹ eccleſiaſticall State or gouernement eſtabliſhed in this Realme, or any Hereſie or Schiſme in Religion whatſoeuer.

14 The King willing to make plaine declaration of the said Statute (s. Anno 8. H. 6. cap. 7. before 13.) by the aduise & assent aforesaid, and at the speciall request of the said commons, hath ordeined ordained that the knights of all the cõties within the said Realme to be chosen to come to the Parliaments hereafter to be holden, shall be chosen in euery county by people dwelling and resiant in the same, whereof euery man shall haue freeholde to the value of fortie shillings by the yeere at the least, aboue all charges within the same Countie, where any such chuser will meddle with any such election. Anno 10.H.6.cap.2.

15 Whereas before this time diuers Shirifes in diuers Counties of England haue by colour of writs to them directed, to leuie the wages of the Knights of the Shires for the time being, of the Parliament of the King that now is, and of his noble progenitors, haue leuyed more money then hath beene due to the said Knights, and more then they haue deliuered, and keping and taking great part of the mony to their owne vse and profit, and to their officers and seruants, to the great damage of the common people of the saide Counties: The King considering the premisses, hath ordained by the authoritie aforesaid, that the Sherife of euerie County for the time being, in the next cõty court holden in their Counties, after the deliuerance of the said writs made to them, shall make open proclamation, that the Coroners and euery chief Cõstable of the peace of the said Counties, and the Bailifes of euery Hundred or Wapentake of the same Countie, and all other which will be at the assessing of the wages of the Knights of the shires, shall be at the nert Countie, there to be holden, to assesse the said wages of the saide Knights. And that the Shirife, Undershirife, Coroners, or Baylifes, for the time being, be there at the same time in their proper person, vpon paine of forfeiture to the King of euery of them that maketh default fortie shillings. At which time the said Shirife or Undershirife, in the presence of them that shal come to the same and of the suters of the said counties then being there in the full Countie, well and duely shal assesse euery Hundred to that assessable, by himself to pay a certain summe for the wages of ỹ knights of the Shire, so that the whole summe of all the Hundreds, doe not exceed the summe which shal be due to the said knights. And after that in the same Countie shall assesse well and lawfully, euerie Village within the said Hundreds, which shall be thereunto assessable, to a certaine summe of the said wages, so that the whole summe of all the Townes within any of the said Hundreds, doe not exceed the summe assessed vpon the Hundred of which they be. And that the said Sheriffes, Undersheriffes, Baylifes, nor none other Officer for the cause aforesaid, shall leuie more money of any Village, then that whereunto they were assessed, and that if any doe, or will assesse any Hundred or Village, otherwise then is aforesayde, that they shall forfeit for euery default, to the King twentie pounds, and to any man which will sue in this case tenne pounds. And that the saide Shirifes well and duely shall leuie the money so assessed vpon the foresayd villages, as hastily as they well may, after the sayd assessing, and the same shall deliuer to the sayd knights according to the writs therefore to be made, vpon the said paynes. And he that will sue in this case, shall be to that admitted, and shall haue for his action in this case a Scire facias against him that offendeth against this ordinance, and if the defendant duely warned in the same, make default, or else appeare and be in the same conuict, then the plaintifes shall recouer against them, which be so conuict, tenne poundes to their owne vse, ouer the said twentie poundes, with their treble damunages for the costes of their suit. And that the Justices of the Kings Bench, and of the Common place, Justices of Assises and Gaole deliuerie, and Justices of Peace in their Countrey shall haue power to inquire, heare and determine of all the sayd defaults, aswell by inquirie at the Kings suites, as by action at the suit of the parties. And that all such expences of Knights, shall not be leuyed of any other villages, Seigniories or places, but of such where they haue beene leuyed before this time. And that in euery such writ from henceforth to be made, to leuie the wages of the sayde Knights, this act shall be comprehended in the same. Anno 23.Hen.6. cap.11.

Prouided allways, that euery Knight, Citizen, & Burgesse to come to any Parliament, hereafter to be holden in due forme chosen and not returned, as afore is said, shall begin his action of debt aforesaid, within three moneths after the same Parliament, commenced, to proceed in the same suit effectually, without fraud, and if he so do not, an other that will sue, shall haue the said action of debt (as it is sayde) to haue and recouer the same sum, with his costes in this behalfe dispensed, in maner and form aforesaid, so that no defendant in such action shall wage his law, nor be essoined in any wise, as afore is said. And if any knight, citizen, or burgesse, hereafter returned by the shirif to come to the parliament, in ỳ maner aforesaid, after such return be by any perso put out, and another put in his place, that such person so put in the place of him which is out, if he take upon him to be knight, citizen, or burgesse, at any parliament in time to come, shall forfeit to the king one hundred pound, and an hundred pounde to the Knight, citizen, or burgesse so returned by the Shirife, and afterward, as afore is said, put out. And that the Knight, citizen, or burgesse, which is so put out shall haue an action of debt of the same C. pound against such person put in his place, his executors or administrators. Prouided allwayes, that he shall begin his suit within three moneths after the Parliament commenced. And if he doe not, then he that will sue shall haue an action of debt of the same hundred pound against him which is put in place of him that is so out after such returne, his executors or administrators. And that no defendant in such action shall wage his Lawe, nor be essoined. And that such proces shall be in actions aforesaid, as in a writ of trespasse done against the peace at the common Lawe, so that the Knights of the Shires, for the Parliament hereafter to be chosen, shall not bee able Knights of the same Counties, for the which they shall be chosen, or otherwise such notable Esquires and Gentlemen, being of the same Counties, as shal be able to be knights. Homage

2 Henry by the grace of God, King of Englād, Lord of Ireland, Duke of Guyon and Normandy, Earle of Angeo, to his trusty and welbeloued, Gerrard sonne of Maurice, Iusticer of Ireland, greeting. Whereas certaine Knights of the parts of Ireland, haue lately informed vs, that when any land doth descend vnto sisters within our dominion of Ireland, the Justices in Eire in those partes, are in doubt whether the Ponger sisters ought to hold of the eldest sister, and doe homage vnto her or not. And forasmuch as the sayde Knights haue made instance to be certified, how it hath beene vsed heretofore within our Realme of England in like case. At their instance, wee doe you to wit, that such a Lawe and custome is in England in this case, that if any holding of vs in chiefe, happen to die, hauing daughters to his heires, our auncestors and wee, after the death of the father, haue alway had and receiued homage of all the daughters, and euery of them, that in this case did hold of vs in chief. And if they happen to be within age, we haue alway had the ward and mariage of them. And if he be tenant vnto an other Lord (the sisters within the age) the Lord shal haue the warde and mariage of them all, and the eldest only shal do homage for her self, and all her sisters. And when the other sisters come to full age, they shall doe their seruice to the Lords of the Fee by

Yet ſhall not the eldeſt by this occaſion exact of her yonger ſiſters, homage, warde, or any other ſubiection: but when they be all ſiſters, and in maner as one heire to one inheritance, if the eldeſt ſhould haue homage of the other ſiſters, or demande warde, then the inheritance ſhould ſeeme to bee diuided, ſo that the eldeſt ſiſter ſhould be Lord and tenant of one inheritance (ſimul & ſemel), that is to ſay, heire of her owne part, and Lord to her ſiſters, which could not ſtand well together in this caſe, for the eldeſt can demaunde no more then her ſiſters, but onely the chiefe meaſe by reaſon of her ancientie. Moreouer, if the eldeſt ſiſter ſhould take homage of the yonger, ſhe ſhould be a Seigniorelle to them all, and ſhould haue the warde of them, and their heires, which ſhould be none other, but to caſt the Lambe to the Wolfe to bee deuoured. And therefore we commaund you, that you cauſe the aforeſaid cuſtoms that be vſed within our realm of England in this caſe, to be proclamed throughout our Dominion of Ireland, and to be ſtraitly kept and obſerued. Paſſage

Whereas before this time, a Horſeman was wont to haue his paſſage ouer the Sea, from the Port of Douer for two ſhillings, and a foteman for ſixpence, and now of late the keepers of the paſſage, and the paſſagers haue taken more, to the great damage of the people: It is agreed, that at the ſame Port, and all other paſſages of this land, aſwell in freſh waters, as in the armes of the Sea, they & doe paſſe, ſhal from henceforth pay as they were wont to pay in olde time, and of more ſhall they not be charged, nor ỳ paſſagers, nor ỳ perſon of ỳ paſſage ſhal take no more. And be it commaunded to the Conſtable of Douer, that he cauſe this article to be kept in his bailywike, vpon the perill, that thereto pertaineth. And if he find any offending this act, he ſhall punith him at euerie mans ſuit that will thereof complaine, & doe right. Be it alſo commaunded to the Bailifes at the places where ſuch paſſages be, that they do in like maner. And the Iuſtices of Aſſiſes in the Counties ſhall haue power to inquire if any offend in this Statute, and punith them, and doe right therein, aſwell at the kings ſute, as at the ſuit of the partie. 5 Forasmuch as the Commons of the Realme of England, being in the ſame Parliament, at the inſtance and ſpeciall requeſt of the faithfull liege people of our Soueraigne Lord the King, the Bailifs, Burgeſſes, and Comminaltie of the Towne of Tewkeſburie, within the Countie of Glouceſter, haue made to our Soueraigne Lord the K. a verie grieuous complaint in the ſame Parliament, That whereas the ſaid Towne of Tewkeſburie is adioyning to the riuer of Seuerne, within the ſaid Countie of Glouceſter, which riuer is common to all the liege people of our Soueraigne Lord the K. to carrie and bring, within the ſtreame of the ſayd riuer, in boats, troughes, and otherwiſe, all maner of marchandiſe, and other goods & cattell, to Briſtow, and to euerie part adioyning to the ſame riuer: In the which riuer diuers perſons of the ſayd Towne of Tewkeſburie, oftentimes, and now of late haue charged their proper veſſels and troughs with Wheat, Rie, and other corne and goods, to the value of fiue hundred pounds, and ſo the ſame veſſels and troughes ſo charged, haue conueyed in the ſame riuer towards the ſayd Towne of Briſtow, by the coaſts of the Foreſt of Deane, within the ſaid Countie of Glouceſter, ioyning to the ſaid riuer, there haue come great multitude of people, and couers of the Commons of the ſame Foreſt, and of the Hundred of Bledillow and Weſtburie, with great riot and force in manner of warre, as enemies of a ſtrange land, and with force haue ſpoyled the ſame perſons of the ſayd veſſels, and taken of them all their corne and goods within the ſame veſſels, and the ſame perſons haue menaced and threatned to, if they made any reſiſtance, or any ſuit, quaſell, or complaint for the ſame, to the great hinderance, loſſe, and impouerithment of the ſayd perſons, and oppreſſion of all the countrey there adioyning. And afterward the ſame our Soueraigne Lord the King by the aduice and conſent of his Counſell, ſent his letters of priuie Seale, directed to diuers perſons of the ſayd Foreſt, to make open Proclamation, That no man of the ſayd Foreſt ſhould be ſo hardie to inquite or diſturbe his people to paſſe by the riuer with all maner of corn, goods, and cattels, or any other marchandiſe, vpon the paine of Treaſon. After which Proclamation ſo made, the ſaid trеſpaſſors came to the ſaid riuer with more grekter routs and riots then euer they did before, not eſteeming nor regarding the ſayd letters of priuie Seale, and there ſpoyled at diuers times eight troughs of Wheat, Rie, Flower, and diuers other goods and cattels, and the people of the ſame troughes did throw ouer the bord, and diuers of them drowned, and the ſternes of the ſayd troughes did cut away, and did threaten the owner of the ſaid goods and cattels, and alſo the people of the ſayd troughes, that they ſhould not be ſo hardie to carrie no manner of victuall by the ſayd ſtreame, much nor little, for Lord nor for Ladie: And that they would helw all to peces the ſaid boats, if they came another time by the coaſts of the ſaid Foreſt of Deane: For the which riot and rebellion no perſon of the ſaid Towne of Tewkeſburie, nor of the countrey adioyning, dare not carie any corne nor other goods nor cattels in the ſaid riuer, nor purſue to haue remedie for ſuch oppreſſions and griefes to them done. Forasmuch as the ſaid Foreſt of Deane, & Hundreds be verie large, and the people inhabiting and reſiant in the ſame verie wild, and nigh adioyning to the countrey of Wales: And all the Commons of the ſame Foreſt and Hundreds of one affinitie and confederacie in malice and riot, not pondering or regarding the law, nor the Officers and Miniſters of the ſame, nor caring of the Proces, nor punihment of the law of the land, inſomuch that they will not obey, but at their owne will, any Miniſter of the Kings lawes, nor execution of the ſame: nor the Officers nor Miniſters of ỹ law of the ſaid countie, dare not in any wiſe come into the ſaid Foreſt, to execute any matter or Proceſſe of the law, againſt the will and intent of the Commons of the Foreſt & Hundred aforeſaid. Our Soueraigne Lord the King hauing tender reſpect and conſideration of the ſaid miſchiefes, and alſo conſidering the inconueniences which be like to enſue and follow vpō the ſame, and vpon that willing to reſiſt the malice of ſuch tranſgreſſors and offendors, and to prouide haſtie and conuenable remedie for his ſaid faithfull liege people, ſo greeued in this behalfe, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, being in this preſent Parliament, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of the ſaid Commons there aſſembled, hath ordeined by authoritie of the ſame Parliament, or to any of them by the persons so indamaged, or by any other in their names, of such iniuries and trespasses done, that the sayd trespassors and offendors shall restore in the same Towne of Gloucester, within fiftene dayes after the sayd proclamation, to the sayd persons so indamaged, their sayd corne and marchandises, goods, and cattels so taken, or the verie value of the same, with reasonable amends for their damages of such taking. After which proclamation if the sayd trespassors doe not restore the said corne and marchandises, goods, and cattels, or the value of the same, to the parties so grieued, in the forme aforesaid, with reasonable amends for their damages, nor that the sayd trespassors be not brought to the Kings prisons to the Castle of Gloucester, for the sayd trespasses, by the Officers of the sayd Forest and Hundreds, or by the Comminalties of the same, to be demeaned in such case by the King and his Counsell: That then by consideration of the Statute of Winchester, put for the robberie of any person, which giueth an action for him which is robbed, against the Hundred, within which the same robberie is done, after the forme of the same Statute, the said Comminalties shall be charged of the same corne and marchandises, goods and cattels so taken, or of the verie value of the same, to the parties so grieued, to satisfie them of their damages for the same taking. And that the sayd parties so indamaged and grieued, may haue their general actions of debt against the sayd Comminalties of the said Forest & Hundred, of the summe of money, to which the value of the corne, marchandises, goods and cattels so taken doe extend. And although the sayd Comminalties bee no Comminalties corporate, yet they shall haue Proces in such actions of debt, by Summons, Attachments, and Distresse, as if he were to haue an action of debt at the Common Law, so that if the sayd Comminalties make default at the second distresse in such actions, that then the party which shall sue, shal haue iudgement to recouer his debt against the sayd Comminalties, after the supposall of their goods, in the forme aforesaid, with his reasonable damages and expences. And whatsoeuer issue triable by Inquest in the said Forests and Hundreds shall happen to be taken to such actions, it shall be tried by Inquest of the bodie of the said county out of the same Forest and Hundreds. And that the goods and cattels of euerie singular person of the sayd Comminalties for the time being, shall be had, taken, and holden in Law conuict, as the common goods and cattels of the same Comminalties, touching the returne, seruing, and all executions of Writs, Proces, and Iudgemẽts, in and of the said actions. And that euerie singular person of the sayd Forest and Comminalties, haue power by the authoritie of the sayd Parliament, to attach and arrest the sayd trespassors by their bodies, as well within the sayd Forest as without, and them so arrested, to commit to the sayd prison. And that the Keeper of the same prison, vpon paine of forfeitie pounds to be leuied of his goods and cattels, lands and tenements, to the vse of our Soueraigne Lord the King, shall safely kep euerie person so committed to his custodie, till the time that the King or his Counsell hath ordained or prouided their deliuerance of record. And if the goods or cattels of any singular person or persons of the sayd Forest and Hundreds, being not guiltie of the said robberies, happen to be put in execution, because of any such actions and iudgements: That then the said person or persons so being not guiltie, may haue their speciall action of debt, or trespasse vpon their case, of the goods and cattels so put in execution, against the said trespassors, to recouer their damages, as well for the value of the goods or cattels so put in execution, as for their damages & costs which happened to be had, because of such actiõs of debt, & they shal haue such proces in the sayd actions of debt, or trespasse, as is to be had in the sayd actions of debt for the said persons so indamaged and spoyled. preſuming or offending contrarie to the true meaning of this preſent Act, ſhall by the eight Overſeers or Rulers, be committed to priſon in one of the Counters of the Citie of London, there to remaine by the ſpace of one moneth or leſſe, as the offence ſhall require. And alſo be it &c. That no perſon or perſons, being ſingle men, not keeping houſhold and not retained, ſhall from and after the ſaid feaſt of Pentecoſt next comming, vſe or exerciſe to row betwirt Grauelend and Windſor aforeſaid, vnleſſe he or they be prentice or prentices, or in ſeruice retained with a Maſter by the whole yeare at the leaſt, vpon paine of like impriſonment. And alſo be it &c. That the Lord Maior of London, & the Aldermen of the ſame Citie, and the Iuſtices of P. within the Shires next adioyning to the ſaid riuer Thames, euerie of them within their ſeuerall iuriſdictions and authorities, ſhall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this preſent Act, vpon complaint made to them or any of them by the ſaid Overſeers and Rulers, or two of them, or the Maſter or maſters of any ſuch ſeruants, not only to examine, heare and determine all complaints and offences to be done or committed by any ſuch perſon or perſons that ſhall offend contrarie to the true meaning of this preſent Act, and to ſet at large all and euery ſuch perſon and perſons, as ſhal fortune to be impriſoned by the ſaid Overſeers and Rulers according to this Act, if iuſt cauſe ſhall appeare vnto them ſo to doe: But alſo by their good diſcretions and wiſedome, to puniſh, correct, and reforme the ſaid Overſeers and Rulers, and euery of them, that ſhall iniuſtly, or without good cauſe or ground, puniſh any perſon or perſons, by colour of this preſent Act, or any thing therein contained. And be it &c. That if any perſon or perſons whatſoeuer, from henceforth doe or ſhall make any wherrie or boat, to the intent commonly to vſe rowing and carrying people vpon the ſaid riuer of Thames, which ſhall not be two and twenty foot & a halfe in length, and foure foot and a halfe broad in the midſhip, or which ſhall not be ſubſtantially and well able and ſufficient to carrie two perſons on euerie ſide tight, according to the old quantitie, ſcantling, thicknes of bord, goodneſſe, and good proportion, heretofore had and vſed: That then the ſame boat or boats ſo being made contrarie to the proportion and ſort before erpreſſed, ſhall be taken as forfeit, and ſhall bee forfeit: the one halfe thereof to be to the King and Quéenes Maieſties vſe, and to the vſe of the heirs and ſucceſſors of the Quéenes Maieſtie, and the other halfe to him or them that will ſue &c. wherein no wager of law &c. ſhall be allowed. And be it &c. That if any perſon or perſons which from and after the feaſt ſhall vſe and exerciſe the occupation of rowing betwirt Grauelend and Windſor aforeſaid, which in the time of the execution of any commiſſion of preſſing ſhalbe had for the ſeruice of the King and Quéenes Maieſties, and the heires and ſucceſſors of the Qu. Maieſtie, in their affairs, ſhall willingly, voluntarily, and obſtinately withdraw, hide, or cõuey him or themſelues in the ſame time of preſſing, into ſecret places, and outcorners, and after when ſuch time of preſſing is ouerpaſſed, ſhall returne and come againe to the ſaid riuer of Thames, to row betwirt Grauelend and Windſor aforeſaid, and that duely proued by two indifferent witneſſes, before the ſaid Maior and Court of Aldermen, or Iuſtices of the peace, and two of the ſayd Rulers: That then he or they ſo doing and offending, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of two weeks, and be baniſhed any more to row from thenceforth vpon the ſaid riuer of Thames, by the ſpace of one whole yeare and a day then next following. And be it &c. That it ſhalbe lawfull to the ſaid eight Rulers for the time being, and their ſucceſſors from time to time, to conuent & call before them at ſome conuenient place by them to bee appointed, all and euery ſuch perſon & perſons, which from and after the ſaid feaſt of Pentecoſt, ſhall occupy and vſe the ſaid trade and occupation of rowing betwirt Grauelend and Windſor aforeſaid, and ſhall enter and regiſter the name and names of them, and euerie of them that ſhall be by them allowed or admitted for Watermen, to row betwirt Grauelend and Windſor aforeſaid, in a booke to be made for the ſame intent and purpoſe, and to take ſuch further order and direction therein, with euery of the ſaid parties, by the authoritie of this preſent Act, as it ſhall ſéeme méete and neceſſarie by the diſcretion of ſaid Overſeers and Rulers for the time being. And alſo that the ſaid Overſeers and Rulers ſhall and may by authority of this Act, ouerſée, view, and ſurney, at all and euerie time and times hereafter, al maner boats and whirries, that ſhall from and after the ſaid feaſt be made, before the ſaid boat or boats, whirrie or whirries be launched out of the yard or ground wherin the ſame boat or boates, whirrie or whirries ſhall fortune to be made, into the ſaid riuer of Thames, to the intent that they and euery of them may be made and prepared in ſuch manner and forme, and according to the goodneſſe, proportion, and quantity in this preſent Act before limited and erpreſſed. And be it &c. that if any perſon or perſons, which at any time hereafter ſhall be elected or choſen to be a Ruler or Overſéer, as before is erpreſſed, doe happen negligently to vſe & exerciſe his or their rome or place, or that will obſtinately refuſe to take vpon him or them, the rome or romes, place or places of any of the ſaid Overſéers or Rulers: that then al and euery ſuch offender or offenders ſo offending, ſhall loſe and forfeit the ſumme of fiue pounds of lawfull money of England: The one halfe thereof ſhall be to our Soueraigne Lord and Ladie the King and Quéenes maieſties vſe, and to the vſe of the heires and ſucceſſours of the Quéenes maieſtie, and the other halfe to him or them, that will ſue for the ſame in any of the Kings and Quéens Maieſties courts of Record, by Action of Debt, or by any other the wayes or meanes aboue ſpecified, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine, protection, or iniunction, ſhall be admitted or allowed for the Defendant or Defendants. And be it &c. That the ſaid Maior and Court of Aldermen of the ſaid Citie of London for the time being, ſhall from time to time at their diſcretions, limit, ſet, and aſſeſſe the prize and prices, and ſummes of money, That euerie perſon son or persons so authorised to row as is aforesaid, betwixt Graueſend and Windsor aforesaid, shall take for his or their labour or fare from place to place, particularly betwixt Graueſend and Windsor aforesaid, and the same prices and assessements to bee set, shall bring or cause to bee brought to the priuie councell of our soueraigne Lord and Lady the King and Quéene to be viewed & seene by some of the said priuie Counsell, and after that the said assessements and prices shall be signed and subscribed with the hands of two of the said priuie Councell at the least, the said Maior and court of Aldermen for the time being, shall cause the said prices & assessements to bee drawen and set vp in tables in the Guild hall, in the citie of London, Westminster hall, and elsewhere, where the said Maior and court of Aldermen shall thinke conuenient. And euery person and persons that shall take for his or their fare, or labour, aboue the prices that shall bee assessed, viewed, written and set vp in forme aforesaid, shall forfeit for euery such offence fourtie shillings, & also shall suffer imprisonment by one halfe yere, the one moitie of the said forfeiture to bee to the K. and Quénes Maiesties, their heires & successors, and the other moitie thereof to him or them that will sue for the same in any of the Kings and Quénes Maiesties courts of Record, by action of debt, or by any other the wayes or meanes aboue specified, wherein no wager of law, essoine, protection, or iniunction shall be admitted or allowed for the defendant or defendants. And be it &c. that no person nor persons occupying or using any Westerne Barge, shall retaine, take or receiue into his or their seruice, any single person, not keeping house or household, but only such as shal be retained with him or them by the whole yéere, and no householder, but such as he or they will and shall answer for, for his or their good behauiour, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery such offence, xl.s. the one moity thereof to be to the King & Quénes Maiestie, her heires and successours, and the other moitie thereof to him or them that wil sue for the same in any of the King and Quéens courts of Record, by action of debt, or by any other the wayes and meanes aboue specified, wherein no wager of law, essoine, protection, or iniunction, shalbe admitted or allowed for the defendant or defendants. An. 2. & 3. P. & M. ca. 16.

12 Be it enacted &c. That from henceforth no Wherryman or Waterman that now is, or that hereafter shall be, and shall row vpon the Riuer of Thames, and shall transport or carry any passengers or Goods in any Wherries, Tilt-boats, or Barges, (other then Westerne Barges, Millboats, and al other Vessels ordinarily seruing for other vses then the carrying of Passengers) shall retain or take any seruant or apprentice to serue him as a Waterman vpon the said Riuer, vnlesse the said Wherryman or Waterman that so shall retaine, take, or haue any such seruant, shal haue been an apprentice to a Wherryman or Waterman, by the space of fiue yeares before such retayning. And further, That no Wherryman or Waterman that now is, or that hereafter shalbe vpon the said Riuer of Thames, shall retaine, haue, keepe, or take any person or persons to serue him to row vpō the said Riuer as his apprentice, vnlesse the said person so to be retayned, or to become an apprentice, shal then be of the age of eighteene yeares at the least, and shall be retayned & bound to his Master to serue vpon the said Riuer, for, & during the terme of 7. yeares at the least, vpon paine that euery person or persons doing the contrary, shall from time to time for euery such Offence forfeit the summe of 10.l. The one halfe whereof shall be vnto our said Soueraign Lord the King his Heires and Successors: and the other half vnto any person or persons that will sue for the same in any of the Courts of Record of our said Soueraigne Lord the King, his Heires or Successors, by action of debt, suit, bill, plaint or information: in which no wager of law, essoine, protection, or other delay shall be admitted or allowed. Prouided alwaies, That this Act, nor any thing therein contayned, shall extend to the sonne or sonnes, which now are or hereafter shall be of any Wherryman or Waterman aboueſaid (being of the age of 16. yeares at the least, and of conuenient growth & strength) that formerly hath béene, or that hereafter shal be trained and brought vp in rowing, or haue or hath accustomed to row vpon the said Riuer, and there haue vsed or shal vse to transport or carry Passengers from place to place, But that all and euery such sonne or sonnes shall and may from time to time from henceforth be admitted and allowed to serue, and may serue vpon the said Riuer, and there transport or carrie Passengers from place to place, as an apprentice, as heretofore they haue done: any thing in this Act contained to the cōtrarie in any wise notwithstanding. And be it further enacted &c. That the eight Duerſeers or Rulers of the Societie or Company of Wherrymen or Watermen that now are, and that from time to time hereafter shall be, from henceforth twice in euery yeare, that is to say, vpon the first day of September, and vpon the first day of March, shall openly read and publish, or cause openly to bee read and published in the Hall or Place of their common assembly, where they vsually either haue, or hereafter shall appoint to assemble and méet together, all and euerie the Constitutions & Orders alreadie made by them, or that at any time hereafter shall be made by the Duerſeers and Rulers, for the good or better ordering or gouernment of the said Wherrymen or Watermen, vpon paine that euery of them shall from time to time, for euery such offence, forfeit to our said Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires and successors, the summe of 6.l. 13.s. 4.d. The one halfe whereof shalbe to our Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires and successors: and the other halfe thereof vnto any person or persons that will sue for the same in any of the Kings Courts of record, by Action of Debt, Suit, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Wager of Law, Essoine, or other delay shall be admitted, or allowed. 14 Whereas in the Session of the Parliament holden vpon prorogation at Westminster the two and twentieth day of Januarie, in the foure and thirtieth yeare of the raigne of the late King of famous memorie, King H. the 8. and there continued and kept vntill the twelfth day of May, in the 35. yeare of the raigne of the said late King, amongst diuers and sundrie, and many Statutes, there was then one statute made for the confirmation of letters patents notwithstanding any misnaming, misprision, or misrehearsall, or any other default contained, or rehearsed in the same Act, wherein it was prouided and enacted by the authoritie of the same Parliament, That al and singular such patentees, graunteys, & donees, as at any time from the making of the same Statute, during seuen yeares then next following, should fortune to haue or obtaine any Castles, Mannors, lands, tenements, tithes, pensions, portions, or other hereditaments, of the gift, graunt, sale, or exchange of the Kings Maiestie, or of the onely gift of the Kings Maiestie, of his most liberall disposition, and not sold, which at the day of the date of the letters patents thereof made, shall be of more or better

yeerely value to the King in yeerely rent and farm, then shall be conteyned, mentioned, and specified in any such Letters Patents, and particulars thereof made by the Auditor or Auditors, and in such Bill or Bills, as should be signed and sealed with the hand or handes of the Patentee or Patentees thereof to be exhibited to the Kings Majestie, or his Officer or Officers, within whose surveye the said manors, landes, and tenements and other the premisses, or any part thereof shall be, or within any of them, which bill shall be signed, sealed, had & made as is aforesayd, before any bill should be thereof signed by the Kings Majestie: that then every of the said Patentees, Grauntees, and Donees, their heires, executors, or administrators, within one yeere next after due proofe and decree thereof made and had in the Court in whose surveye the same castles, manors, landes, tenements & other the premisses, or any parcell thereof, before the said gifts and graunts were: should content and pay unto the King for the same overplus, and more value for the same manors, landes, tenements, rithes, pensions, portions, and other hereditaments to him sold, or exchanged, after such rate, as the other landes and tenements were before to him solde, or exchanged: and for the overplus, and more value of such landes and tenements, as should happen to be given to the Kings Majestie, and not sold as is aboue said, the said Patentee, his heires, executors, or administrators, should content and pay to the King after the rate of twenty yeeres purchase. So that the same proofe & decree were had and made in forme aboue said within tenne yeares next after the day of the said Letters Patents, as by the statute more at large it doth and may appeare. And also whereas in the Parliament begunne at Westminster, in the fourth day of November, in the first yeare of the raigne of our most dread soueraigne Lord the King that now is, King Edward the first, and from thence continued to the fourteenth day of December then next ensuing, that is to say, that first session of the same Parliament, amongst diuers & sundry statuts, there was then also one other statute made for the confirmation of letters Patents, notwithstanding any misnaming, misrecitall, or any other default, contained or recited in the same act: wherein it was also prouided and enacted by the authority of the same Parliament, that all and singular such patentees, grantees, and donees, as at any time after the said Parliament, and during the life of our said Soueraign Lord King Edward the first, should purchase or obtaine any castles, manors, landes, tenements, rithes, pensions, portions, or other hereditaments, of the gift, graunt, sale, or exchange of the Kings Majestie, or of the only gift of the Kings Majestie, of his most liberall disposition, and not sold, which at the day of the date of the Letters Patents therof made, should be of more or better yeerely value to the King in yeerely rent and farme, then should be contained, mentioned, and specified in any such letters patents, and particulars thereof made by the particular Surveyor or Surveyors thereof, and in such bill or bills, as should be signed and sealed with the hand or hands of the Patentee or patentees thereof, to be exhibited to the Kings Majestie or his Officer or Officers, within whose surveye the said manors, lands and tenements, and other the premisses, or any part thereof should be, or within any of them: which bill should be signed, sealed, had and made as is aforesayd, before any bill should be thereof signed by the Kings Majestie, that then euery of the sayd Patentees, Grauntees, and Donees, their heires, executors, and administrators, within one yeere next after due proofe and decree thereof made and had, in the Court in whose surveye the same castles, manors, landes, tenements & other the premisses, or any parcell thereof, before the said gifts and graunts were: should content and pay to the King for the same overplus, & more value of the same manors, landes, tenements, rithes, pensions, portions, or other hereditaments to him sold and exchanged, after such rate, as other landes and tenements were before to him sold or exchanged, and for the overplus and more value of such landes and tenements as should happen to be giuen by the Kings Majestie, and not sold as is aboue said, the said Patentee, his heires, executors or administrators should content and pay to the King after the rate of xx. yeers purchase, so that the same proofe and decree were had and made, in maner and forme aforesaid, within tenne yeeres next after the date of the said Letters patents, as by the same statute more at large it doth and may appeare: sithence the making of which statute, diuers of ỹ said patentees, Grantees, and Donees, according to the rule, meaning & intent of the saide Statutes, & prouisions of the same, haue by their Bills seuerall, signed and sealed with the hands and seales of the said patentees exhibited to the Kings Majestie, or to his officer mentioned in the said seuerall acts and prouisions before the same Bills were signed by ỹ said late King, or by the kings highnes ỹ now is, which Bills so signed by the said Patentees, sometime by the negligence of the same officers, or their Clerks, sometimes by the death of some other officers, and sometime by the alteration and change of the said officers, many of the said Bills so signed and sealed, beene now by negligence unbeseled and lost, & many times there haue beene no such Bills made, but omitted and forgotten, by reason whereof, diuers questions, ambiguities and doubts may arise, as well for the Kings suerties and satisfaction, as for the Patentees, their heires and assignes: For the auoiding of all which ambiguities, questions and doubts, Be it, &c. That as well all and singular Letters Patents, made by the said late King, as by the Kings Majestie that now is, sithence the making of the said seuerall Statutes and acts, or that hereafter shall beemade by our saide Soueraigne Lord the King that now is, during his life, (whose life God long preserue) shall be good and effectuall, to all and euery Patentee, their heires and assignes, the lack or want of any such bil or bils, or whether the particular or particulars were had or made, or hereafter to be had or made by any the Kings Auditor or Auditors, Surueyor or Surueyors, in any wise notwithstanding. And to the intent that the King shall be truely answered of the ouerplus of the yerely value of the said manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments contained, or to be contained, in any such Letters Patents as is aforesaid, according to the true meaning of the said act or acts, & the prouisions of the same: Be it enacted by the authoritie aforesayde, that all and singular such Patentées, Graunteés, Donées, as at any time from the making of the said seuerall Statutes haue obtayned or gotten, or hereafter shal obtaine or get any castles, manors, lands, tenements, tithes, pensions, portions, or other hereditaments of the gift, grant, sale, or exchange of the said late K. or of the King that now is, or of the only gift of the said Kings, or of any of them, of his or their most liberal disposition, or of any of them, and not sold, which at the date of the Letters Patents thereof made, or hereafter to be made, shall be of more or better yerely value to the sayde late King, or to the King that now is, in yerely rent and farme, then is, or shalbe conteyned, mentioned, or specified in any such letters Patents or particulars thereof made by the said Auditor or Auditors, Surueyor or Surueyors, or other Officers: that then euery of the said patentées, graunteés, and donées, their executors, and assignes, within one yére next after due proose and decrée thereof made and had in the Court, within whose surney the same castles, manors, lands, tenements, and other the premisses, or any parcell thereof then were or shall be, shall content and pay to the King for the same ouerplus, and more value of the same manors, lands, tenements, tithes, pensions, and other hereditaments, to him or them sold, or exchanged, or hereafter to be sold or exchãged, after such rate, as the other lands and tenements were before to him sold, or exchanged, or that hereafter shall be so sold or exchanged, and for the ouerplus, and more value of such lands and tenements, as should happen to be giuen by the said late King, or the Kings Maiestie that now is, or that hereafter shall be giuen by the King that now is, and not sold, as is aboue said, the said Patentée and Patentées, and his and their heires, executors, and assignes shal content and pay to the king after the rate of xx. yeres purchase, so that the same proof and decrée be, or shall be made in forme aboue sayd, within xbij. yéres next after the date of such & the same letters patents made or to be made in forme aforesaid. Prouided alwaies and be it &c. that this act or any prouision therin contained, shal not in any wise extend to confirme, ratifie or make good any lease or leases made, or hereafter to be made for terme of life, liues or yeres, whereupon the old & accustomed rents, or more, be not, or hereafter shall not be reserued, and yerely payable, during ỳ time and terme of the said lease & leases, nor to any lease or leases made in reuersion of any part or parcel of any manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, parcell of the Duchie of Lancaster, or within ỳ surney of the same Duchie. Prouided also, that this act nor any thing therin contained, shal extend to confirme, ratifie or make good any letters patents heretofore made, or hereafter to be made of estate of inheritance, by any king or kings of this realme, but to such letters patents as were made by the said late K. Henry the eight, sithence the said iiij. day of February in the said xxviij. yeare of his raigne, or hath been, or hereafter shalbe made by the K. Maiesty ỳ now is during his life (which god lõg preserue) any thing or matter contained in this act, or any of the prouisions before rehearsed, to the contrary therof in any wise notwithstanding. And where also the late King of famous memory K. Henry the viij. & also our soueraign lord the K. maiesty that now is, as well by diuers bargains & sales for diuers great sums of mony, as by gifts, exchanges or otherwise, haue giuē & granted by their seuerall L. patents, vnder the great seale of Eng. or vnder ỳ great seale of ỳ duchy of Lãcaster, diuers manors, lãds, tenemẽts, or other hereditaments with ỳ appurtenãces to diuers & sundry their louing subiects of any estate of inheritance, to hold in socage onely, & not in capite, for al maner of seruices, & without reseruatiõ of any tenths or rents in the same Letters patents, as by the same seuerall letters patents may appeare: And forasmuch as by certaine estatutes heretofore made, doubts & ambiguities may arise vpon such letters patents, for lack of tenure in Capite, or reseruations of tenths or rents, which might be hereafter to the vnquietnes of such patẽtées, their heirs or assignes or successors, contrary to the intents & mindes of the said late K. & of our said Soueraigne Lord the K. maiesty that now is: For the auoiding of all doubts & ambiguities, and for the quietnes of the kings louing subiects, Be it also enacted & established by the authority aforesaid, that al letters patents sealed, or hereafter to be sealed with the great seale of England, or with the great seale of the duchie of Lancaster, shal be good, perfect, & anaileable in the law, to all intents & purposes, according to ỳ said letters patents, the nonage of our soueraigne Lord the K. maiesty that now is, as duke of Lancaster, (albeit alwaies as king he is of ful age) or any act, statute or laws, for or concerning any tenures or reseruations of rents or tenths, to the contrarie notwithstanding. Sauing to all & euery person & persons, bodies politike and corporate, their heirs, successors, executors, & assignes, & to euery of them, other then the kings maiesty his heirs & successors, as K. of this realm, or as dukes of Lancaster, al & euery such rights, titles, leases, conditions, rents, & interests whatsoeuer, as they or any of thẽ should, ought, or might haue had, if this act had neuer bin had or made: this act or any thing therein contained to be contrary in any wise notwithstanding. 17 An. 27. Eliz. An act not printed was made for the confirmation of the Q. L. patents granted to the Q. colledge in Oxford. And another act was there made, but not printed, for the confirmation of her Let. patents to the Maisters, Fellowes, and Schollers, of Clare Hall in Cambridge.

18 Forasmuch as diuers ambiguities, doubts, and questions haue risen and bẽne moued aswell touching diuers surrenders, graunts, and conueiances made and graunted by sundry late Abbots, Priors, and other Religious and Ecclesiasticall persons to the late king of famous memory, King Henry the eight, after the fourth day of February, in the seauen and twentieth yeere of his Raigne, of diuers their honors, manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, as also touching & concerning the validitie of ỳ erections of such Deanes & chapters, and such Colledges as were erected, ordayned, made or founded by the said late King Henry the eight, after the said fourth day of February, in the said seauen and twentieth yeere of his Raigne: And forasmuch as the same doubts and questions seeme not to bee sufficiently remedied or prouided for, by the Statute made in the foure and 30. yeere of the raigne of the saide late King Henrie the eight, intituled, An Act for confirmation of Letters Patents, (which see here before 12.) notwithstanding misnaming of any thing contayned in the same: Be it therefore declared, explained, and enacted by the authoritie of this present Parliament, that all and euery Honors, Manors, Landes, Tenements, and Hereditaments, which at any time heretofore were the possessions of any Abbey, Monasterie, Priory, Nunrie, or other religious or ecclesiasticall cleſiaſticall houſe or houſes, and which after the ſaid fourth day of Februarij, in the ſaid xxvij. yeare of the ſaid late king H. the eight, came to the hands or poſſeſſions of the ſaid late king H. the eight, or which were put in charge to or for his Highneſſe in his Court of Eſchequer, or any other Courts of the ſaid late king concerning his Maieſties reuenues, or by any Auditor, or other Officer of the ſaid late king, or which after the ſaid iiij. day of Februarie, in the ſeuen and twentieth yeare aforeſaid, were graunted or conueied, or mentioned to be graunted or conueyed, in, or by any letters patents whatſoeuer, made by the ſaid late king Henry the eight, to any perſon or perſons, body politike or corporate, were and ſhall be reputed, taken, and adiudged to haue beene lawfully and perfectly in the actuall and reall poſſeſſion of the ſaid late King and his heyres and ſucceſſors, at ſuch time as the ſame did ſo come to his Maieſties hands, and poſſeſſion, or were ſo put in charge, or graunted, or conueyed by the ſaid late King Henry the eight, as aforeſaid, notwithſtanding any defect, want, or inſufficiencie, of, or in any ſurrender, graunt, or conueyance of the ſame honours, manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, or any part thereof, to the ſaid late King Henry the eight, or any other matter or cauſe what ſoeuer, by which his Highneſſe was or might haue beene intituled to the ſame. And be it further declared and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and ſinguler letters patents made by the ſaid K. Henrie the eight, at anie time after the ſaid fourth day of Februarie, in the ſaid ſeuen and twentieth yeare of his reigne, for the erection, foundation, incorporation, or indowment of any deane and chapter, or colledge, were, and ſhall be reputed, taken, and adiudged to haue been good, perfect, and effectuall in the Law for all things therein contained, according to the true intent and meaning of the ſame, any thing, matter, or cauſe to the contrary therof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. Sauing alwayes vnto all perſon and perſons, bodies politique and corporate, theyr heyres and ſucceſſors, and euery of them, other then the late Abbots, Abbeſſes, Priors, Prioreſſes, and other gouernours of ſuch Abbeys, Monaſteries, Priories, Nunries, and other Religious and Eccleſiaſticall houſes, and theyr ſucceſſors, and ſuch as pretended to be Founders, Patrons, or Donors of the ſame, or any of them, or of any Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments belonging to the ſame, or to any of them: and their, and euerie of their heires and ſucceſſors, all ſuch right, title, intereſt, claime, and demaund, as they or any of them, or their, or any of their auncеſtors or predeceſſors might or ought to haue had of, in, to, or out of any ſuch honors, manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments before the ſaid iiij. day of Februarie, in the ſeuen and twentieth yeare of the raigne of the ſaid late King Henry the eight, or before the making of ſuch Letters Patents by the ſaid King Henry the eight, as if the ſaid Letters Patents, made by the ſaid King Henry the eight, and the ſaid ſtatute made in the ſaid xxxiij. yeare of his reigne, and this preſent act had neuer bin made: this Act or anie thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding. Anō 35. Eliz. cap. 3.

19 In moſt humble wiſe beſeechen your moſt excellent Ma. the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this your highnes parliament aſſembled, that wheras ſithence the viij. day of Feb. in the xxv. yeare of your Maieſties reigne, diuerſe and ſundry honours, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, and other hereditaments haue bin conueyed and aſſured to your Highneſſe, your heyres and ſucceſſours, by, and from diuers and ſundrie perſons and bodies politique, aſwell for the diſcharge and ſatisfaction of great debts and ſummes of mony, as for other good conſiderations: That for better aſſurances, confirmation, and ſuretie thereof, It may be enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, That all feoffements, fines, ſurrenders, aſſurances, conueyances and eſtates, in any wiſe conueyed, had, or made, to, or for your Highneſſe, by or from any perſon or perſons, bodies politike or corporat, ſithence the ſaid eight day of Februarij in the fiue and twentieth yeere of your Maieſties reigne, of any honors, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, and other hereditaments, for anie debt, ſumme or ſummes of money, or other conſideration whatſoeuer, other then conueyances or eſtates heretofore had or made, by anie Eccleſiaſticall perſon or perſons, or bodies politique or corporate, not hauing power or abilitie by the Lawes and Statutes of this Realme to make the ſame, ſhall ſtand, remayne, and be good and auaileable in the Lawe, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, according to the true meaning, intent, and purport of the ſame. Sauing to all and euery perſon and perſons, and to their heires, bodies politique and corporate, and to theyr ſucceſſours, and euerie of them, other then ſuch perſon or perſons, and their heires, and wiues, being parties, or pryies to ſuch conueyances, or aſſurances, and euery of them, bodies politique and corporate, and theyr ſucceſſors and euery of them, of, or from whom the Q. Highnes hath had, obtained, or purchaſed any manors, meſuages, lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, or hereditaments, by exchange, gift, bargaine, fine, feoffement, recouery, deed inrolled, or otherwiſe, all ſuch right, title, intereſt, vſe, poſſeſſion, rents, reuerſions, remainders, offices, fees, commons, profits, and commodities whatſoeuer, which they or any of them, haue, might, or ought to haue had, of, in, or to the premiſſes, or anie part theeof, in as large and ample manner, forme, and condition to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as if this Act had neuer beene had ne made: this preſent Act or anie thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding. And whereas your excellent Maieſtie ſithence the ſaid eight day of Febr. in the xxv. yeere of your Highnes reigne, aſwell for diuers and great ſummes of money, as alſo for diuers and ſundry other conſiderations, hath bargained, ſold, giuen and granted by your Highnes ſundrie Let. Pa. Indentures, or other writings, ſealed vnder the great Seale of Engl. or the Seale of the Dutchie of Lancaſter, or the Seale of the Countie Palantine of Lancaſter, as well to bodies politike and corporate, as to diuers and sundrie other your Highnesse louing and obedient subiects, diuers and sundrie honours, manors, lands, tenements, rents, reuersions, seruices, and other hereditaments in fee simple, fee tayle, or for terme of life, liues, or yeres, as in the same seuerall Letters Patents, Indentures and other Writings is mentioned and declared, That to the intent the same letters patents, Indentures and other writings, may be of good, auaileable, and perfect force and effect, to all and euery your Highnesse louing Subiects, according to the true meaning and effect of the same: It may please your most excellent Maiestie, that it may be enacted by the authority of this present parliament, That as well all and singuler Letters Patents, Indentures, and other Writings sealed vnder the great Seale of England, or vnder the Seale of the Dutchie of Lancaster, or the Seale of the County Palantine of Lancaster, heretofore made and graunted by your Highnesse for any summes of money, or for and vpon any other considerations, sithence the said eight day of Februarie in the fiue and twentieth yeare of your Highnesse raigne, as all other Letters Patents hereafter to be made by your Highnesse, for anie summe or summes of money or other considerations, before the last day of this present session of parliament. And moreouer, all other letters patents within the space of one yeare then next insuing, to be made by force, of, or according to the purport, or true meaning of the Commission, vnder the great Seale of England now in being for sale of your Highnesse lands to any body politike or corporate, or to any other person or persons whatsoeuer, of any honours, castles, manors, lordships, granges, meses, lands, tenements, meadowes, pastures, rents, reuersions, seruices, woods, aduowsons, nominations, patronages, annuities, rights, interests, entries, conditions, leets, courts, liberties, priuiledges, franchises, or of anie other hereditaments with their appurtenaunces, or of anie part or parcell of them, sealed with or vnder the great Seale of England, or vnder the Seale of the Dutchie of Lancaster, or the Seale of the Countie Palantine of Lancaster, of whatsoeuer kind, nature, or qualitie they or any of them be or shall be, reputed, knowne or taken with their appurtenances, or anie part or parcell of them, shall be good, perfect, and effectuall in the Law, and shall stand, be taken, reputed, deemed, and adiudged good, perfect, sure, auaileable and effectuall in the Lawe, against your Highnesse, your heires and successors, according to the tenor and effect of the said Letters patents, Indentures, or other Writings, the same to be expounded, construed, deemed, and adiudged most beneficially for the patentées and grauntées of the same, and their heires, assignes, executors, and administrators, according vnto the words and purport of euerie the said Letters Patents, Indentures or other Writings, without any confirmation, licence, or tolleration of your Highnesse, your heires or successors, any misnaming, misrecitall, or nonrecital of any the same honors, castles, manors, lands, tenements and other the premisses, or of any parcell thereof, or any lacke of finding of offices or inquisitions, of, and in the premisses, or anie part thereof, whereby the title of your Highnesse therein ought to haue bin found before the making of the same Letters Patents, Indentures, or other Writings, or any misrecitall, or nonrecitall of leases thereof made, aswell of record as not of record, or any misrecitall, nonrecitall, or not true mentioning in any such letters patents, graunts or writings of your Maiesties owne estate or estates, either of freehold or inheritance, of, or in the premisses or anie part thereof, whereunto your Maiestie hath beene sithence the beginning of your raigne, or hereafter shalbe intitled by any attainder, escheat, conueiance or assurance whatsoeuer, and in which letters patents, grants, or writings, no estate taile formerly made, or supposed to be made, haue beene or shall be recited, and the reuersion or remainder thereupon expectant in the same Letters Patents, graunts or writings graunted or mentioned to be graunted, or any lacke of the certainty, miscasting, rating, or setting forth of the yearely value and rate of the premisses, or of the yearely rents reserued, of, and for the premisses, or any parcel thereof mentioned or contained in any of the said Letters Pat. or other writings, or for that the premisses be, or anie part thereof is valued at a more or lesse value in the said Lett. Pat. or writings, then the said manors, lands, tenements, & other the premisses, then were or shalbe in yerely value, or any misnaming or not true naming of the townes, hamlets, parishes, or counties where the same honors, manors, lands, tenements, rents, hereditaments, & other the premisses, & euery parcell thereof, or any parcell thereof, lien, or bene, or any lacke of the true naming of the lands, tenements, or hereditaments, or of the natures, kinds, sorts, qualities, or quantities of the said possessions, or hereditaments, or anie parcell thereof, or anie lacke of the true naming of the corporation, or any lacke of attornement, liuery or seisin, or of any misnaming of any the late tenants or farmers of the same honors, manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or any part thereof so sold, graunted or giuen, or of anie misnaming of such person or persons, bodies politike or corporat, as at any time before the making of such Lett. Patents were, or shall be owners of the premisses, or any part thereof, to the contrary notwithstanding. Prouided, that this Act, nor any thing therein conteined, shal not extend to make any letters patents of any Office or Offices, to be of anie other effect, force or strength, then the same Let. Pat. were, or should haue bin, before the making of this act. Prouided also, That all and singuler such Patentées, Grantées, and Donées, and euerie of them, which at anie time heretofore sithence the said eight day of Febr. haue obtained and gotten of your Highnes, or at anie time hereafter before the last day of this sess. of parliament, or within the space of one yere then nert ensuing, shall obtaine and get of your Highnes, by way of exchange, or for any summe or summes of mony or other considerations, anie Let. Pat. of any Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments whatsoeuer, which at the date of the said

ſaid Letters Patents were or ſhalbe of better and more yearely value to your Highneſſe, and ſo anſwered in yearely rent and farme, then was, is, or ſhall be conteined, mentioned, and ſpecified in any ſuch Let. Pat. or in the particulars or rates thereof, made or to be made by any auditor or auditors, ſurueyor or ſurueyors, or other officers. That then euery ſuch patentee, grauntee, or donee their heires, executors, or aſſignes, and euery of them, within one yeare next after office or other due proſe, order, and decree thereof made and had, or to be made or had within the ſpace and terme of ten yeares, next after the end of this preſent Seſſion of parliament in the Court of Eſchequer, ſhall content and pay vnto your Highneſſe, your heires and ſucceſſors for the ſame ouerplus, and more value of the ſame manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments whatſoeuer, with their appurtenances ſo ſold, giuen, graunted, or exchaunged, as is aforeſaid, after the rate of three ſcore yeares purchaſe, and according to ſuch yearely value and rate, as the ſame manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments whatſoeuer were of, and were anſwered for at the time of the making of any ſuch letters patents, ſo made or to be made in maner and forme aforeſaid: Anie thing contained in anie ſuch Letters Patents to the contrary in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. Prouided alſo, that this Act, or any proviſo therein contained ſhall not in any wiſe extend to confirme, ratifie, or make good any Leaſe or Leaſes made or to be made by your Highneſſe for terme of life, or liues, or for yeares, whereupon the olde and accuſtomed rents be more, or as much in value or more proportionably, for the Lands and Tenements ſo demiſed, or to be demiſed, be not, or hereafter ſhall not be reſerued and yearely payable during the time and terme of euerie ſuch Leaſe, nor that this preſent Act ſhall in anie wiſe extend to reuiue and make good any Letters Patents, made of any Office or Offices, to any comptroller, cuſtomer, aulneger, ſearcher, nor to any Letters Patents of the graunt of any other Office or Offices, heretofore graunted or made by your Highneſſe, which now be, or at any time heretofore haue beene adnihilated, determined, or made void by iudgemẽt, by authority of parliament, or by decree, nor to anie Patents to be made to anie perſon or perſons for terme of yeres, or during the minoritie of any heire of any manors, lands, or tenements, whereof anie trauerſe hereafter ſhalbe tendred within 3. months after any Office found and certified into anie your Highneſſe Courts of Record, ne to make any Letters patents, made by your Highneſſe of any office or offices to be of any other effect, force, or ſtrength, then the ſame L. Patents were or ſhould haue been before the making of this Act. Prouided alſo, that this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to any letters patents, or any gift or graunt therein contained, which at anie time heretofore haue bin, or hereafter before the laſt day of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament ſhall be made by your Highnes to any perſon or perſons, of anie manors, lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, or other hereditaments, by force of any information, ſuite, or ſuggeſtion, made or to be made to your Highneſſe, that the ſame manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments ſo contained in any ſuch Letters Patents were concealed lands, or that the ſame, or the profits thereof, were vniuſtly withholden from your Highnes, but that the ſame Letters Patents, and euery of them ſhall ſtand, remaine, and be in the ſame force, ſtrength, and effect, as they were before the making of this Act, anything in this Act mentioned to the contrary notwithſtanding. And yet neuertheleſſe, be it declared and enacted by authority of this preſent parliament, that no Letters Patents, nor anie gift or graunt in them contained, made, or to be made by warrant of your Maieſties commiſſioners, authorized to make compoſitions with your Highneſſe ſubiects for new Letters Pa. or graunts to be made vnto them, are or ought to be take, or ſhalbe deemed and taken to be made by force of any information, ſuite or ſuggeſtion, that the manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments cõtained in the ſame letters patents were concealed lands, but that they and euery of them ſhall be within the full meaning of this Act, to be fortified and made good (as other L. patents made without any ſuggeſtion or information of concealement, or vniuſt withholding beene. Prouided alwais, that this Act nor any thing herein contained, ſhall extend or be taken to make good any Letters Patents, Indentures, or other Writings, or any grant in them, or any of them contained, which heretofore haue beene adiudged or decreed to be voide in any of your Maieſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſt. or by Act of parliament, nor to make good any Letters Pa. or any graunt in them, or any of them contained of, or concerning licences, powers, or priuiledges, commonly called Monopolies, nor to make good any L. patents or graunts, of, or concerning power, licence, libertie, or authority giuen for execution of any penall Statute or Statutes, or for tolleration or diſpenſation of, to, or with any offence, prohibited by any penall ſtatute or ſtatutes, nor to make good any L. patents to William Kirkeham gentleman, or to any other by his procurement, concerning which there hath beene anie Act of Parliament made heretofore, or anie ſuit in your Maieſties Court of Starre-chamber, or Chauncerie. Sauing to all and euery other perſon or perſons, and bodies politique and corporate, their heyres and ſucceſſors, and euerie of them all ſuch right, title, intereſt, poſſeſſion, eſtate, leaſes, rents, ſeruices, commons, and all other profites, and commodities whatſoeuer, as they or anie of them ſhould, or might haue had before the letters Pa. thereof made, if this Act had neuer beene had ne made: any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding. NO pension shall hereafter be assigned by the Ordinary, or by any other manner of agreement by collaterall suretie, or otherwise, vpon any resignation of any dignity, benefice or promotion Spirituall aboue the value of the third part of the dignitie, benefice or promotion Spirituall resigned. And if any pension amounting aboue the value of the third part of the dignitie, benefice, or promotion spirituall heretofore resigned, be already limited and made sure to anie Spiritual person or persons, by decree of the Ordinarie, or otherwise, by any collaterall suretie, or hereafter shall happen to be assigned, & made sure to any person or persons spirituall, or to any other to their vse, by decree of the Ordinarie, or by any other collaterall suretie, vpon anie resignation thereof, yet neuertheleſſe the Ordinar. 3. Part. Graunt.

the Incumbent charged with ſuch penſion, nor his ſureties collaterall, ſhall not be compelled to pay any more penſion then the value of the third part of his dignitie, benefice, or promotion Spirituall ſo reſigned, ſhall mount vnto, but ſhall by authoritie of this Act, be clerely acquited and diſcharged of ſo much of the ſaid Penſion, as ſhall amount aboue the value of the third part of the dignitie or benefice reſigned, any decree or aſſignment of the Ordinary, or any collaterall writings or ſureties heretofore made, or hereafter to be had or made for the ſame, to the cõtrary thereof notwithſtanding. Añ 26. H. 8. ca. 3. And it is further enacted, that euery predeceſſor of Abbots, or Priors, hauing any penſion aboue the yearely value of forty pounds, ſhall be defalked of the moitie thereof. And that euerie Abbot, and all other charged for the payment of ſuch Penſion aboue the yearely value of forty pounds, ſhall be diſcharged of the moitie thereof. Diuers other matters be in this Act, which I leaue out.

2 If any perſon or perſons being farmer or occupier of any manors, lands, tenements, parſonages, benefices, or other hereditaments of any of the ſaid late Monaſteries, or Eccleſiaſticall houſes or places, or belonging to them or any of them, by the kings highnes gift, grant, ſale, exchange, or otherwiſe, out of which premiſſes, any ſuch pẽſions, portions, corrodies, indemnities, ſinodies, or priories, or any other profites haue bẽne heretofore lawfully going out, anſwered, or paid to any of the Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Archdeacons, and other Eccleſiaſticall perſons aboueſaid, do at any time after the firſt day of Aprill nert comming, wilfully deny the payment thereof, at the dayes of payment heretofore accuſtomed of any of the ſaid penſions, portions, corrodies, indemnities, ſinodies, priories, or any other profits, whereof the ſaid Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Archdeacons, or other Eccleſiaſtical perſons, were in poſſeſſion, at, or within v. yeres nert before the time of the diſſolution of any ſuch Monaſtery, or other eccleſiaſticall houſes or places: that then it ſhalbe lawful for the ſame Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Archdeacons, or other eccleſiaſticall perſons aforeſaid, being ſo denied to be ſatiſfied and paied thereof, and hauing right to the ſame thing in demand, to make ſuch proceſſe, aſwell againſt euerie ſuch perſon and perſons as ſhall ſo denie payment of the ſame penſions, portions, corrodies, priories, indemnities, ſinodies, or any other profites, which of right ought to be paied, as is aforeſaid, as againſt the Church or Churches charged with the ſame, as heretofore they haue lawfully done, and as by, and according to the lawes and ſtatutes of this realme they may now lawfully doe, for the true payment & recouery thereof. And if the partie Defendant be lawfully conuict in any ſuch ſuite, cauſe, or matter, according to the eccleſiaſticall Lawes: then the partie plaintife ſhall haue and recouer againſt the partie defendant, the thing in demand, and the value thereof in damages, with his coſts for his ſuite. And be it enacted &c. That if it fortune the cauſe or matter of variance betwéne any of the ſaid parties be determinable at the Common law, that then the partie grieued to ſue for his recouerie and remedie therein at the Common Law. And if the party defendant fortune to be by the courſe of the Common Law lawfully condemned to the partie plaintife, then the ſaid party plaintife ſhal likewiſe haue and recouer againſt the party defendant the thing in demand, and the value thereof in damages, with his coſts for his ſuite. Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted &c. That all & ſinguler ſuch of the ſaid Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Archdeacons, and other Eccleſiaſticall perſons, which haue right or title to claime, demaund, or enioy any of the ſaid penſions, portions, corrodies, indemnities, ſinodies, or priories againſt any perſon or perſons, to whom the King hath made, or hereafter ſhall make in writing vnder ſeale, any ſale, gift, graunt, or leaſe, for terme of life, liues, or yéers, of any of the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, parſonages, benefices, and other hereditaments, charged or chargeable to or with any of the ſaid penſions, portions, corrodies, indemnities, ſinodies, or priories, & alſo hath couenanted, graunted, promiſed or agréed, or hereafter ſhal couenant, graunt, promiſe, or agrée by the ſaid writing, to acquite, diſcharge, or ſaue harmeleſſe the ſame perſon or perſons, of all penſions, portions, corrodies, indemnities, ſinodies, & priories, going out of the premiſſes, or any parcel therof, as be or ſhalbe mentioned in the ſame writings or any of thẽ: ſhal ſue for the remedy & recouery thereof, in the Court of the Augmentations of the reuenues of the K. Crowne, and not elſewhere. And that the partie defendant hauing any ſuch diſcharges, being couented, called, or ſued in any other court or place, or before any other Iudge for any the cauſes aboueſaid, ſhall be diſcharged and diſmiſſed out of the ſame court or place, without anie thing paying for the ſame, by the only ſhewing forth any of the ſaid writings, ſealed vnder any of the kings ſeales, prouing or declaring the King to haue couenanted, promiſed, or agréed to acquite, diſcharge, or ſaue harmleſſe the ſaid party defendant thereof, as is aforeſaid: any thing contained in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding. ANno 11. H. 7. cap. 25. An Act was made to endure to the next Parliament, for the punishment of periurie, by examination of the Chancelor, Treasorer &c. And after Anno 12. H. 7. ca. 2. that act was continued to the next Parliament, and then it expired.

2 For as much as the Penalty conteined in the statute made 33. H. 8. ca. 9. (before in Maintenance 7.) against subornation of periury, in the Courts there mentioned, is so small that the offence daily increaseth: and for that by wilfull periurie committed by suborned witnesses, diuers haue sustained great losse in their goods and lands: Be it therefore enacted &c. that all and euery such person and persons, which at any time after the tenth day of Aprill next comming, shall vnlawfully and corruptly, procure any witnesse or witnesses, by letters, rewards, promises, or by any other sinister and vnlawfull labour or meanes whatsoeuer, to commit any wilfull or corrupt periurie in any matter or cause whatsoeuer, now depending, or which hereafter shall depend in suit and variance, by any writ, action, bill, complaint or information, in any wise touching or concerning any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, or any goods, Cattels, debts, or dammages in any of the courts before mentioned, or in any of the Quenes Maiesties Courts of Record, or in any Leet, View, Franke Pledge, or Lawday, ancient Demeane, Court Hundred, Court Baron, or in the Court or Courts of the Stannery, in the Counties of Deuonshire and Cornewall, or shall likewise vnlawfully and corruptly procure or suborne any witnesse or witnesses, which shall come and after the said 1. day of April, be sworne to testifie In perpetuam rei memoriã, ỳ then euery such offender or offenders, shal forfeit his, hers, or their said offence, being thereof lawfully conuicted or attainted, lose and forfeit the summe of forty pounds. And if it happen any such offender or offenders, so being conuicted or attainted, as aforesaid, not to haue any goods or cattels, lands or tenements, to the value of forty pound, that then euery such person so being conuicted or attainted of any the offences aforesaid, shall for his or their offence, suffer imprisonment by the space of one halfe yeare, without baile or mainprise, and to stand vpon the Pillorie, by the space of one whole houre in some market town, next adioining to the place where ỳ offence was committed, in open market there, or in the market Town it selfe where the offence was committed. And that no person or persons, being so conuicted or attainted, to be from henceforth receiued as a witnes to be deposed or sworn in any court of Record within any of the Quenes Highnesse dominions of England, Wales, or the Marches of the same, vntill such time as the iudgement giuen against the said person or persons, shal be reuersed by attaint or otherwise, and that vpon euerie such reuersall, the parties grieued to recouer his or their damages against al ỵ euery such perso ỵ persons, as did procure ỳ said iudgement so reuersed to be first giuen against thẽ, or any of thẽ, by action or actions, to be sued vpõ his or their case or cases, according to the course of the Common Lawes of this Realme. And be it further enacted, that if any person or persons, after the said tenth day of Aprill next comming either by the subornation, vnlawfull procurement, sinister persuasion or meanes of any others, or by their owne act, consent or agreement, wilfully and corruptly commit any maner of wilfull periury, by his or their deposition in any of the Courts before mentioned, or being examined (ad perpetuam rei memoriam) that then euerie person or persons so offending, ỵ being thereof duely conuicted or attainted by the lawes of this Realme, shall for his or their said offence, lose and forfeit twenty pounds, and to haue imprisonment by the space of sixe monthes without baile or mainprise, and the othe of such person or persons so offending, from thencefoorth not to bee receiued in any court of Record within this realm of England, or Wales, or the Marches of the same, vntill such time as the iudgement giuen against the said person or persons, shall be reuersed by attaint or otherwise. And that vpon euery such reuersal the parties grieued to recouer his or their damages against al and euery such person and persons as did procure the said iudgement so reuersed to be giuen against them or any of them, by action or actions vpon his or their case or cases, according to the course of the Common lawes of this realme. And if it happen the said offender or offenders so offending, not to haue any goods or Cattels to the value of twenty pounds, ỳ then he or they to be set on the Pillorie, in some Market place within the Shire, Citie, or Borough, where the said offence shal be committed, by the shirife, or his Ministers, if it shall fortune to be without any City or Towne Corporate, and if it be within any city or Towne Corporate, then by the said head Officer or Officers of such City or Towne Corporate, or by his or their Ministers, and there to haue both his eares nailed, and from thencefoorth to be discredited, and disabled for euer to be sworne in any of the Courts Record aforesaid, vntill such time as the iudgement shall be reuersed, and thereupon to recouer his damages in maner and forme before mentioned. The one Moity of all such summes of money, goods and Cattels to be forfeited in maner and forme aforesaid, to be to the Queene our Soueraigne Lady, her heires and successors, and the other moity to such person or persons as shall be grieued, hindred or molested, by reason of any of the offence or offences before mentioned, ỳ will sue for the same by action of debt, bill, plaint, informa-

3 That no person or persons hereafter at any time now inhabiting, or which hereafter shal inhabit within this Realme, shall buy or otherwise take by exchange for other wares any maner wares made, or hereafter to be made out of this realm, of tin, or mixt with tin, as platters, dishes, saucers, pots, basons, ewers, Flagons, gobbets, Salts, Saltsellers, Spoones, or any other thing made of tin or pewter, as is aforesaid, whatsoeuer it be, vpon paine of forfeiture of the same ware in whose hãds soeuer it may be found or taken, & also lawfull money currant in this Realme, to the full value thereof, the one halfe of the same forfeiture to be to the vse of the Kings Highnesse, and the other halfe to be to the vse of the finders of the same. And furthermore be it &c. that it shall be lawfull to the maister & wardens of the said craft of pewterers, as wel within the city of Lond. as within euery other city, borough, & towne of this realme, where such wardens be, and where no such wardens be, to the head officer or gouernour, head officers or gouernours, of ỹ same city, borough or town for the time being, to appoint diuers persõs most expert in the knowledge of the same, to make search and seisure and to take into their hãds and possessions, al such wares, as hereafter shall be brought, contrarie to the true intent & effect of this present act, in whose soeuer hands or possessions any such shal be found. And also be it &c. That no person or persons occupying the said Craft or occupation of Pewterers within this Realme, shall set on worke, or retaine in his or their seruice any person or persons to be his or their Apprentice or Journeyman, being a stranger, borne out of this realm, vpon pain to forfeit for euery such Apprentice and Journeyman, ten pounds sterling. And ỹ no stranger born out of this Realme, shall occupy, exercise or vse from the feast of Pentecost next comming, the said craft of Pewterers, ne worke any maner of vessell or other ware aforesaid, to be made of Tin or Pewter, within any place or places of this Realme, vpon paine of forfeiture of ten pounds sterling. And also vpon paine of forfeiture of the same Pewter or Tin so wrought, in whose hands soeuer it shall be found or taken. And also be it &c. That no person being borne within this Realme, occupying or exercising the said craft of Pewterers, shall at any time hereafter resort into any strange regions and Countries, there to vse, teach or exercise the said craft of Pewterers, vpon paine to lose the priuiledge and benefit of an English man. And if in case any of the Kings subiects, at this present time being dwelling in any strange Countrey or Region, and other occupying of the said craft of Pewterers, doe not repaire into this Realme within three months next after request & warning to him to be giuen by writing, sealed with the common seale of the Wardens of the said craft within the said Citie of London, and here in this Realme continually from henceforth dwell and inhabit, that then, and from thencefoorth he shall be reputed and taken as no English man, but shall stand & be from thencefoorth out of the K. protection. And for as much as euill disposed persons, which commonly beene called Hawkers, by authoritie of the K. Letters Patents or placards doe not onely goe about from place to place within this Realm, byng, buying and selling of Brasse and Pewter, and by colour and pretence of the same licences or placards, vse vnlawfull weights and beames, but also doe vse to sell both Brasse and Pewter, which is not good, nor truely nor lawfully mixt nor wrought, to the great deceit of the Kings Liege people, contrarie to the forme and effect of the said good Act and Statute made in the said fourth yeare of the Kings most noble Reigne (5. cap. 7. before 2.) Be it therefore &c. That all such licences and placards heretofore had, made, or granted to any such person or persons, contrarie to the true meaning, forme and effect of this statute, shall be from henceforth by authoritie of this present Parliament, clearely voide and of none effect. And whereas in the said act of Parliament concerning the craft of Pewterers and Brasiers, made the said fourth yeare (5. cap. 7. before 2.) for diuers causes and considerations in the same act conteined, amongst other things it is expressed, that no person or persons vsing the said craft of Pewterers & Brasiers, should from thencefoorth sell or exchange any Pewter or brasse, new or olde, at any place or places within this Realme, but onely in open Faires and Markets, or in their owne dwelling houses, but if they were desired by the buyers of such wares, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery such default x.l. Forasmuch as the same forfeiture is to the only vse of ỹ kings Highnesse, and that any partie searching or finding the same, is not intituled to haue any benefit thereby, it hath not beene knowne, that any person or persons haue taken any paine to search or make any inquirie therof, by reasõ wherof diuers & many ill disposed persons, vsing buying, or selling both of Brasse and Pewter, and not regarding the said good Act, neither the said penalty, daily goe about from Village to Village, Towne to Towne, and from house to house, to sell such Pewter and Brasse which is not good, and also vse deceiueable weights and beames, as they did before the making of the said act, to the great hurt and deceit of the Kings true liege people and Subiects. Wherefore be it &c. that aswel the moity of the said forfeiture of tenne pound, limited in the said Statute made in the fourth yere (5. cap. 7. before 2.) as also the moity of all other forfeitures before expressed, and euery of them be and shall be to the vse of the Kings Highnesse, his heires and successors, and the other moitie of the same forfeitures and euery of them, to the vse of him or them that shall seaze, finde or present the said forfeitures or any of them, or that shall sue for the same, wherein the defendant shall in no wise be admitted to wage his law, nor &c. shall be allowed. AND for almuch that the making of the said Corporation is meritorious, and verie good for the common wealth of this your Reame, it is therefore expedient and necessarie to prouide, that no person of the said politike body and communaltie aforesaid, be suffered to exercise Phisicke, but only those persons that be profound, sad, and discrete, groundly learned, and deepely studied in Phisicke. In consideration whereof, and for the authorising of the same Letters Patents, and also inlarging of further articles for the said common wealth to be had and made, pleaseth it your Highnesse &c. to enact &c. That the said corporation of the said Communaltie and fellowship of the faculty of Phisicke aforesaid, and all and euerie graunt, Article, and other thing conteined and specified in the said Letters Patents be approued, granted, ratified, and confirmed in this present parliament and clearely authorized and admitted by the same, good lawfull and auaileable to your said body corporate, and their successors forener, in as ample and large maner, as may be taken, thought, and construed by the same. And that it shall please your Highnesse &c. further to enact &c. that the fiue persons aforesaid, in your said most gracious Letters Patents, named as principalls, and first named of the said communaltie and fellowship, chusing to them two or moe of the said communaltie from hence forward be called and cleped elects. And that the same elects yerely chuse one of them to be President of the said communaltie, as oft as any of the rowmes and places of the same elects shall fortune to be voide by death or otherwise, then the superuisors of the same elects (within thirty or forty daies next after the death of them, or any of them) shall chuse, name, and admit one or moe, as nede shall require, of the most cunning and expert men, of, and in the said faculty in London, to supply the said rowme and number of eight persons: So that hee or they that shall be so chosen, be first by the said superuisors streightly examined after a forme deuised by the said Elects, and also by the same superuisors approued. And where that in the Dioceses of England out of London, it is not likely to finde alway men able sufficiently to examine (after the Statute) such as shall bee admitted to exercise Phisicke in them, that it may bee enacted in this present Parliament, that no person from henceforth be suffered to exercise or practise in Phisicke thorow England, vntill such time that he be examined at London by the said President, and three of the said Elects, and to haue from the said Presidents or Elects, Letters testimonials of their approuing and examination, except hee be a graduate of Oxford or Cambridge, which hath accompliished all thing for his forme without any grace. 4 In most humble wise sheweth vnto your Maiestie, your true and faithfull Subiects and Liegemen, the President of the corporation of the communalty and Fellowship of the science and faculty of Phisicke in your City of London, and the commons and Fellows of the same: That whereas diuers of them many times hauing in cure aswell some of the Lords of your most honourable Councell, and diuers times many of the Nobilitie of this Realm, as many other of your faithfull & Liege people, cannot giue their due attendance to them, and other their patients, with such diligence, as their duety were, and is to doe, by reason they be many times compelled aswell within the said Citie of London and suburbs of the same, as in other Townes and Villages, to keepe watch and warde, and be chosen to the office of Constable, and other offices within the saide Citie and Suburbs of the same, as in other places within this your realme, to their great fatigation and vnquieting, and to the perill of their patients by reason they cannot be conueniently attended: It may therefore please your most excellent Maiestie, with the assent &c. to enact &c. that the President of the said Communalty and fellowship for the time being, and the commons and fellowes of the same, and euerie fellow thereof that now be, or at any time hereafter shall be, their successors, & the successors of euery of them, at all time & times after the making of this present act, shal be discharged to keep any watch or ward in your said City of Lond. or ỳ suburbs of the same, or any part thereof. And that they, nor any of them shall be chosen Cõstable, or any other officer in the said Citie or Suburbs. And for asmuch as the Science of Phisicke doth comprehend, include, and containe the knowledge of Surgery, as a speciall member and part of the same, therefore be it enacted, that any of the said company or fellowship of Physitians, being able, chosen, and admitted by the said president and fellowship of Physitians, may from time to time, as well within the citie of London, as elsewhere within this realme, practise & exercise the said science of Phisicke in all & euery his members & parts: any act, statute, or prouision made to the contrary notwithstanding. Anno 32. H. 8. cap. 40.

5 The king our Soueraign Lord by the aduice &c. duely pondring, among other things necessary for the common wealth of this realme, that it is verie expedient and needfull to prouide for men expert in the science of Phisicke and Surgery, for the health of mans body, when infirmity and sickenesse shall happen, for the due exercise and maintenance whereof, good and necessarie acts be already made and prouided: yet neuertheles, for asmuch as within the City of London, where men of great experience as well in speculation as in practise of the science and faculty of Surgerie, be abiding and inhabiting, and haue more commonly the dailie exercise & experience of the same science of Surgery, then is had or vsed within other parts of this realme, & by occasion thereof many expert persons be brought vp vnder them, as their seruants, apprentices, and others, who by the exercise & diligent information of their said maisters, as well now as hereafter shall exercise the said science, within diuers other parts of this Realme, to the great relefe, comfort, and succour of much people, & to the sure safegard of their bodily health, their limbs and liues. And forasmuch as within the said City of London, there be now seuerall and distinct companies of Surgeons occupying & exercising the said science & faculty of Surgerie, the one company being commonly called Barbors of London, and the other company called the Surgeons of London: which company of Barbors be incorporated to sue and to be sued by the name of maisters or gouernors of the mysterie and communaltie of the Barbors of London, by vertue & authority of the Letters Patents vnder the great Seale of the late king of famous memory king Edw. the fourth, dated at Westminster the 24. day of Feb. in the first yere of his reigne, which afterward aswell by our now most dreade soueraigne Lord, as by the right noble and vertuous prince King Henry the seauenth, Father vnto the Kings most excellent Highnesse now being, were and bee confirmed, as by sundrie Letters Patents thereof made, among other things in the same conteined, more at large may appeare: And the other company called the Surgeons, be not incorporate, nor haue any maner of corporation: which two seuerall and distinct Companies of Surgeons were necessarie to be vnited and made one body incorporate, to the intent that by their Vnion and often assemblies together, the good and due order, exercise, and knowledge of the said Science or faculty of Surgerie, should be aswell in speculation as in practise, both to themselues and all other their said seruants seruants and apprentices, now and hereafter to be brought vp vnder them, and by their learnings and diligent and ripe informations, more perfectly spedie, and effectuall remedy should be, then it hath bene, or should be, if the said two Companies of Barbors and Surgeons should continue severed asunder, and not ioyned together, as they before this time haue bene and vsed themselues, not medling together. Wherefore in consideration of the premisses, be it &c. that the said two seuerall and distinct Companies of Surgeons, that is to say, both the Barbours and the Surgeons, and euery person of them being a free man of either of the said Companies, after the customes of the said Citie of London, and their successors from henceforth immediately, be united and made one entire and whole body corporate, and one communalty perpetuall, which at all times hereafter shall be called by the name of Maisters and Gouernors of the mystery and communalty of Barbours & Surgeons of London for euermore, and by none other name. And by the same name to be impleaded and beimpleaded, before all maner of Iustices, in all Courts, in all maner of actions and suites. And also to purchase, inioy, & take to them and to their successors, all maner of lands, tenements, rents, and other possessions whatsoeuer they be. And also shall haue a common seale to serue for the busines of the said Company & corporation for euer. And by the same name peaceably, quietly, and indifferently haue power, & enioy to them and to their successors for euer, all such lands & tenements, & other hereditaments whatsoeuer, which the said Company or Communalitie of Barbours, haue and enioy to the vse of the said mistery and communalty of Barbours of London. And also peaceably and quietly haue and inioy all & singuler benefits, grants, liberties, priuiledges, fraunchises, & free customs, and also all maner of other things at any time giuen & graunted vnto the said Cõpanies of Barbors or Surgeons, by whatsoeuer name or names they or any of them were called, and which they or any of the now haue, or any of their predecessors haue had by acts of Parliament, Letters Pat. of the kings Highnes, or other his most Noble Progenitors, or otherwise by any lawfull meanes haue had, at any time afore this present act, in as large and ample maner and forme, as they or any of them haue had, might, or should inioy the same, this Union or Coniunction of the same Companies together notwithstanding. And as largely to haue and enioy the premisses, as if the same were & had bin specially and particularly expressed and declared with the best and most cleerest wordes & termes in the law, to all intents and purposes. And that all persons of the said Company now incorporate by this present act and their successors, that shall be lawfully admitted & approued, to occupie Surgerie, after the forme of the Statute in that case ordained and prouided, shall be exempt for bearing of armour, or to be put in any watches or inquests. And that they and their successors shall haue the search, ouersight, punishment, and correction, as well of freemen as of Forreines, for such offences as they, or any of them shall commit or doe against the good order of Barbery or Surgerie, as afore this time among the said mysterie & and company of Barbers of London, hath bene vsed and accustomed, according to the good and politike rules and ordinances by them made and approued by the Lord Chancelor, treasorer, and the chiefe Iustices of either bench, or any three of them, after the forme of the Statute in that case ordeined & prouided. And further be it &c. that the said Maisters or gouernours of the said Mystery and communalty of Barbers & Surgeons of London, and their successors, yerely for euer, after their said discretions, at their free libertie and pleasure, shal and may haue and take without contradiction, foure persons condemned, adiudged, and put to death for felony, by the due order of the kings lawes of this Realme, for Anotamies, without further sute or labour to be made to the kings Highnesse, his heires or successors for the same. And to make incision of the same dead bodies, or otherwise to order ỹ same after their said discretions at their pleasures for their further and better knowledge, instruction, insight, learning, and experience in the said science or faculty of surgerie. Sauing vnto all persons, their heires and successours, all such right, title, interest and demaund, which they or any of them might lawfully claime or haue, in, or to any of the lands and tenements, with the appurtenances belonging vnto the said company of Barbers and Surgeons, or any of them, at any time afore ỹ making of this Act, in as ample maner and form, as they or any of them had, or ought to haue had heretofore: any thing in this present act comprised to the contrarie hereof in any wise notwithstanding. And forasmuch as such persons vsing the mysterie or faculty of Surgerie, often times meddle and take into their cures and houses, such sicke and diseased persons as be infected with the pestilence, great pockes, and such other contagious infirmities, doe vse or exercise Barberie, as washing or shauing and other feates thereunto belonging, which is very perilous for infecting the kings Liege people resorting to their Shops and houses, there being washed or shaven: wherefore it is now enacted &c. That no mariner of person within the Citie of London, Suburbs of the same, and one mile compasse of the said City of London, after the Feast of the Natiuity of our Lord God next comming, vsing any Barberie or shauing, or that hereafter shall vse any Barberie or shauing, within the said City of London, suburbs, or one mile circuit of the same City of Lõdon, he nor they, nor none other for them, to his or their vse, shall occupie any Surgerie, letting of bloud, or any other thing belonging to surgery, drawing of teth only except. And furthermore in like maner, whosoeuer ỹ vseth the mystery or craft of surgery within the circuite aforesaid, as long as he shall fortune to vse the saide mistery or carft of surgery, shall in no wise occupy nor exercise the feat or craft of barbery or shauing, neither by himselfe, nor by none other for him, to his or their vse. And further be it &c. that no maner of person after the said feast of Saint Michaell the Archangell next comming, presume to keepe any shop of Barberie or shaning within the Citie of London, except he be a freemen of the same corporation and company. And furthermore, at such times hereto fore accustomed, there shall be chosen by the same company foure Masters or Gouernors of the same Corporation or Company, of the which foure, two of them shall be expert in surgerie, & the other two in Barberie, which iiij. Masters & euerie of them shall haue full power and authority from time to time, during their said office, to haue the ouersight, search, punishment and correction of all such defaults and inconueniences as shal be found among the said company vsing Barbery and Surgery, as well of freemen, as forreiners, aliens and strangers within the City of London and the circuite aforesaid, after their said discretions. And if any person or persons vsing any Barbery or Surgerie, at any time hereafter offend in any of these articles aforesaid, then for euery moneth the said persons so offending, shall lose, forfeit & pay fiue pounds, the one moity thereof to the king our Soueraigne Lord, & the other moity to any person that will or shal sue therefore by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information in any the kings Courts, wherein no wager of law, essoine or protection shal be admitted or allowed in the same. Prouided that the said Barbors and Surgeons, and euery of them shall beare and pay lot and Scot, & such other charges as they, and their predecessors haue bene accustomed to pay within this Citie of London: this act or any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding. Prouided alway and be it &c. that shall be lawfull to any of the kings Subiects, not being a Barbor nor Surgeon, to retaine, haue, and keepe in his house as seruant, any person being a Barbor or Surgeon, which shall and may vse and exercise those Arts and faculties of Barbery & surgery, or either of them in his masters house, or elsewhere by his Masters licence or commandement: any thing in this act aboue written to the contrary being, notwithstanding. 2 Forasmuch as the former lawes haue béne defrauded by inuenting of new vnlawfull games, whereby diuine seruice is stil neglected, and archerie also decaied, and thereupon many Bowyers & Fletchers haue left the Realme, and practised their Sciences in forreine Countries, & many of them are come to dwell about London, and doe forsake the Countrie, and so the feat of Archerie, (whereby great victories haue béen heretofore atchiued) is little vsed, and the lesse, by reason that the poore people be not able to buy long Bowes of yew: Be it &c. that euerie man being the Kings subiect, not lame, decrepit, nor maimed, nor hauing any other lawfull or reasonable cause or impediment, being within the age of threescore yeares, except spirituall men, Iustices of the one bench and of the other, Iustices of the Assise, and Barons of the Exchequer, shall from the feast of Pentecost nert comming, vse and exercise shooting in any long bows, and also haue bowe and arrowes ready continually in his house to vse himselfe, and doe vse himself in shooting. And also the Father, Gouernours, rulers of such as be of tender age, doe teach & bring vp them in knowledge of the same shooting. And ỹ euery man hauing a man child, or men children in his house, shall prouide, or deine, & haue in his house for euerie man child, being of the age of vij. yeares & aboue, till hee shall come to the age of xxiij. yeares, a bow, & two shafts to induce & learn them and bring thẽ vp in shooting, & shall deliuer all the same bows & arrowes to the same yong men to vse and occupy And if the same yong men be seruants, that then their master shall abate the money ỹ they shall pay for the same bow & arrows of their wages. And after al such yõg men men shal come to the age of 17. yeres, euery of them shal prouide & haue a bow and iiij. arrowes continually for himselfe, at his proper costs and charges, or else of the gift and prouision his friendes, and vse and occupy the same in Shooting, as is afore rehearsed. And if the maſter ſuffer any of his ſeruants taking wages, being in his houſhold, and vnder the age of ſeuentéene yéeres, or the father ſuffer any of his ſonnes, being in his houſhold, and vnder the age of ſeuentéene yeares, to lacke a bowe and two arrowes, contrary to the forme of this Statute, by the ſpace of j. month together, then the maſter or father in whom ſuch negligence ſhall be, ſhall for euery ſuch default forfeit vj.s. viij.d. And that euery ſeruant paſſing the age of ſeuentéene yéeres, and vnder the age of three ſcore yeares, and taking wages, which can, or is able to ſhoote, and ſhall lacke a bow and foure arrowes by the ſpace of one moneth together, ſhall for euery ſuch default, forfeit and loſe vj. ſhillings and eight pence. Be it enacted &c. That no man vnder the age of foure and twentie yeares, ſhall ſhoote at anie ſtanding prycke, except it be for a Rouer, whereat hée ſhall chaunge at euery ſhoote his marke, vpon paine for euerie ſhoote doing the contrarie foure pences. And that no other perſon aboue the ſaide age of foure and twentie yeares, ſhall ſhoot at any marke of eleuen ſcore yards or vnder, with any prycke ſhaft, or flight, vnder the paine to forfeit for euery ſhoot vj.s. viij. pence. And that no perſon vnder the age of xxj. yeares, except he or his father or mother haue lands or tenemẽts, to the yérely value of x.l, or be worth in mouables, the ſumme of xl. marks ſterling, ſhall ſhoot in any bow of Yew, which ſhalbe bought for him, after the feaſt of the Purification of our Ladie next comming, vnder the paine to forfeit and loſe vj.s. viij.d. And alſo that Butts be made on this ſide the feaſt of S. Michaell the Archangell next comming in euerie citie, towne, and places, by the inhabitants of euery ſuch city, towne, and place, according to the law of ancient time vſed. And that the inhabitants and dwellers in euery of them, be compelled to make and continue ſuch Butts, vpon paine to forfeit for euery thrée moneths ſo lacking twentie ſhillings. And that the ſaid Inhabitants ſhall exerciſe themſelues with long bowes in ſhooting at the ſame, and elſewhere, in Holy dayes, and other times conuenient. And to the intent that euery perſon may haue Bowes of meane prycke: Be it &c. That euery Bowyer dwelling out of the Citie and ſuburbes of London, ſhall after the ſaid feaſt of the Purification of our Lady next comming, for euery Bow that he maketh of Yew, make foure other Bowes méete to ſhoot in, of Elme, Wichhaſel, Aſh, or other wood apt for the ſame, vnder the paine to loſe and forfeit for euery ſuch Bow ſo lacking thrée ſhillings foure pence. And euerie Bowyer dwelling within the ſaid City or ſuburbs of London, ſhall after the ſaid feaſt of the Purificatiõ of our Lady next comming, for euery bowe of Yew that he ſhal make, ſhall alſo make v. other bowes apt for ſhooting, of Aſh, Elme, Wichhaſel, or other wood méete for the ſame, vnder like paines and forfeiture. And be it &c. that no bowyer ſhall ſell any bowe of Yew, for any perſon being betweene the age of ſeuen yeares and fouretéene yeares, aboue the prycs of twelue pence. And that the ſame Bowyers ſhall haue Bowes of Yew of all prices, from ſix pence the péece to twelue pence the péece, for youth betweene the ſaid ages of vij. yéeres and fourcténe yeares. And likewiſe haue Bowes of Yew for youth betweene the age of fouretéene yeares and one and twentie yeares, and ſhall ſell the ſame at reaſonable prices. And moreouer, that no Bowyer ſhal ſel, or put to ſale to anie the kings ſubiects, any bow of Yew, of the tare called Elke, aboue the prycs of iij.s. iiij.d, vnder the paine to forfeit twenty ſhillings for euery bow ſold to the contrary aboue the ſame prycs of thrée ſhillings foure pence, as appeareth by a Statute made in the xxj. yeare of the reigne of King Edward the fourth, (which ſee in Bowes 2. But ſee there 7. this clauſe, and certaine of the other former braunches alſo chaunged in ſome part.) And that Bowſtaues of Yew hereafter to be brought into this Realme, ſhal be ſold open, and not in bundles, nor cloſe, to the intent that buyers of them may haue perfect knowledge of the goodneſſe of them, and giue the better price for them, if they be ſo worth. (See Bowes 3.) And furthermore be it &c. That Fletchers of London, and the ſuburbes of the ſame, may at their libertie ſel ſeaſonable timber to euery Fletcher of the country, without falling into any penalty or daunger to any of the Wardens for ſo doing, and that all Ordinances, and other Lawes made, or to be made, by their Wardens or otherwiſe to the contrary, ſhalbe from henceforth clerely fruſtrate and voide. And alſo be it &c. That the Bowyers, Fletchers, Stringers, and Arrowheadmakers, repayring or reſorting vnto the ſaid Citie or the ſuburbs of the ſame, and there making their dwelling or abiding, not free men of the ſaid City, bearing neyther Scot nor Lot within the ſaid Citie, ſhall at all times, by the appoyntment of your Graces moſt honourable Counſell, the Lord Chauncellour of England for the time being, Lord Treaſorer, or the Lord priuy Seale, or one of them, goe and inhabite in ſuch Cities, Boroughs, and Townes as be deſtitute of ſuch artificers, and there to exerciſe, occupie, and practiſe their ſaid craftes and faculties, for the maintenaunce of Artillery and Archery. And if any ſuch perſon to whom warning ſhall be ſo giuen by the Kings moſt honourable Counſell, the Lord Chancellor, the Lord Treaſorer, or the Lord priuie Seale, as is aforeſaid, to departe vnto other Townes or places of the ſaid Realme of England from the ſaid City of London, the ſuburbs, ſtreets, lanes and places nére to the ſame, refuſe to accompliſh the ſame: that then he or they ſo refuſing, ſhal forfeit for euerie day that hée ſhall make his abode contrary to this Act, xl. ſhillings. Be it alſo enacted, &c. That no ſtranger borne out of the Kings obeyſance, not being denizen, ſhall conuey, or do to be conueyed, giue, ſell, or exchange into anie partes out of the Kings obeyſaunce, any long Bowes, Arrowes, or Shafts, without the Kings ſpeciall licence, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame where ſoeuer they ſhall be taken, or the value thereof, within the Kings power, and vpon paine of impriſonment without baile or mainprize, vnto ſuch time as hée or they ſo being in ward, haue made a reaſonable fine to the K. for his or their offences afore the Iuſtices of Peace, or two of them in their Seſſions in the ſame Countie where hée or they ſhall

And the Iuſtices of Aſſiſe, of gaole deliuerie, Iuſtices of peace, and Stewards of Franchiſes, Leetes, and Lawdayes, haue power to enquire of all the premiſſes in their Seſſions, Leetes, and Lawdayes, and heare and determine the ſame, and alſo by their diſcretion, examine all perſons lacking and not hauing Bowes, Shafts and Arrowes, according to the forme aforeſaid. Be it alſo &c. That no manner of perſon or perſons, of what degree, qualitie or condition ſoeuer hee or they be, from the feaſt of the Natiuitie of Saint Iohn Baptiſt now next comming, by himſelfe, factour, deputy, ſeruant or other perſon, ſhall for his or their gaine, lucre or liuing, keepe, haue, holde, occupie, exerciſe, or maintaine any common houſe, alley, or place of bowling, coiting, cloſh, cailes, halfe bowle, tennis, dicing, tables, or carding, or any other manner of game prohibited by any ſtatute heretofore made, or any other new vnlawfull game now inuented or made, or any other new vnlawfull game, hereafter to be inuented, found, had, or made, vpon paine to forfeit and pay for euerie day keeping, hauing, or maintaining, or ſuffering any ſuch game to be had, kept, executed, played, or maintained within any ſuch houſe, garden, alley, or other place contrary to the forme and effect of this Statute, forty ſhillings. And alſo euerie perſon vſing and haunting anie of the ſaid houſes and places, and there playing, to forfeit for euery time ſo doing, fiue ſhillings and eight pence. And if anie perſon hereafter ſue for anie placard to haue common gaming in his houſe, contrarie to this Statute, that then it ſhall be contained in the ſame placard what game ſhall be vſed in the ſame houſe, and what perſons ſhall play thereat, and euerie placard graunted to the contrarie, to be voide: And alſo, that the party obtaining any ſuch placard, before he put the ſame in execution, ſhall be bound with ſufficient ſureties with him by recognisance in the Chauncerie in a certaine ſumme, to be appointed by the diſcretion of the Lord Chauncellour of England, that he ſhall not vſe the ſaid placard contrarie to the forme thereof. Be it further &c. That it ſhall be lawfull to all and euery the Iuſtices of Peace, in euery ſhire, Maiors, Sherifes, Bailifes, and other head Officers, within euerie Citie, Towne, and Borough within this Realme, from time to time, aſwell within Liberties as without, as neede and cauſe ſhall require, to come, enter, and reſort into all and euery houſe, places and alleys, where ſuch games ſhall be ſuſpected to be holden, exerciſed, vſed, or occupied contrarie to the forme of this eſtatute, and aſwell the keepers of the ſame, as alſo the perſons there haunting, reſorting and playing, to take, arreſt, and impriſon, and them ſo taken, and arreſted, to keepe in priſon, vnto ſuch time as the keepers and maintainers of the ſaid plays & games haue found ſureties to the Kings vſe, to be bound by Recogniſance, or otherwiſe, no longer to vſe, keepe, or occupie any ſuch houſe, play, game, alley, or place, and alſo that the perſons there ſo found, be in like caſe bounden by themſelues, or elſe with ſureties by the diſcretion of the Iuſtices, Maiors, Sherifes, Bailifes, or other head Officers, no more to play, haunt, or exerciſe from thenceforth, in, at, or to anie of the ſaid places, or at anie of the ſaid games. Alſo be it &c. That the Maiors, Sherifes, Bailifes, Conſtables, and other head Officers within euerie Citie, Borough, and Towne within this Realme, where any ſuch Officers ſhall fortune to be, as well within the franchiſes as without, ſhall make due ſearch weekely, or at the furtheſt, at all times hereafter once euery month in all places where any ſuch houſes, alleys, plaies or places ſhall be ſuſpected to be had, kept and maintained. And if the ſaid Maiors, Sherifes, Bailifes, Conſtables, or other head Officers within their Cities, Boroughs and Townes, as well within franchiſes as without, doe not make due ſearch at the furtheſt once euerie moneth, if the caſe ſo requires, according to the tenor of this Act, and not not execute the ſame in all things, according to the purport and force of the ſame, that then euerie ſuch Mayor, Sherifes, bailifes, conſtable or other head officer, to pay, and forfeit for euery moneth, not making ſuch ſearch, nor executing the ſame, forty ſhillings. Be it alſo &c. that no manner of Artificer or Craftſman, of any handicraft or occupation, huſbandman, apprentice, labourer, ſeruant at huſbandry, iourneiman, or ſeruant of artificer, mariners, fiſhermen, watermen, or any ſeruingman, ſhall from the ſaid feaſt of the Natiuitie of S. Iohn Baptiſt, play at the tables, tennis, dice, cardes, bowles, cloſh, coyting, logating, or any other vnlawfull game out of Chriſtmaſſe, vnder the paine of twenty ſhillings, to be forfeit for euery time, and in Chriſtmaſſe to play at any of the ſaid Games in their maſters houſes, or in their maſters preſence. And alſo, That no manner of perſon ſhall at anie time play at any bowle or bowles, in open places out of his garden or orchard, vnder the paine for euery time ſo offending, to forfeit fiue ſhillings eight pence. And that all Iuſtices of Peace, Maiors, Bailifes, Sherifes, and all other head Officers, and euery of them, finding and knowing any manner perſon or perſons vſing or exerciſing anie vnlawfull games contrarie to this preſent eſtatute, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to commit euery ſuch offender to ward, there to remaine without baile or mainepriſe, vntill ſuch time that they ſo offending, be bounden by Obligation to the Kings vſe, in ſuch ſummes of money, as by the diſcretion of the ſaide Iuſtices, Maiors, Bailifes and other head Officers, ſhall be thought reaſonable, that they or any of them ſhall not from thenceforth vſe ſuch vnlawfull games. Be it &c. That all other ſtatutes made for the reſtraint of vnlawful games, or for the maintenance of Artillerie, as touching the penalties, or forfeitures of the ſame, ſhall be

from henceforth vtterly voide. And that all informations, plaints, actions, or suites that shall be taken or sued vpon any part of this Estatute, shall be commenced within the yeare after the offence committed and none, or otherwise no aduantage or said thereof to be taken. And where any such forfeiture shall happen to be sued, within the precinct of anie Franchise, Leete, or Lawday, then the Lord of the same Franchise, Leete, or Lawday to haue the one moitie thereof, and the other moitie the vse to anie of the Kings subiects that will sue for the same in any of the Kings Courts, by Action, Information, Bill, or otherwise, in which action or suite, the defendant shall not be admitted to wage his Law &c. And where such forfeiture shall be founden out of the precinct of any Franchise, Leete, or Lawday, that the moitie of all such forfeitures shall be to the king our Soueraigne Lord, and the other moitie thereof to anie the Kings subiects that will sue, &c. in which suit &c. And to the intent that every person may haue knowledge of this Act, and auoid the dangers and penalties of the same: Be it enacted, &c. That all Maiors, Bailifes, Shriefes, and all other head Officers, shall foure times in the yeare, that is to say, euery quarter once, make open proclamation of this present Act, in euerie Market to be holden within their seuerall iurisdictions and authorities. And also that the Iustices of gaole deliuery, Assises, and Iustices of Peace, doe cause the same to be proclaimed in their seuerall Circuits and Sessions before them holden, and that this Estatute shall beginne to take his effect, concerning the penalties of the same, from the said feast of saint John Baptist now next comming, and to continue for euer. Prouided alway, and be it, &c. That if anie person or persons, haue taken by Lease, whether it be by word, writing, or otherwise, any house, alley, or place wherein any such vnlawfull game now is, and at the time of such Lease made was vsed: that then euery such Lease shall at the libertie of him or them, to whom such Lease is made, their executors, administrators, or assignes, from the said feast of the Natiuitie of Saint John Baptist, be vtterly void, except it be for breach of couenants or agreements, or payment of Rent due, or to be due at the said feast, or any time before, so that then at the same feast, or within one moneth next after the same, the said lessee giue knowledge to such Lessor or Lessors, their heires or assignes, that hee will no longer occupie the same, and that then it shall be lawfull to the Inheritor, Lessor or Owner thereof, or to his heires or assignes, in the same house, alley or place to reenter. Prouided also, and be it &c. That it shal be lawfull for euery Master to licence his or their seruants to play at cardes, dice, or tables with their said master, or with any other gentleman repairing to their said Maister openly in his or their house, or in his or their presence, according to his or their discretion. And that it shalbe lawfull to euery such seruant, for euery time so being commaunded or licensed by his said Master, as is aforesaid, to play at cardes, dice, or tables, with his said Master or other Gentleman so to him repayring, anie thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding. Prouided also, and be it &c. That it shall be lawfull to euerie noble man, and other hauing mannors, landes, tenements, or other yearely possessions, for terme of life in his owne right, or vnto his wiues right, to the yearely valleu an hundred pounds or aboue, to retaine vnto him by appoynt, or licence by his or their discretion, three of their seruants, or family of his or their house or houses, for to play within the precinct of his or their houses, gardens, or orchards, at cardes, dice, tables, bowles, or tennis, as well among themselues, as other repairing to the same house or houses. And that they so playing by commaundement, appointment, or licence, as is aforesaid, shall not incurre any danger or penalty contained in this Act for the same, this act or any thing therein contained to the contrary thereof in anie wise notwithstanding. Prouided alway, and be it &c. that all informations, actions and suites, now depending in any of the Kings Courts for, or concerning any penalties or forfeitures, contained in any of the said Statutes, by this Act repealed, and no Iudgement therein yet giuen, the same Information, Actions, and Suites shall be, remaine, and stand as good and effectuall in the Lawe, to all intents, constructions, and purposes, as if this Act had neuer been had nor made, any thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof, in any wise notwithstanding. Anno 33 Hen. 8. cap. 9.

That from and after the Feast of the Birth of our Lord God next comming, euerie Licence, Placard or Graunt, made to anie person or persons, for the hauing, maintenaunce, or keeping of any Bowling alleys, Dicing houses, or any other vnlawfull Games, prohibited by the Lawes any Estatutes of this Realme, shall be from the saide Feast vtterly voyde, and of none effect. 2 Whereas perſons indicted of felonies, robberies, and theft, in times paſt haue removed the ſame indictment before the King, and there yelded themſelfe, and by the Marſhals of the Kings bench haue beene incontinently let to baile: And afterwards haue done many euill deedes, and lien in awaite to ſlay and euill intreat their indictors: And alſo perſons appealed of felonie, after the exigend awarded, haue yelded themſelf before the King, and alſo beene let to baile by the ſaid Marſhalls: It is ordeyned and eſtabliſhed, that ſuch indictes and appeales ſhall be ſafely and ſurely kept in priſon, as belongeth according to the charge which the ſaid Marſhals ſhall haue of the Juſtices. And if anie Marſhall doe otherwiſe, at the complaint of euerie man that will complaine, the Juſtice ſhall doe him right during the terme. And that in the end of the terme, the ſaid Marſhals ſhall chuſe before the ſaid Juſtices, before they depart the places, in what Towne they will keepe ſuch priſoners at their perill. And in the ſame towne they ſhall hire houſes to keep ſuch priſoners at their owne coſts and charges, and there they ſhall keepe them in priſon, and ſhall not ſuffer them to goe wandring abroad, neyther by baile, nor without baile. And if anie ſuch priſoner be found wandring out of priſon, by baile or without baile, and that be found at the Kings ſuite, or at the ſuite of the party, The Marſhalls which ſhall be found thereof guilty, ſhall haue halfe a yeares impriſonment, and beſides that, to be raunſomed at the Kings will: And the Juſtices ſhall thereof make enquiry when they ſee time. And as to the Marſhalls within the Clergie ſhall be done, that that reaſon will. And in caſe that the Marſhals ſuffer by their aſſent ſuch priſoners to eſcape, they ſhall be at the Lawe, as before this time they haue beene. And the King intendeth not by this ſtatute, to loſe the eſcape where he ought to haue the ſame. Anno 5. Ed. 3. ca. 8.

3 Item in the right of the Gaoles, which were wont to be in ward of the Sheriffes, and annexed to the Bailiwickes: It is aſſented and accorded, that they ſhall be reioyned to the Sheriffes, and the Sheriffes ſhall haue the cuſtodie of the ſame Gaoles, as before this time they were wont to haue: And they ſhall put in ſuch Keepers for whom they will anſwer. And if it happen, that the keeper of the priſon, or vnderkeeper, by too great dureſſe of impriſonment, and by paine, make any priſoner, that he hath in his ward, to become an Appealer againſt his will, and thereof be attainted, he ſhall haue iudgement of life and of member. And that the Juſtices before whom ſuch caſe ſhall happen, ſhall enquire vpon the trueth: And if they find by Enqueſt thereupon taken, that any keeper or vnderkeeper hath done the ſame, he ſhalbe thereof arraigned, and if he be found guiltie, he ſhall haue iudgement of life and of member, as afore is ſaid. Upon payne to forfeite twentie pounds by them or any of them committed contrary to this Act, to lose and forgeate an hundred shillings to the King our Soueraigne Lord, such time the appearance of euery such person so attached, the saide Justices, or three of them, shall haue full power and authoritie, to commit them to prison there to remaine without Baile or Mainprise, till they haue truely accounted and payde all such summes of money as come to their handes by the assignement of the sayde Justices by authoritie of this Act. And in case there happen to remaine any ouerplus of money after the Gaoles built and wholy finished: then it is ordered that the same ouerplus shall be employed and bestowed in almes to the prisoners, to bee committed to the sayde Gaole, by the discretions of the sayd Justices of Peace or the more part of them, as long as it will last. Prouided alway, that this Act extend not to charge any person inhabiting within any Cities, Townes or Boroughs corporate, which haue common Gaoles for Felons taken in the same, and haue Justices of Peace for deliuerance of such Felons, for any taxes or lots in the making of the sayde common Gaoles of any the Shires aboue named, but that euery such inhabitant in any such Citie, Towne, or Borough corporate, shall bee vtterly discharged thereof. And be it further enacted, that seuerall Commissions vnder the Kings great Seale, with this present Act thereto annexed, shall be directed to the Justices of Peace of the Shires aforenamed, authorizing them to accomplish and execute this present Act, according to the tenor thereof in euery behalfe. And that the sayd Justices of Peace in euerie of the Shires aforenamed, haue power and authoritie to limit to euery of the sayde Collectors & persons by them to be named, that shall take paynes in leuying of the mony taxed, or for the surueying of the making of the saide Gaoles, such reasonable summes for their paynes and labors, for the Collection of the sayd money and surueying the making of the saide gaoles. And be it further enacted by the authoritie &c. that all Murderers and Felons shall be imprisoned in the saide common Gaoles, and not elsewhere. And that the Shirifes shall haue the keeping and charge of the same newe Gaoles. And that euerie Shirife be allowed vpon his Accompt in the Exchequer for all and euerie such Summes of mony as he shall hereafter happen to expende, in, or about the necessarie Reparations or Amendment of the sayde Gaole, after they bee once made, from time to time, as often as neede shall require. And that the Barons of the Kings Exchequer shall haue power to allow euerie Shirife in euerie such case by their discretions, without any Will or Warrant to bee sought from the Kings Highnesse in that behalfe. Prouided alwayes, that this Act bee not in any wise hurtfull or preiuditiall to any person or persons, hauing any common Gaoles, by inheritance for terme of life or yeeres, but that they shall haue and enioy their sayd Gaoles, and the profits, fees and commodities of the same, as they had or might lawfully haue had before the making of this, and as if this act had neuer been nor ne made. Be it &c. that like prouision in euery behalfe be had for a newe Gaole to be made within the Countie of Derby, in like forme as is prouided for other Shires aforesayd. Anno 23. H. 8. ca. 8. This Act was by diuers Parliaments continued till Ann. 5. Eliz. And there cap. 24. continued and enlarged. And also after Anno 13. 9 Where, in the last Parliament holden at Westminster (5. An. 1. & 2. Ph. & M. ca. 13. See this Statute in Mainprise 7.) amongst other things it was enacted, that such Justices of the Peace as haue authoritie to Bayle any Prisoner brought before them for any manslaughter or felonie before any Baylement or Mainprise, should take the examination of the sayd Prisoner, and information of them that bring him, of the fact and circumstance thereof, and the same or as much thereof as shall bee materiall to the Felonie, shall put in writing before they make the same Baylement, which sayd Examination, together with the sayd Baylement, the sayde Justices shall certifie at the next generall Gaole deliuerie, to bee holden within the limits of their Commission, as by the same Act more plainely is contayned and may appeare. And forasmuch as the sayde act doth not extend to such Prisoners, as shall bee brought before any Justice of Peace for Manslaughter or Felonie, and by such Justice shall bee committed to ward for the suspition of such Manslaughter or Felonie, and not Bayled, in which case the Examination of such Prisoner, and of such as shall bring him, is as necessary, or rather more, that where such Prisoner shalbe let to Bayle or Mainprise. Be it therefore enacted by the authoritie of this present Parliament, that from henceforth such Justices or Justice before whom any person shall be brought for Manslaughter or Felonie, or for suspition thereof, before hee or they shall commit or send such Prisoner to ward, shall take the examination of such Prisoner, and information of those that bring him, of the fact and circumstance thereof, and the same or as much thereof as shall bee materiall to proue the Felonie, shall put in writing within two dayes after the sayd Examination, and the same shall certifie in such manner and forme, and at such time as they should and ought to doe if such Prisoner so committed or sent to Ward, had been Bayled, or let to Mainprise, vpon such payne as in the sayd former act is limited and appointed for not taking or not certifying such Examinations as in the said former Act is expressed. And be it further enacted, that the sayd Justices shall haue authoritie by this Act to binde all such by Recognisance or Obligation, as doe declare any thing materiall to proue the sayde Manslaughter or Felonie against such Prisoner as shall be

☞ 10 Forasmuch as the ſayd Act for the making of Gaoles, made in the ſayd three and twentieth yeare of the Raigne of the ſayde late King Henry the eight (before 8.) is very good and profitable for the Common wealth of this Realme. Be it therefore enacted and eſtabliſhed by the authoritie of this preſent Parliament, that the ſayde act for making of gaoles, and all clauſes, Articles, and proviſions in the ſame contayned, ſhall continue and endure in full force and effect, and be obſerued and kept in all things, vnto the end and terme of tenne yeares, next enſuing the laſt day of this preſent Parliament. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſayd, that the Juſtices of peace in euery of the Shires named and expreſſed in the ſayd act, or the moſt part of the ſayd Juſtices of Peace, in euery of the ſayd Shires, within the limittes of their Commiſſion, ſhall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this act, at all time and times within the ſayde terme of tenne yeares, to doe, make and execute, and cauſe to bee done, made, and executed, all and euerie ſuch Act and Acts, thing and things requiſite for the making and building of the ſayd Gaoles, as they or any of them might or ought at any time haue done by vertue of the ſaide act, made in the ſayd three and twentieth yeare of the ſayde late King Henry the eight. Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſayd, that the Juſtices of Peace of the Counties of Pembroke, Glamorgan, Cardigan, Radnor, and Mountgomerie in Wales, or the moſt part of them, reſiant within euerie of the ſayd Counties, and all ſuch Surueyors, Collectors, and other perſons to whom the execution of the ſayd firſt recited ſtatutes doth or may appertayne, ſhall haue ſuch and like power and authoritie to doe and execute all and euery ſuch thing and things for and concerning the building and new making of Gaoles, as the Juſtices of Peace and other perſons, before mentioned of any of the Counties contayned in the ſayd firſt recited Statute, haue in that behalfe. And that alſo the moſt part of the Juſtices of Peace, reſiant within any the Counties ſpecified in the ſayd firſt recited ſtatute, ſhall and may doe and execute all euery thing and things mentioned in the ſaid firſt recited ſtatute, touching or concerning the ſayde Gaoles: Any doubt or ambiguitie heretofore had or moued, or hereafter to bee had or moued, notwithſtanding. Prouided alſo, that the inhabitants of any of the Counties ſpecified in the ſayd firſt recited Act, or any of the Counties of Wales, ſhall not be charged by vertue hereof or of y ſaide firſt recited act, to beare and ſuſtaine any taxes or charges for the building, repayring, or new making of any Gaole or Gaoles, where any other perſon or perſons, body politick or corporate, ought by law, preſcription, or by any other good or lawfull meanes or meanes to build, make, or repaire the ſame. And that the ſayd Acts, and euerie clauſe, ſentence, and proviſion in them, and either of them contayned, ſhall continue and endure, and bee obſerued in all things as well within the ſayde Countie of Cambridge, as in other the Counties of Shires, in the ſame Acts & in either of them ſpecified, for ten whole yeares next enſuing the end and determination of the tenne yeares mentioned in the ſayde Act, made in the ſayde fift yeare of the Raigne of our Soueraigne Lady the Queenes maieſtie that now is. An 13. Elizab. cap. 25.

12 Be it ſet. That all and euery perſon and perſons whatſoeuer, that from and after the end of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, ſhall be committed to the common or vſual Gaole within any County or Libertie within this realm by any Juſtice or Juſtices of the peace, for any offence or miſdemeanor, That the ſaid perſon or perſons ſo to be committed as aforeſayd, hauing meanes or ability thereunto, ſhall beare their owne reaſonable charges for ſo conueying or ſending them to the ſayde Gaole, and the charges alſo of ſuch as ſhall be appointed to guard them to ſuch Gaole, and ſhall to giue them further. And if any ſuch perſon or perſons ſo to be committed as aforeſayde, ſhall refuſe at the time of their commitment and ſending to the ſayd gaole, to defray the ſaide charges, or ſhall not then pay or beare the ſame, That then ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, ſhall and may by writing vnder his or their hand and ſeale, or hands and ſeales, giue warrant to the Conſtable or Conſtables of the Hundred, or Conſtable or Tything man of the Tything or Townethippe, where ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall be dwelling and inhabite, or from whence he or they ſhall be committed as aforeſayde, or where he or they ſhall haue any goods within the Countie or Liberty, to ſell ſuch and ſo much of the goodes and chattels of the ſayd perſons ſo to be committed, as by the diſcretion of the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace ſhall ſatiſfie and pay the charges of ſuch his or their conueying and ſending to the ſayde Gaole, the Appraiſement to be made by foure of the honeſt Inhabitants of the Parish or Tything, where ſuch goods or chattels ſhal remain and be, and the ouerplus of the mony which ſhalbe made thereof, to be deliuered to the partie to whom the ſaide goods ſhall belong. And beit further enacted by the authoritie aforeſayde, That if the ſayde perſon or perſons ſo to be committed, as aforeſayd, ſhall not haue, or bee knowne to haue any goods or chattels, which may be ſold for the purpoſe aforeſayd within the Countie or Libertie, That then an indifferent tare or aſſeſſement ſhall bee made by the Conſtables & Churchwardens, and two or three other the honeſt inhabitants of the parish, Townelhippe, or Tything, where the ſaid offendor or offendors ſhall be taken or apprehended, the ſaid Taration being allowed vnder the hand of one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, if there bee ſuch Conſtables and Churchwardens there inhabiting, and in default of them by foure of the principall Inhabitants of the ſayde Parish, Townelhippe, or Tything, where ſuch offendors ſhall be taken or apprehended. And if any ſo tared, or aſſeſſed, ſhall refuſe to pay their ſaide Taration, then the Juſtice or Juſtices of Peace, by whom the ſayd offendors ſhal be committed to priſon as aforeſayd or any other Juſtice of Peace nere adioyning, ſhall and may giue warrant as aforeſayd to the Conſtable, Tythingman, or other Officer there to diſtraine the goods of any ſo aſſeſſed, which ſhall refuſe to pay the ſame and to ſell the ſame. And ỳ ſuch perſon or perſons ſo authorized ſhal haue ful power & authority ſo to diſtraine, and by appraiſement of foure ſubſtantiall Inhabitants of the ſaid place, to ſell a ſufficient quantity of the goods and chattels, of the ſaide perſons ſo refuſing, for the leuying of the ſame Tarations: And if any ouerplus of money come by the ſame thereof, the ſame to be deliuered to the perſon or perſõs, owner or owners thereof. And be it &c. That if any action of Treſpas or other ſuit ſhall happen to be attempted, and brought againſt the perſon or perſons, for taking of any diſtreſſe, making of any ſale, or any other act by authority of this preſent act, The Defendant or Defendants in any ſuch action or ſuit, ſhall and may either plead not guilty, or otherwiſe make Auowrie, Cognizance, or Juſtification for the taking of the ſaid Diſtreſſes, making of ſale or other act by vertue of this act, alleaging in ſuch Auowrie, Cognizance, or Juſtification, that the ſayd Diſtreſſe, Sale, Treſpas or other thing whereof the Plaintife or Plaintifes complayned, was done by authoritie of this Act, and according to the Tenor, Purport, and effect of this act, without any expreſſing or reherſall of any other matter of circumſtance contayned in this preſent act. To which auowry, Cognizance or Juſtification, the Plaintife ſhall bee admitted to replie, that the Defendant did take the ſayd Diſtres, made the ſaid Sale, or did any other Act or Treſpaſſe ſuppoſed in his declaration of his owne wrong, without any ſuch cauſe alleaged by the ſayd Defendant, whereupon the iſſue in euery ſuch action ſhall bee ioyned to bee tryed by verdit of twelue men, and not otherwiſe, accuſtomed in other perſonall actions: And vpon the triall of that iſſue, the whole matter to bee giuen on both parties in euidence, according to the verie trueth of the ſame. And after ſuch iſſue tried for the Defendant, or Nonſuit of the Plaintife after appearance, the ſayde Defendant to recouer treble Dammages, by reaſon of his wrongfull Treble damages uexation in that behalfe, with coſtes alſo on that part ſuſtained, and that to be aſſeſſed by the ſame Jury or Writ, to enquire of the damages, as the ſame ſhall require. This act to continue vntill the end of the firſt ſeſſion of the next Parliament. Anno 3. Iac. ca. 10.

Probate of Teſtaments.

3 Euerie Iustice of peace within euerie Shire within this his said realm, within the Shire where he is Iustice of peace, doe cause openly and solemnly to be proclaimed yeerely, foure times a yeere in foure principall Sessions, the tenor of this Proclamation of this bill annexed, and that euerie Iustice of peace being present at any of the sayd Sessions, if they cause not the said Proclamation to be made in forme aboue said, shall forfeit to our said Soueraigne Lord at euerie time x.li.

The Proclamation.

HEnricus Dei gratia &c. The King our Soueraigne Lord considereth how daily within this Realme his coyne is traiterously counterfeited, murders, robberies, felonies beene grieuously committed and done, also vnlawfull retainers, ibienelle, vnlawfull playes, extortions, misdemeanings of Sherifes, Escheators, and many other enormities & vnlawfull demeanings daily groweth more and more within this his Realme, to the great displeasure of God, hurt and impouerishing of his subiects, and to the subuersion of the policie and good gouernance of this his Realme: and by these said enormities and mischieses his peace is broken, his subiects troubled, inquieted, and impouerished, the husbandrie of this land decayed, whereby the Church of England is vpholden, the seruice of God continued, euerie man thereby hath sustenance, euerie inheritor his rent for his land: For repressing and auoyding of the said mischieses sufficient lawes and ordinances be made by authoritie of many & diuers Parliaments holden within this Realme, to the great costs of the King, his Lords, and Commons of the same, and lacketh nothing, but that the said lawes be not put in due execution, which lawes ought to be put in due execution by the Iustices of Peace in euerie Shire of this Realme, to whom his Grace hath put and giuen full authoritie so to do, sith the beginning of his raigne: And now it is commen to his knowledge, that his subiects be little eased of the said mischiefe by the said Iustices, but by many of them rather hurt then helped. And if his subiects complaine of these Iustices of Peace, of any wrongs done to them, they haue thereby no remedie, and the sayd mischiefs do encrease and not subdued. The Kings Grace considereth, that a great part of the wealth and prosperitie of this land standeth in that, that his subiects may liue in suretie vnder his peace in their bodies and goods, and that the husbandrie of this land may encrease & be vpholden, which must be had by due execution of the said Lawes and ordinances: chargeth and commaundeth the Iustices of Peace of these his Shires to endeuor them to doe and execute the tenor of their commission, and the said Lawes and ordinances, ordained for subduing of the premisses, as they wil stand in loue and fauour of his Grace, and in auoyding of the paines that be ordained if they doe the contrarie. And ouer that, he chargeth and commaundeth, that euerie man, what degree or condition that he be of, that let them in word or deed, to execute their said authoritie in any manner and forme aboue said, that they shew it to his Grace. And if they doe it not, and it come to his knowledge by other then by the, they shall not stand in his fauour, but be taken as men out of credence, and be put out of Commission for euer. And ouer this, he chargeth and commaundeth all manner of men, as well the poore as the rich (which be to him all one in due ministration of iustice) that is hurt or grieued in any thing, that the sayd Iustice of peace may heare, determin, or execute in any wise, that he so grieued make his complaint to the Iustice of y peace that next dwelleth vnto him, or to any of his fellowes, and desire a remedie. And if he then haue no remedie, if it be nigh such time as his Iustices of Assises come into that Shire, that the he so grieued shew his complaint to the same Iustices. And if he then haue no remedie, or if the complaint be made long before the comming of the Iustices of Assise, then he so grieued come to the Kings Highnelle, or to his Chancellor for the time being, and shew his griefe, and his said Highnelle then shall send for the said Iustices, to know the cause why his said subiects be not eased, and his lawes executed, wherupon if he find any of them in default of executing of his lawes in the premisses, according to his Highnelle cõmaundement, he shall doe him so offending, to be put out of the Commission, & furthermore to be punished according to his demerits. And ouer that his said Highnelle shal not let for any fauour, affectiõ, cost, charge, nor any other cause, but that he shall see his lawes to haue plaine and true execution, and his subiects to liue in suretie of their lands, bodies, and goods, according to his said lawes, and the said mischieses to be auoyded, that his subiects may encrease in wealth and prosperitie, to the pleasure of God. An.4.H.7.cap.12.

4 An.13.H.6.cap.2. An Act was made to endure for 7. yeares, that writs with proclamation should be made against them that disobey the kings writs or priuy Seales, and certaine forfeiture and punishment against them.

5 An.31.H.8.cap.8. An Act was made, that Proclamations made by the King, with the aduice of certain of his Counsell named in that Act, should be obeyed and kept as though they were made by Act of Parliament. And after, An.34.H.8.ca.23. another Act was made concerning the offendors of the said former Act, but both these Acts were repealed by 1.E.6.ca.12.

IN tithes, oblations, obuentions, mortuaries (when they are propounded vnder theſe names) the Kings prohibition ſhall hold no place, although for the long withholding of the ſame, they come to a pecuniarie eſtimation, and ſentence for the ſame. But if a Clerk or religious man, doe ſell his tithes being in the barne, or other where, to any man for money, if the money be demaunded before a Spirituall Iudge, the Kings prohibition ſhall lye, for by the ſale the Spirituall goods are made Temporall, and the tithes turned into cattels. Alſo if debate doe ariſe vpon the right of tithes, hauing his originall of the right of the patronage, and the quantitie of the ſame tithes doe paſſe the fourth part of the goods of the Church, the Kings prohibition ſhall hold place, if the cauſe come before a Iudge Spirituall. And if a Prelate enioyne a penance pecuniarie to any man for his offence, and it be demaunded, the Kings prohibition ſhall hold place. Notwithſtanding if Prelates enioyne a penance corporall, and the partie will redeeme ſuch penance by money, if the money be demaunded before a Iudge Spiritual, the Kings prohibition ſhal hold no place. Moreouer if any lay violent hands on a Clerke, the amends for the violence done ſhall be made in the Kings Court. And for excommunication before a Prelate, where penance corporal is enioyned, if the defender will redeeme his penance by giuing money to the Prelate, or to the partie grieued, it may be required before the Prelate, and the Kings prohibition ſhall not lye. 3 The King to his Iudges ſendeth greeting. Vſe your ſelfe circumſpectly in all matters concerning the Biſhop of Norwich and his Clergie, not puniſhing them if they hold plea in Court Chriſtian, of ſuch things as be meerely Spirituall, that is to wit, of penance enioyned for deadly ſinne, as fornication, aduoutrie, and ſuch like, for the which many times, corporal penance or pecuniarie is enioyned, ſpecially if a free man be conuict of ſuch things. Alſo if Prelates doe puniſh for leaning Churchyards vncloſed, or for that the Church is vncouered, or not conueniently decked, in which caſes none other penance can be enioyned, but pecuniarie. Item if a Parſon demaund of his parſhioners oblations & tithes due & accuſtomed, or if any perſon plead againſt another for tithes more or leſſe, ſo that the fourth part of the value of the benefit be not demaunded. Item, if a perſon demand mortuaries in places where a mortuarie hath vſed to be giuen. Item, if a Prelate of a Church, or the Patron demaund of the Parſon a penſion due to themſelues, all ſuch demands are to be made in the Spirituall Court. And for laying violent hands on a Prieſt: And in cauſe of defamation, it hath beene graunted alreadie, that it ſhall be tried in the Spirituall Court, when money is not demaunded, but the ſuit is proſecuted for the puniſhment of ſinne, and likewiſe for breaking an oath. In all the caſes afore rehearſed, the Spirituall Iudge ſhall haue power to take knowledge, notwithſtanding the Kings prohibition. An. 13. E. 1.

4 Whereas Eccleſiaſticall Iudges haue oftentimes ſurceaſed to proceed in caſes moued before them, by force of the Kings writ of prohibition, in caſes whereas a remedie could not be giuen to the complainants in the Kings court, by any writ out of the Chauncerie, becauſe that ſuch complainants were deferred of the right & remedie in both Courts as well Temporall as Spiritual, to their great damage, as the King hath been aduertiſed by the grieuous complaint of his ſubiects. Our Soueraigne Lord the King commaundeth, that where Eccleſiaſticall Iudges doe ſurceaſe in the foreſaid caſes, by the Kings prohibition directed vnto them, that the Chauncellor or the chiefe Iuſtices of the King for the time being, vpon ſight of the libell of the ſame matter, at the inſtance of the plaintife, if he ſhal ſée that the caſe cannot be redreſſed by any writ out of Chauncerie, but that the Spirituall Court ought to determine the matters, ſhall writs to the Iudges, before whom the caſe was firſt moued, that they proceed therein, notwithſtanding the Kings prohibition to them directed before. And we our predecessors for us and others of the same realme, haue alwaies vsed such liberties as pertain to our regall dignitie. And for as much as it is to vs, as by relation of our subiects haue to certainly heard say: We prohibite you that you hold no such plea in the Spirituall Court, chiefly seeing such pleas appertain vnto vs, & not to any other in ȝ same realme. And vpon these & other, the cognisance whereof pertaineth vnto vs, we ready by vs and our ministers in our Court, to giue full and speedy Iustice to any subiect soeuer. And we command our welbeloued and faithfull E. and our Sheriffs of our foresaid Counties, that they straitly forbid on our behalfe, you and other as shall attempt such things in preiudice of our regall honor. And that if any of you hold such pleas, or if any prosecute the same before you in the Spirituall Court against our prohibition aforesaid, that our said Sheriffe bring you and such others holding and following such pleas, by sureties and safe pledges, that you or they be before our Iustices at Westminster at a certain day, to answer before them vpon the premisses, and to doe further, which hitherunto in such cases and the like hath beene accustomed to be done. And that they suffer not that any lay men within their Bailiwike, come together in any places to make any such recognitions by their oathes, except in causes of matrimonie and testamentarie: And that they yeild not to passe vpon such fees, debts, and tithes before you, and other Spirituall Iudges in preiudice of your Princely iurisdiction, belonging to our Crowne and dignitie: And that which you shall doe of these matters in this behalfe, he doe fully giue vs to vnderstand. In witnesse whereof &c. Witnesse &c. A Prohibition made vpon the articles of the Clergie.

6 They that purchase a prohibition and attachment against the Ordinaries, of a thing that belongeth not to the lay Court, shall yeild damages to the Ordinaries by the award of the Iustices &c. In mente ordinationibus An. 5 E.2. But it is repealed An. 15 E.2. I find not this but in the Abridgements.

7 The Commons doe grieuously complaine, That when diuers persons as well Clerkes as lay people, haue beene in diuers before the Sheriffes in sundries, and afterward be deliuered by Endwells procured before the Iustices: after their deliuerance they doe sue in the Spirituall Court, & plaint such indictors, surmising against them, that they haue defamed them; to the great damage of the indictors, wherefore many of the people in the Shires be in fears to indict such offenders. The King will, that in such case euerie man that falsely surmiseth grieued thereby, shal haue a prohibition formed in the Chancerie vpon his case. Anno 1 E.3. cap.11.

Protection.

EDward by the grace of God &c. To all his true and faithfull subiects greeting. Forasmuch as many doe purchase the protection of our Soueraigne Lord the King, alleaging that they were out of the Realme in the Kings seruice: It is prouided, That if the aduersarie will challenge the protection, and immediately when it is shewed in the Court, will averre that they were within the foure seas, and out of the Kings seruice in a place certaine, so that they might haue conueniently appeared, their challenge shall be entred in the roll, and the matter shall remaine without day according to the nature of the protections. And when it shalbe resummoned, and the partie commeth into the Court, he shall demaund iudgement and hearing of the Proces, and shall offer to averre his challenge, if his aduersarie will abide it. And if the countrey doe passe against him that cast it, the protection shall turne as a default to him that cast it, if he be tenant: And if he be demaundant, he shall lose his writ, and shalbe answered vnto the King. 2 Whereas long since in the Parliament of good memory of Edward King of England, grandfather of our Soueraigne Lord the King that now is, the thirtieth yeare of his raigne, holden at Karlile, the petition being heard which was offered vnto the sayd grandfather and his Counsell by the Communaltie of his sayd Realme, containing, That whereas the holy Church of England was founded in the estate of Prelacie within the realm of England by the sayd grandfather and his progenitors, and the Earles, Barons, and other Nobles of his sayd Realme, and their auncestors for to sustaine them and their people in the Law of God, and for to keepe hospitalities, and to do alms, and other workes of charitie in the places where the Churches were founded, for the soules of the founders, their heires, and of all Christen, and certaine possessions, as well in fees, lands, rents, as in aduowsons, which doe extend to a great value, were assigned by the sayd Founders to the Prelates and other people of the holy Church of the sayd Realme, to sustaine the same charge, and namely of the possessions which were assigned to Archbishops, Bishops, Abbots, Priors, Religious men, and other people of holy Church, by the Kings of the sayd Realme, Earles, Barons, and other great men of his Realme, the same Kings, Earles, Barons, and other Nobles, as Lords and Patrons haue had and ought to haue the custodie of such voidances and the presentments & the collations of the benefices belonging to such Prelacies. And the said Kings in times past were woont to haue the greatest part of their Counsell for the safegard of the Realme, when they had need, of such Prelates and Clerkes so aduanced: The Bishops of Rome vsurping the Signiorities of such possessions and Benefices, did giue and graunt the same Benefices to Aliens, which did neuer dwell in England, and to Cardinals which might not dwell here, and to other, as well Aliens as Denizens, as if he had beene Patron, or aduowee of the said dignities & benefices, whereas Pope Benefices Aliens Cardinals hée was not ſo of right after the law of England, by which gifts and graunts, if they ſhould be ſuffered, there ſhould vnneth be any benefice within ſhort time in the ſaid Realme, but that it ſhould be in the hands of aliens and forrainers by vertue of ſuch prouiſions, againſt the good will and diſpoſition of the founders of the ſame benefices. And ſo the elections of Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and other religious, ſhould faile, and the almes, hoſpitalities, and other workes of charitie, which ſhould be done in the ſaid places, ſhould bee withdrawne, the ſaid grandfather, and other lay Patrons, in the time of ſuch voydances, ſhould loſe their preſentments, the ſaid councell ſhould periſh, and goods without number ſhould be carried out of the Realme, in adnullation of the eſtate of the holy Church of England, and diſheriſon of the ſayd grandfather, and the Earles, Barons, and other Nobles of the ſaid Realme, and in offence and deſtruction of the lawes and rights of his Realme, and againſt the good diſpoſition and will of the firſt founders: by the aſſent of the Earles, Barons, and other Nobles, and of all the ſaid Communaltie, at their inſtances and requeſts (the damage and grieuances aforeſaid conſidered) in the ſaid full Parliament it was ordained, That the ſaid oppreſſions, grieuances, and damage in the ſame Realme, from henceforth ſhould not be ſuffered in any manner. And now it is ſhewed to our Soueraigne Lord the King, in this preſent Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, at the Vtas of the Purification of our Ladie, the xvb. yeare of his raigne of England, and of Fraunce the twelfth, by the grieuous complaints of all the Commons of this Realme, that the grieuances and miſchiefes aforeſaid dos daily abound to more greater damage and deſtruction of all this Realme, more then euer were before, viz. That now of late the Biſhop of Rome, by procurement of Clerkes and otherwiſe, hath reſerued, and doth daily reſerue to his collation generally and ſpecially, as well Archbiſhoprickes, Abbeyes, and Priories, as all other dignities, and other benefices of England, which be of the aduowrie of the people of holy Church, and doth giue the ſame as well to aliens as to denizens, and taketh of all ſuch benefices the firſt fruits, and many other profits, and that a great part of the treaſure of the Realme is carried away and ſpent out of the Realme by the purchaſors of ſuch graces, and alſo that by ſuch priuie reſeruations many Clerkes aduanced in this Realme by their true Patrons, which haue peaceably holden their aduancements by long time, be ſuddenly put out, whereupon the ſaid Commons haue prayed our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, ſith the right of the Crowne of England, and the Law of the ſayd Realme is ſuch, that vpon the miſchiefes and damage, which happeneth to his Realme, he ought and is bounden by his oath, with the aſſent of his ſaid people in his Parliament, thereof to prouide remedie, and doe Law for the voiding of the miſchiefes and dammage, which doe ſo happen, that it would pleaſe him hereupon to ordaine a remedie: Our Soueraigne Lord the King ſeeing the miſchiefes and dammage before named, and hauing regard to the ſaid Statute made in the time of his ſayd grandfather, and to the cauſes contained in the ſame, which Statute ſtandeth ſtill in force, and was neuer defeated nor annulled in any point, and foraſmuch as he is bounden by his oath, to cauſe the ſame to bee kept as a Law of his Realme, though that by ſufferance and negligence it hath béene ſithence attempted to the contrarie: and alſo hauing regard to the grieuous complaints made to him by his people in diuers his Parliaments holden heretofore, willing to ordaine remedie for the great dammage and miſchiefes, which haue happened, and daily doe happen to the Church of England by the ſaid cauſe: By the aſſent of all the great men, and the Comminaltie of the ſaid Realme, to the honour of God, and profit of the ſaid Church of England, and of all his Realme, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, That the frée elections of Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and all other dignities and benefices electiue in England, ſhal ſtand from henceforth in the manner as they were graunted by the Kings progenitors, and by the auncеſtors of other Lords the founders of them: And that all Prelates, and other people of holy Church, which haue aduowſons of any benefices of the Kings gift, or of any of his progenitors, or of other Lords and Donours, to do Diuine Seruices and other charges ordained for the ſame, ſhall haue their collations and preſentments freely in the manner as they were infeoffed by their Donours. And in caſe that any reſeruation, collation, or prouiſion, be made by the Court of Rome, of any Archbiſhopricke, Biſhopricke, dignitie, or other benefice, in diſturbance of the election, collations, or preſentations aforenamed, that at the time of the voidance, when ſuch reſeruations, collations, and prouiſions, ſhall take effect, our Soueraigne Lord the King and his heires ſhall haue and enioy for the ſame time collations to the Archbiſhoprickes and other dignities electiue, which be of his aduowrie, ſuch as his progenitors had before that frée election was graunted, ſeeing that the elections were firſt graunted by the Kings progenitors vpon a certaine forme and condition, as to demaund licence of the King to chuſe, and after the election to haue his royall aſſent, and not in other manner. Which conditions being not kept, the thing ought by reaſon to reſort to his firſt nature: And if any ſuch reſeruation, prouiſion, or collation be made of any houſe of Religion of the Kings aduowrie, in diſturbance of the frée election, our Soueraigne Lord the King and his heires ſhall haue for that time the collation to giue this dignitie to a conuenient perſon. And in caſe that collation, reſeruation, or prouiſion be made by the Court of Rome, of any Church, Prebend, or other benefices, which be of the aduowrie of the people of holy Church, whereof the King is aduowe paramount immediat, that at the ſame time of the voydance, at which time the collation, reſeruation, or prouiſion ſhould take effect as afore is ſaid, the King and his heires ſhall haue the preſentment or collation thereof for that time. such people of holy church shalbe disturbed of their presentments or collations, by such reseruations, collations, or prouisions, as afore is said. Sauing to them the right of their aduowsons and their presentments, when no collation or prouision of the court of Rome is thereof made, where that the said people of holy church shall or will to the same benefices present or make collation. And that their presentees may enioy the effect of their collations or presentments: And in the same manner euery other Lord of what condition that he be, shal haue the collations or presentments to the houses of religion which be of his aduowrie, and other benefices of holy Church, which be perteining to the same houses. And if such aduowees do not present to such benefices within the halfe yeare after such voydances, nor the Bishop of the place do not giue the same by lapse of time within a moneth after the halfe yeare: that then the king shall haue the collation presentments and collations as he hath of other of his owne aduowrie. And in case that the presentments of the king or the presentees of other patrons of holy Church, or of their aduowees, or they to whome the king or such patrons or aduowees aforesaid haue giuen benefices, perteining to their presentments or collations bee disturbed by such prouisors, so that they cannot haue the possession of such benefices by vertue of the presentments or collations so to thē made, or that they which be in possession of such benefices be impeached vpō their said possessions by such prouisors: then the said prouisors, their procurators, executors, and notaries shall bee attached by their body, and brought in to answere. And if they be conuict, they shall abide in prison without being let to mainprise or bayle, or otherwise deliuered, till they haue made fine & ransome to the king at his will, and gree to the partie that shall feele himselfe grieued. And neuertheless, before that they be deliuered, they shal make full renunciation and find sufficient surety, that they shal not attempt such thinges in times to come, nor sue ne procese by them nor other against any man in the Court of Rome, nor in any part elsewhere, to any such imprisonments or renunciations, nor any other thing depending of them. And in case that such prouisors, procurators, executors, and notaries be not found, that the erigend shall runne against them by due procese and that writs shall goe forth to take their bodies, in what parts that they be found, aswell at the kings suit as at the suit of the party. And that in the meane time the king haue ỹ profits of such benefices so occupied by such prouisors, except abbies, priories, and other houses which haue Colledges or couents. And in such houses the Colledges and Couents shall haue the profits. Sauing alwaies to our Soueraigne Lord the King, and to all other Lordes, their old right. And this Statute shall haue place, aswell of reseruations, collations, and prouisions made and granted in times past against all them which haue not yet obteined the corporall possession of the benefices granted to them by the same reseruations, collations, and prouisions, as against all other in time to come. And this Statute shall take place, and begin at the said vtas. Anno 25. Ed. 3. Stat. de Prouisoribus.

3 Because that it is shewed to our Soueraign Lord the king by the grieuous & clamorous complaints of the great men and commons aforesaid, how that diuers of the people bee and haue bene drawen out of the realme, to answer of things, whereof the cognisance pertaineth to the kings court: And also that the iudgements giuen in the same Court bee impeached in an other Court, in prejudice and disherison of our Soueraigne Lord the king, and of his Crowne, and of all the people of his said Realme, and in the vndoing and destruction of the Common law of the same Realme at all times heretofore vsed, whereupon good deliberation being had with the great men, and other of his said Councell, it is assented and accorded by our Soueraigne Lord the king, and the great men and Commons aforesaid, that all the people of the kings liegeance, of what condition that they be, which draw any out of the realme in plee whereof the cognisance pertaineth to the kings court, or of things whereof iudgements be giuen in the kings Court, or which doe sue in any other Court, to defeat or impeach the iudgements giuen in the kings Court, shall haue day, conteining the space of two moneths, by warning to be made to them in the place where the possessions be which be in debate, or else where they haue lands or other possessions, by the Shirifes or other the kings Ministers, to bee before the King and his Councell, or in his Chauncerie, or before the kings Iustices in his places of the one Bench or the other, or before other the kings Iustices, which, to the same shal be deputed to answer in their proper persons to the king of the contempt done in this behalfe. And if they come not at the said day in their proper persons to stand to the law, then they, their procurators, attourneyes, executors, notaries, and maintainers, shall from that day forth be put out of the kings protection, and their lands, goods and cattels forfeit to the King. And their bodies, wheresoeuer they may bee found, shall be taken and imprisoned, and ransomed at the Kings will, and vpon the same a writ shall bee made to take them by their bodies, and to seise their lands, goods, and possessions into the kings hands. And if it be returned, that they be not found, they shall be put in exigent and outlawed. Prouided alwayes, that at what time they come before that they bee outlawed, and will yeld them to the kings prison, to bee iustified by the law, and to receiue that that the Court shall award in this behalfe, that they shall be thereto received. The forfeiture of the lands, goods, and cattels abiding in their force, if they doe not yeld them within the said two moneths as afore is said. Anno 27. Ed. 3. cap. 1.

8 Anno 2. Ric. 2. cap. 7. It was agreed, That Urban was duely elected Pope, and ought to bee obeyed as head of the Church, and that all benefices and poſſeſſions of Cardinals, rebels, and other the Kings enemies, ſhould be ſeiſed. And it was enacted, That if any purchaſed by prouiſion any benefice or grace, by any other named Pope, then of Pope Urban, or be obedient to any other perſon as Pope, he ſhould be out of the Kings protection, and his goods ſeiſed.

9 None of the Kings liege people, nor other perſon, of what eſtate or condition that he be, ſhall take nor receiue within the ſayd Realme of England, Procuracie, letter of Atturney, nor ferme, nor other adminiſtration by Indenture, nor in any other manner of any perſon of the world, of any benefice within the ſaid Realme, but onely of the Kings liege people of the ſame Realme, without the ſpeciall grace and expreſſe licence of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, by the aduiſe of his Counſell. And if any before this time haue accepted of any Aliens ſuch Procuracies, fermes, or adminiſtration, that they ſhall vtterly leaue them within fortie dayes after publication of this ordinance. And that none of the ſaid liege people, nor other that may be found in the ſaid Realme, ſhall ſend by vertue of ſuch procuracie, ferme, or adminiſtration, gold, ſiluer, nor other treaſure nor commoditie, out of the ſayd Realme, by letter of exchaunge, by marchandiſe, nor in other maner, to the profit of the ſaid Aliens, without like licence of the King, by the aduiſe of his ſayd Counſell. And if any doe the contraie in any point contayned in this ordinance, hee ſhall incurre the paine and puniſhment contained in the Statute of Prouiſors, made in the time of the Kings grandfather the ſeuen and twentieth yeare of his raigne (before 3.) by the ſame Proces comprized in the ſayd Statute, and by warning to be made to them in their benefices, or other their poſſeſſions within the Realme. And if they bee out of the ſayd Realme, and not beneficed, nor hauing poſſeſſion within the ſame Realme where they may bee warned, then a writ ſhall be made in the Chaunceric, grounded vpon this ordinance, to the Sherife of London, or to the Sherife of the Countie, in which they were or ſhall be borne, at the Kings ſuit, returnable in the one Bench or the other, by which writ it ſhall be commaunded, That Proclamation be made openly, That they be before the Iuſtices in the Bench, where the writ is returnable at a certaine day comprized in the ſame writ, containing the ſpace of halfe a yeare, to aunſwer vpon the matters comprized in the ſaid writ, and after this writ returned, the Iuſtices ſhall proceed againſt them, according to the forme aboue ordained. And it is aſſented by the King in the ſame Parliament, by the aſſent aforeſayd, That no Biſhop, nor other perſon of holy Church thorow the Realme, ſhall meddle by way of ſequeſtration, nor in any other manner with the fruits of ſuch benefices, giuen or to be giuen to the ſayd Aliens, to the profit of the ſame Aliens, vpon the peril that belongeth. And that all Pꝛelates, and other people of holy Church, which had aduowſons of any benefices of the gift of the King, oꝛ of his pꝛogenitoꝛs, oꝛ of other Lords and donoꝛs, ſhould freely haue their collations, and pꝛeſentments: and thereupon a certaine puniſhment was oꝛdained in the ſame Statute, foꝛ them which ſhould accept any benefice oꝛ dignitie, contrarie to the ſaid Statute made the ſaid fiue and twentieth yeare, as afoꝛe is ſaid, which Statute our Soueraign Lord the King hath done to be recited in this pꝛeſent Parliament, at the requeſt of his Commons in the ſame Parliament: The tenoꝛ whereof is ſuch as hereafter followeth. Whereas long ſince in the Parliament of good memoꝛie of Edward King of England &c. (rehearſing the whole Statute made the ſaid fiue and twentieth yeare, and thenthus) Our Soueraigne Lord the King that now is, of the aſſent of the great men of his Realme, being in this pꝛeſent Parliament, hath oꝛdained and ſtabliſhed, That concerning all Archbiſhoꝛpicks, Biſhoꝛpicks, and other dignities and benefices elective, and all other benefices of holy church, which began to be void indeed the 29. day of Januarie, the thirteenth yeare of the raigne of our Soueraigne Lord the King that now is, oꝛ after, oꝛ which ſhall bee void in time to come within the Realme of England, the ſaid Statute made the ſaid fiue and twentieth yeare ſhall be firmely holden foꝛ euer, and put in due execution from time to time, in all manner points. And if any make any acceptation of any benefice of holy Church, contrarie to this Statute, and that duely pꝛoued, and be beyond the ſea, he ſhall abide exiled and baniſhed out of the Realme foꝛ euer, his lands and tenements, goods and catels foꝛfeit to the King, & if he be within the realme, he ſhall be alſo exiled and baniſhed as afoꝛe is ſayd, and ſhall incurre the ſame foꝛfeiture, and take his iourney, ſo that he be out of the Realme within ſix weekes next after ſuch acceptation. And if any receiue any ſuch perſon baniſhed, comming from beyond the ſea, oꝛ being within the Realme after the ſaid ſix weekes, knowing thereof, he ſhal be alſo exiled and baniſhed, and incurre ſuch foꝛfeiture as afoꝛe is ſaid. And that their pꝛocuratoꝛs, notaries, executoꝛs, and ſummoners, ſuffer the pain and foꝛfeiture afoꝛeſaid. Pꝛouided neuertheleſſe, that all they to whom our holy father the Pope, oꝛ his pꝛedeceſſoꝛs, haue pꝛouided any Archbiſhoꝛpicke, Biſhoꝛpicke, oꝛ other dignitie, oꝛ other benefices of holy Church, of the patronage of men of holy Church, by reaſon of any voidance beſoꝛe the ſaid twentie ninth day of Januarie, and thereof were in poſſeſſion beſoꝛe the ſame xxix. day, ſhal haue and enioy the ſaid Archbiſhoꝛpicks, Biſhoꝛpickes, dignities, and other benefices, peaceably foꝛ their liues, notwithſtanding the Statutes and oꝛdinances afoꝛeſaid. And if the King ſend by letter oꝛ in other maner to the Church of Rome, at the inteꝛceſſiõ of any perſon, oꝛ if any other ſend to pꝛay to the ſame Court, whereby any thing be done contrarie to this Statute, touching any Archbiſhoꝛpricke, Biſhoꝛpricke, dignitie, oꝛ other benefice of holy Church, within the ſaid Realme, if he that maketh ſuch excitation oꝛ pꝛayer be a Pꝛelat of holy Church, he ſhall pay to the King the value of his tempoꝛalties of one yeare, and if he be a Tempoꝛall Lord, hee ſhall pay the King the value of his lands and poſſeſſions vnmouable of one yere. And it is the intent of this Statute, that of all dignities and benefices of holy Church, which were void indeed the ſaid twentie ninth day of Januarie, which be giuen, oꝛ to whom it is pꝛouided by the Apoſtle beſoꝛe the ſame xxix. day, that they to whom ſuch gifts oꝛ pꝛouiſions bee made, may freely of ſuch gifts and pꝛouiſions, ſue execution without offence of this Statute. Pꝛouided neuertheleſſe, that of no dignities oꝛ benefices, which were full the ſaid twenty ninth day of Januarie, no man by reaſon of any collation, gift, reſeruation, & pꝛouiſiõ, oꝛ other other grace Apoſtolicke, not executed before the ſaid xxix. day, ſhall ſue thereof execution, vpon the paines and forfeitures contained in this preſent ſtatute. An 13. R. 2. Stat 2. cap. 2.

13 And it is ordayned and eſtabliſhed, that if any muſt bring or ſend within the Realm, or the power, any ſummons, ſentence, or excommunication againſt any perſon of what condition that he be, for the cauſe of making motion, aſſent, or execution of the ſayd ſtatute of Prouiſors, (before ſaid) he ſhall be taken, arreſted, and put in Priſon, and forfeit all his lands and tenements, goods and catels for euer: And moreouer incurre the payne of life and member. And if any Prelate make execution of ſuch ſummons, ſentences, or excommunications, that his temporalties be taken and remain in the K. hands, til due redreſſe & correctiō be therof made. And if any perſon of leſſe eſtate then a Prelate, of what condition that he be, make ſuch execution, he ſhall be taken, arreſted, and put in priſon, & make fine and ranſome by the diſcretion of the K. Counſell. An. 13. R. 2. Stat. 2. cap. 3.

14 Whereas the Commons of the Realme in this preſent Parliament haue ſhewed to our redoubted Soueraigne Lord the King, grieuouſly complayning, that whereas the ſaid our Lord the King, and all his liege people, ought of right, and alwayes were wont to ſue in the Kings Court, to receiue their preſentments to Churches, Prebēds, and other benefices of holy Church, to the which they haue right to preſent: the Cognizance of plea of which preſentment belongeth onely to the kings court of the antient right of his own crown, vſed and approued in the time of his Progenitors Kings of England: And when Iudgement hath bene giuen in the ſame Court vpon ſuch plea and preſentment, the Archbiſhoppes, Biſhoppes, and other ſpirituall perſons which haue the inſtitution of ſuch benefices within their Iuriſdictions, be bound and haue made execution of ſuch Iudgements by the Kings Commaundements all the time aforeſayd, without interruption, (for a Lay perſon may not make ſuch execution) and alſo be bound of right to make execution of many other the Kings Commaundements, of which right the Crowne of England hath bene peaceably ſeiſed, aſwell in the time of our ſayde Soueraigne Lord the King that now is, as in the time of his progenitors till this day: But now of late, diuers Proceſſes be made by the holy Father the Pope, and cenſures of Excommunication, vpon certain Biſhops of England, becauſe that they haue made execution of ſuch Commaundements, to the open diſheriſon of the ſaide Crowne, and deſtruction of the Regaltie of our ſayd Soueraigne Lord the K. his Lawe, and all this Realme, if remedie be not prouided. And alſo it is ſayd, and a common clamour made, that the ſayde Father the Pope hath ordayned and purpoſed to tranſlate ſome Prelates of the ſame Realme, ſome of them out of the realm, and ſome from one Biſhoprike to another within the ſame realm, without the kings aſſent & knowledge, and without the aſſent of the prelates which ſo ſhal be tranſlated, which Prelates be much profitable and neceſſarie to our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, and to all his Realme: by which tranſlations (if they were ſuffered) the Statutes ſhould be defeated and auoyded, and his wiſe liege men of his Councell, without his aſſent, and againſt his will withdrawne, and gotten out of this Realme, and the ſubſtance and treaſure of the Realme borne away, and ſo the Realme deſtitute aſwell of counſell, as of ſubſtance, to the finall deſtruction of the ſame Realme. And ſo, the Crowne of England, which hath bene ſo free at all times, that it hath bin in ſubiection to no realm, but immediatly ſubiect to God, and to none other, in all things touching the Regalitie of the ſame Crowne, ſhould bee ſubmitted to the Pope, and the Lawes and Statutes of the Realme by him defeated and fruſtrated at his will, to the perpetuall deſtruction of the King our ſayd ſouereigne Lord, his ſouereigntie, his crowne and regaltie, and of all his Realm, which God defend. And moreouer, the Commons aforeſaide haue ſayd, that the things ſo attempted, be clerely againſt the Kings Crowne and his Regaltie, vſed and approued in the time of all his Progenitors: Wherefore they, and all his liege Commons of the ſame Realme will ſtand with our ſaide ſoueraigne Lord the King, and his ſaide Crowne, and his Regaltie in the caſes aforeſayd, and in all other caſes attempted againſt him, his Crown, and his Regaltie in all points, to liue and to die. And moreouer they haue prayed the King, and him required by way of Iuſtice, that he would examine all the Lords in the Parliament, as well Spirituall as Temporall ſeuerally, and all the States of the Parliament, how they thinke of the caſes aforeſayd, which be ſo openly againſt the Kings crown, and in Derogation of his Regaltie, and how they will ſtand in the ſame caſes with our Soueraigne Lord the King, in vpholding the rights of the ſayd Crowne and Regaltie. Whereupon the Lordes Temporall ſo demaunded, haue anſwered, euerie one by himſelfe, that the caſes aforeſayd be clerely in Derogation of the Kings Crowne, and of his Regaltie, as it is well knowne, and hath bene of a long time knowne, and that they will ſtand with the ſame Crowne and regaltie in theſe caſes ſpecially, and in all other caſes which ſhall bee attempted againſt the ſame Crowne and Regaltie in all points, with all their power. And moreouer it was demaunded of the Lords Spirituall there being, and the Procurators of other being abſent, their aduice and will in all theſe caſes: which lords, that is to ſay, the Archbiſhoppes, Biſhoppes, and other Prelates, being in the Parliament ſeuerally examined, making Proteſtations, that it is not their mind to deny or affirme that our Holie Father the Pope, may not Excommunicate Biſhops, nor that he may make tranſlation of Prelates, after the Lawe of Holy Church, anſwered and ſayd, that if any Executions of Proceſſes made in the Kings Court (as before) be made by any, & Cenſures of Excommunication be made againſt any Biſhoppe of England, or any other of the Kings liege people, for that they haue made Execution of ſuch Commaundements: And that

5 For as much as their is a great grieuance in the Realme, and dammage without number, for that the King and his Ministers of his retinue, as well Aliens, as Denizens, doe make their takings whersoeuer they passe through the Realm, and take the goods as well of Clerks, as of Lay people, and pay nothing at all therefore, or else much lesse then the value: It is ordayned, that from henceforth none do make any takings within the Realme, but only the Kings Takers, and the Purueyors for his houshold, and that the Kings Takers and Purueyors of his house, shal take nothing, but onely for his houshold. And touching such things as they shall take in the Countrey, of Meate and Drinke, and such other little things necessary for the houshold, they shall pay for the same, or make agreement with them of whom the things shall bee taken. And that all such the Kings Takers, Purueyors, or Buyers, from henceforth shall haue their warāt with them, vnder the Kings great or pettie seale, containing their authoritie, and the things whereof they haue power to make taking or purueyance, the which warrant they shall shew to them whose goods they take, before that they take any thing. And that those takers, purueyors, or buyers for the King, shall take noe more then is needful for the King his houshold and his Children. And that they shall not take any thing for them that be at wages, nor for any other. And that they shall answer in the house, or in the Wardroabe fully for all things taken by them, without making their larges any other where, or liueries of such things as they haue takē for the King. And if any taker for the Kings house, by reason of his warrant, make any taking or liuerie, or otherwise then before is mentioned, vpon complaint made to the Steward, or to the Treasorer of the house, the trueth shal bee inquired. And if he be attainted thereof, he shall forthwith satisfie the partie, and shall bee put from the Kings seruice for euer, and shall remaine in Prison at the Kings pleasure. And if any make takings without warrant, and carry them away against the wil of the owner, hee shall immediatly be arrested by the Towne where the taking was made, and shal bee had vnto the next Gaole, and if he bee attainted thereupon, it shall bee done of him as of a Theefe, if the quantitie of the goods will warrant it. And concerning takings made in Faires, good townes, and in Hauens, for the Kings great Wardroabe, the Takers shall haue their common warrant vnder the great Seale. And for the things that they shall take, it shall be testified vnder the seale of the keeper of the Wardroabe. And of the number of the things taken, the quantitie, and the value, there shall bee a diuidend made betweene the Takers, and Keepers of Faires, Maiors, or chiefe Baylifes of Townes and Hauens, by the viewe of the Marchants, whose goods shall bee so taken: And they shall not bee suffered to take any more then shall be put into their diuidend, which diuidend shall bee brought into the Wardroabe, vnder the seale of the Warden, Mayor, or chiefe Baylife aforesayd, and there shall remaine, vntill the accompt of the Wardroabe of the King. And if it be found, that any hath takē otherwise then he ought to doe, vpon his account hee shall bee punished by the keepers of the Kings Wardroabe after his desert, and if any make such takings without warrant, and be attainted thereupon, he shall incurre the same payn, as they which make takings for the Kings houses without warrant, as before is sayd. Neuertheless the king and his Counsel, do not intend by reason of this estatute to diminish the right for auncient takings due and accustomed, as of wines and other goods, but that his right shal be saued to him whole in all points. 35 An. 2. E. 6. cap. 3. A Statute was made against Purueyors and takers, and for prices of horses and carts taken for the King, to endure for thee yeares.

☞ 36 For the auoyding of the great hinderance done to the subiects by Purueyors and takers, and as well to eschew the great deceit, as to aduance the Queenes better seruice therein, with the contentation of her said Subiects: Be it &c. That after the feast of the Birth of our Lord next insuing, euerie such Commission as shall be made, graunted, and directed to anie person or persons whatsoeuer, whereby the same person or persons, or their deputies shall haue authority to take anie beeues, weathers, lambes, calues, or any kind of saltfish, or any kind or kinds of graine, or any butter in barrells, or other vessells, cheese, bacon, conies, pigges, geese, capons, or hennes, that the same Commission or Commission shal not extend or continue aboue the space of fiue moneths at the furthest next insuing the date of anie of the said Commissions. And after the end of the said fiue moneths, euery of the said Commissions to be voide and of no force nor effect, what soeuer words, matter or sentences shalbe contained or expressed in anie of the same Commissions. And be it &c. that in all and euery such Commission or Commissions to be graunted after the said feast of the Birth of our Lord, shall be plainely as well contained and expressed such Countie or Counties, where any of the said beeues, weathers, lambes, calues, hogges, or swine, or any kinde of saltfish, or any kinde or kindes of graine, butter, cheese, bacon, conies, pigs, geese, capons or hens, or any of them is to be leuied, purueyed, or taken, in or by anie of the person or persons, or their deputie or deputies so authorized by the vertue of the said Commission or Commissions, as also the iust, true, and full proportion and number of all and euery such beeues, weathers, lambes, calues, swine, any kind of saltfish, or any kind or kinds of graine, butter in barrells, or other vessels, cheese, bacon, conies, pigges, geese, capons, and hennes, or anie of them, as the said person or persons, their deputie or deputies or any of them shall be by force and vertue of the said Commission or Commissions authorized to leuy, take or puruey, within anie of the said Countie or Counties. And be it enacted &c. That to euery such Commission or Commissions after the said Birth of our Lord to be made, graunted, and directed, as is aforesaid, shall be annexed so many blankes in parchment, as there shall be seuerall Counties expressed, named, and contained within the same Commission or Commissions, or any of them, in the which blankes shalbe faire and leageably written all and euery such beeues, weathers, lambes, calues, swine, any kind of saltfish, or any kind or kinds of graine, butter, cheese, bacon, conies, pigges, geese, capons, and hennes, with the true and seuerall prices of the same, and euerie of them as shall be leuied, gathered, and purueyed by any person or persons, their deputie or deputies, or any of them, as shall be thereunto authorized by any such Commissions aforesaid, within any particular Towne, Parish, or Hamlet, set, lying, or being within any those Countie or Counties, as shall be named, contained, or expressed within the saide Commission or Commissions, or anie of them, whereunto shall be subscribed the name or signe Manuell of all and euerie such high Constable or Constables, petie Constable or Constables, Headborough or Headboroughs, as shall be by any precept to him or them directed by any person or persons, their deputie or deputies, or any of them, authorized thereunto by such commission or commissions to be graunted, as is aforesaid, priuie or knowleging to the deliuerie of the said beeues, weathers, lambs, calues, any kind of saltfish, or anie kind or kinds of grain, butter, cheese, bacon, conies, piggs, geese, capons, and hennes, or anie of them. And be it &c. That euery person or persons, their deputie or deputies, or any of them, which shall be by Commission or Commissions hereafter to be graunted, as is aforesaid, authorized to leuy, take, or puruey, anie beeues, weathers, lambes, calues, swine, saltfish, or any kind or kinds of graine, butter in barrels, or other vessels, cheese, bacon, conies, pigges, geese, capons and hennes, or any of them, as is before said, shal make a docket or briefe in writting, subscribed with his or their name or names containing all and euerie such beeues, weathers, lambs, calues, swine, kind of saltfish, kind or kinds of graine, butter in barrels, or other vessels, cheese, bacon, conies, pigges, geese, capons, and hennes, or any of them, as hee or they shall by vertue of the said Commission or Commissions, leuie, take, or puruey within any particular Towne, Parish, or Hamlet, set, lying, or being within any Countie or Counties, as shalbe named, contained, and expressed within the said Commission or Commissions, or anie of them, and the same docket or dockets, briefe or briefes, faire and leageably written and subscribed, as is aforesaid, shall well and truely deliuer to the saide high Constable, or Headborough, or one of them, at such present time as the said beeues, weathers, lambes, calues, swine, saltfish, kind or kinds of graine, butter, cheese, bacon, conies, pigges, geese, capons, and hennes, or any of them shall be deliuered to them, or any of them, vpon paine of forfeiture of an hundred Marks of lawfull money, and one yeares Imprisonment as often as hee shall so offend: The one Moitie of tant do not appeare before the said Auditour or Auditours, or his or their deputie or deputies at the said audit, according to the said precept, or else if he doe appeare, and refuse to accompt for his saide receipt, collection, & bailywick, before the said Auditor or auditors, or his or their deputy or deputies; that then the said minister, Collector, or bailife accomptant, so making default and not appearing, or so refusing to accompt, as is aforesaid, and being thereof duely and lawfully conuicted in the Court where the reuenue is or shall be answerable, shall for his first offence lose and forfeit to our Soueraigne Lord the king his whole fee for that yeare wherin he shal so make default, or the value therof. And for the no paiment of the said mony, due & payable within his Collection, Office, or Bailywicke, at or before the same feast of S. Michael the Archangell, shall lose & forfeit to the K. our Soueraigne Lord for his said first offence sixe pence of euery pound, in the name of a paine for euery Moneth after the said day of appearance and default made as is afore said, vntill he or his sufficient Deputy or Deputies shall accompt before the said Auditor or Auditors, or his or their deputy or deputies for his saide Collection, receipt, or Bailiwick: And also pay vnto the hands of the said Receiuor or Receiuors, all and euerie such summe and summes of money, as shall be iustly found due by the said accomptant, before the said Auditor or Auditors, or his or their Deputy or Deputies, to the kings Maiesty, vpon the forte & determination of his accompt. And after the first default of appearance made before the saide Auditor or Auditors, or his or their Deputy or deputies, by any of the said officers accomptant being so warned as is aforesaid: And after another like precept made and deliuered, or left in forme aforesaid: that then the said Officer or Officers that so shall make againe default of appearance, for the said second offence in making default in his appearance as is aforesaid, and being thereof duely and lawfully conuicted in the court, where the reuenue of his said office is, or shall be answerable, shall lose and forfeit to the king our Soueraigne Lord his office and fee. And for the second offence in the non paiment of the said money due and payable, with & by reason of his receipt, Collection or Bailiwicke, at or before the said feast of S. Michaell the Archangell, shall lose and forfeit to our Soueraigne Lord the K. twelue pence of euerie pound, in the name of a paine, for euerie moneth after the said last day of appearance, and default made, as is aforesaid, vntil he or his sufficient deputy or deputies shall accōpt before the said Auditor Auditors, or his or their deputy or deputies for the said receipt, Collection, or Bailiwicke, and also pay vnto the hands of the said Receiuor or receiuors, or his or their Deputy or Deputies, to the kings vse, all such summes of money, as shall be iustly found due by the said accomptant, vpon the forte and determination of his said account. And further be it &c. that al and euery receiuor and receiuors of the kings Maiesties honors, manors, lands, possessions, rents and reuenues, shall make ready and full payment yearely to the Treasorer, or generall receiuor of the Court, where the said reuenue is or shall be answerable, or otherwise, as he or they are or shall be appointed & assigned by sufficient warrant, of all such sums of mony, as he or they shal knowe to be done to our Soueraigne Lord the king, & can by any lawfull or due meane, obtaine, get, haue or receiue of the rents or reuenues of our said Soueraigne Lord the king within or by reason of their Offices, being due at or before the feast of Easter, by the xx. day of June then next following at the farthest. And also shall make like paiment yearely of all their like receits of the rents and reuenues of our saide Soueraigne Lord the king, that shall be due at or before the feast of Saint Michaell the Archangell, by the twentieth day of Janu. then next following at the farthest, vpon paine of losse and forfeiture for euery default at any time of the said dates, two pence of euerie pound for euery day that the saide money so by them or any of them shall be vnpaid. And also it is, &c. That all and euery of the said Receiuor and Receiuors, or their Deputy or deputies, for whome they will answere, shall enter into their account yearely in the terme of Saint Hillarie, and fully and clearely finish the same account before the tenth day of March they next following, and make full and ready paiment of the money that shall appeare to be due vpon the forte & determination of the same accoūt before the twentieth day of the said month of March, vpon pain of forfeiture to our said Soueraigne Lord the king the offices and fees, and foure pence of the poūd for euerie day that they shall detaine and withholde the said money, without making any paiment thereof as is aforesaid. And further be it &c. that all and euery Receiuors, Collectors and Bailifes of any the kings, manors, lands, tenements, rents, or reuenues for lacke of paiment, & leuying of their said rents, issues, and reuenues, within their Offices and charges, shall and may haue power and authority from henceforth by vertue of this act, to distreine for the same, and to vse and order the same distresse in such sort and forme as any Officer or Officers of the Kings Court of the Exchequer for leuying and lacke of paiment of the kings rents & reuenues answerable in the same Court, heretofore haue lawfully done, and may lawfully vse to do deliuering to the party destrained, the surplusage and ouerplus of the value of euery such distresse, if any shal be, the kings debts and duties being first paid, the destrainant answered of reasonable costs: and that the head and chiefe Officer or Officers of euerie of the kings courts of reuenues being of record, or that shall be of record, shall haue full power and authority by vertue of this act, to set, and assesse reasonable fines and amerciaments vpon any Shirife or Shirifes, for not returning or misreturning of any writ to them directed, and deliuered out of any the same Courts, touching or concerning the leuying, or answering of any of the sayd issues, rents, or reuenues, or of any debts due to our said Soueraigne Lord the king, in such sort, and after such maner and forme as now is, or hereafter hath bēn lawfully vsed in the like and such other cases in the Kings Highnesse Court of the Exchequer.

Recognisance and Statute Merchant.

EVery Merchant which will be sure of his debt, shall cause his Debtor to come before the Maior of London, or of Yorke, or Bristow or before the Maior and a Clerke (which the K. shall appoint for the same) to knowledge the debt, and the day of paiment, and the acknowledgement shall be entred into a roll by the hand of the said Clerke, which shall be knowen. Moreouer the Clerke shall make with his owne hand a bill Obligatorie, whereunto the Seale of the Debtor shall be put, with the Kings seale, which shall be prouided for the same purpose, the which Seale shall remaine in the keeping of the Maior and Clerke aforesaid. And if the Debtor doe not pay at the day to him limitted, the Creditor shal come before the said Maior and Clerke with his bill Obligatorie: And if it be found by the roll, or by the bill, that the debt was knowledged, and that the day of paiment is expired, the Maior shall incontinent cause the moueables of the debtor and his burgages deuisable, as Chattels, to be sold as farre as the debt doth amount, by the praising of honest men, vntill the whole summe of the debt and the money be fully paied to the creditor: And if the Maior can finde no buyer, he shall cause the moueables to be deliuered to the creditor at a reasonable price, as much as doth amount to the summe of the debt, and the Kings seale shall be put vnto the sale and deliuerance of the Burgages deuisable for a perpetuall witnesse. And if the Debtor haue no moueables within the iurisdiction of the Maior, whereupon the debt may be leuied, but peraduenture hath some other where, within the Realme, then shall the Maior send the Recognisance made before him and the Clerke aforesaid vnto the Chancelor, vnder the Kings seale aforesaide, and the Chancelor shall direct a writ vnto the Shirife, in whose Bailywicke that the moueables of the debtor hap to be, that the Shirife shall cause the creditor to be satisfied, in such form as the Maior should haue done, in case that the moueables of the Debtor had been within his power. And let them that haue praised the moueable goods to bee deliuered vnto the Creditor, take good heed that they doe set a reasonable price vpon them, for if they doe set an ouer high price for fauour borne to the debtor, to the damage of the creditor, then shall the thing so praised, be deliuered vnto themselues, at such price as they haue set them, and they shall forthwith answere vnto the creditor his debt. And if the debtor will say, that the moueable goods were deliuered, or sold for lesse then they were worth, hee shall haue no remedy thereby, for when the Maior or the Shirife hath sold the moueable goods lawfully to him that hath offered most, he may accompt it his owne folly, that he did not sel his own moueable goods himselfe before the day of the suit (which he might well enough) and so haue leuyed the money with his owne hands: And if the Debtor haue no moueables, whereupon the debt may be leuied, then shall his body be taken, where it may be found, and kept in prison, vntill that hee haue made agreement, or his friends for him: And if he haue not wherewith hee may sustaine himselfe in prison, the creditor shall finde him bread and water, to the end that he die not in prison for default of sustenance, the which costs the debtor shall recompence him with his debt, before that he be let out of prison. And if the Creditor be a Merchant stranger, he shall remaine at the costs of the debter for so long time as he tarieth about the suit of his debt, and vntill the moueable goods of the debtor be sold or deliuered vnto him. And if the Creditor doe not content himselfe with the Debtor alone for the surety of this paiment, by reason whereof pledges or mainpernors be found vnto him: If those pledges or mainpernors doe come before the Maior and Clerke abouesaid, and bind themselues by writing and Recognisance in like maner as the principall debtor, then in like maner if the debt be not paide at the day limitted, such execution shall be awarded against the pledges or Mainpernors, as before is appointed for the debtor. Howeuertheless that as long as the debt may be fully leuied of the moueable goods of the debtor, in the forme aforesaid, the mainpernors or pledges be not indamaged, but in default of moueable goods of the Debtor, the Creditor shall haue haue his recouerie against the mainpernors or pledges in the forme as is aforesaid against the debtor. Execution

2 Forasmuch as Merchants which heretofore haue lent their goods to diuers persons, bee fallen in pouertie, because there was no such ready lawe prouided, whereby they might thereby recouer their debt at the day of payment assessed: and for that mischiefe, many merchants haue forborne to come into the realme with their merchandise, to the great damage of Merchants, and of al the Realme: The king and his Councel at his Parliament holden at Acton Burnell after the feast of S. Michael ỹ 11. yere of his raign (before 1.) ordeined certaine establishments thereupon for the remedie of such merchants, which ordinances & establishments the K. commanded that they shalbe firmely kept & obserued throughout his Realm, whereby Merchãts haue had remedie and lesse trouble & businesse to recouer their debts then they haue had before. But for as much the merchants since that haue complained vnto the K. that the shirifs do misinterpret his said statute, & sometime by malice and false interpretation, doe delay the execution of the Statute, to the great damage of the merchants: the K. at his Parliament holden at Westminster after Easter, the 13. yere of his raigne hath caused the said Statute made at Acton Burnel, to be rehearsed. And for the declaration of certaine articles in the statute aforesaid, hath ordained and established that a merchant which

which will be sure of his Debt, shall cause his Debtor to come before some chiefe Warden of the Citie, or other good Towne, where the King shall appoint, and before the Maior or chiefe Wardens, or other discreete men chosen and sworn thereto, when the Maior or chiefe warden cannot attend thereto, and before one of the Clerkes that the king shall thereto assigne, when both cannot bee attendant, and knowledge the debt and day of paiment, and the Recognisance shall be enrolled by one of the said Clerks hands being knowen, and the Roll shall be double, whereof one part shall remaine with the Mayor or chiefe Warden, and the other with the Clerks that thereto shall be first named. And further one of the saide Clerkes with his owne hand shall write an Obligation, whereunto the seale of the Debtor shall bee put, with the Kings seale prouided for the same intent, which seale shalbe of two pieces, whereof the great piece shall remaine with the Maior or chiefe Warden, and the other in the keeping of the aforesaid Clerkes. And if the Debtor doe not pay the Debt, at the day limitted vnto him, then shall the Merchant come before the Maiors and Clerke with his Obligation, and if it be found by the Roll or Obligation, that the debt was knowledged, and the day of paiment expired, the Maior or chiefe Warden shall cause the body of the debtor to be taken (if hee be lay) whensoeuer he hapneth to come in their power, and shall commit him to the prison of the Towne, if there be any, and shall remaine there at their owne costs, vntill hee hath agréed for the debt. And it is commanded that the kéeper of the Towne prison, shall retaine him vpon the deliuerie of the Maior or the chiefe Warden, and if the Kéeper will not receiue him, he shall be answerable for the debt, if he haue whereof, & if he haue not wherof, he that committed the prison to his keeping shall answere it. And if the Debtor cannot bee found by the Maior or chiefe Warden, then shall the Maior or chiefe Warden send into the Chauncerie vnder the Kings seale, the Recognisance of the Debt: and the Chancellour shall direct a writ vnto the Shirife, in whose shire the Debtor happeneth to be, for to take his body (if he be lay) and safely to keepe him in prison, vntill hee hath agréed for the debt. And within a quarter of a yeere after that he is taken, his goods and landes shall bee deliuered to him, so that of his owne hee may leuy and pay the Debt. And it shall be lawfull vnto him, during the same quarter, to sell his lands and tenements, for the discharge of his debt, and his sale shall be good and effectuall. And if he do not satisfie it within the quarter then after the quarter expired, all the lands and goods of the Debtor shall be deliuered vnto the Merchant by a reasonable extent, to holde them vntill such time as the debt is wholy leuied: And nevertheless his body shall remaine in prison, as before is saide. And the Merchant shall finde him breade & water. And the Marchant or his assignes, shall haue such seisin in the lands and tenements deliuered vnto him that he may maintaine a writ of Nouel disseisin, if he be put out, and a redisseisin also, as of freehold to hold to him and his Assignes, vntill the Debt be paide. And as soone as the debt is leuied the body of the Debtor shall be deliuered with his lands. And in the Writs which the Chancellour shall award, mention shall be made, that the Shirife shall certifie the Justices of the one Bench or of the other, how he hath performed the Kings commaundement at a certaine day: At which day the Merchant shall sue before the said Justices, if they bee not satisfied. And if the Shirife doe not returne the Writ, or doe returne that the Writ came too late, or that hee hath directed it to the Bailife of some Franchise, the Justices shall doe as it is contained in the last Statute of Westminster. And if the Shirife returne that the Debtor cannot be found or that he is Clerke, the Merchant shall haue writs to all the Shirifes, where he shall haue any land, that they shall deliuer all the goods and lands of the Debtor, by a reasonable extent, to hold vnto him and his assignes in the forme aforesaid. And nevertheless hee shall haue a Writ to what Shirife that hee will, to take his body (if he be lay) and to detaine it in maner aforesaid. And let the Kéeper of the Prison take héed for he must answere the body, or the debt. And after that the Debtors lands be deliuered to the Merchant the Debtor may lawfully sell his land, so as the Merchant haue no damnage by the aprouements: And the Merchants shall be alwaies allowed their damnages, and all necessary and reasonable costs in their labours, suits, delaies, and expences. And if the debtor finde sureties, which shall acknowledge themselues as principall debtors, then after the day passed, the sureties shall be ordered in all things as is said of the principall debtor, as to the arrest of body, deliuerie of lands, and other things. And when the lands of the debtor be to be deliuered vnto the Merchant, hee shall haue seisin of all the lands that were in the hands of the Debtor, the day of the Recognisance made, in whose hands so euer that they come afterward, either by feoffement or otherwise. And after the debt paid, the lands and the issues thereof shall returne againe, as well to the feoffées, as the other lands vnto ỳ debtor: And if the debtor or his sureties dye, the Merchant shall haue none authority to take the body of his Heires, but he shall haue his lands as is beforesaid, if hée be of age, or when he shall be of full age, vntill such time as he hath leuied of the lands the amountance and value of the debt. And there shall be also another seale prouided, that shall serue for Faires, and the same shall be sent vnto euerie Faire vnder the Kinges Seale by a Clerke sworne, or by a Kéeper of the Faire. And of the Comminalty of London two Merchants shall be chosen, that shall be sworne, and the seale shall be opened before them, and the one péece shall be deliuered vnto the aforesaid merchants, and other shall remaine with the Clerke. Anno 13. E. 1.

3 Euerie Clerke, which shall bee deputed to receiue Recognisances in Cities and Boroughs, according to the Statute Merchant, shall there abide in proper person to doe his Office, according as is conteined in the Statute of Acton Burnell. And that hee haue Lands sufficient in the same Countie whereof hee may answere to all persons if hee offend. And if any other be in the same Office, hee shall bee remoued, and another conuenient set in his place. Anno 14. Ed. 3. cap. 11.

4 At the complaint of the said Comminalty, made to the King in the Parliament for that great disherison in times past hath beene done to the people, and may bee done hereafter by the false entring of Pleas, rasing of Rolles, and changing of Verdicts: It is accorded and assented, that if any Iudge or Clerke be of such default (so that by the same default there ensueth disherison of eyther of the parties) sufficiently conuict before the King and his Councell by the maner and forme, which to the same our Soueraigne Lord the King and his Councell shall seeme reasonable, and within two yeares after such default made, if the party grieued be of full age, and if hee bee within age, within two yeres after that he shall come to his full age, hee shall be punished by fine and ransome at the kings will, and shall satisfie the party. And as to the restitution of the inheritance desired by the saide Commons, the party grieued shall sue by Writ of Error or otherwise according to the lawes, if he see it expedient for him. Anno 8. R. 2. cap. 4. Restitution

5 When any Statute Merchant is certified into the Chauncerie, and thereupon a Writ awarded to the Shirife, and returned into the Common place, and the Statute there once shewed, that howsoeuer the Processe after the same shewing be discontinued, that at what time the party sueth to haue Processe recontinued, and to haue execution of the Statute Merchant aforesaide: That the Iustices of the Bench where the Statute was once shewed, may vpon the same Record, make and award full execution of the Statute Merchant, without hauing the sight or shewing thereof at any other time after, and that this Statute hold place of all Statutes Merchants not fully executed at this time. Anno 5. H. 4. cap. 12. Execution

6 Whereas diuers persons within this realme of England in times past, oftentimes haue been taken and arrested by diuers Sheriffes and other Officers of our Soueraigne Lord the King by Writs, aswell going out of the Chauncerie of our Soueraigne Lord the King, as of his noble Progenitours, for to haue execution of diuers Recognisances made before the Maiors of the Staple of diuers summes, of which summes such persons, to whome the duty belonged, had no conuenient remedy, other then the saide executions, which persons thereby taken and arrested for executions of the same Recognisances, be oftentimes come in by diuers Writs de corpus cum causa, before the King in his Chauncerie out of the prison in the which they bee so kept, because of such executions, and there they doe sue, shewing forth diuers Indentures and other thinges, in defeasance of such Recognisances, desiring Writs of Scire facias, to warne the party or parties, at whose sute they bee taken and arrested, to answere vpon the same. And thereupon by surety found to the King in his Chauncerie, haue beene deliuered out of prison, notwithstanding their said arrest for the executions of such Recognisances, as aboue is saide, no surety being found to the Recognisees, to whome they be so bound, to satisfie them of their duties, in case that the matter, comprised within the said Writs of Scire facias, be not found nor adiudged for the Recognisors therby bound, whereby the said Recognisees haue beene sometime greatly delayed of their execution, and sometime their execution vtterly lost, and in time to come likely to bee lost, because that no aduantage nor auaile thereof may come, be or grow to the saide recognisees to whome such persons be so bound, by the said surety so found to the King, because that the same person so bound, may by the Kinges pardon bee acquit and discharged for euer: Our Soueraigns Lord the King considering that the Surety said Recognisees to whome persons be bound, bee oftentimes without remedie, if so be the said Recognisors will not pursue their said Writtes of Scire facias with effect, or otherwise, if the matters of their saide Writs of Scire facias, bee found or adiudged against them, and thereupon they doe withdraw them to places priuileged, or eloine them out of the Realme, or else will not appeare, so as their bodies cannot be taken and put in execution, to the great hinderance and vndoing of such recognisees in time to come, and also because that the King is inherited of the taking of such sureties to himselfe by the Course of the Chancerie, the King willeth from henceforth that such sureties be made generally aswell to the King as to the party. Anno 11. Henr. 6. cap. 10.

Maior of the Staple Constable

7 For asmuch as the Maiors of the Staple in diuers places of this Realme, where any staple is kept, in the presence of the Constables of the same Staple, before this time, haue and might lawfully take Recognisance or knowledge for debts, onely concerning and touching the Merchandize of the same Staple, betwixt merchant and merchant of of the same Staple, according to diuers laudable estatutes and prouisions before this time had, ordained and made. Which Maiors and Constables, many and sundrie times since the making of the same Estatute haue taken diuers Recognisances and knowledges of diuers of the Kings subiects for debts, surmising the same knowledge or Recognisance to be made for surety of paiment of summes of money for such wares as were or beene bought in the same staple: where of truth the same Recognisance did not in any wise touch or concerne the merchandize of the same, ne also the parties, that is to say, the cognisor, ne the cognisee that did knowledge and take the same Recognisances were Merchants of the same staple: which recognisances and knowledges taken in forme aforesaid, are not onely cleere contrarie to the true meaning and intent of the same former estatutes, but also thereby diuers great and sundrie inconueniences, dammages and deceits doe daily rise and growe to diuers of the subiects of our said Soueraign Lord the King, by reason of the misusing of the same. And for asmuch as the kings Highnesse of his most high wisdome, perceiueth the misusing and execution of the same to bee contrarie to the forme of the said former estatutes: Therefore his pleasure is, that some true, lawfull, and reasonable Bond for surety of paiment of the said debts of his Subiects, shall be made and deuised by true and iust meanes, which in it selfe may and shall purport right and equity, and also consonant to reason: In consideration whereof, by the assent &c. that from the first day of Aprill next comming, the chiefe Iustice of the Kings Bench, and the chiefe Iustice of the Common place, which now be, or at any time hereafter shall be and euery of them by himselfe, & in their absence out of terme, the Maior of the Staple at Westminster, and Recorder of the Citie of London for the time being, iointly together by their discretion, shall haue not could by ꝑ power of the law attaine to the rents seruices or customes (if they were denyed) by distresse or action, without they could sure attaine to the possessions of the same rents, seruices and customes, by paying or doing the said rents, seruices or custom by the same tenholders, farmers and tenants, which to doe, diuers and many of them haue sometimes refused, and yet doe, to the great vexation and charge of their consciences, not onely to the disheritance of the said recouerors, but also in breaking of the last wylles of them against whome such recouerie is had, and also to the disheritance of the said husband, heires, and ꝑsons to whose vse the same recouerie was so had. Also if there were any aduowson appendant to any of the said mannors, the same aduowson had fallen voide, and a stranger haue presented, the said recouerers, nor they to whose vse the same recouerers were had, haue remedie for the same disturbance, and sometime thereby they haue been disherited. Be it therefore enacted, &c. that the recouerers in all such recouerie, their heires and all their assignes may hence forth distreine for the foresaid rents, seruices, and customes, so being due and vnpaid, & make auowrie or lawfull the same, as those persons against whome the said recouery is, should haue done, if the said Recouerie had not been had, and also haue like remedie for the recouering of the said rents, seruices, and customes by auowrie. And also Quare impe. for the said aduowson, if any disturbance be made, as those persons against whome the said recoueries were had, might or should haue had by the course of the common lawe, afore the said recouerie, if any such rents, seruices, or customes had beene denyed them, or any such disturbance had beene had in their times. 4 Where diuers of the Kinges most noble Progenitours, and specially the King our Soueraigne Lord most liberally aboue all other, hath giuen and granted or otherwise prouided to his and their louing and good seruants and subiects, aswell Nobles as other, Mannors, Meases, Lands, Tenements, Seruices, and hereditaments, to them and to their heires Males of their bodies, or to the Heires of their bodies lawfully begotten, minding at the time of such giftes not onely to preferre and aduance presently the Donees, but also their heires in blood of their bodies, according to the limitation of the saide gifts, to the intent that the recompence for the seruice of such Donees, should not onely be a benefite for their owne persons, but a continuall profit & commodity to and for their heires coming of their bodies, whereby such heires should haue in special memorie & in daily remembrance, the profit that they haue and take by the seruice of their ancestors done to the Kings of this Realme, and there-

thereby be the better encouraged to doe the like ſeruices to their Soueraigne Lord, as to their duties or allegiance appertaineth: And forasmuch as ſundry ſuch donées in taile & their heirs haue ſuffered & daily ſuffer by their conſents, vntrue & fained recoueries to be had againſt them with cõmon voucher or otherwiſe, of manors, meaſes, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, ſo giuen, granted, or prouided in taile by the kings Maieſtie, or by his noble progenitors, as is aforeſaide, to the intent by fraud, couine, and vndue meanes, not onely to binde and defeate their heires inheritable by the limitation of ſuch gifts, but alſo the king of his prerogatiue, wardſhip, primer ſeiſin, & other his rights, whereby queſtions and diuerſities of opinions haue riſen and yet be, whether ſuch fained and vntrue recoueries againſt ſuch Tenants in taile, by their owne conſents of lands, tenements, or hereditaments, whereof the reuerſion or remainder is in the King at the time of ſuch recouerie or recoueries had, ſhould after the death of the tenant in taile, binde the heires in taile or not: For plaine declaration whereof, and to auoide and extinct from henceforth diuerſities of opinions in ſuch caſes, Be it &c. That ſuch fained recouerie hereafter to be had by aſſet of parties againſt any ſuch tenant or tenants in taile of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, whereof the reuerſion or remainder at the time of ſuch recouery had, ſhall be in the K. ſhall binde or conclude the heires in taile, whether any condition, or voucher be had in any ſuch fained recouerie or not, but that after the death of euerie ſuch Tenant in taile, againſt whome any ſuch recoueries ſhall be had, the heires in taile may enter, haue, and enioy the lands, tenements and hereditaments, ſo recouered according to the forme of the gift of entaile: the ſaid recouerie or any other thing or things hereafter to be had, done, or ſuffered, by or againſt any ſuch Tenant in taile, to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And be it &c. that the heires of euerie ſuch tenant in taile, againſt whome any ſuch fained recouery ſhall be had, ſhall take none aduantage, for any recompence in value againſt the voucher nor his heires. Prouided alwaies, that this act nor any thing therein contained, be in any wiſe preiudiciall or hurtfull to the leſſe or leſſes of any ſuch Tenant in taile made, or to be made by writing indented of any manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments for terme of one and twentie yeares, three liues or vnder, whereupon the accuſtomable rent or rents, or more, is, or ſhall be reſerued yerely during the ſaid terme or termes, but the ſame leſſe or leſſes ſhall and may haue and enioy his or their termes or terme therein, againſt the heire and heires of euerie ſuch tenant in taile, according to the tenor, purport, and effect of the Statute made in the two and thirtieth yeare of the raigne of our Soueraigne Lord King Henrie the eight (which ſee in Leaſes 2.) any thing in this act contained to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding. Anno 34. H. 8. cap. 20.

Where diuers perſons being ſeiſed, or that haue beene ſeiſed of lands, tenements, and hereditaments as tenants by the curteſie of England, tenants in taile after poſſibility of iſſue iſſue extinct, or otherwiſe, onely for terme of life or liues, or of eſtates determinable vpon life or liues, haue heretofore permitted & ſuffered other perſons by agreement or couine betweene them had, to recouer the ſame lands and tenements, and other hereditaments againſt the ſame particular tenants in the M. Freehold Just. in eire Assise

IF any be disseised of his freeholds, and before the Justices in Eyre, hath recouered seisin by assise of Nouel disseisin, or by the confession of them which did the Disseisin, and the disseisee hath had seisin deliuered him by the Sherife, if the same disseisours after the circuit of the Justicers, or in the meane time shall againe disseise the same plaintife of the same freehold, and thereof be conuict, they shall be forthwith taken and kept in the Kings prison, vntill the King discharge them by ransome or by some other meane. And this is the forme how such conuict persons shall be punished: when the Plaintifes come to the Court, they shall haue the Kings writ directed to the Sherife, in which shall be conteined their declaration of the disseisin done vpon disseisin. And therefore it shall be commanded to the Shirife, that he taking with him the Keepers of the pleas of the Kings Crowne, and other lawfull Knights, in his proper person shall goe vnto the land or pasture, of which the plaint hath beene made: And that before them he make by the Iurors, and other neighbours and lawfull men diligent inquisition thereof. And if they finde him disseised againe (as before is said) then let them doe according to the prouision afore mentioned. And if it be found otherwise, the Plaintife shal be amerced, and the other shall goe quite. Neither shall the Sherife prosecute any such plaint without the speciall commandement of the King. In the same maner shall be done for them that haue recouered their seisin by assise of Mordancestor. And so shall it be of all lands and tenements recouered in the Kings Court by inquests, if they be disseised after by the first desorcours, against whome they haue recouered in any wise by inquest. reason whereof the tenants of the demeane of such lands, tenements, or hereditaments, out of the which such rents were due & payable, who of right ought to pay their rents and farmes at such days & termes as they were due, doe many times keepe, hold, and retaine such arrerages in their owne hands, so that the executors and administrators of the persons to whom such rents or fee farmes were due, can not haue or come by the said arrerages of the same towards the paiments of the debts, and performance of the will of the said testators: For remedy whereof be it &c. That the executors and administrators of every such person or persons, unto whom any such rent of fee farme is or shalbe due, and not paid at the time of his death, shall and may haue an Action of debt for all such arrerages against the tenant or tenants that ought to haue payed the said rent or fee farme, so being behind in the life of their testator, or against the executors and administrators of the said tenants. And also furthermore it shalbe lawfull to every such executor and administrator of any such person or persons, unto whom such rent or fee farme is or shalbe due, and not payed at the time of his death, as is aforesaid, to distrein for the arrerages of all such rents and fee farmes, upon the landes, tenements, and other hereditaments, which were chargeed with the payment of such rents or fee farmes, and chargeable to the distresse of the said testator, so long as the said lands, tenements, or hereditaments, continue, remaine, and be in the seisin or possession of the said tenant in demeane, who ought immediately to haue payed the said rent or fee farme so being behinde to the said testator in his life or in the seisin or possession of any other person or persons claiming the saide lands, tenements, and hereditaments, only by and from the same tenant by purchase, gift, or descent, in like manner and forme, as their saide Testator might or ought to haue done in his life time. And that the said executors and administrators shall for the same distresse lawfully make anowrie upon their matter aforesaid. Prouided alway, that this Act, nor any thing therein contained, shall not extend to any such mannor, lordshippe, or dominion in Wales, or in the Marches of the same, whereof the inhabitants haue vsed time out of mind of man to pay vnto every Lord and Owner of such lordshipp, manor, or dominion, at his or their first entrie into the same, any summe or summes of money for the redemption and discharge of all duties for forfeitures and penalties wherewith the said inhabitants were chargeable to any of the said Lords ancestors, or predecessors before his said entrie. And further be it ordeyned, That if any man which now hath, or hereafter shall haue in the right of his wife, any estate in fee simple, fee taile, or for terme of life, of, or in any rents or fee farmes, and the same rents or fee farmes nowbe, or hereafter shall be due, behind and vnpaid in the said wifes life: then the said husband after the death of his said wife, his executors and administrators, shall haue an action of debt for the saide arrerages against the tenant of the demeane that ought to haue payed the same, his executors, or administrators. And also the said husband after the death of his said wife, may distreine for the said arrerages in like manner and forme as hee might haue done if his said wife had beene then liuing, & make anowrie vpon his matter as is aforesaid. And likewise it is &c. that if any person or persons, which now hath, or hereafter shall haue any rents or fee farmes for terme of life or liues of any other person or persons, and the said rent or fee farme now be, or hereafter shall be due, behinde, and vnpayed in the life of such person or persons, for whose life or liues the estate of the said rent or fee farme did depend or continue, and after the said person or persons doth die: then hee vnto whom the said rent or fee farme was due in forme aforesaid, his executors and administrators, shall and may haue an Action of debt against the tenant in demeane that ought to haue payed the same when it was first due, his executors and administrators, and also distreine for the same arrerages vpon such lands and tenements, out of the which the said rents or fee farmes were issuing and payable, in such like manner and forme, as hee ought or might haue done if such person or persons by whose death the aforesaid estate in the said rents and fee farmes was determined and expired, had beene in full life, and not dead: And the anowrie for the taking of the same distresse, to be made in manner and forme aforesaid. 2 Forasmuch as the Lords of Fées distreining their tenants for Seruices and Customes due vnto them, are many times grieued, because their tenants do repleuy the distresse by Writ or without writ: And when the lords at the complaint of their tenants, do come by attachment to the Countie, or vnto another court, hauing power to hold pleas of repleuine, and do auow the taking to be reasonable and iust: by reason that the tenants doe disauow and disclaime to hold ought of him which toke the distresse and auowed it, he that distreined it is amerced, and the tenants goe quit to whom punishment can not be assigned for such disauowing by the record of the Countie, or of other Courts which haue no record. ces, afore whom, and none other where, iuſtice may be miniſtred to ſuch Lordes. And the cauſe that ſhall be put in the Writ, ſhalbe this, Becauſe ſuch a man diſtreined in his fee for ſeruices and cuſtomes to him due. Neither is this Act preiudiciall to the Common Law vſed, which doth not permit that any plea ſhalbe put before the Iuſticers, at the ſuite of the Defendant: For though it appeare at the firſt ſhew, that the Tenant is Plaintife, and the Lord Defendant: Neuertheles, hauing reſpect to that that the Lord hath diſtreined, and ſueth for his Seruices and Cuſtomes being behinde, he appeareth indeed to be rather Plaintife then Defendant. And to the intent the Iuſtices may know of what late ſeiſin the Lords may aduow the diſtreſſe to be reaſonable vpon their tenants: From henceforth it is agreed and enacted, that a reaſonable diſtreſſe may be aduowed of the ſeiſin of any anceſtor or predeceſſor, from the time that the writ of Nouel diſſeiſin doth run. And becauſe it chanceth many times that the tenãt after that he hath repleuied his beaſts, doth ſell or eloigne them, whereby returns can not be made vnto the Lord that diſtreined, if it be adiudged: It is prouided, that Sheriffes or Bailifes from henceforth, ſhall not onely receiue of the Plaintifes pledges to purſue, before they make deliuerance of the diſtreſſe, but alſo for the returne of the beaſts, if returne be awarded. And if any take pledges otherwiſe, he ſhall anſwer for the price of the beaſts, and the Lord that diſtreineth ſhall haue his recouerie by writ, Quod reddat ei tot aueria vel tot catalla. And if the Bailife be not able to reſtore it, his Lord ſhal reſtore it. And foraſmuch as it happeneth ſometime, that after the returne of the beaſts is awarded vnto the diſtreiner, and the party ſo diſtreined, after that the beaſts be returned, doth repleuy them againe, and when he ſeeth the diſtreiner appearing in the Court ready to anſwer him, he doth make default, whereby returne of the beaſts is to to be awarded againe vnto the diſtreiner, and ſo the beaſts be repleuied twice or thrice, and ſo infinitely, and the Iudgements giuen in the Kings Court take no effect in this caſe, whereupon no remedy hath beene yet prouided: In this caſe ſuch Proceſſe ſhall be awarded, That ſo ſoone as the returne of the beaſts ſhall be awarded to the diſtreiner, the Sherife ſhall be commaunded by a iudicial writ to make returne of the beaſts vnto the diſtreiner, in which writ it ſhall be expreſſed, that the ſherife ſhall not deliuer them without writ, making mention of the iudgement giuen by the Iuſticers, which can not be without a Writ iſſuing out of the Rolles of the ſaide Iuſticers, before whom the matter was moued. Therefore when he commeth vnto the Iuſticers, and deſireth againe repleuine of the beaſts, he ſhall haue a iudiciall writ, that the Sherife taking ſuretie of him to proſecute the ſuit, and alſo for the beaſts and cattell to be returned, or the price of them if returne be awarded, ſhall deliuer vnto him the beaſts or cattell before returned, and the diſtreiner ſhal be attached to come at a certaine day before the Iuſticers, afore whom the plea ſhall be handled in the preſence of the parties. And if he that repleuied doe make default againe, or for an other cauſe returne of the diſtreſſe being new twice repleuied be awarded, the diſtreſſe ſhall remaine irrepleuiable, but if the diſtreſſe be taken of new, and and for a new cauſe, the proces aboueſaid ſhalbe obſerued in the ſame new diſtres. Here is added of new by the Kings Councell. The King and his auncestors since time out of minde haue vsed that Clerks, during such time as they are in his seruice, shall not be compelled to kéepe residence at their Benefices. And such things as be thought necessary for the K. & the common wealth, ought not to be called preiudiciall to the libertie of the Church. Artic. Cleri capite 3. Anno 9. Edw. secundi.

2 That no Spirituall person, secular or regular, of what degree soeuer he or they be, shall from henceforth take to farme to himselfe, or to any person or persons to his vse, of the lease or grauntes of the King our Soueraigne Lord, nor of any other person or persons, by letters patents, Indentures, writings, by word or otherwise, by any manner of meanes, any manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments for terme of life, for terme of yeares, or at will, vpon paine to forfeit tenne pounds for euery moneth, that he, or any other to his vse, shall occupy any such farme by reason of any such Lease or Graunt hereafter to be made. The one halfe of which forfeiture to be to the King &c. and the other halfe thereof to euery such person as will sue &c. in any of the Kings Courtes: In which Action and suite no wager of Law shall be admitted for the defendant &c. And be it &c. that all & euery such spirituall person or persons, which now haue or occupy in farme by themselues, or by any other to their vse, any manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, of the lease or grant of the K. our soueraigne Lord, or any other person or persons, for terme of life, or for yeres, or at will, by any writing or otherwise, or that now haue any annuall rents, or other annuall aduauntage or profite, by occasion or colour of any such lease or farme, shall clerely bargaine, sell, giue, or graunt away on this side the feast of Saint Michaell the Archangell next comming, to any such lay person or persons, as they will at their owne nominations and appointment, all such lease, terme, interest, and profit as any such Spirituall person, or any other to his vse now hath or haue, in, or by reason of any such farme: so that in no wise any such Spirituall person or persons, at any time after the same feast, by themselfe or any other to their vse by any other manner of meanes, fraud, or male engine, shall haue, vse, or occupie in farme, any manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, of the demise, lease or graunt of any person or persons heretofore made, or hereafter to bee made, to themselfe, or to any other to their vses, nor from the said feast shall take any annuall rent, or other annuall aduantage or profite, by occasion or colour of any such lease or farme by any manner of meanes, vpon paine to forfeit for every moneth so occupying any such farme at any time after the said feast contrary to this present Act ten pounds, and vpon paine to forfeit tenne times so much as any Spirituall person, or other to his vse, shall take in any annuall rent, aduantage or profite, by occasion or colour of any such lease at any time after the said feast. The one halfe of which forfeiture to be to the King &c. and the other halfe to him that will sue &c. in any of the Kings Courts, in which Action and Suite no wager of Law shall be admitted, &c. And be it &c. That all such Leases made, or hereafter to be made vnto any such Spirituall person or persons, or to any other to their vse for term of life, terme of yéres, or at will, of any manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, whereof they, or any of them, shall take any profite, or medling by themselfe, sale, or by any other to their vse, after the said feast of Saint Michaell, by colour of any such Lease or Graunt, and not by them bargained, granted, and sold away before the said feast, as is before limited, shall from thencefoorth be vtterly void, and of none effect, aswell against the lessor or lessors, graunter or graunters, their heires and assignes, and against euery of them, as against the lessee or lessees, and their executors and assigns, and euery of them. Prouided alway, that this present Act shall not extend to any spirituall person or persons, in, and for taking to farme any temporalties, during the time of vacations, of any Archbishoprickes, Abbies, Priories, or other Collegiall, Cathedrall, or Conuentuall Churches, nor to any spirituall person or persons, that shall tend or make any trauers vpon any offices or office, concerning his or their freehold. And be it &c. That no Spirituall person or persons, Secular or Regular, of what estate or degree soeuer they be, shall from henceforth by himselfe, nor by any other for him, nor to his vse, bargaine and buy to sell againe, for any lucre, gaine, or profite, in any faires, markets, or other places, anie manner cattels, corues, lead, tinne, hides, leather, tallow, fish, woll, wood, or any manner of vitaile or marchandize, what kinde soeuer they be of, vpon paine to forfeit treble the value of euerie thing by them, or by any other to their vse, bargained and bought to sell againe, contrary to this present Act. And that euery such bargaine and contract hereafter to be made by them, or by any to their vse, contrary to this Act, shall be vtterly voide, and of none effect: and the one halfe of euerie such forfeiture to be to the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the other halfe to him that will sue for the same by originall writ of debt, bill, plaint, or information in anie of the Kings Courts. In which action or suite, no wager of Law for the defendant shall be admitted, nor any essoine, nor protection allowed. Prouided alway, that if any such spirituall person or persons shall happen hereafter without fraud or couin to buy any horses, mares, mules, to the only intent to occupy for himselfe or his seruants to ride to and fro, vpon his necessary businesse, or any other cattels or goods, to the onely intent and purpose at the buying therof, to be imployed and put in and about his necessary apparell of his owne house, or of his person or seruants, or in, for, and about the only occupying, manuring, or tillage of his owne glebe or demeane lands annexed to his Church, or for the necessary expences of his owne houshold keeping: and after the buying of any such horses, cattells, or goods, or exercise of them or any of them, happeneth to mislike any of them, that they should not be good, profitable, nor conuenient for any of the purposes abouesaid, for the which they were bought: That then euery such Spirituall person or persons may lawfully bargaine and put away such things so by him bought, without fraud or couine, for anie of the purposes abouesaide, at his pleasure and aduantage. This Act, or anie thing therein contained, to the contrary notwithstanding. Prouided alwayes, that all Abbots, Priors, Abbesses, Prioresses, Prouosts, Presidents, Maisters of Colledges, and Hospitalles, and all other Spirituall Gouernors and Gouernelles of any spirituall Monasteries or houses of Religion, by what name or names soeuer they be called, hauing manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and other yearely profits in the right of their monasteries or houses, of the yeerely value of vij. C. marks, or vnder, and not aboue, may vse and occupy asmuch, and as many of their demeane lands, as farmes, to their most aduantage, commodity, and profite, to, and for the onely maintenaunce of their houseliolds and hospitalities, in as ample and large manner, as they, or any of them or their predecessors, or the predecessors of any of them, at any time by the space of an hundred yeares last past, before the making of this Act, haue done, vsed and occupied: Anie thing in this present Act to the contrarie notwithstanding. Prouided also, that euerie spirituall person or persons, not hauing glebe or demeane lands in their owne hands, in the right of their Churches, Monasteries and Houses, for pasturage of cattells, or for increase of corne, to, and for the onely expences of their houshold, or for their carriages and iourneys, may take in farme other lands, and buy and sell corne and cattell, for the onely manurance, tillage, and pasturage of such farmes, so that the increase thereof be alwayes imployed, and put to, and for the onely expenses in their houseliolds and hospitalities, and not in any wise to buy and sel again, for any other commoditie, lucre, or aduantage, anie corne or cattell, renewing, comming, or growing in, and vpon any such farme, or otherwise, but only the remaine and ouerplus aboue their expences of their houshold, if any such shall happen to the increase thereof, without fraud or couin. Anie thing in this present Act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding. And be it further enacted, that if any person or persons, hauing one benefice with cure of soule, being of the yearely value of vij. or aboue, accept and take anie other with cure of soule, and be instituted and inducted in possession of the same: That then and immediatly after such possession had thereof, the first Benefice shalbe adiudged in the Law to be voyde. And that it shall be lawful to euery patron hauing thaduowson thereof, to present another, & the presentee to haue the benefit of the same, in such like maner & form, as though the Incumbent had died, or resigned: Any licence, vnion, or other dispensation, to the contrary hereof obtained notwithstanding. And that euery such licence, vnion, or dispensation, had, or hereafter to be obtained, contrary to this present Act, of what name or names, qualitie or qualities soeuer they be, shall be vtterly voide, and of none effect. And if anie person or persons at anie time after the first day of Aprill, in the yeare of our Lord God, one thousand fiue hundred and thirty, contrary to this present Act, procure and obtaine at the Court of Rome, or elsewhere, any licence or licences, vnion, tolleration, or dispensation, to receiue and take any moe Benefices with cure, then is aboue limited, or else at anie time after the saide day, put in execution any such licence, tolleration, or dispensation before that obteined contrarie to this act: that then euery euery such person or persons so after the said dew sueing for himselfe, or receiuing or taking such benefices by force of such licence or licences, vnion, tolleration, or dispensation that is so as the same person or persons only, and none other, shall for euery such default incurre the danger, paine, and penalties of twentie pounds sterling, and also lose the whole profits of euery such benefice or benefices, as he receiued or taketh by force of any such licence or licences, vnion, tolleration, or dispensation. The one halfe of which forfeiture to be to the King &c. And the other halfe thereof to him that will sue for the same, &c. In which suit no wager of Lawe to be admitted or allowed. Prouided allwais, that this Act concerning not keeping of moe benefices with cure of Soule then one, extend not be preiudicial to any person or persons, which at any time before the said first day of Aprill, in the yeere of our Lord God one thousand fiue hundred and thirtie, shall bee really intituled or possessed of any such benefices with cure of soule as concerning or touching any of the said benefices, whereof they shall then be already really intituled or possessed before the sayd day, to or vnder the number of foure, and not aboue, and if any such Spirituall person or persons so being intituled or possessed of moe benefices with cure of Soule, then foure, doe not by the sayd first day of Aprill, clearely and without yerely pension, pe-sione or otherwise giue vp all and euery such benefice or benefices, as he shall be so intituled and possessed of, aboue the sayd number, that then it shall be lawfull for euery patron, hauing the Aduowson of any such benefice ouer the nūber aforesayd, to present an other, and the Presentee to haue the benefit of the same, in like manner and forme, as though it had beene voyd by death or resignation of the incumbent, any Licence, Union, or other dispensation to the contrary hereof obtayned notwithstanding. And this clause of presentation to be taken and vnderstanden of such benefices with cure of Soule, as were giuen to any such Spirituall person after the sayde number of foure benefices with Cure, finished and fulfilled. Prouided also, that all Spirituall men now being, or which hereafter shall bee of the Kings Councell, may purchase Licence or Dispensation, and take, receiue, and keepe three Parsonages or Benefices, with cure of Soule, and that all other beeing the Kings Chapleines and not sworne of his Councell, and Chapleines of the Quéene, Prince or Princesse, or of any the Kings Children, Brethren, Sisters, Vncles, or Aunts, may semblably purchase licence or dispensation, and receiue and keepe two Parsonages or Benefices with cure of Soule. And in likewise, that euery Archbishoppe and Duke may haue six Chaplaines, whereof euerie one shall and may purchase Licence or Dispensation, and take, receiue, and keepe two Parsonages or Benefices with cure of Soule: and that euery Marquesse and euery Earle may haue fiue Chapleines, whereof euery one may purchase licence or Dispensation, and take receiue and keepe two Parsonages or Benefices with Cure of Soule. And that euerie Vicount and other Bishoppe may haue foure Chapleines, whereof euery one may purchase Licence, and receiue haue and keepe two Parsonages or Benefices with cure of Soule, as is aforesayd. And that the Chauncelor of England for the time being, and euery Baron and Knight of the Garter, may haue three Chapleines, whereof euerie one shall now purchase Licence or Dispensation, and receiue, haue, and keepe two Parsonages or Benefices, with cure of Soule. And that euery Duchesse, Marquesse, Countesse, and Baronesse, being Widowes, may haue two Chapleins, whereof euery one of them may purchase Licence or Dispensation to receiue, haue and keepe two Benefices, with cure of Soule, and that the Treasorer and Controuler of the Kings houses, the Kings Secretarie, and Deane of his Chappell, the Kings Almner, and the Maister of the Rolles, may haue euerie of them two Chapleins, and the chiefe Justice of the Kings Bench one Chapleine, and the Warden of the fiue Portes for the time being one Chapleine, whereof euery one may purchase Licence, and receiue, haue, and keepe two Parsonages or Benefices with cure of Soule. And that the brethren and sonnes of all Temporall Lords, which are borne in wedlocke, may euerie of them purchase Licence or Dispensation, and receiue, haue and keepe as many Parsonages or Benefices with cure, as the Chapleines of a Duke or an Archbishop. And likewise the brethren and sonnes borne in wedlocke of euerie Knight, may euerie of them purchase Licence or Dispensation, and receiue, take, and keepe two Parsonages or Benefices, with cure of Soule. Prouided alwayes, that the sayde Chapleines so purchasing, taking, receiuing, and keeping Benefices, with cure of Soule, as is aforesayde, shall be bound to haue and exhibite where need shall be, Letters vnder the signe and Seale of the King, or other their Lord and Master, testifying whose Chapleines they bee, and else not to enioy any such pluralitie of Benefices by such Chapleines: Any thing in this act notwithstanding. Be it also prouided, that all Doctors and bachelers of Diuinity, Doctors of law, and bachelers of the Canon law, and euery of them, which shalbe admitted to any of the said degrees, by any of the vniuersities of this realm, and not by grace only, may purchase licence, and take, haue and keepe two parsonages or benefices, with cure of soules, so that alwayes the said liberty by any of the prouisions before said, giuen to any of the said Councelors, Chapleines and other persons before specified, to purchase licence or dispensation, and take, receiue, and keepe more benefices then one, after the maner and form aforesaid, be taken and vnderstanden to extend in number to no more benefices, with cure of soule, then is aboue limited, accounting in the same, and as parcell thereof, such Benefices with cure of Soule, as any of the sayd persons shal haue in real title, or in their possession, at the sayd first day of Aprill, in the yeere of our Lord God, one thousand

Prouided alſo that euerie Archbiſhoppe, becauſe hee muſt occupie eight Chapleines, at conſecration of Biſhoppes: And euery Biſhoppe, becauſe hee muſt occupie ſeuen Chapleines at giuing of orders, and conſecration of Churches, may euery of them haue two Chapleines ouer and aboue the number aboue limited vnto the, whereof euery one may purchaſe licence of diſpenſations, and take, receiue, and keepe as many parſonages or benefices, with cure of Soule, as is before aſſigned to ſuch Chapleins: Prouided alſo and be it &c. that noe perſon or perſons, to whom any number of Chapleines, or any Chapleine by any of the prouiſions aforeſayd is limited, ſhall in any wiſe by colour of any of the ſame proui ſions, aduance any ſpirituall perſon or perſons, aboue the number of them appointed to receiue, or keepe any more benefices with cure of Soule, then is aboue limited by this Act: Any thing ſpecified in the ſaid prouiſions notwithſtanding. And if they doe, then euery ſuch Spirituall perſon or perſons ſo aduaunced aboue the ſayd number, to incurre the payne and penaltie contained in this Act. Bee it alſo enacted, that aſwell euery Spirituall perſon nowe being promoted to any Archdeaconrie, Deanrie, or dignitie to any Monaſterie or Cathedrall Church, or other Church conuentuall or collegiall, or being benificed with any Parſonage or Vicarage, as all and euerie Spirituall perſon or perſons, which hereafter ſhall bee promoted to any of the ſayde dignities or benefices, with any Parſonage or Vicarage, from the feaſt of Saint Michaell the Archangell next comming ſhall be perſonally reſident and abiding in, at, and vpon his ſayd dignitie, Prebend or Benefice, or at one of them at the leaſt. And in caſe any ſuch Spiritual perſon, at any time after the ſayd Feaſt, keepe not reſidence at one of the ſayd Dignities, Prebends or Benefices, as is aforeſaid, but abſent himſelfe wilfully by the ſpace of one moneth together, or by the ſpace of two Monethes, to be accounted at ſeuerall times in any one yeere, and make his reſidence and abiding in any other places by ſuch time, that then hee ſhall forfeite for euery ſuch default, tenne pounds ſterling. The one halfe thereof to the King &c. And the other halfe of the ſame to the partie that will ſue &c. In which action and ſuite the Defendant ſhall not wage his Lawe &c. And if any perſon or perſons procure or obtain at the Court of Rome, or elſewhere, any manner of licence or diſpenſation, to be non reſident at their ſaid Dignities, Prebends or Benefices, contrarie to this act, that then euery ſuch perſon or perſons putting in execution any ſuch diſpenſation or licence for himſelfe, from the ſayd firſt day of Aprill, in the yeere of our Lord God, one thouſand fiue hundred and thirtie, ſhall runne and incurre in the penaltie, damage, and payne of twenty pounds ſterling for euery time ſo doing, to be forfeited and recouered as is aboueſayd, and ſuch licence or diſpenſation ſo procured, or to be put in execution, to be voyd and of none effect. Prouided alwayes, that this Act of non reſidence, ſhall not in any wiſe extend, ne bee preiudiciall to any ſuch Spirituall perſon as ſhall chance to bee in the Kings ſeruice beyond the Sea, nor to any perſon or perſons going to any Pilgrimage, or holy place beyond the Sea, during the time that they ſhall be in the kinges ſeruice, or in the Pilgrimages going and returning home, nor to any Scholler or ſcholler being conuerſant and abiding for ſtudie without fraude or couin at any Vniuerſitie within this Realme or without, nor to any of the Chapleines of the Kings or Quenes, daily or quarterly attending and abiding in the kings or Quenes moſt honorable houſholds. Nor to any of the Chapleines of the Prince or Princes, or any of the Kings or Quens children, brethren or ſiſtern, attending daily in their honorable houſholds, during ſo long as they ſhall attend in any of their ſaid houſholds. Nor to any Chapleine of any Archbiſhop or Biſhop, or of ſpirituall or temporall Lords of the Parliament, daily attending, abiding, and remaining in any of their honorable houſholds. Nor to any chaplein of any Duchelle, Marquelle, Countelle, Vicountelle, or Baronelle, attending daily, & abiding in any their honorable houſholds. Nor to any Chapleine of the Lord Chancelor or Treaſorer of England, the Kings Chamberlaine or Steward of his houſholds for the time being, the Treaſorer and Comptroller of the kings moſt honorable houſhold for the time being, attending daily in any of their honorable houſholds. Nor to any chapleine of any of the knights of the honorable order of the garter, or of the chief Juſtice of the kings bench, warden of the Portes, or alſo of the Maſter of the rols. Nor to any Chapleine of the kings Secretarie, and Deane of the Chappell, or Amner for the time being, daily attending and dwelling in any of their houſholds, during the time ỳ any ſuch chaplein or chapleines ſhall abide & dwel, without fraud or couin, in any of ỳ ſaid honorable houſholds. Returne of Shirifes and Baylifes.

SUch as doe feare the subtilty of Shirifes, shall deliuer their writs originall and iudiciall in the open county, or againe in the shire, where the collection of the kings mony is, and may take of the shirife or vndershirife being present, a Bill, wherein the names of the demaundants and tenants mentioned in the writ shall bee contayned, and at the request of him that deliuered the writ, the Seale of the shirife or vndershirife shall be put to the bill for a testimonie, and mention shall bee made of the day of the deliuerance of the writ. And if the Shirife or Vndershirife will not put his seale to the bil, the witnesse of Knights and other credible persons being in presence, shalbe taken, that put their seales to such bill. And if the shirife will not return writs deliuered vnto him, and complaint therof be made to the Justices, a writ iudiciall shall goe vnto the Justices assigned to take Assises, that they shal inquire by such as were present at the deliuerance of the writ of the Shirife, if they knew of the deliuerance, and the inquest shall be returned. And if it be found by the inquest, that the writ was deliuered to him, damages shall be awarded to the plaintife or demandant, hauing respect vnto the qualitie and quantity of the action, & to the perill that might haue come to him by reason of the delay that he sustained, and by this meane there is remedie when the Shirife returneth, that the writ came too late, whereby he could not execute the kings commaundement. Oftentimes also plees, be delayed, by reason that the shirif returneth, that he hath commanded the bailifes of some Liberty, which did nothing therein, and nameth Liberties that neuer had the returne of Writs, whereupon our soueraigne lord the king hath ordained, that the Treasorer and barons of the Exchequer shall deliuer in a Rol all the liberties in all maner of Shires that haue returne of writs. And if the Shirife answere, that he hath made returne to a Bailife of any other liberty, then is contained in the said Roll, the Shirife shall bee forthwith punished, as a disheritor of the King and his Coowne. And if peraduenture he return, that he hath deliuered the writ to a Bailife of some Libertie, that indeed hath returne, the Shirife shal be commaunded, that hée shall not spare for no Libertie, but to execute the Kings Precept, and that he doe the Baylifes to wit, to whom hee returned the Writ, that hee be ready at a day contayned in the Writ, to answer why they did not execute the Kings precept. And if they come at the day, and acquite themselues, that no returne was made to them, the Shirife shall be forthwith condemned to the Lord of the same Libertie, and likewise to the party grieued by the delay, for to render damma- Damages Bailifes
ges. And if the Bailifes come not in at the day, or doe not acquite themselues in manner aforesaid in euery iudiciall Writ, so long as the plée hangeth, the Shirife shall bée commaunded to spare for noe Libertie, &c. Many times also Shirifes make false Returnes as touching these Articles, Quod de exitibus &c. Returning sometime, and lying, that there bée noe issues, sometimes that there are are small issues, when they may returne great, and sometime doe make mention of noe issues: wherefore it is ordayned and agréed, that if the plaintife demaund of the Shirifes returne, it shall bee graunted him. And if hée offer to auerre, that the Shirife might haue returned greater issues vnto the King, hée shall haue a writ Judiciall vnto the Justices assigned to take Assises, that they shall inquire in presente of the Shirife, (if he will bee there) of what and how great issues the Shirifes might haue made returne from the day of the Writ purchased, vnto the day contayned in the Writ. And when the Inquest is returned, if he haue not afore answered for the whole, hee shall be charged with the ouerplus by the estreats of the Estreats Justices deliuered in the Exchequer, & neuertheless shall be grieuously amerced for the concealement. And let the Shirife knowe, that Rents, Corne in the Granage, and all moueables (except Horse harnesse, and household stuffe) be contayned within the name of the issues. And the Issues
King hath commaunded, that Shirifes shall be punished by the Justices once or twice (if néed bée) for such false Returnes. And if they offende the third time, none shall haue to doe therewith but they king. They make also many times false answers, returning that they could not execute the False answers Kings Precept, for the resistance of some great man: wherefore let the Shirifes beware from henceforth, for such manner of answeres redound much to the dishonour of the King and of his Crowne. And as sone as his vnderbailifes doe testifie, that they found such resistance, forthwith all things set apart, (taking with him the power of the shire) he shall goe in proper person to do execution: And if he find his vnderbailifes false, he shall punish them by imprisonment, so ỹ other by their example may be informed. And if he doe find them true, hee shall punish the resisters, by imprison- Imprison-maunders, and fauourers, and by a writ Judiciall they shalbe attached by the bodies to appeare in the Kings Court: And if they bee conuict of such resistance, they shal be punished at the Kings pleasure: neither shall any Officer of the Kings meddle in assigning the punishment, for our Soueraigne Lord the King hath reserued it specially to himself, because that resisters bene reputed disturbers of of his peace and of his Realme. 2 Because the punishment of Trespas for the desert of any person offending ought to be set, and many Shirifes of the Realme are altogether lay, hauing no knowledge of returne of Writs, which hitherunto haue bene returned into the Kings Court, sometime are learned, yet hauing so great confidence ouer their Clerks doings, that of writs to them directed, to bee ouerseene and examined, they care not any thing to meddle themselues therwithall, and alwayes in times past, as well in the Exchequer, as elsewhere in the Kings Courts it hath beene vsed, that for writs executed vnduely, the Shirifes to whom they were directed, haue beene amerced, and their Clerkes which haue returned and made false, fained, and friuolous answers to the same writs, nothing at all, whereby it is presumed, and thought to be true, those clerks to haue taken more audacitie of offending. The honorable Fathers W. of Hotham, Archbishoppe of Dublin, W. of Luda, of Ely, W. of Grauesend of London, W. of Langton of Couentry, and the Bishoppe of Lichfield the Kings Treasorer, and John of Langton Chancelor of England, John of Cobham, and his fellowes Barons of the Exchequer aforesaid: also the Justices of eyther Bench, and other more of the Kings Counsell called together to the same Exchequer at Westminster the thursday in the feast of S. Valentine, in the yeere of King Edward twenty six consulting to prouide a remedie in the case aforesaid, that hereafter clerks of Shirifes, giuing false answers to the K. writs, may know, not to passe ouer such their deceitfulnesse vnpunished, as hitherto they haue done, neyther the Shirifes in that case for the doings of their Clerkes, may receiue punishment, as before veris often they haue done. They haue agreed and prouided, that they answere before the Treasorer and Barons of the Exchequer of our Lord the King, and elsewhere in the Courts of the same King, before his Justices whatsoeuer, of false returns, and aswel the Clerkes as the Shirifes themselues bee punished, so that if default of returne bee found in the person of the Clerke, and not in the person of the Shirif, the Clerk shal satisfie to the party hurt, of the losse which the party can lawfully shew, that he sustained for default of the return aforesaid, and neuertheless towards the King, shall be punished, according to the discretion of the Justices before whom hee shall bee conuicted, hauing regard to the quantitie of the offence, and the Shirifes then in that case shall be quiet, so that their Clerkes be sufficient to satisfie, as is aforesaide, to which if they be not, for their default, the Shirifes vnder whom these Clerkes do intend such office, shall answer and satisfie, and it is to be knowne that this prouision, from the day of the making of the same, hath beene obserued of the Shirifs and their clerks in London and Middlesex, because they are forewarned of the same &c. And as to the other Shirifes of the Realme, and their Clerkes, the prouision aforesaid shall hold place in the morow of the clause of Easter next comming, and not before, because then they shall bee forewarned, vpon their proffer, and afterward in the morow of the clause of Easter in the yeere of King Edward 28. the prouision aforesaid was expounded in the Exchequer to all Shirifes of England, and then it was agreed by the K. Councel, that clerks of shirifs giuing false answers, should be punished at the summons of the Exchequer vpon the account of shirifes, if they bee conuicted hereupon in forme as aboue is prouided to punish them for writs falsly executed. 3 And because it is many times complayned in the Kings Court vpon returnes, that Baylifes of franchises (hauing full power to returne the Kings writs) haue deliuered to Shirifes that haue beene afterward changed, and otherwise returned in the Kings Court, to the dammage of the parties, and the delay of right: It is agréed, that to such returnes as hereafter be deliuered to Shirifes by such Bailifes of franchises, an Indenture shall be made betweene the Baylife of the franchise by his proper name, and the Shirife by his proper name. And if the Shirife change the returne so deliuered to him by Indenture, and be thereof conuict of the suit of the Lord of the franchise, of whom he receiued the returne, if the Lord haue had any damage, or if his franchise bee distrained, or at the suit of the party that hath sustained losse through that occasion, he shall be punished by the King for his false returne, and shall yéld vnto the Lord and to the partie double dammages. Also it is agréed, that from henceforth Shirifes and other Bailifes, that receiue the Kings writs, returnable in his Court, shall send their owne name with the returnes, so that the Court may know of whom they toke such returnes if néed be, and if any Shirife or other Bailife leaue out his name in his returns, he shall bee grieuously amerced to the Kings vse. And though that such writ come not to the said Justices, Sherife, oꝛ Undersherif, they shal not be excused of the paine afoꝛesaid, if they make not execution of the said Statute. Pꝛouided alwaies, That the Justices & other officers afoꝛesaid, shal doe their offices afoꝛesaid at the R. colls, in going, tarrying, & returning, in doing their said offices, by paiment thereof to be made by the Sherife of the same County foꝛ ỳ time being, by Indentures betwixt the Sherife and the said Justices and other Officers afoꝛesaid, to be made of the payment afoꝛesayd: Whereof the said Sherife vpon his accompt in the Exchequer, may haue due allowance. And that such rioteꝛs attainted of great and hainous riots, shal haue one whole yeares impꝛisonment at the least, without being let out of pꝛison by baile, mainpꝛise, oꝛ in any other maner, during the yere afoꝛesaid: And that the rioteꝛs attainted of petie riots, shall haue impꝛisonment as best shall seeme to the King and his Counsell. And that the fines of such rioteꝛs attainted, shall be by the said Justices increased and put in greater summes then they were wont to be put in such cases befoꝛe this time, in aid and suppoꝛtation of the costs of Justices and other Officers afoꝛesaid in this behalfe. And that the Kings liege people being sufficient to trauell in the Countie where such routs, assemblies, oꝛ riots be, shall be assistant to the Justices, Commissioners, Sherife, oꝛ Undersherife of the same Countie, when they shall be reasonably warned, to ride with the said Justices, Commissioners, and Sherife oꝛ Undersherife, in ayde to resist such riots, routs, and assemblies, vpon paine of impꝛisonment, and to make fine and ransome to the King. And that the Bailifes of Franchises shall doe to be impanelled sufficient people, as befoꝛe, vpon paine to lose to the King foꝛtie pounds, in case that such sufficient persons may be found within the same Franchises. And that like oꝛdinances and pains shall hold place and take effect in Cities, Boꝛoughes, and other places and Townes infranchised, which haue Justices of Peace within the Cities, Boꝛoughes, Towns, and other places afoꝛesaid. And that this Statute shall begin to hold place incontinent after the pꝛoclamation thereof made. An. 2. H. 5. cap. 8.

5 Foꝛasmuch as great and grieuous complaints haue beene made to our Soueraigne Loꝛd the King by the Commons in this pꝛesent Parliament, of diuers murders, manslaughters, robberies, batteries, assemblies of people in great number, in maner of insurrection, and of diuers other rebellious riots, and after such offences the said felons and offendoꝛs flie, and withdꝛaw them to diuers woods, and secret and vnknowne places, and elsewhere, to the intent and purpose to auoyd the execution of the Common Law, and that they should not be bꝛought to aunswer: Wherupon our Soueraigne Loꝛd the King, considering the foꝛesaid complaint, by the aduise and assent of the Loꝛds Spirituall and Tempoꝛal in the same Parliament assembled, hath oꝛdained and stablished at the request of the sayd Commons, That if any person in time to come, come into the Chauncerie, and make complaint duely, that any such felon oꝛ offendoꝛ, as afoꝛe is said, flie oꝛ withdꝛaw them to any such place, oꝛ elsewhere, to the intent afoꝛesaid, vpon such complaint a bill shall beé sufficiently made foꝛ the King: And the Chauncelloꝛ of England foꝛ the time being, after such bil to him deliuered (if he may be duely insoꝛmed, that such bill containeth truth) shall haue power to make, accoꝛding to his discretion, a writ of Capias at the Kings suit, directed to the Sherife of the Countie oꝛ Counties, where the said murders, manslaughters, robberies, batteries, and other offences, be supposed by the said bill to be done and perpetrate, returnable in the said Chancerie at a certaine day. And if the persons in the sayd writ contained, be taken by the said Sherife, oꝛ yeeld them in the same Chauncerie, that then such persons shall be put in ward, oꝛ to mainpꝛise, after the discretion of the Chauncelloꝛ. And moꝛeouer, that he send to inquire of such offences, and vpon that shall be done as the Law requireth. And if the Sherife returne at the day of the Capias returnable, that the persons in the same compꝛised foꝛ any of these causes afoꝛesaid, cannot be by him taken, and the same persons doe not yeeld them in the said Chauncerie, that then the said Chancelloꝛ shall doe to be made a writ of Pꝛoclamation directed to the said Sherife, returnable in the K. Bench at a certaine day, that he shall make Pꝛoclamation in two Counties, that the persons named in the said writ, shall come at the said day in the Bench afoꝛesaid, there to aunswer to the matter compꝛised within the said bill, vpon paine to be conuict of the matter compꝛised in the said bill. And that in euerie such writ of Pꝛoclamation shall be contayned the substance of the matter compꝛised within the said bill, and if they come not at the day of such Pꝛoclamation returned, then shall they be holden and adiudged foꝛ conuict, and attainted, as afoꝛe is sayd. And if they come at the Pꝛoclamation, be it of them inquired and done in manner as aboue is said. Pꝛouided alwayes, That the suggestions of such riots be witnessed to the Chauncelloꝛ of England by letters sealed vnder the Seales of two Justices of Peace at the least, and the Sherife of the Countie where such riots shall be made, befoꝛe that the writ of Capias be graunted, in which writ of Capias the matter which is compꝛised within the same bill, shall be as well expꝛessed, as in the writ of Pꝛoclamation thereof to be made. Execution

☞ 6 The said late Statute (s. An. 2. H. 5. cap. 9. before 5.) shall now be kept and firmely holden for a Statute for euer, as well of murders, manslaughters, robberies, batteries, assemblies of people in great number, in maner of insurrections, and diuers other rebellions and riots made and committed before the beginning of this present Parliament as in time to come. Prouided alwayes, That it be witnessed by two Iustices of the peace of the counties where such Riots shall be supposed, that the common fame and voyce runneth in the same Counties of the same Riots, before that the writ of Capias shall be awarded. Prouided also, that if any such case happen in the said Countie Palantine of Lancaster, or elsewhere in a place infranchised, where there is a Chauncellor and a Seale, that then the said Chauncellor of such Countie or place infranchised for the time being, after complaint to him duely made and witnessed by a Iustice, or the Lieutenant of a Iustice, and the sherife of such Counties Palantine or place infranchised, for the time being, in the forme aforesaid, shall haue like power to award a Capias, and a writ of Proclamation aforesaid, as the said Chancellor of England hath. Capias Proclamation

☞ 7 Because the Statute of 13. H. 4. cap. 7. (before 3.) is thought good and necessarie: Therefore be it &c. that the said Act made the said thirteenth yere of King Henry the fourth, concerning Riots, Assemblies, or Routs of people, and all and euerie article and articles compriſed in the same: And also all other estatutes before this time made, concerning the punishment of Riotors at the time of the making of this Act being in force, from henceforth stand in their forces, and be duely put in execution after the tenours and reports of the same. And forasmuch as in the said Statute made in the said thirteenth yere, it is not expressed of what sufficiency the Iurors impanelled should be, or what issues they should lose if they appeare not, nor no mention therein made of anie punishment of the maintainers and imbracetors of the Iurours that shall be so impanelled, should haue for their misdemeanor, if any be: It is therefore &c. That if anie Riot, Rout, or vnlawfull Assembly be committed and done at any time after the first day of Maie next comming, within this Realme of England, that the Sherife hauing a precept direct to him, shal returne foure and twenty persons dwelling within the shire where such riot, rout, or vnlawfull assembly shall be so committed and done, whereof euery of them shall haue lands and tenements within the same Shire, to the yerely value of twentie shillings of Charter hold, or freehold, or xx s. shillings viij. pence of copy hold, or of both, ouer and aboue all charges, for to inquire of the saide Riot, Rout, or vnlawfull Assembly. And he shal returne vpon euery person by him impanelled in issues, at the first day twenty shillings, and at the second day forty shil. if that they appeare not, and be sworne to inquire of the premisses at the first day. And if default be found in the Sherife, or Vnder sherife, for returning of other persons not being of the said sufficiencie, or returne not issues in forme aforesaid, that then the said Sherife shall forfeit to our Soueraigne Lord the King for either xx. pounds. And if the said Riot, Rout, or vnlawfull Assembly be not found by the said Iurie, by reason of anie maintenance or imbracerie of the said Iurours: then the same Iustices, and the Sherife, or vndersherife, ouer and aboue all such certificate that they must, and be bound to make, according to the said Statute made the said thirteenth yere, shall in the same certificate certifie the names of the maintainers and imbracetors in that behalfe, if anie be, with their misdemeanors that they know, vpon paine of euery of the said Iustices, and Sherife, or Undersherife, to forfeit xx. pound, if the same Iustices, Sherife, and vndersherife, haue no reasonable excuse, for non certifying of the same: which certificate so made, shalbe of like force and effect in the Lawe, as if the matter contained in the same, were duly found by the verdict of twelue men. And euery person duly proued to be a mainteiner or imbracetor in the same, shall forfeit to our said soueraigne Lord xx. l. And as well the same maintainers as the imbracetors shal be committed to ward, there to remaine by the discretion of the Iustices. Anno 19. H. 7. cap. 13.

And furthermore it is enacted, ordained, and established &c. That if any persons to the said number of ry. or aboue, after the said twentieth day of December, shall intend, go about, practise, or put in vre, in maner and forme aforesaid, to ouerthrow, cut, breake, cast downe, or dig vp the pales, hedges, ditches, or other inclosure, or any parkes, parke, or other grounds or ground inclosed, or the bankes of any fishpond, or poole, or any conduit for water, conduit heads, or conduit pipes, hauing course of water, to the intent that the same, or any of them from thencefoorth should remaine open, not inclosed, or void, or vnlawfully to haue common or way in the said parke or parkes, or other ground or grounds inclosed, or in any of them: or to destroy in maner and forme aforesaid, the Deere in any manner of parkes or parke, or any warrens or warren of Conies, or any douehouses: or any fish in any fishpond or poole: or to pull or cut downe any houses, barnes, mills, or bayes: or to burne any stackes of corne or graine, or to abate, defaulke, or diminish the rents or yearely value of any manors, lands, or tenements: or the price of any victuall, corne, or graine, or any other thing vsuall for the sustenance of men, and being required or commaunded by any Iustice of the Peace, or by the Sherife of the Countie, or by the Maior, Bailife, or Bailifes, or other head Officers of any Cities or Towne corporate, where such assemblie shall be had, by Proclamation to be made in the Quenes name, to retire or returne in peaceable manner to their habitations, places, and houses from whence they came: And they, or any of them, notwithstanding such Proclamation, shall remaine, or make their abode, or continue together by the space of one whole houre, after such commandement or request made by proclamation: or after that shall in forcible maner doe, or put in vre any of the things last before mentioned, That then as well euerie such abode, or continuing together, as euerie such act that after such commaundement or request by proclamation had or made, shall be done, practised, or put in vre, by any persons being aboue the number of twelue, shall be adiudged felonie, and the offendors therein to be adiudged felons, and shall suffer onely the execution of death, as in case of felonie. And also it is &c. That if any person or persons, after the said twentieth day of December, vnlawfully and without authoritie, by ringing of any Bels, sounding of any Trumpet, Drumme, Horne, or other Instrument whatsoeuer, or by fiering of any Beacon, or by malicious speaking or vttering of any words, or making of any outcrie, or by setting vp, or casting of any bills, bill, or writing whatsoeuer, or by any other deed or act, shall raise, or cause to be raised or assembled, any persons to the number of twelue, or aboue, to the intent that the same persons should doe, commit, or put in vre, any of the acts or things aboue mentioned, and that the persons to the number of twelue, or aboue, so raysed and assembled, after request or commaundemēt had or giuen in forme aforesaid, shall make their abode, or continue together, as is aforesaid, or vnlawfully and in forcible manner, perpetrate, do, commit, or put in vre, any of the acts or things aboue said: That then all and singular persons, by whose speaking, deed, act, or any other the meanes aboue specified, any persons to the number of ry. or aboue, shall be raised or assembled, for the doing, committing, or putting in vre any of the acts or things abouementioned, shall be adiudged for his so speaking, or doing, a felon, and shall suffer execution of death, as in case of felonie. And also it is &c. That if a wife, or seruant, of any of the same persons, or any other person whatsoeuer, shall willingly, and without compulsion, bring, send, deliuer, or conuey, any money, harnesse, artillerie, weapon, meat, bread, drinke, or other victuall, to any person or persons so being assembled, as is aforesaid, during such time as he or they shall so bee assembled, or be together, as is aforesaid: That then euerie wife, seruant, or other person so bringing, sending, deliuering or conueying any money, harnesse, artillerie, weapon, meat, drinke, or victuall, to the same persons so being assembled together in forcible manner, or to any of them, and not departing to their house, or dwelling places, vpō request or commaundement made vnto them, as is aforesaid, shall be adiudged a felon, and shall suffer execution of death, as in case of felonie. And furthermore it is &c. That if any persons aboue the number of two, and vnder the number of twelue, being assembled together at any time, after the said twentieth day of December, shall intend, goe about, practise, or put in vre with force of armes vnlawfully, and of their owne authoritie, to murder, kill, or slay any of the Quenes Maiesties subiects, or to ouerthrow, cut, breake, or cast down, or dig vp the pales, hedges, ditches, wal, or other closure, of any parks, parke, or other ground inclosed, or the banke of any fishpond, or poole, to the intent that the same, or any of them, from thencefoorth should remaine open, not inclosed, or voyd, or to haue common or way in the same parke or parkes, or other grounds or ground inclosed, or in any of them, or to destroy any manner of parks or parke, or fishpond or poole, or

or any warrens or warren of Conies, or any doue-houses, or to pull or cut downe any house, barne, mill, or to burne any stackes of corne or graine, or to alter, defaulke, or abate the rents or yearely value of any manors, lands, or tenements, of any the Quenes subiects, or the price of any victual, corne or graine, or any other thing vsuall for the sustenance or apparell of men, and being required or commaunded by any Iustice of the Peace, or the Sherife of the Countie, or by any Maiors, Baylifes, or Bailife, or other head Officer of any City, or Towne corporate, where such assemblie shall be had, by Proclamation to be made in the Quenes name, to retire, or returne to their habitations, place, or houses, and they so required by such Proclamation, shall not so doe, but after that, shall in forcible manner, in forme aforesaid, attempt to do, or put in vre, any of the things last aboue mentioned: That then euerie of the same persons, being aboue the number of two, and vnder the number of twelue, shall suffer imprisonment of his or their bodies, by the space of one yeare, without baile or mainprise. And also, that if any person or persons, at any time after the said twentieth day of December, shal be damnified or hurted, by the doing, committing, or putting in vre of any vnlawfull act, or thing aboue mentioned: That then all and singular persons so damnified, and hurt, shall recouer and haue dammages with the costs of their suit sustained in that behalfe trebled, against the offendors therein. And forasmuch as such euill disposed persons, which of late time made commotions and rebellion in certaine places within this realm, being but few in number, at such time as they did begin the same commotion, were not in short time after the beginning thereof suppressed by strength, for that the louing subiects at that time, for feare to incurre in daunger of the lawes of this Realme, durst not take vpon them so to doe, a great number of euill disposed persons did come and ioyne themselues to the said small number, whereby the same euill disposed persons tooke vpon them such boldnesse, that they would not be reduced to obedience without much bloudshedding, to the great daunger of the person of the Prince, where if the sayd subiects durst haue taken vpon them to haue suppressed them at the beginning, such inconuenience and bloudshed should not haue followed: Therefore it is enacted &c. That if any persons aboue the number of two, that at any time after the said xx. day of December, shall be vnlawfully, and of their owne authoritie assembled together, to the intent with force and armes to doe, practise, or put in vre any of the things aboue mentioned, that then it shall be lawfull to euerie Iustice of Peace, and to euerie Sherife in any Countie being within the Quenes dominions, and to euerie Maior, Baylife, or other head Officer of any Citie or Towne corporate, for the time he shall be in Office, or any other person or persons, hauing the Quenes commission, or letters from her Highnesse, as well to raise and assemble the Quenes louing subiects, in manner of warre, to be arreared in such great number, as he or they shall thinke meet or able, to the intent by violence and strength, to suppresse, apprehend, and take the said persons that so shall be vnlawfully assembled: And that if the said persons so vnlawfully assembled, after such commaundement or request by proclamation made, shall continue together, and not indeuor themselues to returne towards their habitations, houses, or places from whence they came, in such short time as they may conueniently: That then it shall be lawfull to euerie Iustice of Peace, Sherife, and euerie Maior, Baylife, and other head Officer of any Citie, or Towne corporate, and to euerie other person hauing authoritie, as is aforesaid, after such commaundement or request by proclamation made, and to such persons as shall be assembled with any Iustice of Peace, or Sherife, or with any Maior, Bailife, or other head Officer of any Citie or Towne corporate, and with euerie other person hauing authoritie, as is aforesaid, to suppresse, apprehend, and take those persons so vnlawfully assembled, which after such Proclamation made, shall continue together, and not indeuour themselues to returne toward their habitations, or places from whence they came. And that if the sayd persons so vnlawfully assembled together, or any of them shall fortune to be killed, slaine, maymed, or hurt, in, or about the suppressing, or taking of them: That then euerie such Iustice of Peace, Sherife, Maior, Bailife, and other head Officer, and euerie other person hauing authoritie, as is aforesaid, and all and singular persons by him or them assembled, shall be free, discharged, and vnpunishable, as well against the Quene, as against all and euerie other person and persons, of, for, or concerning the killing, slaying, maiming, and hurting of any person or persons, so vnlawfully assembled, that shall fortune to be killed, slaine, maimed, or hurt, about or by occasion of suppressing or taking of them. And furthermore be it &c. That all and euerie Copiholder, or Customarie holder, being Yeoman, Artificer, Husbandman, or Labourer, and being of the age of eighteene yeares, or more, and vnder the age of threescore yeares, not sicke, impotent, lame, maimed, ne hauing any other iust or reasonable excuse or cause to the contrarie, and being required by the Sherife, Iustice of peace, or other hauing authoritie by this Act, or by Commission, or letters, as is aboue said in that behalfe, they declaring their said authoritie, or being required by the immediate Lord or Lords, of whom such Copiholds, or Customarie holdes then shall be holden to serue the Quenes Maiestie for any the causes aboue rehearsed, and refuse so to do, shall onely during the life of such person or persons so refusing, forfeit and lose to his or their Lord or Lords, of whom such copie or customarie holdes then shall be immediately holden, and should bee holden, during the life of such person or persons so refusing, in case he or they had not so refused, all their copiholds and customarie holds. And that it shall be lawfull to euerie such Lord or Lords, their heires or assignes of whom such copiholds or customarie holds shalbe immediately holden, and should beene holden, in case that such person or persons had hath not so refused, by vertue of this present Act, to enter and take into his or their hands or possession all such Copie holds and Customarie holdes, so holden of them, or any of them immediately, and to retaine the same during onely the life of euerie such offendor or offendors, in such manner and forme, as he or they should haue had the rents or farmes of such Copie holds and Customarie holds, in case such person or persons so refusing had not refused. And that all and euerie Farmor, being a Husbandman, Husbandman, Artificer, or Labourer, and being of the age of eighteene yeares or more, and vnder the age of threescore yeares, not sicke, impotent, lame, maimed, ne hauing any other iust or reasonable excuse, or cause to the contrarie, and being required by the Sherife, Justice or Justices of the Peace, or other hauing authoritie by this Act, or by Commission, or letters, as is aforesaid: in that behalfe, they declaring their said authoritie, or being required by their Landlord or Landlords for the time being, to whom the rents of such farmes shall be then rising, comming, or growing, to serue the Queenes Maiestie for any the causes aboue rehearsed, and refuse so to doe, shall during onely the life of such Farmor or Farmors, so refusing, forfeit and lose to such Landlord and Landlords, as should haue had the rent of such Farmors during the life and lines of such person and persons so refusing, all their said Farmes, and that it shall be lawfull to euerie such Landlord and Landlords, their heires and assignes, to whom the rents of such Farmes should haue beene due, during the life of such person or persons so refusing, in case such person or persons had not so refused, by vertue of this present Act to enter and take into his or their hands or possession, all such Farmes, and to retaine the same during onely the life of euerie such offendor or offendors. Prouided alwaies, and be it &c. That after the death, expiration, or determination of the interest or terme of yeares, of euerie such Copie holder, Customarie holder, or Farmor, as so shall offend & forfeit any of the said Copie holdes, Customarie holdes, or Farmes, as is aforesaid, that then all and euerie such person and persons, as should or ought to haue had the said Copie holdes, Customarie holdes, or Farmes, after, or by the death, expiration, or determination of the interest or terme of yeares, of such Copie holder, Customarie holder, or Farmer, in case such Copie holder, Customarie holder, or Farmer had not so offended ne forfeited, shall and may haue the same Copie holdes, Customarie holdes, and Farmes, by entrie, action, admission, or otherwise, in like manner, forme, and condition, and by such wayes and meanes as they and euerie of them should, might, or ought to haue had, if no such forfeiture or offence had beene had, done, or committed. And also be it &c. That if any person or persons, which at that time after the said twentieth day of December shall be spoken vnto, moued, or stirred, to make any Commotion, Insurrection, or vnlawfull assemblie, for any of the intents aboue mentioned, and doe not within foure and twentie houres next after he or they shall be spoken vnto, moued, or stirred, vnlesse he haue a good reasonable cause of excuse, declare the same to one Justice of the Peace, or Sherife of the said Countie, or to the Maior, Sherifes, Baylifes, or other head Officers of any Citie or Towne corporate, where such speaking, motion, or stirring, shall be had, shall suffer imprisonment by the space of three monethes, without baile or mainprise, vnlesse he shall be discharged by three Justices of peace of the same Shire, where the offence shall be, whereof one of the said Justices shall be of the Quorum. And it is &c. That if any person or persons, being aboue the age of eighteene yeares, and vnder the age of threescore yeares, being able to serue, and not sicke, lame, or impotent, shall be required by any Justice of the Peace, or any Sherife of any Countie, where any such assemblie shall be, or by any Maior, Baylife, or other head Officers of any Citie, Borough, or Towne corporate, or by any other, by the commaundement of any such Justice of Peace, Sherife, Maior, Baylife, or other head Officer, to goe with him or them, to suppresse the persons vnlawfully assembled, in manner and forme aforesaid, That then euerie person which so being able and required, doth willingly and obstinately refuse so to doe, shall suffer imprisonment of bodie for one yeare, without bayle or mainprise. Prouided alwayes and be it &c. That if the Queenes Highnesse shall by her Letters Patents make any Lieutenant in any Countie or Counties of this Realme, for the suppression of any Commotion, Rebellion, or vnlawfull assemblie, that then as well all Justices of Peace of euerie such Countie, and the Sherife and Sherifes of the same, as all Maiors, Bailifes, and other head Officers, and all Inhabitants and Subiects of any Countie, Citie, Borough, or Towne Corporate, within euerie such Countie, shall vpon the declaration of the said Letters Patents and request made, be bound to giue attendance vpon the same Lieutenant, to suppresse any Commotion, Rebellion, or vnlawfull assemblie, vnlesse he or they being so required, haue any reasonable excuse for his not attendance, vpon paine of imprisonment for one whole yeare. And be it &c. That the order and forme of the Proclamations that shall be made by the authoritie of this Act, shall be as hereafter followeth, or with the like order and words in effect, that is to say, The Justices, or other person authorised by this Act to make the said Proclamation, shall make or cause to be made an Oyes, and after that shall openly pronounce, or cause to be pronounced these words, or like in effect. The Queene our Soueraygne Ladie chargeth and commaundeth all persons being assembled, immediately to disperse themselues, and peaceably to depart to their habitations, or to their lawfull businesse, vpon the paynes contayned in the Act lately made against vnlawfull and rebellious assemblies. And God saue the Queene. Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforesayde, That if any person or persons doe or shall molest, let, hinder, or hurt

And after Anno 4. & 5. Ph. & Mar. it is continued to the last day of the next Parliament. And it is continued 1. Eliz. cap. 16. as followeth.

10 Forasmuch as experience hath made manifest, that the Statute of Anno 4. Mar. Parliament 1. capitulo 12. (before 9.) is a verie good and beneficiall law, for the Commonwealth and quiet of the Realme: Be it &c. That the sayd Act and Statute and euerie braunch, clause, and article therein contained, shall stand, remaine, continue, and bee in full force and strength, to all intents and purposes, for and during the naturall life of the Quéens most excellent Maiestie that now is (which Almightie God long preserue and continue) and to the end of the next Parliament then next following. And that the said Act and Statute, and the words and sentences mentioned and contained in the said Act, shall extend and be in the Quéenes Highnesse that now is, as fully and amply as euer the same did extend to the said late Quéene Marie. An. 1. Eliz. cap. 16.

11 Anno 11. Henr. 7. capitul. 8. An Act was made against riots & routs, to endure to the nert Parliament.

Robberies.

FOrasmuch as the Peace of this Realme hath beene weakly kept heretofore for lacke of quick and fresh suit making after felons in due manner, and namely because of Franchises, where the felons are receiued: It is prouided, That all generally bée readie and apparelled at the commaundement and summons of Sheriffes, and at the crie of the Countrey, to pursue and arrest felons (when any néd is) as well within Franchises as without, and they that will not so doe, and thereof bée attainted, shall make a grieuous fine to the King. And if default be found in the Lord of the Franchise, the King shall take him to the same Franchise: And if default bee in the Bailife, hée shall haue one yeares imprisonment, and after shall make a grieuous fine: And if hee haue not whereof, he shall haue imprisonment of two yeres: And if the Sherife, Coroner, or other Baylife within Franchise or without, for reward or for prayer, or for any manner of affinitie, conceale, consent, or procure to conceale the Felonies done in their Bayliwikes, or otherwise doe forbeare to attach or arrest such Felons (there as they may) or otherwise to doe their Office for fauour borne to such misdoers, and bee attainted thereof, they shall haue one yeares imprisonment, and after make a grieuous fine. And if they haue not whereof to make fine, they shall haue imprisonment of the yeare. Westm. 1. capit. 9. Anno 3. Edw. 1. And after Anno 13. Henr. 6. capit. 5. it is enacted, that this Statute shall bee put in execution. *

2 Forasmuch as from day to day Robberies, Murders, and burning of houses, be more often vsed then they haue beene heretofore, and Felons cannot be attainted by the oath of Iurours, which had rather suffer Felonies done to Straungers to passe without paine, then to indict the offendors, of whom a great part bée folke of the same Countrey, or at the least if the offendors bée of another Countrey, the receiuers be of places néere. And they doe the same, because the oath is not now put vnto Iurours, nor vpon the Countrey where such Felonies were done, as to the restitution of dammages hitherto no paine hath beene limited for their concealement and laches: Our Lord the King, for to abate the power of Felons, hath established a paine in this case, so that from hencefoorth, for feare of the paine more then for feare of any oath, they shall not spare any, nor conceale any Felonies. And commaundeth that proclamation be solemnely made in all Counties, Hundreds, Markets, Fayres, and all other places, where great resort of people is, so that none shall excuse themselues by ignorance, that from hencefoorth euerie Countrey be so well kept, that immediately vpon Robberies and Felonies committed, such fresh suit bee made from Towne to Towne, and from Countrey to Countrey. Likewise, when need require, that Inquests be made in Townes, by him that is Lord of the Towne, and after in the Hundred, and after in the Franchise, and in the Countie, and sometime in two, three, or foure Counties, in case where Felonies bee committed in the Marches of Shires, so that the trespassors may bee attainted. And if the Countrey doe not aunswer for such manner of misdoers, the paine shall be such, that the Countrey, that is to wit, the people dwelling in the Countrey shall aunswer for the Robberies done, and also for the dammages, so that the whole Hundred where the Robberie happeneth to be done, with the Franchises, being within the Precinct of the same Hundred, shall aunswer for the Robberies done. And if the Robberie chaunce to be done in the diuision of two Hundreds, in such case both Hundreds together, with the Franchises, shall aunswer it. And after that the Felonie or Robberie is done, the Countrey shall haue no longer space then fortie dayes, within which it shall behoue them to agree for the Robberie and trespasse, or else that they aunswer for the bodies of the offendors. And forasmuch as the King will not that his people should be suddenly put in feare of this penaltie, that seemeth verie hard to many, the King graunteth that they shall not incurre it immediately, but it shall bee respited vntill the Easter next following, and within that time the King shall see how the Countrey will order themselues, and whether such Felonies and Robberies doe cease. After which terme let all be assured, that the aforesaid penaltie shall runne generally, that is to wit, that euerie Countrey, that is to say, the people of the Countrey shall aunswer for the Felonies and Robberies done among them, And for the more suretie of the Countrey, the King hath commaunded, That in great Townes being walled, the gates shall bee closed from the Sunne setting vntill the Sunne rising, and that no man doe lodge in the Suburbs, nor in any forreine part of the Towne, but in the day time, nor yet in the day time, without his Host will aunswer for him, and the Baylifes of Townes euerie weeke, or at the least euerie fiftenith day, shall make inquirie of all persons being lodged in the Suburbes, and in the forreyne parts of the Townes: And if they doe find any that doe lodge or receiue in any manner, men, of whom there is suspition, that they bee people against the Peace, the Baylifes shall doe right therein. And the King commaundeth, That from henceforth Watches bee made, as it hath beene vsed in times passed, that is to wit, from the Feast of Ascention vnto Michaelmasse, in euerie Citie, by six men at euerie gate, in euerie Borough by twelue men, in euerie Towne by five, or foure, according to the number of the inhabitants of the Towne, and they shall watch all night from the Sunne setting vnto the Sunne rising. And if any Straunger doe passe by them, he shall bee arrested vnto the morning: And then if no suspition be found, hee shall goe quite, and if they find suspition, they shall forthwith deliuer him to the Sherife, and hee shall receiue him without damage, and shall keepe him safely vntill hee bee deliuered in due manner: And if they will not obey the arrest, huy and crie shall bee leuied vpon them, and the Watchmen shall follow them with all the Towne, and the neighbour Townes, with huy and crie from Towne to Towne, vntill that they bee taken and deliuered to the Sherife, as before is sayd, and for the arrestments of such Strangers none shall bee punished. And further it is commaunded, That the highwayes leading from one Market Towne to another, shall bee enlarged whereas woods, hedges, or dikes be, so that there bee neither dike, vnderwod, nor bush, whereby any may escape to doe euill, within two hundred foot of each side the way, so as this Statute doe not extend vnto Alhes, nor vnto great wood, so as it bee there vnderneath. And if by the default of the Lord, that will not auoyd the dike, vnderwood, or bushes, in manner aforesayd, any Robberies bee done, the Lord shall aunswer it. And if Murder bee done, the Lord shall make fine for it at the Kings pleasure. And if the Lord bee not able to fell the vnderwoods, the Countrey shal ayd him therein. And the King willeth, That in his demeane lands and woods within Forest and without, the wayes shall bee inlarged (as before is sayd.) And if percase a Parke bee neere to the highway, the Lord must minish his Parke the space of two hundred foot from the highwayes, as before is sayd, or else must make such a wall, dike, or hedge, that the euill doers may not passe ne returne for to doe euill. And further it is commaunded, That euerie man haue in his house Harnesse for to keepe the Peace, after the auncient assise, that is for to say, that euerie man betwixt fifteene yeares of age, and threescore yeares, shall bee assessed and sworne to haue Armour, according to the quantitie of their lands and goods, that is to wit, for fifteene pound lands, and goods of fortie markes, an Halberd, Helme of yron, a Sworde, a Knife, and an Horse. And for tenne pounds of land, and twentie markes goods, an Halberd, an Helme, a Sword, and a Knife. And for fiue pound lands, a Doublet, an Helme of yron, a Sword, and a Knife, and from fortie shillings land and more, vnto an hundred shillings of land, a Sword, a Bow and Arrowes, and a Knife. And he that hath lesse then fortie shillings yearely, shall be sworne to keepe Glaiues, Knives, and other lesse Weapons. And he that hath lesse then twentie markes in goods, shall haue Swords, Knives, and other lesse Weapons, and all other that may haue them, shall haue Bowes and Arrowes, out of the Forest, and in the Forest Bowes and Bolts. And that view of Armour bee made euerie yeare two times. And in euerie Hundred and Franchises two Constables shall bee chosen to make the view of Armour, and the Constables aforesayd shall present before Iustices assigned, when they shal come into the Countrey, such defaults as they shall haue found of Armour, and of suites, and of Watches, and of Highwayes, and also shall present all such as doe lodge Straungers in vplandish Townes, for whom they will not aunswer. And the Iustices assigned shall present the same at euerie Parliament vnto the King, and the King shall prouide remedie therein. And from henceforth let Sherifes and Bailifes of Franchises and without, greater or lesser, that haue any Bailiwike or Forestrie in fee or otherwise, take good heed that they follow the crie with the Countrey, and as they are in abilitie to keepe Horses and Armour, so to doe. And if there be any that doe not so, that the defaults be presented by the Constables to the Iustices assigned, and after by them to the King, as before is sayd. And the King commaundeth and forbiddeth, That from henceforth neyther Fayre nor Market be kept in Churchyardes, for the honour of the Church. Alſo if they haue weapons in their houſes according to the quantitie of their lands and goods, for maintenance of the peace according to the Statute. And alſo if Conſtables doe make view of armour in due manner, and of other things belonging to their Office or not. Alſo if Sheriſes, Hundredors, Bailifs of Liberties, and Fofters come at hue and crie leuied, and if they made purſuit for keeping the Kings peace according to the Statute, or not. Articles vpon the Statute at Winton. An. 13. E. 1. This ſeemeth not to be any Statute.

4 Whereas in the Statute made at Wincheſter, in the time of King Edward, grandfather to the King that now is (before 2.) it is contayned, That if any Straunger paſſe by the Countrey in the night, of whom any hath ſuſpition, he ſhall bee arreſted and deliuered to the Sheriſe, and remaine in ward till hee bee duely deliuered. And becauſe there hath beene diuers manſlaughters, felonies, and robberies done in time paſt, by people that bee called Roberdſmen, Waſters, and Drawlatches: It is accorded, That if any man haue any euill ſuſpition of ſuch, bee it by day or by night, they ſhall be incontinently arreſted by the Conſtables of the Townes. And if they be arreſted within Franchiſes, they ſhall be deliuered to the Bailifs of the Franchiſe. And if it be guildable, they ſhall be deliuered to the Sheriſes, & kept in priſon till the comming downe of the Juſtices of the gaole deliuerie, and in the meane time the Sheriffs and Bailifs of the Franchiſes, ſhall cauſe enquirie to bee made of ſuch perſons arreſted, and at the comming of the Juſtices, they ſhall returne their enqueſts before them, and that that they haue found, and the cauſe of the takings, with the bodies, and that the Juſtices ſhall proceed to the deliuerance of ſuch perſons arreſted after the Law. And in caſe that the Sheriſes or Bayliffes of the Franchiſes haue not enquired of ſuch perſons arreſted, they ſhall bee amerced, and neuertheleſſe the Juſtices ſhall make enquirie, and further proceed to the deliuerance, as before is ſayd. Anno 5. Edw. 3. cap. 12.

5 Becauſe that great clamour and grieuous complaints be made as well by Aliens as by Denizens, That Marchants and other paſſing throughout the Realme of England, with their marchandiſes and other goods, bee ſlaine and robbed, and namely now more then they were woont, whereof remedie hath not beene made to the complainants: Our Soueraigne Lord the King conſidering the profit which may come to the ſayd Realme, by comming and abiding of Marchants Aliens in the ſame Realme, and the damunage and miſchiefe which to them and other is done dayly by ſuch manſlaughters and robberies, and willing to prouide for the ſuretie and indemnitie of Marchants and other aforeſayd, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed by the aſſent of all his Parliament, to the intent that Marchants Aliens ſhall haue the greater will and courage to come into the ſayd Realme of England, and that remedie from henceforth bee ſpedily made to ſuch Marchants and other robbed, according to the forme contained in the Statute late made at Winchester (before 2.) that is to ſay, That ſolemne crie be made in all Counties, Hundreds, and Markets, Faires, and all other places where ſolemne aſſemblie of the people ſhall bee, ſo that none by ignorance ſhall excuſe him, that euerie Countrey from henceforth bee ſo kept, that immediately after felonies and robberies done, freſh ſuit be made from Towne to Towne, and from Countrey to Countrey, and Enqueſts, if need bee, ſhall bee alſo taken in the Townes by him which is Soueraigne of the Towne, and after in Hundreds, Franchiſes, and in the Counties, and ſometime in two, three, or foure Counties, in caſe when felonies ſhall bee done in the Marches of the Counties, ſo that the offenders may be attainted: And if the Countrey doe not aunſwer of ſuch manner offenders, the payne ſhall bee ſuch, that euerie Countrey, that is to ſay, the people dwelling in the Countrey, ſhall aunſwer of the robberies done, and of the dammages, ſo that all the Hundred where the robberie ſhall bee done, with the franchiſes which be within the precinct of the ſame Hundred, ſhall aunſwer of the robberie done. And if the robberie bee done in the diuiſes of two Hundreds, both Hundreds ſhall aunſwer together with the Fraunchiſes. And longer terme ſhall not the Countrey haue after the Robberie or Felonie done, then fortie dayes, within which them behoueth to make grees of the Robberie, or of the offence, or that they aunſwer of the bodie of the offenders. 6 Whereas by two auncient Statutes, the one made in the Parliament holden at Winchester, in the thirteenth yeare of the raigne of King Edward the firſt, and the other in the eight and twentieth yeare of the raigne of King Edward the third, it was, for the better ſuppreſſing of Robberies and Felonies (amongſt other things) enacted to this effect, That if the Countrey doe not aunſwer for the bodies of ſuch malefactours, that then the paine ſhould be ſuch, that is to ſpit, That the people dwelling in the Countrey, shall be aunswerable for the robberies done, and the dammages: so that the whole Hundred where the robberie shall bee done, with the Franchises which are within the precinct of the same Hundred, shal answer the robberies done. And if the robberie chance to be done in the division of two Hundreds, that then both the Hundreds together, with the franchises within the precinct of them, shall be answerable, as in the sayd two seuerall Statutes it doth more at large appeare. Forasmuch as the said parts of the said seuerall Statutes being of late dayes more commonly put in execution then heretofore they haue been, are found by experience to be verie hard & extreame to many of the Quenes Maiesties good subiects, because by the same Statutes they doe remaine charged with the penalties therein contained, notwithstanding their vnabilitie to satisfie the same, and though they doe as much as in reason might be required in pursuing such malefactors & offendors, whereby both large scope of negligence is giuen to the inhabitants and resiants in other Hundreds and Counties, not to prosecute the huy and crie made, followed & brought vnto them, by reason they are not chargeable for any portion of the goods robbed, nor with any dammages in that behalfe giuen, and also great incouragement and imboldening is likewise giuen vnto the offenders to commit daily more felonies and robberies, as seeing it in maner impossible for the inhabitants and resiants of the said Hundred and franchises wherein the robberie is committed, to apprehend them without the aid of the other Hundreds and Counties adioyning, and for that also that the party robbed hauing remedie by the aforesaid Statutes, for the recouering of his goods robbed, and dammages against the inhabitants and resiants of the Hundred wherein the robberie was committed, is many times negligent and careleſſe in prosecuting and pursuing the said malefactors and offenders: Our Soueraigne Ladie the Quenes Maiestie, not willing therefore that her people should be impouerished by any such paine or penaltie, which should be hard or grieuous to them, and haue speciall regard to abate the power of felons, and to represse felonies, doth for remedie hereof, with the consent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and of the Commons of this present Parliament assembled, and by the authoritie of the same Parliament establish and enact, That the inhabitants & resiants of euerie or any such Hundred, (with the franchises within the precinct thereof) wherein negligence, fault or defect of pursuit, and fresh suit, after huy and crie made, shall happen to be, from and after fortie dayes next after the end of this present Session of Parliament, shall aunswer and satisfie the one moitie or halfe of all and euerie such summe and summes of money and dammages, as shall by force or vertue of the sayd Statutes or either of them bee recouered or had, against or of the sayd Hundred, with the franchises therein, in which any robberie or felonie shall at any time hereafter bee committed or done. And that the same moitie shall and may be recouered by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, in any of the Quenes Maiesties Courts of Record at Westminster, by and in the name of the Clerke of the Peace for the time being, of or in euerie such Countie within this Realme, where any such robberie and recouerie by the partie or parties robbed shall be, without naming the Christian name or surname of the said Clerke of the Peace, which moitie so recouered, shall bee to the onely vse and behoſe of the inhabitants of the saide Hundred, where any such robberie or felonie shall be committed or done. And bee it further enacted by the authoritie aforesayd, That if any Clerke of the Peace, of or in any Countie within this Realme shall at any time hereafter commence or prosecute any such suit, action, or information, and shall after the same so sued, commenced, or preferred, happen to dye, or to be remoued out of his Office, before recouerie and execution had: That yet no such Action, Suit, Bill, Plaint, or Information, sued, commenced, or preferred, shall by such displacing or death, be abated, discontinued, or ended, but that it shall and may be lawfull to and for the Clerke of the Peace next succeeding in the sayd Countie, to prosecute, pursue and follow all and euerie such Action, Bill, Plaint, Suit, and Information, for the causes aforesayd, so hanging and depending in such maner and forme, and to all intents and purposes, as that Clerke of Peace might haue done which first commenced or prefetred the sayde Suit, Bill, Plaint, or Information. And although the whole Hundred where such robberies and felonies are committed, with the Liberties within the precinct thereof, are by the two former Statutes charged with the aunswering to the partie robbed his dammages: yet nevertheleſſe the recouerie and execution, by and for the partie and parties robbed, is had againſt one, or a verie few persons of the said inhabitants, and he and they so charged, haue not heretofore by Law had any meane or way to haue any contribution, of or from the reſidue of the sayd Hundred, where the sayd robberie is committed, to the great impouerishing of them against whom such recouerie or execution is had. For remedie whereof, be it enacted by the authoritie aforesayd, That after execution of dammages by the partie or parties so robbed had, it shall and may bee lawfull (vpon complaint made by the partie or parties so charged) to and for the Iuſtices of the Peace, (whereof one to be of the Quorum) of the same Counties, inhabiting within the said Hundred, or neere vnto the same, where any such execution shall be had, to aſſeſſe and tax ratably and proportionably, according to their discretions, all and euerie the Townes, Parishes, Villages, and Hamlets, as well of the sayd Hundred where any such robberie shal be committed, as of the liberties within the said Hundred, to and towards an equall contribution to be had and made for the reliefe of the sayd inhabitant or inhabitants, against whome the partie or parties robbed before that time had his or their execution: And that after such taration made, the Constables, Constable, headboroughs or headborough of euery such Towne, Parish, Village and Hamlet, shal by vertue of this present act, haue full power and authority within their seuerall limits, ratably and proportionably to taxe & assesse according to their abilities, euery inhabitant and dweller in euery such Town, Parish, Village and Hamlet, for and towards the payment of such taxation and assessement as shalbe so made, vpon euery such Towne, Parish, Village and Hamlet as aforesayd, by the said Justices: and that if any inhabitant of any such Town, Parish, Village or hamlet, shall obstinately refuse and deny to pay the said taxation & assessement, so by the sayde Constables, Constable, Headboroughs or Headborough taxed and assessed, that then it shall and may be lawful to and for the saide Constables and Headboroughs, & euery of them within their seuerall limits and iurisdictions, to distrein all and euery person & persons so refusing and denying by his & their goods and chattels, and the same distresse to sell, and the mony thereof comming to reteine to the vse aforesayd. And if the goods and chattels so distrayned and sold, shall be of more value then the sayd taxation shall come vnto, ý then the residue of the saide money ouer and aboue the sayde taxation shall bee deliuered vnto the sayde person and persons so distrayned. And be it further enacted, that all and euery the sayd Constables and Headboroughs, after ý they haue within their seuerall limits & iurisdictions leuyed and collected their sayde rates and summes of money so taxed, shall within ten daies after such collection pay and deliuer the same ouer vnto the sayde Justices of Peace, or one of them, to the vse and behoofe of the sayde inhabitant or inhabitants, for whom such rate, taxation & assessement shall bee had or made as aforesayde: which money so payde, shall by the Justices or Justice so receiuing the same, be deliuered ouer (vpon request made) vnto the sayd inhabitant or inhabitants, th whose vse the same was collected. And bee it further enacted by the authoritie aforesayde, that the like, taxation, assessement, leuying by distresse and payment as aforesayd, shall be had and don within euery hundred where default or negligence of pursuite and fresh suite shall be, for and to the benefit of all and euery inhabitant and inhabitants of the same Hundred, where such default shall bee, that shall at any time hereafter by vertue of this present act, haue any dammages or money leuyed of them, or to the payment of the one Moitie or halfe of the money recouered against the sayde Hundred, where any Robberie shall be hereafter committed. Prouided, also, and be it further enacted by the authoritie aforesayd, that where any Robberie is, or shall bee hereafter committed by two, or a greater number of malefactours, and that it happen any one of the sayde offendors to bee apprehended by pursuite to be made according to the sayde former mentioned Lawes and Statutes, or according to this present Act, that then and in such case, no Hundred or Franchise shall in any wise incurre, or fall into the penaltie, losse or forfeiture mentioned either in this present Act, or in the sayd former Statutes, although the residue of the sayd malefactors shall happen to escape, and not to be apprehended: any thing in this Statute, or in the sayde former Statute to the contrarie notwithstanding. Prouided also, that no person or persons hereafter Robbed shall take any benefit by vertue of any the sayde former Statutes, to charge any hundred where any such Robberie shall bee committed, except he or they so Robbed, shall commence his or their suite or action within one yeare next after such Robberie so to be committed. And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforesayde, that no Hue or Cry, or pursuite hereafter to be done or made by the Countrey or inhabitants of any Hundred, shall bee allowed and taken to be a lawfull Hue & Cry, or pursuite, vpon or after any the sayd Felons or Offendors, except the same Hue and Cry and pursuite be done and made by Horsemen & Footmen, any vsage or custome to the contrary notwithstanding. And be it further also enacted by the authoritie of this present Parliament, that no person or persons that shall hereafter happen to be Robbed, shall haue or maintayne any action, or take any benefit by vertue of the sayd two mentioned Statutes, or either of them, except the sayd person and persons so Robbed, shal with as much conuenient spæd as may be, giue notice and intelligence of the sayd Felony or Robberie so committed, vnto some of the inhabitants of some Towne, Village, or Hamlet nere vnto the place where any such Robberie shall be committed, nor shal bring or haue any action, vpon or by vertue of any the Statutes aforesayd, except hee or they shall first within twenty dayes next before such action to bee brought, be examined vpon his or their corporall Oathe, to be taken before some one Justice of the Peace of the Countie, where the Robberie was committed, inhabiting within the said Hundred where the Robberie was committed, or neere vnto the same, whether hee or they doe know the parties that committed the said Robberie, or any of them. And if vpon such examination it be confessed that hee or they doe knowe the parties that committed the sayd Robberie, or any of them, that then hee or they so confessing, shall before the sayd action be commenced or brought, enter into sufficient bond by recognisance before the sayd Justice, before whom the said examination is had, effectually to prosecute the same person and persons so knowne to haue committed the sayd Robberie, by indictment or otherwise, according to the due course of the Lawes of this Realme. Where the Kings humble and obedient Subiects, the Clergie of this Realme of England, haue not onely knowleaged according to the trueth, that the Conuocations of the ſame Clergie, is, alwayes hath béene, and ought to be aſſembled onely by the Kings Writ, but alſo ſubmitting themſelues to the Kings Maieſty, hath promiſed In verbo ſacerdotij, that they will neuer from héereforth preſume to attempt, alledge, claim, or put in vre, or enact, promulge, or execute any new Canons, Conſtitutions, Ordinances, prouincial or other, or by whatſoeuer other name they ſhall be called in the Conuocation, vnles the kings moſt royall aſſent and licence may to them be had, to make, promulge, and execute the ſame, and that his Maieſtie do giue his moſt royal aſſent and authority in that behalfe. And where diuers Conſtitutions, Ordinances and Canons prouincial or ſynodall, which heretofore haue béene enacted, & be thought not only to be much preiudiciall to the Kings prerogatiue royall and repugnant to the Lawes and Statutes of this Realme, but alſo ouermuch onerous to his Highneſſe and his ſubiects, the ſayd Clergie hath moſt humbly beſought the Kings Highneſſe, that the ſayd conſtitutions and canons may be committed to the examination and iudgement of his Highneſſe and of the two and thirtie perſons of the Kings Subiects, whereof ſixteene to be of the vpper and nether houſe of the Parliament, of the temporaltie, and other ſixteene to be of the Clergie of this Realme. And that all the ſayd two and thirty perſons to be choſen and appointed by the Kings Maieſtie. And that ſuch of the ſayde Conſtitutions and Canons as ſhal be thought and determined by the ſayd two and thirtie perſons, or the more part of them worthie to be abrogated and annulled, ſhall be aboliſhed and made of no value accordingly. time comming which alway shall be assembled by authority of the Kings Highnesse: unlesse the same Clergie may have the K. most Royall Assent and Licence, to make, promulge, and execute such Canons, Constitutions, and Ordinances provinciall or synodall, upon payne of every one of the sayd Clergie, doing contrary to this Act, and being thereof convict, to suffer imprisonment, and to make fine at the Kings will. And for as much as such Canons, Constitutions and Ordinance as heretofore hath beene made by the Clergie of this Realme, cannot now at the Session of this present Parliament, by reason of shortnesse of time, bee viewed, examined, and determined, and two and thirtie persons to bee chosen and appointed according to the petition of the sayd Clergie, in forme above rehearsed: Be it therefore enacted by authoritie aforesayd, that the Kings Highnesse shall have power and authority to nominate and assigne at his pleasure the sayd two and thirty persons of his Subiects, whereof sixteene to bee of the Clergie, and 16. to be of the temporaltie, of the upper and nether house of the Parliament. And if any of the 32. persons so chosen shall dye to bee before their full determination, then his highnesse to nominate other from time to time of the said two houses of the Parliament to supply the number of the sayd two and thirtie. And that the same two & thirtie by his highnesse so to be named, shal have power and authority to view, search, and examine the sayd Canons, Constitutions and ordinances provinciall and synodal, hertofore made: and such of them, as the Kings Highnesse and the said two and thirtie, or the more part of them, shall deeme and iudge worthie to be continued, kept and obeyed, shall bee from thencefoorth kept, obeyed, and executed within this Realm, so that the kings most royall assent under his great Seale bee first had to the same. And the residue of the sayde Canons, Constitutions and Ordinances prouinciall, which the King and the sayd thirtie and two persons, or the more part of them, shal not approue, & deeme and iudge worthie to be abolite, abrogate and made frustrate, shall from henceforth be voyd and of none effect, and neuer be put in execution within this Realme. Prouided alway, that no Canons, Constitutions or ordinance shalbe made & put in execution within this Realme, by the authoritie of the Conuocation of the Clergie, which shal be contrariant or repugnant to the Kings prerogatiue royall, or the Customes, Lawes or Statutes of this Realme: any thing contayned in this Act to the contrary hereof notwithstanding. And be it further enacted by authority aforesaide, that from the feast of Easter, which shall be in the yeare of our Lord God, 1534. no maner of Appeales shall bee had, prousked, or made out of this realm, nor out of any the Kings Dominions to the Bishop of Rome, nor to the see of Rome, in any causes or matters happening to be in contention, and having their commencement and beginning in any of the courts within this realm, or within any the Kings Dominion, of what nature, condition or qualitie soeuer they be of, but that all maner of appeales, of what nature or condition soeuer they be of, or what cause or matters soeuer they concerne, shall be made and had by the parties grieued, or having cause of appeale after such maner, forme, and condition, as is limited for appeales to be had and prosecuted within this realme in causes of Matrimonie, tithes, oblations, obuentions, & by a Statute thereof made and established sithen the beginning of this present Parliament (viz. 24. H. 8. c. 2. Appeales 1.) and according to the forme and effect of the sayd Statute, any vsage, custome, prescription, or any thing or things to the contrary hereof notwithstanding. And for lacke of iustice, at, or in any the Courts of the Archbishops of this realme, or in any the Kings Dominions, it shal be lawfull to the parties grieued to appeale to the Kings Court of Chauncery. And that vpon euery such Appeale a commission shall be directed vnder the great Seale, to such persons as shall be named by the Kings Highnesse, his heires or successors, like as in case of Appeale from the Admirall Court, to heare and definitiuely determine such Appeals, and the causes concerning the same: which commissioners, so by the Kings Highnesse, his heires or successors to be named or appointed, shall haue full power and authority to heare, and definitiuely determine euery such appeale, with the causes and all circumstances concerning the same: And that such iudgement and sentence as the said commissioners shal make and decree in and vpon any such appeale, shalbe good and effectuall, & also definitiue. And no further appeales to be had or made from the said commissioners for the same. And if any person or persons at any time after the said feast of Easter, prouoke or sue any manner of appeales, of what nature or condition soeuer they be of, to the said Bishoppe of Rome, or to the see of Rome, or do procure or execute any maner of processe from the see of Rome, or by authority thereof, to the derogation or let of the due execution of this act, or contrary to the same: that then euery such person or persons so doing, their ayders, counceilers, and abetters, shall incurre & run into the dangers, paines, & penalties contained and limited in the act of prouision and premunire, made in the sixteenth yere of the kings most noble progenitor, K. Richard the second, against such as sue to the court of Rome, against the K. crown & prerogatiue royall. Prouided allwaies, that all maner prouocatiõs and appeals hereafter to be had, made, or taken frõ the iurisdictions of any Abbots, Priors, or other heads, any gouernors of monasteries, abbies, priories, and other houses and places exempt in such cases, as they were wont or might afore the making of this act by reason of graunts or liberties of such places exempt, to haue or make immediatly any appeale or prouocations from the Bishoppe of Rome, or otherwise called the Pope, or the See of Rome, ỹ in all such cases, euery person or persons, hauing cause of appeale or prouocation, shal & may take and make their appeales and prouocations immediatly to the K. maiesty of this realme into the court of Chancery, in like maner and forme as they vsed afore to vo to the see of Rome, which appeales peales and prouocations so made, shall be definitiuely determined by authoritie of the Kings commission, in such manner and forme as in this act is aboue mentioned, So that no Archbishoppe nor Bishoppe of this Realme shall intermit or meddle with any such Appeales otherwise, or in any other manner, then they might haue done before the making of this act, any thing in this act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding. Prouided also, that such Canons, Constitutions, Ordinances and Synodals prouinciall, being already made, which be not contrariant nor repugnant to the Lawes, Statutes and customes of this Realme, nor to the dammages or hurt of the Kings Prerogatiue royall, shall nowe still bee vsed and executed as they were afore the making of this act, till such time as they be viewed, searched, or otherwise ordered or determined by the sayd two and thirtie persons or the more part of them, according to the Tenor, forme and effect of this present act. 2 Where sithen the beginning of this present Parliament, for repelle of the exaction of Annates and first fruites of Archbishoprickes and Bishoprickes of this Realme, wrongfully taken by the Bishop of Rome, otherwise called the Pope, and the See of Rome: It is ordayned and established by an Act, amongst other things, that the payment of the annates or first fruits, and all manner contributions for the same, for any such Archbishopricke or Bishopricke, or for any Bulles to bee obtayned from the See of Rome, to or for the sayd purpose or intent, should vtterly cease, and no such to be payed for any Archbishoprick or Bishopricke within this Realm, otherwise then in the same Act is expressed. And that no manner of person or persons to be named, elected, presented or postulated to any Archbishopricke or Bishopricke within this Realme, should pay the sayd annates or first fruites, nor any other manner of summe or sums of money, pensions, or annuities for the same, or for any other like exaction or cause, vpon payne to forfeit to our Soueraign Lord the King, his heires and successors, all manner his goods and cattels for euer, and all the Temporall Landes and Possessions of the sayde Archbishopricke or Bishopricke, during the time that he or they should offend contrarie to the sayd Act, should haue, possesse and enioy the sayd Archbishopricke or Bishopricke. And it was further enacted, that if any person named or presented to the See of Rome, by the K. Highnesse, or his heires or successours, to be Bishoppe of any See or Diocesse within this Realme, should happen to be letted, delayed, or deferred at the See of Rome, from any such Bishopricke, whereunto he shall be so presented, by meane of restraint of Bulles of the sayde Bishoppe of Rome, otherwise called the Pope, and other things requisite for the same, or should bee denied at the See of Rome, vpon conuenient suite for any Bulles, requisite for any such cause: that then euery person so presented, might or should be consecrated here in England by the Archbishoppe, in whose prouince the sayde Bishoprickes shall bee: so alwayes that the same person should bee named and presented by the King for the time being, to the sayd Archbishoppe. And if any person being named and presented as is aforesayd, to any Archbishopricke of this Realme, making conuenient suite as is aforesayd, should happen to be letted, delayed, deferred, or otherwise disturbed from the sayd Archbishopricke, for lacke of Pall, Bull, or other things to him requisite to be obtayned at the See of Rome, that then euery such person so named and presented to bee Archbishop, might and should be consecrated and inuested after presentation made as is aforesayd, by any other two Bishoppes within this Realme, whom the Kings Highnesse, or any his heires or successors, Kings of England, would appoint and assigne for the same, according, and after like manner as diuers Archbishoppes and Bishoppes haue beene heretofore in auncient time, by sundry the Kings most noble Progenitors made, consecrated and inuested within this Realme. And it was further enacted by the sayd Act, that euery Archbishop and Bishop being named and presented by the Kings Highnesse his heires & successors, Kings of England, & beeing consecrated and inuested as is aforesayde, shall be installed accordingly, and should be accepted, taken and reputed, vsed & obeyed, as an Archbishoppe or Bishoppe of the dignitie, See or place whereunto he shall be so named, presented & consecrated as other like Prelates of the prouince, See or Diocesse haue beene vsed, accepted, taken & obeyed, which haue had and obtayned completely their Bulles and other things requisite in that behalfe from the see of Rome, and also should fully & entirely haue and inioy all the spiritualties & temporalties of the said Archbishoprick or Bishoprick, in as large, ample, and beneficiall manner, as any of his or their Predecessors had or enioyed in the sayde Archbishopricke or Bishopricke, satisfying and yelding vnto the Kings Highnesse, and to his heires and successors all such duties, rights and inuells as before time hath beene accustomed to be payed for any such Archbishoprick or Bishoprick, according to the auncient Lawes and Customes of this Realme, and the Kings prerogatiue royall, as in the sayde Act amongst other things is more at large mentioned. And albeit the said Bishoppe of Rome, otherwise called the Pope, hath beene enformed and certified of the effectuall contents of the said act, to the intent that by some gentle wayes the said exactions might haue been redressed and reformed: yet neuerthelesse the said Bishop of Rome hitherto, hath made none answer of his mind therein to the Kings Highnes, nor deuised or required any reasonable wayes to and with our said Soueraign Lord for the same: wherefore his most excellent goodnes, for the wealth & profit of this his realm, & subiects of the same, hath not only put his most gratious and royall assent to the foresaid act, but also hath ratified and confirmed the same, and euery clause and article therein contayned, as by his letters pattents vnder his great Seale inrolled in the Parliament Rol of this present Parliament more at large is contayned. And forasmuch as in the said at it is not plainely & certainly expressed, in what manner and fashion Archbishoppes and Bishops shall be elected, presented, inuested and consecrated within this Realme, and in all other the Kings Dominions: Bee it now therefore enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, by the assent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by authority of the same, that the said act & euery thing therin contained, shalbe & stande in strength, vertue and effect, except only that no person or persons hereafter shall be presented, nominated, or commended to the sayd Bishop of Rome, otherwise called the Pope, or to the See of Rome, to or for the dignitie or office of any Archbishoppe or Bishoppe within this Realme, or in any other the Kings Dominions, nor shall sende nor procure therefore any manner of Bulls, Brieues, Palles, or other things requisite for an Archbishoppe or Bishoppe, nor shall pay any summes of money for Annates, first Fruits, or otherwise for expedition of any such Bulles, Brieues, or Palles, but that by the authority of this act, such presenting, nominating or commending to the sayde Bishoppe of Rome, or to the See of Rome, and such Bulles, Brieues, Palles, Annates, first fruits, and euery other summes of money heretofore limited accustomed or vsed to be paid at the said See of Rome, for procuration or expedition of any such Bulles, Brieues, or Palles, or other thing concerning the same, shall vtterly cease, and no longer be vsed within this Realme or within any the Kings Dominions, any thing contayned in the said act aboue mentioned, or any vse, custome, or prescription to the contrary thereof notwithstanding. And furthermore be it ordained and established by the authoritie aforesaid, that at euery ordinance of Archbishopricke or bishopricke within this Realme, or in any other the Kings Dominions, the King our Soueraigne Lord, his heires and successours may graunt the Prior and Couent, or the Deane and Chapter of the Cathedrall Churches or Monasteries, where the See of such Archbishopricke or Bishopricke shall happen to be voyd, a Licence vnder the great Seale, as of old time hath beene accustomed, to proceed to election of any Archbishoppe or Bishoppe of the See so being void within a letter missiue, containing the name of the person which they shall elect and chuse: by vertue of which Licence, the sayd Deane and Chapter, or Prior and Couent, to whom any such Licence or letters missiue shall be directed, shall with all spéed and celeritie in due forme elect and chuse the sayd person named in the said letters missiues to the dignitie and office of the Archbishopricke so being voide, and none other. And if they do, or deferre or delay their election aboue twelue dayes next after such Licence and letters missiue to them deliuered, that then for euery such default, the Kings Highnelle, his heires & successours, at their liberty & pleasure, shal nominate & present by their L. patents vnder their great Seale, such person to the said office and dignitie, so being voyd, as they shall thinke able and conuenient for the same. And that euery such nomination and presentment to be made by the Kings Highnelle, his heires and successours, if it be to the office and dignitie of a Bishoppe, shall be made to the Archbishoppe and Metropolitane of the Prouince where the See of the same Bishoprickе is void, if the See of the sayd Archbishoppe be then full and not void, and if it be voyd, then to be made to such Archbishoppe or Metropolitane within this Realme, or in any the Kings Dominions, as shall please the Kings Highnelle, his heires or successours. And if any such Nomination or Presentment shall happen to bee made for default of such elections to the dignitie or office of any Archbishoppe, then the Kings Highnelle, his heires and successours, by his Letters Patents vnder his great Seale shall nominate and present such person as they will depose to haue the said office and dignitie of the Archbishoprickе being void, to one such Archbishoppe, and two such Bishoppes, or else to foure such Bishoppes in this Realme, or in any the Kings Dominions, as shall be assigned by our sayd Soueraigne Lord, his heires or successours. And be it enacted by the authoritie aforesayd, that whensoeuer any such Presentment or Nomination shall be made by the Kings Highnelle, his heires or successours, by vertue and authoritie of this Act, and according to the tenor of the same, that then euery Archbishoppe and Bishoppe, to whose hands any such presentment and nomination shall be directed, shall with all spéed and celeritie, inuest, and consecrate the person nominate and presented by the Kings Highnelle, his heires or successours, to the office and dignitie that such person shall be so presented vnto, and giue and vse to him pall and all other benedictions, ceremonies and things requisite for the same, without suing, procuring, or obtayning hereafter any Bulles or other things at the See of Rome, for any such office or dignitie in any behalf. And if the said Deane and Chapter, or Prior and Couent, after such Licence and letters missiue to them directed within the said twelue dayes, do elect and chuse the said person mentioned in the said letters missiues, according to the request of the Kings Highnelle, his heires and successours therof to be made by the letters missiues in that behalfe: then their election shall stand good and effectuall to all intents, and that the person so elected after certification made of the same election vnder the common and Couent seale of the electors, to the Kings Highnelle, his heires or successours, shall be reputed and taken by the name of Lord elected of the sayd Dignitie and Office, that he shall be elected vnto. And then making such Oath and fealtie onely to the Kings Maiesty, his heires and successours, as shall be appointed for the same, the Kings Highnelle by his Letters Patents vnder his great Seale, shall signifie the said election, if it be to the Dignitie of a Bishoppe, to the Archbishoppe and Metropolitane of the prouince, where the See of the sayd Bishoprickе was voyde, if the See of the said Archbishoppe be full and not voyde, and if it bee voyde, then to any other Archbishoppe within this Realme, or in any other the Kings

the same, for licences, dispensations, impositions, faculties, grants, rescripts, delegacies, or any other instruments or writings, of what kind, name, nature or qualitie soeuer they be of, for anie cause or matter, for the which any licence, dispensation, composition, faculty, graunt, rescript, delegacie, instrument, or other writing, heretofore hath beene vsed and accustomed to be had and obtained at the Sea of Rome, or by authority thereof, or of any Prelate of this Realme, nor of anie manner of other licences, dispensations, compositions, faculties, graunts, rescripts, delegacies, or any other instruments or writings that in causes of necessity may lawfully be graunted without offending of holie Scripture and Lawes of God; But that from henceforth euery such licence, dispensation, composition, facultie, graunt, rescript, delegacie, instrument, and other writing aforenamed and mentioned necessary for your Highnesse, your heyres or successors, and your and their people and subiects, vpon the due examination of the causes and qualities of the persons procuring such dispensations, licences, compositions, faculties, grants, rescripts, delegacies, instruments, or other writings shall be graunted, had, and obtained from time to time, within this your Realme, and other your Dominions, not elsewhere in maner and forme following, and none otherwise: that is to say, the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, and his successors, shall haue power and authority from time to time, by their discretions, to giue, graunt, and dispose, by an instrument vnder the Seale of your said Archbishop vnto your Maiestie, and to your heyres and successours, Kings of this Realme, aswell all maner such licences, dispensations, compositions, faculties, graunts, rescripts, delegacies, instruments, and all other writings, for causes not being contrary nor repugnant to the holie Scriptures and Lawes of God, as heretofore hath beene vsed and accustomed to be had & obtained by your Highnesse, or any your most noble Progenitors, or any of yours or their subiects at the Sea of Rome, by any person or persons by authoritie of the same: and all other Licences, Dispensations, Faculties, Compositions, Grants, Rescripts, Delegacies, Instruments, and other Writings, in, for, & vpon all such causes & matters as shall be conuenient and necessary to be had, for the honor and suretie of your Highnesse, your heires and successors, and the wealth and profit of this your realme: so that the said Archbishop, or any his successors, in no manner wise shall grant any dispensation, licence, rescript, or any other writing aforesaid reuersed, for any cause or matter repugnant to the Law of almighty God. Be it also enacted by authority aforesaid, that the said Archb. and his successours after good & due examination by them had, of the causes and qualities of the persons procuring for licences, dispensations, cõpositions, faculties, delegacies, rescripts, instruments & other writings, shal haue ful power & authority by themselues, or by their sufficient & substantial commissary or deputy by their discretions from time to time to grant & dispose by an instrument vnder the name & seale of the said Archb. aswell to any of your subiects, as to the subiects of your heires & successors, al maner licences, dispensations, faculties, compositions, delegacies, rescripts, instrumets or other writings for any such cause or matter, whereof heretofore such licences, dispensations, compositions, faculties, delegacies, rescripts, instruments or writings haue been accustomed to be had at the Sea of Rome, or by authority thereof, or of any Prelate of this realme. And that the said Archb. and his Commissary shall not grant any other licence, dispensation, composition, faculty, writing, or instrument in causes vnwont & not accustomed to be had or obtained at the court of Rome, nor by authority thereof, nor by any Prelate of this Realme, vntill your Grace, your heires or successors, or your or their Councel shal first be aduertised thereof, & determine whether such liceces, dispensations, compositions, faculties, or other writings, in such cases vnwont and not accustomed to be dispensed withall, or obtained, shal commõly passe as other dispensations, faculties, or other writings shall or no, vpon paine that the granters of euery such licence, dispensation, or writing in such cases vnwont, contrary to this Act, shal make fine at the wil & pleasure of your Grace, your heyres and successours. Fine

And if it be thought and determined by your grace, your heires and successors, or your or their Councell, that dispensations, faculties, licences, or other writings, in any such cause vnwont, shall passe, then the sayd Archbishop or his Commissarie, hauing licence of your highnes, your heires or successors for the same by your or their bill assigned, shall dispense with them accordingly. Licence

Prouided alwayes, that no maner of dispensations, licences, faculties, or other rescripts or writings, hereafter to be graunted to any person or persons, by vertue or authority of this Act, by the said Archbishop or his Commissary, being of such importaunce, that the Tare for the expedition thereof at Rome extended to the summe of foure pounds, or aboue, shall in any wise be put in execution, till the same licence, dispensation, faculty, rescript, or other writing, of what name or nature soeuer it be of, be first confirmed by your Highnesse, your heyres or successours, Kings of this Realme, vnder the great Seale, and enrolled in your Chauncery in a Roll by a Clerke to bee appoynted for the same. And that this Act shall be sufficient warrantie to the Chauncellour of England for the time being, or to him whom your Grace, your Heyres or Successours shall depute to bee the Keeper of the Great Seale, to confirme in your name, your Heyres or Successours, the foresayd Writings passed vnder the sayd Archbishoppes Seale, by Letters Patents in due forme thereof to bee made vnder your Great Seale, remitting as well the sayd Writing vnder the Archbishoppes Seale, as the sayd Confirmation vnder the Great Seale, to the parties from time to time, procuring for the same. 4. pounds daine, depute, and constitute one sufficient Clerke, being learned in the court of the Chauncery, which alwayes shall be attendant vpon the Lord Chauncellor, or the Lord Keper of the great Seale for the time being, and shall make, write, and inroll the confirmations of all such Licences, Dispensations, Instruments, and other Writings, as shall be thither brought vnder the Archbishops Seale, there to be confirmed and inrolled. And shall also intitle in his Bookes and inroll of Record, such other writings as thither shall be brought vnder the Archbishops Seale not to be confirmed, taking for his paines such reasonable summes of money, as hereafter by this Act to him shal be limited for the same. And that as well the said Clerke appointed by the said Archbishops, as the said Clerke to be appointed by your Highnesse, your heyres or successors, shall subscribe their name to euery such licence, dispensation, faculty, or other writing, that shall come to their hands to be written, made, granted, sealed, confirmed, registred, & inrolled by authority of this Act, in forme as is before rehersed. And forasmuch as the charges of obtaining the said Licences, Dispensations, Faculties, and other Rescripts or writings aforenamed, at the Court of Rome, by the losses and exchanges, and in conducting of curors, and waging solicitors to sue for any such licences, dispensations, faculties, instruments, and other rescripts or writings, haue beene greeuous and excessiue to your people, and many times greater summes haue beene demaunded for the spedy expedition in the Court of Rome, then be expressed in the olde tare, limited to be payed for the sayd expeditions, whereby your people haue beene brought to an incertainetie vpon the payment for expeditions of such things, and by reason thereof haue been constrained to pay more then they were wont to doe, to the great impouerishing of this Realme, as is aforesaid: And sometime the speding of such dispensations, faculties, licences, and other writings at Rome, haue beene so long deferred, that the parties laboring for the same, haue suffred great incommodities and losse for lacke of quicke spede, which hereafter may bee had within this your Realme, to the great commodity of your people, whereby the charges of making exchanges, conducting of curors, and solicitors for the said dispensations, shall be abated, and your people so much relieued and eased, to the intent that all ambiguitie and incertainty of payments for dispensation, faculties, licences, and other rescripts and writings, may be taken away, that no fraud nor exaction shal be exercised vpon your people by such Officers as shall be appointed by this Act, to take paines in speding such dispensations, faculties, & licences, but that your people may be sure and certaine what they be appointed to pay for the same: Be it enacted by this present parliament, and by authority of the same, that there shall be two Bookes drawen, and made of one tenor, in which shall be contained the tares of all customable dispensations, faculties, licences, and other writings wont to be sped at Rome, which books and euery leafe of those bookes, and both sides of euery leafe, shall be subscribed by the Archbishop of Canterburie, the Lord Chauncellor of England, the Lord Treasurer of England, and the two chiefe Iustices of both Benches for the time being, to the which Bookes all suters for dispensations, faculties, licences, & other writings afore rehearsed, shall haue recourse, if they require it. And one of the said Bookes shall remaine in the hands of him, which shal be appointed to bee Register and Scribe of the said dispensation, faculties, & licences, vnder the said Archbishop of Canterbury, in forme as is before said: And that other Booke shall remaine with the Clerke of the Chauncerie, which by your Grace, your heyres or successors, shall be appoynted, as is before rehearsed. Which clerk of the Chancerie shall also intitle and note particularly & daily in his Booke ordained for that purpose, the number and qualitie of the dispensations, faculties, licences, and other rescripts, & writings, which shalbe sealed onely with the seale of the said Archbishop, and also which shal be sealed with the said Seale and confirmed with the great Seale, in forme as is before said; and that all fraud and concealement in this behalfe may be auoyded. And be it enacted by this present parliament, & by the authority of the same, that no man suing for dispensations, faculties, licences, & other rescripts or writings, which were wont to be sped at Rome, shal pay anie more for their dispensations, licences, or rescripts, then shalbe contained, tared, and limited in the said duplicate Bookes of tares, only compositions excepted, of which being arbitrarie, no tare can be made. Wherefore the tare thereof shalbe set and limited by the discretion of the said Archbishop of Canterbury, and the L. Chancellor of England, or the L. Keeper of the great Seale, for the time being. And that such as shall exact or receiue of anie suiter more for any dispensation, faculty or licence, then shall be contained in the said Bookes of tares, shal forfeit x. times so much, as he shall so extortiously exact and receiue: the one halfe of the which forfeiture to be to the vse of your Grace, your heires & successors, and the other halfe thereof to be to such of your subiects, as will sue for the same by action, bill, or plaint in any of your Graces courts, wherein the defendant shall haue none essoine nor protection allowed, neyther shalbe admitted to wage his Law. Be it also enacted by this Parliament and authority of the same, that the tare or summe appoynted to be paied for euery such dispensation, faculty, licence, instrument, rescripts, or other writing, to be graunted by authority of this Act, shall be imployed and ordered, as hereafter ensueth, that is to say: If the tare extend to foure pounds, or aboue, by reason whereof the dispensation, licence, faculty, rescript, or writing, which shall passe by the said Archbishops Seale, must be confirmed by the appension of the great Seale, then the said tare so extending to foure pounds, or aboue, shall be diuided into three parts, whereof two shall be receiued by the said Clerke of the Chauncery, to be appointed as is afore said, to the vse of your Highnes, your heires and successors, and to the vse of the L. Chancellor, or the Keeper of the great Seale for the time being, and to the vse of the said Clerke, in such wise as hereafter shalbe declared, and that the third part shal be taken by the said clerk of the Archbishop, to the vse of the said Archbishop & his commissary, and his said Clerke and Register, in such wise as hereafter shall be ordered and limited by this Act, that is to say: The said two parts shall be diuided in fiue parts, of which, three parts shall be taken to the onely vse of your Highnesse, your heyres and successours, and the fourth part shall be diuided in three parts, whereof the Chauncellor of England, or Lord Keeper of the great Seale for the time being, shall haue two parts, and the said Clerke of the Chancery the third part for his paines, trauell and labours, that he is limited to write and doe, by vertue of this Act. And the said third part of the whole tare appointed to the saide Archbishop and his Officers (as is aforesaid) shall be diuided into three parts, whereof the Archbishop shall haue to his vse two parts, and his Officers shall haue the third part thereof, of which third part to be diuided into two parts, the said Clerke or Register which shall finde parchment, ware, and fille, and shall deuise and write the said dispensations, licences, faculties, rescripts, or other writings, and register the same, shall haue for his said labour, and for receiuing and repaying of the summes of money, that shal come to his hands for dispensations, faculties, licences, and other rescripts shall haue the one moity thereof, & the Commissary of the said Archbishop appointed to seale the said dispensations, faculties, licences, & other rescripts aforesaid the other part. And if the tare be vnder iiij. pounds, and not vnder forty shillings, then the said tar shal be diuided into three parts, as is aforesaid, whereof the Kings Highnesse, his heyres and successors shal haue two parts thereof, abating three shillings foure pence, which shall be to the said Clerke of the Chauncery for subscribing, entituling, and enrolling the said dispensations, licences, faculties, rescripts and other writings aforesaid, and receiuing of the Kings money so tared: And the Archbishop and his Officers shall haue the third part, which third part shall be diuided into two parts, whereof the Archbishop shall haue the one entirely to himselfe, his Scribe and Commissary shall haue the other part thereof, equally to be diuided amongst them, for their costs and paines in that behalfe. And if the tar be vnder xl.s, and not vnder xxvj.s viij.d. the same tare shalbe diuided into v. parts, whereof the one part shalbe to your Grace, your heyres and successors, deducting thereof two shillings for the Clerke of the Chauncery for his paines, as is aforesaid: And the other part shall be to the said Archbishop and his Officers, which other part shall bee diuided into two partes, whereof the Archbishop shall haue the one, and his Commissary and Scribe shall haue the other part equally diuided amongst them. And if the tar be vnder xxvj.s.viij.d, and not vnder xx.s the same shalbe diuided into two parts, whereof your Grace, your heyres and successours, shall haue the one part entirely, abating two shillings thereof to the saide Clerke of the Chauncery, and the Archbishop and his Officers shall haue the other part, and the same other part shall be diuided into three parts, whereof the Archbishop shal haue one, his Commissary the second, and his Scribe or

Prouided alwayes, That this Act ſhall not be preiudiciall to the Archbiſhop of Yorke, or to any Biſhop or Prelate of this realme, but that they may lawfully (notwithſtanding this Act) diſpenſe in all caſes, in which they were wont to diſpenſe by the Common Law, or Cuſtome of this realme afore the making of this Act. Prouided alſo and be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that if it happen the Sea of the Archbiſhoprieke of Canterburie to be void, that then all ſuch maner licences, diſpenſations, faculties, inſtruments, reſcripts, and other writings, which may be graunted by vertue and authority of this Act, ſhal (during the vacation of the ſame Sea) be had, done, and graunted vnder the name & Seale of the Gardian of the ſpiritualties of the ſaid Archbiſhoprieke for the time being, according to the tenor and forme of this Act, and ſhall be of like force, value, and effect, as if they had beene graunted vnder the name and Seale of the Archbiſhop for the time being. And be it further enacted, That if the aforeſaid Archbiſhop of Canterbury for the time being, or the ſaid Gardian of the Spiritualties for the time being, hereafter refuſe or deny to grant any licences, diſpenſations, faculties, inſtruments, or other writings which they be authorized to doe by vertue and authority of this Act, in ſuch manner and forme, as is afore remembred, to any perſon or perſons, that ought of a good, iuſt, and reaſonable cauſe, to haue the ſame, by reaſon whereof this preſent Act by their wilfulneſſe, negligence, or default, ſhould take non effect, then the Chauncellour of England, or the Lord Keeper of the great Seale for the time being, vpon any complaint thereof made, ſhall direct the Kings Writ to the ſaid Archbiſhop or Gardian, denying, or refuſing to graunt ſuch licences, diſpences, diſpenſations, faculties, or other writings, enioyning him by the ſaid Writ, vpon a certaine paine therein to be limited by the diſcretion of the ſaid Chauncellour, or Keeper of the great Seale, that hee ſhall in due forme graunt ſuch licence, diſpenſation, faculty, or other writing, according to the requeſt of the procurors of the ſame, or elſe ſignifie vnto your Highneſſe, your heyres or ſucceſſors, in the Court of Chauncerie, at a certaine day, for what occaſion or cauſe he refuſed and denied to graunt ſuch licences, faculties, or diſpenſations. And if it ſhall appeare to the ſaid Chãcellour, or Lord Keeper of the great Seale, vpon ſuch certificat, that the cauſe of refuſall or deniall of graunting ſuch licences, facultie, or diſpenſation, was reaſonable, iuſt, and good, that then ſo being proued by ſuch ſearch and examination of the ſaide Chauncellor or Lord Keeper of the great Seale, to be admitted and allowed. And if it ſhall appeare vpon the ſaid certificate, that the ſaid Archbiſhop or Gardian of the Spiritualties for the time being, of wilfulnes in contemning the due execution of this Act, without a iuſt and reaſonable cauſe, refuſed or denyed to grant ſuch licence, facultie, or diſpenſation, that then your Highneſſe, your heyres and ſucceſſors, being thereof informed, after due examination had, that ſuch licences, faculties, or diſpenſations, may be granted without offending the holy Scriptures and Lawes of God, ſhall haue power & authoritie in euerie ſuch caſe for the default, negligence, and wilfulnes of the ſaid Archbiſhop or Gardian, to ſend your Writ of Iniunction, vnder your great Seale, out of your ſaid Court of Chauncery, commanding the Archbiſhop or Gardian, that ſo ſhall deny or refuſe to graunt ſuch licence, facultie, or diſpenſation, to make ſufficient grant thereof, according to the tenour and effect of this Act, by a certaine day, and vnder a certaine paine in the ſaid Writ to be contained, and to be limited by your Highneſſe, your heyres and ſucceſſors, Kings of this Realme. And if the ſaid Archbiſhop or Gardian, after the receit of the ſaid writ, refuſe or deny to grant ſuch licences, faculties, or diſpenſations, as ſhall be enioyned him by vertue of the ſaid writ, and ſhew and proue before your Maieſtie, your heires, or ſucceſſors, no iuſt or reaſonable cauſe why they ſhould ſo doe, then the ſaid Archbiſhop or Gardian, that ſo ſhall refuſe to put this Act in execution, according to the ſaid Writ of Iniunction, ſhall ſuffer, loſe and forfeit to your Highneſſe, your heyres and ſucceſſors, ſuch paine and penaltie as ſhall be limited and expreſſed in the ſaid Writ of Iniunction. And ouer that it ſhall be lawfull to your Highneſſe, your heyres and ſucceſſors, for euery ſuch default and wilfulnes of the ſaid Archbiſhop or Gardian, for the time being, to giue power and authority by Commiſſion vnder your great Seale, to ſuch two Spirituall Prelates or perſons, to be named by your Highneſſe, your heyres and ſucceſſors, as wil doe and grant ſuch licences, faculties, and diſpenſations, refuſed or denied to be graunted by the ſaid Archbiſhop or Gardian, in contempt of this Act. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid two Spirituall Prelates or Perſons, to whom in ſuch Caſes, any ſuch Commiſſion ſhall be directed, ſhall haue power and authority to graunt euery ſuch licence, faculty, diſpenſation, inſtrument and other writings ſo refuſed to bee graunted by the ſaid Archbiſhop or Gardian for the time being, by an inſtrument vnder the Seales, taking like fees and charges for the ſame, as is afore rehearſed, and not aboue, vnder the paines afore remembred. And that euerie ſuch licence, facultie, and diſpenſation ſo granted for any cauſes or matters, whereunto anie confirmation vnder the Kings Great Seale is appointed by this Act, to be had in manner and forme aboue declared, ſhall be had and obtained accordingly. And ſuch licences and confirmations ſhall be had for like fees and charges, as they are aboue ſpecified, and not aboue, vnder the paines aboue mentioned, & that euery ſuch licence, faculty, diſpenſation, & other writing to be granted by the ſaid Prelates, or perſons to be aſſigned by the K. and as beneficial and profitable to the persons procuring the same, as if they had beene made, graunted, and obtained vnder the name and seale of the said Archbishop. Prouided alwaies, that this Act, nor any thing or things therein contained, shall be hereafter interpreted or expounded, that your grace, your nobles and subiects, intend by the same to decline or varie from the Congregation of Christs Church, in any thing concerning the very articles of the Catholike Faith of Christendome, or in anie other things declared by holy Scripture, and the word of God, necessary for your and their saluations, but onely to make an ordinaunce by policies necessary and conuenient to represse vice, and for good conseruation of this Realme in peace, vnitie, and tranquilitie, from ruine and spoile, ensuing much the old auncient customes of this Realme in that behalfe: not minding to seeke for any reliefes, succours, or remedies for any worldly things, and humane lawes in any cause of necessitie, within this Realme, at the hands of your Highnesse, and your heyres and successors, Kings of this realme, which haue and ought to haue an Imperiall power and authority in the same, & not obliged in any worldlie causes to any other superiour. Prouided alway, that the said Archbishop of Canterbury, or any other person or persons, shall haue no power or authority by reason of this Act, to visite or vere anie monasteries, abbies, priories, colledges, hospitals, houses, or other places religious, which be or were exempt before the making of this Act: any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding, but that redresse, visitation, and confirmation shall be had by the Kings Highnesse, his heyres and successors by Commission vnder the great Seale, to be directed to such persons, as shall be appointed requisite for the same, in such Monasteries, Colledges, Hospitalls, Priories, Houses and places religious, exempt: So that no visitation nor confirmation shall from henceforth be had or made, in, or at any such Monasteries, Colledges, Hospitalles, Priories, houses and places Religious, exempt, by the said Bishop of Rome, or by any of his authority, nor by any out of the Kings dominions. Nor that any person religious, or other, resiant in anie the Kings dominions, shall from henceforth depart out of the Kings dominions, to or for any visitation, congregation, or assembly for Religion, but that all such Visitations, Congregations, and Assemblies shall be within the Kings Dominions. Prouided also, that this present Act, or any thing therein contayned, or any licence or dispensation hereafter to be made by vertue and authority thereof, shall not extend to the repeale or derogation of the late Act, made sith the beginning of this present Parliament, for reformation of Pluralities of Benefices, and for non residence, of Spirituall persons vpon their Dignities or Benefices, nor to any things contained or mentioned in the said Act. Nor that this Act, nor any thing to be done by authoritie thereof shall not be taken, expounded, nor interpreted, to giue licence to any person or persons, to haue any more number of Benefices, then is limited in the sayd Act. And that the same Act for Pluralities, and non residents of Benefices, and euery thing therein contained shall stand good and effectuall to all intents, according to the true meaning thereof, anie thing in this present Act, or any licence or dispensation to be had by authoritie thereof, in any wise notwithstanding. And be it further enacted by authority aforesaid, That if any person or persons, subiect or resiant within this Realme, or within any the Kings Dominions, at any time hereafter sue to the Court of Rome, or the Sea of Rome, or to any person claiming to haue his authority by the same, for any licence, faculties, or dispensation, or other thing or things contrary to this Act, or put in execution any licence, faculty, or dispensation, or any other thing or things hereafter to be obtained from Rome, or the Sea of Rome, or from anie clayming authoritie by the same, for anie of the causes aboue mentioned in this Act, or for anie other causes, that may bee graunted by authority of this Act, or attempt, or doe anie thing or things contrarie to this Act, or maintaine, allow, admit of censures, excommunications, interdictions, or any other processe from Rome, of what name or nature soeuer it be, to the derogation or let of the execution of this Act, or of any thing or things to be done by reason of the said Act, that then euerie such person or persons so doing, offending, and being thereof conuict, their Aydors, Councellours, and Abbettours, shall incurre and runne into the paine, losse and penaltie comprised and specified in the Act of prouision and premunire, made in the sixteenth yeere of your most noble progenitor King Richard the second, against such as sue to the Court of Rome against your Crowne and Dignity Royall. Prouided alway, that this Act, or any thing therein contained, shall not hereafter be taken or expounded to the derogation or taking away of any graunts, or confirmation of any Liberties, Priuiledges, or Iurisdiction of any Monasteries, Abbies, Priories, or other houses or places exempt, which heretofore before the making of this Act hath beene obtained at the Sea of Rome, or by authoritie thereof, but that euerie such graunt and confirmation shall bee of the same value, force, and effect, as they were afore the making of this Act, and as if this Act had neuer beene made. Prouided alwayes, that the Abbots, Priors, and other chiefe Rulers and Gouernors of such Monasteries, Abbies, and other houses and places exempt, shall not hereafter pay any pension, portion, or other rense to the Sea of Rome, nor admit or accept any visitation, nor any confirmation, from or by the said sea of Rome, or by authoritie thereof, of, or for any person to be elect, named or presented, to be heads of anie such Monasteries, Abbies, Priories, places or houses exempt, nor shall make any corporall oathe to the Bishop of Rome, otherwise called the Pope, vpon the paine limited in this act: but that euery such visitation and confirmation of such heads elect in any such Monasteries, Abbies, Priories, houses, or places exempt, where after their election they were bounden to haue and obtaine anie confirmation of their election, or of the person named, presen-

Prouided alwayes, that in such Monasteries, Abbies, Priories, and houses exempt, where after election, presentation, or nomination of their heades, no such confirmation is requisit to be had, nor hath bene vsed to be taken, by reason of such priuiledges as they haue concerning the same, that in euery such Monasteries, Abbies, Priories, and places exempt they shall not be bounden to obtaine, haue, or take any confirmation for the same within this Realme, by authoritie of this Act, but vse their priuiledges therein as they haue done before the making of this Act: any thing in this Act, or any the Prouisoes next aboue rehearsed to the contrarie thereof notwithstanding. Prouided also, and be it enacted, that this Act, or any thing or things, word or words herein, or in the preamble thereof mentioned or contained, is not intended or meant, or shal be expounded nor interpreted, that any dispensations, licences, or confirmations for marriages grãted to anie the Kings Subiects, borne vnder his obeisance, at anie time before the twelfth daie of March, in the yeare of our Lord God a thousand fiue hundred thirty three, shalbe appaired, or of any lesse value, strength, force, or effect, then they were at the said twelfth daie of March, nor that this Act, or any thing therein contained, shall not extend to the derogation, appairing, or annuliation of anie licences, dispensations, confirmations, faculties, or indulgences, at any time before the said one and xx. day of March, in the yere of our Lord God one thousand fiue hundred thirty three, had, or obtained at the sea of Rome, or by the authority therof, to, or for any Subiects borne in this Realme, or in any the Kings Dominions, or to, or for the hospitall of the Prior of Saint Johns Ierusalem in England, or any commaundries, or members therof, or to, or for any other Cathedrall churches, hospitals, monasteries, abbies, priories, colledges, conuentuall churches, parochiall churches, chappells, fraternities, brotherheads, or bodies politike within this Realme, or in any other the Kings dominions, but that euery such licence, dispensation, confirmation, faculty & indulgence, granted before the said xx. day of March, to any such subiect, or to the said hospitall of the Prior of S. Johns Ierusalem in England, and commandries or members therof, or to any other Cathedrall Church, hospitall, monastery, abbey, priorie, colledge, Church conuentuall, parochiall churches, chappell, fraternity, brotherhead, or body politique, or to their predecessors or auncestors within this Realme, or in any other the Kings dominions, shalbe of the same force, strength, value and effect, and may be from time to time put in execution at all times hereafter, by and to them that will vse, and haue the same as they mought haue bene, before the making of this Act, and as if this Act had neuer bene had nè made, anie thing in the said Act to the contrary hereof notwithstanding. Prouided alwayes, That such licences, dispensations, confirmations of faculties, heretofore obtained at the See of Rome, or by authoritie thereof, contrarie to the expresse prouisions of the Lawes and Statutes of this Realme heretofore made, shall not at any time hereafter be vsed, or put in due execution in any case to the derogation, or contrary to the said lawes & statutes of this realme, and the prouisions of the same: anie thing in this prouiso to the contrary thereof notwithstanding. And be it enacted by the authority of this present Parliament, that the King our soueraigne Lord, by the aduice of his honorable Councell, shall haue power and authority from time to time for the ordering, redresse, and reformation of al maner of indulgences, and priuiledges thereof within this Realme, or within any the Kings dominions heretofore obtained at the See of Rome, or by authority thereof, and of the abuses of such indulgences, and priuiledges thereof as shall seeme good, wholesome, & reasonable for the honor of God, and weale of this people. And that such order and redresse as shalbe taken by his Highnesse in that behalfe, shal be obserued & firmely kept, vpon the paines limited in this Act for the offending of the contents of the same. taketh by force of any such licence or licences, vnion, tolleration or dispensation. And where also in the said act it was ordained and enacted, that if any person or persons did procure or obtaine at the Court of Rome, or elsewhere any manner of licence or dispensation to be non resident at their dignities, Prebend or Benefices contrary to the saide Act, that then euerie such person or persons putting in execution any such dispensation or licence for himselfe, from the said first day of Aprill, in the yeare of our Lord God a thousand fiue hundred and thirty, should run and incurre in the penalty, dammage and paine of twenty pound sterling for euery time so doing, to be forfeited and recouered, as by the said act is declared. And yet such licence or dispensation so procured, or to be put in execution, to be void & of none effect, as by the same act more plainely it doth and may appeare. Bee it &c. that as much onely of the saide Act as concerneth the articles and clauses aforesaid, and all and euerie the words and sentences conteined in the said Act concerning the said Articles and clauses, & euerie of them shall from henceforth be repealed, annulled, reuoked, adnihilated, and vtterly made voide for euer: Any thing in the said act to the contrarie in any wise notwithstanding. And where also at the session of the same Parliament, holden vpon Prorogation in the xxiij. yeare of the raigne of the said late King Henry the eight (cap. 9. which is in Citation 2.) one act entituled, The act that no person shall be cited out of the Dioces where hee or shee dwelleth, except in certaine cases: And where also at the said Parliament in the Session holden at Westminster vpon prorogation in the foure & twentieth yere of the raigne of the said late King Henry the eight, one act was made that appeales in such cases as hath beene vsed to bee pursued to the Sea of Rome, should not frō henceforth be had nor vsed, but within this Realme: and where also at the said Parliament holden at Westminster in the one & twentieth yeare of the Raigne of the said late king Henrie the eight, and there continued by diuers prorogations vntil the foureteenth day of Aprill, in the seuen and twentieth yere of his raign, an act was made concerning restraints of paimēts of annates and first fruits of Archbishoprickes, and Bishoprickes to the sea of Rome: And whereat a Session of the said Parliament holden in the fiue and twentieth yere of the raign of the said late King, there was also made one act intituled, The submission of the Clergie to the Kings Maiestie: And one other act entituled, one act restraining the said paiments of annates or first fruites to the Bishop of Rome, & of the electing and consecrating of the Archbishops and Bishops within this Realm: And one other act was then & there made, entituled an act concerning the exoneration of the K. Subiects, from exations and impositions before time paid to the Sea Rome, and for hauing licence, and dispensations, within this Realme, without suing further for the same: Be it &c. That the said seuerall acts made for the restraints of the said paiment of the said annates and first fruites & al other the acts made in the said xxiij. & xxv. yeares of the raigne of the saide late King and euerie of them, and all and euerie braunch, article, matter and sentence in them and euerie of them conteined, shall be by the authority of this present Parliament from henceforth vtterly void and frustrate, and repealed, to all intents, constructions and purposes. And be it further &c. that all and euerie these acts following, that that is to say, one act made at the Session of the said Parliament holden vpon prorogation at Westminster in the xxv. and twentieth yere of the raigne of the said late K. Henry the eight (cap. 1.) entituled, an act concerning the kings Highnes to be supreme head of the Church of England, and to haue authority to reforme and redresse all errors, hereses and abuses in the same; and one other act made in the same Session of the same Parliament (s. Anno 26. H. 8. cap. 14.) entituled an act for nomination and consecration of suffragans within this Realme: And one other act made in the xxiij. yeare of the raign of the said late King Henry the eight (ca. 15.) entituled an act wherby the King should haue power to nominate thirty two persons of his Clergie and lay sort for making of Ecclesiasticall lawes: and also another Act made at the Parliament holden at Westminster in the eight & twentieth yeare of the raigne of the said late King Henry the eight (ca. 10) entituled an act extinguishing the authority of the bishop of Rome: And one other act made in ỳ same Parliament (s. Anno 28. H. 8. ca. 16.) entituled, an Act for the release of such as then had obteined pretended licences, and dispensations from the Sea of Rome: And also all that part of the act made in the said eight and twentieth yere of the said King (cap. 7.) entituled, an act for the establishment of the succession of the imperiall Crown of this realm, that concerneth a prohibition to marry within the degrees expressed in the said act: And also one other act made at the Parliament holden at Westminst. in the one and thirtieth yere of the raigne of the said late King Henry the eight (cap. 9.) entituled an act authorising the Kings Highnesse to make Bishops by his Let. Patents: And one other Act made in the Session of the same Parliament, begun in the said one and thirtieth yeare, holden vpon prorogation the said two & thirtieth yeare of the raigne of the said King Henrie the eight (cap. 38.) entituled, an act concerning precontracts of marriages, and touching degrees of consanguinity, and one other act made in the Parliament holden at Westminster in the fiue and thirtieth yeare of the raigne of the said late K. Henrie the 8. (cap. 3.) entituled, an act for the ratification of the Kings Maiesties stile, shall from henceforth bee repealed, made frustrate, voide and of none effect. And where also at the said parliament holden at Westminster, in the fiue and thirtieth yeare of the raigne of the said late King Henrie the eight (cap. 1.) one other act was made, entituled, an act concerning the establishment of the succession of the saide King, in the Imperiall Crowne of this Realme: In the which act there is a forme of a corporal othe deuised and set forth, that euerie subiect of this Realme should bee bound to take, against the power, authority, and iurisdiction of the Sea of Rome. of the said act as touching the said othe against the supremacy, and all othes therupon had, made, and giuen, shall be from henceforth vtterly void, repealed, and of none effect. And where also one other act was made in the seuen and thirtieth yeare of the raigne of the said late King Henrie the eight (cap. 17.) entituled, An act that Doctours of Ciuill law being maried might exercise Ecclesiasticall iurisdiction: Be it enacted &c. that the said act last before mentioned, and all and euerie braunch, article, sentence and matter conteined in the same, shall from henceforth be repealed, and vtterly made void, and of none effect. And where another Act was made at the first Session of the Parliament holden at Westminster in the first yere of the raigne of King Edward the first (cap. 12.) entituled, an act for the repeale of certaine Statutes concerning Treasons Felonies, &c. In ỳ which act amongst other things there is conteined certaine prouisions, paines, penalties, and forfeitures, for and against such as should by open preachings, erpresse words, sayings, writing, printing, ouert deed or act affirme, or set forth that the King of this realm for the time being, is not or ought not to bee supreme head in earth of the churches of England and Ireland, ne of any of them, or that the Bishop of Rome, or any other person or persons, other then the King of England for the time being, is or ought to be supreme head of the same Churches, or any of them, as in the same act last before rehersed more at large is conteined and may appeare. Be it &c. That these clauses before rehearsed, and other of the said act concerning the Supremacy, and all and euery braunch, article, words and sentences in the same, sounding or tending to the derogation of the Supremacy of the Popes holines, or of the Sea of Rome, and all paines, penalties and forfeitures made against them, that should by any meanes set forth or extol the said supremacy, shalbe from henceforth vtterly void, and of none effect. And be it &c. that all clauses, sentences, and articles of euerie other Statute or act of Parliament made sithence the said twentieth yeare of the raigne of King Henrie the eight, against the supreme authority of the Popes holinesse, or Sea Apostolike of Rome, or conteining any other matter of the same effect only, that is repealed in any Statutes aforesaid, shall be also by authority hereof from henceforth vtterly voide, frustrate, and of none effect. And where we your most humble subiects, the Lords spirituall & temporall, and commons of this present Parliament assembled, haue exhibited to your Maiesties, one other supplication in forme following: And conformably hereunto the Bishops & Clergie of the Prouince of Canterburie haue presented to your Maiesties a Supplication in this tenour that followeth: For as much as the said most reuerend Father the Lord Legate, at the intercession of your Maiesties, hath by authority of the Sea Apostolike, sufficiently dispensed in the matters specified in the said seuerall Supplications, as in his said Letters of dispensation is conteined more at large. The tenour whereof ensueth: We the Lords spirituall and temporall, and commons in this present Parliament assembled, rendring most humble thankes to your Maiesties, by whose intercession and meanes we haue obtained the said dispensations of the Popes holinesse by the said most reuerend Father in God, his Legate, most humbly beseech the same that it may be ordained as followeth. And it is &c. that all and singuler articles and clauses contained in the said Dispensation, aswell touching the establishment of Bishoprickes, and Cathedrall churches, as also the confirmation of mariages in degree prohibited by the Canons of the Church, the legitimation of Children, and ratification of Proces, and of sentences in matters Ecclesiasticall, touching the inualiditie of them for want iurisdiction, and the institutions and destitutions of and in benefices and promotions Ecclesiasticall, dispensations and graces giuen by such order, as the publike Lawes of the Realme then approued, and all other things before conteined in the saide Letters of Dispensation, shall remaine and be reputed and taken to al intents and constructions in the Lawes of this Realme lawfull, good and effectuall to be alleaged and pleaded in al courts Ecclesiasticall and temporall, for good and sufficient matter, either for the Plaintife or defendant, without any allegation, or obiection to be made against the validitie of them by pretence of any general councell, Canon or decree to the contrarie made or to be made in that behalfe. And whereas diuers and sundrie late Monasteries, Priories, Commandries, Nunries, Deanries, Prebends, Colledges, Hospitals, and houses of Friers, Chauntries, and other Religious and Ecclesiasticall houses and places, and the Manors, Granges, Melluages, lands, tenements, Rectories, Tythes, Pensions, portiõs, vicarages, Churches, Chappels, Aduowsons, Nominations, Patronages, Annuities, Rents, Reuersions, Seruices and other possessions and hereditaments to the said late Monasteries, Priories, Nunries, Commandries, Deaneries, Chauntries, Prebends, houses of Friers, Colledges, Hospitals and other Religious and Ecclesiastical houses and places, and to sundrie Archbishoprickes and Bishoprickes within this Realm late appertaining and belonging, came aswell to the hands and possession of the said king of famous memory Henrie the eight, father vnto your Maiestie our said Soueraigne Ladie by dissolution, gift, graunt, surrender, attainder, or otherwise, as also to the hands and possession of diuers and sundry other persons and bodies politike and corporate, by sundry meanes, conueyances and assurances, according to the order of the Lawes and Statutes of this Realme. And where also diuers Manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, parcel of the possessions of Archbishoprickes, and Bishoprickes, and many sundrie and late Deanries, Colledges, Chauntries, Rectories, Prebends, free Chappels, Guildes, and Fraternities, Manors, Granges, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Seruices, and other Ecclesiasticall possessions, and hereditaments goods and Cattell to the said Archbishoprickes, Bishoprickes, Deanries, Colledges, Chauntries, Free Chappels, Rectories, Guildes, and fraternities,

And that it may be further enacted by authoritie aforesaid, that all and euery article, clause, sentence & prouiso, contained or specified in any act or acts of parliament, concerning or touching the assurance or conueyance of any the said Monasteries, Priories, Nunries, Commandries, Deanries, Prebends, Colledges, Chauntries, Hospitals, Houses of Fryers, Rectories, Vicarages, Churches, Chappels, Archbishoprickes, and Bishoprickes, and other Religious and Ecclesiasticall houses and places, or any of them, or in any wise concerning any manors, lands, tenements, profits, commodities, hereditaments, or other the thinges before specified, to the said King Henry the eight, or King Edward the first, or either of them, or any other person or persons, or bodies politik or corporate, and euery of them, and all and euery writing, deede, and instrument, concerning the assurãce of any of the same, shal stand, remaine, and be in as good force, effect, and strength and shall be pleaded and taken auantage of, to all intents, constructions, and purposes, as the same should, might, or could haue bene by the lawes and Statutes of this Realme, in case this present act had neuer bene made. And that all feoffements, fines, surrenders, forfeitures, assurances, conueiãces, estates, & interests, in any wise conueied, had, or made to our said late soueraign Lord K. Hen. the eight, or to our saide late Soueraigne Lord King Edward the first, or either of them, or to any other person or persons, bodies politke or corporate, or to any of them, by deed or deeds, act or acts of Parliament, or otherwise, of any the scites, manors, lands, tenements, possessions, profits, commodities, or hereditaments, of any of the said Archbishoprickes, Bishoprickes, late Monasteries, Priories, Nunries, Commandries, Deanries, houses of friers, colledges, Chaũtries, Hospitals, Prebends, Free chappels, or of any manors, lands tenements, reuersions, seruices, tythes, pensions, portions, annuities, or of any other hereditaments, of, by, or from any Ecclesiasticall or spirituall persons, or by or from any spirituall or Ecclesiasticall corporation, or bodie politike, shall be as good and auaileable in the law, to all intents, constructions, and purposes, as they were by the lawes and Statutes of this Realme, standing in force, before the first day of this present parliament And that the same may and shall be pleaded, alleged, and taken aduãtage of, in such sort and to such effect, as they should, could, or might haue bene by the lawes and Statutes of this Realme, standing in force before the said first day of this present parliament. And that all and euery clause and article of sauing, contained in all and enerie the said acts & Statutes shall stand, remaine & be in such force, strength, and effect, as they were before the said first day of this present Parliament: any thing contained in this present act to the contrarie in any wise notwithstãding. And that it may be it &c. that whosoeuer shall by any Proces obtained out of any ecclesiasticall Court within this Realme, or without, or by pretence of any spirituall iurisdiction or otherwise contrarie to the Lawes of this Realme, inquiet or molest any person or persons, or body politik for any of the said manors, lands, tenemẽts, hereditaments, or things aboue specified, contrarie to the words, sentences and meaning of this act, shall incurre the danger of the act of Præmunire, made in the fifteenth yeare of King Richard the second (cap. 5. which is in Prouision 14.) and shall suffer and incurre the forfeitures and paines contained in the same. Prouided alway, that it shall and may be lawfull for any person or persons, body politike and corporate, to sue in any competent ecclesiasticall or spiritual Court within this Realm, for tythes, rights, and dueties, that they or any of them shall pretend to haue, of, or out of any the said manors, lands, tenements, and other the premisses, and to haue full and perfit remedie for the same, in such maner & forme, as they or any of them might or ought to haue done or had by the Lawes and statutes of this Realme, before the making of this act, and as though this act had neuer bene had or made And that it may be &c. that albeit the title or stile of Supremacie, or supreme head of the Church of England, and of Ireland, or either of them, neuer was, ne could be iustly or lawfully attributed or knowledged to any king, or Soueraigne Gouernor of this Realme, nor in any wise could or might rightfully, iustly, or lawfully by any King or Soueraigne Gouernor of the same Realm be claimed, challenged, or vsed: Yet forasmuch as the said title and stile, sithence the third day of Nouember, in the fire and twentieth yeare of the Raigne of the saide king Henrie the eight, hath bene vsed, and is mentioned & contained in diuers and sundrie writs, letters Patents, Records, exemplifications, Court rolles, Charters, deeds, instruments, euidences, bookes, and writings, it shall be lawfull aswell to and for your Maiesties, and your Soueraigne Ladies heires and successors, as to and for euerie other person or persons, and bodies politike and corporate, at all time and times hereafter to haue, retaine, and keepe the said writs, Letters Patents, Records, exemplifications, Court rolles, Charters, Deeds, Instruments, euidences, books, and writings, and them to shew, exhibit, vse, alleage and plead in all times and places requisite or needfull, without any danger, penalty, losse, forfeiture, trouble, veration, or impeachment for the same: any thing in this act, or in any other act or acts to the cõtrarie thereof in any wise notwithstanding. And where your highnes our soueraign lady, since your comming to the Crowne of this Realme, of a good and Christian conscience, omitted to write the said stile of Supremacy, specified in one act made in the Parliament holden at Westminster by prorogation in the fiue and thirtieth yere of the raign of your late father King Henry the eight, cap. 3. aswell in gifts, grants, Letters Patents, as in Commissiõs, and other writings, and also other haue in their writings done the same, aswell in your time as before: And forasmuch as notwithstanding any law made concerning the said stile of Supremacy, it was in the free choise, libertie and pleasure of the K. of this Realme, and of your Highnesse, whether ye would expresse the same in the said stile or not. Be it therefore &c. that all graunts, Letters Patents, Commissions, Indictments, Records, and writings made in your our Soueraigne Ladies name, or in the names of your our Soueraigne Lord and Lady, or other, wherein the said stile of supremacy is omitted, is, and shall bee, to all intents and purposes, as good and effectuall, as if the same had been therein expressed, and may be detained, kept, pleaded, and alleadged without any danger, paine, penalty, or forfeiture to insue to any person or persons, or bodie politike, for, or concerning the omission of the same stile, or any part thereof, in any such writings, and that no person ne persons shall be impeached, molested, or damnified, for or by reason of any such omission. And where in an act of Parliament made since the said xx. yere of K. Henry the eight, (s. An. 23. H. 8. ca. 16.) al buls, dispensations, & writings, which were before that time obtained from the Sea of Rome, should be void, abolished, and extinguished, with a clause, neuertheles that the matter of them by vertue of Letters Patents, from the King then being, should & might be alleadged, pleaded, & allowed, as if the same had not bene so abolished, or extinguished: For asmuch as the said Act is here before amongst other repealed & made voide. Be it therefore enacted &c. That all Buls, Dispensations, and priuiledges obtained before the said twentieth yere or at any time sithence or which shall hereafter bee obteined of the Sea of Rome, not containing matter contrarie or preiudiciall to the authority, dignity, or preeminence royal or imperiall of the Realme, or to the Lawes of this Realme now being in force, and not in this Parliament repealed, may be put in execution, vsed, and alleaged in any Court within this Realme, or elsewhere, whether the same remaine yet whole, or can appeare to haue bin cancelled, in as vaileable & effectuall maner, to all intents and purposes, as if the said act had neuer bene had or made: any obiection by pretence of extinguishment, or cancelling of the said Bulles, Dispensations, or priuiledges, or of any other matter or cause, by the pretence of the Lawes of this Realme, whatsoeuer in any wise notwithstanding. And whereas by dissolution of Monasteries, and other Religious houses, certains parish Churches and Chappels, which were before exempt from the iurisdiction of the Archbishop and Bishop of the Diocesse, and by speciall exemption, & priuiledge from Rome, were vnder the gouernement and order of the Abbots and Priors of those Religious houses, which said Churches by colour of the said exemptions bee now of speciall graunt from King Henrie and king Edward, vnder the rule, gouernment, and iurisdiction of temporall and lay men, who can no more enioy the supremacy ouer those particuler churches, then ỳ K. might ouer the whole Realme: Be it therefore &c. that all Archbishops and Bishops, in their diocesse, and all other spirituall person and persons hauing iurisdiction, and their ministers and officers, and no lay person or persons in euerie Church and place, within the precinct of the same, being exempt, or not exempt, may freely and without impediment execute their spiritual iurisdiction in all points and articles, as though no such exemption or grant had neuer been made. Prouided alway, and be it &c. that this act extend not to take away or diminish the priuiledge of the Vniuersities of Orford and Cambridge, the priuiledges or prerogatiues graunted heretofore to the Churches of Westminster and Windsor, ne the Tower of London, ne preiudicial to such temporall Lords and possessions in this Realme, as by ancient customs haue enioyed probate of Testaments, of their tenants or other. And forasmuch as after this reconciliation, and vnitie of this noble Realme, to the bodie of Christs church it is to be trusted, that by the abounda[n]ce of Gods mercy and grace, deuotion shall increase and growe in the hearts of many subiects of this Realm, which desire to giue & bestow the worldlie possessions for the resuscitating of almes, prayer, and example of good life in this Realme, to the intent such godly motions and purposes should be aduanced: Be it therefore &c. that it shall be lawfull to such as shall be seised of any manors, lands, tenements, parsonages, tythes, pensions, portions, or other hereditaments whatsoeuer, in fee simple, in possession, reuersion, or remainder, in their owne rights, not being copyhold, may thereof make feoffements grants, or any other assurances, or by his last will and Testament in writing may bequeath and giue in fee simple, all and euery the said manors, lands, tenements, Parsonages, Tythes, Pensions, portions, or other Hereditaments to any spirituall body, politike or corporate, in this Realme, or the Dominions of the same, now erected or founded, or hereafter to be erected or founded without any licence of Mortmaine therein to be obtained, or any writ of Ad quod dampnum to be sued out of the same: the acts De terris ad manum mortuam non ponendis, or any other act or Statute heretofore had or made in any wise notwithstãding. Sauing to the Lords of the fee, all rents seruices, due or going out of any of the said lands, tenements, or hereditaments so to be amortised, as is aforesaid. Prouided alwaie, that this clause of this act for giuing the liberty, of, or for the amortising of lands or tenements, shall continue for and during the space of twenty yeares next and immediately following, and no longer. And for asmuch as wee your Maiesties humble and obedient Subiects, the Lords spirituall and temporall, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, neither by the making or deliuering of either the Supplications aforesaid, nor by any clause, article, or sentence therin, or of any other clause, article, or sentence of this, or any other Statute or any of the Preambles of the same, made or agreed vpon in this Session of this present Parliament, by any maner of interpretation, construction, implication, or otherwise, intend to derogate, impaire, or diminish any of the prerogatiues, Liberties, Franchises, preeminences, or iurisdictions of your Crowne imperiall of this Realme, and other the dominions of the same belonging, wee doe most humbly beseech your

4 All maner of sanctuaries & places priuileged, which heretofore hath been vsed, reputed, or taken for any maner of sanctuary, except parish churches, and their Churchyards, Cathedrall churches, hospitals, & churches collegiate, & al chappels dedicated, vsed as parish churches, and the sanctuaries to them & euerie of them belonging, and except such places and territories, as hereafter shalbe declared, appointed, and named to be places of tuition & priuilege by this present act, shal be vtterly extinguished, annulled, void, and of none effect, for any such liberty or priuilege of Sanctuaries to all purposes and intents: any laws, licences, estatutes, custões, priuiledges, prescriptions, allowances, or any other thing or things heretofore vsed or admitted to the contrarie not withstanding. And furthermore the Royal Maiestie, of his accustomed goodnesse, mercy, & benignity, is pleased & contented, & it be & is enacted by the authoritie of this present parliament, that from henceforth these places & territories hereafter expressed & declared: that is to say, Wels in the County of Somerset, Westminster, Manchester, Northhampton, Norwich, York, Darby, & Lancaster, shal be from henceforth admitted, allowed, and taken to be places of priuiledge & tuition for term of life, of, & for all and singuler offenders, & malefactors, of whatsoeuer quality, kinde, or natures: all & euery their offences be, for the which their said offences & crimes, the paines & punishment of death should insue by the statute laws or customes of this Realm, other then such as hereafter by this present act be excepted & foreprised: that is to say, that be it & it. that from henceforth the said parish churches, or churchyards, Cathedrall churches, hospitals, churches collegiate, & all other chappels dedicated, vsed as parish churches, nor any of them, nor the Cemitories to them, or any of them belonging, nor the said places and territories before in this present act rehearsed & declared for places of refuge and tuition shall not in any wise extend to giue any maner tuition, defence, immunity, liberty, or priuiledge to any manner of person or persons, which at any time hereafter shal perpetrate, commit, or do any maner of wilful murder, or which shall commit or doe any rauishment to any woman, or which shall commit any maner of Burglary, or which shall commit or do any maner of Robbery in the high way, or neere vnto the same, or to any person which shall commit or do any robbery in any house, putting the owner, his wife, children, seruants, or any other person within the same, in feare of life. And also excepted and foreprised all felonious burning of Houses, or barnes with corne, & also all robberies of churches, chappels, or other hallowed places. And also foreprised & excepted all and singuler abbetters, procurers, and counsellors, to any of the foresaid offences before specified & excepted, before the said offences committed and done. And also excepted & foreprised all other offendors, committing or perpetrating any offences where Sanctuarie or Clergy is not allowable by the lawes of this Realme, or where sanctuarie or Clergy is taken away by any former statute or law. And be it further enacted, that if at any time hereafter, any person or persons doe take any refuge or sanctuary in any parish church or churchyard, Cathedrall church, hospital, church collegiate, or other Chappel dedicate, commonly vsed as parish churches, or in the Cemitory to any of them belonging, for any offence, other then such as be excepted and foreprised by this act: that then the said person or persons, so taking sanctuary and refuge, shall and may abide and remaine there by the space of fortie dayes, as hath been heretofore vsed, vsing himselfe in all points, according to the Lawes & statutes of this Realm, vnlesse the Coroner, in the mean time repaire vnto him for the taking of his abiuration, in which case vpon repaire of the said Coroner, he shal & may abiure after the Lawes and estatutes of this realm, to any of the said territories and priuileged places before named, not being full of the number, as hereafter to euery of the saide places by this act shall be appointed, there to abide & remaine during his life, vsing himselfe in such like order, condition and fashion, in all things and points as heretofore hath been ordered and appointed by the statutes & lawes of this Realme, for & concerning the good order of sanctuary persons, to be obserued, vsed, and kept within priuileged sanctuaries (viz. 27. H. 8. ca. 19. before 2.) or else to lose the benefit of their said priuiledge, & vpon the penalties comprised in the said estatut. And it is further enacted, that if the Coroner of the shire or place where any person or persons shall take any refuge or Sanctuary in any of the said Churches or Churchyards, Cathedrall churches, hospitals, churches Collegiate, chappels dedicate, commonly vsed as parish Churches, or any Cemitories to them, or any of them belonging, vpon reasonable request made, doe refuse to come in conuenient time vnto such person being in sanctuarie, as afore is said, there to take his confession and abiurations, according to the lawes of this Realme, that then the said Coroner for euery such default shall lose and forfeit to our Soueraigne L. the King one C. ſ. And be it & it. that the Chancellor of Englãd for the time being, withing the space of one yere next following, shal haue power and authority by this act to award seuerall Commissions vnder the Kings great seale of England, vnto such discreet persons as he shall thinke meet by his discretion, to make perambulations, & to appoint, set forth & limit certainly how far, & where the bounds and limits of euerie of the said priuileged places and territories before rehearsed shall extend, & that the same bounds & limits so by the said Commissioners to be set forth, limitted, and appointed shall be returned vnder the Seales of the said Commissioners into the K. Court of Chancery, there to remaine of Record for the certain knowledge of the bounds & limits of the said priuileged places & territories. And that after the same limitations so to be made and returned, the priuileged places appointed by this Act, shall serue and be allowed onely within the same limits and boundes so returned, and not else where within the residue of the Citie or Townes where such limits shall be appointed. place and territorie by the Kings Highnesse to bee appointed, and euerie of them, for the gouernance and ordering of the same places and territories, shall daily call and cause to be called by him selfe, or his deputy, al and euerie of the said priuileged persons in euerie of the said places & territories by their names: And if any of the said priuileged persons doe make default at three seuerall daies together, and doe not personally appeare at any of the saide three daies, hauing now lawfull excuse to the contrarie, that then euery such priuileged person, making default of his appearance as is aforesaid, shall lose and forfeit the priuiledge of all and euery of the said priuileged places and territories: any thing in this act to the contrary notwithstanding. And further it is &c. That if any of the said abiured or priuileged persons within the time hee shall be in any of the said priuileged places or territories, as a priuileged man, fortune to commit, perpetrate, or doe any manner of felonie, or other offences, for the which the penalty of death should insue by the Lawes and Statutes of this Realme: that then euerie such offender shall for euer lose the benefite and priuiledge aswell of the said place, as of all other priuileged places and Sanctuaries before named: any thing in this act to the contrarie notwithstanding. And it is &c. that there shall not be at any one time aboue the number of twenty of the said priuileged persons hereafter to bee admitted and receiued into any one of the said priuileged places and territories aforesaid. And that if any person hereafter doe abiure to any of the said priuiledged places and territories according to the purview of this act, the person so abiuring shall be vsed conducted, conueyed, & brought frō Constable to Constable directly, according to the order of the Lawes heretofore vsed, for the conducting of abiured persons to their Ports after their abiurations, vntill such time as the said person so abiuring, be brought to the Gouernor of the said priuileged place, whereunto he shall be so abiured, or to his Deputy. And that at the bringing thither of the said abiured person, it shall appeare & bee truely declared by the register there to be kept of the names of the said priuileged persons, then being in the said priuileged place, that the said priuileged place is then full of his said number of the said priuileged persons, being then there lawfully priuileged, according to the purview of this act: then the said Gouernor of the said priuileged place, or his Deputy, shall declare and shew vnto the saide abiured person so being brought thither, and to the said Officer that bringeth and conducteth him there, that the said abiured person may not be there receiued, for that the said priuileged place is then already full of his said number, and thereupon shall commaund the said Constables or other officer, to conduct leade and deliuer the said abiured person to the Constable or other Officer or Officers of the next towne adioyning to the said Priuileged place, leading directly towards the next of the said other priuileged places or territories. And the same abiured person so to be deliuered from Constable to Constable, Officer to Officer of euerie Township, tending toward the same next priuileged place, vnto such time as the same person be thither conducted, and there deliuered to remaine, as is aforesaid. And that the Gouernor of the said priuileged place, where such refusall was had, or his deputy, shal make an entry in the said Register of the whole matter, that is to say, what day and yere the said abiured person was brought thither vnto him, and by what officer, and for what cause he did refuse the receiuing of him, & to which of the other said priuileged places the said abiured person was from thence appointed to bee brought and conueyed, & shal before the departure of the said abiured person, deliuer to him a true copy of ỹ said entrie, to the intent he may deliuer the same to the gouernor of the said other Priuileged place, to the which hee shall be conducted and brought, or to his Deputie: And that the said gouernour of the same priuileged place, if that same place be not then full of his number, as is afore rehearsed, shall receiue the saide abiured person vpon the sight of his said bill, there to remaine during his life, as a priuileged person, according to the purview of this statute. And that like order and fashion be alwaies obserued and kept for the conducting & conueying of al abiured persons from euerie of the said priuileged places, being ful of their said number, at the time of the bringing thither of any such abiured person to the nert other of the said places, vntill such time as the saide abiured person be receiued into one of the said priuileged places, not hauing his full number, according to the purview of this act: And that euerie Gouernour of the said priuileged places, being negligent and not doing his duty, according to the purview of this act, and euery Constable and other of the Kings Officers, refusing to receiue or to conduct such abiured persons as is aforesaid, shall forfeit and lose to our Soueraigne Lord the King for euerie of their defaults in that behalfe forty shillings. Prouided alwaies that this act nor any thing therein conteined, shal extend or be taken to minish or appaire, or augment, or enforce the Priuiledge or liberty, which any person or persons haue already taken, claimed, or obtained to any place or places within this Realme heretofore vsed, allowed or admitted for places of Sanctuarie, Priuiledge or tuition, but the same to stand for them in like force and effect, neither better nor worse, then it was before the making of this act, any thing herein contained to the contrarie notwithstanding. 4 For as much as great care hath béene heretofore taken for the maintenance of good strength and force vpon the borders and frontiers against Scotland, & to the end that the inhabitants and tenants there might be better able, and more encouraged for the defence of the same borders, when any occasion should be offered in that behalfe, all charges of subsidies and taxes haue béene borne, to be laid or charged vpon the said inhabitants, and for like respect it hath bin heretofore also vsed in diuers places within the Counties of Northumberland, Cumberland Westmerland and the Bishoprieke of Durham, that diuers, & a great part of the inhabitants there, haue enioyed their tenements and fermeholdes in diuers fauorable sorts and formes of tenure. And for that the Maiestie hath of late yeres béene oftentimes informed by report and certificate of her principall officers, hauing charge of her borders, that the force of her said borders both of horsemen & footemen are greatly decaied, & likely daily to grow weaker by many occasiõs, & among other by decay and ruine of sundry the inhabitants of those borders, whereby the number of the auncient inhabitants able for seruice, haue bin diminished, and that part of the same habitations, Menancies and Fermes, haue béene reduced rather to pasturing of Cattell, then to the maintenance of men of seruice: And that also in some parts the Tenants and Inhabitants themselues haue diminished their owne strength, by diuiding their houses and Fermes, which were méete onely for one able householder and family, into the occupation of sundrie persons commonly being their children or other kinsfolks: so as by the smallnesse and meanesse of the holding no one of them is able to furnish a man for seruice: And ẏ also diuers owners and Tenants vpon the Borders, haue for more gaine then they could haue of naturall subiects, letten their lands or fédings, or some part thereof to Scottishmen, thereby not onely weakening the strength of her Maiesties naturall subiects, but strengthning Forrainers. For remedy whereof be it enacted by the authority of this present Parliament, that the Quéenes Maiestie shal & may from time to time, as need shall require, by Commission vnder the great Seale of England, make & appoint such and so many Commissioners, as to her Maiestie shall be thought conuenient giuing vnto them or sire of them (whereof two to be of the Quorum) full power and authoritie in al and euery of the said counties of Northumberland, Cumberland, Westmerland, and the Countie Palantine of Durham, or in any one of them, or in any part of any of them, to enquire by the oaths of twelue men or moe, or by other good meanes according to their discretions, what tenancies and houses of habitations be since the seuen and twentieth yeare of King Henrie the eight ruined and decaied, and not held or occupied by men able to serue as Horsemen and Footemen, according to the auncient duety of the same Tenancies, and in like maner to examine and search out ẏ iust or probable causes of those ruines & decaies, & of the wants & euill furnitures of the said horsemen and footemen, and to giue order and direction for reformation thereof with all spéed reasonable. And to that end, if it shall appeare to the said Commissioners, or such sire of them, as is aforesaid, that the fault of the said ruines or decaies, hath bœne only in the Lords and owners or their principal Officers, or in the Officers or Farmers of her Maiesties Manors, Lands, or Tenements, or any their assignes, then the said Commissioners, or such sire as is aforesaid, shall order, command and enioyne aswell her Maiesties Officers, Farmers, or their assigns, as others the Lords and owners, and their Officers or Farmers, to reedifie or repaire the same tenements and houses of habitation, and specially the capitall houses and Barnekins within a conuenient time at their owne charges, with restoring like quantities of lands thereunto, as with the same hath bœn occupied in the said seuen and twentieth yeare of King Henrie the eight. And shall set paines for euery default of such reedifying or restoring in reasonable time, not exceeding one hundred Markes for euerie such default: And if they shall finde default of furniture of the tenants with horse, weapon or armour, according to their dutyes, then they shall by perswasion in respect of the Quéenes Maiesties seruice, and the defence of their native Countrie, treate with such Lords and other whom it may concerne, and the Freeholders, Lessées or Tenants, for order to be taken by their mutuall assents, for the renewing and continuance of the said seruice, and for want of reasonable conformity on either part, may enioyne the said Lords and al others vnder them, and also all the Quéenes Maiesties Officers, Farmers, and their assignes, to giue such helpe as the said Commissioners or such sire as aforesaid shall thinke fit, toward the inabling of the said Tenant or Tenants, to be furnished according to the auncient duety of the said Tenement, and to take order how the said Tenant shall thereby be furnished and be able for seruice, and to see that the same be duly executed, and the said Cõmissioner shall take bonds in good sums to her Maiesties vse, of euerie such person of whom it shal be requisite, that the said ancient duty of such Tenements respectiuely shall bee furnished, kept and executed, on paine of reasonable forfeiture, not exceeding forty poundes for euerie default, and shall assesse fines, and set downe paines for such defaults or wants of furniture, as shall in that behalfe be requisite. And if the vnableneſſe of the said Tenants shall bée found to haue growen, or to grow hereafter by their owne default or wilfulnesse, without iust occasion: the saide Commissioners or such sire of them, as is aforesaid, shall order, enioyne and direct the said tenants within some reasonable spéedy time, to furnish themselues with Horse, armour, and weapon, or with Armour and Weapon according to their ancient vsage, and their vttermost reasonable habilitie, at their owne charges without any contribution of the Lords, but at their owne good willes,

Paine vpon paine to be expelled by the Lord, owner or superiour Farmers or their assignes, which so expelling, shall place in such holding or Farme another Tenant, that shall be furnished and ready for such seruice as is aforesaid, or else shall within one monthy giue notice to the Commissioners, or to the Warden of the same Marches, of his not placing of such Tenant, vpon such paine as the Commissioners, or such fiue of them, as is aforesaid, shall assesse, not exceeding one hundreth Markes: and the said Commissioners or Warden after such notice giuen, shall place one other Tenant sufficient for the seruices aforesaid, & in her Maiesties Lands by the Officers of her reuenue, within iometime to be limitted. And the saide Landlords, Owners, Superiour Farmers, or their assignes, and also her Maiesties Officers to be also enioyned and bound vpon some paine, to cause the same to bee executed, and that a new Tenant shall be placed, sufficiently furnished to holde the same. And further where it shall appeare, that within the space of thirty yeares any Tenement or habitation of houshold, which haue maintained any Horsemen or fotemmen, by auncient vsage for seruice toward the Frontiers, haue béene by the Tenants and Owners themselues, or by any other meanes diuided into sundrie habitations, or the Lands thereunto belonging, distributed to other Tenāts whereby any one principall Tenement so deuided or the same Tenement with the land therwith now occupied, shall not be able to maintaine the Inhabitant thereof to be furnished according to the ancient duty of seruice: that in such case the said Commissioners or such fiue of them, as is aforesaid, shall take order, that for the present time, the persons which shall haue the vse and profit of any part of the same tenements, or of the said lands so withdrawen from the said Principall Tenement, during the time of their present termes, shall yearely contribute to the principall Tenant there residing, to be ready and furnished for the said seruice, some reasonable yearely aid by money or otherwise, towards his furniture meet for seruice. Prouided alwaies, that where the said Commissioners, or such fiue as aforesaid shall finde, that mean or vndertenants hauing particuler estates ouer the terretenant (other then the Lords and owners) haue béene cause of any such decay. In those cases they shall order and compell all such persons meane (which from vnder the Lord, vnto the base or terretenant, shall be found to haue béene cause of such decay) to contribute towards the reedifying or repairing of any tenement ruined or decaied since the time of their interest in the premisses, and also to the helpe of the furniture of the party so decaied: And shall also cause them to be bound, during their particuler Estates, to obserue the order of the saide Commissioners, to be taken as is aforesaid toward ỳ said Tenāts, inhabitants, & seruice. And because diuers persons being Lords & owners, & others also, that haue particuler Estates vnder the said Lords and Owners, which are by the said Commissioners in diuers cases aboue mentioned, to be charged with the contributions aboue mentioned, may be absent out of the parts, where the said Commissioners shal haue authority to execute the said commission, and shall not appeare vpon summons and precepts, & shall haue no lands or tenements within the iurisdiction of the said Commission, to satisfie such paines or amerciaments, as shall be set vpon them, to performe their order: In such cases the Commissioners or such fiue of them as is aforesaid, shall Estreate the same paines and amerciments into the Exchequer, in like maner as Iustices of Peace ought to do for fines & amerciaments, tared or set before them. And thereupon the Barōs and Court of Eschequer, shall vse all good diligence to procure the leuying thereof vpon the parties amerced, or that shall forfeit paines in any part of the Realms, whersoeuer the said party shall remaine. And vpon the same answere by any Shirife or other Officer, the same shall be paide by order of the principall Officers of the said Eschequer, to the Commissioners or some of them, to be answered to such to whom the same shal be due without further warrant from her maiesty for the same. Prouided also, that where the Commissioners, or any such fiue of them as aforesaid, shall finde that any thing is & ought to bée done for the furtherance of this seruice, in any of the premisses in the Qu. Maiesties charge, in respect of any her Lands, Lordships, or Tenements, or of any thing taken by any Officers of her reuenue, or by any other person attending vpon the said Officers or Ministers, or by any other meanes to their owne vse: In such cases the said Commissioners, or such fiue as aforesaid, shall certifie to the Lord Treasorer, Chancellour, and Barons of the Eschequer, their directions and orders concerning the contributions by them reasonably thought méete to bee made in her Maiesties behalfe, or by any her Officers or Ministers, to the intent the said Lord Treasorer or Chancelour and Barons, or any two of them, whereof the Lord Treasorer or Chauncelour for the time being to be one, shall on her Maiesties behalfe direct warrants to her Maiesties Receiuors of the said County to make paiment & allowance, according to the order and direction of the said Cōmissianers, without any other speciall Warrant from her Maiestie for the same, & they shall also compell all other her Maiesties said Officers & Ministers or their Deputies, that shall bée ordered by the Commissioners as aforesaid, to make contribution as is aboue said, to make payment, and to satisfie the said orders in like sort and maner, as if the said orders and directions were decréed by the said Court of Eschequer. Prouided, that the said Commissioners, before they shall exercise the said Commission, shall be sworne before the L. Chancelor of Engl. or before such to whome the L. Chancelor shal direct a writ of Dedimus potestatem, or before the Iusticer of Assise in the County where they shall sit, or before the Iust. of P. in the Quarter Sessions in the said County, according to the tenour of an Oath, contained in a Statute of the second and third yeres of the raignes of King Philip and Quéene Marie (which see in Castles 5.) made for the reedifying of the Castles, Statute also further enacted by the authoritie aforesaide, That one Act and Statute made at the Parliament holden at Westminster, in the second and third yeares of the raigne of the late King Philip and Quéene Marie, entituled, An Act for the Reedifying of Castles and Forts, and for the Inclosing of Grounds vpon the Borders towardes Scotland, and euerie Article, Branch, Clause, and Sentence therein contained, except the saide words (and all Saintes) shall be from henceforth fully reuiued, and shall haue continuaunce for and during the terme of twentie yeares next ensuing the last day of this present Session of Parliament, and from henceforth to the end of the Parliament then next following: And that the same Act and Statute in euerie behalfe, shall from henceforth be interpreted and expounded, to extend as fully and largely to the Quénes Maiestie that now is, her heyres and successours, during the said time, for the good execution of the same, as euer it did, or was meant to extend to the saide late King Philip and Quéene Marie, any thing to the contrary notwithstanding. Prouided neuertheless, and considering that the speciall purpose of the premisses in this Act contained, is to haue the people and Inhabitants of the said Counties of Northumberland, Cumberland, and Westmerland, and of the saide Countie Palantine of the Bishoppricke of Durham, which of ancient time were accustomed, and by the Customes of the saide Countries are, or ought to serue on horse backe, or on foote, for defence of the frontires, to be able for seruice, and to be ready furnished for the said seruice: Therefore be it enacted, That if the Lord and Owner of any tenement, or place of habitation, or farme, whereupon any such Tenant bound by such custome to serue, doth now dwell, or where at any time since the seuen and twentieth yeare of King Henry the eight, any such tenant bound by custome to such seruice, did dwell, shal place and cause to inhabite there vpon a tenant able to serue on horse backe, or on foote, according to the auncient custome of the same tenement or Farme, and so for that purpose to be alwayes, when need shall require, furnished for the said seruice requisit: In such case the said Commissioners shall not by vertue of this Act, intermeddle betwixt the lord or owner and the tenant, but that it may be lawful for the said lord or owner therein to grant to his tenant such estate, and in such sort, as lawfully hee might haue done before the making of this statute, so as the said tenant be, as aboue is said, able and ready with furniture to doe his accustomed seruice when time shall require for defence of the frontires. Seruice and Sacraments.

THe King perceiuing that many arrogant and ignorant men doe peruert many things well and godlily instituted, and namely in the most comfortable Sacrament of the Body and Blood of our Sauiour Iesus Christ, commonly called the Sacrament of the Altar, and in Scripture, The Supper and Table of the Lord, the Communion and partaking of the body and blood of Christ, which Sacrament was instituted of no lesse Author then our Sauiour both God and man, when at his last Supper among his Apostles, he did take the bread into his holy hands, & did say, Take you and eate: This is my bodie which is giuen and broken for you. And taking vp the Chalice or Cup, did giue thankes and say, This is my blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you and for many, for the remission of sinnes, that whensoeuer wee should do the same, we should do it in the remembraunce of him, and to declare and set foorth his death and most glorious Passion vntill his comming. Of which Bread whosoeuer eateth, or of the which Cup whosoeuer drinketh vnworthily, eateth and drinketh condemnation & iudgement to himselfe, making no difference of the Lords body. The institution of which Sacrament, being ordained by Christ, as is aforesaid, and the said words spoken of it here before rehearsed, being of eternall, infallible and vndoubted trueth, yet the said Sacrament hath beene of late marueilously abused by the said persons, contemning the whole thing for certayne abuses heretofore committed therein, reuiling it, and disputing vngodly of that most holie Mysterie, and calling it by vile and vnseemely words: For reformation whereof, Be it &c. That whatsoeuer person or persons from and after the first day of May next comming, shall deprane, despise or contemne the said most blessed Sacrament in contempt thereof by any contemptuous words, or by any words of deprauing, despising or reuiling, or what person or persons shall aduisedly in anie other wise contemne, despise or reuile the said most blessed Sacrament contrarie to the effects and declaration aforesaid, that then he or they shall suffer imprisonment of his or their bodies, and make fine and ransome at the Kings will and pleasure. And for full and effectuall execution of the premisses before deuised, ordained, and enacted by this Act, Be it further enacted by the authority of this present Parliament, That immediately after the first day of May next comming, the Iustices of Peace, or three of them at the least, whereof one of them to be of the Quorum in euerie shire of this Realme, and Wales, and all other places within the Kings Dominions, shall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this Act, as well to take information as accusation by the othes and depositions of two liable, honest, and lawfull persons at the least, and after such accusation or information so had, to enquire by the oathes of twelue men in euerie their foure quarter Sessions yearely to be holden, of all and singular such accusations or informations to be had or made of anie the offences aboue said to be committed or done after the said first day of May, within the limites of their Commission, and that vpon euery such accusation or information, the offender & offenders shal be enquired of, and indicted before the said Iustices of Peace or three of them at the least, as is aforesaid, of the said contempts and offences by the verdict of xij. honest and indifferent men, if the matter of the said accusation and information shall seeme to the said Iurie, good and true. And it is further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the said Iustices of peace, or three of them at the least, as is aforesaid, before whom any such presentment, information, and accusation shall be made or taken, as is aforesaid, shall examine the accusers what other witnesses were by and present at the time of doing and committing of the offence, whereof the information, accusation and presentment shall be made, and how many other then the accusers haue knowledge thereof, and shall haue power and authoritie by their discretions to bind by Recognisance to be taken before them, as well the said Accusors, as all such other persons, whom the same accusors shall declare to haue knowledge of the offences by them presented and informed, euery of them in fiue l. to the King, to appeare before the said Iustices of P. before whom the offender or offenders shall be tried at the day of triall and deliuerance of such offendors. And it is further enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, That the said Iustices of Peace or iij. of them at the least, as is aforesaid, by vertue of this Act, shall haue full power and authoritie, to make proces against euerie person and persons so indicted by two Capias and one Exigent, and by Capias vtlagatum, as well within the limites of their Commission, as into all other shires and places of this realme, Wales and other the Kings deminions, aswell within the Liberties as without, and the same proces to be good and effectual in the Law, to all intents, constructions and purposes, and vpon the apparance of anie of the offenders shall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this Act, and the Commission of Peace, to determine the contempts & offences aforesaid, according to the lawes of this Realme, and effects of this Act. And that the saide Iustices of Peace, or three of them at the least, as is aboue said, shall haue full power and authoritie, to let any such person or persons so indicted vpon sufficient Sureties by their discretions to baile for their appearance, to be tried according to the tenor, forme, and effect of this Act. Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted, That the said Iustices of Peace, or three of them at the least, at their quarter sessions where any offender or offenders shalbe or stand indicted of any of the contempts or offences aboue said, shal direct and award one writ in the Kings name, to the Bishop of the diocese wherein the said offence or offences are supposed to be committed or done, willing & requiring the said bishop, to be in his owne person, or by his Chancelor, or other his sufficient deputy learned, at the Quarter Sessions in the said countie to be holden, when and where the said offender shall be arraigned and tried, appointing to them in the said Writ, the day and place of the said arraignement, which writ shal be of this forme: Rex &c. sanctum sacramentum altaris. Prouided alway and be it enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, That no person or persons shall be indicted of anie the contempts or offences aboue said, but only for such contempts or offences as shall be done or perpetrated, within three moneths next after the said offences or offence so committed or done. And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, That in all trialls for any such offenders before the said Iustices, as is aforesaide, the person or persons being complained on and arraigned, shall be admitted to purge or trie his or their innocencie, by as many or more witnesses in number, and of as good honestie and credence as the witnesses be, which deposed against him or them, or anie of them. And forasmuch as it is more agreeable, both to the first Institution of the said Sacrament of the most pretious Body and Blood of our sauiour Iesus Christ, and also more conformable to the common vse and practise, both of the Apostles, and of the Primitiue Church by the space of fiue hundred yeares and more after Christs Ascension, that the said blessed Sacrament should bee ministred to all Christian people, vnder both the kinds of Bread and Wine, then vnder the forme of Bread onely: And also it is more agreeable to the first Institution of Christ, and to the vsage of the Apostles, and the Primitiue Church, that the people being present, should receiue the same with the Priest, then that the Priest should receiue it alone. Therefore be it enacted by our soueraigne Lord the King, with the consent of the Lordes Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons of this present Parliament assembled, and by the authoritie of the same; That the said most blessed Sacrament be hereafter commonly deliuered and ministred vnto the people, within this Church of England and Ireland, and other the Kings dominions, vnder both the kinds, that is to say, of Bread and Wine, except necessitie otherwise require, and also that the Priest, which shall minister the same, shall at the least one day before, exhort all persons which shall be present, likewise to resort, and prepare themselues to receiue the same. And when the day prefixed commeth, after a godly exhortation by the Ministers made (wherein shall be further expressed the benefite and comfort promised to them which worthily receiue the said holy Sacrament, and danger and indignation of God threatened to them which shall presume to receiue the same vnworthily, to the end that euery man may trie and examine his owne conscience, before he shall receiue the same) the said Minister shall not without a lawfull cause denie the same to any person, that will deuoutly and humbly desire it: Any Lawe, Statute, Ordinance or Custome contrary hereunto in any wise notwithstanding: Not condemning hereby the vsage of anie Church out of the Kings Maiesties dominions. 2 Anno 2. Ed. 6. cap. 1. was an Act made, that the Seruice and Sacraments should be in English according to a Booke thereof made. And diuerse things be in that Act concerning those matters. And after, Anno 5. Ed. 6. cap. 1. it appeareth that the said English Booke was altered and changed in diuers things, and that thereunto was added a forme of making and consecrating of Bishops and Priests. And in the same Act of Anno 5. Ed. 6. capit. 1. It was enacted to compell people to come to the Church to the English Seruice, and punishment appointed for them that should be present at any other Seruice, as followeth here 3.

3 Be it enacted by the King our soueraigne lord, with the assent of the Lords and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authoritie of the same, that from and after the feast of all Saints next comming, all and euery person and persons, inhabiting within this Realme or any other the Kings maiesties dominions, shall diligently and faithfully, hauing no lawfull or reasonable excuse to be absent, endeuour themselues to resort to their parish Church or Chappell accustomed, or vpon reasonable let thereof, to some vsuall place where Common Prayer and such seruice of God shall be vsed in such time of let, vpon euerie Sunday, and other dayes ordained and vsed to be kept as holy dayes, and then there to abide orderly and soberly during the time of the Common prayer, preachings, or other seruice of God, there to be vsed and ministred, vpon paine of punishment, by the Censures of the Church. And for the due execution hereof, the Kings most excellent Maiestie, the Lords Temporall, and all the Commons in this present Parliament assembled, doth in Gods name earnestly require and charge all the Archbishops, Bishoppes and other Ordinaries, that they shall endeuour themselues to the vttermost of their knowledges, that the due and true execution hereof may be had throughout their Diocesse and charges, as they will answer before God, for such euils and plagues wherewith almighty God may iustly punish his people for neglecting this good & wholsome Lawe. And for their authoritie in this behalfe, be it further likewise enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all and singuler the same Archbishops, Bishops, and all other their Officers, exercising Ecclesiasticall iurisdiction, as well in place exempt as not exempt within their Diocesse, shall haue full power and authoritie by this Act, to reforme, correct and punish by the Censures of the Church, all and singuler persons, which shall offend within anie their iurisdictions or Diocesses, after the saide feast of all Saints next comming, against this Act and Statute, any other lawe, statute, priuiledge, libertie, or prouision heretofore made, had, or suffred to the contrary notwithstanding. And because there hath arisen in the vse and exercise of the foresaid cõmon seruice in the church heretofore set forth, diuers doubts for the fashion and maner of the ministration of the same, rather by the curiosity of the minister, and mistakers, then of any other worthy cause: Therefore as well for the more plaine and manifest explanation hereof, as for the more perfection of the said order of Common seruice in some places where it is necessarie to make the same prayer and fashion of Seruice more earnest and fit to stirre Christian people to the true honouring of almighty God: The kings most excellent maiesty, with the assent of the Lords and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authoritie of the same, hath caused the foresaid Order of Common seruice, entituled, The booke of Common Prayer, to be faithfully and godlily perused, explained and made fully perfect, and by the aforesaid authoritie, hath annexed and ioyned it so explained and perfected to this statute, adding also a forme and maner of making and consecrating of Archbishops, Bishops, Priests, and Deacons to be of like force, authoritie and value, as the same like aforesaid Booke, intituled, The Booke of Common Prayer, was before, and to be accepted, receiued, vsed, and obeyed, in like sort and maner, and with the same clauses of prouisions, and exceptions to all intents, constructions, and purposes, as by the Act of Parliament made in the second yere of the Kings maiesties raigne, was ordained, limited, expressed, and appointed for the vniformitie of Seruice and Administration of the Sacraments throughout the realme, vpon such seuerall paines as in the said Act of Parliament is expressed: And the said forme Act to stand in full force and strength to all intents and constructions, and to be applyed, practised, and put in vre, to, and for the establishing of the Booke of Common Prayer, now explained, and hereunto annexed, and all the said forme of making of Archbishops, Bishoppes, Priests, and Deacons, hereunto annexed, as it was for the former Booke. And by the authoritie aforesaid it is now further enacted, That if anie maner of person or persons, inhabiting and being within this Realme, or any other the Kings Maiesties Dominions, shall after the saide feast of all Saints, willingly and wittingly, heare and be present at anie other manner or forme of Common Prayer, of Administration of the Sacraments, of making of Ministers in the Church, or of any other rites contained in the Booke annexed to this Act, then is mentioned and set forth in the saide Booke, or that is contrary to the forme of sundrie prouisions and exceptions contained in the foresaid former Statute, and shall be thereof conuicted, according to the Lawes of this Realme before the Iustices of Assise, Iustices of Oyer and Determiner, Iustices of Peace in their Session, or anie of them by the verdict of twelue men, or by his or their owne confession, or otherwise, shall for the first offence suffer imprisonment for sixe moneths, without baile or mainprise: and for the second offence, being likewise conuicted, as is aboue said, imprisonment for one halfe yeare: and for the third offence in like manner, imprisonment during his or their liues. And for the more knowledge to be giuen hereof, and better obseruation of this Lawe: Be it enacted by authoritie aforesaid, That all and singular Curates shall vpon one Sunday during euerie quarter of the yeare, during one whole yeare next following the foresaid feast of all Saints next comming, reade this present Act in the Church, at the time of the most assembly, and likewise once in euery yeare following at the same time, declaring vnto the people, by the authority of the Scriptures, how the merry and goodnesse of God hath in all ages beene shewed to his people, in their necessities and extremities, by meanes of hearty and faithfull prayers made to almighty God, especially where people be gathered together with one faith & mind, to offer vp their hearts by prayers, as the due Sacrifices that Christian men can yelde. Anno 5. & 6. Edw. 6. cap. 1. But as well the Act of 2. Edw. 6. capitul' 1. as this Act of 5. & 6. Edw. 6. capit. 1. were both repealed Anno 1. Mar. Parl. 1. Sess. 2. cap. 2. And some part of 5. & 6. Edw. 6. cap. 1. is reuiued by 1. Elizab. cap. 2. as followeth in this Title here 5. But the whole Statute of 1. Mar. is repealed Anno 1. Iac. cap. 25.

4 Forasmuch as it is most necessary, to prouide that Peace be preserued, specially in holy Church in time of Diuine seruice, and Administration of the Sacraments: Be it ex. That if any person or persons, of their owne power and authoritie, at anytime or times, after the twentith day of December next comming, doe or shall willingly and of purpose, by open and ouert word, fact, act, or deede, maliciously, or contemptuously, molest, let, disturbe, vexe, or trouble, or by any other vnlawfull wayes or meanes disquiet, or misuse any preacher, or preachers that now is, or that at anie time or times hereafter shall be licenced, allowed, or authorized to preach by the Quenes Highnesse, or by any Archbishop, Bishop of this Realme, or by any other lawfull Ordinary, or by any of the Vniuersities of Oxford and Cambridge, or otherwise lawfully authorized or charged by reason of his or their Cure, Benefice, or other Spirituall promotion or charge, in any of his or their open Sermon, preaching, or collation, that he or they shall make, declare, preach, or pronounce, in anie Church, Chappell, Churchyard, or in any other place or places, vsed, frequented, or appointed, or that hereafter shall be or appointed to be preached in: Or if any person or persons, after the said twentieth day of December next comming, shall maliciously, willingly, or of purpose, molest, let, disturbe, vexe, disquiet, or otherwise trouble any Parson, Vicar, parish Priest, or Curate, or any lawfull priest, repairing, saying, doing, singing, ministring, or celebrating the Masse, or other such diuine seruice, Sacraments, or Sacramentals as was most commonly frequented and vsed in the last yeare of the raigne of the late Soueraigne Lord King Henrie the eight, or that at any time hereafter shall be allowed, set forth, or authorized by the Quenes Maiestie: Or if anie person or persons, at anie time or times after the said twentieth day of December, shall contemptuously, vnlawfully, maliciously, of their owne power and authoritie pull downe, deface, spoile, abuse, breake, or otherwise vnreuerently handle, or order the most blessed,

Which person or persons so apprehended, taken or arrested, with conuenient speede shall be brought and carried to anie Iustice of Peace, within the said shire, or within anie citie, borough, liberty, or towne corporat where in Iustices of Peace be, where the sayd offence or offences shall be committed, done, and made, and that the said Iustice of Peace, vpon due accusations thereupon had & made, by the apprehender or apprehenders, or other person or persons of any of the said person or persons so offending, forthwith shall commit the said person or persons so apprehended, arrested, and taken, to safe keeping & custody, as by the discretion of the saide Iustice shall be thought most meete and conuenient, and that within fiue dayes next and immediatly after the said accusation so had and made to the said Iustice, with one other Iustice of Peace in the said Shire, Citie, Borough, Libertie, or Towne corporate, shall diligently examine the act or acts, offence or offences aforesaide. And if they the saide two Iustices of Peace shall vpon their said examination finde or perceiue the said person or persons so accused, guiltie of any of the said offence or offences, whereof he or they shall be so accused, and that by two sufficient witnesses, or by his or their owne confession or confessions, that then and immediatly with conuenient speed, the said two Iustices shall commit and award the said person or persons so accused, as is aforesaid, to the Gaole, of, or for the said shire, citie, borough, libertie, or towne corporate, where the said offence or offences was so committed, made, or done, there to remaine without baile or mainprise, by the space of three moneths then next ensuing, and further to the next quarter Sessions, to be holden within the said shire, city, borough, libertie, or towne corporate next after the end of the said iij. moneth, at which quarter Sessions, the said person or persons so committed to gaole, as is aforesaid, vpon his or their reconciliation, and repentaunce in that behalfe, before the saide Iustices of Peace at the said Sessions, shall be delivered and discharged out of prison and gaole, vpon sufficient surety of his good Abearing and behauiour, to bee then and there taken by the saide Iustices, for one whole yeare then next ensuing, as by the discretion or discretions of the said Iustices then & there being, or of the more part of them shall be thought meet and conuenient. And if the said person or persons so in gaole, as is aforesaid, will not be reconciled and repent at the said quarter sessions, that then the said person or persons immediatly in time conuenient, shall be further awarded, and committed to the said gaole by the said Iustices, or by the more part of them, there to remaine without baile or mainprise, vntill hee or they so committed and awarded to gaole, as is aforesaid, shall be reconciled and be penitent for his or their said offence or offences. And be it &c. That if any person or persons at any time or times, after the said twentieth day of December, of their own authority and power willingly, & vnlawfully doe rescue any offender or offenders so apprehended, taken or arrested, as is aforesaid, or will disturbe, hinder, or let the sayd offender or offenders so offending, as is aforesaid, to be apprehended, taken, or arrested, that then euery one of the said rescuers or disturbers, shal suffer like imprisonment as is aforesaid, and further shal pay, forfeit, and lose for a Fine, for euery of his or their sayd offences fiue pounds, to the Queenes Maiestie, her heyres and successors. And be it &c. That if any of the offenders aforesaid be not taken, apprehended or arrested immediatly in time conuenient, as is aforesaid, but doe escape or goe away, that then the said escape shall be lawfully presented before the Iustices of peace in the said shire, city, borough, liberty, or towne corporate, at the next quarter sessions, to be holden where the sayd escape was made and suffered, and that the inhabitants of the parish where the sayd escape was so suffered, shall forfeit and lose to the Queenes Maiestie, her heyres and successors, for euery such escape fiue pounds, to be leuyed and taken, as other like amerciaments and fines before this time hath and beene leuied and taken vpon any village, hundred, or towne, for the escape of any murtherer, or other felon for not making pursuit vpon Huy and Crie, according to the Statute of Winchester, (before in Robberies 2.) and the statute made and prouided in the third yere of the worthy King Henry the seuenth, (before in Murder 2.) And be it &c. That all and singular Iustices of Peace, Iustices of Assise, Iustices of Oyer and Determiner, and all and singular Maiors, Baylifes, and Iustices of Peace within any citie, borough or towne corporate in any parts within this Realme, within the Limits of their Commission or Commissions, shall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this Act, after the said twentieth day of December, to enquire of all and singular the offences and misdemeanours aforesaid, and to heare and determine the same, and set the Fines and Amerciaments of the said offender or offenders as is aforesaid. Prouided allways, and be it &c. That this Act, or any thing therein contained, contained shall not in any wise extend to abrogate and take away the authoritie, iurisdiction, power, and punishments of the Ecclesiastical lawes, now standing and remaining in their, or for the punishment of any the offences and misdemeanors aforesayd: but the authoritie, power, iurisdictions and punishments of the sayd Ecclesiastical Lawes, of and for any of the offences and misdemeanors aforesaid, shall stand in full power and strength, and to be vsed and exercised in all and euery thing, as though this act had neuer beene had and made; This present act, or any thing therein contayned to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding. Prouided allwayes, and be &c. that whatsoeuer person offending the premisses, shall for any of the offences afore recited, receiue punishment of the ordinary, hauing testimoniall thereof, vnder the sayd Ordinaries Seale, shall not for the same offence eftsoones be conuicted before the Justice, and in likewise receiuing for the sayd offences punishment by the Justice, he shal not for the same offence eftsoones receiue punishment of the Ordinarie: Any thing in this act to the contrary notwithstanding. An. 1. M. 1. parl. cap. 3. Consider well vpon the last clause of the Stat. 1. E. c. 2. here following, how much of this statute is now repealed.

6. Where at the death of King Edward the first there remained one vniforme order of common seruice and administration of Sacraments, set forth in a booke intituled, the book of common prayer &c. authorised by act of parliament An. 5. E. 6. (before) 3. the which was repealed in An. 1. M. par. 1. c. 2. to the great decay of the due honour of God, and discomfort to the professors of ỹ truth of Christian religion: Be it enacted by the authority of this present parliament, that the said estatute of repeale, & euery thing therin contayned, only concerning the said book, & the seruice, administratiõ of sacramẽts, rites, & ceremonies, contained or appointed, in or by the said book, shalbe void, & of none effect, from & after the feast of the Natiuity of S. John Baptist next comming. And that the said book, with the order of seruice, and of the administration of sacraments, rites, & ceremonies, with the alteration & additions therin added & apointed by this estatut, shall stand & be from & after the said feast of the Natiuity of S. John Baptist, in full force & effect, according to the tenor and effect of this estatute: anything in the foresayde statute of repeale to the contrary notwithstanding. And further be it enacted &c. that all and singular Ministers in any Cathedrall or parish Church, or other place within this Realm of England, Wales, and the marches of the same, or other the Queenes dominions, shal from and after the feast of the Natiuity of Saint John Baptist next comming be bounden to vse, and say the Mattens, Euensong, celebration of the Lords supper, and administration of ech of the Sacraments, and all their common and open prayer, in such order and forme, as is mentioned in the said booke so authorised by parliament, in the said fifth and first yere of the raign of King Edward the first with one alteration or addition of certaine lessons to be vsed on euery Sunday in the yere, and the forme of the Litanie altered and corrected, and two sentences only added in the deliuery of the sacraments to the communicants, and none other, or otherwise. And that if any maner of Parson, Vicar, or other whatsoeuer Minister, that ought or should sing or say common prayer mentioned in the said booke, or minister the Sacraments, from and after the feast of the natiuitie of S. John Baptist next comming, refuse to vse the said common prayers, or to minister the Sacraments in such Cathedrall or Parish Church, or other places, as he should vse to minister the same, in such order & forme as they be mentioned and set forth in the sayd book, or shall wilfully or obstinately standing in the same, vse any other rite, ceremonie, order, forme or maner of celebrating the Lords Supper, openly or priuily, or Mattens, Euensong, administration of the Sacraments or other open Prayers then is mentioned and set forth in the said booke, (Open prayer in and thorowout this Act, is meant that prayer which is for other to come vnto, or heare, either in common Churches or priuy Chappels, or oratories, commonly called the seruice of the Church) or shall preach, declare or speak any thing in the derogation or deprauing of the saide Book, or any thing therein contained, or of any part thereof, and shall be thereof lawfully conuicted, according to the Lawes of this Realme, by verdict of twelue men, or by his owne confession, or by the notorious euidence of the fact, shall lose and forfeit to the Queens highnes, her heirs & successors, for his first offence, the profit of all his spirituall benefices or promotion, comming or arising in one whole yeare next after his conuiction. And also that that the person so conuicted, shall for the same offence suffer imprisonment by the space of 6. moneths, without baile or mainprise. And if any such person once conuict of any offence concerning the premisses, shal after his first conuiction, eftsoones offend, & be therof in forme aforesaid lawfully conuict: that then the same person shall for his second offence suffer imprisonment by the space of one whole yere, and also shall be therefore depriued ipso facto, of all his spirituall promotions: And that it shal be lawfull to all Patrons or Donors of all and singular the same Spirituall Promotions, or any of them, to present or collate to the same, as though the person or persons so offending were dead. And that if any such person or persons, after he shall be twice conuicted in forme afore said, shall offend againſt any of the premisses the third time, and that be therof in forme aforesayd lawfully conuicted: that then the person so offending and conuicted the third time, shall be deprined ipso facto, of all his Spirituall Promotions, and also shall suffer Imprisonment during his life. And if the person that shall offend, and be conuicted in forme aforesayd, concerning any of the premisses shall not be benefited, nor haue any Spirituall Promotion: that then the same person so offending & conuicted, shall for the first offence suffer imprisonment during one whole yeare next after his sayd conuiction, without baile or mainprise. after your discretions. And therefore I command you, that at certain dates and places, whē & where you or six of you, whereof the said A. B. and C. to be three, shall think expedient, ye do survey the said walles, fences, ditches, banks, gutters, gotes, sewers, tailles, ponds, bridges, rivers, streames, wallcourses, mills, locks, trenches, highwaths, flodgates, & other the lets, impediments, & annoyances aforesaid, and accomplish, fulfill, heare and determine all and singular the premisses, in due form, and to the effect aforesayd, after your good discretions. And all such as ye shal find negligent, gainsaying, or rebelling in the said workes, reparations, or reformation of the premisses, or negligent in the due execution of this our Commission, that ye doe compell them by distres, fines, and amerciaments, or by other punishments, waies, or meanes, which to you, or six of you, whereof the said A. B. and C. shal be three, shal seeme most expedient for the speedy remedie, redresse, and reformation of the premisses, & due execution of the same. And all such things as by you shall be made void, and ordaines in this behalfe, as well within liberties as without, that ye doe cause the same firmely to be observed, doing therein as to our Justices appertained, after the Lawes and Statutes of this our Realme, and according to your wisedome and discretions. Saued alwayes to vs such fines and amerciaments as to vs the cesse shall belong. And we also command our shirife or shirifes of our said Countie or Counties of that they shal cause to come before you, or six of you, of the which A. B. and C. shall be three, at such dayes and places as ye shall appoint to the, such and as many honest men of his or their baliwicke as well within the liberties as without, by whom the truth may be best known, to enquire of the premisses. Commanding also all other Ministers & officers as well within liberty, as without, y they and every of them shall be attendant to you in & about the due execution of this our Commission. day of in the yere of our raign. And it is also enacted, y every such person as shall be named commissioner in the said commission, after he hath knowledge therof, shall effectually put his diligence and attendance in and about the execution of the said Commission. And before he shall take upon him the execution of the sayd Commission, he shall take a corporall Othe before the L. Chauncelor, or before such to whom the said L. Chauncelor shall direct the Kings Writ of Dedimus potestatem, to take the same, or before the Justices of the Peace in the quarter Sessions holden in the Shire where such Commission shall bee directed: the tenor of which oath hereafter ensueth. Ye shall sweare, that you to your cunning, wit, and power, shall truely and indifferently execute the authoritie to you given by this Commission of Sewers, without any favour, affection, corruption, dread or malice to be borne to any manner person or persons: And as the case shall require, ye shall consent and endevour your self for your part to the best of your knowledge and power, to the making of such wholesome, mete, equall, and indifferent lawes and ordinances, as shall be made and devised by the most discreet and indifferent number of your fellowes being in Commission with you for the due tenuelle, reformation, and amendment of all and every such things as are contained and specified in the said Commission. And the same lawes & ordinances to your cunning, wit, & power, cause to be put in due execution, without fauor, meed, dread, malice, or affections, as God you helpe and all Saints. And it is also &c. That all and every Statutes, Act, and Ordinance heretofore made concerning the premisses, or any of them, as well in the time of our Soueraigne Lord the King that now is, as in the time of any of his progenitors, Kings of this Realme of England, not being contrarie to this present Act, not heretofore repealed, from hencefoorth shall stand and be good and effectuall for euer, and be put in due execution, according to the true meaning and purport of the same. And over that, be it &c. That the Commissioners hereafter to be named in any of the sayd Commissions, according to the purport and effect of the same Commissions, haue full power and authoritie to make, constitute, and ordaine lawes, ordinances, and decrees, and further to doe all and every thing mentioned in the sayd Commission, according to the purport, effect, words, and true meaning of the same. And the same lawes and ordinances so made to reforme, repeale, and amend, and make new from time to time, as the cases necessarie shall require in that behalfe. Prouided alway, and it is &c. That if any person or persons being assessed or taxed to any lot or charge for any lands, tenements, and hereditaments, within the limits of any Commission hereafter to directed, doe not pay the said lot and charge, according to the ordinance and assignement of the Commissioners, having power of the execution of the sayd Commission: By reason whereof it shall happen the said Commissioners having power of execution of such Cōmission, for lacke of payment of such lot & charge to decree and ordaine the same lands, tenements, and hereditaments, from the owner or owners thereof, and their heires, and the heires of euerie of them, to any person or persons for terme of yeares, terme of life, in fee simple or in taile, for payment of the same lot and charge, that then euerie such decree and ordinance so by them made, ingrossed in parchment, and certified vnder their Seales into the Kings Court of Chauncerie, with the Kings royall assent had to the same, shall bind all and euerie person and persons that at the making of the same decree, had any interest in such lands, and tenements, or hereditaments, in vse, possession, reuertion, or remainder, their heires and feoffees, and euerie of them, and not to be in any wise reformed, vnlesse it be by authoritie of Parliament hereafter to be summoned and holden within the Realme. And also it is further enacted, That the same lawes or ordinances and decrees to be made and ordained by the said Commissioners, or six of them, by authoritie of the said Commission, shall bind as well the lands, tenements, and hereditaments

And it is &c. That if any manner of person or persons, of what estate or degree soeuer he or they be of, that from hencefoorth doth take vpon him or them to sit by vertue of any the said Commissions, not being sworne in forme aforesaid, and according to the tenor of the oath afore specified: or if any person so named and sworne, doe sit as is aforesaid, not hauing lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, in fee simple, fee taile, or for terme of life, to the cleere yerely value of fortie markes, aboue all charges, to his own vse, except he be resiant and free of any Citie, Borough, or Towne corporat, and haue moueable substance of the cleere yearely value of an hundred pounds, or else be learned in the Lawes of this Realme, in and concerning the same, that is to say, admitted in one of the foure principall Innes of Court for an Vtter barrester, shall forfeit fortie pounds for euerie time that he shall attempt so to doe. The one halfe thereof to be to the king, and the other halfe thereof to be to the vse of him or them that will sue &c. in which action or suit no wager of Law, &c. And if any action of trespasse or other suit shall happen to be attempted against any person or persons, for taking of any distresse, or any other act doing by authoritie of the said Commission, or by authoritie of any lawes or ordinances made by vertue of the said Commission, the defendant or defendants in any such action, shall & may make auowrie, cognisance, or iustification, for the taking of the same distresse or other act doing, touching the premisses, or any of them, alledging in such auowrie, cognisance, or iustification, that the said, distresse, trespasse, or other act, whereof the plaintife complained, was done by authority of the Commission of Sewers, for lot or tare assessed by the said Commission, or for such other act, or cause as the said defendant did by authoritie of the sayd Commission, and according to the tenor, purport and effect of this present Act made the three & twentieth yeare of the raigne of our Soueraigne Lord king Henrie the eight, without any expressing or rehearsall of any other matter or circumstance contained in this present Act, or any Commission, Lawes, Estatutes, or Ordinances thereupon to bee made, whereupon the plaintife shall be admitted to replie, that the defendant did take the said distresse, or doe any other act or trespasse supposed in his declaration of his owne wrong, without any such cause alledged by the said defendant, whereupon the issue in euerie such action shall be ioyned to be tried by verdict of twelue men, and not otherwise, as is accustomed in other personall actions. And vpon the triall of that issue the whole matter to be giuen on both parties in euidence, according to the verie truth of the same. And after such issue tried for the defendant, or nonsuit of the plaintife after appearance, the same defendant to recouer treble dammages, by reason of his wrongfull vexation in that behalfe, with his costs also in that part sustained, and that to be assessed by the same Iurie, or writ, to enquire of the dammages, as the same shall require. And it is &c. That euerie of the said Commissioners shall haue and receiue foure shillings for euery day that they shall take paine in the execution of this Commission of Sewers. And one Clerke by them to be assigned two shillings for euerie day, of the rates, tares, lots, and waines that shall be assessed, or lost, by authoritie of the sayd Commission, and to be leuied and payed by their discretions. And that the said Commissioners, or six of them, shall haue power and authoritie to limit and assigne of the same rates, tares, lots, and waines, by their discretions, such reasonable summes of money to the said Clerke, for writing of Bookes and Proces concerning the premisses, and to ỹ Collectors, Expenditors, & such other as shall take paine in the due execution of the said Commission, as by the discretions of the said Commissioners, or six of them, shall be thought reasonable. Prouided alway, That whensoeuer and as often as such Commission as is afore limited, shall be made and directed to any person or persons, for the reformation and amendment of or in any of the premisses specified in the said Commission, within the fees, liberties, or possession of the Duchie of Lancaster, that then such Commissioners as shall execute any such Commission, shal be alwayes named and appointed by the discretion of the Lord Chauncellor, and Lord Treasorer of England, and the said two chiefe Iustices of either Bench, and the Chauncellor of the said Duchie for the time being, or three of them, whereof the sayd Lord Chancellor, and the Chancellor of the Duchie to be two. And that in euerie such case two Commissions shal be awarded and made according to the tenor of the Commission aboue expressed, one thereof vnder the great Seale of England, and the other vnder the Seale of the same Duchie, as before time haue been accustomed, Any thing afore rehearsed in this present Act to the contrarie hereof notwithstanding. And it is further enacted, That the said Commissions from time to time as the case shal require, shall be had and obtained without any money or other charge to be payed for the Seals or writings of the same, vnlesse it be to the king, two shillings sixpence, for the Seale of euerie Commission as hath beene accustomed: And for the writing and enrolling of any one Commission fiue shillings, and not aboue. And it is &c. That euerie Commission to be made by authoritie of this Act, shall endure and continue for the terme of three yeares next after the Teste of the Commission. Neuerthelesse after any Commissiõ made and deliuered out of the Kings Court of the Chauncerie, the Kings Highnesse shall alwayes at his pleasure by his writ of Supersedeas, out of the said Court of Chancerie, at any time discharge as wel euery such Commission, as euerie Commissioner that shalbe made or named by authoritie of this Act. Prouided alwayes, That such Lawes, Acts, Decrees, and Ordinances, as shall happen to be made by the said Commissioners, according to the tenor of their Commission, or by authoritie of this Act, shall stand good and effectuall, and be put in due execution so long time as their Commission endureth, and no longer: Except the said Lawes and Ordinances bee made and ingrossed in parchment, and certified vnder the Seales of the sayd Commissioners into the Kings Court of Chauncerie, and then the Kings royall assent be had to the same: Any thing contained in this present Act to the contrarie hereof notwithstanding. Prouided also, That whensoeuer and as often as such Commission as is before limited, shall be made and directed to any person or persons, for the reformation and amendment of or in any of the premisses specified in the said Commission, within the fées, liberties, and possessions of the Principality of Wales, the Countie Palantine of Chester, or within the fées, liberties, and possessions of any other place where there is libertie and iurisdiction of Countie Palantine, that in euerie such case two Commissions shall be awarded and made according to the tenor of the Commission aboue expressed, one thereof vnder the great Seale of England, and the other vnder the vsuall Seale of the Countie Palantine, in manner and forme as is aboue prouided for the Duchie of Lancaster, Any thing afore rehearsed in this present Act to the contrary notwithstanding. And it is enacted, That the royall assent limited to be had vnto the Lawes and ordinances to be made by the sayd Commissioners, as is aboue sayd, shall bée certified into the said Court of Chancerie, vnder the Kings priuie Seale. And that there shall not any summe of money bee payed for the same Priuie Seale, but for the writing of the same Certificate vnder the said priuie Seale, shall be payed to the writer thereof two shillings, and not aboue, nor no other, nor greater summe, for any thing touching or concerning the same Certificate vnder the same priuie Seale. Prouided alway, That the Chauncellors and such other as shall haue the custody of the Seals of the said Principalitie of Wales, or the Countie Palantine of Chester, or within the fée, libertie, and possessions of any other place, where there is libertie and iurisdiction of Countie Palantine, vpon reasonable request, and vpon the sight of the Commission vnder the Kings great Seale of his Chauncerie, shall without delay make out another Commission vnder the Seale of the sayd Countie Palantine, according to the tenor of the Kings Commission, to them shewed vnder his great Seale: And to those Commissioners as shall bee named by the Lord Chauncellor, Lord Treasorer, and the two chiefe Iustices, or by three of them, whereof the Lord Chauncellor to be one, except it bee within the fées and liberties of the Duchie of Lancaster, within which fées & liberties the Commissioners shall bée named, and Commissions be made, as is afore ordained by this Act, Any thing contained in the said Act, or in any Proviso thereunto added and annexed, to the contrarie thereof notwithstanding. This Act to endure for twentie yeares. Ann 23.H.8.ca.5. This Act is made perpetuall Ann 3. E.6.ca.8. as here following 10. appeareth, altered 12. by 13.Eliz.ca.9.

9 The Act late made for Sewers, and the Commission therein recited, shall be extended, vsed, and put in execution, in the Towne and Marches of Calice, according to the tenor of the same Commission in like effect, as it is enacted to be put in execution within this Realme, and that no person shall be compelled to be sworne or otherwise bound to sit or trauell in execution of any Commission of Sewers within this Realme, vnlesse that hee bee dwelling within the Countie whereof he is or shall be assigned to be Commissioner: And for Calice, and the said Marches thereof, vnlesse that hee bée dwelling within the same Towne of Calice, or Marches. And because that diuers persons heretofore assigned to bée Commissioners, haue refused to be sworn according to the said former Act, whereby diuers Commissions heretofore made, remaine hitherto without effectual execution: Be it ordained that if any person assigned, or to be assigned to be such Commissioner of Sewers, being required hereafter by such person or persons, as haue or shall haue authoritie, by the Kings writ or otherwise, to receiue or accept the oath comprised in the said former Act, euerie person that so refuseth to take the same oath, or vpon request made doe not receiue the same oath, and that refusall or contempt done in the Chauncerie, or returned into the Chauncerie with the said writ, shall lose and forfeit for the same contempt to the King our Soueraigne Lord fiue markes. And so to loose from time to time fiue markes for euerie such contempt, as shall bée done or returned into the said Chauncerie against any such person, vnlesse that he in the same Chauncerie doe shew and alledge in the said Terme wherein such returne shall be made against him, sufficient and reasonable matter and cause to be allowed by the Lord Chauncellor for his excuse and discharge in that behalfe. 12 Forasmuch as no Commission of Sewers, by the Statutes heretofore made, may haue continuance aboue the space of fiue yeares: Be it therefore enacted by the Queenes most excellent Maiestie, with the assent of the Lords Spirituall & Temporall, and the Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authoritie of the same, That from henceforth all and euerie Commission and Commissions of Sewers, now standing in force, or that hereafter shall be graunted and made, shall stand and continue in force for the terme of tenne yeares, next ensuing the date of euerie such Commission, vnlesse the same Commission or Commissions be, or hereafter shall be repealed or determined by reason of any new Commission in that behalfe made, or by Supersedeas: And that all such Lawes, Ordinances, and constitutions, as be, or shall be duely made by force of any such Commission, according to the tenor and effect limited in any former Statute heretofore made, touching Commission or Commissions of Sewers, and being written in Parchment indented, and vnder the Seales of the said Commissioners, or six of them, whereof the one part shall remaine with the Clerk appointed, and to be appointed for the Commission of Sewers for the time being, & the other part in such place as the same Commissioners, or six of them, shall order and appoint: shall without any Certificate thereof to be made into the Court of Chauncerie, and without the royall assent to the same had, stand and continue in full force and effect, notwithstanding any determination of any such Commission by Supersedeas, vntill such time as the same Lawes, Constitutions, and Ordinances shall be altered, repealed, or made void, by the Commissioners after to be assigned and appointed for Sewers, in those parts where the same Lawes, Ordinances, and Constitutions were made, ordained, and constituted, or by six of them. And bee it further enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, That at all times from and after the end and expiration of the terme of tenne yeares next ensuing the date or Teste of any Commission of Sewers hereafter to be made, all such Lawes, Ordinances, and Constitutions, as were made by vertue of any such Commission, and written in parchment indented, and sealed as is aboue mentioned, without Certificate thereof, or the assent royall to the same had, as is aforesaid, shall, notwithstanding the determination of any such Commission, by the expiration of the terme of tenne yeares, next ensuing the date of any such Commission of Sewers, likewise continue in force, for and by the space of one whole yeare then next ensuing: And that the Iustices of Peace of the Shire and Shires, where the same Lawes, Ordinances, and Constitutions are to bee executed within their seuerall Commissions, and limits, or six of them, whereof two be of the Quorum, shall haue power and authoritie by the space of one whole yeare next after the expiration of euerie such Commission, to execute the same Lawes, Ordinances, and Constitutions, and euerie of them, as fully and in as ample manner and forme, as the Commissioners, or any of them, named and appointed in euerie or any Commission so expired, might or should haue done, to all intents and purposes, as if the said Commission or Commissions had continued in force. Prouided alwayes, and be it neuertheless enacted, That if any new Commission of Sewers shall be made within the sayd yeare, that then immediately from and after such Commission newly made and published, that the power of the said Iustices of peace, and euerie of them, in any wise concerning the execution of any such Lawes, Ordinances, and Constitutions of Sewers, shall vtterly cease: Any thing or things in this Act to the contrarie expressed in any wise not-

And be it further enacted, That no farmer or farmers, for terme of yeares of any manors, lands, or tenements, lying or being within the precincts or limits of any such commission of Sewers, which be, or hereafter may be ordered, and chargeable by any Lawes, Ordinances, or Constitutions, made or to be made by vertue of any such Commission, wherein he or they shall be named or appointed Commissioner or Commissioners, not having estate of freehold within the Realme of England, of, or in manors, lands, tenements, of the yearely value of fortie pounds, shall at any time hereafter, have power to sit, or in any wise intermeddle with the execution of such Commission or Commissions, during the time hee or they shall continue, or be such farmer or farmers of any such manors, lands, or tenements, and shal not haue estate of freehold, as is aforesaid: But that euerie such Commission, as having respect only to euerie such person or persons, for such and so long time as he or they shall so be and continue farmer or farmers of any such manors, lands, or tenements, shall be deemed and adiudged in Law to be as void, and of none effect: Any thing in the same Commission, or any Statute or Law heretofore made to the contrarie notwithstanding. And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, That from henceforth the said Commissioners, nor any of them shall not be compelled, nor compellable to make any Certificate or returne of the sayd Commissions, or any of them, or any of their Ordinances, Lawes, or doings, by the authoritie of anie the said Commissions, or shall not haue any fine, paine, or amerciament set vpon them, or any of them, or anis wayes to be molested in body, lands, or goodes, for that cause. And yet neuerthelesse, to the intent the Queenes Maiestie our Soueraigne Lady, her heyres and successors, may be at all times hereafter truely answered of all such issues, fines, and amerciaments, as shall happen, grow, or be forfeited by vertue of anie such commission, or by the execution thereof. Be it also enacted, that the Clerke and Clerks appoynted, and hereafter to be appoynted, for, and in any such Commission or Commissions of Sewers, shall yerely truely estreat all the said issues, fines, penalties, forfeitures, and amerciaments, that shall be due and answerable to her Highnesse, her heires and successors, and the same estreats shall yearely deliuer into the Court of the Eschequer, at such time and times, and in such manner and forme, as Iustices assigned, to, and for the conseruation of the Peace in any wise should or ought to doe by vertue of their Commission, vpon paine to forfeit to our Soueraigne Lady the Queene, her heyres and successours, for euerie default in that behalfe made, fiue pounds. Prouided alwayes, That it shall be lawfull for any Commissioner, being also farmer, and not hauing lands and tenements, to the clere yearely value of forty pounds of freehold, to sit by vertue of the said Commission, and haue his voyce and full authoritie of others, to make and establish ordinances for Sewers, according to the tenour of the Commission, touching and concerning all Lands and Tenements within the Precinct of euery Commission, other then such Lands and Tenements, as he or they for the time being, holde and enioy as farmer, as hee or they might haue done before the making of this statute: any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding. Prouided also, That That if any person by his last Will and Testament giue to any child within age, any number of sheepe, and appoint them by his said Will, to be kept by his executors, or by any other person, vnto such time as the sayd child shall come to a certaine age, limited by his Will, That then in euerie such case after the death of the Testator, the said sheepe so being in the possession and occupation of the executors, or of any other person to the vse of any such child within the age that he shal be limited to haue the said sheepe, by the Will of the Testator, shall not be accounted against the said executors, nor any person so hauing the said sheepe, for the intent aforesaid, any of the number of the sheepe prohibited by this Act: Any thing in this Act to the contrarie thereof notwithstanding. And be it &c. That the Iustices of the Peace of euerie Shire, shall haue power and authoritie to inquire of the offendors of this Act, as well by the oathes of twelue men, as by information of any of the Kings subiects, and to make such like Proces vpon euerie presentment or information concerning this Act, as they vse commonly to doe vpon presentments before them of trespasse. And that no person being conuict by confession, or otherwise, that he hath done or attempted contrarie to this Act, shall be put to any lesse fine then after the rates of the forfeitures afore limited by this Act. Prouided alwayes, That no person shall bee put to any answer, or losse of any forfeiture by vertue of this Act, at the suit of any of the Kings subiects, by any originall writ of debt, bill, plaint, or information, except the suit be commenced within one yeare next after the offence done or committed contrarie to this Act: Nor that any person shall be put to aunswer, nor to any losse of any forfeiture by vertue of this Act, by reason of any presentment action, or information, at the Kings suit, except the same presentment, action, or information, be had and made for the King, within three yeares next after the offence done or committed. Prouided alway, That all and euerie person and persons, being the Kings Tenor all subiects of this Realme, and borne vnder his obeisance, which at this present time, or at any time hereafter shall haue or bee seised of inheritance, in possession or in vse, or that now hath, or hereafter shall haue ioynture in vse or in possession, or be, or shall be tenant in dower, or by the courtesie of England, of, or in any manors, lands, tenements, pastures, feedings, or libertie of foldage, within any part of this Realme of England, Wales, or the Marches of the same, that euerie such person and persons, hauing any such possession to his owne vse, and euerie such person and persons to whose vse any other person or persons now is, or be, or hereafter shall be seised of any such estate as is before rehearsed, may at all times hereafter haue, enioy, keepe, and maintayne vpon the same their owne demeane lands, and all other their pastures, feedings, and foldcourses which they so haue, as many their owne sheepe and lambes in number, to their owne proper vse, profit, and behoofe, as they or any of them of right had, or lawfully might haue had and kept vpō the lands, or vpon any part thereof, at any time before the making of this present Act: This Act or any thing therein contained or specified, to the contrarie in any wise notwithstanding. And ouer that be it &c. by the authoritie aforesaid, That in case any such person or persons, hauing any such estate in vse or in possession, of, or in any manors, lands, tenements, pastures, feedings, or liberties of foldcourses, as is before expressed, haue, or doe keepe vpon the same their possessions, the number of two thousand sheepe or aboue, the same person or persons so hauing the number of two thousand sheepe or aboue, shall not in any wise keepe, sustaine, or haue any sheepe aboue, or beside the said number of two thousand, vpon any lands, pastures, or feedings, which the same person or persons haue, or hereafter shall haue or take in farme, or otherwise, vpon such like paines and forfeitures for the same, as bee limited in the said Act: that is to say, for euerie sheepe ouer and aboue the sayd number of two thousand, three shillings foure pence. Prouided alway, and be it &c. That it shall be lawfull to euerie person or persons within this Realme, keeping a household, to haue from time to time such conuenient number of sheepe, ouer and aboue the number expressed in this Act, as shall be necessarie for the onely expences of his household, to be prouided, kept, and fed, in, and vpon his owne lands, or other lands, such as he lawfully can or may, or prouide for, in farme or otherwise: Any thing in this present Act contained to the contrarie notwithstanding. So that the same householder at no time shall haue or keepe for the expences of his household, or by colour of the same, ouer and aboue the number to him limited by this Act, any number of sheepe moe then shall suffice for the onely expences of his household for one yere, without fraud or couin: Any thing in this present Act mentioned or expressed to the contrarie notwithstanding. Beit &c. That no manner person or persons, of what degree soeuer he or they be, being Lord or Lords, owner or owners, farmer or farmers, of, or in any libertie of foldcourses within any Town, Tithing, Village, or Hamlet, within any of the Counties of Norfolke and Suffolke, from and after the feast of the Natiuitie of our Lord God next comming, shall take in farme for terme of yeres, or otherwise, any quillets of lands or pastures, that is to say, any number of acres of land or pasture, appertaining to any other person or persons, lying and being within the limit, extent, or precinct of the said libertie of the said foldcourses, but that they shall permit and suffer the said persons, hauing or being for the time owner and owners, lessee or lessees of the said quillets, to manure and pasture the said quillets. And also to suffer the sheepe of the said owner or owners, farmer or farmers of the said quillets, after the rate of the same quillets to goe with the flocke of the owner, farmer, or occupier of the said libertie or liberties of the said foldcourses, paying the customarie charges for the keeping and feeding of the same, after the rate and vse of the countrey there commonly vsed, without any interruption therein to bee made by the said owner or owners, farmer or farmers, or occupiers of the sayd libertie, vpon paine of forfeiture for euerie time that any such person hauing any such quillet that shall be so letted or disturbed of feeding, keeping, or pasturing any of his sheepe so to be fed and kept after the rate of his sayd quillet, for euerie such sheepe three shillings and foure pence. Prouided alway, That this Act or anything concerning quillets, or any thing therein contayned, shall not in any wise be auailable to any tenant, owner, or occupier of any such quillet, or quillets, to claime, haue, or vse hereafter any such pasture or feeding of sheepe, in, or with any such foldcourses, but onely where the tenants, owners, and occupiers of any such quillets, haue had, or might haue had heretofore of right and duetie vsed to haue pasture and feeding in the sayd foldcourses, by reason of their tenure and occupations of the same quillet or quillets, and none otherwise. And where they haue not vsed, ne ought to haue any sheepe fed or kept within any such fold courses, Foldcourses by reason of the sayd tenures, that the owners or occupyers of such foldcourses may take such quillets lying within their foldcourses in farme, agreeing with the owners or occupiers of the sayd quillets for the same. And forasmuch as the hundred of sheepe in euerie countrey be not like, in some countrey the great hundred where fiue score is accounted for the hundred, and some countrey but onely fiue score, it is eft declared by this present Act, that the number of two thousand sheepe, limited to euerie person by this Act, shall be accounted tenne hundred for euerie thousand, after the number of the great hundred, Thousand and not after the lesse hundred, so that euery thousand shall containe twelue hundred, after the lesse number of the hundred. It is &c. That Lambes vnder the age of one whole yeare, and Lambes as much as shall be from the time of the falling of them, vnto the Feast of the Natiuitie of Saint Iohn Baptist, in any yeare to come, shall not be adiudged ne taken for sheepe prohibited by the Statute: Any thing in the Act to the contrarie notwithstanding. It is &c. That no manner of person after the sayd Feast of the Natiuitie of our Lord, shall receiue or take to farme for terme Farme of life, yeares, or at will, by Indenture, Copie of Court roll, or otherwise, any moe houses and Houses tenements of husbandrie, whereunto any lands Tenements are belonging in Towne, Village, Hamlet, or Tithing within this Realme, aboue the number of two such holds or tenements. And that no maner person shal haue or occupy any such holds so newly taken to the number of two, as is before expressed, except he or they be dwelling within the same Parishes where such holds be, vpon the paine of forfeiture for euerie worke that he or they shall Forf. haue, occupie, or take any profits of such holdes, contrarie to this Act, three shillings & foure pence. The one moity of which forfeiture to be to the king Moity our Soueraigne Lord, and the other moitie to the partie that will sue for the same in any of the Kings Courts, by bill, plaint, information, or otherwise, within one yeare next after such contempt and offence committed & done, in the which none essoine, protection, ne wager of law shall be admitted or allowed. It is also &c. That the Statute made in Statutes the fourth yeare of the noble Prince King Henrie the seuenth (capit. 19. which is in Husbandrie 1.) and in the seuenth yeare of the raigne of our Soueraigne Lord the King that now is (capit. 1. which is in Husbandry 2.) concerning the decay of townes, and maintenance of tillage & husbandrie, Tillage Husbandrie shalbe good and effectuall in euerie thing, according to the purport and intent of the same: Any thing in this present Act to the contrarie notwithstanding. Prouided also, That it may be lawfull to all Spi- Spirituall rituall persons, and euerie of them, to keepe such persons and as many sheepe vpon their own lands, and after such forme and maner, and none otherwise, as they might haue done afore the making of this Act: any thing mentioned in the same to the contrarie notwithstanding. An 25.H.8.cap.13.

this Realme, and the Dominions of the same, that the owners of Ships, their Maisters, Mariners, Seamen, Shipwrights, and great multitude of other his Graces subiects, be greatly impouerished, to their extreame losses and damages, whereby no little detriment and decay hath, and is likely to ensue to the Nauie of this his Graces Realme of England, and the Dominions thereof: For reformation whereof his Royall Maiestie of his most excellent wisedome and policie, foreseeing the discommoditie as well of his said Nauie, as of the people, and with most godly mind intending as well the Commonwealth of his Graces said Nauie and people, as also the successe and effect of the said commaundement, doth enact by his most royall assent, and by the assent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and of the Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authoritie of the same, That from henceforth all and euerie person and persons, that is or be Strangers or Aliens borne out of this Realme of England, or in any other place out of our said Soueraigne Lord the Kings obeysance, being Denizens, or not Denizens, their Factors, Atturneyes, Ministers, and Seruants, that at any time hereafter doe lade, or shal cause to be laden, any wares, goods, or marchãdises, of what kind, nature, or qualitie soeuer it bee, in any ship, bottome, or vessell of this Realme of England, commonly called an English ship, bottome, or vessell, during the time of the said Proclamation contained, shall not be compelled to pay, or cause to be paied any other custome or subsidie, but onely according to the said proclamation. And in case that any Stranger or Alien, borne out of this Realme of England, or other our Soueraigne L. the Kings obeisance, being Denizen or not Denizen, at any time hereafter, fraight or lade, or cause to be fraighted or laden, any ship, bottome, or vessell, of any stranger or outlandish person, with any wares or marchandises from this Realme of England, to any outward parts, that then the same stranger or Alien shall content and pay, or cause to be contented and paid to the King our Soueraigne Lord, his heires and successors, all such and like customes and subsidies, as strangers and aliens borne in other Realmes, haue vsed to pay, according to the auncient customes, vsages, and lawes of this Realme of England: Any thing in this present Act, or in the said Proclamation contained to the contrarie thereof in any wise notwithstanding. Prouided alwayes, That if there be no such ship or vessell of this Realme of England, or the Dominions of the same, at, or in the Port, Hauen, or place where the said strangers, aliens, or denizens, their seruants, or factors, would fraight and lade their wares and marchandise toward the outward regions: That then if the said Strangers or Denizens, their Factors, Atturneyes, or Seruants, before he or they doe lade, fraight, or conuey the same goods, wares, commodities, or marchandises, into any strange or strangers ship or vessell, doe notifie and declare the same lacke or want of English ships and vessels, vnto the Lord High Admiral of England for the time being, or his Lieutenant, Deputie or Deputies, if that any of them bee resiant, at, or in the same Port or place of lading, or if the said Lord high Admirall, ne any such his Lieutenant, Deputie or Deputies, be not resiant, at, or in the said Port or place, then if they make notice or declaration thereof to the Customer or Comptroller of the same Port or Hauen, or to their Deputie or Deputies, and doe obtaine, or cause a certificate to be made vnder the Seale of him, to whom such notice or declaration is made, of lacke of English ships, as is aboue said: That then it shall be lawful to the Strangers and Denizens, their Factors and Atturneyes, for lacke, and wanting of the said English ships and vessels, to fraight and lade the said wares and marchandises in any strange ship or vessell at the time being in the same Port or Hauen, and to pay none other subsidies and customes therefore, but as the English Marchants being the Kings naturall subiects, doe vse, and ought to doe by the lawes and customs of this Realme of England: Any article or clause to the contrarie thereof in this present Act contained, in any wise notwithstanding. And further bee it &c. That all and euerie owner and owners, Maister and Maisters, and other Gouernours of English ships or vessels, or any of them, minding and intending to make any voyage or sayling from the Port of London into the parts beyond the Seas with his or their ship or vessell, shall make publick notice and declaration of his or their said mind, and intent of sayling and voyage in writing, and affixe the same writing vnto some post or other open place or places in Lumbard Street, there to remaine by the space of seuen dayes, declaring in the same writing to what place or Port he or they shall so intend to sayle, or make his or their voyage, and of the name of the ship and ships, in the which hee or they intend to saile, to the intent the Marchants may haue perfect knowledge to prepare such wares as they or any of them will haue conueyed into such parts beyond the Seas. And also that the said owner and owners, Maister and Maisters, and other Gouernours, or any of them, intend or make his or their departure from the said Port of London, after the fraighting or lading of the same Shippe or Shippes, at such time and as soone as Wind and Weather will serue, according to the Charter partie to bee made betweene the said Owner or Maister and Marchants, without protract of time. And bee it &c. That the said Owner and Owners, Maister and Maisters, or other Gouernour or Gouernours of Shippes, and euerie of them, to his or their power, and forasmuch as in him or them shall be, shall see and prouide that all Wares and Marchandises, which shall bee by the said Marchants their Factors or Seruants, or any of them, brought into any Shippe or Vessell, shall bee honestly and in good order saued and kept. Prouided alway, and be it &c. That if any Marchant stranger or other, find himselfe aggrieued or damnified by negligent keeping of the said Marchandises or wares, or by long delaying or protracting of the time in taking the voyage by the said owner,

The ſaid Statute (s. An. 4. H. 7. cap. 10. before 8.) or any thing therein contained to the contrarie in any wiſe notwithſtanding. An. 5. E. 6. cap. 18.

12 Be it enacted, That the ſeuerall Acts made in the fifth yeare of King Richard the ſecond, the third Chapter, and in the fourth yeare of the late King of famous memorie, King Henrie the ſeuenth, intituled of Wine and Tholouſe Woad, ſhall be from henceforth clerely voyd and of none effect. And neuertheleſſe for anoyding of great deceit practiſed, and now adayes vſed by ſundrie ſubiects borne within this Realme of England, and Dominions of the ſame, which enter in the Cuſtomers Bookes, wares and marchandiſes of Aliens borne, in their owne name, whereby the Queenes Maieſtie is defrauded in her Cuſtomes and Subſidies, to the great decay of the auncient reuenues of the Crowne: Be it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent Parliament, That all and euerie perſon and perſons being owner or owners of any goods, wares, or marchandiſes, which after the firſt day of Januarie next enſuing the Seſſions of this preſent Parliament, ſhall in time of Peace, and when there is no reſtraint made of Engliſh Ships, embarke, ſhip, lade, or Engliſh Ships diſcharge by way of marchandiſe, any wares or marchandiſe (Waſtraffe, Pitch, Tarre, and Corn, onely excepted) out of, or into any Ship, Barque, Hoy, Veſſell, or Bottome, whereof our ſayd Soueraigne Ladie the Queene, her heires or ſucceſſours, or ſome of her or their ſubiects of this realm, or the Dominions of the ſame be not poſſeſſioners, or proprietaries, and the Maſters vnder God, and the Mariners of the ſame Ship or Ships, for the Mariners moſt part be not ſubiects to our ſaid Soueraigne Ladie, her heires & ſucceſſors, ſhal anſwer, yeeld, and pay to the vſe of our ſaid Soueraigne Lady the Q. her heires & ſucceſſors, ſuch Cuſtome and Subſi- Cuſtome die, for ſuch wares and marchandiſes ſo ſhipped, laden, or diſcharged, as is aforeſaid, rate and rate like, as Strangers and Aliens borne out of the Strangers obeiſance of our ſayd Soueraigne Ladie the Queene Maieſtie, do and ought to pay for wares and marchandiſes of like nature and kind. And be it further ther enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, that noe Hoye or Plat whereof any English subiect or subiects is, be or shalbe Owner or owners, at any time after the first day of Januarie aforesayd, from any Port, Creeke or place of this sayd Realme of England, or any of the Dominions of the same, shall trauerse or crosse the Seas in, to or from any of the Ports beyond the Seas, with any wares, goods or Marchandise, vpon payne that the sayd Owner or Owners shall forfeit and lose the same Hoye or Plat, with all and euery munition, tackling, and other necessaries pertayning thereunto, whereof the one Moytie to bee to the vse and behoofe of the Quenes sayd Maiestie, her heires and successors, & the other Moytie to the person or persons which will sue for the same, by Bill, Plaint, action or Information, in any her Highnesse Courts at Westminster, in which case no wager of Lawe, Protection or Essoine shall bes admitted. Prouided alwayes, and bee it enacted, that it shall be lawfull to the Marchants, commonly called Merchantes aduenturers, and Merchantes of the Staple, and euerie of them, at their seuerall Fleetes and Shippings of Cloth and Wool, and either of them, from and out of the riuer of Thames onely being made twise in one yeare at the most, to embarke, shippe and lade any goods, wares or merchandise, in, or to any Shippe, Vessell or bottome, belonging or appertayning to any stranger or Alien borne, so long and at such time as there be no Shippes, Vessels or Bottomes belonging to the Quenes Highnesse, her heires and successours, or any of her Subiects, in the sayd Riuer of Thames, sufficient in number, and apt and meete for the sure and safe conueyance of the wares and merchandise, into the part of Flaunders, Holland, Zeland or Brabant, or any of them, without paying any greater or more Custome and Subsidie, then Englishmen do & ought to pay, any thing in this Act to the contrarie notwithstanding: This Act to continue and stand in force for the space of fiue yeres onely next immediately following this present Session of Parliament, and from thence to the end of the Parliament then next following. Prouided that for as much as the Merchantes of the City of Bristowe, haue sustayned of late great losses at the Sea by the enemies, by reason of taking of all their best ships, with much substance, so that they be not of abilitie to prouide sufficient Shippes and Vessels of their owne within the time limited in this present Act, that they for lack of their owne Shippes, or any other Vessels of the Quenes Dominions within 40. miles of the Citie of Bristowe, may load & imbarke their owne merchandises in strangers Bottomes, without paying any other custome then for wares & merchandises laden in English bottomes: this act or any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding. Anno 1. Eliz. cap. 14. See here 17.

13 For the better maintenance, and increase of the Nauie of this Realm of England, be it enacted, &c. That from the first day of Aprill, Anno Dom. 1594. and so from thencefoorth, it shal be lawful to all and euerie of the Subiects of our Soueraigne Lady the Quéene, her heires and successours, at his and their will and pleasure to carry and transport out of this Realme, in the Shippes or other vessels of any the Subiects aforesayd, all and euery kindes of Herring and other Sea fish, to be taken vpon the Seas by any of the Subiects aforesayd, any act of Parliament or Lawe to the contrarie notwithstanding. And that all and euery person and persons, which shall by vertue of this act transport or carry any Herrings or other Sea fish, from or out of any Port or Harborow of this Realme, to any place out of the Dominions of the Quenes maiesty, her heires or successours, shall be free from payment of any Custome, Subsidie or poundage money for the same Fish so caried or transported, during the space of foure whole yeares, beginning at the sayd first day of Aprill, 1594. and so further during her Maiesties pleasure. And be it further enacted, that from the first day of May next comming it shall not be lawfull to any person or persons in any Ports, Citie, Towne, Market or other place within this Realme, to set price, make any restraint, or take or demaund toll or tare of any Sea fish to be brought into this Realme, or any part thereof being taken by any of the Subiects aforesayd in the Ships or other Vessels of the same Subiects, vpon payne to euerie person offending contrarie to the meaning hereof, to forfeit the value of the Fish so restrayned, prised, tolled or tared: Any Libertie, Custome, grant, priuiledge or other matter whatsoeuer to the contrarie in any wise notwithstanding. Prouided alwayes, that this present act nor any thing therein contayned, shalbe prejudicial or hurtful to the Maior and Burgesses of the Kings Towne vpon Hull, or their successours Maiors and Burgesses of the same Towne, or to any other Officer, or Minister of the same Towne at any time hereafter, but that they and euery of them may receiue, haue & take all & euery such tolle, customes and summes of money of all and euerie such person & persons as is limited, appointed and set forth by them to bee taken, in an Act of Parliament made in the three and thirtieth yere of the Raigne of our late Soueraign Lord K. Henry the eight. And that neither the sayd Mayor & Burgesses of Kingston vpon Hull, or any Inhabitant there, or any of them shal take any aduantage of the article of this estatute, for the cariage of any Herrings or salted Fish to any partes beyond the Sea: Any thing in this present act mentioned, specified or declared, in any wise to the contrary notwithstanding. Be it also enacted &c. that no Purueyour or other person whatsoeuer, shall from the said first day of May by vertue of any Commission or otherwise, take any Herring or Sea Fish from any of the Subiects afore mentioned, that shal take the same in the Shippes or other vessels of the said Subiects, as is aboue sayde, otherwise then by agreement of the owners or sellers of the same fish, vpon payne for euery Purueyor or other person whatsoeuer, offending contrary to the tenor of this act, to forfeit the double value of the Herrings or fish so to be taken. And it shall be lawfull for any person being Owner or Seller of any such Sea fish

Fish so taken as is aforesayde, to withstand any person that will (by any colour of pursueying or otherwise) demand any such Fish, or the tolle of any such Fish, without the good will of the Owner or Seller as aforesayd. Prouided, that the Fish called compolition Fish heretofore graunted to the Quenes Maiestie, by the Subiects of this Realm, trauayling into Iseland, shall be taken by her maiesties Officers and Purueyours in such sort as the same hath bene lawfully vsed to be taken before the making of this act, and sauing to the Quenes Maiestie, her heires and successours, and to all other persons, such Fishes as be knowne and vsed to bee called Regall Fishes, whereunto her Maiestie or the said other persons, haue or shall haue right or interest, for such recompence as heretofore hath bene accustomed. And be it further enacted, &c. that from the saide first day of Aprill, which shall be in the yeere of our Lord God, 1564. it shall not be lawfull to any person or persons, to buy of any stranger borne out of the Quenes maiesties obeysance, or out of any strangers bottome, any Herring being sufficiently salted, packed and casked, vpon payn to euerie person and persons so buying, to forfeit the Herrings so by him or them to be bought, or the value thereof. Prouided alwais, that this braunch of this act shall not extend to any Herrings to be bought, which by reason of Shipwracke shall be brought into this Realme, but that it shall be lawfull to all and euery person and persons, to buy all such Herrings so brought in by Shipwracke as aforesayd, as he or they lawfully might haue done before the making of this act. Any thing in this act contained to ỳ contrary in any wise notwithstãding. Be it also further enacted, &c. that from the Feast of Saint John Baptist next ensuing, it shal not be lawful to any person or persons, to cause to be loaden and caried, in any bottome or Bottomes, whereof any Stranger or Strangers borne then be Owners, Shipmasters, or Partowners, any kinde of Fish, Victuals, Wares, or things, of what kind or nature soeuer the same shal be, from one Port or Creeke of this Realme, to any other Port or Creeke of the same Realme, vpon payn to euerie on that shal offend, contrarie to the true meaning of this braunch of this present act, to forfeit all ỳ goods so laden or caried, or ỳ value therof. And that from henceforth all English Hoyes and Plats may crosse the Seas, as farre as Cane in Normandie, and Eastward as far as Norway, the Statute made in the first yeere of the Quenes maiesties raigne (before 12.) to the contrarie hereof notwithstanding. (But now see here 17.) And forasmuch as there is much deceitfull packing vsed in Cod and Lings brought in Barrels and other Caskes into this Realme, Be it therefore enacted, &c. That from and after the first day of Aprill in the yeere of our Lord God, 1564. it shall not bee lawfull to any person or persons to bring into this Realme any Cod or Ling in Barrels or other Caskes, but losse in bulke & by tale to be sold within this Realme, vpon payne for euery one that shal offend contrarie to the tenour thereof, to forfeit all the Cod and Lings, so to be brought in, or the value thereof. And be it further enacted, that from the Feast of Saint Michaell the Archangell next following, no person or persons whatsoeuer, shall bring into this Realms of England, or any part of the same, any Wine comming out of any the Dominions or Countries belonging to the Crowne of France, or any Woad called Tholouse woad in any other Vessell or Vessels, but onely in such Vessell or Vessels whereof some Subiect or Subiects of the Quenes Maiestie, her heires or successours, shall be then onely Owner or Partowner, vpon paine to forfeit all wines and woad, brought contrarie to the meaning hereof, according to the meaning of a statute made in the time of the raigne of King Henry the seauenth, concerning Wine of the Duchie of Gascoine and Guion (before 8.) except that there may be brought into Wales or any Port within the Countie of Monmouth, Rochell Wines. Be it also enacted by the authority aforesayd, that from henceforth it shall be lawfull to all and euery Owner or Owners of Ships and Vessels, and to euery houlholder vsing and exercising the trade of the Seas, by fishing or otherwise, and to euery Gunner or Gunners, commonly called Cannoneers, and to euery Shipwright, to take or keepe one or more Apprentice or Apprentices to be brought vp in the sayd trade or trades, euery of the same Apprentice or Apprentices to be by them bound for v. yeres or vnder. And euery Apprentice so taken, being aboue 7. yeres of age, shalbe by the same couenants bound, ordred & vsed, to all intents according to ỳ custome of the city of London, so that the same couenant or bond of apprentiship be made by writing indented & inrolled in the Towne where the same Apprentice shalbe then inhabiting, if it be a Towne Corporate, and if the towne be not incorporat, then to be inrolled in the next towne incorporate to the habitation of euery such apprentice. And that the Officers of euerie such Towne Corporate, shall take for euerie such enrolment not aboue twelue pence, Any Lawe, Statute, or other matter whatsoeuer, to the contrary notwithstanding. And be it further enacted, that so much of the Statute made in the fifth and sixt yeares of the late King Edward the sixth, intituled, An act against Regrators, Forestallers, and Ingrossers (before in Forestallers 4.) and so much of all other Statutes against all Regrators, Forestallers and Ingrossers, as doth and may concerne the buying of Sea fish vnsalted, or Mud fish, or any Wine, oyle, or salt, to be taken or brought in any English subiects Ships, Crayers, or other vessell, into any Port, Creeke or place of this Realme, shall from henceforth to all intents, constructions, and purposes be vtterly repealed and voyde, for so much of the sayd Oyles, Wine, Sea fish, Mud fish and Salt, as any buyer or buyers vpon the sea by way of forestalling or regrating, shall or doe bring and discharge in any port or hauen within this realme. But See this Stat. somewhat altered at this day, as is noted in Forestallers 4. in the end, by 13. Eli. c. 25. Wednesday in euery week through the whole yere, which heretofore hath not by the lawes or customes of this Realme beene vsed and obserued as a Fish day, and which shall not happen to fall in Christmas week, or Easter weeke, shalbe hereafter obserued and kept as the Saterdayes in euery week be, or ought to be, & that no manner of person shall eat any flesh on the same day, otherwise then ought to be vpon the common Saterday. And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforesaide, for the benefit and commodities of this Realme, to grow aswell in maintenance of the Nauie, as in sparing and increase of flesh victuall of this Realme, that from and after the Feast of Pentecost next comming, it shall not be lawfull to any person or persons within this Realme, to eate any flesh vpon any dayes now vsually obserued as Fish dayes, or vpon any Wednesday now newly limited to be obserued as fish day, vpon payne that euerie person offending herein, shall forfeit three pound for euerie time he or they shall offend, or else suffer three Monethes close imprisonment without Baile or Paynprise. (See this forfeiture and imprisonment altered here following 14.) And euerie person or persons within whose house any such offence shall be done, and being priuie, or knowing thereof, and not effectually punishing or disclosing the same to some publike Officer, hauing authoritie to punish the same, for euery offence to forfeit fortie shillings. (which forfeiture see here altered after 14.) All which forfeiture for not abstayning from meates, shall be diuided into three equall partes: That is, one part to the vse of the Quenes Maiestie, her heires or successours, the other part to the Informer, the third part to the common vse of the Parish, where the offence is or shall be committed, and to be leuyed by the Churchwardens, after any conuiction in that behalfe. Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted, that this act, nor any thing therin contayned cõcerning eating of flesh, shall in any wise extend to any person or persons, that shal hereafter haue any special licence, vpon causes to be contained in the said licence, and to be graunted according to the Lawes of this Realme in such cases prouided. All and euerie such said licence and licences, shall be voyd to all intents, vnlesse the same contayne the conditions hereafter mentioned: That is to say, euerie licence made to any person or persons, being of the degree of a Lord of Parliament, or of their wiues, shall be vpon condition that euery such person so to be licenced shal pay to the Poore mens Bore within the Parish where they shal dwel or remaine, in the feast of the Purification of the blessed Virgin Mary, or within fiue dayes after the same feast, six and twentie shillings eight pence. The same to be paied within one moneth next after the same feast, vpon payn of forfeiture of euerie such licence. And euery licence to any perso of the degree of a knight, or a knights wife, shall be vpon condition, that euerie such person so licenced, shall pay yerely thirtene shillings foure pence, to the vse aforesaid, and in forme afore mentioned. And euerie licence to any person or persons, being vnder the degree aboue sayd, shall be vpon condition, that euery such person so licenced, shal pay yerely six shillings viij. pence to the said vse, and in forme afore mentioned. Prouided alwayes, that no licence shall extend to the eating of any Beeues at any time of the yeare, Beeues nor to the eating of any Veale in any yeare, from the Feast of Saint Michaell the Archangel, vntill the first day of May. Prouided also, that all persons which by reason of notorious sickness, shal Sicke persons be enforced for recouerie of health to eate flesh, for the time of their sickneese, shall be sufficiently licenced by the Bishoppe of the Dioceese, or by the Parson, Vicar, or Curate of the parish where such person shall be sicke, or of the next parish adioyning, if the said Parson, Vicar, or Curate of his or their owne Parish be wilfull, or if there bee noe Curate within the same Parish: Which Licence shall be made in writing signed with the hand of the Bishoppe of the Dioceese, or of the Parson, Vicar, or Curate, and not indure longer then the time of the sickneese. And that if the sickneese shal continue aboue the space of eight daies after such licence granted, then the licence shall be registred in the Church booke with the knowledge of one of the Churchwardens, and the partie licenced shall giue to the Curate foure pence for the entrie thereof. And that Licence to indure no longer but onely for the time of his, her, or their sickneese. And if any licence by any Parson, Vicar, or Curate, be graunted to any person or persons, other then such as euidently appeare to haue need therof by reason of their sicknes, not onely euerie such licence shall be voyd, but also euery such Parson, Vicar, or Curate, shall forfeit for euery such Licence, otherwise granted, fine markes. Prouided also, and be it enacted, that all licences heretofore graunted to any subiect of this Realme, by any of the late Kings, or by the late Q. Marie, or by the Quenes Maiestie now being, or by any Archbishoppe of this Realme, hauing authoritie so to doe, shall be of as good force in law for the Wednesday now limited, and other accustomed fish dayes, as they were before the making of this act, for the said other accustomed Fish dayes, so as the parties licenced doe hereafter obserue all such conditions, as be limited in this estatute, to such as hereafter shall obtayne any Licences. And such persons also as heretofore were or ought to be licenced, by reason of age, or other impediment or cause, by order of Ecclesiasticall lawes, shall enioy the same priuiledge and accustomed licences: any thing in this act to the contrarie hereof in any wise notwithstanding. And be it enacted, that no forfeiture of Ship, Crayer, or other vessell, or of any apparell of the same, nor any other penaltie or forfeiture, shall be extended or grow against any owner or owners of any ship, crayer, or other vessell, for the transporting or carrying of any Wheate, or other Corne, or things prohibited by the estatute made in the parliament holden the fifth, and seuenth yeres of king Philip and Qu. Mary (after in Vitaile 15.) vnles the same owner or owners shall be witting, knowing, ayding, or consenting, to the transporting or carrying the said Estatute, or any thing therein mentioned to the contrary notwithstanding. That all and euerie person and persons, which be or shall be by the lawes & statutes of this realme, or otherwise authorised to sell wines by retaile, in the seuerall Counties and places where they be, or shall be so authorised, shall and may from henceforth sell the same Wines by pint, quart, pottle, gallon, or otherwise, at such price or prices, and in such forme as shall be limited by the Quenes maiesties Proclamation in the County or place made with the assent of such Lords, & other persons, as by the statute made in the 28. years of the Raigne of king Henry the eight, (after in Wines 20.) were authorised to set price vpon wines in grosse, without pain or forfeiture for the same: Any law, vsage, or statute heretofore made or had to the contrarie hereof in any wise notwithstanding. And be it further enacted, that from and after the Feast of Saint Michaell the Archangell next comming, it shall be lawfull to all & euery person and persons, being subiects of the Q. maiestie, her heires & successours, onely out of such ports and creekes, as by the Quenes Maisties Proclamation hereafter shal be published and appointed, and not elswhere, to load, carry, or transport any wheat, rye, barley, malt, pease, or beanes into any parts beyond the Seas, to sell as a merchandise in Ships, crayers, or other vessels, whereof any English borne Subiect then shall be the onely owners, so that the price of the said Cornes or graines so caried or transported, exceed not the prices hereafter following, at the times, hauens, and places, where and when the same Corne or Graine shall be shipped or laden, viz. the quarter of wheate at tenne shillings, the quarter of rye, peals, or beanes at viij.s. the quarter of barley or malt at vj.s. viij.d. of currant mony of England: Any law, vsage, or Statute heretofore made to the contrarie hereof in any wise notwithstanding. (But see these prices here after altered 14) And where doubt hath heretofore bin, whether the Statute in the 18. yere of the raign of King H. the 6. (before in Captaines 4.) heretofore made against souldiers retained, which depart from their Captaine without licence, did, or ought to extende vnto Mariners and gunners, serving on the seas, taking wages of the King or Quen of this realm: Be it exprelled, ordained, enacted, and declared by authoritie of this present parliament, that the sayd statute made in the said 18. yere of the raign of K. Henry the 6. in all paines, forfeitures, and other things, did, doth, & hereafter shall extend, aswell to al and euery Mariner and Gunner, having taken, or that shall hereafter take prest or wages to serue the Quenes maiestie, her heires or successours, to al intents and purposes, as the same did or doth vnto any souldier: any diuersities of opinion, doubt, matter, or thing to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding. And where an statute concerning sowing of flax and hempe, was made and prouided in the parliament holden the 24. yeare of the raigne of our late soueraigne Lord King Henry the 8. (which see before in Flax and Hempe 1.) is by vniuersall through euerie Countie of this Realm, for the better prouision of Nets, for helpe and furtherance of fishing, and for eschewing of idlenesse;

Be it ordained and enacted by authority of this present parliament, that in euerie such County of this Realme, or part of such Countie, where by the Q. Maiesties proclamation it shall be hereafter published, the saide Estatute to be commodious or profitable for the common wealth, the said estatute and euerie clause, article, and prouision therein contained, be and shall be reuiued and stand in full force & strength, to be executed & performed from the feast of Saint Michaell the Archangell next comming, in al things, other then in the proportion of a road, or fourth part of an acre, and in the payne of three shillings foure pence, by the saide estatute limited. In place whereof, be it ordayned and enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, that in euerie case and degree, where by the said former estatut, a road, or 4. part of an acre is limited to be sowed with linseed, otherwise flax seed or hempe seed, from the sayd feast of S. Michaell the archangell next comming: In stead and lieu of the said road or fourth part of an acre, one whole acre, or lesse, as by Proclamation in forme aforesaid shalbe limited, shall be sowen with linseed, otherwise flax seed or hempe seed, vpon pain of forfeiture of fiue pounds for euery such default or offence. (But see a repeale of this braunch here following 14.) And further be it ordained, &c. that all and euery such of the offences before mentioned, as hereafter shal be done on the maine sea or coasts of the sea, being no part of the body of any County of this Realme, and without the precinct, iurisdiction, and libertie of the Cinque Ports, and out of any hauen or pere, shalbe tried and determined before the L. Admiral of England or his Lieutenant, deputie & deputies, & other Justices of oyer and terminer, according to the forme of the estatute of An. 28. H. 8. for causes of Piracy (after in Triall 8.) And if the same shall be done on the maine sea, or coasts of the sea, within the iurisdiction or liberty of the 5. ports, & out of any Hauen or port, then the same to be tried and determined before the sayd Lord Warden of the said 5. ports, or his Lieutenant or iudge, or before the Justices of oyer and terminer, according to the true forme of the said estatute of An. 28. H. 8. for causes of piracy. And for all & singular such other of the offences before mentioned as shalbe done in the land, or within any hauen or pere: all Justices of the peace in their sessions, and maior, shirifs, and bailifes, and other head officers in cities and townes corporat in their sessions, or other courts, within the liberties of their commissions or authorities, shall haue full power & authority to enquire of the offenders of this act, as well by the othes of xij. men, as other wise by information, & therupon to heare & determine the same. And if any person or persons shall be presented before the said Judges, Justices, or officers within the limits of their authorities, or any information giuen to them of any offender of this act, that then they shall haue full power and authoritie vpon any such presentment or information, to make preces against the offenders of this act, like as is commonly vsed vpon indictments of trespas. And if any be presented, and afterward be conuicted by confession or otherwise, that then euery such person shall suffer noe lesse forfeiture or punishment then herein is before limited: All which forfeiture to be leuied in manner and forme following: That is to say, such forfeiture, concerning eating of flesh, as are before limited to certaine vses, to be to the same vses in that behalf before expressed, and all such forfeitures as according to the tenour of this act, shall be determinable before the said Iudges, Iustices, or other officers of the Admiralties aforesayde, or before commissioners of Oier and terminer in that behalfe, shall be to the vse of the Lord Admirall of England, or Lord warden of the fiue ports, where such offence shall be presented, or whereas the iurisdiction of the cause shall appertaine. And all such forfeitures, as according to the tenour of this Act shall bee determinable before Mayors, Shirifes, Baylifes, or other head officers of Cities or townes Corporate, shall be to the common vse of the Corporation of the sayd Citie or Towne Corporate, where such offences shall be presented, or whereas the iurisdiction of the cause shall appertayne. And all such forfeitures as according to the tenour of this act, shall be determinable before the Iustices of the Peace, shall be to the vse of the Quenes maiestie, her heires and successours. And if any person shal be conuict by confession or otherwise vpon any information made by any person or persons against any Offender or Offenders of this Act, in any cause, saue for the eating of flesh, first before specially limited: That then euery such person so conuict vpon any information, shall lose such forfeiture as is before limited, the one halfe thereof to bee to such as shall make the information, and the other halfe to those, which vpon presentment, without speciall information, are before limited to haue the whole forfeiture. And that for the leuying of euery forfeiture growing by this Statute, aswel the said Lord Admiral of England, Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, their Lieutenants, and Iudges, as the said Iustices, Mayors, Shirifes, Baylifes, and other head Officers within the limits of their Commissions, or authorities, haue and shall haue full power and authoritie to make such proces, as they shall thinke good by their discretions. Prouided alwayes, that no information at the suit of any person cõcerning this act, shalbe of any effect to put any person to answer or losse of forfeiture, except ỹ said informatiõ be commenced within half a yeare next after the offence done contrarie to this act, nor that any information or presentment for the Quenes maiestie, her heires or successours, or for the Admirall, Warden of the Cinque Portes, Mayors, or other officers aforesayd, be of any effect to put any person to any answer or losse of any forfeiture by vertue of this act, except the said information or presentment be within one yere next after the offence done and committed cõtrary to this act. Prouided, & be it likewise enacted, that it shal be lawfull to any person or persons, to haue at his or their table vpon euerie Wednesday, beeing ordered by the Statute to be obserued as a fish day, one onely vsuall competent dish of flesh, of one kind, and noe moe, so that hee, shee, or they also be serued to the same Table and melle at the same meale, three full competent vsuall dishes of sea fish, of sundry kinds, either fresh or salt, and that without fraud or couine, & so shall also order ỹ the same fish be meete and seasonable, and that it shall be eaten or spent in like maner as vpon Frydayes and Saterdayes in like cases are vsed. And that also such persons as haue, or hereafter shall haue vpon good and iust considerations, any lawful licence to eate flesh vpon any fish day, except such persons, as for sicknes shall for the time be licenced by the Bishoppe of the Diocesse, or their Curates, or shal be licences by reason of age, or other impediment allowed heretofore by the Ecclesiasticall Lawes of this Realme shall be bound by force of this Statute to haue for euerie one dish of Flesh serued to be eaten at their Table, one vsuall dish of sea Fish, fresh or salt, to be likewise serued at the same table, and to be eaten or spent without fraude or couine as the like kind is, or shal be vsually eaten or spent on Saterdayes. And that these two articles and clauses next aboue, shall be taken and interpreted from time to time in the fauour of erpences of Sea fish, and that the offender or offenders herein, shall be punished in like manner as is ordered by this estatute, for punishment of such as shall eate flesh vpon Frydayes, Saterdayes, or other fish dayes. And because no manner of person shall misiudge of the intent of this Statute, limiting orders to eate fish, and to forbeare eating of flesh, but that the same is purposely intended and ment politikely, for the increase of fishermen and mariners, and repayring of port Townes and Nauigation, and not for superstition to be maintained in choise of meats: Be it enacted, ỹ whosoeuer shal by preaching, teaching, writing, or open speech, notifie, that any eating of fish, or forbearing of flesh mentioned in this Statute, is of any necessitie for the saluing of the soule of man, or that it is the seruice of God, otherwise then as other politike lawes are and be, then that such persons shall be punished as spreaders of false newes are or ought to be. (which See before in Newes 1. 2. & 3.) Be it enacted in the fauour of Fishermen and Mariners, haunting the Seas as Fishermen or Mariners, that none of thē shall hereafter at any time be compelled against his or their will, to serue as any Souldier vpon the land, or vpon the sea, otherwise then as a mariner, except it shall be to serue vnder any Captaine of some Ship or vessell for landing, and doe some speciall exploite, which Mariners haue vsed to doe, or vnder any other person hauing authoritie to withstand any inuasion of enemies, or to suppresse any rebellion within the Realme: and also except all such persons as by tenure, lawfull customes, or couenant, be or shall be otherwise bound to serue. Prouided alwayes, that this Acte or any thing therein contayned, shall not extend to take away or diminish any libertie, priuiledge, franchise, forfeiture or amerciament, fines, rifles, wrekes of the Sea, or any other lawfull inheritance or freeholde, from any person or persons, bodies politike or Corporate, their heires or successours, for or touching any lawfull libertie, authoritie, or iurisdiction admirall, or for consideration of any water,

16 Forasmuch as the Act made in the 5. yere of the M. maiesties reigne, touching certaine politike constitutions made for the maintenance of the Nauy (before 13. is found by experience to be good, and greatly to haue increased the nauy & fishermen, and caused many poore men to be set on worke, and is in great likelihood daily to increase the same more and more: We it enacted &c. that so much of the said Act, for liberty of transporting of herring and sea fish, by the naturall borne subiects of your M. your heirs or successors, & for freedom from paying of any custom, subsidy, or poũdage mony, shalbe reuiued, & shal frõ hencefoorth continue for the space of fiue yeares from the end of this session of parliament, & from thencefoorth to the end of the next parliament, after the said fiue yeers to be summoned, and from thencefoorth during your Pa. most gracious pleasure, so that such transporting be in vesselles with crosse sailes. And where also in the said Act, made in the said fift yeare, amongst other things, all maner of persons are generally forbidden to bring into this realm anie cods or lings in barrells or other caskes, vpon paine of forf. of all the cods & lings so to be brought in, or the value therof, contrary to the tenor of that Act. For asmuch as by that branch of the said statute, it was well intended and meant to meet with the fraud of strangers & other, which brought into this realme great quantity of cods and lings deceitfully packed in barrels, and not meant to hinder any the M. maiesties subiects, vsing vprightnes & truth in the barrelling of such fish: May it therfore please your M. that it be further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that after the feast of Easter, which shall be in the yere of our Lord God 1575. it shalbe lawful from thencefoorth to all your Pa. loning subiects, borne within this realme, or within any other your Pa. dominions (vsing no fraud or deceit in packing or barrelling thereof) for the terme of fiue yeers next insuing, to bring into this realme, or any other your Highnesse dominions, all such cods & lings as they shal happen to take vpon the sea, by their own fishing in vessels with crosse sailes, without incurring any forfeiture or penalty therfore: anie thing in the saide Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding. And for the auoyding of the lewd outrages cõmitted and done vpon the sea coastes of Norffolke and Suffolk by the catches, mongers, and picards, pretending to buy fresh herrings, and which doe cut in sunder diuerse peces of Fishermens nettes, trauelling the high Seas, to take fresh herrings, to the vtter vndoing of the saide poore Fishermen: Be it therefore enacted, ordained, and established by the authoritie of this present Parliament, that no person or persons, vsing anie Ship, Boate, or Vessell, called Catch, Ponger, or Picard, or other vessell of like vse, shall in the time of common 17 Because the clause in the statute of Anno 5. Eli. cap. 5. (before 2.) licencing English hoyes and plats to crosse the seas, contrary to the Statute of An. 1. El. ca. 14. (before 12.) tendeth greatly to the decay of mariners and ships, by the maruellous increase of hoyes: Be it enacted, that from the feast of S. Michael the Archangell next comming, the said clause cōtained in the said estatute, made in the said fift yeere of your reigne, for the crossing the seas by hoyes & plats, shal be vtterly repealed & made void and of none effect. And that from the said feast of S. Mic. the Archangell next, the said estatute made in the first yeere of your reigne, (before 12.) prohibiting the crossing of the seas by hoyes and plats, be obserued and kept, the said estatute made in the fift yeare of your Maiesties reigne, to the contrary hereof notwithstanding. This Act to continue vntil the end of the next parliament. An 13. El. ca. 15.

And be it further enacted by the M. most excellent maiesty, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, & commons in this present Parliament assembled, that it shal and may be lawfull for all and euery her Maiest. subiects being owners of any ships, barkes, or vessels sailing with crosse sails, to receiue and take into their said ships, barks, or vessels, any herrings, or other fish, which any alien or stranger shall buy and prouide of any her Ma. subiects within this realme, And the same herrings and fish, or any of them may transport into any parts beyond the seas, being in league or amity with her Ma. in their said shippes or vessells with crosse sailes, So as the said aliens or strangers pay to her Ma. her customes and duties for the same, in such sort, as by the same former Act was limitted and appoynted. And be it enacted by the authority afore said, that all aliens and strangers shall from henceforth, & from time to time pay to her Maiesty, for all salted fish, and salted herrings to be brought into this realme, all such like customes, and impositions, as are or shall be imposed and set vpon any her Ma. subiects, in those foreine regions and countries, ports, and townes, from whence the said salted fish, and salted herrings shalbe shipped & brought for the like fishes and herrings, ouer and besides the ordinarie customes, which haue bẽne payd to her Ma. for the same, in maner and forme, as by the same Act was enacted and appointed. And be it further enacted, by thauthority afore said, that if any alien or stranger borne, or any denizen, or naturall borne subiect of this Realme, shall bring into anie hauen, port, créeke, or towne of this Realme any salt fish, or salt herrings, which shall not be good, swéet, seasonable, and méete for mens meate, and shall offer the same to be sold, and shalbe warned by any officer of such port, hauen or towne (where the same shal be offered to be sold) that the same be not seasonable nor méet for mens meat, that then if he or they shall after that, offer any of the said vnseasonable fish to be sold to any person within this realme, or being an alien born, and no denizen, shal not depart with the same from the said hauen, port, or towne, so soone as conuenience wil serue, that then all and euery person owners thereof, shall lose and forfeit to our said soueraigne Lady, all the said vnseasonable fish vnmeet for mẽs meat, as before is said. And be it likewise enacted, that all Ordinances of the Fishmongers of London, or of any other Company or Corporation whatsoeuer, made or to be made for restraint of any person to take or sell fish, or to buy or prouide any fish of any Merchant or other within this Realme, shall be repealed and void. Shirifes.

WE haue alſo ordained by the aduice of our Councell, that from henceforth Shirifes ſhall not be charged of any iſſues to be leuied, nor ſhal leuy any before they paſſe out of the Eſchequer there to bee deliuered by the Extracts of the Juſtices. And that in the eſtreats of Juſtices, euery head ſhall be charged for Iſſues forfeited like as of amerciaments, and if peraduenture any Shirife wil anſwere for the Iſſues of any recogniſor, pledge or maineperno^r by him aſſigned and returned into our Court, which at the time of the returne is not able to pay ſuch iſſues or amerciaments, the Shirife ſhall be charged, and ſhall anſwere therefore in our Eſchequer. And let the Shirifes beware vnder paine of great forfeiture, that from henceforth they do make tailes of all ſuch money, as they or their Officers haue receiued by our commandement. And that they doe not returne any where, the names of any mainpernours, or ſureties, Iuror, or any other, except ſuch ſureties, maineper nours, or other according to the tenor of our writs being directed to the ſhirifes for the ſame cauſe, bee lawfully and manifeſtly impanelled thereupon. And they ſhall not returne the names of any Free men as pledges, without that they will plainely conſent and agree to the ſame. And hereupon wee haue enacted that at one time certaine euery yeare one Baron and one Clerke of our ſaid Eſcheq. ſhal be ſent throughout euerie ſhire of England, to enroll the names of all ſuch as haue paied that yeare debts eracted of them by a greene ware. And the ſame Baron and Clerke ſhall view all ſuch tailes, and enroll them. And ſhall heare and determine complaints made againſt Shirifes & their Clerks, and Bailifes that haue done contrarie to the premiſſes, and the offenders ſhall bee grieuouſly puniſhed. For aſmuch as Shirifes and other heretofore, haue let out by Pleuin, common Felons and openly defamed, being taken & impriſoned for murder & felony, & ſuch as be not repleuiſable, contrarie to the forme of our ſtatute made at Weſtminſter of perſons repleuiſable, & not repleuiſable, wherby ſuch tranſgreſſors not repleuiſable be let out, and for to deliuer them deceitfully before the comming of the Juſtices errant, or other aſſigned for their deliuerance, they procure by themſelues and by their friends Iurors of the Countrey, and ſome they threat, whereby as well for feare of the Shirife, & other ỳ let them at large by the pleuine, as for feare of the thefues being ſo deliuered before the Juſtices aſſigned for Gaole deliueries, ſuch felonies & murders are cõcealed, & ſo being concealed, remain ſtill vnpuniſhed: We for the vtility of our Realm, & for the more aſſured conſeruation of our peace, haue prouided and ordeined, that Juſtices aſſigned to take aſſiſes in all Shires where they take aſſiſes, as it is ordeined, incontinent after the aſſiſes taken in the Shires, ſhal remaine both together if they be lay. And if one of them be a Clerke, then one of the moſt diſcreet knights of the Shire being aſſociate to him that is a Lay man, by our writ ſhall deliuer the gaoles of the Shires, as well within the liberties as without, al maner of priſons, after the forme of the gaole deliueries of thoſe Shires before times vſed. And the ſame Juſtices ſhall enquire then, if Shirifes or any other haue haue let out by pleuin, priſoners not pleuiable, or haue offended in any other thing contrary to the forme of the foreſaid ſtatute lately made at Weſtminſter, and they ſhall reforme and puniſh them in all things according to the forme of the Statute aforeſaid. 5 Of the Shirife and other Miniſters, which gather the debts of the King, and make tailes and other acquitances to the debtors, yet doe not acquite them in the Exchequer, and of the ſame are impleaded in the Exchequer, and by fauour are put to little iſſues, which they will rather leſe then come to anſwere, and ſo are the Plaintifes alwaies charged to their great dammage & oppreſſion: It is ordeined and eſtabliſhed that the Shirifs and other Miniſters when they are impleaded in the Exchequer, are ſo far gone in plee, that the great diſtreſſe is returned againſt him, and he commeth not to anſwere, then ſhall goe forth an other writ of diſtreſſe, returnable at a certaine day, in which writ ſhall bee commanded that Proclamation be made in the full Countie, that the defendant come at ſuch a day and acquite the debt of the ſum for the which hee made the taile or acquittance, at which day if the defendant come not, and the Writ be returned, and Proclamation certified, he ſhall beholden for conuict, and the debt taken of him alſo, as debt recouered in the Kings Court, and damages awarded to the Plaintif according to the diſcretion of the Barons. And this eſtatute ſhall extend aſwel to thoſe which were Sherifes and other Miniſters that let to leaſe their Bailiwikes, as to the Shirifes and other Miniſters which hold their Bailiwikes themſelues. And it is not the intent of our Soueraign Lord the King, nor of his Counſell, nor by this eſtatute no man ſhal be forbidde, but that they may complaine of Shirifes and other Miniſters when they ſhall be found in the Exchequer, and that they ſhall anſwere there as hath beene reaſonably vſed before this time. 31 Whereas great extoꝛtion hath beene vſed by Sheriffes and their Officers in the keeping of their Countie Courts by entring of plaints againſt men in other mens names, and then amercing them foꝛ their default, wheras they were neuer ſummoned, ſo to increaſe pillage. Be it &c. That no Sheriffes, Vndersheriffes, noꝛ Shire Clerkes hereafter, neither any perſon in their names, noꝛ by their commandement, ſhall take and enter any plaints into their books in any mans name, vnleſſe the partie plaintife bee in pꝛoper perſon pꝛeſent in the Courts, oꝛ elſe by a ſufficient Attorney oꝛ deputy, that is knowen to be of good name and diſpoſition, and that the ſame partie Plaintife ſhall finde pledges to purſue his ſaid plaint, ſuch perſons as are knowne in that County, and that the party Plaintife ſhall haue but one plaint foꝛ one Treſpaſſe oꝛ contract. And if the ſaid Sheriffes, Vndersheriffes, Shireclerkes, take, enter, oꝛ cauſe to be entred any moe plaints, then the Plaintife ſuppoſed that he hath cauſe of action againſt the defendant, that then the ſaid Shirifes, Vndersheriffes, Shireclerkes that doth enter, oꝛ cauſe to bee entred any ſuch plaints contraris to the ſaid pꝛouiſion and oꝛdinãce, ſhall foꝛfeit foꝛ euerie ſuch default foꝛty ſhillings, the one halfe thereof to be to the vſe of our ſoueraigne Loꝛd the King, and the other part to him oꝛ them that will ſue, and pꝛoue the ſame matter by action of debt, oꝛ inforꝛmation in the Exchequer. And ouer, the Juſtices of peace in the ſame Counties, and euerie of them, ſhall haue authoꝛity vpon complaint made by the party ſo vnlawfully grieued to examine the ſaid Shirifes, Vndersheriffes, oꝛ Shire Clerke and plantifes. And if the ſaid Juſtices of P. oꝛ one of them, finde by the examination, default in the ſaid Shirifes, vndersheriffes, oꝛ other their clerks, in entring of ẏ ſaid plaints deceitfully foꝛ his oꝛ their aduantage, as is beſoꝛe rehearſed, contrarie to this pꝛeſent act, that then the ſaid Shirifs, vndersheriffes, and Shire clerkes ſhall be conuict & attaint of the ſame offence, without further enquiris oꝛ examination, and that he ſhal foꝛfeit vpon the ſame examination, foꝛty ſhil. to the vſe of our Soueraigne Loꝛd the King foꝛ euerie default. And the ſaid Juſtices of Peace that ſo ſhall take the examination, ſhall certifie the ſame examination within a quarter of a yeare into the Kings Exchequer, vpon paine of foꝛty ſhillings. And furthermoꝛe, that the ſaid Shirifes, vnder ſheriffs, and Shire Clerks, make oꝛ cauſe to be made a ſufficient pꝛecept to the Bailife of the hundꝛed, to attach, ſummõ, oꝛ warn the Defendants, that are ſo in ſuit, to appeare and anſwere to the ſaid plaints. And if there be any default in the ſaid Bailifes of the Hundꝛeds in warning of the ſaid Defendants, to appeare and anſwer to the ſaid plaint commenced againſt them in their Counties, oꝛ in executing their ſaid Office, that then the ſame Bailifes ſhall foꝛfeit foꝛ euery default vnto our Soueraigne Loꝛd the King foꝛty ſhillings, and ſo bee attaint and conuict thereof, by like examination of the Juſtices of Peace, oꝛ euery of them, as beſoꝛe is rehearſed. Ed. 3. cap. 9. & An. 23. H. 8. cap. 8 (which is before 16. and 17.)

33 Al and euerie perſon which now is, or hereafter ſhall bee Sherife or Sheriffes of any Countie or Counties, accountable or anſwerable in the ſaid Exchequer, ſhall at his day of preſtion immediately after he is ſworne to account of the Iſſues and profit of his Office of Sherifewike, and euerie other perſon which of late haue beene Sherife or Sheriffes of any of the Counties, and haue no taile of reward, nor haue not yet determined his or their account, or otherwiſe bee diſcharged or pardoned thereof, ſhall in the ſame time, that hee taketh his Othe to account, bee ſworne by himſelfe, or by his Atturney or Deputy ſworne for him, when he ſhall anſwere before the Lord Treaſorer, Chamberlaines, Chancelour and Barons of the ſaid Exchequer, or in the abſence of the ſaid Lord Treaſorer, Chamberlains, or Chancelor, or of any of them, then before ſuch of the Lord Treaſorer, Chamberlaines, Châcelour, and of the ſaid Barons, as then ſhall happen to be preſent in the ſaide Court, to bring in, and deliuer into the ſaid Court, rolles or Schedules of Parchment, conteining in them truely without omiſſion or concealement, all ſuch particuler ſums of money, which he hath leuied, or lawfully might haue leuied to his witting or knowledge within his Bailiwike, as a part or parcell of the ſaide auncient farmes, and the other farmes before rehearſed making expreſſe and diſtinct mention in the ſame rolles or Schedules, as nigh as hee or they can or may, of what perſon, and in what lands and tenements, & for what cauſe the ſame particuler ſums, and euerie of them be leuied or leuiable toward the making of the ſame farme or any of them. And that after the ſame rols or Schedules ſo deliuered, and the particuler ſummes of money in them cõteined, appertaining to their proper farms, caſt and rated before the ſaid Lord Treaſorer, Chamberlaines, Chancelour, and Barons, or before the ſaid Barons in the abſence of the ſaid Lord Treaſorer, Chamberlains or Chauncelour, for the time being, or any of them: The ſame Lord Treaſorer, Chamberlaines, Chancelor, and the ſaid Barons, or the ſaid Barons in the abſence of the Lord Treaſorer, Chamberlains, or Chãcelour, or of any of them for the time being, ſhall haue full power & authoritie by this Act, to make allowance, eroneration and deduction in the ſaid open Court from time to time by their diſcretions, to euerie ſuch perſon in euerie of the ſaid farms, of ſo much mony as the ſaid farmes ſhall be more then the ſaid particulers ſo apportioned and conteined in the ſaid rolles and ſchedules doe amount vnto. And for reuiuing & recouery of ſuch parcels, belonging to any of the ſaid farmes, or other the premiſſes omitted out of the ſaid rolles or ſchedules, and for ſauing of other the Kings ancient rights and inheritances anſwerable in the ſaid Exchequer, which be now wrongfully withdrawen, and vniuſtly withholden from his poſſeſſion: The Lord Treaſorer, Chamberlaines, Chauncelor, and Barons of the ſaid Exchequer, or the ſame Barons in the abſence of the ſaid Treaſurer, Chamberlaines, & Chancelor, or of any of them, ſhal from time to time award ſuch proceſſe, & vſe ſuch conuenient waies and meanes by Commiſſion or otherwiſe, according to the courſe of the ſaid Exchequer, and further as ſhall be deuiſed by their diſcretion: ſo that the King, his heirs and ſucceſſors may bee truely anſwered of the iſſues and profits of the ſame, without other warrant to be purſued and obtcined for the premiſſes, or any part thereof: any Statute, Act, or ordinance, or vſe heretofore to the contrary had, made or vſed in any wiſe notwithſtanding. And furthermore, where diuers and ſundry ſummes of money beene reſpected to many perſons, which haue been ſheriffs of the ſaid counties before this time vpon their accounts yeelden in the ſaid Court of the Exchequer of the forſaide farmes & other bicountels, vpon diuers petitions in the ſaid court, for ſo much as they, ne any of them could nor might leuy the ſame by vertue of the ſumms of the ſaid Exchequer, for ſuch cauſes as the ſame late Sheriffes haue alleaged in their ſaid petitions, as by the ſame petitions more plainely doth appeare: Be it further enacted that al and euery the ſaid late Sheriffes vpon their oathes taken in the ſaid Court, that the cauſes alleadged in the ſame Petition be true, and the ſame cauſes examined in the ſame court accordingly, be, by vertue of this preſent act, clearely acquited and diſ-

charged againſt the Kings Maieſty his heires and ſucceſſors for euer, of al and euery ſuch ſumme and ſummes of money, ſo not leuied nor leuiable, but in reſpect, as is before rehearſed. And thereupon ſuch like Proceſſe to bee awarded by the ſaid Court, and ſuch conuenient waies and meanes by Commiſſion and otherwiſe to be had according to the Courſe of the ſaid Exchequer, from time to time as ſhall be deuiſed by the ſaid Lord Treaſorer, Chamberlaines, Chauncelour, and Barons in the abſence of the ſaid Lord Treaſorer, Chamberlaines or Chancelour, or any of them by the ſaid baron, and by as many of the ſaid Lord Treaſorer, Chamberlaines and Chauncelour, as then ſhall happen to be there then preſent, without either warrant or ſuit in that behalfe to be had. And forasmuch as the Sheriffs of the ſaid Counties for the time being, ſhall ſuſteine and purport diuers charges by reaſon of their ſaid Office of Sherifwicke, as in executing the Kings Writs and ſummons, and leuying all ſummes of money conteined in the extractes within their Counties, and in comming to the Exchequer to make their profers and views of their accounts, and make paiment of all ỳ ſhall be due vpon euerie of their viewes and accounts, and diuers other coſts and charges concerning the ſame office of Sherifewike, without hauing from henceforth any taile or tailes of reward, portage, or other allowances toward their ſaid charges. And where alſo diuers of the ſaid Sheriffes heretofore haue vſed at their owne coſt, to beare yearely the charges of the expenſes, of the Kings Juſtices of Aſſiſe, Niſi prius, generall and ſpeciall gaole deliueries, and oyer, determiner, & of their Clerkes of Aſſiſes, and Seruants of the ſame Seſſions, at their comming two times in the yeare, during ſuch time as the ſaid Juſtices remaine and ſerue the K. Highneſſe there, without hauing heretofore any recompence or allowance for the ſame. And to the intent that euerie of the ſaid Sheriffes for the time being, may and ſhall hereafter be more able, diligently to ſerue the King in his or their ſaide offices without taking any vnlawfull exactions of the Kings Subiects, and alſo better to make prouiſion for the ſaid Juſtices and their company in their circuits, hauing aid of the King toward their ſaid Charges and expences: The Kings Highneſſe of his liberalitie, in conſideration of the ſame charges ſo to bee ſuſteined by the ſaide Sheriffes, is contented and pleaſed, that it bee &c. That euerie of the ſaide Sheriffes comming to his accounts in the ſaid Eſchequer, ſhewing a bill ſubſcribed with the hands of the ſaid Juſtices, or of ſuch of them as ſhall be preſent at the ſaide Aſſiſes and Seſſions making plaine mention of the dates and time that the ſaid Juſtices did abide or remain in the ſame Countie, at the coſts of the ſaid Sheriffes, in, or about the Kings affaires and buſineſſe, ſhall haue allowance aſwell hereof, as for other his ſaide reaſonable coſts, vpon his or their accounts in the ſaid Eſchequer, by the diſcretion of the ſaid L. Treaſorer, Chamberlaines, Chancelour, & Barons, & in the abſence of the ſaid Lord Treaſorer, Chamberlains, Chancelour, or any of them, by the ſaid Barons, and by as many of the ſaid Lord Treaſorer, Chamberlaines, & Chancelor, as then ſhal happen to be there preſent by authority of this preſent act, without warrant or any further ſute to be had or made in this behalfe, ſo that al the allowances for the coſts aboueſaid, to all the Sheriffes do not amount in any one yere aboue the ſum of three hundred forty two pound, fiue ſhillings eight pence. This Act to continue and indure only to the end of the next Parliament. Anno 34. H.8. cap. 16. This act is continued Anno 37. H.8. ca. 23 to indure to the laſt day of the next Parliament. An 2. 34 That the ſaid former act (s. Anno 34. Hen. 8 cap. 16. before 33.) and all clauſes and ſentences in the ſame conteined, ſhalbe from henceforth clerely fruſtrate and voide to all intents and purpoſes, other then hereafter in this act ſhall bee ſpecified. And that it may be &c. by this preſent Parliament, that the Sheriffs which ſhall be made from henceforth within all the Shires of England, and alſo ſuch as haue not made and finiſhed their accompt or accompts, ſhall haue ſuch and like Tailes of Reward, and all ſuch other allowances as they had before the making of the ſaide former Act, or elſe the ſame Sheriffes which ſhall bee or heretofore haue beene, to be at their election and choiſe to accompt, and al other things to doe according to the aforeſaid former act. And that they and euerie of them, that ſo ſhall accompt and take no taile of Reward, ſhall be in & by al things intreated in the Kings Eſchequer, as though the ſaid former act were, and ſhould continue in his full ſtrength and effect: any thing before ſpecified notwithſtanding. And that the ſame tailes of reward and euerie of them, by force of this preſent act, without any further warrant or warrants to be obtained for the ſame, ſhall be leuied or ſtriken, at the receipt of the K. Maieſties Eſchequer, in due maner & form with ſuch like Letter or writings vpon the ſame tailes and euerie of them, as before the making of the ſaid former act were, and haue bẽn accuſtomed to be leuied and ſtriken. And that the ſame tailes ſo hereafter there to be leuied and ſtriken, ſhalbe deliuered vnto euerie of the ſame Sheriffes, or their ſufficient Attourney for them, without preſt or other charge to bẽ ſet vpon them for the ſame. And that this Act ſhall bee a ſufficient Warrant and diſcharge to the Treaſorer of England, and all other Officers within the ſaid receipt, for ſtriking, leuying, and deliuerie of the ſaid Tailes and euerie of them. And further, that all thoſe Sheriffs that hereafter ſhall bee made within thoſe Shires of England, whereas no tailes of Reward heretofore haue bẽne by the Kinges Maieſties moſt noble progenitors giuen and granted, and ſuch Sherifs as ſhal hereafter take no taile of reward, ſhal in conſideration of their great coſts, charges, & expences which they ſhal beare & ſuſtein, aſwell by the Diets of the Juſtices of Aſſiſe, as by any other meanes, haue vpon the end of their accompt, and of euerie of them, ſuch allowances, vpon a Petition to bee made by the ſame Sheriffes, Sheriffes, or any of them, in a Bill to be brought in by the same Sheriffe, and euerie of them, of their said colls and charges: vpon which bills the same Sheriffes to be sworne in their owne proper persons, or by their Vndersheriffes, or his will Attorney, thereunto admitted to be true, without warrant or taile fixing for the same. And also that all Sheriffes, which hereafter shall take no taile of Reward, and euerie of them, shall be discharged vpon their accompts of all such Farmes, goods, tattels, profits, casualties, and sums of money which they might or should be charged with vpon their accompts in the saide Exchequer by what title or name soeuer they be named, or vpon whatsoeuer person or persons they shalbe arested, or out of whatsoeuer lands & tenements they shall be going forth, as they cannot lawfully come by. And that all other Sheriffes which hereafter shall take any taile of Reward, shall in like manner be discharged of all such farmes and summes of money aforesaid, (except onely of the Vicountels of their Shires, wherewith they shall be chargeable and answerable as they were before the making of the aforesaid former act.) And also the same Sheriffes of euerie Shire of England that now bee, or heretofore haue beene, or that hereafter shall bee, and euerie of them, shall haue plaine deduction and allowance in their said accompts of all such summes & summes of money, as they or any of them shall make or haue true petition of, for, or concerning such possessions and hereditaments as bee come vnto or were in the K. Maiesties hands, or any his Progenitors, by vnitie of possession, or by any meane out of the which any part or parcell of the aforesaid Vicountels were at any time heretofore leuiable or leuied. And that the Lord Treasurer, Chamberlaine, Chancelour, and Barons of the said Exchequer, or in the absence of the said Lord Treasurer, Chamberlaine and Chancelour, the said Barons shall by authoritie of this act, giue and make allowance, deduction, and eroneration, to euerie of the said Sheriffes of the said farmes, and of all other things without any other warrant. Prouided alway that euerie of the said Sheriffes at his day of prefixion immediatly after that he or his Deputy, or Atturney is sworne to accompt for the issues and profits of his Office of Sheriffewike, shall by himselfe, or by his Atturney or Deputy sworn for him, when hee shall answere before the Lord Treasurer, Chamberlaines, Chancelour, and Barons of the said Exchequer, or in the absence of the said Lord Treasurer, Chamberlains, or Chancelour, or of any of them, then before such of the same Lord Treasurer, Chamberlaines, or Chancelor, & of the said Barons as then shall happen to be present, in the said Court of Exchequer, to bring in and deliuer into the said Court Rolles or Schedules of Parchment, conteining in them truely without omission, or concealement, all such particuler sums of money which he hath leuied, or lawfully might haue leuied to his witting or knowledge within his Bailiwike, as part or parcell, aswel of the said farmes called Vicountels in the said former act expressed, as of all other farmes of what name or title soeuer they bee called being treated, written, or otherwise charged to any of the said Sheriffes, out of the said Court of Exchequer, making expresse and distinct mention in the same rolles or schedules, as nigh as they can or may, of what person, and what lands and tenements, and for what cause the same particuler summes of money, and euerie of them to be leuied or leuiable. And that after the same rols or schedules so deliuered, and the particuler summes of money in the conteined appertaining to their proper farmes, cast and rated in the said Court, the said Lord Treasurer, Chamberlaines, Chancelor, & the said Barons in the absence of the said Treasurer, Chamberlaines, or Chancelor, or any of them for the time being, shall haue full power and authority by this act, for the leuying and recouerie of such parcels belonging to any of the said farmes, called Vicountels, or any other farmes, by what name or title soeuer they shall be called, being omitted out of the said rolles or schedules, & (a) sauing of other the Kings ancient rights and inheritances and reuenues in the said Exchequer, which be now wrongfully withholden, or vnlawfully withdrawen from the kings maiestie his possessions, & shal haue power & authoritie from time to time, to aduise such processe, and such conuenient waies & meanes, by commission, or otherwise, according to the course of the said Exchequer and further, as shall be deuised by their discretion: so that the K. Maiestie, his heires & successors may be truely answered of the issues & profits of the same: this act, or any other statute, act, or ordinance, or vse heretofore to the contrary had, made or vsed in any wise notwithstanding. And furthermore, that the said Treasurer, Chamberlains, Chancelor, & Barons of the said Exchequer, or the said barons in the absence of the said Treasurer, Chamberlains or Chancelor, or any of them for the time being, shall haue full power & authoritie by their discretions, from time to time, to giue & allow vnto all & euerie such Commissioner or Commissioners, (as they shall assign and appoint by their discretion, to enquire of the said farmes, & other the K. rights withdrawen) their reasonable colls & charges, as from time to time to the shal seem good & conuenient. That no maner of person or persons, hauing, vsing, or exercising of the office of the Sheriffe of any County or Counties, shal vse or exercise the Office of the Justices of the Peace by force of any Commission, or otherwise, in any county or counties, where he or they shalbe sheriffe, during the time only ỳ he or they shal vse or exercise ỳ said office of the shiriffwik any thing in ỳ said former act to the cõtrary in any wise notwithstãding: And ỳ all & euery act & acts to be done by authority of any Commission of the Peace during the time aboue said, shall be voide and of none effect: The

40 Whereas the Counties and Shires of Surrey & Suſſex, Eſſex & Hertford, Somerſet and Dorſet, Warwick & Leiceſter, Nottingham & Derby, Dron & Barkſhire, of long time haue had but one Sherif to ſerue for two counties, that is to ſay: one for Surrey & Suſſex, and one for Eſſex and Hertford, and one other for Somerſet and Dorſet, & one other for Warwicke and Leiceſter, and one other for Nottingham and Derby, and one other for Dron and Barkeſhire &c. Be it &c. That the Queenes moſt excellent Maieſtie, her heires and Succeſſors, Kings and Queenes of this Realme, ſhall and may from and after the firſt day of November, which ſhall be in the yeare of our Lord God 1567. yearely chuſe and make for euerie of the ſaid Counties before named, one ſufficient and able perſon to be Sherife of the ſame in ſuch like manner and forme, as is, and hath beene vſed to bee choſen, made and done for any other County or Shire within this Realme: any Law, Cuſtome or vſage heretofore had or vſed to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding. And that euerie perſon, which after the ſaide firſt day of November, ſhall be made and appointed Sherife, for any of the ſaid Counties, ſhall be accomptable and vſed in the order of his accompt, and all other things and allowances to him to bee made in the Court of the Eſchequer; and all other Courts and places, in ſuch manner and forme, as is commonly vſed for Sherifes in like caſes. Prouided alwaies, and be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaide, that the Barons of the M. Highneſſe, her Heires & ſucceſſors, of the court of the Exchequer, for the time being, calling vnto them aſwell her or their graces officers of Remembrances, & the treaſurers Remembrancer, together with the Clerke of the Pipe of the ſame Court, as alſo the ſeuerall Sherifes, the which next after the ſaid firſt day of November, ſhall bee by her Highneſſe, her Heires and Succeſſors, conſtituted, named, and appointed of euerie of the ſaide ſeuerall Counties of Surrey and Suſſex, Eſſex and Hertford, Somerſet and Dorſet, Warwicke and Leiceſter, Nottingham & Derby, Dron and Barkeſhire, ſhall haue by vertue of this Act of Parliament full power and authority, to ſeuer and diuide by the diſcretion and iudgement of the ſaid Barons, all and ſingular the profers of the ſaid Counties of Surrey and Suſſex, Eſſex and Hertford, Somerſet and Dorſet, Warwicke and Leiceſter, Nottingham and Derby, Drenford and Barkeſhire: the which ſaid Seuerance and diuiſion of the ſaide profers, ſhall bee entred of Record in the ſaid Court of Eſcheq. & ſhall be finall and perpetuall, during ſo long time as this preſent act of Parliament ſhal indure and haue continuance. And it is further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that in ſuch, and the ſame manner and fourme as the ſaid profers ſhall bee diuided, euen ſo the Taile of reward of euerie of the foreſaid Counties where any taile of Reuerd hereafter ſhall bee taken, ſhall be ſeuered and diuided in manner and fourme aforeſaide. And bee it likewiſe further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid Barons for the time being of the Queenes Highneſſe ſaide Court of Eſchequer, and of her heires and ſucceſſors, calling vnto them the ſaide Officers of the Treaſurers remembrancer, and the Clerke of the Pipe, ſhall haue full power and authority from time to time to take order and appointment for the true and ſpeedy paiment and contentation of ſuch eraction money, fees, and annuities, and other ſummes of money as hath beene accuſtomed to haue beene paied, or of right ought to haue beene payed, to any perſon or perſons, by the hands of the ſaide ſeuerall Sherifes. And that ſuch order, direction, and appointment ſo made, had, and taken by the ſaid Barons, in manner and fourme laſt before recited, ſhall be obſerued, perfourmed, fulfilled, and kept yearely, aſwell by both the Sherifes of the ſaid ſeuerall Counties of Surrey and Suſſex for the time being, as by the ſaide ſeuerall Sherifes for the time being of the ſaid Counties of Eſſex and Hertford, and of Somerſet and Dorſet, and of Warwicke and Leiceſter, and of Nottingham and Darby, and of Dronford and Barkeſhire: any vſage, Law, or Cuſtome to the contrarie in any wiſe notwithſtanding. Prouided alwaies, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaide, that no Sherife hereafter to be choſen and made of any one of the ſaid Counties in this act mentioned, ſhall pay in any court of Record, for any duetie belonging properly to the Office of Sherife, any other fees or charges then onely the one halfe of the charges and fees which he ſhould bee compelled to haue paied, if he had beene Sherife of two of the ſaid ſhires, and Counties, as before the making of this Act was vſed: any law, vſage, or cuſtome to the contrarie notwithſtanding. 3 Forasmuch as no staple may be profitable for vs and for our said Realme and Lands, vnlesse it be free: We will and graunt for vs and for our heyres, for the maintenaunce of the saide staple, that all manner of people may come with their carriage and goods to the staple, and from the same returne freely without being disturbed by prises of vs, or of anie other. Sauing to vs and to our heyres all manner of prises royall, of all maner of carriages and victualles throughout all our saide Realme and Lands of olde times due and vsed of right, as haue bene made by vs, and by our Auncestours in times past. And euerie carrier returning from the staple, shall haue a bill vnder the seale of the Maior of the staple, whereby it may be knowen that he serueth the staple, containing the iournies that him needeth for his returne to the house, which bill shall be graunted to him. And the same Maior shalbe sworne that he shal make no such bill for none other then which serueth the staple: And if any such carier, cart, ships, beasts or other thing, which serueth for carriage of that that pertaineth to the staple, be taken, and be within the bierge out of the staple, hue and crie shall be leuied vpon the takers, and the takers shalbe forthwith taken by people of the towne, where the prise was made, or by people of an other towne, if they be lacking, and brought before the Steward & marshall of our house: And there ready punishment shalbe made of them, according as the deede requireth. And if anie such prise be made out of the bierge, hue and crie shalbe leuied, and the takers shalbe taken and arrested by the towne, where such prises shalbe made, or by other townes neare if they be lacking, and brought to the next gaole, and there to be done of them as of theeues, if the deede the same require. And in case that the people of such townes be negligent and will not pursue and arrest such takers, as before is said, the foure townes next shall answer of the damages that may be found before them whom we shal therfo assigne, that the plaintifes haue incurred by their default, if they cannot reasonably excuse themselues thereof. And if such prises be made in a place, where that the staple is, the takers shalbe arrested by the Maiors and ministers of the staple, and right done to the plaintifes by the said Maiors and ministers. So alwayes, that if such prise be made at the staple, and the staple be within the bierge, and the takers arrested be of our house, then the right shalbe done of them by the Mayors & Ministers of the Staple: And the Steward & marshal of our house, or the stewards lieutenant shalbe thereto called, if they will be there, to see that right be done of ỹ said takers according to the law of the Staple. And in case they come not, the Maior & Ministers of the staple shall proceed in the processe, & do iustice according to the law of the staple, notwithstading the not comming of the Steward, or marshall, or lieutenant aforesaid. 7 We haue ordained and established, That the Maiors and Constables of the Staples shall haue Iurisdiction and Recognisance within the townes where the staples shalbe, of people and of all manner of things touching the staple. And that all merchants comming to the staple, their seruants and meiny in the staple, shall be ruled by the Law merchant, of all things touching the staple, and not by the common Law of the Land, nor by vsage of Cities, Boroughs, or other Townes, and that they shal not impleade nor be impleaded before the Iustices of the said places in plea of debt, couenaunt, and trespalles touching the staple, but shal implead all persons, of whom they wil complaine, as well such as bee not of the Staple, as those that bee of the staple, which shall be there found. And in the same manner they shall be impleaded onely before the Maior and Iustices of the staple, which shalbe thereto deputed of all manner of pleas and of action, whereof the cognisance pertaineth to the Ministers of the staple. So alwayes, that all manner of Contracts and Couenants made betwixt Merchant and Merchant or other, whereof the one party is a merchant or minister of the staple, whether the Contract or Couenaunt made, be within the staple or without, and also of trespalles done within the staple to merchants or to ministers of the staple by other, or by any of them to other: the party pl. shal chuse, whether hee wil sue his action or quarrel before the Iustices of the Staple by the Law of the staple, or in other place of the Common Law: And he shalbe thereto receiued. So alwaies, that in the pleas touching any of our house, the Steward or his lieutenant, and the marshalles of our house shalbe with the maior of the staple, to see that right be done to the parties, as before is said, if they wil be there. But pleas of Land and of Freeholde shalbe at the common Law. And if merchants or other people being in the staple, because of the same doe felony or be slaine, robbed or maihemed, by any persons, the Maior of the staple and other couenable shalbe assigned Iustices to heare and determine the said felonies and maihemes within the staple without delay, according to the common law. And if any such felon or trespaller be taken and detained within any franchise to whomsoeuer the same be, because of such felony or maiheme done within the staple, it shalbe forthwith commanded by Writ, to make the said felon or him that did the maiheme, to come before the said Iustices, to doe right of him in forme aforesaid. And if they that haue such prisoners in ward, wil not deliuer them they shal incurre the paine of C.l. towards vs. And neuertheleſſe they shal deliuer the body in the forme aforesaid. And in case that any Indictment be made out of the staple of felonies or trespalles done by people of the staple or other of them within the staple, the same Indictment shalbe sent before the saide Maior, and them which shall be assigned Iustices with him, to doe right in this partie. And if the plea or debate bee made before the Maior of the Staple betwixt the merchants or ministers of the same, and thereupon to trie thereof the trueth, an Enquest or proofe is to be taken: We will, that if the one party and the other be a stranger, it shalbe tried by Strangers. And if the one party and the other be Denizens, it shalbe tried by Denizens. And if the one partie be Denizen and the other an Alien, the one halfe of the enquest of the proofe shalbe of Denizens, and the other halfe of Aliens. Anno 27. Ed. 3. Stat. Staple. cap. 6.

8 To the intent that the Contracts mad within the staple shalbe the better holden and the paiments readily made: We haue ordained and established, That euery Maior of the said staples shal haue power to take Recognisances of debts, which a man wil make before him, in the presence of the Constables of the staple, or one of them. And that in euery of the said staples be a seale ordained, remaining in the custody of the said maior of the staple, under the seales of the same Constables. And that all Obligations which shalbe made vpon such Recognisances, be sealed with the said seale, paying for euerie obligation of C. pound and within, of euery pound an halfe peny. And of euery Obligation aboue an hundred pounds, of euery pound a farthing. And that the Maior of the Staple, by the vertue of the same Letters so sealed, may take and hold in prison the bodies of the debtors after the terme incurred, if he be found within the staple, til they haue made agree to the creditor of the debt and damages. And also arrest the goods of the saide debtors found within the said staple, and deliuer the said goods to the creditors by the estimation, or to sel them at the best that a man may, and deliuer the money to the creditors til the summe be due. And in case that the debtors be not found within the Staple, nor their goods to the summe of the debt, the same shalbe certified in the Chācerie vnder the said seale, by which certification a Writ shal be sent to take the bodies of the said debtors, without putting to mainprise: And to sease their lands & tenements, goods & cattels. And the writ shalbe returned in our Chauncery, with the certification of the value of the saide lands & tenements, goods and cattels. And thereupon due execution to be made from day to day in maner as it is contained in the statute marchant, so that hee to whom the debt is due, haue estate of freehold in the lands and tenements which shall be deliuered to him by vertue of the same proceſſe, and recouery by Writ of Nouel disseisin, in case if he be out. And that the debtor haue no aduantage of the quarter of a yeere that is contained in the said stat. marchant. And in case that no creditour wil haue letters of the said seale, but wil be at the faith of the said debtor, if after the terme incurred he demaund the debt, the debtor shalbe vpon the faith. Anno 27. Ed. 3. cap. 28. Stat. Staple.

20 Forasmuch as the Staple is now of late ordayned, to abide perpetually in England, and at the beginning there was no euidence in certaine, by which a man might assigne or limit in certaine ý, ý the Maiors & Constables in the places where the staples be ordained, ought to take by yere in certain for their trauaile, but it was then assented by the Lords and commons, that of euery sack should be leuied eight pence for the first yeare, and deliuered to the said Maiors and Constables in the places where the saide staples bee assigned, which first yeare passed out of the gule of August last past, it neuertheles commeth as much wools or wel nigh as much to the port of London, as do in all the other staples through the Realme, and to some of other staples commeth as much of woolles, as to two or three of the other staples, so that to one staple commeth more, and to another lesse, so that the Maior and Constables of some place take to much, & in some places too little, & the people be very much charged to pay eight pence ob. a sacke, (as is aforesayde) had vnto regard to the summe of the wools, that passeth ouer the Sea: And all the time that the said staple was abiding beyond the Sea, he that is chosen maior by the Merchants of Eng. did take a certaine by yeare: And also it were reason that it should bee so in England, and that in reasonable manner, euery man according to his trauel, and that the people should not be so much charged: Wherefore it is ordained by the King and the great men, and by the aduice of all the Counsell, that no more shalbe leuied of a sack but foure pence in no part from the gule of August last past hitherto, nor from hencefoorth. And that the foure pence of the sack in euery place where the staple is, shall be put in a bore, and sealed with the seales of the Maior and Constable, to the intent that the said Maior and Constables may be thereof payed of their certaine that they should take. And if at the end of the yeare more be found in the Bore, then the fees of the sayde Maior and Constables shall amount vnto, it shall bee safely kept, to pay and performe the fees of the Maiors and Constables in other Staples, where the foure pence will not thereto suffice. And if any thing remaine in the sayd bores, after the fees paied, the same summe residue, shall be saued to the common profit of the Merchants of the Staple for the yeare to come, and for to pay for the weights made of neiue, and also for payment of other things necessary touching the Staple. And as much as is leuied in all the places where the Staple bee, ouer the sayd summe of foure pence of the sacke, after the gule of August last past, shall bee rebayled and restored to the vses aforesayde. And the fees of the Maior and Constable be ordeyned and limited in the forme as followeth, that is to say, the Mayor of the staple of Westm. shal take a hundred pound and euery of the Constables there tenne Markes. The Maior of Yorke, Kingstone vpon Hul, Norwich, and Wincheller, euery of them twentie pound and euery of the Constables of the sayde places a hundred shillings, the Mayors of Newcastle vpon Tine, Chicheller, and of Exceter tenne pound, and euery of the Constables of those places fiue Markes. And if any of the Mayors and Constables aboue named refuse the office, hee shall pay to the Companie as much as his fee shall amount to. Surueiours.

FIrst it is to be inquired of the Castles and also of other buildings ditched about, what ỹ wals, buildings, timber, stone, lead, and other manner of couering is worth, and how they may be sold according to the very values of the same wals and building. And for how much the buildings without the ditch may be sold, and what they be worth with the gardens, courtilages, doue houses, and all other issues of the courtyardes by the yeare. It is to be inquired also, how many fields are of the demeanes, and how many acres in euery field, and what euerie acre is worth by the yeare. And how many acres of medowe are of the demeanes, and how much euerie acre by it self is worth by the yere to be let out. Also how many acres of pasture there be, and for what beastes or cattels the same pasture is most necessarie, and how many it will find, and of what maner, and what the pasture of euery beast is worth to be let out by yere. Also for ein pasture, that is common, how many and what beastes and cattell the Lord may haue in the same, & how much the pasture of euery beast is worth by the yere to let. Also it is to be inquired of parks, & demean woods, which the Lord may assert & improue at his pleasure, and how many acres they containe, and how much the pasture of an acre is worth, & how much the land is worth after the wood is felled, and how many acres it containeth, & how much euery acre is worth by yeare. Also it is to be enquired of forrein woods, whether other men haue common, and how much the Lord may improue to himselfe of the same woods, & how many acres, and for how much the pasture of euerie acre may be sold, & how much the ground is worth yerely after the wood is felled, and how many acres it containeth, and what euerie acre is worth by the yeare. Also it is to be enquired, whether the Lord may giue or set anything after the felling of the foresayd woods, and what such gifts or sales are worth by yeare. Also it is to be inquired of pawnage, and herbage of the Mowble, and all other profits of Foriestes, Woodes, Riuers, Waste, Mylles. Ponds, Heathes, and Mall, and how much it is worth by the yeare. Also of milles, fishponds, fortall and common, what they bee worth by the yeare. Also it is to be inquired of Freholders, the which do will without as well as within, that is to say, how many Freholders there be, and what manner Landes and tenements, and what fees they hold, and by what seruices, whether certeyn by fealtie or Knights seruice, or otherwise, and what they pay yerely of rent of assise, and who holde by charter, and who not, and who by old tenure, and who by newe feoffement. And it is to be inquired of the saide free tenants, which shall followe the Court of the Countie, and which not, and what and how much falleth to the Lord after the death of such free tenants. It is to be inquired also of customarie tenaunts, that is to witte, how many there be, and howe much land euery of them holdeth, and what workes and customes he doth, & what the workes & customes of euery tenant be worth yearely, and how much rent of assise be payed yearely besides the workes and customes, and which of them may be tared at the will of the Lord, and which not. It is also to be inquired of Cottages, that is to say, what cottages, or courtilages they hold, and by what seruice, and how much they doe pay by the yere for all their cottages and courtilages. It is also to be inquired of pleas and perquisites of the Courtes of the Rolles, which is awing of dogges, and how much they be worth in the yeare in all issues. It is also to be enquired of Churches that belong to the Lordes gift, how many there be, and what and where, and how much euerie Church is worth by the yeare after the true estimation of the same. It is also to be inquired, what be the dutie of heriots, suites, markets, escheats, customes, forfeites, and for ein workes and customs, and what the pleas and perquisites of courts, fines, reliefes, and all other casualties are worth by the yere, that may fall in any of these things. Tiles.

FOr the harme that hath growne for default of true and sufficient making, whiting, and anealing of plaine tile, rose tile, corner tile, and gutter tile: Be it &c. That all and everie person or persons, which hereafter shall vse the occupation of making of any such tils as before is said, shall make it good, reasonable, and verie sufficient, & thoroughly whited and anealed. And that the ground whereof any such tile shall be made, shall be digged and cast vp before the first day of November next before that they shall be made, and that the same earth be tilled and turned before the first day of February, then next following, and not wrought before the first day of March then next following, and that the same ground, before it be put to making of tile, be truely wrought and tried from stones. And also, that the vaine called maine or marle, & chalke, lying commonly in the ground, nere to the earth, convenient to make tile, after the digging of the said ground, whereof any such tile shall be made, shall be well lawfully and truely severed and cast from the earth whereof any such tile shall be made. And that everie such plaine tile so to be made, shall containe in length tenne inches and an halfe, and in breadth six inches and a quarter of an inch, and in thicknesse halfe an inch and halfe a quarter at the least: And that everie such rose tile or creast tile so to be made, shall containe in length thirteene inches, and the thicknesse of halfe an inch and halfe a quarter at the least, with convenient depenesse according. And that everie gutter tile and corner tile to be made, shall containe in length tenne inches and a halfe, with convenient thicknesse, bredth, and depenesse according. And if any person or persons set to sale to any person or persons, any such tile above specified, made or to be made against the sayd ordinance: then the seller thereof shall forfeit to the buyer of the same, the double value of the same tile, and besides that, shall make fine and ransome to the king at his will. And that everie person that findeth himselfe grieved, and will sue in this behalfe, shall have an action of debt against the offenders, wherein shall be made and had like proces, recouerie and execution, as is or may be at this day, in any other actions of debt pursued at the Common Law. And that the plaintife in everie such action (if it be found with him) may recover against the defendant in the same action, his reasonable costs and expences of his suit. And that the defendant in any such action, shall not be admitted to wage his law, or to have any essoyne or protection allowed, nor no auauntage by fourching by essoine or default. And also that the Justices of Peace for the time being, within any county of this Realme, and every of them shall have full power to enquire, heare and determine, by their discretions, aswell by examination or otherwise, the defaults, offences and trespasses, which shall happen to be done against this ordinance, aswell at the kings suite, as at the parties which shall sue by himselfe grieved in that behalfe. And if it be found, or may appeare to the Justices of Peace, or any of them by examination or otherwise by their discretion, that anie person or persons have offended contrary to this ordinance, that then the same Justices before whom it shall be found or appeare, shall assesse vpon the offender in this behalfe no lesse fine, then for euery thousand of plaine tile set to sale contrary to this ordinance fiue shillings. And for every hundred of rose tile, vj. s. viij. d. And for every hundred corner tile or gutter tile y. s sold contrary to this ordinance. And that lesse fine be made after the rate of the same by the discretion of the said Justices, or any of them. And that the same Justices shall have full power to call before them or any of them, at any time & place requisite, such and so many persons, as by their discretion have or shall have best experience & knowledge, in the occupation of making of tile, to search & examine the digging, casting, turning, departing, making, whiting, and anealing aforesaid. And that the same person or persons which so shalbe assigned searchers, shal have ful power to make such search. And that no person put no such tile to sale, before that it be searched by the said Searchers, upon paine of forfeiture of the same tile. And if the same Searchers or any of them doe find that any person or persons, exercising the occupation of tile making, doe offend contrarie to this ordinance, that then the same Searchers shal present such defaults before the Justices of P. at their next Sessions. And that everie such presentment be as strong and effectuall in the law, as the presentment of twelue men. And that such Searchers so to be ordained, assigned, and deputed, shall have of everie such tile-maker, for his labour of the said search, for everie thousand plaine tile searched j. s. of everie hundred rose tile j. s. ob. and everie corner tile and gutter tile q. And that the same Searchers shall doe and execute their effectuall devoir and diligence in this behalfe, according to this ordinance, upon payne of forfeiture to our Soueraigne Lord the King for everie default in this behalfe tenne shillings. And that the Justices of peace shall have power to examine, enquire, and determine the faults of such Searchers in the premisses, in like forme as aboue is ordained for the defaults of Tilemakers. In euery such case the tenant or farmer, tenants or farmers thereof, shall pay for his or their Tithes of the same, after the rate aforesaid, according to the quantitie of such rent or rents, as the same house or houses, shops, warehouses, cellers, or stables, or any of them were last letten for, without fraud or couin, before the making of such Lease. Item, that euerie owner or owners, inheritour or inheritours of any dwelling house, or houses, shoppes, warehouses, Cellers, or Stables, or any of them within the said City and liberties, inhabiting or occupying the same himselfe, or themselues, shal pay after such rate or rythe, as is abouesayde, after the quantitie of such yearely rent as the same was last letten for, without fraud or couin. Item, if any person or persons haue taken, or hereafter shall take any mease or mansion place by lease, and the taker or takers thereof, his or their executors or assigns doth or shall inhabite in part thereof, and haue or hath within eight yeare last past before this order, or hereafter will or shall let out the residue of the same: That then in such case the principal farmer or farmors, or first taker or takers thereof, his or their executors or assignes, shall pay his or their tithes after the rate aforesayde, according to his or their quantitie therein, and that his or their executors, Assignee or Assignees, shall pay his or their tithes after the rate abouesayde, according to the quantitie of his or their rent by yeare. And that if any person or persons haue, or shall take diuers mansion houses, shops, Warehouses, Cellers, or Stables in one lease, and letteth, or shal let out one or moe of the said houses, and keepeth, or shall keep one or moe in his or their owne hands, and inhabiteth or inhabite in the same: that then the said taker or takers, and his or their executors or assigns shall pay his or their tithes after the rate abouesaid, according to the quantitie of the yerely rent of such mansion house or houses, retayned in his or their hands. And that his assignee or assignees of the residue of the said mansion house or houses, shall pay his or their tithes after the rate abouesayd, according to the quantitie of their yearely rents. Item, if such farmer or farmers, or his or their assignees of any mansion house or houses, warehouses, shops, Cellers, or Stables, hath at any time within eight yeres last past, or shal hereafter let ouer all the said mansion house or houses contained in his or their lease, to one person, or to diuers persons: That then the inhabitants, lessers, or occupiers of them, and of euerie of them, shall pay their Tithes after the rate of such rents, as the inhabitants, lessers, or occupiers, and their assignee or assignees, been or shal be charged withall, without fraud or couin. Item if any dwelling house within eight yeares last past, was, or hereafter shall bee conuerted into a warehouse, storehouse, or such like, or if a warehouse, storehouse, or such like within the said eight yeares was, or hereafter shall bee conuerted into a dwelling house: That then the occupier or occupiers thereof shall pay tithes for the same, after the rate aboue declared of mansion house rents. Item that where any person shall demise any Dyehouse, or Brewhouse, with implements conuenient and necessary for dying or brewing, reserving a rent vpon the same, as well in respect of such implements, as in respect of such dyehouse, or brewhouse: That then the tenant shall pay his Tithes after such rate as is aforesaid, the third pennie abated. And that euery principal house or houses, with key or wharf, hauing any crane or gibet belonging to the same, shall pay after the like rate of their rents, as is aforesaid, the third pennie abated. And that other tenantes belonging to houses hauing no crane or gibet, shall pay for his Tythes, as shall be payed for mansion houses, in forme aforesayde. Item, that where any mansion house with a shoppe, stable, warehouses, wharfe with crane, timberyard, tenteryard, or garden belonging to the same, or as parcell of the same, is or shall bee occupied together, that if the same bee hereafter seuered or diuided, or at any time within 8. yeares last past were seuered or diuided: That then the farmer or farmers, occupier or occupiers thereof, shall pay such tithes as is abouesayd, for such shops, stable, warehouses, wharf with crane, timberyard, tenteryard, or garden aforesayd, or seuered or diuided after the rate of their seueral rents thereupon reserued. Item, that the said Citizens and inhabitants shall pay their Tythes quarterly, that is to say, at the feast of Easter, the Natiuitie of Saint Iohn Baptist, the Feast of Saint Michaell the Archangell, and the Natiuitie of our Lord, by euen portions. Item, that euerie housholder, paying tenne shillings rent, or aboue, shall for him, or her selfe bee discharged of their foure offering dayes: But his wife, children, seruant, or others of their familie, taking their rights of the Church at Easter, shall pay two pence for their foure offering dayes yearely. Prouided alwayes, and it is decreed, that if any house or houses, which hath been, or hereafter shall be letten for tenne shillings rent by yeare, or more, be, or hath at any time within 8. yeares last passed, or hereafter shall be diuided and lessed into small parcels or members, yelding lesse yerely rent then tenne shillings by yere: That then the owner or owners, if he or they dwell in any part of such house, or else the principall lessee or lessees, if the owner or owners doe not dwell in some part of the same, shall from henceforth pay for his or their tithes after such rate of rent, as the same house was accustomed to be letten for, before such diuision or dividing into parts or members: And the vnderfarmer and farmers, lesse and lesses, to be discharged of all tithes for such small parcels, parts or members, rented at lesse yearely rent then tenne shillings by yeare without fraud or couin, paying two pence a piece yerely for their foure offering dayes. Prouided alway, and it is decreed, that for such gardens as appertaine not to any mansion house, and which any person or persons holdeth, or shall hold in his or their hands for pleasure, or to his owne vse: that then the person so holding the same shall pay no tithes for the same. But if any person or persons, which holdeth, or shal hold any such garden, containing halfe an acre or more, doth or shal make any yerely profit thereof by way of sale: That then he or they shall pay tithes for the same, after such rate of his rent, as is herein first above specified. Prouided also, that if any such gardens now being of the quantitie of half an acre, or more, be hereafter by fraud or couin diuided into any lesse quantitie or quantities, then to pay tythe according to the rate aboue sayd. Prouided allway, that this decree shall not extend to the houses of great men, or noble men, or noble women, kept in their owne hands, & not letten for any rent, which in times past hath payed no tythes, so long as they shall so continue vnletten. Nor to any Halles of crafts or companies, so long as they be kept vnletten, so y^t the same Hals in times past haue not vsed to pay any tithes. Prouided always, & it is decreed, that this present order and decree, shall not in any wise extend, to bind or charge any shedes, stables, cellers, timbery ardes, ne teinteryards, which were neuer parcell of any dwelling house, ne appertayning or belonging to any dwelling house, ne haue accustomed to pay any Tithes: but that the sayde Citizens and inhabitants shall thereof be quite of payment of any Tithes, as it hath beene vsed and accustomed. Prouided also, and it is decreed, that where lesse summe then after sixteene pence halfe penny in the tenne shillings rent, or lesse sum then two shillings nine pence in the twenty shillings rent, hath beene accustomed to be payed for tythes: That then in such places the sayd Citizens and inhabitants shal pay but onely after such rate as hath beene accustomed. Item it is also decreed, that if any variance, controuersie, or strife, doe or shall hereafter arise in the said Cities for non payment of any tythes: or if any variances or doubt arise vpon the true knowledge or diuision of any rent or tythes, within the liberties of the said Citie, or of any extent or assessement thereof, or if any doubt arise vpon any other thing contayned within this decree: That then vpon complaint made by the partie grieued to the Maior of the Citie of London for the time being, the sayd Mayor by the aduice of counsell, shall call the sayd parties before him, and make a finall end in the same, with costes to be awarded by the discretion of the sayd Maior and his assistants, according to the intent and purport of this present decree. And if the sayd Mayor make not an end thereof within two moneths after complaint to him made, or if any of the sayde parties finde themselues agrieued: that then the L. Chauncelor of Eng. for the time being, vpon complaint to him made within 3. moneths then next following, shal make an end in the same, with such costs to be awarded as shall be thought conuenient, according to the intēt and purport of the said decree. Prouided alwayes, that if any person or persons take any tenement for a lesse rent then it was accustomed to be letten for, by reason of great ruine or decay, brenning, or such like occasions or misfortunes: That then such person or persons, his executors or assignes, shall pay tythes onely after the rate of the rent reserued in his or their Lease and none otherwise, as long as the same Lease shall indure.

10 Not onely the sayd Actes made in the sayde seuen and twentieth and two and thirtieth yeares of the raigne of the sayd late King Henry the eight (before 5. and 8.) concerning true payment of Tythes, and euerie Article and braunch therein contayned, shall abide & stand in their full strength and vertue: But also be it &c. That euerie of the Kings Subiects, shall from henceforth truely and iustly, without fraud or guile diuide, set out, yeld, & pay all manner of their prediall Tythes in their proper kind as they rise & happen, in such maner & form, as hath beene of right yelded & payed within xl. yeres next before the making of this act, or of right or custome ought to haue beene payed. And that no person shall from henceforth take, or cary away any such or like tithes which haue beene yelded or payed within the sayd fortie yeres, or of right ought to haue beene payed in the place or places tytheable in the same, before he hath iustly diuided or set forth for the tithe thereof the tenth part of the same, or otherwise agree for the same tythes with the Parson, Vicars, or other owner, proprietary, or farmer of the same Tythes, vnder the payne of forfeiture of treble value of the Tythes so taken or caried away. And be it &c. that at all times whensoeuer, and as often as the sayd predial tithes shall be due at the tithing time of the same, it to be lawfull to euery party, to whom any of the sayd tithes ought to be payed, or his deputie, or seruāt, to view and see their sayd tythes, to be iustly and truely set forth and seuered from the nine parts, and the same quietly to take and cary away. And if any person cary away his Corne or Hay, or his other predial tithes, before the tithe thereof be set forth, or willingly withdraw his tithes of the same, or of such other things whereof predial tithes ought to be paied, or do stop, or let the Parson, Vicar, proprietary, owner, or other their deputies or farmours, to view, take, and cary away their tythes, as is aboue sayd, by reason whereof the said tithe or tenth is lost, impaired, or hurt: That then vpon due proofe therof made before the Spirituall Judge, or any other Judge, to whom heretofore hee might haue made complaint, the party so carying away, withdrawing, letting, or stopping, shall pay the double value of the tenth or tythe so taken, lost, withdrawne, or caried away, ouer and besides the costes, charges, and expences of the suit in the same, the same to be recouered before the Ecclesiasticall Judge, according to the Kings Ecclesiasticall lawes. And be it &c. That all and euerie person which hath, or shall haue any beastes or other cattell tytheable, going, feeding, or depasturing in any waste or common ground, whereof the Parish is not certainely knowne, shall pay their Tythes for the increase of the sayd cattell so going in the sayde waste or common, to the Parson, proprietarie, portionarie, owner, or other their farmers, or deputies, of the Parish, Hamlet, Towne, or other place, where the owner of the sayde cattell inhabiteth or dwelleth. Prouided alwayes, and be it &c. That noe person shall be sued, or otherwise compelled to yeld, giue, or pay any maner of tithes for any manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, which by the Lawes and Statutes of this Realme, or by any priuiledge or prescriptian, are not chargeable with the payment ment of any such Tythes, or that be discharged by any composition reall. Prouided alwayes, and be it &c. That all such barren heath, or waste ground, other then such as be discharged for the payment of Tythes by Act of Parliament, which before this time haue lien barren, and payed no Tythes, by reason of the same barrennesse, and now be, or hereafter shall bee improued and conuerted into arable ground, or meadow, shall from henceforth after the end and terme of seuen yeares next after such improuement iustly ended and determined, pay tythe for the Corne and Hay, growing vpon the same: any thing in this act to the contrarie in any wise notwithstanding. Prouided alwayes and be it &c. That if any such barren, waste, or heath ground hath before this time borne charged with the payment of any Tithes, and that same be hereafter improued and conuerted into arable ground, or meadow: that then the owner or owners thereof, shall during seuen yeares next following, from and after the same improuement, pay such kind of Tythe, as was payed for the same before the sayde improuement: any thing in this act to the contrarie in any wise notwithstanding. And be it &c. that euerie person exercising merchandises, bargayning and selling, clothing, handycraft, or other art or facultie, being such kind of persons, and in such places, as heretofore within these fortie yeares haue accustomably vsed to pay such personal tithes, or of right ought to pay, other then such as be common day Labourers, shall yearely at or before the Feast of Easter, pay for his personall Tythes, the x. part of his cleare gaines, his charges expenced, according to his estate, condition, or degree, to bee therein abated, allowed, and deducted. Prouided alway, and be it &c. That in all such places where handicraftes men haue vsed to pay their Tythes within these fortie yeare, the same custome of payment of Tythes to be obserued, and to continue: any thing in this Act to the contrarie notwithstanding. And be it &c. That if any person refuse to pay his personall Tythes in forme aforesayd: that then it shall be lawful to the Ordinarie of the same diocesse where the partie that so ought to pay the sayd Tythes is dwelling, to call the same partie before him, and by his discretion to examine him by all lawfull and reasonable meanes, other then by the parties owne corporall oathe, concerning the true payment of the sayde personall Tythes. Prouided alwayes and bee it &c. That all and euerie person and persons, which by the Laws and customes of this Realme, ought to make or pay their offerings, shall yeerely from henceforth well and truely content and pay his or their offerings to the Parson, Vicar, proprietary, or their deputies, or their farmers, of the parish or Parishes, where it shall fortune or happen him or them to dwell or abide. And that at such foure Offering dayes, as at any time heretofore within the space of foure yeares last past, hath bin vsed and accustomed for the payment of the same, and in default therof to pay for their sayd offerings at Easter then next following. Prouided also and be it &c. That this Act or any thing therein contayned, shall not extend to any Parish which standes vpon and towardes the Sea coastes, the commodities and occupying whereof consisteth chiefely in fishing, and haue by reason thereof vsed to satisfie their Tythes by Fish, but that all and euerie such Parish and Parishes, shall hereafter pay their Tythes according to the laudable customes as they haue heretofore of auncient time within this fortie yeares vsed and accustomed, and shall pay their offerings, as is aforesayd. Prouided alwayes and be it &c. that this act, or any thing therein contayned, shall not extend in any wise to the inhabitants of the Citie of London, and Canterburie, & the Suburbes of the same, nor to any other Towne or place that hath vsed to pay their Tythes by their houses, otherwise then they ought or should haue done before the making of this act: any thing contayned in this act to the contrarie in any wise notwithstanding. And be it furthermore enacted, that if any person do subtract or withdraw any manner of Tythes, Obuentions, profits, commodities, or other duties before mentioned, or any part of them, contrarie to the true meaning of this act, or of any other act heretofore made: that then the partie so subtracting, or withdrawing the same, may or shall bee conuented and sued in the Kings Ecclesiasticall Court, by the partie from whom the same shalbe subtracted or withdrawen, to the intent the Kings Iudge Ecclesiasticall, shall and may then and there heare and determine the same, according to the Kings Ecclesiasticall Lawes. And that it shall not bee lawfull vnto the Parson, Vicar, proprietarie, owner, or other their farmers or deputies, contrarie to this act, to conuent or sue such withholder of Tythes, Obuentions, or other dueties aforesayde before any other Iudge then Ecclesiasticall. And if any Archbishop, Bishop, Chancelor, or other Iudge Ecclesiastical, give any sentence in the aforesayd causes of tithes, obuentions, profits, emoluments, and other dueties aforesaid, or in any of them, (and no appeale prohibition hanging) the party condemned doe not obey the said sentence, that then it shall be lawfull to euerie such Iudge Ecclesiasticall, to excommunicate the said partie, so as afore condemned, and disobeying, in the which sentence of excommunication, if the sayde party excommunicate wilfully stand and endure still excommunicate by the space of fortie dayes next after, vpon denunciation and publication thereof in the Parish church of the place or Parish where the party so excommunicate is dwelling, or most abiding, the sayd Iudge Ecclesiasticall may then at his pleasure signifie to the king into his court of Chauncery of the state & condition of the sayd party so excommunicate, and thereupon to require proces De excommunicato capiendo, to bee awarded against euery such person as hath borne so excommunicate. Beit, &c. That if any partie at any time hereafter, for any matter or cause before rehearsed, limited, or appointed by this Act, to be sued or determined in the Kings Ecclesiasticall Court, or before the Ecclesiasticall Iudge, doe sue for any prohibition in any of the Kings Courtes where Prohibitions be-before this time haue bene vsed to be graunted: That then in euery such case, the same party before any prohibition shall be graunted to him or them, shall bring and deliuer to the hands of some of the Iustices or Iudges of the same Court where such party demaunded prohibition, the very true copie of the libell depending in the Ecclesiasticall court, concerning the matter wherefore the party demandeth the prohibition, subscribed or marked with the hand of the same party. And vnder the copy of the said libell shall be written the suggestion wherefore the party so demaundeth the said prohibition, and in case the said suggestion by two honest and sufficient Witnesses at the least, be not proued true in the Court, where the saide prohibition shall be so graunted, within six moneths next following, after the said prohibition shall be so graunted and awarded: that then the party that is letted or hindered of his or their suite in the ecclesiasticall court, by such prohibition, shall vpon his or they⁊ request or suit, without delay haue a Consultation graunted in the same case in the court where the said prohibition was graunted, and shall also recouer double costs and dammages against the party that so pursued the said prohibition, the said costs and damages to be assigned or assented by the court where the said consultation shal be so graunted: for which costs and damages, the party to whom they shalbe awarded, may haue an action of debt, by bill, plaint, or information in any of the Kings Courts of Record, wherein the Defendant shall not wage his or their law, nor haue any essoine or protection alowed or admitted. Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, that this Act, or any thing therein contained, shall not extend to giue any Minister or Iudge Ecclesiasticall, any iurisdiction to holde plea of any matter, cause, or thing being contrary or repugnant, to, or against the effect, intent or meaning of the statute of West. 2. ca. 5. the statutes of Articuli Cleri, Circũspecte agatis, Sylua cædua, the treatise De Regia prohibitione, ne against the statute of An. 1. E. 3. ca. 10. or any of them, ne yet hold plea in any matter whereof the Kings Court of right ought to haue iurisdiction, any thing herein contained to the contrarie in any wise notwithstanding. Prouided neuertheless, where heretofore such a custome hath bene in many parts of Wales, That of such cattell and other goods as hath ben giuen with the marriage of any person, they⁊ tythes haue bene eracted and leuyed by the Parsons and Curats in those partes, which custome being dissonant from any part of this Realme, as it seemed when the said countrey of Wales was through ciuill dissention vnculted, for want of other sufficient profites that might otherwise grow to the curats and ministers there to haue before that time tollerable, so that now the country being wel manured & husbanded, and that tyth is duly paied there of corne, hay, woll, & cheese, and of other increase of all maner of cattell, as it is commonly in all other parts of this Realme, the same custome seemes to be greuous & vnreasonable, specially where the benefits are else sufficient for the finding of the said Ministers and Curates: that it be therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the first day of May next comming, no such tythes of marriage goods be eracted or requyred of any person within the sayd dominion of Wales, or Marches of the same: Any thing in this Act contayned, or any other Act, Custome, Prescription, had or made to the contrarie hereof notwithstanding. Treaſon.

WHereas diuers opinions hath beene before this time, what caſe ſhould be adiudged treaſon, and what not: The King, at the requeſt of the Lords and of the Commons, hath made a declaration in the maner as hereafter followeth, that is to ſay, When a man doth compaſſe or imagine the death of our ſouereigne Lord the King, or of the Lady his wife, or of their eldeſt ſonne and heyre, or if a man doth violate the Kings wife, or the Kings eldeſt daughter vnmarried, or the wife of the kings eldeſt ſonne and heyre, or if a man doe leuy warre againſt our Soueraigne Lord the King in this realme, or be adherent to the Kings enemies in his Realme, giuing to them ayde and comfort in the Realme or elſewhere, and thereof be probably attainted of open déed by men of his condition: And if any man counterfeit the Kings Great or Priuie Seale, or his money, and if a man bring falſe mony into this Realme counterfeit to the mony of England, as the mony called Lushburgh, or other, like to the ſaid money of England, knowing the mony to be falſe, to marchandize or make payment, in deceit of our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord the King, and of his people: And if a man ſlay the Chauncellour, Treaſorer, or the Kings Juſtices of the one Bench or the other, Juſtices in Eyre, or Juſtices of Aſſiſe, and all other Juſtices aſſigned to heare and determine, being in their places doing their Offices: It is to be vnderſtood, that the caſes aboue rehearſed, ought to be iudged treaſon, which extendeth to our ſoueraigne Lord the King, and his royall Maieſtie. And of ſuch treaſon the forfeiture of the Eſcheates pertaineth to our ſoueraigne Lord, as wel of the lands and tenements holden of other as of himſelfe. And moreouer, there is another maner of treaſon, that is to ſay, When a ſeruant ſlayeth his maſter, or a wife her husband, or when a man Secular or Religious ſlaieth his Prelate to whom he oweth faith and obedience. And of ſuch treaſon the Eſcheats ought to pertaine to euery lord of his owne fée. And becauſe that many other like caſes of treaſon may happen in time to come, which a man cannot think nor declare at this preſent time: It is accorded, That if anie other caſe ſuppoſed treaſon, which is not aboue ſpecified, me happen before any Juſtices, the Juſtices ſhall tarry without any going to iudgement of the treaſon, till the caſe be ſhewed and declared before the King and his Parliament, whether it ought to be iudged treaſon or felony. And if percaſe any man of this Realme ride armed couertly or ſecretly with men of armes againſt any other to ſlay him or rob him, or to take him or keepe till he hath made fine or raunſome for to haue his deliuerance, it is not the minde of the King nor his Councell, that in ſuch caſe it ſhall be iudged treaſon, but ſhall be iudged felony or treſpaſſe according to the Lawes of the Land of olde time vſed, and according as the caſe requireth. And if in ſuch caſe or other like before this time, any Juſtices haue iudged treaſon, and for this cauſe the lands and tenements haue commen into the kings hands as forfeit, the chiefe Lords of the Fée ſhall haue the eſcheats of the tenements holden of them, whether that the ſame tenements be in the Kings hands or in others, by gift or in other maner. Sauing alwayes to our ſouereigne Lord the King, the yeere and the waſt, and the forfeitures of cattels, which pertaine to him in the caſes aboue named. And that Writs of Scire facias be graunted in ſuch caſe againſt the land-tenants without other originall, and without allowing any protection in the ſaid ſuite. And that of the lands which be in the K. hands, Writs be graunted to the Sheriffes of the counties where the lands be, to ſet them out of the Kings hands without other delay. Anno 25. Ed. 3. cap. 2.

persons, as it shal please the kings most royal Maiestie to limit and appoint, in which commission shall bee specially mentioned and expressed the names of such person and persons, who shall happen to be accused and examined of treason before any the Kings Maieties councell as is aforesaid, and an expresse mention, that by the testimony of foure of the Kings Councell, such person or persons so accused or examined of Treason, were of good, perfect & whole memorie, at the time of committing their offences, and at the time of their accusation, examination and confession thereof, and that sithence that time they become madde or lunatike. By vertue of which Commission, the Commissioners limited by the same Commission, shall haue power and authority to enquire of the Treasons done by such persons by the inhabitants of freeholders of the Shire where such Commission shall be directed to, whersoeuer the said Treasons were done or committed. And if such person or persons aforesaide, shall happen to be indicted of high Treason, then the said Commissioners without personall appearance or arraignement of such person or persons so indicted, shal cause the Sherife or his ministers, or other hauing authority to returne proces in such cases, to returne a panell before them of sufficient and lawfull freeholders of the Shire where such persons shall be Indicted for the triall of their treasons conteined in their indictment. And after the returne of the said panell and appearance of the Iurie, the said Commissioners in the absence of the said person or persõs so indicted, being mad or lunatik, without any arraignement, answer or plea to the indictmẽt, shall sweare ry. such of the said Iurie as shalbe returned before them, to trie whether the person or persons indicted be guilty of the treasons cõteined in the indictment, or any of them, or not guilty, causing onely ẏ indictment to be read to the said Iurie, and after the reading thereof, cause and suffer open euidence to bee giuen to the Iurie', aswell for the King as for the party touching the Treasons conteined in the Indictment, as to their discretions shall seeme conuenient. Whereupon the Iurie shall be bounden to giue their verdict according to their euidence, as if the person indicted had been present, arraigned and pleaded for the same. And if it shal happen such person or persons so indicted to be found giuilty by the said Iurie so charged to trie such treasons, that then the offenders, of such treasons so found guilty, shall haue such iudgement, and suffer such paines of death, forfeitures of lands, goods, cattels, and all other things, as is commonly limitted in cases of high Treason, and as if such persons had bẽne of good and whole memorie, and personally present arraigned, and pleaded to their indictment, and had beene found guilty thereof, their madnesse or lunacy, or their absence, non arraignement, or not pleading to the said indictment in any wise not letting nor withstanding. Prouided alway, and be it &c. that if any of the Pẽres of this Realme shall happen to bee accused and examined of high Treason before any the kings Councell, and doe confesse the same, and afterwards fall to madnesse or lunacy, as is aforesaid: ẏ then such treasons done & committed by any Pẽere of the Realme, and by him or her confessed vpon examination thereof before any of the Kings Councell, as is aforesaid, and their confessions, if they can write, subscribed with their name shall bee enquired of by vertue of the Kings Commission of oyer and terminer, to be awarded in manner & forme aboue rehearsed. And if they shal happen to be indicted of high Treason by vertue of such Commission, yet neuertheles their triall shall be alwaies had by their Pẽres, before the high Steward of England, to be assigned by the Kings Highnesse. And that the High Steward to be assigned by the Kings Maiesty in euery such case, shall haue the indictment brought to him, and shall cause to be summoned to appeare before him the Peeres of the Realme, as hath bẽne accustomed, at a day & place by the said High Steward to be limitted, at which day and place the said high Steward, after the appearance of the Pẽres before him, hauing the Record of the said Indictment before him, shall in the absence of the person indicted, which shal happen to bee mad or lunatik, as is aforesaid, and without his or her arraignement or pleading to the indictment, cause the said Indictment to be read to the Pẽres, and in their presence cause to be declared by his discretion al maner of euidences and witnes touching the treasons conteined in the said Indictment, and afterward charge the Pẽres vpon their faiths and dueties of allegeance that they owne the kings maiestie, to trie whether the person indicted bee guilty of ẏ treasons conteined in the indictments, or any of them, or not guilty. Treſpaſſe.

IT is prouided alſo that Sherifes ſhall plead pleas of Treſpaſſe in their Counties, as they haue bin accuſtomed to be pleaded. And that none from henceforth ſhall haue Writtes of Treſpaſſe before Iuſticers, vnleſſe hée ſweare by his Faith, that the goods taken away, were worth forty ſhillings at the leaſt. And if hée complaine of beating, he ſhall ſweare by his Faith, that his plaint is true. Touching wounds and maymes, a man ſhall haue his Writ as before hath bẽne vſed. And it is agréed, that Defendants in ſuch pleas may make their Atturnies, where appeale lieth not, ſo that if they be attainted, being abſent, then the Sherife ſhall be commanded to take them, and ſhall haue like paine as they ſhould haue had, if they had bẽne preſent at the iudgement giuen. And if the Plaintifes, from henceforth in ſuch treſpaſſes cauſe themſelues to be eſſoined after the laſt appearance, day ſhall be giuen them vnto the comming of the Iuſtices in Eyre, and the defendants in the meane time ſhall be in peace. In ſuch pleas and other, whereas attachments and diſtreſſes doe lie, if the Defendant eſſoine himſelfe in the Kings ſeruice, and doe not bring his Warrant in at the day giuen him by the eſſoine: It is prouided, that hée ſhall recompence the Plaintifes damages for the iourney, twentie ſhillings, or more, after the diſcretion of the Iuſtices, and neuertheleſſe ſhall be greeuouſly amerced vnto the King. shal by authority of this act, alwais from henceforth be inquired of, tried, heard, & determined before the kings M. and his heires officers and ministers of houshold before named, or y. of them, as is aboue said, by the inquisition & verdict of his highnes & his heirs houshold seruants in his and their check roll, in maner & forme as before & hereafter is expressed in this present act, & at such palace, house or houses, where his M. or his heires shal be at any time hereafter demurrant or abiding. And that all such returns of proces, and al executions and iudgements concerning the premisses, shall be had & done by the officers, before and hereafter expressed, & in maner and forme as before & hereafter in this present act is contained. And that al inquisitions vpon the view of persons slaine, or hereafter to be slaine within any the K. said palaces or houses, or other house or houses aforesaid, shalbe by authority of this act had & take hereafter for euer, by the coroner for the time being of the houshold of our Soueraigne Lord the King, or his heires, without any adioyning or associng of any other Coroner of any shire within this realme, by the oath of vij. or moe, of the yeomen officers of the kings & his heires most honorable houshold, returned by the y. Clerks Comptrollers, the clerk of the check, & clerks marshals, or one of them for the time being of the said houshold, to whom the said Coroner of the same houshold shall direct his precept: which Coroner of our said soueraigne lord the K. houshold, shall be from time to time named, appointed & assigned by the said L. great Maister, or lord Steward for the time being. And that the said coroner of the said houshold shal from time to time for euer, without delay certifie vnder his seale, and the seals of such persons as shal be so sworne before him, al such inquisitions, indictments, & offices vpon the view of all dead bodies, being slaine at anie time sith the feast of All Saints aforesaid, or which hereafter shall be slaine within any the K. said palaces or houses, or other house or houses aforesaid, before the said L. great Maister, or lord St. and in his absence before the Treasorer, Comptroller, & Steward of the Marsh. aforesaid, or before y. of them, whereof the said Steward of the Marshalsey to be one: And that such inquisitiõs & offices so certified, shalbe deemed, adiudged, and taken for euer, as good & effectual in the law, to all intents, constructions, & purposes, as any inquisition taken vpon the view of the body of anie person being dead by anie Coroner of any county of this realme, hath bin, or shalbe adiudged or taken. And be it &c. That the said two clerks Comptrollers, clerks of the Check, & clerkes marshals, for the time being, of the K. said houshold, & of his heires, or one of them for euer, vpon a precept to them, or to any of them hereafter to be made by the said L. great Maister, or Lord Steward, or in the absence of the said L. great Maister, or L. Steward, by the said Treasorer & Comptroler of the K. most honorable houshold, and the said Steward of the Marshalsey, or by two of them, whereof the said Steward of the Marshalsey to be one, shall haue full power to sommon, warne, & returne the names of xxiiij. persons, being yeoman Officers of the K. said houshold, & of his heires, in the said Check roll, to inquire of such treasons, misprisions of treasons, murders, manslaughters, and other malitious strikings, by reason whereof blod is, or shall be shed against the Kings peace, before the said Lord great Maister, or lord Steward, and in his absence before the said Treasorer, Comptroller, and Steward of the Marshalsey, or before two of them at the least, whereof the Steward to be one. And that it shalbe lawfull to the said L. great Maister, or L. Steward, and in his absence to the said Treasorer, Comptroler, and the said Steward aforesaid, or y. of them, whereof the said Steward to be one, before whom such returns shalbe made, as aforesaid, to cause such number of the said xxiiij. persons so returned aboue the number of xij. persons, as to him or them shall seeme expedient, to inquire of such treasons, misprisions of treasons, murders, manslaughters, & other malicious strikings, by reason whereof blod is, or shalbe shed against the Kings peace, within the said places or houses, or other the said house or houses, sith the said feast of All Saints, or at any time hereafter shal be committed or done within the said palace or houses, or other the said house or houses. And if any person or persons be indicted by the said Jury so sworne before them, as is aforesaid, or by inquisition before the said Coroner of the said houshold, & certified before the said L. great Maister, or L. Steward, or in the absence of the said L. great Maister, or lord Steward, before the said Treasorer, Comptroller, and Steward, or before y. of them, whereof the said Steward to be one, as is aforesaid: that then immediatly without delay the said Lord great Maister, or Lord Steward, and in his absence the saide Treasorer, Comptroller, and Steward, or two of them, whereof the said Steward to be one, before whom the said presentment, inquisition, or indictment shall so be found or certified by the said Coroner of the same houshold, shall arraigne before them all & euery such person and persons so indicted, according to the course of the Common Lawe of this realme, & forthwith after issue ioyned betweene the K. our soueraigne lord, his heires or successors, and the prisoner so arraigned, the same day & place, or any other day and place, at the pleasure of the said L. great Maister, or lord Steward, and in his absence at the pleasure of the said Treasorer, Comptroller, and Steward of the Marshalsey, or two of them as is aforesaid, shall make another precept to the said clerks Comptrollers, clerks of the Checke, & clerks Marshals for the time being of the said houshold, or to one of them, to sommon and returne one other Jury of xxiiij. persons, and to appeare before the said L. great Maister, or L. Vagabonds, Beggers and poore people.

IN An. 23 E. 3. c. vlt. An. 34. E. 3. c. 1. An. 7. R. 2. cap. 5. An. 12. R. 2. cap. 7. and An. 11. H. 7. ca. 2. and An. 19. H. 7. c. 12. be acts made against vagabonds and beggers, but all those be repealed by An 1. E. 6. cap. 3.

2 Where in all places throughout this realm, vagabonds and beggers haue of long time increased, and daily doe increase in excessiue numbers by the occasion of idleneſſe, mother and root of all vices whereby hath sprung & daily do spring continuall theeſts, murders, & other sundry heinous offences and enormities to the high displeasure of god, & inquietatiō of the kings people, and to the marueilous disturbance of the common weale: And whereas many good lawes & statutes haue bin before this time diuised as well by the K. our soueraign Lord, as also by diuers his noble progenitors for the due reformation of the premisses, yet notwithstāding the said numbers of vagabonds and beggers, beenot seene diminished, but rather daily augmented and increased. Be it therefore enacted, &c. that the Justices of the peace of all and singular the shires of England within the limits of their commission, & all other Justices of peace, maiors, shiriffs, bailiffs, and other officers of all and euery cities, boroughs, ridings or franchiſe within the realme of England, within the limits of their authoritie, shal from time to time as often as need shall require by their discretions, diuide themselues within the sayd shires, cities, boroughs, ridings or franchiſes, whereof they be Justices of peace, maiors, shiriffs, bailiffs, or officers, and so being diuided, shal make diligent search and enquiry of all aged, poore, and impotent persons, which liue, or of necessitie bee compelled to liue by almes of the charity of the people, that be or shall be hereafter abiding, within euery hundred, rape, wapentake, citie, borough, parish, liberty or franchiſe, within the limits of their diuision, and after ỹ vpon such search made, the said Iu. of peace, maiors, shiriffs, bailiffs and other officers, that is to say, euery of them within the limits of their authorities whereunto they be diuided, shall haue power and authoritie by their discretions, to enable to begge within such hundreds, rape, wapentake, citie, town, parish, or other limits, as they shall appoint such of the said impotent persons, which they shal find and thinke most conuenient within the limits of their diuision, to liue of the charity and almes of the people, and to giue in commaundement to euerie such aged and impotent begger (by them enabled) that none of them shall begge without the limits to them so appointed, and shal also register and write the names of euery such impotent begger by them appointed in a bill or roll indented, the one part thereof to remaine with themselues, and the other part by them to be certified before the Justices of peace at the next Sessions after such search had, to be holden within the said shires, cities, townes or franchiſes, there to remaine vnder the keeping of Custos rotulorum. And that the said Iust. of peace, maiors, shiriffs, bailiffs, and other officers, that is to say, as they be diuided, shall haue power and authority to make such and so many seals to be engraued with the names of the hundreds, rapes, wapentakes, cities, boroughs, towns or places, within ỹ which they shal appoint & limit euery such impotent person to beg, and commit the said seales to the custody of such of them, or to the custodie of such other, as they shal think conuenient, and shall make & deliuer to euery such impotent person by them enabled to beg, a letter containing the name of such impotent person, & witnessing that he is authorized to beg, and the limits within the which he is appointed to beg: The same letter to be sealed with such of the said seales as shal be ingraued with the names of the limit, wherin such impotent person shall be appointed to beg in, and to bee subscribed with the name of one of the sayde Justices or officers aboue sayd. And if any such impotent person so authorized to beg, doe beg in any other place the within such limits as he shal be assigned vnto, that then the Justices of peace, Maiors, Shiriffs, bailiffs, constables, & all other the kings Officers and ministers, shall by their discretions, punish all such persons by imprisonment in the stockes the space of two dayes and two nights, giuing them but only bread & water, and after that, cause euerie such impotent person to be sworne to return again without delay to the hundred, rape, wapentake, citie, borough, parish or franchise where they be authorised to beg in. And it is enacted, that noe such impotent person, as is aboue sayd, after the feast of the Nativity of S. John Baptist next comming shall beg within any part of this Realm, except he be authorised by writing vnder seale as is aboue. And if any such impotēt person after the said feast of S. John be vagrant and goe abegging, hauing no such letter vnder seale, as is aboue specified, that then the Constables and all other inhabitāts within such town or parish where such person shal beg, shall cause euerie such begger to be taken & brought to the next Justice of peace or high Constable of the hundred, and thereupon the sayd Justice of Peace or high Constable, shall commaund the sayd Constables and other inhabitants of the Town or parish which shall bring before him any such begger, ỹ they shal strip him naked from the middle vpwards, and cause him to bee whipped within the townes where he was taken, or within some other towne where the same Justice or high Constable, shall appoint, if it shall seeme to the discretion of the said Justice of peace or high Constable, that it bee conuenient so to punish such begger to him brought, and if not, then to commaund such begger to be set in the stocks in the same towne or parish where he was taken, by the space of three dayes and three nights, there to haue onely bread and water, and thereupon the said Justice or high Constable, afore whom such begger shall be brought, shall limit to him a place to beg in, and giue him a letter vnder seale in forme aboue remembred, and sweare him to depart and repaire thither immediatly after his punishment. And be it &c. that if any person or persons beeing whole and mighty in body, and able to labour at any time after ỹ said feast of S. John, be taken in begging in any part of this realme: or if any man or woman being whole and mighty in body, and able to labour, hauing no land, master, nor vsing any lawfull merchandise, craft or mistery, whereby he might get his liuing, after the same feast be vagrant, and can giue no reckoning how he doth lawfully get his liuing: that then it shall be lawful to the Constables, and all other the kings officers, ministers and subiects, of euerie towne, parish and hamlet, to arrest the saide vagabonds and idle persons, & them bring to any of the Justices of Peace of the same Shire or Libertie, or else to the high cōstable of the hundred, rape or wapentake, within which such persons shall be taken. And if he be taken within any city or towne corporat, then to be brought before the maior, shirifes, or bailifes of euery such towne corporate. And that euery such Justice of Peace, high Constable, Maiors, Shirifes & Bailifes, by their discretions, shal cause euery such idle person so to him brought, to be had to the next Market towne or other place, where the said Justices of peace, high constable, maiors, bailifes and other officers, shall thinke most conuenient by his or their discretions, and there to be tied to the end of a cart naked, and be beaten with whips throughout ỹ same market towne, or other place, til his body be bloody by reason of such whipping. And after such punishment and whipping had, the person so punished by the discretion of the Justice of Peace, high Constable, Maiors, Shirifes, Bailifes, and other officers, afore whom such person shalbe brought, shall bee inioyned vpon his oathe to returne forthwith without delay in the next straight way to the place where he was borne, or where he last dwelled before the same punishment by the space of 3. yeres, & there to put himselfe to labour like as a true man ought to do. And after that done, euerie such person so punished & ordered, shal haue a letter sealed with the seale of the hundred, rape, wapentake, citie, borough, towne, liberty or franchise, wherein he shall be punished, witnessing that he hath beene punished according to this estatute, and containing the day and place of his punishment, and the place whereunto he is limited to goe, and by what time he is limited to come thither, within which time hee may lawfully beg by the way, shewing the same letter, and otherwise not. And if he do not accomplish the order to him appointed by the said letter, then to be eftsoones taken and whipped, and so as often as any default shalbe found in him contrary to the order of this estatute, in euery place to be taken & whipped, til he be repaired where he was borne, or where he last dwelled by the space of 3. yeares, and there put his body to labor for his liuing, or otherwise truely to get his liuing without begging as long as he is able so to doe. And if the person so whipped be an idle person, and no common begger, then after such whipping he shalbe kept in ỹ stocks till he hath found suretie to go to seruice, or else to labour after the discretion of the sayd Justice of P. Mayors, Shirifes, Baylifes, high Constables, or other such officers, afore whom any such idle perso being no common begger, shal be brought, if by the discretion of the same Justice of Peace, Maior, shirife, bailife, high constable, or other such head offices, it be so thought conuenient, and that the party so punished be able to find suretie, or els to be ordered and sworne to repaire to the place where he was borne, or where he last dwelled by ỹ space of 3. yeres, & to haue like letter & such further punishmēt if he eftsoons offendeth this estatute, as is aboue appointed, to, & for the commō, strong, & able beggers, & so frō time to time to be ordered & punished, til he put his body to labour, or otherwise get his liuing truly according to ỹ law. And that ỹ Iu. of ỹ P. of euery shire, riding, city, towne & liberty, shall haue poiver & authority within the limits of their cōmissions, to enquire of all Maiors, Bailifes, Constables and other officers, and persōs that shalbe negligent in executing of this act. And if ỹ constables & inhabitants within any town or parish where any such impotent person or strong begger doth happē to beg, contrary to the forme of this statute, be negligent, and take not euery such impotent & strong begger that so shall beg against the forme of this estatute, and order, and punish euerie such begger

And in case he can get him no Maister to worke within the said terme, then he is assigned to passe directly to D. in the Countie of R. where he saith he was borne, or last dwelled by the space of three yeres. And he is allowed fourteene dayes next after the said six weekes for his passage thither: or such number of dayes as to him shall be limited by the discretion of the maker of the said letter. In witnesse whereof the Seale of the Prison from the which he was deliuered, thereunto is set. And in such Shires where there is no Gaole, the Sheriffe thereof for the time being, shall cause a Seale to be ingraued with the name of the Shire, and shall order and vse the same Seale, to and for such persons deliuered, as is aforesaid, after like manner and forme as the Gaoler and Keeper of the Gaole is limited and appointed to doe by this Act. And it is also enacted, That euerie Clerke of the Peace of the Shire, within the which such person shall be deliuered, and euerie common Clerke of euerie Citie, Borough, or Towne corporate, within the which any such person shal be deliuered, shall make for euerie such person as shall be so deliuered, where they be such Officers, the said letter in forme aboue said, without any fee taking for the same, and shal deliuer euerie such letter to the Gaoler or Keeper of the prison, from the which such person shall be deliuered. And if there bee no Gaole there, then to the Sheriffe of the Shire where such deliuerance shall be had, within one day next after the end of the Sessions where any such deliuerance is had, vpon paine to lose and forfeit for default of euerie letter twelue pence to the King our Soueraigne Lord. And that the Gaoler or Keeper of the prison from the which the said person shall be so deliuered, and in case there bee no Gaole, then the Sheriffe of the Shire where any such deliuerance shall be had, shall not suffer any such person to goe abroad to beg for his fees, nor depart out of prison, except it be to seruice or labour, vnlesse the same Gaoler or Sheriffe first deliuer to the said person the said letter, containing his name, sealed with the Seale of the prison, from the which he shall be deliuered, or else with the Seale ingraued with the name of the Shire, if there be no prison, vpon paine for euerie default to lose twelue pence to our sayd Soueraigne Lord. And it is enacted, That if any person or persons so being deliuered out of prison, at any time after the said Feast, do beg, not hauing the sayd letter sealed, in forme aboue said, or beg contrarie to the tenor of the same letter, that then hee shall be taken, ordered, and whipped in euerie behalf, like as is aboue appointed for strong beggers: and that to be done and executed by such as be aboue limited to doe the same vpon strong beggers, and in such wise, and vpon such paine as is afore limited for execution of the punishment of strong beggers. Prouided allwayes, That it be lawfull to euerie person and persons being bounden by reason of any foundation or ordinance, to giue or distribute any money in almes, and also to euerie person and persons at common doles vsed at burials or obites, to giue and dispose in almes any money to euerie person and persons comming to such almes or doles, after like manner and forme as they haue beene accustomed to doe in that behalfe afore the making of this Act, without any danger or penaltie of this Statute, any thing contained in this present Statute to the contrarie thereof notwithstanding. Prouided also, That it be lawfull to all Maisters and Gouernours of Hospitals, to lodge and harbour any person and persons of charities of almes, according to the foundation of such Hospitals, and to giue money in almes, in as large manner and forme as they are bounden or ought to doe, Any thing in this Statute to the contrarie thereof notwithstanding. And this Act to endure vnto the last day of the next Parliament. An. 22. H. 8. cap. 12. And after Anno 14. Eliz. cap. 5. (here following 9.) this Act was repealed. And An. 35. Eliz. ca. 7. it is enacted that so much of ỳ Act (viz. of 22. H. 8. cap. 12. which is intituled, An Act concerning how aged, poore, and impotent persons compelled to liue by almes, shall be ordered, and how vagabonds and mightie strong beggers shall be punished) as concerneth the punishment of any such begger, impotent, or vagabond person, by whipping, and all branches, articles, and clauses depending vpon the same, other then the compelling of such persons to be sworne, shal from henceforth stand and be reuiued, and remaine in his full force and strength.

9. Whereas the parts of this Realme of England and Wales be presently with rogues, vagabonds, and sturdie beggers, exceedingly pestered, by meanes whereof daily happen murthers, theftes, and other great outrages, to the high displeasure of Almightie God, and to the great annoy of the commonwealth: and for auoyding confusion by reason of numbers of lawes concerning the premisses, standing in force together: Be it enacted, That the Statute made in the two and twentieth yeare of the raigne of the late King Henrie the eight, intituled, An Act concerning aged, poore, and impotent persons, compelled to live by almes, how they shall be ordered, & how vagabonds and wightie strong beggers shall be punished (before 4.) And another Act intituled, An Act touching the punishment of vagabonds and other idle persons, made in the 3. and 4. yeare of the late King Edward the first (before 5.) and another Act made in the fift yeare of the raigne of our Soueraigne Ladie the Queene that nowis, intituled, An Act for the relefe of the poore (before 8.) And euerie branch, article, clause, and sentence in them, and euerie of them contained, shall be from and after the Feast of S. Bartholomew the Apostle next comming, vtterly void, frustrat, and of none effect. (But now see here 2. the said Act of 22. Henr. 8. in the greatest part thereof reuiued.) Be it also enacted by the authoritie of this present Parliament, as well for the better suppressing of the said outragious enemies to the Commonweale, as for the charitable releeuing of the aged and impotent poore people, in manner and forme following. First, that all and euerie person and persons whatsoeuer they be, being aboue the age of fourteene yeares, being hereafter set forth by this Act of Parliament, to be rogues, vagabonds, or sturdie beggers, and be at any time after the Feast of Saint Bartholomewes the Apostle next comming, taken begging in any part of this Realme, or taken vagatant, wandering, and misordering themselues, contrarie to the purport of this present Act of Parliament, in any part of the same, shall vpon their apprehension be brought before one of the Justices of Peace, or Maior, or chiefe Officer of Cities, Boroughes, and Townes corporate, within the Countie, Citie, Borough, or Towne corporate, where the apprehension shall happen to be, and by the said Justice or head Officer, to be presently committed to the common gaole of the said Countie, being apprehended within the Countie, or else such other place as by the Justices of peace of that Countie, or three of them, at any their generall Sessions shall be appointed: and if he be taken within any Citie, Borough, or Towne corporate, then to be committed to the prison of the sayd Citie, Borough, or Towne corporate, there to remaine without baile or mainprise, vntill the next Sessions of the Peace, or generall gaole deliuerie for the said Shire, Citie, Borough, or Towne corporate to be holden, which shall first happen, and the Constables or other officers, for the conueying of such rogue or vagabond by commaundement of the said Justices, to haue such reasonable charges for themselues and the prisoners from time to time, borne by the Parish or Parishes where the sayd rogue or vagabond shall happen to be taken, as in the discression of the Justices of peace present at the next Assise, or at the Sessions of the peace then next kept within the shire where the prisoner is apprehended, shall seeme conuenient: (But see some alteration of this after 10.) At which Sessions or Gaole deliuerie, if such person or persons be duely conuict of his or her roguish or vagabonds trade of life, either by enquest of Office, or by the testimonie of two honest and credible witnesses vpon their oathes: What then immediately he or she shall be adiudged to be grieuously whipped, and burnt through the gristle of the right eare, with a hot yron of the compasse of an inch about, (But now see here 11.) manifesting his or her roguish kind of life, and his other punishment receiued for the same, whereof entrie shall be made of record by the Clerke of the Peace of the same Shire, in the records of the same Sessions, which iudgement shall also presently be executed, except some honest persons valued at the last Subsidie next before that time, to fiue pounds in goods, or twentie shillings in lands, or else some such honest householder, as by the Justices of the peace of the same Countie, or two of them shall be allowed, will of his charitie be contented presently to take such offender before the same Justices into his seruice for one whole yeare next following, and to that end, will presently before the said Justices enter into bond by recognisance, to the vse of our Soueraign Ladie the Queene, to pay to our said Soueraigne Ladie the Queene, the summe of fiue pounds, if he keepeth not the sayd offender in his seruice by the space of the sayd whole yeare, and so bring him or her vnto the Sessions at the yeares end, or then good proofe of his or her death, during the sayd yeare, the sayd Clerke of the Peace taking for the said recognisance but twelue pence onely. And if such rogue or vagabond so taken into seruice, depart within the sayd yeare from the said seruice, against the will of him that so taketh him or her into seruice: What then such rogue or vagabond shall be whipped or burnt through the gristle of the right eare with a hot yron, as is aforesaid. (But now see here after 11.) Prouided alwaies neuertheleſſe, if the said person so committed, or to be committed, come fore the next Sessions of the peace, or the next gaole deliuerie, to be holden for the said Countie, or before their committing, and doe find any such suretie as is next before recited, to be bound in forme aforesayd for him or her, for one whole yeare: Then the said person shall not tarrie in the gaole till the next Sessions, or till the next gaole deliuerie. And be it further enacted, That the sayd person or persons so marked, or adiudged to be burnt, as aforesaid, shall not be dealt withall againe by way of punishment, by the space of fortie dayes, next after the said punishment executed, or adiudged to be burnt as is aforesaid, if he or she haue licence for the sayd fortie dayes from two Justices of the Peace of the same Shire, testifying the punishment receiued, or iudgement giuen. And if such rogue or vagabond so take into seruice, depart within the said two yeares, from his or her said seruice, against the will of him that so toke him or her into seruice: That then such rogue or vagabond shall be taken, adiudged, and deemed as a felon in all respects, and shall in all degrees haue, suffer, and forfeit as a felon, without allowance or benefit of Clergie, or Sanctuarie. (But now see here after 11.) And if such rogue or vagabond after fortie dayes next after he or she shall bee two seuerall times take into seruice as is aforesaid, doe either in ỳ said Countie, or elswhere eftsoons the 3. time fall againe to a kind of roguish or vagabond trade of life: That then such rogue or vagabond shall be adiudged and deemed for a felon, and suffer paines of death, and losse of lands and goods as a felon, without allowance or benefit of Clergie, or Sanctuarie. (But see here after 11.) And for the full expressing what person and persons shall be intended within this braunch, to be rogues, vagabonds, and sturdy beggers, to haue and receiue the punishment aforesaid, for the said lewd manner of life: It is now published, declared, and set forth by the authoritie of this present Parliamẽt, That all and euery such person and persons, that be, or vtter themselues to be Proctors or Procurators, going in or about any countrey or countries within this realme, without sufficient authoritie deriued from, or vnder our Soueraigne Ladie the Queene: And all other idle persons going about in any countrey of the realm, vsing subtil, craftie, and vnlawful games or plaies, and some of them faining themselues to haue knowledge in Phisnomie, Palmestrie, or other abused sciences, whereby they beare the people in hand they can tell their destinies, deathes, and fortunes, and such other like fantasticall imaginations: and all and euerie person and persons, being whole and mightie in bodie, and able to labour, hauing not land or Master, nor vsing any lawfull marchandise, craft, or mysterie, whereby hee or shee might get his or her liuing, and can giue no reckoning how he or shee doeth lawfully get his or her liuing: and all Fencers, Bearewards, common Players in Enterludes, and Pinkrels, not belonging to any Baron of this Realme, or towards any other Honourable personage of greater degree, all Iuglers, Pedlers, Tinkers, and petie Chapmen, which sayd Fencers, Bearewardes, common Players in Enterludes, Minstrels, Iuglers, Pedlers, Tinkers, and petie Chapmen, shall wander abroad and haue not licence of two Iustices of the Peace at the least, whereof one to be of the Quorum, where and in what Shire they shall happen to wander: And all common Labourers, being persons able in body, vsing loytering, and refusing to worke for such reasonable wages as is taxed and commonly giuen in such parts where such persons do or shal happen to dwell: And all counterfeiters of licences, passports, and all vsers of the same, knowing the same to be counterfeit, and all Schollers of the Vniuersities of Oxford or Cambridge, that goe about begging, not being authorised vnder the Seale of the sayd Vniuersities by the Commissarie, Chauncellor, or Vicechauncellor of the same: And all Shipmen, pretending losses by Sea, other then such as shall bee hereafter prouided for: And all persons deliuered out of gaols, that beg for their fees, or doe trauell to their countries or friends, not hauing licence from two Iustices of the Peace of the same Countie where he or she was deliuered, shall be taken, adiudged, and deemed rogues, vagabonds, and sturdie beggers, intended by this present Act, together with all and euerie such other person and persons as shall be hereafter, for altering and breaking of such good orders, as in the second part of this present Act shal be established for the reliefe of the aged and impotent poore people, set forth and declared to be vagabonds. And further be it enacted, That if any person or persons, after the said Feast of Saint Bartholomew, giue any harbour, money or lodging, or any other reliefe, to any rogue, vagabond, or sturdy begger, either marked as before, or not marked, not hauing such a licence as is before recited, from two Iustices of Peace then in continuance, and that duely proued before the Iustices of the Peace at their Quarter Sessions; shal make such fine to the Queenes Maiestie, as by the discretions of the said Iustices, or the more part of them at their generall Sessions shall be assessed, so as the same exceed not twentie shillings. And also if any person or persons doe disturbe or let the execution of this Act in any manner of wise, or make rescous against any Maior, Sherife, Bailife, or other person that shall endeuour himselfe for or about the due execution hereof: shall forfeit and lose fiue pounds, and ouer that shall haue imprisonment at the Queenes Maiesties pleasure. wayes, That this Act, nor any thing therein contained, shall extend to make any person or persons accessarie or accessaries to the said felonies made by this Statute, nor that any attainder by any the felonies aforesaid, shall worke or haue any corruption of bloud in the issues or line of the person attainted. Prouided also, That it shall be still lawfull to all Maisters & Gouernours of the Hospitals, to lodge or harbour any impotent or aged person or persons of charitie or almes, according to their foundation, and to giue money in almes, in as large manner as they are bound to doe by their foundation, to any such aged or impotent person: Any thing herein contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding. Prouided alway, That Shipmen and Souldies hauing licence of the next two Iustices of the Peace, to the place where they first happened to land, or where they first entred into this Realme, shall and may passe according to the purport of their licence, and intent of this Act of Parliament: Any thing herein contained to the contrarie in any wise notwithstanding. Be it also further prouided, That no licence recited in this Statute, shall giue any manner libertie, or be of any maner force, but only in the Shire whereof the granter or granters of such licence shall be Iustice or Iustices of Peace. Wherefore if the sayd partie licenced will haue any further passage without the daunger of this Law, then the Shire where his first licence is graunted, it shall be behouefull for him to procure, and get in euerie other Shire where he intendeth to passe, one other licence from two Iustices of the Peace of the said Shire, and so from Shire to Shire to the end of his iourney. Be it also prouided, That this Act, nor any thing therin cõtained, do in any wise extend to any Cockers or Harnest folkes, that trauell into any countrie of this Realme for Harnest worke, either corne Harnest, or hay Harnest, if they doe worke and labour accordingly, neither yet to any that happeneth to be robbed or spoiled by the way, neither yet to any Seruingmen that be of honest behauiour, that be turned from their Maisters, or whose Maister or Mistresse shall be dead, for the space of six moneths next after such turning away, or death of such Maister or Mistresse, so as euerie such Seruingman hath a Testimonial from his Maister or Mistresse, or from two Iustices of the Peace of the same Countie, declaring such turning away, or such death of his Maister or Mistresse. Prouided alwayes, That it shall be lawfull to the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper of the great Seale of England for the time being, to make licence vnder the sayd great Seale, as heretofore hath beene accustomed, and that the sayd licence and licences shall as large ly extend as the contents of them will beare: Any thing herein to the contrarie in anywise notwithstanding. Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, That this present Act, or any thing therein contained, shal not extend to make frustrate or void any Safeconduct, Passport, or Licence, made or graunted, or to be made or graunted by the Lord Deputie of Ireland, or by the Lord Gouernour of the Townes and garrisons of Berwicke, or Carlile, for the time being, or any other chiefe Captaine or Gouernor of any castle or fortresse of the Quenes Maiestie, or by any other in his or their absence, hauing the charge of the said Townes and Garrisons, or by any the Guardians of the three Marches towards Scotland, or by any Generall, Lieutenant, or other Officer appointed by the Quenes Maiestie to haue the charge or conduction of any Armie, garrison, or power of men, leuied or to be leuied by her Highnesse order, appointment, and for the especiall seruice and affaires of her Maiestie, her heires or successors, or by any priuate Captaine, vpon the dispersing of any Armie, onely to any souldier or souldiers, or any other person or persons whatsoeuer, within these her Realmes of England and Ireland, passing by vertue thereof about his or their lawfull businesse and affaires: but that he or they shall and may quietly without any let or disturbance, enioy the benefit, effect, and true meaning thereof, in as large and ample manner and forme as heretofore it hath beene vsed and accustomed: Any thing in this present Act mentioned to the contrarie in any wise notwithstanding. Prouided alwayes, That this present Act, or any thing therein contained, shall not in any wise extend to the punishment of any such person or persons, as by this Statute are limited for rogues, vnlesse the same be of the age of foureteene yeares or aboue, but that they and euerie of them vnder that age shall be punished with whipping or stocking, as heretofore hath beene vsed and appointed by the Lawes and Statutes in that case prouided, and now repealed: This Act or any thing therein contained to the contrarie hereof in any wise notwithstanding. And it is further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if within any Towne or Parish, where any such vagabond or rogue shall happen to begge, or make his abode, contrarie to the forme of this Statute, the Constable or Tithingman be negligent, and doe not his or their best indeuour for the apprehension of such vagabond or rogue, which there shall beg or make abode, contrarie to the forme in this Statute limited, or shall willingly suffer the sayd vagabond or rogue to escape from the punishment or order in the Statute prescribed: That then the sayd Constable or Tithingman in whom such default shall be, shall lose and forfeit for euerie such vagabond and vagarant person, that shall be suffered to beg, or make abode within his authoritie, contrarie to the forme of this Statute, six shillings eight pence. And forasmuch as charitie would, that poore aged, & impotent persons should as necessarily be prouided for, as the said rogues, vagabonds, and sturdie beggers expressed, and that the said aged, impotent, and poore people, should haue conuenient habitations and abiding places throughout this Realme, to settle themselues vpon, to the end that they, nor any of them should hereafter beg, or wander about: It is therefore enacted by the authoritie of this present Parliament, That the Iustices of Peace of all and singular the Shires of England and Wales, within the limits of their Commissions, and all other Iustices of the no Eſſoine, Protection, nor Wager of law ſhall be allowed or admitted to the partie defendant. And if the ſaid High Conſtables ſhall be remiſſe or negligent to ſue, or ſhall refuſe to ſue the ſaid Collectors, and euerie of them, within two moneths next after ſuch refuſall or negligence, in or by the ſayd Collector: That then the ſaid High Conſtables or Tithingmen ſhall forfeit and loſe fiue pounds of lawfull money of England, to the vſe of the poore of the ſame place, to be ſued for by and in the name of two of the next Juſtices to the ſayd place or places, being out of Cities, Boroughes, and Townes corporate: if within, then by the Maior, Bailifes, or other head officers of the ſaid Cities, Boroughs, or Townes corporate, in any Court of Record, or Lords Court, by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, in which no Eſſoine, Protection, or Wager of law ſhall be allowed. And further be it enacted, That the ſaid Collectors, and euerie of them, ſo to be choſen as is aforeſaid, ſhall make their iuſt account halfe yearely, of the ſaid collection and gathering, to two Juſtices of the Peace, dwelling next the ſaid abiding place or places, not being within any Citie, Borough, or Towne corporate, or to the Maior, Sherife, or other chiefe Officers of the ſaid Cities, Boroughes, or Towns corporate: And when they goe out of their offices, they ſhall deliuer, or cauſe to be deliuered forthwith vpon their accounts, all ſuch ſurpluſages of their collection and gathering, as ſhall then remaine vndeſtributed, to be ordered by the ſayd Juſtices, Maiors, Bailifes, or other head officers, vpon the ſaid paine of tenne pounds. If any ſuch Collector ſhall refuſe to make his ſayd account, or neglect the ſame by the ſpace of fouretéene daies after requeſt to him therefore made: Then the ſaid two Juſtices, or one of them, to commit the ſaid Collector to the next gaole for the ſaid Countie, there to remain without baile or mainprize, til he haue made his ſaid account, and immediate paiment & deliuery of all ſuch ſurpluſages as he hath receiued. And be it further enacted, That if any perſon or perſons, being able to further this charitable worke, will obſtinately refuſe to giue towards the helpe and reliefe of the ſayd poore people, or doe wilfully diſcourage other from ſo charitable a déed: the ſaid obſtinat perſon or wilfull diſcourager ſhall preſently be brought before two Juſtices of the peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum of the ſame Countie, to ſhew the cauſe of his obſtinate refuſall, or wilfull diſcouragement, and to abide ſuch order therein as the ſaid Juſtices ſhall appoint: if he refuſe ſo to doe, then to be committed to the next gaole for the ſaid Shire, there to remaine vntill he be contented with the ſaid order, and doe performe the ſame. And it is alſo further enacted, That if any of the ſaid aged and impotent perſons, not being ſo diſeaſed, lame, or impotent, but that they may worke in ſome maner of worke, ſhall bée by the Ouerſéers of the ſayd abiding place, appointed to worke, if they refuſe, then in forme aforeſayd to bée whipped and ſtocked for their firſt refuſall, and for their ſecond refuſall to bee puniſhed in caſe of Vagabonds, in the ſaid firſt degrée of puniſhment. Prouided alwayes, and bée it further enacted by the authoritie of this preſent Parliament, That three Juſtices of the Peace, whereof one to bée of the Quorum, of and with the ſurpluſages of the ſayd collections and forfeytures (the ſayd poore and impotent people ſatiſfied and prouided for) ſhall by their diſcretions in ſuch conuenient place and places within the ſayde Shires, as they ſhall thinke meet, place and ſettle to worke the ragues and vagabonds that ſhall bée diſpoſed to worke, borne within their ſaid Counties, or there abiding for the moſt part within the ſayd three yeares, there to be holden to workes by the ouerſight of the ſaid Ouerſéers, to get their liuings, and to liue and to be ſuſtained onely vpon their labour and trauell. Be it alſo further enacted by the authoritie of this preſent Parliament, That if any beggers child, being aboue the age of fiue yeares, and vnder fouretéene yeares, being male or female, ſhall bée liked of by any ſubiect of this Realme of honeſt calling, who ſhall be willing to take the ſaid child into ſeruice, the ſaid ſubiect ſhall at the next generall Seſſions to be holden for the ſayd Countie, by order of the Juſtices there, or the moſt part of them, haue the ſayd child bound with him: if it be a man child, till the age of twentie foure yeares, if it be a woman child, till the age of eightéene yeares. If the child doe after depart or be taken, or be inticed from the ſaid Maſter or Miſtreſſe, the Maſter or Miſtreſſe to haue their remedie by order of the Statute of Labourers (before in Labourers 38. for all other Statutes bee repealed) as for their ſeruát, either by way of action or otherwiſe, as well againſt the child, as againſt the taker or intiſer thereof. Be it alſo enacted by authoritie of this preſent Parliament, That all ỹ forfeitures appointed, or to grow by this Statute (except the forfeitures of Juſtices of Peace) ſhall wholly goe and be imployed to the vſe of the poore aforeſayd, and ſhall bée leuied by diſtreſſe, by the diſcretion of the Juſtices of the ſame Countie, or two of them, or other head Officers aforeſayd. And that the Juſtices of Peace in all Shires of England, ſhall in their Quarter Seſſions next after Eaſter, yerely examine the performance or not performance of this Statute, according to the tenour thereof, as they are bound to doe the Statute of Labourers, and at their ſayd Seſſions ſhall yearely appoint new Collectors, and new Ouerſéers, for the cauſes aforeſayd, and ſhall then alſo agrée vpon new viewes and ſearches of the ſayd impotent people, within euerie their limits for the yeare following, if néed ſhall bée, and further at their ſaid Seſſions, ſhall take order by their good diſcretions, for all and euerie thing and things that may in any wiſe further the intent of this Act. And bée it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſayd, That three Juſtices of Peace, within all the Shires of this Realme, whereof one to bee of the Quorum, ſhall haue full power by authoritie of this preſent Parliament, to heare and determine all cauſes (except forfeitures of Juſtices of Peace) that ſhall come in queſtion by reaſon of this preſent Act. also, that to aduoyde as it is thought that the inhabitants of diuers Counties, Cities, and Townes within this Realme, be not able to releeue the poore, lame, and impotent persons with money, to be collected in manner and forme aforesaid, and that it were also great a burthen to Collectors, for to gather meat, drinke, coyne, or other things for their releefe to be imployed and bestowed in forme aforesaid: Therefore it is further enacted, That it shall be lawfull to and for the Justices of the peace, in their open Sessions of the Peace, or for the most part of them there assembled, within any the Counties, Cities, or Townes of this Realme, where collection of money cannot presently be had, as this present Act willeth and appointeth, to graunt licence vnder their hands and seales, to such and so many of the said poore and impotent, or diseased persons, or to any other person or persons to be by the sayd Justices assigned and allowed for the said poore, to aske, gather, and receiue, within such other Towne, Parish or Parishes of the said Countie, as the sayd Justices, or the most part of them there then in their said Session assembled, shall especially name, appoint, limit, and assigne, the charitable deuotion and almes at the house or houses of the inhabitants of such Townes, Parish or Parishes, by the sayd Justices named, appointed, limited, or assigned, so that they doe appoynt the sayd poore so to bee releeued onely within the Townes and Parishes being within the diuisions of the same Justices, that so shall giue such licence or licences: And that the inhabitants of euery such Parish or Parishes, to the which such poore impotent persons shall be so appointed, as is aforesaid, shall be coated and bound by vertue of this Act, vnder such paine, as to the discretion of the said Justices there in their Sessions assembled, or the most part of them, shall seeme conuenient, to releeue the sayd poore and impotent persons, in such sort, as the said Justices there assembled shall appoint. And be it further enacted, That if it shall happen any Citie, or Towne corporate, to haue in it more impotent and poore folkes, not able to labour, then the sayd Towne or Citie is able to releeue, and the sayd Citie or Towne corporate is a Countie of it selfe, or situate, or standing in one Countie, and immediately adioyning to another, that in those Cities or Townes, the Maior, or head Officers of the said Citie or Towne, shall make certificate to the Justices of the Counties adioyning to the sayd Cities or Townes, and the same Justices of the sayd adioyning Countie or Townes in their generall Sessions of the Peace, shall giue licence, and follow the order aboue remembred, according as other Justices of the counties in the which any towne or parish surcharged standeth, are before limited and authorized to doe. Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, That all & euerie summe & summes of money from henceforth to be collected or gathered within the citie of London, and the liberties of the same, by vertue of this Act, shalbe paid vnto the Governor of the Hospitall, called the Hospitall of Christs Church within the said Citie of London, for the time being, and shalbe by them from time to time distributed and bestowed for the releefe of the poore of the same Citie, according to their wisedomes and discretions: Any thing in this Statute contained to the contrarie notwithstanding. Prouided also and be it enacted by the authorities aforesayd, That all and euerie summe and summes of money from henceforth to be collected or gathered within the Citie of Couentrie, and the liberties of the same, by vertue of this Act, towards the maintenance and releefe of the Hospitall of poore people, erected in the same Citie, shalbe paid vnto such gouernor or gouernors of the said Hospitall, as now is or hereafter shall be admitted and appointed by the Maior and Aldermen of the said Citie of Couentrie, or the more part of them, for the time being, and such gouernour and gouernours so admitted and appointed, as is aforesaid, shall from time to time distribute and bestow for the releefe of the poore within the said Citie, the said summe or summes of money, according to their wisedomes and discretions: Any thing mentioned in this Act to the contrarie notwithstanding. Prouided also, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, That all and euerie summe and summes of money, from henceforth to be payed, collected, or gathered within the Citie of Gloucester, liberties and limits of the same Citie, for and toward the vse or releefe of the poore, and all and euerie other releefe, which shall be due and payable, or is to be yeelded within the sayd Citie, liberties, or limits, for and toward the releefe of the said poore, shall be from time to time payed and deliuered, or otherwise shall stand and be at the onely rule, order, and disposition of the President and Gouernours of the Hospitall of Saint Bartholomew, of the foundation of our most gracious Soueraigne Ladie Queene Elizabeth, within the sayd Citie of Gloucester for the time being, and shall be by them from time to time distributed and bestowed for the releefe of the poore of the Citie, according to their wisedomes and discretions. And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforesayd, That the Bishop of euerie Diocese, or his Chauncellor for the time being, shall yearely visit all Hospitals in the Diocis of such Bishop, where no Visitor by the founder or founders is appointed, if the founder of the said Hospitall bee then dead, and to see and take order, that the sayd Hospitals be ordered or vsed according to the sayd Statutes and ordinances of the foundation thereof, and if the founder be then liuing, the said founder to visit the same during his life, without any the Bishops visitation, and the same visitation to be at the onely costs and charges of the Visitors, and not of the Hospitall: And that it shall be lawfull to the Bishop of the Diocese for the time being where such Hospitall is, or shall be, or his Chauncellor, vpon complaint, or other intelligence of iust cause, to take account how the rents, reuenues, or profits of any such Hospitall hath been bestowed and spent, to call before him or them the said Hospitall to account, all such person & persons as

And if any person or persons so called, shall and doe refuse to account, or entring into account, shall refuse to proceed and finish the same, or vpon the finishing thereof shall refuse forthwith to implot or answer to the vse of the said Hospital such summe or summes of money, as vpon the same account shall appeare to be due by him: That then euery such person and persons so refusing, shall forfeit and lose such sum and summes of money, as to the sayd Bishop or Chauncellor, and to two Justices of the Peace next inhabiting to the sayd Hospitall, shall be thought meet and conuenient, to which accounts the said Bishop or Chauncellor shall call the same two Justices of Peace. Prouided also, and be it further enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, That no person or persons, hauing charge of any voyage in passing from the Realme of Ireland, or from the Isle of Man, into this Realme of England, doe wittingly or willingly transport, bring, carrie or conuey, or suffer to be transported, brought, carried, or conueyed in any ship, picard, vessell, boat or boats, from and out of the said Realme of Ireland, or from, or out of the said Isle of Man, into the Realme of England or Wales, or any part thereof, any vagabond, rogue, or begger, or any such as shall be forced, or verie like to liue by begging within the Realmes of England or Wales, being borne in the Realme of Ireland, or in the sayd Isle of Man, on paine of euerie such person or persons, so bringing, transporting, carrying, and conueying, eyther suffering to be brought, transported, carried, & conueyed in maner & forme aforesayd, to forfeit and lose for euery such Vagabond, rogue, begger or other person, which shall be forced, or like to liue by begging within this realm of England, or Wales, being transported, and set on land in anie part of England or of Wales, xx. shillings of lawfull English mony, to the vse of the poore of the same Parish in which they were set on land, to be leuyed by the collectors of the same poore for the time being, by sealure and selling of any the goods and cattells of the same person, which shall so bring, transport, cary, or conuey any such rogue, Vagabond, or begging, or other person which shall be forced, or like to liue by begging within the realme of England, or of Wales, to the value of the same forfeiture, and on the paine of the same Vagabonds, Rogues, and Beggers so set on land, to be punished as the other Vagabonds and sturdy Beggers in this Act before mentioned and declared. And be it likewise enacted, If anie such Manske or Irish rogue, vagabond or begger, bene already, or shall at any time hereafter be set on land in any part of England or of Wales, the same shal be conueied to the next port, in, or neere which they were landed, and from thence be transported at the common charge of the countie where they were set on land, into those partes from whence they came, or were transported. Also be it prouided, that if any manner of person shall hereafter finde him or her selfe grieued with any taxation set vpon them by vertue of this Act, it shall be lawfull for them at the next generall Sessions of the Peace, to be holden within the same shire, where their taxation shall be, to make complaint thereof to the Iust. on the Bench, & to be eased of their excessiue charge by the discretion of the whole Bench, or the most of them. And if any default shall be hereafter found in any Justices of peace, or Quorum, in, or about the execution of this Act: euery of the said Justices, vpon proofe of their sayd default, by two sufficient witnesses before the Justices of Assise at the next generall Sessions of Gaole deliuerie for the same Countie, after the same default, shall forfeit and lose fiue pounds of lawfull English money, the one halfe whereof to be to the vse of the sayd poore people of the same Countie, and the other halfe to the Quenes Maiestie, which sayd forfeiture shall be leuyed by distresse, by the discretion of the saide Justices of Assises. And whereas a great number of poore and diseased people doe resort to the Citie of Bathe in the Countie of Somerset, and the Towne of Buckestone, in the Countie of Darby, for some ease and relefe of their diseases at the Bathes there, and by meanes thereof the Inhabitants of the same citie of Bath, and towne of Buckestone, are greatly ouercharged with the same poore people to their intollerable charge: Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no diseased or impotent poore person, liuing on almes, at anie time after the feast of S. Bartholomew the Apostle next comming, shall resort or repayre from their dwelling places to the said Citie of Bathe, and Towne of Buckestone, or eyther of them, to the Bathes there for ease of their griefe, vnlesse such person be not onely licenced so to doe, by two Justices of the Peace of the Countie where such person doth or shall then dwell and remayne: but also prouided for the Inhabitants of such Hundreds, Parishes, or places from whence they shall be so licenced to trauel, of such releefe, for, and towards his maintenaunce, as shall be necessary for the same person, for the time of such his abode at the same Citie of Bathe, and Towne of Buckestone, or eyther of them, and returne home agayne as shall be limited by the same Licence, vpon payne to be reputed, punished, and vsed as Vagabonds, by the purview of this Statute: And that the Inhabitants of the same city and towne, shall not in any wise be charged by this Act with the finding or releefe of anie such poore people. And for the better performance of this charitable act, it is ordained & established by authoritie aforesaid, that whereas the late K. of famous memorie, king Henry the eight, his heyres or successours, or anie other person or persons, heretofore by his or their seuerall and lawfull erections, and foundations, hath or haue ordained or appointed any summe or summes of mony, rents, reliefes, or commoditie to the vse of the poore, or for the repairing or mending of high waies or bridges, not being taken away other wise by Act of Parliament, whether the same be in any cathedrall church, colledge, or elsewhere, that the B. of the diocelle, or his

10 For some better explanation, and for some néedfull addition to the Statute concerning the punishment of vagabonds, and relieſe of the poore, made in the Session of Parliament holden the 14. yere of the Quéenes Maiesties raigne, (before 9.) Be it ordained, declared, and enacted by authoritie of this present Parliament, in maner & forme following, that is to say, first, concerning bastards begotten and borne out of lawful matrimonie (an offence against Gods law and mans law) the said bastards, being now left to be kept at the charges of the Parish where they be borne, to the great burden of the same Parish, & in defrauding of the relieſe of the impotent and aged true poore of the Parish, and to the euill example and encouragement of lewd life: It is ordained and enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, That two Iustices of the P. whereof one to be of the Quorū, in or next vnto the limits where the Parish Church is, within which Parish such bastard shall be borne, (vpon examination of the cause and circumstance) shall and may by their discretion take order, as well for the punishment of the mother and reputed father of such bastard child, as also for the better relieſe of euery such Parish, in part or in all, and shal and may likewise by like discretion, take order for the kéeping of euerie such bastard child, by charging such mother or reputed father with the paiment of money wéekely, or other sustentation for the relieſe of such child, in such wise as they shal thinke méet and conuenient. And if after the same order by them subscribed vnder their hands, any the said persons, viz. mother or reputed father, vpon notice thereof, shall not for their part obserue and performe the sayd order: That then euerie such partie so making default, in not performing of the sayd order, to be committed to ward to the common gaole, there to remaine without bayle or mainprise, except he, she, or they shall put in sufficient suretie to performe the sayd order, or else personally to appeare at the next generall Sessions of the Peace, to be holden in that Countie, where such order shall be taken, and also to abide such order as the said Iustices of the peace or the more part of them then and there shall take in that behalfe (if they then and there shal take any) and that if at the said Sessions the said Iustices shall take no other order, then to abide & performe the order before made, as is abouesaid. Also concerning Rogues, in as much as by the former Act they are to be cōueyed to the gaole or prison by the Constable or other officer, at the charges of the parish where such rogue is apprehended, for auoiding of great trauell & charges rising thereby, many are suffered to passe & winked at: Be it ordained & enacted by the authoritie of this present Parliament, That from henceforth euery such rogue apprehended, shalbe conueyed by the Constable or other officers of the parish where such apprehension shal be, but to ỹ Constable, Tithingman, & other officer of the next townechip or parish in the next hundred, & so frō one hundred to another, by ỹ Constables, Tithingmen, or officers of euery such township or parish which shalbe next in euery such hundred, the direct way, vntil they shal come to ỹ gaole or prison appointed for such rogues & vagabōds, & that euerie such Cōstable, Tithingmā, & officer, shal accordingly conuey such rogue & vagabond, vnder the paines & penalties by the said former Estatute limited, to the Constable, Tithingman, or other officer in whose parish such rogue or vagabond shall be first apprehended. And as concerning persons inquirable of, as of a rogue in the second degrée, if any such person shal after his first conuictiō, either by curing or alteration of the marke of any such person, or by alteration of name, or denying to be the same person, or by any other wayes or meanes, goe about to auoyd the hauing of his or their further punishment, that the same, or any such other allegation, shall bee considered of, and tried by the Iurie, vpon the arraignement, as parcell of their euidence: And as they shall in their consciences find the proofes, circumstances, and euidences, so to giue their verdict, which shall bee a sufficient triall in Law, without any further certificate or triall of the former record or conuiction, from any other countie or place, or by any other meane. And moreouer, that if the rogue in the second degree indicted, and by confession or verdict afterwards conuicted, shall afterward a third, or fourth, or other time after, be indicted & conuicted of roguish life: That then such person the third, or more often times, indicted & cõuicted as a rogue, shall suffer in all respects as a felon, without allowance of the benefit of Clergie. Also to the intent youth may be accustomed and brought vp in labour and worke, and then not like to grow to be idle rogues, and to the intent also that such as be alreadie growne vp in idlenesse, and so rogues at this present, may not haue any iust excuse, in saying, That they cannot get any seruice or worke, and then without any fauour or tolleration worthie to be executed, and that other poore and needie persons, being willing to worke, may be set on worke: Be it ordained and enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, That in euerie Citie and Towne Corporate within this Realme, a competent store and stocke of woll, hempe, flaxe, yron, or other stuffe, by the appointment and order of the Maior, Bailifes, Iustices, or other head Officers, hauing rule in the said Cities or Townes Corporate, (of themselues, and all other inhabitãts within their seuerall authorities, to be taxed, leuied, and gathered) shall be prouided. And that likewise in euerie other Market towne or other place, within euerie Countie of this Realme, (whereto the Iustices of Peace, or greater part of them, in their generall Sessions yearely next after Easter, within euerie limit shall be thought meet and conuenient) a like competent store and stocke of woll, hempe, flaxe, yron, or other stuffe, as the countrey is most meet for, by appointment and order of the said Iustices of Peace, or the greater part of them in their generall Sessions (of all the inhabitants within their seuerall authorities, to be taxed, leuied, and gathered) shall be prouided. The said stores and stocks in such Cities and Townes corporate, to be committed to the hands and custodie of such persons as shall by the Maior, Bailifes, Iustices, or other head Officers, hauing authoritie in euerie such Citie or Towne corporate, be appointed, and in other townes and places, to such persons as to the said Iust. of the P. or the greater part of them, in their said generall Sessions of the peace in their seuerall Counties shall bee by them appointed: Which said persons so appointed as aforesaid, shal haue power and authoritie (by the aduice of them who doe appoint them) to dispose, order, and giue rules, for the diuision and maner of working of the said stockes and stores, who shall from henceforth be called the Collectors and Gouernours of the poore, to the intent euerie such poore and needie person, old or young, able to doe any worke standing in necessitie of relieue, shall not for want of worke goe abroad either begging, or committing pilfrings, or other misdemeanour, liuing in idlenesse: Which Collectors and Gouernours of the poore, from time to time (as cause requireth) shall and may of the same stocke and store deliuer to such poore and needie person, a competent portion to be wrought into yarne, or other matter, within such time, and in such sort, as in their discretions shall be from time to time limited and prefired, and the same afterwards being wrought, to bee from time to time deliuered to the said Collectors and Gouernours of the poore, for which they shal make paiment to them which worke the same, according to the desert of the worke, and of new deliuer more to be wrought: And so from time to time to deliuer stuffe vnwrought, and receiue the same againe wrought, as oft as cause shall require, which hempe, woll, flaxe, or other stuffe wrought from time to time, shall be sold by the sayd Collectors and Gouernours of the poore, either at some market, or other place, and at such time as they shall thinke meet, and with the money comming of the sale, to buy more stuffe, in such wise as the stockes or stores shall not be decayed in value. And if hereafter any such person, able to doe any such worke, shall refuse to worke, or shall goe abroad begging, or liue idlely, or taking such worke, shall spoyle or imbesell the same, in such wise that after monition giuen, the Minister and Churchwardens of the Parish, and Collectors and Gouernours of the poore, or the more part of them, shall thinke the same person not meet to haue any more worke deliuered out of the same store & stocke: And then vpon certificate thereof made vnder their hands, and brought by one of the Collectors and Gouernours of the poore, to the hands of such person or persons, as shall in that Countie haue the ouersight and gouernement of one of the houses of Correction, in conuenient apparell meet for such a bodie to weare, he, she, or they, from such Towne, place, or Parish, shall be receiued into such house of Correction, there to be straitly kept as well in diet, as in worke, & also punished from time to time as the said persons, hauing the ouersight & gouernement of the said house of Correction, shal be appointed, as hereafter in this Act is declared: All which stockes and stores, shalbe prouided and deliuered to the hands of the said Collectors and Gouernors of the poore, before the first day of November next comming, and at all times hereafter, as occasion shall serue. And that euerie person refusing to pay, or not paying such summe of money towards the sayd stockes and stores, as vpon them or any of them shall bee by order aforesaid taxed, and at such time as by the same order shall bee appointed, shall for euerie default, forfeit double so much as he or they shall bee so taxed vnto. dayned and enacted by the authoritie aforesayde, that within euerie Countie of this Realme, one, two, or more abiding houses, or places conuenient in some Market Towne, or Corporate town, or other place or places, by purchase, Lease, building, or otherwise by the appointment and order of the Iustices of Peace, or the more part of them in their sayd generall Sessions (of the inhabitants within their seuerall authorities, to bee tared, leuyed, and gathered) shall bee prouided and called the house or houses of Correction, and also stocke and store, and implements to bee in like sort also prouided, for setting on worke and punishing, not only of those which by the Collectors, and Gouernours of the Poore, for causes aforesayde to the sayde houses of Correction, shall bee brought, but also of such as bee, or shall bee inhabiting in noe Parish, or bee, or shall be taken as Rogues, or once punished as Rogues, and by reason of the vncertaintie of their birth, or of their dwelling by the space of three yeares, or for any other cause ought to be abiding and kept within the same Countie: which sayde house or houses of Correction, with stockes, stores, and implements appoynted for such houses of Correction, shall be prouided in euerie Countie, within one yeare next after this present session of parliament (if the same conueniently may be,) & if in the said time the same cannot cõueniently be, thẽ within such time as to the Iustices of Peace, or the more part of them, in their sayd generall Sessions of the Peace in euerie Countie, within their seuerall iurisdictions, shalbe thought méete and conuenient, so as it exceed not two yeares after taration in such Countie for that purpose made, or else the money leuyed to bee repayed. And that euerie person refusing to pay, or not paying, (such summe of money, towardes the making, obtayning and furnishing of the sayd houses of Correction, and buying of stockes and stores, and for the releise and sustentation of such persons as shall bee appointed to the sayde houses of Correction, vpon them or any of them shall be by order aforesayde tared, and at such time, as by the same order shall bee appointed) shall for euerie default forfeit double so much as he or they shal bee so tared vnto. And bee it further enacted by the authoritie aforesayde, that the sayde Iustices of Peace, or the more part of them in their sayde generall Sessions, in euerie Countie shall and may appoint from time to time, persons which shall bee ouerséers of euerie such house of correction, which sayd persons shall be called the Censors, and wardens of the houses of Correction, and shall haue the rule, gouernement, and order of such houses of correction, according to such orders, as by the sayd Iustices of Peace, or the more part of them in their generall Sessions in euerie Countie, shall be prescribed: And shall also by like authoritie appoint, others for the gathering of such money, as shall be tared vpon any person or persons within their seuerall iurisdictions, towardes the maintenance of the sayde houses of Correction, which shall bee called the Collectors for the houses of Correction: and if any person or persons refuse to bee Collector and Gouernor of the Poore, or Censor and Warden, or Collector of or for any the houses of Correction: That euerie person so refusing, shal forfeit and lose the summe of fiue pound. And be it further enacted by ẏ authoritie aforesayd, that all & singular person and persons, appointed by the authoritie of this act to be any collector & Gouernor of the poore, or Censor and Warden, or Collector for any the houses of Correction, in any Countie, Citie, town Corporate, or other place in this Realme, shall as often as they, or any of them shall bee called thereto by the persons having the appointment of them, make a iust account of all such summe or summes of money or other things, as they or any of them haue gathered, had, or raised in commoditie within their seuerall collections or charge: And if any such Collector and Gouernor of the Poore, Collector, Censor or Warden, of or for the houses of correction, refuse to make such account, or neglect the same by the space of fourtéene dayes next after requeſt therefore to him made, or shall not within one weéke after such account rendered, yéeld and pay the whole arrerages, which hée or they vpon such account shall bée founde in, to such person or persons, as they shall be appointed vnto by them, before whom their sayde account shall bee taken: That then the sayde Collector, Gouernor, Censor, or Warden, to bée committed to any vsual gaole within the sayde Countie, there to remaine without Bayle or Mainprise, till hée haue made his account and payment of such arrerages as he hath receiued: vpon the making of which account, it shall and may bee lawfull to such persons as haue the appointment of the said Collectors and gouernors of the Poore, Censors, Wardens and Collectors of the houses of Correction, euerie of them in their authoritie, to allow as well such reasonable allowance to euerie the sayde Collectors and Gouernors of the Poore, Censors, Wardens, and Collectors of the houses of Correction, for such money as they or any of them haue imployed or disbursed in the execution of the sayde seuerall offices, as also such reasonable fées and wages for their paynes taken in that behalfe, as to them shall bée thought conuenient and reasonable. And bee it further enacted by the authoritie aforesayde, that all the forfeitures by force of this Act being forfeited by any person or persons charged with any payment toward the stockes and stores appointed for the releise of the Poore, shall be imployed in the prouision of the stockes and stores appointed by this Act, in such place where the mony by the non-payment whereof the forfeitures did grow, was payable, and the forfeitures likewise of all persons beeing, or beeing chosen to be Collectors and Gouernors of the Poore, to be imployed in the prouision of the stockes and stores, whereof they were chosen to be Collectors and Gouernors: and all forfeitures by force of this act beeing forfeited by any person or persons charged towards the sustentation of any house of Correction, and the forfeitures of all persons beeing, or beeing chosen to bee

Cenſors and Wardens, and Collectors of or for any houſe of Correction, ſhall bée imployed in the maintenance and furtherance of the ſaid houſes of Correction. All which ſayde forfeitures ſhall bée leuyed by diſtreſſe and ſale of the goods of the Offendor, as neere as they can, to the value forfeited, by warrant from ſuch perſons, as haue by reaſon of their ſeuerall iuriſdictions the nomination of the ſayde Collectors, Gouernors, Cenſors, and Wardens, and the taxation of the ſayde perſons, which ſhall commit the ſayde forfeitures, to any perſon or perſons by them appointed, to be directed vpon Certificate thereof made, and the partie called thereunto. And becauſe it is to bée hoped, that many well diſpoſed perſons, vnderſtanding the good ſucceſſe which will grow by ſetting people on worke and auoyding of idleneſſe, will from time to time giue to the ſuſtentation and maintenance of the ſame good purpoſe and intent. And for their better incouragement to the ſame, bée it ordayned and enacted by the authoritie of this preſent Parliament, that it ſhall bée lawfull for euerie ſuch perſon as ſhall bée ſeiſed of any Manors, Landes, Tenements, or other Hereditaments whatſoeuer in Fée ſimple, in poſſeſſion, Reuerſion, or Remainder, holden in Frée Socage of the Qu. Maieſtie, her heires or ſucceſſours, or of any other perſon or perſons, or bodie politique, in his or their own right, and to his or their owne vſe, for and during the ſpace of twentie yeares next enſuing, to make Feoffements, Graunts, or any other Aſſurances or Conueyances, or by laſt Will in writing, to giue and bequeath in Fée ſimple, all or any part of the ſayde Landes, Tenements, and Hereditaments to any bodie politique or Corporate, and their ſucceſſours in this Realme, and the Dominions of the ſame now erected, or hereafter to be erected or founded, or to any other perſons, and their heires, to and for the prouiſion, ſuſtentation, or maintenance of any of the ſayde houſes of Correction, or abyding houſes, or of any of the ſayd ſtockes and ſtores, to the vſes aforeſayde, and none other, without any Licence of Mortmaine therein to bée obtayned, or any writ of Ad quod damnum to bee ſued out for the ſame, the Acts de terra ad manum mortuã non ponend', or any other Act or Statute, Lawe, cuſtome, or vſage, heretofore had or made to the contrarie in any wiſe notwithſtanding. Sauing to our ſayde Soueraigne Ladie, her heires and ſucceſſours, and to the Lords of the Fée, all their rents and ſeruices going out of the ſayde Landes, Tenements, and Hereditaments, ſo to bée amortiſed as aforeſayde. And bée it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſayde, that whereas by the ſayde former recited Eſtatute, noe payne is limited for any impotent perſon, which hauing a competent allowance prouided for him and her within his Pariſh, ſhall notwithſtanding without Licence wander abroad loytering and begging: Be it likewiſe enacted by the authoritie aforeſayde, that euerie ſuch perſon ſhall for his or her ſuch firſt offence be whipped, and ſo returned home againe vnto his, her, or their Pariſh: And if ſuch perſon ſhall then eſtſoones offend, bëing prouided for as aforeſayde, then to ſuffer as a Rogue in the firſt degrée ought to doe by the ſayde former Eſtatute. And if the ſaid perſons ſhall eſtſoones offend, then to ſuffer paynes and forfeitures as a Rogue in the ſecond degrée ought to do by the ſame former Eſtatute, and to ſuffer ſuch payns & penalties, as by ẏ ſayd former Statute to Rogues and Vagabonds is limited: which ſayde offences ſhall be tryed, enquired of, heard and determined, as the like offences of other Rogues and Vagabondes, by the ſayd former Eſtatute are appointed to bee tryed, inquired of, heard and determined. Prouided allwayes that this Act, nor any thing therein contayned, ſhall extend to make any perſon or perſons, acceſſarie or accéſſaries to any Felonie made by this Statute, nor that any Attainder by any the ſayd Felonies, ſhall worke or be any corruption of bloud in the iſſues or line of the perſons attainted. Prouided allwayes, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſayd, that it ſhall and may bee lawfull to the Lord Steward of the houſholde of her Maieſtie, her heires and ſucceſſours, or to the Commiſſioners within the Vierge, to haue, exerciſe and vſe al ſuch authoritie within the ſayd Vierge, in execution as well of this Act, as of the ſayd former recited act, as any Iuſtice of Peace, hath or may haue, vſe or exerciſe elſwhere within their ſeuerall Shires, according to the limitation of the ſayd Eſtatutes: The ſayd Statutes or any thing therein contayned to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And whereas the ſayd former act is made to endure but for ſeauen yeres from the making of the ſaid act, & from thence vntill the end of the next Parliament then next following, it is now enacted by the authoritie aforeſayde, that as well the ſayde former act as this act, ſhall haue continuance from the end of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament vntill the end of ſeuen yeares then next enſuing, and from thence vntill the end of the next Parliament then following. Prouided allwayes, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſayd, that if any Iuſtice of the Peace aſſembled at any of the ſayde Seſſions next after Eaſter, ſhall from thence depart (before conference had, touching the execution of this eſtatute) he ſhall for euerie ſuch offence forfeit fiue pound, to be recouered and leuied as a fine vpon indictment and conuiction of treſpaſſe, and to bee imployed to the vſe of the prouiſion and furniture of the houſe or houſes of Correction in ſuch Countie. Prouided alſo, and for the furtherance of the good intention of this preſent act, (in ſome helpe toward the charges of prouiſion and furniſhing of the premiſſes) and to the intent one kind of malefactors in the common wealth may be reformed at ſome charges of other offendors: Bee it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſayde, that all and ſingular penalties and forfeitures, in any wiſe limited to grow or come to her Maieſty, for any offence hereafter to be committed againſt any of thoſe penall Statutes which which her Maiestie by her proclamation from time to time for that purpose shall limit and appoint, shal be recouered and leuyed as aforesayd, and imployed, the one Moytie to the vse of such person or persons as shall prosecute the same by action, suits, or information, or by giuing of euidence vpon indictment and trauerse of indictment: and the other moitie to and for the prouision and furnishing of the stockes of money or other stuffe for the poore, and of the house or houses of Correction, in such maner Iust. of P. and forme as by the Iustices at the sayde Sessions after Easter next ensuing, after such recouerie shall be limited, any former penall Statute, prouision, ordinance or other thing to the contrarie hereof, in any wise notwithstanding. * Anno 18. Eliz. cap. 3. And Anno 27. Eliz. cap. 11. This act was continued vntill the end of the next Parliament. And Anno 28. Elizab. cap. 5. it is continued to the end of the next Parliament. And Anno 31. Elizab. cap. 10. it is continued vntill the end of the next Parliament. And Anno 35. Eliz. cap. 7. it is continued to the end of the parliament next ensuing, with proviso and addition here following 11.

11 Prouided &c. and be it enacted &c. That so much of the sayde Statute made in the fourteenth yeare of her Maiesties Raigne, entituled, an act for the punishment of Vagabonds, and for the relefe of the poore impotent, (before 9.) & of the sayd stat. made in the eightenth of her Maiesties Raign, intituled, an act for setting the poore on worke, and for auoyding of idlenesse, (before 10.) as concerneth the punishment of Vagabondes, by gaoling, boaring through the Eare, and death in the second degree, and euerie matter, clause, article, and prouision in the sayde Statute contayned, concerning the same, shall so farre forth onely as they concerne the same from henceforth be repealed, cease, and bee vtterly void. And be it also enacted &c. That it shall be lawfull for euerie person for and during the space of twenty yeres next ensuing, to make feoffements, graunts, or any other assurances, or by his last will in writing to giue & bequeath in fee simple, as well to the vse of the poore, as for the prouision, sustentation, or maintenance of any house of correction, or abyding houses, or of any starkes or stores, all or any part of such of his landes, Tenements, and hereditaments, and in such maner and forme as he might haue done, to and for the prouision, sustentation, or maintenance of any houses of Correction, or abiding houses, or of any stocks or stores by force of the said statute (viz. of 18. Eli. before 10.) Anno 35. Eliz. cap. 7. And Anno 1. Iac. cap. 25. so much of the sayd act an̄ 18. Eliz. as concerneth Bastardes begotten out of lawfull matrimonie, is continued vntill the end of the first Session of the next Parliament.

12 A Statute was made Anno 39. Eliz. cap. 3. for the relefe of the poore, to continue till the end of the next Session of Parliament, and by 43. Eliza. cap. 9. That Statute was continued till the end of the first Session of the next Parliament, except some new Act should bee made in that Session of Parliament concerning the same, and that was then done 43. Eliz. ca. 2. which see here after 15.

13 For the suppressing of Rogues, Vagabonds, and sturdie beggers: Bee it enacted by the authoritie of this present Parliament, that from and after the feast of Easter next comming, all Statutes heretofore made for the punishment of Rogues, Vagabonds or sturdie beggers, or for the erection or maintenance of houses of Correction or touching the same, shall for so much as concerneth the same be vtterly repealed: And that from and after the sayde feast of Easter, from time to time it shall and may be lawfull to and for the Iustices of peace Iust. of P. of any Countie or Citie within this Realme or the Dominions of Wales, assembled at any quarter Sessions of the Peace within the same Countie, Citie, Borough, or Towne Corporate, or the more part of them, to set downe order to erect, and to cause to be erected one or more houses of Corre- Houses of Correction ction within their seuerall Counties or Cities; for the doing and performing whereof, and for the prouiding of stocks of money, and all other things necessarie for the same, and for raising and gouerning of the same, & correction and punishment of offendors thither to bee committed, such orders as the same Iustices, or the more part of them shal from time to time take, reforme, or set downe in any their sayde Quarter Sessions in that behalfe, shall be of force, and be duely performed and put in execution. And be it also further enacted by the authoritie aforesayd, that all persons calling themselues Schollers, going about begging, al seafaring men, pretending losses of their ships or goods on the sea, going about the Countrie begging, all idle persons going about in any Countrey, either begging or vsing any subtill craft, or vnlawful games & playes, or fayning themselues to haue knowledge in Physiognomie, Palmestrie or other like craftie science, or pretending that they can tell destinies, fortunes, or such other like fantastical imaginations: All persons that be, or vtter themselues to be Proctors, procurers, patent-gatherers, or Collectors for gaoles, prisons, or hospitals: All Fencers, Beare-wards, common Players of Enterludes, & Minstrels, wandring abroad (other then Players of Enterludes belonging to any Baron of this realm, or any other honorable personage of greater degree, to be authorized to play vnder hand and seale of Armes of such Baron or personage:) all Iugglers, Tinkers, Pedlers, and petie Chapmen, wandering abroad: All wandering persons and common Labourers, being persons able in bodie, vsing loytering, and refusing to worke for such reasonable wages, as is tared, or commonly giuen in such parts, where such persons doe, or shall happen to dwell or abide, not hauing liuing otherwise to maintayne themselues: All persons deliuered out of gaoles that begge for their Fees, or otherwise by trauell begging: All such persons as shall wander abroad begging, pretending losses by fire, or otherwise: And all such persons not being Felons, wandring and pretending themselues to be Egyptians, or wandring in the habit, forme, or attire of counterfeit counterfeit Egiptians, shall bee taken, adiudged, and deemed Rogues, Vagabondes, and sturdie Beggers, and shall suffain such payne and punishments, as by this Act is in that behalfe appointed. And be it enacted by the authoritie aforesayde, that euerie person which is by this present Act declared to be a Rogue, Vagabond, or sturdie begger, which shall be at any time after the sayde Feast of Easter next comming, taken begging, vagrant, wandering, or misordering themselues in any part of this Realme, or the Dominion of Wales, shall vpon their apprehension by the appointment of any Justice of the peace, Constable, Headborough, or Tythingman of the same Countie, Hundred, Parish, or Tything, where such person shall be taken, the Tythingman or Headborough, being assisted therein with the aduice of the Minister, and one other of that Parish, bee stripped naked from the middle vpwardes, and shall bee openly whipped, vntill his or her bodie bee bloudie: and shall bee forthwith sent from Parish to Parish, by the officers of euerie the same, the next straight way to the Parish where he or she was borne, if the same may bee known by the parties confession, or otherwise: And if the same bee not knowne, then to the Parish where hee or shee last dwelt before the same punishment by the space of one whole yeare, there to put him or her selfe to labour as a true Subiect ought to doe: or not being knowne where hee or shee was borne or last dwelt, then to the Parish through which hee or shee last passed without punishment. After which whipping the same person shall haue a Testimonial subscribed with the hand, and sealed with the Seale of the same Justice of the Peace, Constable, Headborough or Tythingman, and of the Minister of the same Parish, or of any two of them, testifying that the same person hath beene punished according to this Act, and mentioning the day and place of his or her punishment, and the place whereunto such person is limited to goe, and by what time the sayde person is limited to passe thither at his perill. And if the sayd person through his or her default doe not accomplish the order appointed by the said testimoniall, then to bee eftsones taken and whipped, and so often as any default shall bee found in him or her contrarie to the forme of this Statute, in euerie place to bee whipped, till such person bee repayren to the place limited: The substance of which Testimoniall shall bee registred by the Minister of that Parish, in a Booke to bee prouided for that purpose, vpon payne to forfeit fiue shillings for euerie default thereof, and the partie so whipped, and not knowne where he or shee was borne, or last dwelt by the space of a yeare, shall by the officers of the sayd village where he or she so last past through bee conueyed to the house of Correction of the limit wherein the sayde Village standeth, or to the common Gaole of that Countie or place, there to remaine and be imployed in worke, vntill hee or shee shall bee placed in some seruice, and so to continue by the space of one yeare, or not being able of bodie, vntill hee or shee shall bee placed to remaine in some almes-house in the same Countie or place: Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted, if any of the sayd rogues shall appeare to bee daungerous to the inferiour sort of people where they shall bee taken, or otherwise bee such as will not bee reformed of their Roguish kind of life by the former prouisions of this Act, that in euerie such case it shall and may be lawfull to the sayde Justices of the limit where any such Rogue shall bee taken, or any two of them, whereof one to bee of the Quorum, to commit that Rogue to the house of Correction, or otherwise to the next Gaole of the Countie, there to remain vntill their next quarter Sessions to be holden in that Countie, and then such of the same Rogues so committed, as by the Justices of the Peace then and there present, or the most part of them shall be thought fit to bee deliuered, shall and may lawfully by the same Justices or the more part of them, bee banished out of this Realme, and all other the Dominions thereof, and at the charges of that Countrie, shall bee conueyed vnto such parts beyond the Seas, as shall be at any time hereafter for that purpose alligned by the priuie Counsell vnto her Maiestie, her heires or successours, or by any fiue or more of them, whereof the Lord Chancelour, the Lord Keeper of the great Seale, or the Lord Treasurer for the time being to bee one, or otherwise bee iudged perpetually to the Gallies of this Realme, as by the same Justices or the most of them shall be thought fit and expedient. And if any such Rogue so banished as aforesayde, shall returne againe into any part of this Realm, or dominion of Wales, without lawfull Licence or warrant so to do, in euerie such case such offence shall bee Felonie, and the partie offending therein suffer death, as in case of Felonie: The sayd Felonie to bee heard and determined in that County of this Realme or Wales, in which the Offender shall be apprehended. And be it also enacted by the authoritie aforesayd, that if in any towne, Parish, or Millage, the Constable, Headborough, or Tythingman be negligent, and do not his or their best indeuours for the apprehension of such Vagabond, Rogue, or sturdie Begger, which there shall be found contrary to the forme of this present Act, and to cause euerie of them to bee punished and conueyed, according to the true meaning of this present Act: That then the sayd Constable, Headborough, or Tythingman, in whom such default shall be, shall lose and forfeit for euerie such default tenne shillings. And also if any person or persons doe in any wise disturbe or let the execution of this Law, or any part thereof, concerning the punishment or conueying of Rogues, Vagabondes, sturdie Beggers, or the relefe or setling of poore impotent persons in any manner of wise, or make rescous against any Officer or person authorised by this present Act for the due execution of any the premisses, the same person so offending shall forfeit and lose for euerie such offence the summe of fiue pounds and shall be bound to the good behauiour. And be it also further enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, foreſayde, that noe perſon or perſons hauing charge in any voyage, in paſſing from the realmes of Ireland, or Scotland, or from the Ile of Man into this Realme of England, doe willingly or willingly bring or conney, or ſuffer to be brought or conueyed in any Veſſell or boat from and out of the ſayd Realme of Ireland, Scotland, or Ile of Man, into the Realme of England or Wales, or any part thereof, any Vagabond, Rogue, or Begger, or any ſuch as ſhall be found, or very like to liue by begging within the Realme of England or Wales, being borne in the ſame Realmes or Iſland, on payn of euerie ſuch perſon ſo offending, to forfeit and loſe for euerie ſuch Vagabond, Rogue, Begger, or other perſon like to liue by begging twentie ſhillings to the vſe of the Poore of the ſaid Pariſh in which they were ſet on land. And if any ſuch Mannith, Scottiſh, or Iriſh Rogue, Vagabond, or Begger, be already, or ſhal at any time hereafter be ſet on land, or ſhal come into any part of Eng. or Wales, the ſame after hee or ſhee ſhall bee punished as aforeſayde, ſhall bee conueyed to the next Port or Pariſh, in or neere which they were landed, or firſt came, in ſuch ſort as Rogues are appointed to bee by this preſent Act, and from thence to bee tranſported at the common charge of the Countrey where they were ſet on land, into thoſe partes from whence they came or were brought. And that euerie Conſtable, Headborough, and Thirdingman neglecting the due performance thereof, ſhall forfeit for euerie ſuch offence tenne ſhillings. Be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſayde, that no diſeaſed or impotent poore perſon ſhal at any time reſort or repaire from their dwelling places to the Citie of Bath, or Towne of Burton, or either of them to the Bathes there for the eaſe of their griefes, vnleſſe ſuch perſon doe forbeare to begge, and be licenſed to paſſe thither by two Juſtices of the Peace, of the Countie where ſuch perſon doth or ſhall then dwel or remaine, and prouided for to trauel with ſuch reliefe, for and towards his or her maintenance as ſhal bee neceſſarie for the ſame perſon, for the time of ſuch his or her trauell, and abode at the Citie of Bath and Towne of Burton, or either of them, and returne thence, and ſhall returne home againe as ſhall bee limited by the ſayd Licence, vpon payne to bee reputed, puniſhed, and vſed as Rogues, Vagabondes, and ſturdie Beggers, declared by this preſent Act. And that the inhabitants of the ſame Citie of Bath, and Towne of Burton, ſhall not in any wiſe be charged by this Act with the finding or reliefe of any ſuch poore people. Prouided alwayes, that the Juſtices of Peace within any Countie of this Realme or Wales, ſhall not intromit or enter into any Citie, Borough, or Townes Corporats, where be any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace for any ſuch Citie, Borough, or Towne Corporate, for the execution of any braunch, article, or ſentence of this Act, for or concerning any offence, matter, or cauſe growing or ariſing within the precincts, liberties, or iuriſdictions of ſuch Citie, Borough, or Townes Corporate, but that it may and ſhall be lawfull to the Juſtice and Juſtices of the Peace, Maiors, Bayliffes, and other head Officers of thoſe Cities, Boroughes, and Townes Corporate, where there be ſuch Juſtices of the Peace, to proceed to the execution of this act, within the precinct and compaſſe of their liberties, in ſuch maunder and forme as the Juſtices of Peace in any Countie may or ought to doe within the ſame Countie by vertue of this Act: any thing in this Act to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding. Prouided alwayes, that this Act, or any thing therein contayned, ſhall not extende to the poore people for the time being, in the Hoſpitall called S. Thomas Hoſpitall, otherwiſe called the Kings Hoſpitall in the Borough of Southwork neere adioyning to the Citie of London, but that the Maior, Commonalty, and Citizens of the ſayd Citie of London for the time being, ſhall and may haue the rule, order, and gouernement of the ſayd Hoſpitall, and of the poore people therein for the time being: anything in this Act to the contrarie notwithſtanding. Prouided alwayes, that this act or any thing therein contayned, or any authoritie thereby giuen, ſhall not in any wiſe extend to diſinherite, preiudice, or hinder Iohn Dutton of Dutton in the Countie of Chester Eſquire, his heires or aſſignes, for, touching, or concerning any libertie, preeminence, authoritie, iuriſdiction, or inheritance, which the ſayd Iohn Dutton now lawfully vſeth, or hath, or lawfully may or ought to vſe within the Countie Palantine of Cheſter, and the Countie of the Citie of Cheſter, or either of them, by reaſon of any auncient Charters of any Kings of this land, or by reaſon of any preſcription, vſage, or title, whatſoeuer. And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſayd, that al fines and forfeitures appointed or to grow by this preſent Act, (except ſuch as are otherwiſe limited and appointed by this preſent Act) ſhall wholy goe and be imployed to the vſe of the reparations and maintenance of the ſayd houſes of Correction, and ſtock and ſtore thereof, or reliefe of the poore where the offence ſhall be committed, at the diſcretion of the Juſtices of the Peace of the ſame limit, Citie, Borough, or Towne Corporat: And that al fines and forfeitures appointed or to grow by conuiction of any perſon according to this preſent act, ſhall by warrant vnder the hands and ſeales of any two or more of the Juſtices of the Peace of the ſame county, Citie, Borough, or Towne Corporate, bee leuied by diſtreſſe and ſale of the goods and chattels of the offender, which ſale ſhall be good in the Lawe againſt ſuch Offender. And that if any of the ſaid offences, ſhall be confeſſed by the offender, or that the ſame ſhalbe proued by two ſufficient and lawfull witneſſes, before ſuch two or more Juſtices of the Peace: that then euery ſuch perſon ſhall forthwith ſtand and be in the Lawe conuicted thereof. And bee it alſo further enacted by the authority aforeſayd, that any two or more Juſtices of the Peace within all the ſayd ſeuerall Shires, Cities, Boroughes, or Townes Corporate, whereof one to be of the Quorum, ſhall haue full power by authoritie ritie of this p̄ſent Act, to heare and determine all cauſes that ſhall growe o̲r come in queſtion by reaſon of this Act. And be it alſo further enacted by the authoꝛitie aforeſayd, that the Loꝛd Chaunceloꝛ o̲r Keeper of the great Seale of England foꝛ the time being, ſhall and may at all times hereafter by vertue of this p̄ſent Act, without further warrant, make and direct Commiſſion o̲r Commiſſions vnder the great Seale of England, to any perſon o̲r perſons, giuing them o̲r ſome of them thereby authoꝛitie, aſwell by the othes of good and lawfull men, as of witneſſes o̲r examination of parties, o̲r by any other lawfull wayes o̲r means whatſoeuer, to enquire what ſummes of money o̲r other things haue beene o̲r ſhall bee collected o̲r gathered foꝛ, o̲r towardes the erection of any houſes of Coꝛrection, o̲r any ſtockes o̲r other things to ſet poꝛe on woꝛke, o̲r foꝛ the maintenance thereof at any time after the ſeuenteenth day of Nouember, in the eighteenth yeare of the Raigne of the Quéenes moſt excellent Maieſtie, and by whom the ſame were o̲r ſhal bee collected o̲r gathered, and to whoſe handes comnen, and to what vſe, and by whoſe direction the ſame was o̲r ſhalbee imployed: And to call all and euery ſuch perſon and perſons, and their ſuretics, and euerie of their executoꝛs o̲r adminiſtratoꝛs to an accompt: And to compell them and euerie of them by attachment of their goods o̲r bodies, to appeare beſoꝛe them foꝛ the ſame, and to heare and determine the ſame, and to leuie ſuch money and things as they ſhall finde not to haue beene duely imployed vpon the ſayde houſes of Coꝛrection, o̲r ſtockes, o̲r vpon other like vſes, hauing in ſuch other like vſes reſpect of things paſt by the ſayde Commiſſioners to be allowed of, eyther by diſtreſſe and ſale of the goods and chattels of ſuch perſons as they ſhall thinke fit to be chargeable o̲r anſwerable foꝛ the ſame, o̲r by impꝛiſonment of their bodies at their diſcretion: And that the ſayde Commiſſioners ſhal haue full power and authoꝛitie to execute the ſame Commiſſion accoꝛding to the tenour and purpoꝛt thereof: And that all their pꝛoceedings, doings, iudgements, and executions by foꝛce and authoꝛitie thereof, ſhall bee and remaine good and auaileable in the Lawe: which ſayde money ſo leuyed by the ſayde Commiſſioners, ſhall bee deliuered and imployed foꝛ the erecting o̲r maintenance of the ſame: Pꝛouided alwayes neuertheleſſe, that euery Seafaring man ſuffering ſhipwracke, not hauing wherewith to relieue himſelfe in his trauels homewards, but hauing a Teſtimoniall vnder the hand of ſome one Iuſtice of the Peace, of o̲r néere the place where he landed, ſetting downe therein the place and time where and when hee landed, and the place of the parties dwelling o̲r birth, vnto which hee is to paſſe, and a conuenient time therein to bee limited foꝛ his paſſage, ſhall and may without incurring the daunger and penaltie of this Act in the vſuall wayes directly to the place vnto which hee is directed to paſſe, and within the time in ſuch his Teſtimoniall limited foꝛ his paſſage, aſke and receiue ſuch reliefe as ſhall bee neceſſarie in and foꝛ his paſſage. Pꝛouided alſo, that this Statute, noꝛ any thing therein contayned, ſhall extend to any childꝛen vnder the age of ſeauen yeares, noꝛ to any ſuch Glaſmen as ſhal be of good behauiour, and doe trauell in o̲r thoꝛow any Countrey without begging, hauing licence foꝛ their trauelling vnder the handes and Seales of three Iuſtices of the Peace of the ſame Countie where they trauell, whereof one to bee of the Quorum. And bee it alſo further enacted by the authoꝛitie aforeſayd, that this pꝛeſent act ſhall bee pꝛoclamed in the next Quarter Seſſion o̲r ſeſſions in euerie Countie, & in ſuch other Market Townes o̲r places, as by the moꝛe part of the Iuſtices of the Peace in the ſayde Seſſions ſhall be agréed and appoynted. This Act to indure to the end of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament. Anno 39. Eliz. cap. 4. (See a declaration of this Statute here after 16.) This Act was continued Anno 43. Eliz. cap. 9. vntill the end of the firſt ſeſſion of the next parliament. And añ 1. Ia. ca. 25. it is continued vntill the end of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament, with this Prouiſion annexed thereunto. That the ſayde laſt mentioned Act, noꝛ any thing therein contayned, ſhall impeach, auoid, pꝛeiudice, o̲r reſtraine ſuch Libertie and inheritance, as Iohn Dutton of Dutton in the County of Cheſter Eſquire, and his Auncеſtoꝛs (whoſe heire he is) haue lawfully vſed and exerciſed in allowing Minſtrels in the Countie Palantine, and Countie of the Citie of Cheſter, and foꝛ gouernement of minſtrels there, and kéeping a court yerly ſoꝛ that purpoſe.

14 Be it enacted by the authoꝛitie of this pꝛeſent Parliament, that all idle and wandering Souldiers o̲r Mariners, o̲r idle perſons, which now are o̲r hereafter ſhall bee wandering, as Souldiers o̲r Mariners, ſhall ſettle themſelues in ſome Seruice, Labour, o̲r other lawfull courſe of life, without wandering, o̲r otherwiſe repaire to the places where they were boꝛne, o̲r to their dwelling places, if they haue any, and there remaine, betaking themſelues to ſome lawfull trade o̲r courſe of life, as aforeſayde, vpon payne that all perſons offending contrarie to this Act to be reputed as Felons, and to ſuffer as in caſe of Felonie, without any benefit of Clergie to be allowed. And be it further enacted, that euerie idle and wandering Souldier o̲r Mariner, which comming from his Captain from the Seas, o̲r from beyond the Seas, ſhall not haue a Teſtimoniall vnder the hand of ſome one Iuſtice of the peace, of, o̲r nére ỹ place where he lãded, ſetting down therin the place and time, where and when he landed, and the place of his dwelling o̲r birth, vnto which he is to paſſe as aforeſayd, and a conuenient time therein limited foꝛ his paſſage, o̲r hauing ſuch Teſtimoniall, ſhall wilfully exceede the time therein limited, aboue foureteene dayes. And alſo as well euerie ſuch idle and wandering Souldiour o̲r Mariner, as euerie other idle perſon wandering as Souldiour o̲r Mariner, which ſhall at any time hereafter forge o̲r counterfeite any

ſuch teſtimoniall, or haue with him or the any ſuch teſtimoniall forged, or counterfeited, as aforeſayd, knowing the ſame to be counterfeited or forged, in al theſe caſes euery ſuch act or acts to be felony, and the offendors to ſuffer as aforeſaid, without any beneſite of Clergie. And be it further enacted, that it ſhalbe lawful for the Iuſtices of aſſiſes, Iuſtices of gaole deliuery, & Iuſtices of peace of euery county, and for all Iuſtices of Peace in townes corporate, hauing authority to heare and determine felonies, to heare and determine all ſuch offences in their generall Seſſions, and to execute the offendors which ſhal be conuicted before them, as in caſes of felony is accuſtomed: except ſome honeſt perſon valued at the laſt Subſidie next before the time, to tenne pounds in goods, or fortie ſhillings in lands, or elſe ſome honeſt freeholder, as by the ſaide Iuſtices ſhall be allowed, will bee contented before ſuch Iuſtices, as ſuch perſon ſhall be arraigned of felony to take him or them into his ſeruice for one whole yeare, then next following, and them before the ſaide Iuſtices will bee bound by Recogniſance of tenne pounds, to be leuied of his Lands, Goods, Tenements, and Chattells to the vſe of our Soueraigne Ladie the Queene, if hee keepe not the ſaid perſon or perſons for one whole yeare, and bring him to the next Seſſions for the Peace and Gaole Deliuerie, next enſuing after the ſayd yeare: And if anie ſuch perſon retained, depart within the yeare, without the licence of him that ſo retayned him, then to be indicted, tryed, and iudged as a Felon, and not to haue the beneſit of the Clergy. Prouided alwayes, That if anie ſuch idle and wandering perſon as aforeſayd, ſhall happen to fall ſicke by the way, ſo that by reaſon of his weaknes he can not trauell to his iornies end within the time limited within his teſtimonial, no ſuch to be within the danger of this eſtatute, ſo as he ſette himſelf in ſome lawful courſe of life, as aforeſaid, or repaire as aforeſaid, to ỹ place where he was borne, or was laſt abiding, within conuenient time, after the recouerie of his ſickenes, and there remaine as aforeſaid: Any thing in this Statute contained to the contrary notwithſtanding. Prouided alſo and be it &c. that when any ſuch Souldier or Mariner, comming from the ſeas, or frō beyond the ſeas, as aforeſaid, ſhal repaire to the place of his dwelling or birth, according to the purport of the ſaid Teſtimoniall, and cannot of himſelf get there any worke, whereby to imploy himſelfe to labour, or other lawful courſe of life, as aforeſaid: That then in all ſuch caſes vpon complaint made by ſuch Souldier or Mariner, to two Iuſtices of Peace of the ſaid county, of, or neere the ſaid place, the ſaid ỹ. Iuſt. ſhall take order by their diſcretion, to ſet ſuch ſouldier or mariner to ſome ſuch honeſt labour or worke, as to them ſhalbe thought meete. And for want of ſuch worke, the ſaid two Iuſtices ſhall tare the whole Hundred by their diſcretions, for the releiſe of ſuch Souldier or Mariner, till ſuch ſufficient worke may be had. Prouided alſo, That if any ſuch Souldier or Mariner comming from the Seas, or from beyond the Seas, as aforeſayd, ſhall not at the time of his landing, or in his trauell, to the place whereunto he is to repaire, as aforeſaid, going the direct way, that then he reſort to ſome Iuſtice of the Peace next adioyning to the ſayd place of landing or way, and make knowne vnto the ſayd Iuſtice his pouertie: who vpon perfect notice thereof had, ſhall haue full power and authority by this preſent Act, to licence the ſame Souldier or Mariner to paſſe the next and direct way to the place where he is to repaire, and to limit him ſo much time onely, as ſhall be neceſſarie for his trauell thither: And that in ſuch caſe his licence being ſo made, and hee purſuing the forme of ſuch his licence, ſhall and may for his neceſſarie releiſe in his ſuch trauell, aſke and take the releiſe that any perſon ſhall willingly giue him, and in ſuch caſe, his ſuch trauell and taking of almes as aforeſaid, ſhall not be taken an offence againſt this Law. Prouided alſo, That this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall extend or be interpreted to make or worke any corruption of bloud in any the heires or heire of any ſuch offender or offenders: Any thing in this Act to the contrarie notwithſtanding. Prouided alſo, and bee it further enacted, That this Act ſhall not take any force or effect, till fortie dayes next after the end of this Seſſion of Parliament, and ſhal continue to the end of the Parliament next enſuing. Anno 39. Elizabethæ cap. 17. This Act by Anno 43. Elizab. capit. 9. is continued vntill the end of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament. And Anno primo Iacobi capitulo 25. it is continued vntill the end of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament.

15 Be it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent Parliament, That the Churchwardens of euerie Pariſh, and foure, three, or two ſubſtantiall houſholders there, as ſhall be thought meet, hauing reſpect to the proportion and greatneſſe of the ſame Pariſh and Pariſhes, to be nominated yerely in Eaſter weeke, or within one Moneth after Eaſter, vnder the hand and Seale of two or more Iuſtices of the Peace in the ſame Countie, whereof one to be of the Quorum, dwelling in, or neere the ſame Pariſh or Diuiſion, where the ſame pariſh doth lie, ſhall be called Ouerſeers of the poore of the ſame pariſh. And they, or the greater part of them ſhall take order from time to time, by, and with the conſent of two or more ſuch Iuſtices of Peace, as is aforeſaid, for ſetting to worke of the Children of all ſuch, whoſe Parents ſhall not by the ſaid Churchwardens and ouerſeers, or the greater part of them, be thought able to keep and maintaine their children. And alſo for ſetting to worke all ſuch perſons married, or vnmarried, hauing no meanes to maintaine them, vſe no ordinarie and daily trade of life to get their liuing by, and alſo to raiſe weekely, or otherwiſe (by taration of euerie Inhabitant, Parſon, Vicar, and other, and of euerie occupyer of lands, houſes, tithes impropriate, or propriations of tithes, coale-mines, or ſaleable vnderwoods in the ſayd pariſh, in ſuch competent ſumme and ſummes of Money, as they ſhall thinke fitte) a conuenient Stocke of flaxe, hemp, woll, threede, yron, and other neceſſarie ware and ſtuffe to ſet the poꝛe on woꝛke, and alſo competent ſummes of Money, foꝛ, and towards the neceſſarie releefe of the lame, impotent, old, blind, and ſuch other among them beeing poꝛe, and not able to woꝛke, and alſo foꝛ the putting out of ſuch Childꝛen to be Apꝛentices, to bee gathered out of the ſame Pariſh, accoꝛding to the abilitie of the ſame Pariſh, and to doe, and execute all other things, as well foꝛ the diſpoſing of the ſaid ſtocke, as otherwiſe concerning the pꝛemiſſes, as to them ſhall ſeeme conuenient: Which ſayde Churchwardens and Ouerſeers ſo to bee nominated, oꝛ ſuch of them as ſhall not bee let by ſickeneſſe, oꝛ other iuſt excuſe, to bee allowed by two ſuch Juſtices of Peace, oꝛ moꝛe, as is afoꝛeſaide, ſhall meete together at the leaſt once euerie Moneth, in the Church of the ſayd Pariſh, vpon the Sunday in the afternoone, after Diuine Seruice, there to conſider of ſome good courſe to bee taken, and of ſome meete oꝛder to bee ſet downe in the pꝛemiſſes, and ſhall within foure dayes after the end of theyꝛ yeare, and after other Ouerſeers nominated as afoꝛeſaid, make and yeelde vp to ſuch two Juſtices of Peace, as is afoꝛeſaid, a true and perfect accompt of all ſummes of money by them receiued, oꝛ rated and ſeſſed and not receiued, and alſo of ſuch Stocke as ſhall bee in theyꝛ hands, oꝛ in the hands of anie of the poꝛe to woꝛke, and of all other things concerning theyꝛ ſayd Office, and ſuch ſumme oꝛ ſummes of money as ſhall bee in theyꝛ hands, ſhall pay and deliuer ouer to the ſaid churchwardens and Ouerſeers, newly nominated and appoynted, as afoꝛeſaid, vpon paine that euerie one of them abſenting themſelues without lawfull cauſe as afoꝛeſaid, from ſuch Monethly meeting foꝛ the purpoſe afoꝛeſaid, oꝛ being negligent in theyꝛ Office, oꝛ in the execution of the Oꝛders afoꝛeſaid, being made, by, and with the aſſent of the ſaide Juſtices of Peace, oꝛ anie two of them beſoꝛe mentioned, to foꝛfeit foꝛ euerie ſuch default of abſence, oꝛ negligence, twentie ſhillings. And be it alſo enacted, that if the ſaid Juſtices of peace doe perceiue that the Inhabitants of anie Pariſh are not able to leuie amongſt themſelues ſufficient ſummes of Money foꝛ the purpoſes afoꝛeſayde: That then the ſayde two Juſtices ſhall and may taxe, rate, and aſſeſſe, as afoꝛeſaid, anie other of other Pariſhes, oꝛ out of anie Pariſh within the Hundꝛed where the ſaide Pariſh is, to pay ſuch ſumme and ſummes of Money to the Churchwardens and Ouerſeers of the ſaid poꝛe Pariſh, foꝛ the ſaid purpoſes, as the ſaid Juſtices ſhall thinke fitte, accoꝛding to the intent of this Law. And if the ſaid hundꝛed ſhal not be thought to the ſaid Juſtices, able, and fit to relieue the ſaid ſeuerall Pariſhes not able to pꝛouide foꝛ themſelues, as afoꝛeſayd: Then the Juſtices of Peace at theyꝛ generall Quarter Seſſions, oꝛ the greater number of them, ſhall rate and aſſeſſe, as afoꝛeſaid, anie other of other pariſhes, oꝛ out of any pariſh within the ſayde Countie foꝛ the purpoſes afoꝛeſayd, as in theyꝛ diſcretion ſhall ſeeme fit. And that it ſhall be lawfull as well foꝛ the Pꝛeſent as Subſequent Churchwardens and Ouerſeers, oꝛ anie of them, by Warrant from anie two ſuch Juſtices of peace as is afoꝛeſaide, to leuie as well the ſayd ſummes of money, and all arrerages of euerie one that ſhal refuſe to contribute, accoꝛding as they ſhall be aſſeſſed, by diſtreſſe, and ſale of the Offendours goodes, as the ſummes of Money, oꝛ Stocke which ſhall bee behinde vpon anie Accompt to bee made, as afoꝛeſayd, rendering to the parties the ouerplus, and in defect of ſuch Diſtreſſe, it ſhall bee lawfull foꝛ anie ſuch two Juſtices of the peace, to commit him oꝛ them to the Common Gaole of the Countie, there to remayne without Baile oꝛ Mainepꝛiſe, vntill payment of the ſayd ſumme, arerages, and ſtocke. And the ſaide Juſtices of Peace, oꝛ anie of them, to ſend to the Houſe of Coꝛrection oꝛ common Gaole ſuch as ſhall not imploy themſelues to woꝛke, being appoynted thereunto, as afoꝛeſaid: And alſo any two ſuch Juſtices of Peace, to commit to the ſaid Pꝛiſon, euerie one of the ſaide Churchwardens and Ouerſeers, which ſhall refuſe to accompt, there to remayne without Bayle oꝛ Maynepꝛiſe, vntill hee haue made a true Accompt, and ſatiſfied and payed ſo much as vpon the ſayd Accompt ſhall be remayning in his hands. And be it further enacted, that it ſhall be lawfull foꝛ the ſayd Churchwardens and Ouerſeers, oꝛ the greater part of them, by the aſſent of any two Juſtices of the Peace afoꝛeſaid, to bind anie ſuch childꝛen, as afoꝛeſayd, to be Apꝛentices, where they ſhall ſee conuenient, till ſuch man childe ſhall come to the age of foure and twentie yeares, and ſuch woman childe to the age of one and twentie yeares, oꝛ the time of her Marriage: The ſame to be as effectuall to all purpoſes, as if ſuch childe were of full age, & by Indenture of couenant bound him oꝛ her ſelfe. And to the intent that neceſſary places of habitation may moꝛe conueniently be pꝛouided foꝛ ſuch poꝛe impotent people: Be it enacted by the authoꝛity afoꝛeſaide, that it ſhall and may be lawful foꝛ the ſaid Churchwardens & Ouerſeers, oꝛ the greater part of them, by the leaue of the L. oꝛ lords of the manoꝛ, where of any waſt oꝛ Common within theyꝛ pariſh is oꝛ ſhall be parcell, and vpon agreement beſoꝛe with him oꝛ them made in writing vnder the hands and ſeales of the ſaid loꝛd and loꝛds, oꝛ otherwiſe, accoꝛding to any oꝛder to be ſet downe by the Juſtices of Peace of the ſaid county at their generall Quarter Seſſions, oꝛ the greater part of them, by like leaue and agreement of the ſaid loꝛd oꝛ loꝛds, in writing vnder his oꝛ theyꝛ hands and ſeales, to erect, build, & ſet vp in fit and cõuenient places of habitation, in ſuch waſte oꝛ common, at the generall charges of the pariſh, oꝛ otherwiſe of the hundꝛed oꝛ county as afoꝛeſaid, to be tared, rated, and gathered, in manner beſoꝛe exꝛeſſed, conuenient houſes of dwelling foꝛ the ſaid impotent poꝛe: and alſo to place Inmates oꝛ moꝛe families then one in one cottage oꝛ houſe, One Act made in the one and thirtieth yeare of her Maieſties raigne, intituled, An Act againſt the Erecting and Maintayning of Cottages, oꝛ anie thing therein contayned to the contrarie notwithſtanding: Which Cottages and Places foꝛ Inmates ſhall not at anie time after bee vſed or imployed, to, or for anie other habitation, but onely for impotent and poore of the ſame Pariſh, that ſhall be there placed from time to time by the Churchwardens and ouerſéers of the poore of the ſame pariſh, or the moſt part of them, vpon the paines and forfeitures contayned in the ſaid former Act made in the ſaid one and thirtieth yeare of hir Maieſties reigne. Prouided alwais, that if any perſon or perſons ſhal find themſelues grieued with anie Aſſeſſe or Taxe, or other Act done by the ſaid Churchwardens and other perſons, or by the ſaid Juſtices of Peace, that then it ſhalbe lawfull for the Juſtices of Peace, at their generall quarter Seſſions, or the greater number of them, to take ſuch order therein, as to them ſhal be thought conuenient, and the ſame to conclude and binde all the ſaid parties. And be it further enacted, that the Father and Grandfather, and the Mother and Grandmother, and the children of euery poore, old, blinde, lame, and impotent perſon, or other poore perſon, not able to worke, being of a ſufficient abilitie, ſhall at their owne charges relieue and maintaine euerie ſuch poore perſon in that manner, and according to that rate, as by the Juſtices of peace of that County where ſuch ſufficient perſons dwell, or the greater number of them, at their generall Quarter Seſſions ſhall be aſſeſſed, vpon paine that euerie one of them ſhall forfeit xx. ſ. for euery moneth which they ſhall faile therein. And be it further hereby enacted, That the Maiors, Baliffes, or other head Officers of euery Towne and place Corporate, and Citie within this Realme, being Juſtice or Juſtices of Peace, ſhall haue the ſame authoritie by vertue of this Act, within the limits and precincts of their iuriſdictions, as well out of Seſſions, as at their Seſſions, if they hold any, as is herein limited, preſcribed, and appointed to Juſtices of the Peace of the Countie, or any two or more of them, or to the Juſtices of Peace in their Quarter Seſſions, to do and execute for all the vſes and purpoſes in this Act preſcribed, and no other Juſtice or Juſtices of Peace to enter or meddle there. And that euery Alderman of the citie of London within his ward, ſhall and may doe and execute in euerie reſpect, ſo much as is appointed and allowed by this Act to be done and executed by one or two Juſtices of Peace, of anie County within this Realme. And be it alſo enacted, that if it ſhall happen any pariſh to extend it ſelfe into more Counties then one, or part to lie within the Liberties of anie Citie, Towne, or place Corporate, and part without, that then as well the Juſtices of Peace of euerie Countie, as alſo the head Officers of ſuch citie, towne, or place corporate, ſhall deale and intermeddle onely in ſomuch of the ſaid pariſh, as lieth within their Liberties, and not anie further. And euerie of them reſpectiuely within their ſeuerall Limits, Wardes, and Iuriſdictions, to execute the ordinances before mentioned concerning the nomination of Ouerſéers, the conſent to binding Apprentices, the giuing Warrant to leuie Taxations vnpayed, the taking account of Churchwardens and Ouerſéers, and the committing to priſon ſuch as refuſe to accompt, or deny to pay their arrerages due vpon their accompts. And yet neuertheles, the ſaid Churchwardens and Ouerſéers, or the moſt part of them of the ſaid Pariſhes, that doe extend into ſuch ſeuerall limits, and iuriſdictions, ſhall without diuiding themſelues, duely execute their Office in all places within the ſaid Pariſh, in all things to them belonging, and ſhall duely exhibite and make one accompt before the ſaid head Officer of the towne or place corporate, and one other before the ſayd Juſtices of Peace, or anie ſuch two of them, as is aforeſaid. And further be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if in any place within this Realme there happen to be hereafter no ſuch nomination of Ouerſéers yéerely, as is before appointed: That then euery Juſtice of Peace of the Countie dwelling within the Diuiſion, where ſuch default of nomination ſhall happen: And euerie Mayor, Alderman, and head Officer of Citie, Towne, or place corporate, where ſuch default ſhall happen, ſhall loſe and forfeit for euerie ſuch default fiue pounds, to be imployed towards the reliefe of the poore of the ſaide Pariſh, or place corporate, and to be leuied as aforeſaid of their goodes by Warrant from the generall Seſſions of the Peace of the ſayd County, or of the ſame Citie, Towne, or place corporate, if they kéepe Seſſions. And bée it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaide, That all penalties and forfeitures before mentioned in this Act to be forfeited by anie perſon or perſons, ſhall goe and be imployed to the vſe of the poore of the ſame Pariſh, and towards a Stocke and Habitation for them, and other neceſſarie vſes and reliefe, as before in this Act are mentioned and expreſſed, and ſhall be leuied by the ſayde Churchwardens and Ouerſéers, or one of them, by Warrant from anie two ſuch Juſtices of Peace, or Mayor, Alderman, or head Officer of Citie, Towne, or place corporate, reſpectiuely within their ſeuerall Limits, by diſtreſſe and ſale thereof, as aforeſaid, or in defect thereof, it ſhall be lawfull for anie two ſuch Juſtices of Peace, and the ſayd Aldermen and head Officers within their ſeuerall limits, to commit the Offendour to the ſayd Priſon, there to remaine without baile or mainepriſe, till the ſayd forfeitures ſhall bée ſatisfied and payed. And bée it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſayd, That the Juſtices of Peace of euerie Countie or place corporate, or the more part of them in their generall Seſſions to be holden next after the Feaſt of Eaſter next, and ſo yearely as often as they ſhall thinke méete, ſhall rate euerie Pariſh to ſuch a weékely ſumme of Money as they ſhall thinke conuenient, ſo as no pariſh be rated aboue the ſumme of fiue pence, nor vnder the ſumme of a halfe peny, weékly to be payed, and ſo as the totall ſumme of ſuch taration of the pariſhes in euery county, amount not aboue the rate of two pence for euery Pariſh within the ſaid Countie: Which ſummes ſo tared, ſhall be yéerely aſſeſſed by the agréement of the parichioners within themſelues, or in default thereof, by the Churchwardens and petie Conſtables of the ſame Pariſh, or the more part of them, or in default of theyr agreement, by the Order of ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices of Peace, as ſhall dwell in the ſame Pariſh, or (if none be there dwelling) in the parts next adioyning. And if any perſon ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay anie ſuch portion of money ſo tared, it ſhall bee lawfull for the ſaide Churchwardens and Conſtables, or any of them, or in theyr default for anie Juſtice of Peace of the ſaide limit, to leuy the ſame by diſtreſſe, and ſale of the goods of the party ſo refuſing or neglecting, rendering to the party the ouerplus, and in default of ſuch diſtreſſe, it ſhall be lawfull to anie Juſtice of that limit, to commit ſuch perſon to the ſayd priſon, there to abide without bayle or mainprize, till he haue payed the ſame. And be it alſo enacted, that the ſaid Juſtices of the peace at their generall Quarter Seſſions to bee holden at the time of ſuch taxation, ſhall ſet downe what competent ſummes of money ſhall be ſent quarterly out of euerie Countie or place Corporate, for the releife of the poore Priſoners of the Kings bench, and Marſhalſey, and alſo of ſuch Hoſpitalles, and Almes houſes, as ſhall be in the ſaid Countie, and what ſummes of money ſhall bee ſent to euerie one of the ſayde Hoſpitalles and Almes houſes, ſo as there be ſent out of euerie Countie yerely twentie ſhillings at the leaſt to ech of the ſaide Priſons of the Kings Bench, and Marſhalſey, which ſummes ratably to bee aſſeſſed vpon euerie Pariſh, the Churchwardens of euerie Pariſh ſhall truely collect and pay ouer to the high Conſtables in whoſe Diuiſion ſuch Pariſh ſhall bee ſituate, from time to time, Quarterly tenne dayes before the end of euerie Quarter, and euerie ſuch Conſtable at euerie ſuch Quarter Seſſions in ſuch Countie, ſhall pay ouer the ſame to ſuch two Treaſorers, or to one of them, as ſhall by the more part of the Juſtices of Peace of the Countie, bee elected to bee the ſayd Treaſorers, to be choſen by the Juſtices of Peace of the ſaide Countie, Citie, or Towne, or place Corporate, or of others which were ſeſſed and tared at fiue pound lands, or ten pound goodes, at the leaſt, at the tare of Subſidie next before the time of the ſaide Election to bee made. And the ſaide Treaſorers ſo elected, to continue for the ſpace of one whole yeare in theyr Office, and then to giue vp theyr charge with a due accompt of theyr receipts and diſburſements, at the Quarter Seſſions to bee holden next after the Feaſt of Eaſter in euerie yeare, to ſuch others as ſhall from yeare to yeare in forme aforeſaid ſucceſſiuely bee elected Treaſorers for the ſaid Countie, Citie, Towne, or place Corporate: which ſaide Treaſorers, or one of them ſhall pay ouer the ſame to the Lord chiefe Juſtice of England, and Knight Marſhall for the time being, equally to bee diuided to the vſe aforeſaide, taking theyr Acquittaunce for the ſame, or in default of the ſayde Chiefe Juſtice, to the next auncienteſt Juſtice of the Kings Bench, as aforeſaide. And if anie Churchwarden or high Conſtable, or his Executors or Adminiſtrators, ſhall faile to make payment in forme aboue ſpecified, then euerie Churchwarden, his executors or adminiſtrators, ſo offending, ſhal forfeit for euery time the ſumme of tenne ſhillings, and euerie high Conſtable, his Executors or Adminiſtrators, ſhall forfeit for euery time the ſumme of twentie ſhillings, the ſame forfeitures, together with the ſummes behind, to be leuied by the ſaid Treaſorer and Treaſorers, by way of diſtreſſe, and ſale of the goods as aforeſayd, in forme aforeſayd, and by them to be employed towards the charitable vſes comprized in this Act. And be it further enacted, that all the ſurpluſage of Money which ſhall be remaining in the ſaide Stocke, of anie Countie, ſhall by diſcretion of the more part of the Juſtices of Peace in theyr Quarter Seſſions, bee ordered, diſtributed, and beſtowed for the releife of the poore Hoſpitalls of that County, and of thoſe that ſhall ſuſtaine loſſes by fire, water, the ſea, or other caſualties, and to ſuch other charitable purpoſes, for the releife of the poore, as to the more part of the ſaid Juſtices of Peace ſhall ſeeme conuenient. And be it further enacted, That if any Treaſorer elected, ſhall wilfully refuſe to take vpon him the ſaid office of Treaſorerſhip, or refuſe to diſtribute and giue releife, or to accompt, according to ſuch forme as ſhalbe appointed by the more part of the ſaid Juſtices of Peace: That then it ſhall be lawfull for the Juſtices of Peace in theyr Quarter Seſſions, or in theyr default, for the Juſtices of Aſſiſes, at the Aſſiſes to be holden in the ſame County, to fine the ſame Treaſorer by theyr diſcretion: the ſame fine not to be vnder three pounds, and to be leuyed by ſale of his goods, and to be proſecuted by any two of the ſaid Juſtices of Peace, whom they ſhall authorize. Prouided alwayes, that this Act ſhall not take effect vntill the Feaſt of Eaſter next. And be it enacted, that the Statute made in the nine and thirtieth yeare of her Maieſties reigne, intituled, An Act for the Releife of the poore, ſhall continue and ſtand in force vntill the feaſt of Eaſter next, And that all Taxations heretofore impoſed and not payed, nor that ſhall bee payed before the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter next, And that all taxes hereafter before the ſaid Feaſt, to be tared by vertue of the ſaid former Act, which ſhall not be payed before the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter, ſhall, and may, after the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter, be leuied by the ouerſeers, and other perſons in this Act reſpectiuely appointed to leuy taxations by diſtreſſe, & by ſuch warrant in euery reſpect, as if they had bin tared & impoſed by vertue of this Act, and were not paied. Prouided alwayes, that whereas the Iland of Fowlenelle in the county of Eſſex, being inuironed with the ſea, and hauing a Chappell of eaſe for the inhabitants therof, and yet the ſaid Iland is no pariſh, but the Lands in the ſame are ſituated within diuers Pariſhes, farre diſtant from the ſaid Iland. Be it &c. that the ſaid Iu. of peace ſhall nominate & appoint inhabitants within the ſaid Iland to be ouerſeers for the poore people dwelling within the ſaid Iland,

and that both they the ſaid Juſtices, and the ſayd Ouerſeers ſhall haue the ſame power and authoritie to all intents, conſiderations and purpoſes, for the execution of the parts and Articles of this Act, and ſhall be ſubiect to the ſame paines and forfeitures, and likewiſe that the Inhabitants, and Occupiers of lands there, ſhall be liable and chargeable to the ſame payments, charges, expences, and orders, in ſuch manner and forme as if the ſame Iland were a Parith. In conſideration whereof, neither the ſaid Inhabitants or Occupiers of land within the ſaid Iland ſhal not be compelled to contribute towards the releefe of the poore of thoſe Parithes, wherein theyr houſes or lands which they occupy within the ſayd Iland are ſituated, for or by reaſon of theyr ſaid habitations or occuppyings, other then for the releefe of the poore people within the ſaid Iland, neither yet ſhall the other Inhabitants of the Parithes wherein ſuch houſes or lands are ſituated, be compelled by reaſon of theyr reſſancie or dwelling, to contribute to the releefe of the poore Inhabitants within the ſaid Iland. And be it &c. That if any Action of Treſpaſſe, or other ſuite ſhall happen to be attempted and brought againſt anie perſon or perſons for taking anie diſtreſſe, making of any ſale, or any other thing doing, by authoritie of this preſent Act: The Defendant or Defendants in any ſuch action or ſuite, ſhall and may either pleade not guiltie, or otherwiſe make Auowrie, Cogniſance, or Juſtification, for the taking of the ſaid diſtreſſes, making of ſale, or other thing doing, by vertue of this Act, alleadging in ſuch Auowrie, Cogniſance, or Juſtification, That the ſaid diſtreſſe, ſale, treſpaſſe, or other thing whereof the Plaintife or Plaintifes complained was done by authority of this Act, and according to the tenor, purport and effect of this Act, without any erpreſſing or rehearſall of any other matter of circumſtance contained in this preſent Act. To which Auowrie, Cogniſance, or Juſtification, the Plaintife ſhall be admitted to reply, That the Defendant did take the ſaid diſtreſſe, made the ſaid ſale, or did any other act or treſpaſſe, ſuppoſed in his declaration of his owne wrong, without anie ſuch cauſe alledged by the ſaid Defendant, whereupon the iſſue in euery ſuch Action ſhall be ioyned, to be tryed by verdict of twelue men, and not otherwiſe, accuſtomed in other perſonall Actions. And vpon the triall of that Iſſue, the whole matter to be giuen on both parties in euidence, according to the very trueth of the ſame. And after ſuch Iſſue tryed for the Defendant, or nonſuite of the Plaintife, after appearance, the ſame Defendant to recouer treble damages, by reaſon of his wrongfull veration in that behalfe, with coſts alſo in that part ſuſtained, and that to be aſſeſſed by the ſame Jurie, or Writ to enquire of the damages, as the ſame ſhall require. Prouided alwayes, that this Act ſhal indure no longer then to the end of the nert Seſſion of Parliament. 43. Eli. cap. 2. And anñ 1. Iac. cap. 25. it is continued vntill the end of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament, with this Addition, viz. Be it enacted, That all perſons, to whom the Ouerſeers of the poore, ſhall, according to this Act, binde any children apprentices, may take, and receiue and keepe them as Apprentices: any former Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

16 Whereas ſithence the making of the Act Añ 39. Eliz. cap. 4. diuers doubts and queſtions haue been moued and growne by diuerſity of opinions, taken, in, and vpon the letter of the ſaid Act. For a plaine declaration whereof, be it declared and enacted, That from henceforth no authority to be giuen or made by any Baron of this Realme, or any other honourable Perſonage of greater degree, vnto any other perſon or perſons, ſhall be auaileable to free and diſcharge the ſayd perſons, or anie of them from the paines and puniſhments in the ſaide Statute mentioned, but that they ſhall be taken within the offence and puniſhment of the ſame Statute. And whereas in the ſaid Statute there is a Prouiſo contained, That the ſaide Statute, nor any thing therein contayned, ſhall extend to any ſuch Glaſſemen as ſhalbe of good behauiour, and ſhall trauell, in, or through any County without begging, hauing Licence for theyr trauelling, vnder the hands and ſeales of three Juſtices of the Peace of the ſame Countie where they trauell, whereof one to be of the Quorum, as by the Statute more at large appeareth: By reaſon of which Libertie, many notorious Rogues and Vagabonds and euil diſpoſed perſons haue vndertaken, and do profeſſe the trade of Glaſſemen, and by colour thereof doe trauell vp and downe diuers Counties of this Realme, and doe commit many Pickeries, petties Felonies, and other miſdemeanors. For the auoiding of which inconuenience, be it eſtabliſhed and enacted &c. That from and after two Moneths nert after the end of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, all ſuch perſon and perſons as ſhall wander vp and downe the Countries to ſell Glaſſes, ſhall be adiudged, deemed, and taken as Rogues and Vagabonds, and ſhall ſuffer the like paines and puniſhment in euery degree, as is appointed to be inflicted vpon Rogues, Vagabonds and ſturdie Beggers, by the intent and true meaning of the ſaide Statute, made Anno 39. Elizabethæ, and ſhall be ſet downe, limited, and appointed by this preſent Act, any thing in the ſaid Statute of 39. Elizab. to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. And whereas by the ſaid Statute Anno 39. Elizab. it was further enacted, That if any of the ſaid Rogues ſhall appeare to bee daungerous to the inferiour ſort of the people, where they ſhall bee taken, or otherwiſe be ſuch as will not be reformed of theyr Roguiſh kind of life, that in euerie ſuch caſe it ſhall bee lawfull to the Juſtices of Peace of the ſame Limite, where anie ſuch Rogue ſhall be taken, to commit the Rogue to the Houſe of Correction, or to the Gaole of the Countie, there to remayne vntill the nert Quarter Seſſions to bee holden in the Countie: And then ſuch of the Rogues ſo committed, as by the Juſtices of the Peace then and there preſent, or the moſt part of them, ſhall be thought fit not to be delinered, ſhall or may lawfully by the ſame Juſtices, or the moſt part of them, be baniſhed out of the Realme and all other the Dominions thereof, and at the charges of that County shall be conueyed into such parts beyond the seas, as shall bée at any time hereafter for that purpose assigned by the priuy Counsell vnto the sayd Quéene Elizabeth, her heyres and successours, or by any fiue or more of them, whereof the Lord Chauncellor, or Lord Keeper of the great Seale, or Lord Treasorer, for the time being, to be one, or otherwise bée adiudged perpetually to the Gallies of this Realme, as by the said Iustices or the more part of them shall be thought fitte or expedient. And if any such Rogue shall returne (being banished as aforesaid) againe into any part of this Realme or Dominion of Wales, without lawfull Licence or Warrant so to doe, That in euery such case, such offence shall be felonie, and the partie offending therein, suffer death as in case of felonie: The same felony to bée heard and determined in that Countie of this Realme or Wales, in which the offender shall be apprehended, as by the said Statute more at large appeareth: Which Braunch of the saide Statute is taken to be somewhat defectiue, for that the said Rogues hauing no marke vpon them to be knowne by, notwithstanding such Iudgement of Banishment, may retourne or retyre themselues into some other parties of this Realme where they are not knowen, and so escape the due punishment which the saide Statute did intend to inflict vpon them. For remedie whereof bée it ordayned and enacted, That such Rogues as shall after the end of two Moneths next after the end of this Session of Parliament, bée adiudged as aforesaid incorrigible or daungerous, shall also by the Iudgement of the same Iustices, or the more part of them then present, in their open Sessions of the Peace, be branded in the left shoulder with an hot burning yron, of the breadth of an English shilling, with a great Roman R vpon the yron, and the branding vpon the shoulder to be so throughly burned, and set on vpon the skinne and flesh, that the letter R be séene, and remayne for a perpetual marke vpon such Rogue during his or her life, and thereupon be sent by the same Iustices to the place of his dwelling if hée haue any, if not, then to the place where he last dwelt by the space of a yéere, if that can be knowne by his confession or otherwise: And if that can not be knowne, then to the place of his birth, there to be placed in labour as a true subiect ought to doe: And after such punishment of any such Rogue, as aforesaid, if any Rogue so punished shall offend againe, in begging or wandering contrary to the sayd Statute, or this present Act, That then in euery such case, the party so offending shall be iudged a felon, and shall suffer as in cases of felonie, without benefite of Clergie, the same felonie to be tried in the county where anie such Offender shall bée taken. And be it &c. That after two moneths next after the end of this present Session of Parliament, euerie person or persons, shall apprehend or cause to bée apprehended, such Rogues, Vagabonds, and sturdy beggers, as hée or they shall sée or know to resort to their houses, to beg, gather or receiue any almes, and him, her, or them, shal cary or cause to be caried to the nert Constable or Tithingman, vpon paine to forfeit for euery default tenne shillings, to be leuied and imployed in manner and forme, and vpon such like proofe and conuiction, as penalties and forfeitures are to be leuied and imployed by the said Statute of Anno 39. Elizabethæ. And in default of any such leuy, then to bée leuied and employed by the Lord of the Léete, or his Officer, where such offence shall be committed, in such manner as the persons authorized by the said Statute, might or should haue leuied and employed the same. And be it further enacted, That if such Constable or Tythingman doe not cause the sayde Rogues, Vagabonds or sturdy Beggers to be punished, according to the forme set downe in the said Act made Anno 39. Elizabethæ, and to bée conueyed, according to the purport of the sayde Act, That then the sayd Constable or Tythingman shall forfeit and lose the summe of twentie shillings, for euery default, to bée leuied and employed in manner and forme, as in the saide Statute is set forth and declared. And be it enacted &c. That the sayd Statute made Anno tricesimo nono Elizabethæ, with the alterations, explanations, and prouisions herein mentioned and contained, shall continue and and stand in force, so long as this present Act shall be and remayne in force and strength. Prouided also, that this present Act shall continue but vntill the end of the nert Parliament. Prouided further, that this Act, or any thing therein contayned, or any authoritie thereby giuen, shall not in any wise extend to disinherite, preiudice or hinder Iohn Dutton of Dutton, in the Countie of Chester Esquire, his heyres or assignes, for, touching, or concerning any Libertie, Priuiledge, Preheminence, and authoritie, Iurisdiction, or Inheritance, which the said Iohn Dutton now lawfully vseth, or hath, or lawfully may or ought to vse within the Countie Palantine of Chester, and the Countie of the Citie of Chester, or eyther of them, by reason of any auncient Charters of any Kings of this land, or by reason of any prescription, or lawfull vsage, or title whatsoeuer. 17 Be it enacted and established &c. That all Lawes and Statutes now in force, made for erecting and building of Houses of Correction, and for punishing of Rogues, Vagabonds, and other wandering and idle persons, shall be put in due execution. And be it further enacted and established &c. That before the feast of S. Michaell the Archangell, which shall be in the yéere of our Lord God, one thousand fiue hundred and eleuen, there shall bée erected, built, or otherwise prouided, within euerie Countie of this Realme of England and Wales where is not one House of Correction already built, purchased, prouided, or continued, one or more fit and conuenient house or houses of Correction, with conuenient backeside thereunto adioyning, together with Milles, Turnes, Cardes, and such like necessarie implements, ments, to set the said Rogues, or such other idle persons on worke, The same houses to bee built, erected or prouided in some conuenient place or Towne in euerie County; which houses shall bee purchased, conueyed or assured vnto such person or persons, as by the Justices of Peace, or the more part of them, in their Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to bee holden within euerie Countie of this Realme of England and Wales, vpon trust, To the intent the same shall be vsed and imployed for the kéeping, correcting, and setting to worke of the said Rogues, Vagabonds, sturdie Beggers, and other idle and disorderly persons. And be it &c. that if the said house so to be erected, purchased, or prouided, shall not bee erected, built, or otherwise prouided, before the Feast of Saint Michael the Archangell, which shall bee in the yeare, one thousand fiue hundreth and eleuen, next ensuing the last day of this present Session of Parliament, that then euerie Justice of Peace within euerie Countie of this Realme of England and Wales, where such house and Backside shall not bée erected or prouided, shall forfeit for his said neglect, fiue pounds of lawfull English money, the one Moitie thereof to be vnto him or them that will sue for the same, by action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information; In which suite, no protection, Essoine, or wager of Law shall be admitted: And the other moitie thereof to bée imployed and bestowed towards the erecting, building, procuring, or prouiding the said House and Backeside, and such necessarie implements, as aforesaid. And be it &c. That the Justices of Peace of euerie Countie within the Realme of England and Wales, at their Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to be holden for their seuerall Counties (next after the erecting prouiding or building of the said House or Houses, and so from time to time) or the most part of them, shall elect, nominate and appoint, at their will and pleasure, one or more honest fitt person or persons, to bée Gouernour or Master, of the said House or Houses to be so purchased, erected, built or prouided: which person and persons so chosen by vertue of this present act, shall haue power and authoritie, to set such Rogues, Vagabonds, idle & disorderly persons, as shall be brought or sent vnto the said house to worke and labour, (being able) from time to time, for such time, as they shall continue and bee remaining in the said House of correction, and to punish the saide Rogues, Vagabonds, idle and disorderly persons, by putting Fetters or Giues vpon them, and by moderate whipping of them, and that the said rogues, Vagabonds, and idle persons, during such time as they shall continue and remain in the said House of Correction, shal in no sort be chargeable to the Countrey for any allowance, either at their bringing in, or going forth, or during the time of their abode there, but shall haue such and so much allowance, as they shall deserue by their owne labour and worke. And be it &c. that the saide Justices of Peace of euerie County within euerie of their seuerall Diuisions twice in euerie yeare at the least, and oftner if there be occasion, shall assemble and meete together, for the better execution of this Statute, and that some foure or fiue daies before their assembly and meeting, the said Justices or the more part of them shall by their warrant commaund the Constables and Tythingmen of euerie Hundred, towne, parish, Village and Hamlet within their said seuerall diuisions, which shall bée assisted with sufficient men of the same places, to make a generall priuy search in one night within their saide Hundreds, Townes, Villages and Hamlets, for the finding out and apprehending of the said Rogues, Vagabonds, wandring and idle persons, & that such rogues, vagabonds, wandring & idle persons as they shal then finde & apprehend in the saide search, shall by them be brought before the saide Justices, at their said assembly or méeting, there to be examined of their idle and wandring life, there to bée punished, or otherwise by their warrant to bée sent or conueyed vnto the said house or houses of Correction within the said Countie, appointed and prefired, there to be deliuered vnto the Master or Gouernour of the said house, or to his Deputy or Assignee, to be set to labour and worke, at which daies and times of assembly or méeting, so to be held by the saide Justices of Peace, the Constables and Tythingmen of euerie Hundred, Parish, Towne, Village and Hamlett, shall then appeare in euerie their seuerall Diuisions, before the said Justices of Peace, at the said assemblies or méetings, and there shall giue account and reckoning, vpon Oath in writing, and vnder the hand of the Minister of euery Parish, what Rogues, Vagabonds, and wandring and disorderly persons, they haue apprehended both in the same search, and also betweene euerie such assemblies and méetings, and how many haue béene by them punished, or otherwise sent vnto the Houses of correction: which if the said Constables or Tythingmen shall neglect to performe, as also, to conuey safely all such Rogues, with all other idle or disorderly persons at the charge of the Hundreth, as by the Justices of Peace warrants, shall bée sent vnto the houses of correction in the same County, that then they shall forfeit such further Fines, paines, and penalties, as by the Justices of Peace, or the most part of them, shall be thought fit and conuenient, not exceeding the summe of forty shillings for euerie offence. And for that it is conuenient, that the Masters or Gouernours of the saide Houses of Correction should haue some fitt allowance and maintenance, for their trauaile and care to bee had in the said seruice, as also for the relieuing of such as shall happen to be weake and sicke in their custody, and that the Subiects of this Realme should in no sort bée ouercharged, to raise vp money for Stockes, to set such on worke as shall bée committed to their Custody. Be it &c. That the Masters or Gouernours of the said houses of Correction, shall

haue such summe of Money yearely, as shall be thought meet, by the most part of Justices of the Peace within the said County, at the quarter Sessions of the Peace, the same to be paide quarterly before hand by the Treasorers, appointed by one Act made in the three and fortieth yeare of the late Queene Elizabeth, intituled, An act for the release of the poore, during the time they the said Maisters or Gouernours shall be imployed in the said seruice (the said Maister or Gouernour giuing sufficient securitie, for the continuance and performance of the said seruice:) which if the said Treasorer shall neglect or refuse to performe, That then the said Maister or Gouernour of the house of Correction, shall haue authoritie by this present act, to leuy the same, or so much thereof as shall be vnpaid, vpon the said Treasurers account, in such maner and forme, as by the said Statute they the said Treasurers are appointed and authorised to leuy the weekely sum or payment, being to them vnpaide. And because great charge ariseth, vpon many places within this Realme, by reason of Bastardie, besides the great dishonour of Almighty God. Be it &c. that euerie lewde Woman, which after this present Session of Parliament, shall haue any Bastard which may be chargeable to the Parish, the Justices of Peace shall commit such lewde Woman vnto the house of Correction, there to be punished, and set on worke during the terme of one whole yeare: And if shee shall eftsones offend againe, That then to be committed to the said house of correction as aforesaid, and there to remaine vntil she can put in good sureties for her good behauiour, not to offend so again. And for that many wilfull people, finding that they hauing children haue some hope to haue releise from the Parish wherein they dwell, and being able to labour, and thereby to relieue themselues and their families, doe neuertheless runne away out of their Parishes, and leaue their families vpon the Parish; For remedie whereof, Be it &c. that all such persons so running away shall bee taken and deemed to be incorrigible Rogues, and endure the paines of incorrigible Rogues: And if either such man or Woman being able to worke and shall threaten to runne away, and leaue their families as aforesaide, the same being proued by two sufficient witnesses vpon Oath before two Justices of Peace in that Diuision, That then the said persons so threatning, shall by the said Justices of Peace be sent to the houses of Correction, (vnlesse hee or shee can put in sufficient sureties for the discharge of the Parish) there to be dealt with and detained as a Sturdy and wandring Rogue, and to bee deliuered at the saide assembly or meeting or at the quarter Sessions, and not otherwise. And because there shall be the more care taken by all such Maisters of the houses of Correction, that when the Country hath beene at trouble and charge, to bring all such disorderly persons, as aforesaid to their safe keeping, that then they shall performe their duties in that behalfe, Be it &c. That if they shall not euerie quarter Sessions, yeelde a true and lawfull account vnto the Justices of Peace, of all such persons as haue beene committed to their custody: Or if the said persons committed to their Custody, or any of them, shall be troublesome vnto the countrie, by going abroad, or otherwise shall escape away from the saide house of Correction, before they shall be from thence lawfully deliuered, that then the said Justices shall set down such Fines & Penalties vpon the said Maister and Gouernors, as the most part of them in their quarter Sessions shall thinke fit and conuenient, and all Fines and Penalties not herein before limited shall be paid vnto the Treasurer, and accounted for by the Treasurer aforesaid: This act to haue continuance for the space of seuen yeares, and from thence to the end of the next Session of Parliament after the said seuen yeres. 8 As touching Vitailers, it is accorded ỹ they ſhall haue reaſonable gaines after the diſcretion & limitation of the ſaid Iuſtices (videlicet, the Iuſtices of Peace) and no more, vpon paine to be grieuouſly puniſhed after the diſcretion of the ſaid Iuſtices where no paine is limitted in certaine before this time vpon the ſaid vitailers. And that Sheriffs Stewards of Lords of Franchiſes, Maiors & Bailifes, and all other that haue authority to kéepe the aſſiſe of breade and Ale, and the correction of the ſame, ſhall take no amerciament nor fine for no default touching the aſſiſe, for the which a man or woman by the Law ought to haue bodily penance, according as it is heretofore ordeined by Statute, but they ſhal iudge them to the ſame bodily penance as the default requireth, and ſhall doe due execution thereof. And that Maiors, Bailifes, and Stewards of Franchiſe, and all other that haue the order and ſurueying of vitailes in Cities, Boroughes, Market Towns, and elſewhere, where vitailes be ſold in the Realme, ſhall put the Statute made the three and twentieth yeare of the raign of King Edward, grandfather to our Soueraigne Lord the king that now is, which beginneth: Becauſe a great part of the people, touching the eſtate of Vitailers and Hoſtlers, and other ſellers of Vitailes, (before 2.) in due execution. And that no Hoſtler make Horſebread in his hoſtry nor without, but Bakers ſhall make it, and the aſſiſe thereof ſhall be kept, and that the weight be reaſonable after the price of the Corne in the market, and that the ſame Hoſtlers ſhall ſell hey and Oates after a reaſonable price, ſo that they take not but one halfe peny ouer the common price in the Market, and that they take nothing for litter. IT is prouided, that none being vouched to warranty before our Juſticers, in plea of land or tenement, ſhall be amerced frõ henceforth, becauſe he was not preſent when he was vouched to warranty, except the firſt day of the comming of the Juſticers. But if the party vouched be within the ſhire, then the Sherife ſhall bee commanded to cauſe him to come within the third or fourth day, according to the diſtance of the place, as it was wont to bee done in the circuit of the Juſticers. And if he dwell without the Shire, then hee ſhall haue reaſonable ſummons of fiftcene daies at the leaſt, after the diſcretion of the Juſticers, and the common Law. Marl. cap. 26. Anno 52. H. 3.

2 For aſmuch as many people are delaied of their right by falſe vouching to warrantie: It is prouided, that in writs of poſſeſſion, firſt of all in a writ of Mortdanceſtour, of coſinage, of aiel, Nuper obijt, of intruſion, and other like writs, whereby lands or tenements are demanded which ought to deſcend, reuert, remain or eſchete by the death of any auncеſtour, or otherwiſe, if the Tenant vouch to warrantie, and the demandant counterpleadeth him, and will auerre by aſſiſe, and by the countrey, or otherwiſe, as the Court will award, that the Tenant or his anceſtor (whoſe heire he is) was the firſt ỳ entred after the death of him of whoſe ſeiſin he demandeth: The auerment of the demaundant ſhall be receiued, if the Tenant will abide thereupon, and if not, he ſhall bee further compelled to another anſwere, if hee haue not his warrantour preſent, that will warrant him freely, and incontinent enter into the warranty. Hauing vnto the demandant his exceptiõs againſt him, if he wil vouch further, as he had before againſt the firſt tenant. From henceforth in all maner of writs of entrie, which make mention of degrees, none ſhall vouch out of the line, or in other writs of entrie, where no mention is made of degrees, which writs ſhall not bee mainteined but in caſes where the other writtes of degrees cannot lie nor hold place. And in a writ of right it is prouided, that if the tenant vouch to warrantie, and the demandant wil counterpleade him, and be ready to auer by the countrey, that he that is vouched, nor his auncеſtors, had neuer ſeiſin of the land or tenement demanded, fee or ſeruice, by the hand of the Tenant or his auncеſtours, ſince the time of him, on whoſe ſeiſin the demaundant declareth clareth, vntill the time that the writ was purchased, and the plea moued, whereby he might haue infeoffed the Tenant or his auncestours: Then let the auerrement of the Demaundant be receiued, if the Tenant will ioyne thereupon, and if not, the Tenant shall bee further compelled vnto another aunswere, if hee bee not present that will warrant him freely, and not incontinent enter in aunswere. Sauing vnto the Exception Demaundant his exceptions against him, as hee had afore against the first Tenant. And the said exception shall haue place in a writ of Mortdancester, and in other writs before named, as well as in Writtes that concerne right. And if perase the Tenant haue a deed that compriseth warrantie of another man, which is bound in any of these cases before mentioned to the Warrantie of his elder degree, his recouerie by a writte of warranty of Charters out of the King Chancerie shall be saued to him, at what time soeuer hee will purchase it, howbeit the plea shall not be delayed therefore. Westminst. 1. capitulo 39. Anno 3. Edw. 1.

3 If a man be impleaded for land in the same Citie, and doth vouch a Forreine to warranty, City Forreine Chancerie Summon hee shall come into the Chauncerie, and haue a writte to summon his warrantor at a certaine day before the Iustices of the Bench, and another writ to the Maior and Bailifes, that they shal surcease in the matter that is before them by writ, vntil the cause of the warranty be determined before the Iustices of the Bench, then shall hee that Maior Bailifes is vouched be commanded to goe to London, to aunswere vnto the chiefe plea. And a writ shall bee awarded for the Demaundant by the Iusticers vnto the Maior and Bailifes, that they shall proceed in plea. And if the Demaundant recouer against the Tenant, the Tenant shall come before the Iusticers of the Bench, which shall direct a writ to the Maior and Bailifes, that if the Tenant haue lost his land, they shall cause the land to be extended, and valued, and shall returne the extent at a certaine day into the Bench, and after Sherife it shall be commanded to the Sherife of the Shire (where the warrantie was summoned,) that hee shall cause the party that doth vouch, to haue as much of the land of the warrantor in value as he lost. Glouc. cap. 12. Anno 6. Ed. 1.

4 When any demaundeth land against another, and the party that is impleaded, voucheth Warranty to warranty, and the warrantour denieth his warranty, and the plea hangeth long betweene the Tenant and the warrantour: And at length when it is tried, that the vouchee is bound to warrantie by the Law and Custome of this Realme hitherto vsed, there was none other punishment assigned for the vouchee, that denyed his warrantie, but onely that hee should warrantise, and should be amerced, because hee did not warrant before, which was preiudiciall vnto the demandant, because he suffered oftentimes great delaies by collusion betweene the Tenant and the warrantour: Wherefore our Soueraigne Lord the King hath ordeined, that like as the Tenant should lose the land being in demand in case where he vouched, and the vouchee could discharge himselfe of the warrantie, in the same wise shall the warrantour lose, in case where he denieth his war- Deny ranty, and it be found and tried against him that he is bounden to warrantise: And if an enquest be de- Enquest pending betweene the Tenant and warrantour, the Demandant will require a writ for to cause the Iurie to come, it shall be graunted him. West. 2. capit. 4. Anno 13. E. 1.

5 Whereas the Tenant in a plea of Land heretofore had vouched one to warrantie, and thereupon the demandant would auerre, that he, nor none of his auncestors (since the time that the auncestor of the demaundant was seised) was in possession of the said lands, neither in demeane nor in seruice if the party vouched were present, and would warrantise the land freely vnto the Tenant, such auerment of the demaundant hath not beene vsed to bee admitted, except the party vouched had bin absent, & y by reason of a certain statute of the kings lately made amongst other statutes at Westminst. 1. capit. 39. Wherefore our Soueraigne Lord the King, considering the fraud, deceit, and malice, and also his owne damage and disherison of his Crowne, that in the said case hath many times happened in his Court, and daily doth, whereas some holding of the King in chiefe by an whole Barony, in a plea hanging before the Iustices of the Bench vpon their demaund to vouch particularly kinges vnknown Chiefe Knaues and strangers, (which they will bring forth) of Strangers whome neither they nor their auncestors had neuer any thing in the lands, that they warranted, nor in any other lands or tenements within this Realme, neither in demeane, nor in seruice, as hath beene testified by diuers of the kings faithfull subiects, so that by such cautell, fraude and malice, the same Tenants holding by an entire Barony, doe defraud the king of the amerciament that they should incurre, if the demaundant should recouer against them, and likewise when such persons haue warranted, that is to wit, euerie one for his portion that he ought to warrant, he may defend himselfe by the bodie of his seruant, procured and hyred by them that holde Baronies, and so vpon one writte, and one demaund, there were two or three wages of battels, the which was a right hard and perillous example for poore men, in time comming, that shall bee demandants against great and rich men, which will defend themselues by y malice aforesaid: And the demandant cannot haue his auerment against such warrantors, when they be vouched in forme aforesaid, because they be present and will warrantise freely: by his common counsell hath ordeined, and from henceforth, that is to say, from the feast of Saint Hillarie, the twentieth yeare of his reigne, hee hath streightly commanded, that whatsoeuer Tenant do vouch, and the demandant will auerre in forme be- Auerre fore rehearsed, his auerment shal be admitted, whether the partie vouched bee absent or present, without any respect had thereunto. London Forreine Mayor Bailifes Adiourne

7 If one being impleaded in the Citie of London, do vouch a forreine to warrantie, the Maior and the Bailifes shall adiourne the parties before the Iusticers of the Bench at a certaine day, and shall send their record thither. And the Iusticers shal cause the warrantour to be summoned before them, and shall trie the warranty. And the Maior and the Bailifes in the meane time shall surcease in the matter that dependeth afore them by writ, vntill such time as the warrantie be determined before the Iustices of the Bench. And when the matter shall bee determined, commandement shall be giuen to the Vouchee to depart into the city and to answer vnto the first plea. And the demandant at his suite shall haue a writ from the Iustices of the Bench, vnto the Maior and Bailifes, that they shall proceede in the plea. And if the demaundant recouer, the Tenant shall come to the Iusticers of the Bench, and haue a Writ to the Maior and Bailifes, that in case the Tenant haue lost his land, they shall cause it to be extended, and returne the same extent vnto the Bench, at a certaine day, and after it shall be commanded to the Sherife of the shire where the warrantie was summoned, that he shall cause the tenant to haue of the lands of the warrantour to like value. And if it fortune that the tenāt make default at the day that is alligned him in the Bench, then shall there goe forth a writ from the Iusticers of the Bench to the Maior and Bailifes, to seise the land demaunded, into the Kings hand by a Petie cape, and to summon the tenant that he be at the hoystings at a certaine day, whereat the Iustices shall be aduised to giue iudgement vpon the same default, if he cannot saue it: & in case hee can saue it, then the Iusticers shall be certified thereof by their Record, and by the same record they shall pleade the warrantie. 6. Where diuers Acts haue beene made for the anoyding and punishment of Vsurie, being a thing vnlawfull, and of other corrupt bargaines, shifts, and chenisances, which be so obscure in termes, and so many questions growen vpon the same, and of so little effect, that little punishment, but rather encouragement to offenders hath ensued thereby: For reformation thereof, be it &c. That all and euery acts, statutes, and lawes heretofore made, of, for, or concerning Vsury, shifts, corrupt bargains, chenisances, and euery of them, and all paines, forfeitures and penalties concerning the same, and euery part thereof, shall from henceforth be vtterly voyd, and of none effect to all intents, constructions and purposes: And be it &c. that no person or persons, of what estate, degree or condition soeuer he or they be, from &c. shall by himselfe, factor, attourny, seruant or deputie sell his marchandizes or wares to anie person or persons, and within three moneths next after by himselfe, factor, attorney, deputie, or by anie other person or persons to his vse and behoofe, buy the same marchandizes or wares, or any part or parcell thereof, vpon a lesser price, knowing them to be the same wares or marchandizes, that he before did so bargaine and sell, vpon the paines and forfeitures hereafter limited in this Statute. And be it &c. that no person or persons of what estate &c. by way or meane of any corrupt bargaine, loane, exchange, chenisance, shift, or interest of any wares, marchandizes, or other thing or things whatsoeuer, or by any other corrupt or deceiptfull way or meane, or by any couine, engine, or deceitfull way or conueyance, shall haue, receiue, accept, or take in lucre or gaines, for the forbearing or giuing day of payment of one whole yeare, of, and for his or their money or other thing, that shall be due for the same wares, marchandizes, or other thing or things aboue the summe of tenne pounds in the hundred, and so after that rate, and not aboue, of, and for a more or lesse summe, or for a longer or shorter time, and no more greater gaine or summe thereupon to be had, vpon the paines and forfeitures hereafter in this Act mentioned and contayned. And be it enacted &c. That if any person or persons, at any time after &c. doe bargaine and sell, or lay to morgage by anie way or meane, any mannors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments to any person or persons, vpon condition of paynient or non-payment of any summe or summes of money to be paid, payed, or made, at any day certayne, or before any such day by him that shall so bargaine, sell, or lay to morgage the same mannors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, that the same person or persons, to whome anie such mannors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments shall be so bargained, solde, or layed to morgage, shall not by reason thereof, haue nor take in lucre or gaines of the issues, reuenues, and profites of the same mannors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments aboue the summe of tenne pounds in the hundred for one whole yeare, and so after the rate aboue sayd, for a more or lesse summe, or for a longer or shorter time, and no more, nor otherwise, vpon the paines, forfeitures, and penalties hereafter in this present Statute limited and oppressed. And be it enacted &c. That it shall not be lawfull for any person or persons whatsoeuer &c. shall doe any act or acts, thing or things, contrarie to the tenor, forme, and effect of this Statute, or of any clause, article or sentence contayned in the same, that then all and euery offender and offenders therein, or in any part thereof, shall forfeit and lose for euery such offence the treble value of the wares, marchandizes and other thing or things so bargained, sold, exchanged, or chiuised, and the treble value of the issues and profits of the said mannors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments so had, taken or receyued by reason of any such bargaine, sale, or morgage, and also shall take and suffer imprisonment of his body, and make fine and ransome vnto the King at his will and pleasure. The moitie of which forfeitures of the said treble value, shall be to the King: and the other moitie to him or them that will sue for the same in any the Kings Courts of record, by bylls, bill, plaint, or information &c. in which &c. no wager &c. Prouided alwayes, and be it &c. That this Act nor anything therein contayned, shall not hinder any bills obligatorie of any lawfull obligation made, and with a condition, nor to any statutes or recognisances made and to be made for the payment of a lesser summe, so that the same Obligation, Statute, or Recognisance be made vpon a iust, true, and perfect debt, or for the performance of anie other true couenants made or to be made, vpon a lawfull intent had betweene the parties, other then in cases of Vsury, interest, corrupt bargaines, shifts, or chenisance, nor shall extend to any pretorie, fine, feoffement, release, confirmation, or grant made or to be made vpon composition with a true intent, other then for the recouerie, fines, feoffements, releasing, confirmations, and grants, as shall be made vpon condition or couenaunt to giue, interest, or corrupt bargaines, shifts, or chenisance, any thing in this Statute contayned, or any Acte, Statute, or Ordinance heretofore had, vsed, or made to the contrarie notwithstanding. 25 Forasmuch as the people of Wales and the Marches of the same, perseuering in the perpetration of manifold wickednesses, stand in neede of sharp correction: Be it &c. that all & singular person and persons, dwelling or resiant within Wales, or in the Lordships Marchers of the same, from time to time, and at all times hereafter, vpon such monition or warning for the Court to be kept in Wales, or in any of the Lordshippes Marchers aforesayd, as before this time hath been vsed, shall personally repaire, resort, and appeare before the Justice, Steward, Lieutenant, or other officer, at all and euerie Sessions, court and courts to bee holden before the same Justice, Steward, or other officers in any whatsoeuer Castle, fortresse, or other place within Wales, or within the precinct, limits, and iurisdictions of euerie the Lordshippes Marchers or Seigniories aforesayde, or the Marches of the same, as by the sayd Justice, Steward, or other officers shall bee appointed, and then or there shall giue his or their personall attendance, to doe, execute, and accomplish, all and euerie thing and things which to him or them shall afferre and appertayne, vpon payne of such fines, forfeitures, and amerciaments as shall bee afferred, assessed, and taxed by the Justice, Steward, or other officer to the kings vse, if it be within any of the kings Lordships Marchers. And if it bee within any other Lordshippes Marchers, then to the vse of the Lord of the said Lordship Marcher for the time being: The sayd forfeitures and amerciaments to be leuyed, perceiued, and taken by way of distresse of the goods and cattels of euerie person not appearing at the said court or courts, or not doing, executing, or accomplishing his duetie, as is abouesayd. And forasmuch as the officers in the lordships Marchers in Wales, haue oft and sundrie times heretofore vnlawfully exacted the kings subiects within suth Lordships, where they haue had rule or authoritie by many and sundry wayes and meanes, and also committed them to straight duresse and imprisonment for small and light feined causes, and extortiously compelled them thereby to pay vnto them fines for redemptions, contrarie to the law: Therefore be it &c. that if any Steward, Lieutenant, or any other officer of any Lordshippe Marcher, do saine, procure, or imagine any vntrue surmise against any person or persons that shall so giue their personall attendance before them at such court or courts, and vpon the same vntrue surmise commit them to any duresse or imprisonment contrarie to the Law, or contrarie to the true and laudable custome of that lordship, that then vpon sute made vnto the Kings Commissioners or Councel of the Marchers for time being, by any such person or persons so imprisoned, or by any their friends, that then the same commissioners or councell shall haue full power and authoritie to send for such Steward, lieutenant, or officer, and also for the person or persons so imprisoned. And if the same person or persons so imprisoned, can euidently prowe before the said Councell, by good and substantial witnesse, or otherwise, that his imprisonment was vpon any fayned surmise without cause reasonable or lawfull: That then the same Commissioners, shall haue full power and authoritie to assesse the sayde Officer to pay to the sayde person or persons wrongfully imprisoned fiue shillings eight pence for euerie day of their Imprisonment, or more, by the discretion of the sayde Commissioners, according to the hurtes and behauiour of the person or persons imprisoned. And that the same Commissioners shall set further Fine vpon the sayde Officer to bee payde to the kings vse, as by their discretions shall bee thought conuenient. And in case the same Officers doe refuse to appeare before the same Commissioners incontinent after any commaundement to them directed and deliuered, after any such complaint made to the same Commissioners: that then the same commissioners shal haue full power and authority vpon euery default made by any officer or officers, to assesse & set vpō euery such officer or officers making default, such fine or Fines to be leuied to the kings

And further they and euery of them shal make such Fine Commissioners fine, as by the discretion of the Kings Commissioners of his Marches shal bee thought conuenient.
And further the sayd Commissioners by this present Act, shall haue power and authoritie to Diet & ter. heare and determine the sayd offences by their examination. And that noe person or persons shall Court hereafter at any time cast any thing into any court within Wales, or in any Lordships Marchers of the same, by the meane or name of an Arthell, by reason whereof the Court may be letted, disturbed, or discontinued for that time, vpon payne of one whole yeares imprisonment of any such person or persons, as shall cast or cause to bee cast any such Arthell into any Court or Courts, hereafter to be holden within Wales or Lordships Marchers of the same: any custome before this time vsed to the contrarie notwithstanding. And that all Sessi-

And that the Kings Officers of the same Lordship marcher or their Deputies, or the Lord or Lords Marchers of the same Lordship Marcher, or his or their Officer or Officers, or their Deputies, shall receiue and safely and surely conduct and conney the same offendor or offenders to the next Lordship Marcher. And so the Kings Officers of euery Lordship marcher, or their Deputies, or the Lord or Lords marchers of the same Lordship, or his or their Officer or Officers, or their Deputies, to receiue, conduct, and conuey safely & surely euerie such offender or offenders, from one Lordship Marcher to another Lordship Marcher, by Indenture as is aforesayd, vnto the time that such offender or offenders shall be safely deliuered before the said Iustices of the gaole deliuerie, vpon paine of forfeiture by euerie of the Kings Officer or Lord Marcher, by whose default the same offender or offenders shall ne may not appeare before the same Iustices at their said Sessions, there to stand & abide the order of the K. Lawes, C.K. to be leuied and perceiued of the goods and cattels, lands & tenements of the same Officer or Lord to the Kings vse. And that all and euerie Officer and Officers, Lord & Lords, or other persons, to whom any Certificate shall be directed, as is abouesaid, shal at the nert Sessions and gaole deliuerie to be holden after the apprehensiō or attachment of such offender or offenders, returne the same Certificate in due forme, and what he or they haue done in that behalfe, vpon the paine aforesaid. Sauing alwaies to all and euery offender or offenders, all and singular trauerses, challenges, exceptions, aduantages, and all other pleas, to, of, & vpon the outlawrie pronounced or promulged against the same offender or offenders, in manner & forme as is and hath beene vsed and accustomed by the Lawes of this Realme, for any the Kings subiects dwelling within the same Realme. Prouided alwayes, and be it &c. That if any person or persons which shal happen hereafter to be indicted, outlawed, arraigned, conuicted or attainted by vertue of this Act, doe find such sufficient suretie before the Kings Iustices of his gaole deliuerie, as by their discretion shal be thought cōuenient, that the same person or persons shall not from thencefoorth commit or do any felony, murder, or felonious offence, nor be accessary to any felony, murder, or felonious offence, but at all times from thencefoorth shall bee of good behauiour against the King our Soueraign Lord, his heires & successors, his & their lawes and subiects: That then the same Iustices of gaole deliuerie for the time being, with and by the assent, consent, and agreement of the said President, and two of the Kings Commissioners or Councell of the Marches for the time being, or three of them at the least, whereof the Lord President, or one of the Councell to be one, shall and may by their discretiō for one time onely, admit any such offender to a certaine fine or summe of money on him by them to be assessed and tared, to bee surely payed to the Kings vse, and shall haue full power and authoritie by this present Act, to discharge any such offender or offenders, so arraigned, outlawed, conuicted, and attainted of all and euery such felony, murder, or felonious offence, & accessaries of the same, and of all exactions, and punishments of death which the same offender or offenders should suffer by the Common Lawes of this Realme, so the same offender or offenders stand not appealed of the sayd felonie, murder, or felonicus offence, or accessarie of the same offences at the time of his said discharge. And that euerie such offender so discharged as is abouesayd, shall bee for the same offence or offences done within any of the Kings Lordships Marchers, or any other Lordships Marchers, discharged as well against the Kings Highnesse, his Heires or Successours, as against all the Lords Marchers for one time onely. That this present Act, nor any thing therein contained, shall not extend ne take place to abridge, depriue, or minorate any Liberties, Priuiledge, or authority of any Lord Marcher, heretofore granted to the same Lord, or lawfully vsed or accustomed by the said Lord, or any his auncestors, vnlesse the foresaid offenders happen to be indicted, outlawed, arraigned, conuicted, or attainted, by force of this Act, as is abouesayd, within two yeares next after such murder, or other felonious offence perpetrated, done or committed within the said Lordships Marchers, or any of them, Any thing in this present Act before rehearsed to the contrarie notwithstanding. And further bée it &c. That all murders, robberies, felonies, and accessaries of the same, which shall happen hereafter to bee done, perpetrated, or committed within the Shire of Mereoneth in Wales, shall and may be from henceforth enquired, heard and determined in the Counties of Carnaruan, or Angleſey, before the Kings Iustices of Northwales, or his Deputie for the time being, by verdict or inquest, to be taken by the inhabitants of the same Shires of Carnaruan and Angleſey, or otherwise as by the discretion of the Iustice there, or his Deputie, shall be thought conuenient. And that the same Iustice, or his Deputy for the time being, shall haue full power and authoritie by his discretion, by force of this present Act, to heare and determine all and euerie the foresayd murders, felonies, robberies, and accessaries in forme aforesaid. And where heretofore vpon diuers murders, robberies, and felonies perpetrated and done, as well within the Lordships Marchers of Wales, as in other places of Wales without the same Lordships, the offenders diuers times flie and escape from the same Lordship, or other place where such offence was committed, and haue repaired and resorted into another Lordship Marcher, and there by the aid, comfort, and fauour of the sayd Lord of the same Lordship, or his Officer or Officers, haue bene abiding and resiant, into which Lordships the same Lords Marchers haue and doe pretend a custome and priuiledge, that none of the Kings Ministers or subiects may enter to pursue, apprehend, and attach any such offender thereunto repaired, as is aforesayd, by reason whereof the same offenders went vnpunished, to the vranimation and incouraging of other euill disposed people: It is therefore &c. That euerie Officer and Officers and their Deputies, vpon commaundement giuen by the Commissioners or Councell of the Marches for the time being, shall bring, send, or deliuer euerie such offendor to the Officer of the Lordship Marcher, or other place where any such offence is or shall be committed or done vpon the metes and bounds of the said Lordships, or to the said Cõmissioners or Councell, according as the same officers by them shalbe cõmanded, vnder paine of xl. l. the same commandement or Commission to be directed to any such officer to be sent, conueyed, & deliuered by a Sergeant at Armes, or a Pursuiant, attendãt on the said Councell in the Marches for the time being. 32 Our Soueraigne Lord the Kings Maiesty, of his tender zeale and affection that he beareth towards his louing and obedient subiects of his Dominion, Principalitie and Countrey of Wales, for good rule and order to bee from henceforth kept and maintained within the same, whereby his said subiects may grow and rise to more wealth & prosperity, hath deuised and made diuers, sundry, good and necessary ordinances, which his Maiestie of his most aboundant goodnesse, at the humble suite & petition of his said Subiects of Wales, is pleased and contented to bee enacted, &c. in maner and forme as hereafter ensueth. First that his graces said Dominion, Principalitie, and Countrey of Wales, bee from henceforth diuided into twelue Shires, of the which eight haue been Shires of long and auncient time, that is to say: the Shires of Glamorgan, Carmarthen, Pembroke, Cardigan, Flint, Carnaruan, Anglesey, and Mereoneth. And foure of the said twelue Shires bee newly made and ordained to bee Shires by an Act made at the Parliament, holden at Westminster, in the xxvii. yere of our said Soueraigne Lord his most noble raigne (cap. 26. before 28.) that is to say, the Shires of Radnor, Brecknock, Mountgomery, and Denbigh ouer and besides the Shire of Monmouth, and diuers other Dominions, Lordshippes, and Manors in the Marches of Wales, vnited and annexed to the Shires of Salop, Hereford and Glocester, as by the said late Act more plainly appeareth. Item, that the limitations of the Hundreds of late made within the said

Shires by vertue of his Graces Commission, directed out of his high Court of Chauncerie, and againe returned into the same, shall stand in full strength, force, and effect, according to the said limitation. Except such of the same as sith that time haue beene altered or changed by vertue of any Act or Acts of Parliament already made, or that shall be altered or changed, by any Act or Acts in this present Session to be made. Item, that there shall be and remaine a President and Councell in the said Dominion and Principalitie of Wales, and the Marches of the same, with all Officers, Clerks and incidents to the same, in maner and forme as hath beene heretofore vsed and accustomed. Which President and Councell shall haue power and authoritie to heare and determine by their discretions, such causes and matters as bee or hereafter shall bee assigned to them by the Kings Maiestie, as heretofore hath beene accustomed and vsed. Item, that there shall bee holden and kept Sessions twice in euerie yeare, in euerie of the said Shires in the said Dominion and Principalitie of Wales. That is to say, in the Shires of Glamorgan, Brecknocke, Radnor, Carmerthin, Pembroke, Cardigan, Mountgomerie, Denbigh, Flint, Carnaruan, Mereoneth, and Anglesey, the which Sessions shall bee called the Kings great Sessions in Wales. Item, that the Justice of Chester for the time being, shall hold and keepe Sessions twice in euerie yeare in the Shires of Denbigh, Flint, and Mountgomerie, and haue nothing but his old fee of an hundred pounds yearely for the same. Item, that the Justices of Northwales shall in like wise hold and keepe Sessions twice euerie yeare, in euerie of the said Shires of Carnaruan, Mereoneth, and Anglesey, and shall haue yearely of the Kings Maiestie a yearely fee of fiftie pounds for the same. Item, that one person learned in the Lawes of this Realme of England by the Kings Maiestie to be named and appointed, shalbe Justice of the Shires of Radnor, Brecknocke, and Glamorgan, and shall in like wise hold and keepe Sessions twice in euerie yeare in euerie of the same Shires, and shall haue yearely of the Kings Maiestie fiftie pounds for his fee. Item, that one other person learned in the lawes of this Realme, to be appointed as is aforesaid, shall bee Justice of the Shires of Caermerthen, Pembroke, and Cardigan, and shall in like wise hold and keepe Sessions twice in euerie yere in euerie of the same Shires, and shall also haue yearely of the Kings Maiestie fiftie pounds for his fee. Item, the said persons or Justices and euery of them now being, or that hereafter shall be, shall haue: euerall letters Patents and Commissions for their offices vnder the Kings great Seale of England, to bee exercised by themselues, or their sufficient Deputies, according to their purposes and intents, in their ordinances specified. Prouided alwayes, that their Commissions to them already granted vnder the said great Seale, shall stand in force and effect according to the tenor of the same: vnlesse it shall please the Kings Maiestie hereafter to alter or change them or any of them, this present article last before expressed, in any wise notwithstanding. Item, that euerie of the said Justices within the limits of their Commissions and authorities to them appointed as is aforesaid, shall hold all manner of pleas of the Crowne at and in the said Sessions, Pleas in as large and ample manner as the Kings chiefe Justice of England, and other the Kings Justices of the Kings Bench there, or any of them may doe in their places elsewhere within the Realme of England: And also to hold pleas of Assises, and Assits all other pleas and actions reall, personal, and mixt, in as large and ample manner as the Kings chiefe Justice of the Common place in England, and other Justices of the same place, or any of them may doe in the Realme of England. Item, that euerie of the said Justices of Wales shall haue power and authoritie to enquire of all treasons, murders, Enquire felonies, riots, routs, vnlawfull assemblies, extortions, imbraceries, maintenances, retainers, conueaunces, contempts, and all other offences and misdeeds, of what natures, names, or qualities soeuer they be, done, committed, or perpetrated, within the limits of their Commissions and authorities, against the forme of the Common Law of the Realme of England, or of any Statutes of the same, and to heare and determine the premisses Diuerse ter. and euerie of them, & generally to minister common iustice to all and singular the Kings subiects, within the limits of their Commissions and authorities, according the Lawes, Statutes, and customes of the Realme of England, and according to this present ordinance. Item, that euerie of the said Sessions shall be kept and continued by the space of six dayes in euerie of the said Shires, at either of the said times, as is and hath beene vsed within the said three Shires of Northwales. And that the said Justices shall cause open Proclamations to be made in y Shire townes, Proclamation what time and place they purpose to keepe their said Sessions, fifteene daies at the least before they keepe the same, to the intent the Kings subiects may haue knowledge thereof. Item, the dayes Dayes shall be giuen in all pleas, plaints, processes, and adiournements from day to day, and Sessions to Sessions, by the discretions of the said Justices within the limits of their authorities, for the good and speedie ministration of iustice, to all and singular the Kings subiects, as is or hath beene vsed in Northwales. Item, that one originall Seale Seale deuised by the Kings Highnesse, for iustice to bee ministred in the said three Shires of Northwales: That is to say, the Shires of Mereoneth, Carnaruan, and Anglesey, shall be and remaine in the charges, keeping, and custodie of the Chamberlaine of Northwales. And that one other originall Seale deuised by the Kings Maiestie, for ministration of iustice to be vsed in the said Shires of Carmaerthen, Pembroke, and Cardigan, shall be and remaine in the charges and keeping of the Chamberlaine of Southwales. And that likewise one other originall Seale deuised by the Kings Maiestie for the ministration of iustice to be vsed in the said iij. Shires of Brecknocke, Radnor, & Glamorgan, shall be & remaine in the charge and custodie of the Stewards and Chamberlaine of Brecknock. And that also one other originall Seale deuised by the Kings Maiestie for ministration of iustice to be ministred within the sayd Shires of Denbigh and Mountgomery, shall bee and remaine in the charge, keping, and custodie of the Stewards and Chamberlaine of Denbigh. And that the originall Seale of Chester, shall bee and stand for the originall Seale of Flint, for iustice to be ministred in the sayde shire of Flint, and shall bee and remaine in the charge, keping and custodie of the Chamberlaine of Chester. Item, that the sayde Stewardes and Chamberlaines shall seale with the sayd seales, that is to say, euerie one of them shall seale with the Seale to his charge committed, all manner of originall writs and procelle returnable before the sayd Iustices at the Sessions to be holden in euerie of the sayde Shires, in manner and forme as is aforesayd, and shall truely accompt and answer the Kings Maiestie, for the profites of the same Seale: And that none of the saide Stewardes, Chamberlaines or Chancelours, hauing the charge and keping of the sayde Seales, shall by occasion thereof, or by colour of any of their offices, compell or cause any person or persons, inhabiting within any of the sayde twelue Shires, to appeare before themselues or their Deputies, ne shall haue power or authoritie to heare or determin any pleas of the Crowne nor other causes or matters of iustice, otherwise then in this Ordinance is limited and expressed: But shall haue the charge and keping of the sayde Seales to seale, all such originall writs and procelle as shall be returnable before the sayd Iustices in their sayde Sessions as is before specified, and as hereafter shall bee declared, which writs and procelle shall bee vsed, made, sealed and returned in manner and forme as hath beene vsed before the Iustices in Northwales. Item, that all such persons as now be or hereafter shall bee the Kings Highnesse Stewardes, Chamberlaines or Chauncellours, within any of the sayde twelue Shires, which by reason of their sayd offices, haue charge for the receipt, collection or accompt of and for the Kings rents, reuenues, farmes, or profits, to bee due to his Maiestie, within the sayd Dominions of Wales, may direct Procelle vnder the seale being in their charge and custodie within the limits of their authorities onely against Baylifes, reues, farmors, and other ministers accomptant, to appeare before themselues to answer to and for any the Kings reuenues, farmes, rents, or profits, and for none other causes, nor against any other person or persons, in like manner and forme as they haue beene accustomed in that case to doe. Item, that all Stewardes of any Lordshippes or Manors in Wales, shall and may keepe and hold such Leetes, Lawdayes and Court Barons as appertayneth and belongeth to the Lordshippes and Manors whereof they bee Stewardes. And to hold pleas by plaint vnder the summe of fourtie shillings in euerie such Court Baron, and haue and enioy all other authorities, commodities and profits as Stewardes of Leetes, Lawdayes and Court Barons in England commonly haue and beene vsed to haue by reason of the sayd offices, and none other: any Lawe, vsage or custome in the sayde Dominion of Wales, heretofore had to the contrarie hereof notwithstanding. Item, prouided alwayes, and be it enacted, that the sayde Stewardes or any of them, nor the Shiriffe of the sayd Counties in Wales, shall haue any power or authoritie to enquire of any manner of Felonie in any such Leete or Lawday or turne within the said Dominion to be holden. And that from henceforth, noe Leete nor Lawday be kept by the Steward or other Officer of any Lordshippe, Manor or the said Dominion of Wales, within such Lordshippes and places, where it was accustomed to be kept before the making of the Act of Parliament concerning Wales, made in the first twentieth yeare of our sayde Soueraigne Lorde raign, (capitul 6. before 25.) so alwayes the place where such Court shall bee kept, be meet and conuenient for the purpose. Item, that all Maiors, Baylifes, and head Officers of Corporate Townes in Wales, may hold pleas, and determine Actions, and vse euerie other thing concerning common Iustice, according to their lawfull graunts, and lawdable customes of such Townes, so alwayes they follow the course, trade, and fashion of the Realme of England, and not of any Welsh lawes or customes. And that in euerie of the said townes they may trie all issues ioyned in any action personall by fiue men, according as heretofore in diuers places of the sayd Countie it hath beene vsed, any thing contayned in this Act to the contrarie notwithstanding. Prouided alwayes, and be it &c. That forasmuch as there bee diuers and many small Boroughes and Townes Corporate within the sayde Dominion of Wales, whereof many haue their commencement by grants made from the Marches, and some by other meanes, our sayd Soueraigne Lord shall from henceforth by vertue of this Act, haue full power and authoritie by his Letters Patents, to bee inrolled in his Graces high Court of Chauncerie at any time within seuen yeare hereafter next ensuing, to the end of this present Parliament, to repeale, annihilate, and dissolue such and as many of the sayde Boroughes and Townes Corporate, and all Liberties and customes of the same, as to his Highnesse shall be thought expedient, to the intent his Maiestie at his graces pleasure, may newly erect, ordayne, and make such and as many other Boroughes and Townes Corporate within the sayd Dominion, being more apt and conuenient for that purpose, and endue them with such liberties and franchises, as to his most excellent wisdome shall be thought necessarie for the wealth of the said Countrie. Item, the Kings Maiestie is pleased and contented of his most gracious goodnes, that such as haue Patents of any office of Stewardships, chamberlainships, chauncellorships, or Justiceships, within the sayde Dominion of Wales, for terme of their liues, shall haue and enioy their certaine ordinarie and annuall fees of money vsed and accustomed to be payde and borne by the Kings Highnes, by vertue of any their letters Patents du-

Steward

And that they ſhall haue full power and authority from time to time to aſſeſſe and appoynt, what fées the ſaid Sherife, Eſcheators, and Coroners, and they⁊ Miniſters, Prenotaries, and they⁊ Clerkes, and other Miniſters of Juſtice in the ſaid ſhires, ſhal haue, take, and receiue of the Kings ſubiects, for any manner of Writs, Plaint, Pleas, Proceſſe, Returnes, or any other matter or thing, concerning or belonging to the execution of they⁊ Offices and Roomes, and to augment or diminiſh anie fée or fées aboue declared, as ſhall be thought by they⁊ diſcretions, to be conuenient and méet for the Commonwealth of the Kings ſubiects of thoſe parts of Wales, any thing contayned in this Act to the contrary therof notwithſtanding. Item, that from henceforth no manner of perſon or perſons, for murder or felony ſhalbe put to his fine, but ſuffer according to the Lawes of the Realme of England, except it pleaſe the Kings Maieſty to pardon him or them. And if the ſayd Juſtices ſée the cauſe of pittie or other conſideration, they may reprieue the priſoner, till they haue aduertiſed the Kings Maieſty of the matter. Item, that the Act made in the Parliament holden in the fire and twentieth yeare of the moſt royall raigne of the Kings Maieſtie, capitul. 6. (before 25.) concerning among other things, inquiſitions, and trialles of counterfaiting, waſhing, clipping, and miniſhing of the Kings coyne, murders, felonies, and acceſſaries, to the ſame perpetrated or done within Wales, to be had, made, and determined in the nert Shire or Countie, within England adioyning, where the Kings Writ runneth, and euerie Article therein contained, ſhall ſtand in his full ſtrength and force according to the tenour and effect of the ſame. Anie thing in this ſayd Ordinaunce, or any other Act, cauſes or matter, heretofore had or made to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding. And albeit the ſame Act, s. Anno 26.H.8.cap.6. as it was neuer put in execution, for any of the ſayd offences heretofore done or committed, within anie of the ſaid three ſhires of Northwales: that is to ſay, the counties of Angleſey, Carnaruan, and Merioneth: Be it now &c. that the ſaid Act, and euery Article therein contained, ſhall from henceforth take effect, and bée executed in all points, for, and concerning anie of the ſaide offences perpetrated or done, or that hereafter ſhall be perpetrated or done within the ſaid County of Merioneth, to be enquired of, heard, and determined within the Countie of Salop, in like manner and forme as commonly is, and hath béene vſed for any of the ſame or like offences, committed or done within anie other County or place of Southwales: Any matter or cauſe heretofore riſen or growen to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding. Item, that the towne or hamlet of Abertannad, and all the ground and ſoyle within the ſame, which afore this time hath béene taken, reputed, and vſed as parcell of the ſaid county of Merioneth, ſhall from the feaſt of Eaſter next comming by vertue of this Act, be vnited, annexed and made parcel of the ſaid county of Salop, and ſo from thenceforth to be reputed, taken, and vſed for euer, and not to be of anie other Shire or Countie of Wales. And that the ſame Towne or Hamlet, and all the ground and ſoyle within the ſame Towne or Hamlet, be from and after the ſaid feaſt, accepted, and taken, as part and parcell of the Hundred of Oſweſtre, and that the Inhabitants thereof, from the ſaid feaſt, ſhall be attendant and doe euery thing and things, with the Inhabitants of the ſaid Hundred of Oſweſtre, as the ſame Inhabitants doe or béene bound to doe, any Lawes or Cuſtomes to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding. Item, in caſe any foreine plea or voucher, bée hereafter pleaded or made before any of the ſaid Juſtices of Wales betwéene party and party, triable in any other ſhire within Wales then where the ſame plea is pleaded, or voucher made: that then the ſaid Juſtices afore whom the ſame plea or voucher is or ſhalbe pleaded or made, ſhall and may ſend the Kings Writ with a tranſcript of the Record, mentioning the ſame foreine matter of plea or voucher, vnder the Seale to him committed vnto the Juſtice of the County, where the ſame matter is or ſhall be triable, commaunding the ſaid Juſtice by vertue of the ſayd Writte, to proceéde to the triall thereof, according to the Kings Lawes and Statutes, which triall ſo before him had, bée ſhall remaund with the whole Record vnto the Juſtice, before whom the ſaid plea, or voucher was pleaded or made, who thereupon ſhall proceéde to Judgement, as the caſe ſhall require. Item, in caſe the ſame foreine plea, voucher, or other matter ſo pleaded, be triable within the Realme of England: that then in euery ſuch caſe, the Juſtice afore whom the ſame plea or voucher is or ſhall be pleaded, had, or made, ſhall and may proceéde to the triall thereof, as ſhall appertayne within the ſame Shire of Wales, where the ſame plea, voucher, or matter was pleaded, the ſaid foreine plea, voucher, or anie other thing or matter to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding. Item, that no manner of perſon or perſons from henceforth without lawful authority, ſhall make any rumours, tumults, vnlawfull aſſemblies or outcries, at any of the ſayd Courts or Seſſions, nor any outcries, or vnlawfull Aſſemblies in great numbers, at anie other time or times, except it be for the apprehenſion or purſuing of murderers or felons, vpon payne of impriſonment and grieuous fine to bée taxed and ſet vpon them by the ſaid Preſident and Councell, or by the Juſtices or other Officers, before whom ſuch miſbehauiour ſhall happen to be committed. Item, that all mannors, lands, tenements, meſſuages, and other hereditaments, and all rights and titles to the ſame, in any of the ſhires of Wales, deſcended to any maner perſon or perſons, ſith the feaſt of the Natiuitie of Saint John Baptiſt, in the xxxiij. yeare of our ſouereigne Lords reigne, or that hereafter ſhall deſcend, be taken, enioyed, vſed, holden as Engliſh tenure to all intents, according to the common laws of this realm of England, and not to be partable amōg heires males, after the cuſtome of Gauelkind, as heretofore in diuers partes

And that the ſame Lawe, from and after the ſayd feaſt of Saint Iohn Baptiſt, in the ſayd three and thirtieth yeare, be vſed, taken, and exerciſed in the ſayd County of Monmouth, and in all ſuch Lordſhips, and other places, as by vertue of the ſaid Act, made in the ſaid ſeuen and twentieth yeare capitul. 26. or by any other Act or Acts made or to be made, were and ſhall be annexed, vnited, or knit to any of the ſhires of Salop, Hereford, Glouceſter, or other ſhire, any Lawes, Vſages, or Cuſtomes heretofore had or vſed to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding. Item, that no morgages of lands, tenements, or hereditaments, made or had after the feaſt of S. Iohn Baptiſt, which was in the ſayd three and thirtieth yeare of the raigne of our ſouereigne lord, or that hereafter ſhall be had or made, within anie of the ſayd ſhires or places, ſhall be hereafter allowed or admitted, or otherwiſe then after the courſe of the Common lawes and Statutes of the realme of England, any vſage or Cuſtome heretofore had to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding. Item, it ſhalbe lawfull to all perſons, to alien, ſell, or otherwiſe put away their lands, tenements, and hereditaments within the ſayd Countrey or Dominion of Wales, the County of Monmouth, and other places annexed to any of the Shires in England, from them and their heyres, to anie perſon or perſons in fée ſimple or fée tayle, for terme of life, or for terme of yeares after the maner, and according as is vſed by the Lawes of the Realme of England: Any Welch Law or Cuſtome, heretofore vſed in the ſaid Countrey or Dominion of Wales to the contrary hereof notwithſtanding. This article to take effect from and after the ſayd feaſt of the Nativity of Saint Iohn Baptiſt, which was in the ſaid three and thirtieth yeare of our ſaid ſouereigne Lords reigne. Item, if any perſon or perſons, hauing lands or tenements within the ſayde Dominion of Wales, béene, or hereafter ſhall be bound within the Realme of England by Obligation vpon the ſtatute of Staple, or by Recogniſance, and pay not the debt as ſhall appertayne, that then vpon Certificate thereof made into the Kings Chauncerie of England, by the Clerke of the Staple, or by any Iuſtice of Record, before whom ſuch Recogniſance ſhalbe knowledged, proceſſe ſhall be made to the ſheriffes of Wales out of the Chauncery of England, after the forme as is vſed to be made vpon ſtatutes and recogniſances, by the courſe of the Lawes of England, for due leuying and paying of the ſayd Debt. Prouided alwayes, and be it &c. That for ſuch Recogniſances as be, or hereafter ſhall be taken and knowledged before the Kings Iuſtices of his Highneſſe Bench or Common place of England, Procéſſe ſhall be had and purſued immediately out from the ſayd Iuſtices, as is vſed vpon Recogniſances taken before the ſayd Iuſtices by common courſe of the Lawes of England. Item, that all ſuch writs, bils, plaints, pleas, proceſſe, challenges, and trialls, ſhall be vſed throughout all the ſhires afore ſaid, before the ſaid Iuſtices in their Seſſions, as is vſed in Northwales, or as ſhalbe deuiſed by the ſaid Preſident, Councel and Iuſtices, or three of them, whereof the ſaid Preſident to be one, for the good miniſtration of Iuſtice to be had in cueris of the ſayd ſhires. Item, where the lordſhip of Hope, with diuers other lordſhips, pariſhes, townes and Hamlets, were by an Act of parliament made in the 34. yeare of the reigne of our ſaid ſouereigne Lord (s. ca. 13. before 31.) appointed and tranſlated from the ſaid county of Denbigh to the county of Flint, and by the ſame Act, were made part, parcell, and members of the ſame county of Flint, afore which appointment or tranſlation, diuers Indictments, and Preſentments, as well felony, as other offences, were had and taken for the Kings Highneſſe, before the Iuſtice of the ſaid County of Denbigh in the great Seſſion there, and ſome before the Iuſtices of the Peace, within the ſame County for offences ſuppoſed to be done within diuers of the ſaid Lordſhips, ſo tranſlated, and alſo diuerſe Iudgements giuen at ſuite of parties before the ſaid Iuſtices, and ſome before the Sheriſe of the ſaid county of Denbigh, for matters riſen and growen within the precinct of the ſaid Lordſhips, or other places before the tranſlation of the ſame: It is &c. that all the ſaid Indictments and Preſentments, ſhall be heard, tried, and determined within the ſaid county of Denbigh, by perſons as well of the ſaid Lordſhip or place, whereas the ſaid offences were done or committed, as of other place or places within the ſaid county of Denbigh, in manner and forme as though the ſaid tranſlation had neuer béene had ne made. And alſo, that the ſaid Iudgements as before giuen or had between party and parties, before any Iuſtice of record, or other Officer within the ſaid county of Denbigh, for any matter or cauſe appearing by the Record of the ſame to be growne and riſen within any of the ſaid Lordſhips, Pariſhes, Townes or Hamlets, ſo tranſlated, ſhall, and may be executed by the ſheriſe of the ſaid county of Denbigh, within any of the ſame Lordſhips, or other place ſo tranſlated, the ſaid tranſlations or any other cauſe or matter to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding. Item, like law and order to be kept and miniſtred vpon all other like tranſlations of any other Lordſhips, Manors, Townes, Pariſhes, and other places within Wales, had, made, or done in this preſent Parliament, or anie other afore or after the ſame tranſlations, or anie other cauſe or matter to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding. Item, where there ſhall be diuers and many ſuits taken before the ſaid Iuſtices in pleas perſonall, which (as it is thought) can not bée tryed before them in the ſayd great Seſſions, for breuity of time: Therefore, and for the ſpeedy triall of thoſe matters, the iſſues taken in the ſaid ſuits, ſhall and may be tried at a pety Seſſions before the deputy Iuſtices there, as it is and hath bin vſed in the ſaid three ſhires of Northwales. Except ſuch of the ſaid ſuits, as by the diſcretions of the ſayd Iuſt. ſhall be thought neceſſarie to be tryed before themſelues, within their limits. And that there ſhall no ſuite be taken before any of the ſaid Iuſt. by bil, vnder the

Item, if anie murder, or felony hereafter be committed, or done within Wales, that then the party or parties to whom any such offence shall hap to be committed, shall in no wise take any end or agreement with the offenders in that behalfe, nor with any other in his name or behalfe, vnlesse the sayd party first make the sayd President and Councell, or one of the said Justices priuy vnto the same, vpon payne of imprisonment and grieuous fine to be set and adiudged, at the discretion of the sayd President, Councell, and Justices, or two of them, whereof the said President to be one. The same payne and penalty to extend as well, to, and against such as shall labour, moue, or procure any such end or agreement made, although the same labour, motion or procurement neuer take effect, to make any end or agreement, as against him or them, with whom such end or agreement shall be made, if the same happen to take effect. Item, where diuers Lordships, Marchers, as well in Wales, as in the borders of the same, now being by Act of Parliament annexed to diuerse Shires of England, be lately commen to the Kings hands, by suppression of houses, by purchase or attainders, and now be vnder the Surueyor of the court of Augmentations, or of the Kings generall Surueiors, the Liberties, franchises, and Customes of all which Lordships, bee lately reuiued by Act of Parliament, made in the two and thirtieth yeere of his most gracious reigne, (ca. 10. which is in Franchises 12.) Neuertheless his Maiestie willeth and commaundeth, That no other Liberties, Franchises, or customes shal from henceforth be vsed, claymed or exercised within the said Lordships, nor any other Lordships within Wales, or the Countie of Monmouth, whosoeuer be Lord or Owner of the same, but onely such Liberties, Franchises and Customes, as be giuen and commaunded to the Lordes of the same Lordships, by force and vertue of the sayd Act of Parliament made for Wales in the said seuen and twentieth yere of his Graces reigne, cap. 26. and not altered, ne taken away by his ordinaunce, the sayd Act made in the said two and thirtieth yeere, ca. 20. or any other Act, graunt, lawe, or custome to the contrary thereof notwithstanding. Item, that if any person or persons, their auncestors, or they whose estate the same person or persons haue, or hath, haue beene in peaceable possession of any lands or tenements in Wales, by the space of fiue yeares, without let, interruption or lawfull clayme: That then the same person or persons shall still continue their possession, vntill such time as it shall be lawfully recouered against them by the order of the K. Lawes, or by decree of the President and Councell there. Item, in actions personals, taken and pursued before the said Justices in Wales by originall writ or bill, if nine of the Iurie be sworne to trie the issue betwéen the party plaintife and the defendant, and the residue of the Iury make default, or be tried out, then the sheriffes shall and may immediately returne other names in the sayd Iurie, de circumstantibus, vnto such time there be twelue men sworne to trie the issue betweene them, as before the Justices of North-wales hath beene afore vsed and accustomed in such cases. Item, that if anie goods or cattels be stollen by any person or persons, and sold in any faire or market, within the said dominion of Wales, that no such sale shall change the propertie thereof from the Owner of the same, but that he may lawfully sease, take, and haue the same agayne, vpon proofe thereof made, the said sale notwithstanding. Item, that no person or persons bargaine or buy any maner of beast, or other quicke cattell, in any place within Wales, out of the market or faire, vnlesse he can bring forth sufficient and credible witnesse of the name of the person, what place and time he bought the same, vpon payne and daunger of such punishment and fine, as shall be set vpon him, by the said President and Councell, or any of the said Justices in his circuite, for the said offence, and as he will therefore aunswere at his farther perill. Item, if any goods or cattels be stollen within the limits of any of the said shires of Wales, that then vpon suite thereof had & made, the tract shalbe followed from towneship to towneship, or lordship to lordship, according to the lawes and customes in that behalfe heretofore vsed in Wales, vpon such penalty and danger as heretofore hath bin accustomed. Item, that euery person that hath any lands or tenements in fée simple or fée taile, or for terme of his life, or for terme of any other mans life, being freehold, shall, and may passe in all maner Iuries and Trialls, as well in case of Felonie or Murder, as in all Actions reall, personall and mixt whatsoeuer they be, Attaint only except: And also may be empanelled, and enquire of all concealements, forcible entries, and other causes of enquiry for the Kings maiestie, albeit he maye not dispend xl. s. by yere. Sauing to euery man his lawfull challenge for any other cause, according to the laws of the realme of England. Item, no Iuror shall passe in attaint, vnlesse he may dispend forty shillings by the yeare of estate of freehold. Item, the tenants and reuants in Wales, shall pay their tallage at the change of their Lords, in such places, & after such forme as hath bin heretofore accustomed in Wales. Item, that all the Kings subiects, and reuants in Wales, shall finde at all Parliaments hereafter to be holden in England, Knights for the Shires, and Citizens and Burgesses for Cities and Townes to be named and chosen by authoritie of the Kings Writ vnder the great Seale of England, according to the Act in that case prouided; and shall be charged and chargeable to all Subsidies and other charges to be graunted by the Commons of anie of the said Parliaments, and pay all other their Rents, Farmes, Customes, and Dueties to the Kings Highnesse, as they haue beene accustomed heretofore, fines for redemptions of Sessions onely excepted, which the Kings maiestie of his most gracious Goodnesse and Liberalitie, is contented and pleased to remit, at the humble suite of his said louing subiects of his sayd Dominion of Wales. Item, that all errours and iudgements before anie of the sayde Iustices at any time of the great Sessions in Pleas realls or mixt, shall bée redressed by Writ of Errour, to be sued out of the Kings Chauncerie of England, returnable before the Kings Iustice of his Bench in England, as other Writtes of Errour bée in England. And that all Errours in pleas personall, shall bée reformed by Billes to be sued before the saide President and Councell of Wales, from time to time as the partie grieued will sue for the same. And if in case the Iudgement bée affirmed good in any of the said Writtes of Errour or Billes, then there to make Execution, and all other Processe thereupon, as is vsed in the Kings Bench in England. And that the Pursuants in euery such Writ of Errour or Bill, do pay like fées therefore as is vsed in England. Item, that no Execution of anie Iudgement giuen or to bée giuen, in anie base Court, bée stayed or deferred by reason of anie Writte of False Iudgement, but that Execution shall, and may bée had and made at all times before the reuersall of the sayd Iudgement, the pursuite of the sayd Writ notwithstanding. And in case the said Iudgement happen after to bée reuersed, then the partie pursuant to bée restored to all that hée hath lost by the sayde Iudgement, according to the Lawes of this Realme. Item, that all Processe for vrgent and weightie causes shall bée made and directed into Wales, by the speciall commaundement of the Chauncellour of England, for the time being, or any of the Kings Councell in England, as heretofore hath béene vsed, anie thing in this Act to the contrarie thereof notwithstanding. Item, that the Towne of Bewdley, which is within the Parish of Ribbesford, in the Countie of Wigorne, and all the ground and soyle of the same Towne, shall from henceforth be united, annexed and made parcell of the Countie of Wigorne, and to bée within the Hundred of Dodingtrée. And that all the Inhabitants of the sayde Towne and Parish, shall from henceforth bée attendant and doe euerie thing and things with the Inhabitants of the saide Hundred, as the same Inhabitants be now bound to doe, by the Lawes of this Realme of England: Saiuing alwayes to the Burgesses and Inhabitants of the saide towne of Bewdley, all such Liberties and Franchises as they lawfully had and exercised within the same Towne before the making of this Act, in like maner and forme, as though this Act had neuer béene had nor made. Item, that the Lordship of Lantissan, Ulcerloys, and Langham, and the members of the same, and all manners, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, in the same Lordship, and the members of the same, bée from henceforth vnited, annexed, ioyned, named, accepted, and taken, as part and parcell of the Countie of Carmarthen, and reputed, ioyned, vnited, named, accepted, and taken, as part and parcell of the Hundred of Derles in the said Countie of Carmarthen. And that the Tenants and Inhabitants of the said Lordship, and members, be attendant, and doe euery thing and things with the Tenants and Inhabitants of the sayd Hundred of Derles, as the said Inhabitants now be bound to doe according to the Lawes there vsed. Item, that the Countie or shire court of the County of Radnor, shall from henceforth be holden one time at new Radnor, and one other time at Presteyn, alternis vicibus, and neuer from henceforth to be kept or holden at Rather Golwye: Anie former Act or other thing to the contrary thereof notwithstanding. Item it is &c. That the Kings most royall Maiestie, shall and may at all times hereafter from time to time chãge, adde, alter, order, minish, and reforme all maner of things afore rehearsed, as to his most excellent wisedome and discretion shall be thought conuenient. And also to make Lawes and Ordinances for the Common Wealth and good quiet of his said dominion of Wales, and his Subiects of the same from time to time, at his Maiesties pleasure: Anie thing contayned in this Act, or in the said Act made for the Shire ground of Wales, or any other Act or Acts, thing or things, to the contraris thereof heretofore made, in anie wise notwithstanding: And all such alterations of the premisses, or anie part thereof. And that all such Lawes and Ordinances, to bée hereafter made, deuised, and published by authoritie of this Act, by the Kings Maiestie in writing vnder his Highnesse great Seale, shall be of as good strength, vertue, and effect, as if they had béene had and made by authoritie of Parliament. Item, bée it &c. that where the Kings Maiestie that now is, by his Letters Patents, bearing date the first day of Maie, in the three and thirtieth yeare of his most prosperous reigne, demised and graunted to William Web, the Subsidie and Usage of all woollen Clothes, made, or to be made, in the County of Monmouth, and in twelue shires in Wales, that is to say, in the Countie of Brecknocke, Radnor, Mountgomeries, Carmarthin, Glamorgan, Pembroke, Cardigan, Anglesey, Flint, Denbigh, Carnaruan, and Merioneth, and in all and singuler Townes and other places, whatsoeuer they be, within the precinct and limits of the sayd Counties, and elsewhere within the sayd Dominion of Wales: to haue and to hold to the sayd William Webbe, and his Assignes, for certayne yéres yet enduring, the sayde William Webbe, his Deputies and Assignes, shall haue from henceforth full power and authoritie by force of this Act, to take for the sealing of euerie Woollen Cloth hereafter to bée made in the sayde twelue Shires, and elsewhere within the sayde Dominion of Wales, as hereafter is declared, and none otherwise, that is to say, for euerie whole péece of frize

And further be it &c. That the said Aulnegeor in Wales by himselfe, or by his sufficient Deputie or Deputies, shall in all things to his Office appertayning, doe, and be bound to doe, and answere in euerie case, like, and according as all and euery other Aulnegeor in the realm of England doe or ought to doe, according to the Lawes and Statutes of the Realme of England. And for the contrarie doing or exercising of the said Office, shall in euerie case and degree suffer, as by the said Lawes and Statutes is ordained, established, or enacted for Aulnegeors vnder the Lord Treasorer of England for the time being. And furthermore the Kings maiesty is contented and pleased, notwithstanding the Statute made in the seuen & twentieth yeare of his most gracious reigne capitul. 26. that where there should be but twelue shires in Wales, that the Towne of Hauerford west, shall be a County in it selfe, as it hath bene before this time vsed, at the wil and pleasure of the Kings said Maiesty, and that it shall be separated from the County of Pembroke, at the Kings saide pleasure. And that the Kings high Iustice of the said County of Pembroke, shall be high Iustice of the said county and towne of Hauerford west, and shall haue like power and authority, to and for the ministration of Iustice, within the saide County and Towne of Hauerford west, as is limited and appoynted to the said Iustice, to, and for the administration of Iustice in the saide Countie of Pembroke. And that the Maior, sherife, baylife, and burgesses of the said Countie and Towne of Hauerford west, from time to time shal be as well attendant and obey all Precepts and Commaundements of the President and Counsell of our sayde souereigne L. the King in his Marches of Wales, as also shall be attendant to all Precepts, and processe awarded or directed by the sayde high Iustice, vnto the sherife of the sayd Countie and Towne of Hauerford west, and to make returne thereof. And the said sherife of the said County and Towne, shal serue all Precepts and Processe directed from the sayd high Iustice, in like maner and forme as the shirife of the said County of Pembroke is bound to doe, and according to the effect and purport of the Kings ordinaunces in that behalfe had, made, and prouided. And that it shall be lawfull vnto the sayd Mayor, sherife, baylifes, and burgesses of the said County and Towne of Hauerford west afore-saide, to vse and exercise all lawfull Liberties and Graunts by the Kings Maiesty, or his noble Progenitors to them graunted and confirmed, at the Kings Maiesties will and pleasure, according to the Lawes of the Realme of England, and not otherwise. And that the iudiciall Seale of the sayde shires of Pembroke, Carmarthin, and Cardigan, being in the custody and keeping of the Kings high Iustice there for the time being, shal be vsed in the said county and towne of Hauerford west, as the Originall and Judiciall Seale of the same Towne and Countie. And that the sayde Iustices of the sayd shires of Pembroke, Carmarden, and Cardigan, shall haue like power and authority by vertue of the Kings Letters to him made, as well to doe all and euerie thing and things, concerning common Iustice to be ministred within the sayde Towne and County of Hauerford west, as he hath in his sayd Letters Patents within any of the sayd shires of Pembroke, Carmarden, and Cardigan. Prouided alwayes, that this Article touching and concerning the County and Towne of Hauerford west, and all things therein contayned, shall stand and endure but onely at the Kings Maiesties will and pleasure, and none otherwise. Prouided alwayes, that this Act, or any thing therein contayned, shall not be preiudiciall nor hurtfull to anie person or persons, or bodies politique, for, or concerning anie landes, tenements, rents, seruices, bondmen, tolles, or other hereditaments, but that they and euery of them, their heires, and successors, and assignes, and the heyres, successors, and assignes of euery of them, shall haue, hold and enioy theyr lands, tenements, rents, seruices, bondmen, and other theyr hereditaments, in such like manner, forme and condition, as they had the same before the making of this Act, and as if this Act had neuer bene had ne made. Prouided also, that this Act, nor anie thing therein contayned, shall be hurtful or preiudiciall to any person or persons, for, or concerning any Office or Offices, which they, or any of them haue, by vertue of any the Kings Letters Patents, being now in force, before the making of this Act, nor to the fees of money, vsed and accustomed to bee paied for the exercise of any such offices, but that euery person and persons, hauing such offices and fees, and theyr substitutes and deputies, shall and may haue and exercise their said offices as is limited by this Act, and as they mought haue done before the making of this Act. And shall also haue and perceiue all such fees, for the exercise of the said offices, in as large & ample manner, forme and condition, as they might afore the making of this Act, & as if this Act had neuer bene had nor made. Prouided alwayes, that all lands, tenements and hereditaments, within the sayd dominions of Wales, shall discend to the heyres, according to the course of the Common Laws of this Realme of England, according to the tenour and effect of this Act, and not to be vsed as Gauelkind: Anie thing contayned in these Prouisions, or any of them to the contrary thereof notwithstanding. Prouided Liberties alwayes, that all liberties, franchises, and priuiledges of the Dutchy of Lancaster, or in anie wise Lancaster appertayning to the same, shalbe of the same force, plight, quality, godnesse and condition, and may be vsed in as large and ample manner, as they were before the making of this Act, and as if this Act had neuer bin had ne made: any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding. An 34. H.8. c. 26.

33 Forasmuch as Bishops and other Ecclesiastical persons being lord Marchers, and the heires and successors of the Temporall Lord Marchers, were not prouided for by the Statute of 27. H.8. (ca. 26. before 28.) as the temporall Lord Marchers themselues were, which was against reason: Spirituall Be it &c. That as well your sayd Spirituall Ecclesiasticall subiects, lord Marchers now hauing lordships Marchers, or Lordships Royall in Wales aforesayd, and they, successors, and the successors of euery of them, as also the heires and successours of the Lords temporall Marchers, that then were, or now be, and the heyres and successours of euery of them, being, or which hereafter shalbe Lords Marchers within their Lordships Marchers, and lordships Royalls, in the dominion or principalitie of Wales, shall haue and enioy to them, and to their heyres and successors respectiuely and seuerally for euer, the moity and halfe of euery forfeiture of all and euery common mainepryse, recognisaunce for the peace or apparance forfeited by any the tenants inhabiting within any of theyr Lordships Marchers, or Lordships Royall, and they to be payed Moitie the same moity, or halfe, by the hands of the sheriffe of the county for the time being, after such forme & sort, as the sayd lay or temporall lords Marchers haue bene, or ought to haue bene paied the same by force of the said Statute (s. An. 27 H.8. cap. 26. before 28.) And further, shall haue all such mises and profites of theyr tenants, as the Lordes Marchers spirituall or temporall, respectiuely, or seuerally had or vsed to haue, at theyr first entrie into theyr lands in times past, before the making of the said act or statute. And also shall haue, hold, and keepe within the precinct of the said Lordships, all such courts Barons, court Leets, and Law days, Courts and all & euery thing and things to the same courts belonging, and also shall haue within the precinct of their said seuerall Lordships of Law dayes, all such waife, straife, infangthiefe, outfangthiefe, Waife and straife treasure troues, deodands, goodes and cattells of Felons, and of persons condemned or outlawed of Felonie or Murder, put in exigent for felony or murder, and also all such wrecke de mere, wharfage, and customes of strangers, as the Lordes Marchers Spirituall and Temporall respectiuely, and seuerally, had and vsed in times past before the making of the said Statute. Anno 1. & 2. Phil. & Mar. ca. 15.

34 Forasmuch as in the principality of Wales and county Palantine of Chester, many great and mighty matters be now determinable before one onely Iustice, which breedeth infinite trouble and great delay, and it hath beene doubted whether her Maiestie may by her Letters Patents constitute more, or associate any there: for playne explanation thereof, and for the more speedie administration of Iustice: Be it declared, explaned, enacted, and established by the Quenes most excellent maiesty, by the assent of the Lordes Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authoritie of the same, that the Quenes Highnesse, her heyres and successors may and shal at her or their will and pleasure, haue full power, prerogatiue, and authoritie from time to time, to constitute, authorize, name, or appoint, two or more learned as aforesaid, in the Lawes of this Realme, to be Iustices of, and for the sayd Counties of Chester, Flint, Iustices Denbigh, and Mountgomery: and two or more learned, as aforesaide, to be Iustices of Northwales, viz. of, and for the sayd Shires of Anglesey, Carnaruan, and Merioneth: and likewise two or more learned as aforesayd, to be Iustices of and for the sayde circuite and Shires of Radnor, Glamorgan, and Brecknocke, and also two or more learned as aforesayde, to be Iustices of and for the said circuite and Shires of Cardigan, Carmarthen, and Pembroke, and the Towne and County of Hauerford west: Anie Law, vsage, Opinion, or Statute to the contrarie notwithstanding. And that her Maiestie, her heires and successours, may, and shall, at her and theyr good will and pleasure from time to time, associate, and graunt Commission and Commissions of as- Commissions sociation or associations, vnder the great Seale of England, to any person or persons learned, as aforesayde, to be associate, to or with euery, or anie such seuerall Iustice or Iustices for the time being, of the sayde seuerall circuites and Counties aforesaid, or in any of the saide Counties: and that all and euery such two Iustices, or more, within euery of the said seuerall circuites and Counties, and also that euery such Iustice or Iustices together with such person or persons associate, if any such association, tion, or associations shal happen to be as aforesaid, during such associatiō, & after such associatiō ended or without such association, such Justice or Justices, shall haue the like full power, præeminence, authority, and Iurisdiction from henceforth, to all intents, constructions, purposes, and effects, as any one Justice within any of the said Circuits or Shires aforesaid, now hath, or at any time heretofore had or ought to haue: and also shall haue like power, authority, præeminence, and iurisdiction, to keepe and hold the seuerall Sessions aforesaide, twice in euery yeare in euery of the saide Shires, within their seuerall circuits aforesaid, & to heare, determine, order, award, adiudge, receiue, take knowledge of, and execute all and singuler causes, matters, Pleas of Assises, Treasons, Murders, Felonies, Indictments, Appeales of murder, Felony, and maimes, actions realls, personals, and mixt suits, Plaints, informations, quarrels, attaints, conspiracies, Quare impedit, and all actions grounded vpon any Statute or Statutes, Writs, Processe, Returnes, Essoines, Verdicts, iudgements, fines, acknowledges, confessions, Warrants and executions, actions, and acts whatsoeuer, and to doe, perform, obserue, accomplish, & make all & euery other Act & acts, matter and matters, thing & things whatsoeuer, in like, and in as ample, beneficiall, and effectuall manner and forme, to all constructions, qualities, intents, and purposes, as any of the now seuerall Iustices, or any one of the now Iustice or Iustices, within the same seuerall circuit or circuits, and counties aforesaide, may, ought, hath or might lawfully doe by force of any law, vsage or statute heretofore had, made or vsed, before the making of this act: & that from henceforth all and singuler writs, Processe, returnes, essoines, verdicts, Iudgements, Fines, recoueries, recognisances, acknowledges, confessions, Act and Acts, thing and things, matter and matters, as aforesaid, had, made, taken, done, returned, heard, determined, awarded, adiudged, or executed, by or before any such two Iustices or more: or any such Iustice or Iustices, and associate or associates, as aforesaid, to be appointed nominated, authorised, or constituted, as aforesaid, shall be allowed, taken, construed, expounded, and adiudged as good, effectuall, and auaileable, to all intents, constructions, and purposes, as if the same had beene had, made, taken, done, returned, heard, determined, awarded, iudged, or executed by or before any such one Iustice, or one of the Iustices now, or late being Iustice or Iustices of the same circuit, or seuerall circuits aforesayd: any Lawe, vsage, statute, act, or ordinance or preseription to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding. And such person in prison or his heires, within seuen yeares next after the same person shall be at liberty, and such person beyond the seas or his heires, within seuen yeares next after the return of such person into this realm of England, or the death of the said person, if he shal before his returne die in any forreine Countrey, shall sue, take and prosecute their writs of Error, as their causes shall seuerally require for reuersing of any of the said fines or recoueries heretofore passed, leuied or suffered. Prouided alwaies, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that if any person or persons, shall within the time & yeres aforesaid commence or sue his or their writs of Error, for the reuersing of any the said fines or recoueries heretofore passed, which suite shal fortune to abate by the death of any of the parties to the same, that then it shall or may be lawful for his and their heires at any time within one yeare next after the said seuen yeares expired, to haue, sue and take their writ of Error for the reuersing of euery such fine and recouerie, and if such heire bee an Infant within the age of one and twenty yeares, then within one yeare next after the full age of such Infant, any thing in this present act conteined to the contrarie thereof in any wise notwithstanding. And be it further enacted &c. That euerie person that shall at any time hereafter take the knowledge of any fine or warrant of Atturney, of any Tenant or vouchee, for suffering any common recouerie to be leuied, knowledged, passed or had, within any of the said twelue shires of Wales, Towne and County of Hauerford West, or County Palantine, or shall certifie them or any of them, shall with the Certificate of the Concord or warrant of Atturney, certifie also the day and yeare wherein the same was acknowledged: And that no person that taketh any such knowledge of any fine or warrant for any recouerie, shall be bound or by any meanes enforced to certifie any such knowledge or warrant, except it be within one yeare next after the said knowledge taken. And that no Clerke or Officer in any of the saide twelue Shires of Wales, Towne & County of Hauerford West or Counties Palatine, shal receiue any writ of couenat, or writ of Entre, or any other writ, whereupon any fine or common recouery is hereafter to passe, vnlesse the day of the knowledge of the same fine and warrant shall appeare in or by such certificate, vpon paine that euerie Clerke that shall receiue any such writ, shall forfeit for euery time that hee shal so offend, the summe of forty shillings. And that no Atturnment in or vpon any such fine in any of the Courts aforesaid, be entred vpon record, except the party mentioned to atturne therein, first haue appeared in the Court in person, or by Atturney, warranted by the hands of one of the Iustices of the same Court, vpon a Writ of Quid Iuris clamat, quem reddidit reddit, or per quæ seruitia, as the cause requireth. And that euery entry of Atturnement hereafter to bee made in any of the Courts aforesaid, wherein there shall be no appearance as aforesaid, shall be vtterly void and of none effect, without any writ of Error, or other meanes to be vsed for auoiding thereof. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that there shall bee for euer an office for the Inrolements aforesaid in euery of the said twelue shires of Wales, Towne and Countrey of Hauerford West, and Counties Palantine, which shall bee and continue an Office for euer, called the Office of the Inrolements of fines and recoueries: & that the Iustices of the said twelue Shires of Wales, Towne and Countie of Hauerford West, and County Palantine for the time being, that is to wit euery of them within the limits and precincts of their seuerall authorities and commissions, shall haue and take the care and charge, of and for the Inrolements aforesaid, and shall haue and inioy the said office and the disposition thereof, and carefully see and looke to the execution therof, and in consideration of their charges, pain and trauaile therein, shall haue and take the summes of money hereafter following, and no more, that is to say, for the Inrolement and examination of euery

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the exemplification of any such Inrolment, of any fine or recouery, or of any part thereof, within any of the saide xij. Shires of Wales, or the said Towne and Countie of Hauerford West, vnder the Iudiciall seale of the said Shire Towne or County where such fine or Recouery was leuied, had, or passed, and the exemplification of any such inrolement of any fine or recouerie, or of any part thereof, within any of the said Counties Palantine, vnder the seale of that County Palantine, where such fine or recouery was leuied, had, or passed, shall be of as good force and validity in the law to all intents, respects, and purposes, for such part, and so much of any of them as shall be so exemplified, as the very original record it selfe, being extant and remaining were, or ought by law to be. Prouided alwaies, & be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, that it shall be lawful for the Iustices Clerkes, authorized by their warrant in the said seuerall Offices and places where the same Records, or any of them doe or shall remain, to write out, or inroll the same Records and euerie part thereof, and that the said Records, nor any of them for the writing out or making the rols thereof by the Clerkes of the said Iustices, shall be brought or carried forth of the said offices or places. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that none of the said fines or recoueries aforesaid heretofore leuied, passed, or suffered, which shalbe exemplified vnder any Iudiciall seale of any of the said Shires of Wales, or Towne or County of Hauerford west, or vnder ỳ seale of any of the said Counties Palantine, according to the forme of this act, shall after such exemplification had, bee in any wise amended. Prouided alwaies, that this act, or any thing therein conteined, shall not in any wise extend to the preiudice of the heires of Sir Edward Grey Knight, Lord Powys deceased, or of Sir Edward Herbert Knight, or his Heires or Assignes, Henry Vernon, or John Vernon Esquires, or their heires or Assignes, for or concerning any fine leuied, or recouerie suffered, by, or against the said Lord Powys, of any Baronies, honors, manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments in the Countie of Mountgomery, or any exemplification thereof, or for or concerning any writ of Error brought, or to be brought for the reuersing of any such fine or recouerie, but that they and euerie of them, shal haue and inioy the same right, title, benefit, and aduantage, to all intents and purposes, as if this act had neuer beene had or made. And forasmuch as vpon great examinatiõ it appeareth, that diuers Fines and Recoueries haue ben heretofore leuied & suffered of diuers castles, manors, messuages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, which sometime were the inheritance of George, sometime Earle of Kent, great Grandfather to Henry now Earle of Kent, in vse, possession, reuersion or remainder, whereunto the said now Earle of Kent, pretendeth title, in vse, possession, reuersion, or remainder, which if they be erroneous as is pretended, do much vary from the generall ende and mischiefe for which this Statute meaneth to prouide: Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, that neither this Statute, nor any thing therein conteined, shall extend to take away any writ of Error, whereunto any person or persons is now, or hereafter shall be lawfully entituled to haue for the reuersing of the said fines and recoueries, or any of them heretofore leuied or suffered of any of the said Castles, Manors, messuages, lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, which late were any part or parcell of the inheritance of the said George sometime Earle of Kent, in vse, possession, reuersion, or remainder: any thing in this Statute conteined to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding. 4 Of heires that be led away, withholden, or married by their Kinſfolks, or by other with force againſt our peace: Thus it is prouided, that whatſoeuer lay man be conuict thereof, that hee hath ſo withholden, led away, or married any Childe, he ſhall yeld to the loſer the value of the mariage. And for the offence, his body ſhall bee taken and impriſoned, vntill hee haue recompenced the loſer, if the Childe be married, and further, vntill he hath ſatiſfied the King for the Treſpaſſe. And this ſhall bee done of an Heire being within the age of fourteene yeares. But touching an Heire being xiiij. yeares old or aboue, vnto his full age, if he marry himſelfe without the licence of the Lord, to defraud him of the marriage, and his Lord offer him a reaſonable and conuenient mariage (without diſparagement) then his Lord ſhall hold his land beyond the Terme of his age, that is to ſay, of one and twenty yeares, ſo long that hee may receiue thereof ỳ double value of the marriage after the eſtimation of lawfull men, or after as it hath beene offered him for the ſaid marriage before without fraud and colluſion, and after as it may be proued in the Kings Court. 6 As touching them that vſe to enfeoffe their eldeſt Sonnes and Heires being within age, of their heritage, for to defraud the Lords of the fée of their wardſhips: It is prouided and agréed, that by occaſion any ſuch feoffement no chiefe Lord ſhall loſe his ward. Moreouer touching them ỳ ſame falſe feoffements of their Lands, which they would deliuer out for terme of yeares, for to defraud the chiefe Lords of their Wards, wherein it is contained, that they are ſatiſfied of the whole ſeruice due vnto them, vntill a certaine terme, ſo that ſuch feoffées are bound at the ſaid Terme to pay a certaine ſum to the value of the ſame lands, or farre aboue, ſo that after ſuch Terme, the Land ſhall returne to them, or their Heires, becauſe no man will bée willing to keepe it vpon the priſe. It is prouided and agréed, that by ſuch fraud no chiefe Lord ſhall loſe his ward: Neuertheleſſe it ſhall not be lawfull to them to diſſeiſe ſuch feoffées without iudgement, but they ſhall haue a writ for to haue the wardſhip yelded vnto them, and by the witneſſes conteined in the deed of feoffement, with other frée and lawfull men of the Countrey, and by the quantity and value of the Land, and by the quantitie of the ſum payable after the terme, it ſhall bee tried whether ſuch feoffements were made in good faith, or by colluſion to defraude the chiefe Lords of the fée of their wardes. And if the chiefe Lords in ſuch caſes recouer their Wards by iudgement, the feoffées ſhall neuertheleſſe haue their action to recouer ſuch terme or fée (which they had therein) when the Heires come to their lawfull age. And if any chiefe Lords do malitiouſly implead ſuch feoffées, feining this caſe, namely where the feoffements were made lawfully, and in good faith, then the feoffées ſhall haue their damnages awarded, and their coſts which they haue ſuſteined by occaſion of the foreſaid plea, and the plaintifes ſhall be grieuouſly puniſhed by amerciament. 13 Our Soueraigne Lord the King shall haue the ward of all the lands of such as holde of him in chiefe by Knights seruice, whereof the Tenants were seised in their demesne as of fee, at the day of their death (of whomesoeuer they holde else by like seruice, so that they held of auncient time any land of the Crowne) vntill the heirs come to his lawfull age, except the fees of the Archbishop of Canterburie, the Bishop of Durham, betweene Tine and Tese, fines of Earles and Barons in the Marches, where the Kings Writs doe not lye, & whereof the said Archbishops, Bishops, Earles and Barons, ought to haue such Wards, though they held of the King in some other place. 14 Also the King shall haue the marriage of an heire being within age, and in his Ward, whether the Lands of such heyres haue appertained to the Crowne of auncient continuance, or that it came by reason of Escheate, being in the Kings hands, or that hee had the marriage by reason of the Ward of the Lords of such heires, without any respect to the priority of feoffement, albeit they held of other. 16 It is to wit, that where any relefe is giuen, there wardship is incident, and contrariwise. And such as hold by Sergeanty to go with the King in his hoast, there ward and relefe are incident. And such as hold by petit sergeanty, as to beare shield, or speare in ỳ kings hoast, to beate or to carry, there lyeth neither ward, marriage nor relefe. Also a free soke man shal not giue ward nor relefe, but he shal double his rent after the death of his auncestor according as he hath vsed to pay, & shal not be vnmeasurably grieued. Now somewhat is to bee said of the nature of hauing wards. There be two maner of writs to haue wards, one is where lands be holden in Knights seruice, the other is where lands be holden in socage. The ward of land that is holden in Knights seruice, belongeth to the chiefe Lord, and marriage, which ought to bee without disparagement, as the great Charter limiteth, vntill hee commeth to the age of one and twentie yeres. The ward of an Heire that holdeth in socage, if the inheritance descend of his mothers side, then it belongeth to the next friend of the fathers side, & contrariwise. And a writ to recouer Ward, may bee brought in three maners, one is when a man demãdeth Ward of the Land and of the Heire, and that is in case when a man holdeth land of another by Knights seruice, and the Tenant dyeth, then may the chiefe Lord (if he be forced) demaund the ward of his land and heire, & shal haue both Ward and marriage. Another maner is when a man is infeoffed of a rod of land by one man, and by another, of another rod, the second Lord may not bring a writ of Ward to recouer eyther the land or the heire, for the ward belongeth to the Lord, of whome he was first infeoffed. The third maner is, where a man hath land in his hand by reason of a ward, and hath not the heire, then he may bring a writ to demand the heire, and not the land. An. 28. Ed. 1. Stat. of Wards.

Also be it &c. that the said master of the Wardes for the time being, with the aduice of the said atturney, & receiuer generall, or one of them, shall haue authoritie without the Kings Bill assigned to make woodsales to the Kings vse, of al vnderwoods, vpon any of the K. wards lands, being lawfully in the Kings possession, and to take and appoint timber for the necessarie reparations of all the castles, manors, landes, tenements and parkes of the said wards, and shall haue also like power and authoritie in the Kings name, to make leases during the minoritie of the said wardes: And further as is aboue written, by their discretions, of all and singuler lordships, manors, lands and tenements remaining in the kings hands and possession, belonging to the said wardes and euerie parcell thereof, yelding to the K. highnesse, his heires and successours, such rents, as by the said Master of the Wardes, atturney, receiuer generall, and auditours, or three of them, whereof the said Master to be one, shal be thought conuenient by their discretions and suruey. And be it &c. that the said master of the wardes for the time being, shall haue authoritie by this act, to make and appoint all and singuler particuler receiuers, feodaries, and surueiers in euerie Shire, and also fees for the executing of the same vnder the seale of the same office, in such wise as the same officers may be alwayes remoueable at the discretion of the said court. Also be it &c. that the said master of the wards for the time being, shal haue authoritie by this act, to make allowance likewise of the costs of all commissioners, particuler receiuers, surueyers, auditors, councellers and feodaries, and euery of them, by his bill assigned, which bill shall be warrant sufficient to the auditours belonging to the same office, to make due allowance of the same. Also be it &c. that the said Master of the Wards in all places, and the said atturney, receiuer generall, and auditors, or two of them in the said Court, the said master being absent, shall haue power and authoritie to take obligations to the Kings vse of euery particular receiuer, which shall bee assigned to the sayde court, and of his sureties for sure paiment of his receits: And also to take obligations to the Kings vse as well of euerie farmer, bailifes, reeue, or other accountants, for the true payment of their receits, and of euerie person or persons which shall bee indebted to the Kings highnesse for any arrerages of his or their receits, farmes or charges, as of any other person or persons for any other cause or matter concerning the premisses, determinable within the same Court. And that all such obligations and writings obligatorie, of what summe soeuer they be, shall be of the same strength, vertue, force, qualitie, and effect, to all intents and purposes, as writings obligatorie heretofore made by any lay person by authoritie of the Statute of the Staple, bene or ought to bee. And that vpon Certificats hereafter to be made into the Kings Chauncerie of any such writing obligatorie to be taken for such payments, like processe and executions shall bee thereupon had or made, against any person spirituall or Temporall, as hath beene accustomed to be made against any Lay person, vpon Certificate of writings obligatorie of the sayd Statute of the Staple. Also that the sayd Master of the Wards for the time being, shall haue full power and authoritie to award vnder the Seale to bee appointed to the sayd Court in the Kings name such processe and precepts with reasonable paynes to bee therein limited, as bee now commonly vsed in the Court of the Kings Duchie Chamber of Lancaster, being at Westminster, against euerie person or persons whatsoeuer they be, for and concerning the interest, right and title of the Kings Maiestie, his heires and successours, of, in, or for any wardes Landes, Tenements, rents, account, receipt, seruices, or other cause in any wise touching or concerning any thing appointed to the order of the sayd Court, or any part thereof, for and on the behalfe of our sayde Soueraigne Lord the King, or of, or for any debt rising or growing by occasion of the same. Also be it &c. That the said Atturney, receiuer generall, and Auditours, shall diligently from time to time attend vpon the said master in the sayd Court, for the hearing and ordring of matters and causes in the same Court, for the time of foure termes of the yeare vsually kept for the Lawe at Westminster, and procure with all diligence, that all rentes, farmes, profits, casualties, improuements, and other emoluments of the Wardes, mariages, ideots, and of all manors, Landes, Tenements and Hereditaments, being in the surney & gouernance of the said Court, shall be truely and iustly payed and answered to the said receiuer generall of the said Court, to the vse of the kings highnesse, without concealing any part thereof. And also shall cause and procure processe to bee made against such as shall bee indebted to the kings highnesse, and their sureties, of and for any parte thereof from time to time, as the time and case shall require without any delay. And bee it &c. that the said Clerks, particular receiuers, auditors, surueiors, messengers and vsher, and euery of them, shal, vpon reasonable warning, giue at all times and places from time to time attendance vpon the said master for the time being, for the due execution and expedition of the premisses without delay, vpon such paines as shall be assessed by the kings Maiesty, vpon information thereof giuen by the said master to his highnes. Also be it &c. that if any of the said officers appointed for the same court doe conceale and withdraw willingly any rents, reuenues, casualties, or other profits, falling, growing or commiug to the king by the minoritie of any of his graces wards, or by reason of any other thing appointed by this act of the said court, ỳ then ỳ officers so offending, shal lose to the king our soueraigne Lord, ỳ double value of ỳ thing so concealed or withdrawē. And for the fees of all Commissions directed out at the suite of the parties, two shillings sixe pence. And for recording of all apparances foure pence and no more. Also be it &c. That the said Master by the aduice of the said Atturney, Receiuor Generall, and Auditors, or three of them, whereof the said Master to bee one of them, shall haue authority by this act to survey all the Kings widowes, and to treate, commune, and conclude, aswell with all and euerie of the Kings widowes that now now bee, or hereafter shall bee, and that haue married themselues without the Kings licence, or that hereafter shall happen to marrie themselues without the K. licence, for their reasonable fines to be made to the Kings vse, and to tare and assesse the same by their discretion according to the Statute of Prærogatiua regis (capit. 4. which is in women 2.) the same fines to bee paied to the Receiuer Generall of the Wards lands, as the same may appeare yearely in his account. Also be it &c. That the said Master by the aduice of the said Atturney, Receiuer generall, and Auditors, or three of them, shall haue authority by this Act, to survey, gouerne, and order all and singuler ideots and naturall soles, now being in the Kings hands, or that hereafter shall come and be in the Kings hands. And also to survey and order all the manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments whatsoeuer, now being in the Kings hands, or in the hands of any other person or persons to their vses, or to the vse of any of them that hereafter shall come and be in the Kings hands, his heires and successors in the right of any of them by reason of his Graces prerogatiue royall. And also by the aduice of the said Atturney, receiuer Generall, and Auditors, or three or two of them, to let and set the manors, lands and tenements to the Kings vse, for the time of the Kings interest, for such rent and fines, as by their discretion shall bee thought conuenient. The finding and keeping of the said persons, their wines and Children, and the reparations of their houses and lands, alway to be considered in the doing thereof, the same rents and fines reserued to the Kings grace to be paied alway to the hands of the Receiuer generall of the wards lads for the time being, as the same may appeare in his accõpt, & bee recorded in the court of the wards Also be it &c. That the Master of the kings liueries shall passe no liuery with any person or persons, that bee, or that haue beene, or hereafter shall be the Kings Wards, vnto such time they shall receiue knowledge from the Court of the Kings Wards, what case the accomptantes, tenantes, and farmers of the Wards lands stand in with the Kings Highnesse, and what surety and order is taken therefore, and for the rates of the kings vse. And that euerie Ward hauing his liuery, shall within sixe months next after the liuery had, bring the same liuery to the Auditors of the Wards for the time being, or to one of them, to haue the same there inrolled for the discharge of the lands against the kings Highnesse, according to the tenor of the said liuery, and shall pay for the inrolement thereof such reasonable summe of money, as shall bee appointed by the said Master of the Wards, so that it exceed not the summe of ten shillings. Also be it &c. that all and euery person and persons to whom the Kings Highnesse shall graunt the custodie and Wardship of any of his Graces Wards, shall vpon his bil assigned therof sue forth his patent within foure months next after the assignement of the same bill, or else the same and the effect thereof to be vtterly void and of no force, And also be it &c. that the generall Receiuer and chiefe Auditors of the said Court for the time being, shall yearely receiue and take, as well by the hands of the generall Receiuer, as by the hands of all and singuler particuler receiuers, and al other Officers and Ministers accomptant within the survey of the said Court for the time being, all and singuler such summes of money for such like dyets, rewards, profits and commodities as wel for their attendance vpon the said Court, and for the making and writing of books, declarations, and values, as for other matter and causes of, for or concerning the said Court, and also for the expenses, costs and charges of the same generall receiuer, and auditour and auditors, and euery of them for the time being, yearely riding their seuerall circuits and limits, in as large and ample maner and forme, as shall bee appointed by the said Master of the Wards and Atturney of the said Court by their discretions. And that the said Auditors for the time being, shall haue power and authority yearely from time to time to allow the same. And also bee it &c. That as many accounts of the Kings Wards lands, ideots lands, fines for marriages of Widowes, and licences for the same, as beene clearely accounted and not returned into the Kings Exchequer, and also as many other accounts of the Wards lands, ideots lands, fines for marrying of Widowes, and licences for the same, as beene not yet fully accounted & ingrossed, shall bee ingrossed and returned within three yeares next comming, into the office of the Wards, there to remaine as the kings records. And that the Kings Highnesse, surveyors general of his Graces lands, and Auditors of his Graces Wards lands, and euerie of them shall bee thereof discharged against the Kings Maiestie, of and for the return of the same accounts, into his Graces Exchequer, any Act, Statute or ordinance heretofore made to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding. And it is &c. That the said Master of the Wards for the time being, shall haue authority by this act, with the aduice of the Atturney and Receiuer Generall of the same Court, or one of them, to call at all times before them into the Office of the Wardes by the Processe of the same Court, all and euerie person and persons, which

And if the said lands and tenements, whereof any such inquisitions and offices are to be found by vertue of any such Writ or Commission, exceed not the said yeerely value of fiue pounds, then such as shall sue for such Writs or Commissions, shall pay for the Seale of euery of them fiue pence, and for the writing fiue pence, and not aboue. And it is also &c. That all inquisitions and Offices to bee found by vertue of any such writs of commissions, shall be returned by the Escheators or Commissioners, to whom such Writs or Commissions shall be directed into the said Chauncerie, or into such other Courts from whence such Writtes or Commissions were awarded, in such maner and forme, and vpon such paines as is limited by the Lawes and Statutes of the Realme in such cases. And that the Clerke of the pety Bagge shall receiue such Offices, and make a transcript thereof from time to time to the said Master of the Wards and Liueries, in like manner and forme, as they are bounden and haue bin accustomed to doe into the Kings Eschequer, and vpon such paines as be limited and appointed by the Laws and Statutes of this realm in such cases. And it is &c. that the said Master of the Wards and Liueries, and the Surueyour, Atturney, and generall Receiuer of the said Court, or two of them, whereof the said Master or Surueyor to be one, shall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this present Act, after such offices and inquisitions found, as is aforesaid, to conenant and indent with euery person and persons for his and their liuerie of the Castles, Mannors, Lordships, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, comprised or not comprised in such Offices, and to make and set the rate & price for the same, and to appoint and stall the dayes of payment thereof by obligation or obligations, to be taken for the same to the King our soueraigne Lord, which obligation or obligations so made, and euery of them shall be good and effectuall in the Lawe, and shall be of like authority and strength, as obligations to be taken by authoritie of the same court of the Kings wards be of, by vertue of the said former Act. And that all and singuler bills for any speciall or generall liuerie to be sued, assigned by the hands of the said Master, Surueyor, Atturney, Receiuer, or three of them, whereof the sayd Master or Surueyor to be one, shall be a good and sufficient Warrant, as well to the Chauncellor of England, as to the Chauncellour of the Dutchie of Lancaster, and to all other Chauncellors and Officers hauing power to passe Liueries vnder ane of the Kings Seales, for the making out, sealing, and deliuery of any Liueries, according to the tenour, purport, and effect of such Bills, with other clauses of cause necessarie for the same, any lawe or custome to the contrary hereof notwithstanding. Prouided alway, and be it &c. that the Lord Priuy Seale, the Lord great Chamberlaine, the Kings chiefe and principall Secretaries, the Master of the Rolles, and the Kings Clerkes of the Signet and Priuy seale, the Clerks of the petty Bagge, and all and euery other Officer and Officers, and Clerkes in the Chauncerie, or elsewhere in any other Courts where such liueries shall passe, shall haue and be payed all such theyr fees, as hath bin accustomed, all which fees shall be receiued and payed by the hands of the Clerkes of the petty Bagge, if the Liuerie be sued in the Chancery, or by other Clerkes, by whose hands Liueries shall be written in other Courts, any thing in this Act to the contrarie thereof notwithstanding. And it is &c. That euery person and persons from henceforth may sue at theyr pleasure a generall Liuerie for any manors, lands, tenements, rents, reuersions, remainders, or other hereditaments, whereof the cleere yearely value shall not exceede twenty pounds after office thereof or writ or commission found, returned, and certified as is aforesaid. 7 William Butler, which is within age, and in ward of our Soueraigne Lord ỳ king, hath ſhewed vnto his Highneſſe, that where Gawin Butler his brother (whoſe heire he is) had impleaded one Walter de Hapeton by the Kings writ, for waſt and deſtruction made by him in certaine his lands and tenements which the ſame Walter helde for terme of his life, of the inheritance of the foreſaid Gawin in Wimme and Trike: And the aforeſaid Gawin before hee had obtayned iudgement, dyed: After whoſe death ỳ foreſaid William by like writ impleaded the foreſaid Walter, for the waſt and deſtructiõ made by him of long time: The ſame Walter before Gilbert Thornton & his companions, aſſigned to heare the kings Pleas, came in and ſaid that hee ought not to anſwere to the ſame William for the waſt and deſtruction made in the time of an other, before the right of the ſaid Inheritance deſcended vnto him, & thereupon demaunded iudgement. And foraſmuch as certaine Juſtices did not agree in giuing of the ſaid iudgement, becauſe it ſeemeth to ſome, that it ſhould not bee agreeable to the law, that any perſon ſhould obtaine aduantage and recompence by the foreſaid Writ, which is a Writ of treſpaſſe done to a perſon certaine, but onely the ſame perſon to whom & in whoſe time the treſpaſſe was done. Other Juſtices with the more part of the Kings Councell, were in the contrary opinion, alleadging by diuers reaſons, that ỳ ſaid William ought to bee heard and anſwered vnto, and all other whatſoeuer they be, in like caſes, or in like treſpaſſes. And for becauſe like matters haue remained not amended, & treſpaſſes vnpuniſhed, which was inconuenient: Our Soueraigne Lord the King in his full Parliament, holden the day after the feaſt of the Purification in the 11. yeare of his raigne, by a generall Councell hath ordeined, and from henceforth hath commaunded to be ſtraitly obſerued, that euery heire in whoſe ward ſoeuer he be, and as wel within age, as of ful age, ſhal haue his recouery by a writ of waſt in the foreſaid cauſe, & alſo in other where the ſame Writ ought to holde place, and it ſhall holde place as well for waſt and deſtruction made in lands & tenemẽts of his owne inheritance, and as well in the times of his anceſtors, as at any other time that the fee and enheritance deſcended vnto him, and ſhall bee anſwered vnto therefore: And that he ſhall recouer the lands waſted and dammages, as it is ordayned in the ſtatute of Weſtminſter of dammages to be recouered in a Writ of waſt, if the tenant bee conuict for the waſt. And it is commaunded by the king himſelfe vnto the ſame Gilbert Thornton and his companions, that they doe proceed in the foreſaid matter, and in other like from henceforth, & iudgement ſhal be giuẽ according as the matter is feũd. The assise or weight of bread shall not be changed, but by the increase or decrease of vj.d. in the sale of a quarter. A Baker if his bread of a farthing be found wating weight but ij.s.vj.d. or vnder, he shall bee amerced, and if it want more weight then that, he shall be set on the Pillory, and shall not redeeme it for gold nor siluer. And that euery Baker haue his proper marke for his bread. That there bee a Pillorie or Collistrige of a conuenient strength, so all Offenders may suffer the iudgement without perill of their bodies. Toll at the Mill shall bee taken according to the custome of the Countrey and strength of the course of the water, eyther the twentie graine or the foure and twenty graine: And that the measure by which the toll is to bee taken, be agreeing with the Kings measure: And that the Toll bee taken by stricke, and not by heape or Cantell: And if the Fermers doe finde vnto the Millers their necessaries, they shall take nothing besides their due toll, and if any doe otherwise, they shal be grieuously punished. The assise of Wine be kept according to the Kings Assise, viz. a gallon at twelue pence: And if Tauerners exceed that Assise, let their doores bee shut vp by the Maiors and Bailifes, and let them not sell wine, vntil they haue obteined the Kings licence. The assise of Ale shall be appointed, proclaimed and obserued according to the sale of the Corne, whereof the malt is made: And the Brewer shal not increase more in a gallon except the quarter of Malt increase by sixe pence. And if he breake the Assise, he shall be amerced the first, second and third time, but at the fourth time he shall bee set on the Pillorie without redemption. A Butcher that selleth Swines flesh measeled, or flesh dead of the murren, after hee shall bee conuict thereof, for the first time hee shall bee grieuously amerced, the second time he shall suffer iudgement of the Pillorie, and the third time hee shall be imprisoned and make fine, and the fourth time hee shall abiure the Towne: and in this manner be it done against all transgressors. The Standerd of bushell, Gallon and yard, signed with the Kings Iron Seale diligently, and bee safely kept vnder the pain of one hundreth pounds. And that no measure be made in any town, except, it agree with the kings measure, & be signed with the signe of the Comminalty of the Towne. If any buy or sell by measures net signed nor examined by the Maior or Bailifes, he shall be grieuously amerced: And that all the measures of euerie Towne both great and small be examined diligently, and seene twise in the yeare. And if they be conuicted of a double measure, viz. a greater to buy with, and a lesser to sell with, he shalbe as a falsifier imprisoned and grieuously punished. The standerd of the Bushell and yard shall be in the custody of the Maior, and Bailifes, and of sixe lawfull sworne men of the Towne before whome all measures shall be signed. No kinde of Corne shall bee sold by heape or Cantell except Dates, Malt, and Meale. And if any presume to sell the Meale of Dates falsified by any deceitful meane, for the first offence hee shall be grieuously punished, for the second he shall lose all his meale, the third time hee shall be set on the Pillory, and the fourth time he shall abiure the towne. (See also a clause of this statute concerning Forestallers, in Forestallers, 1.) All the premisses shalbe firmly kept on the part of the K. so as if any great or little, shall presume in any thing against the foresaid statutes, by word, counsel, help or fauor, he shalbe apprehended as a contemner of the K. comandements, & shalbe imprisoned, & not deliuered but by the K. expresse comandement and writ. And be this present schedule deliuered to the Maior and Bailifes, and sixe lawfull sworne men of the Towne with the standerds, Bushels, Gallons, yards, and stones to be obserued, that

4 First, sixe lawfull men shall be sworne truely to gather all the measures of the Towne, that is to wit, bushels, halfe a quarter bushels, gallons, pottels and quarts, as well of Tauernes as of other places, measures and weights, that is to wit, pounds, halfe pounds, and other little weights, wherewith bread of the Towne or of the Court is weighed, that is to say, one loafe of euerie sort of bread. And vpon any measure, yard, weight, and also vpon euerie loafe, the name of the owner shall be written. And likewise they shall gather the measures of Milles. After which thing done, twelue lawfull men shall be sworne to make true answere to all such things as shall be demaunded of them in the Kings behalf vpon the Articles here following, and such things as be secret, they shall vtter secretly. And the Baylife shal be commaunded to bring in all the Bakers and Brewers with their measures, and all things vnder written. First they shall be asked of the price of wheat, that is to wit, how a quarter of the best wheat was sold the last Market day, and how the second wheat, and how the third, and how a quarter of Barley and Otes. Afterward, how the Bakers bread doth agrée with the K. court, that is to wit, the wastel and the other bread of wheate of the best, or of the second, or of the third price. Also vpon how much increase or decrease in the price of wheat, the Baker ought to change the assise and weight of his bread. Also how much the wastell of a farthing ought to weigh, and all other maner of bread, after the price of the quarter of wheat which they present. Also for what default in the weight of the bread, a Baker ought to be amerced, or to be iudged vpon the Pillorie, according to the Law and custome of this Court. Also if any Steward or Baylife, for any bribe, hath released the punishment of the Pillory and Tumbrell, being already iudged, or to be iudged of right. Also if they haue in the town a Pillory of conuenient strength, as appertaineth to the liberty of their market, which they may vse (if need be) without bodily peril either of man or woman. Afterward they shal be asked of the assise and sale of Wine after the departure of the Iustices in Eyre, or of them that were last in the seruice of the market of the Town, that is to say, of the Wintners names, and how they haue sold the gallon of wine. And if any corrupted wine be in the towne, or such as is not wholsome for mans body. Also of the assise of Ale in the court of the town, how it is, and whether it be obserued, and if not, how many Brewers haue sold contrary to the assise, and they shall present their names distinctly and openly, and they shal be amerced for euery default, or be iudged to the Tumbrell, if they sell contrarie to the assise. Also if there be any that sell by one measure and buy by an other. Also if any doe vse false yardes, weights or measures. Also if any Butcher doe sell contagious flesh, or that dyed of the murren. Also if Cookes that seeth or bake flesh or fish in paste or water, or any otherwise, that is not wholesome for mans body, or after that they haue kept it so long that it leeseth his naturall wholesomenesse, and then heateth it again and sell it. Also of forestallers, that buy any thing afore the due and accustomed houre against the good state and weale of the Town and Market, or that passe out of the Towne to meete such thinges as come to the Market, being out of the towne, to the intent that they may sell the same in the Towne more deare vnto regrators that vtter it more deare then they would that brought it, in case they had come to the towne or market. Anno 11. H. 7. cap. 4.

34 Whereas the King for the commonweale of his people hath of late caused weights and mea-sures to be made of brasse, according to the old Standerds of his Treasurie, and in this last Par-liament, Anno 11. (before 33.) ordained that the same should be deliuered out to be conueyed to cer-taine Boroughes and Townes, which weights and measures vpon more diligent examination made, according to the old Lawes and Statutes be found defective, wherefore the King &c. ordaineth &c. That the measure of the bushell containe eight Bushell gallons of wheat, and euerie gallon containe eight Gallon pounds of wheat, of Troy weight, and euerie pound containe twelue ounces of Troy weight, Pound and euerie ounce containe twentie sterlings, and Ounce euerie sterling be of the weight of two and thirtie Sterling cornes of wheat that grew in the middest of the eare of the wheat, according to the old lawes of this land. And that it pleaseth the Kings Highnesse to make a Standerd of a bushell, and a gallon after the said assise, to remaine in his said Treasu-rie for euer. And from henceforth the said new bushels and gallons lately set forth, be not vsed nor occupied for no measures, but that they be sent a-gaine vnto the Kings receipt by the feast of Whit-sontide next comming, at the costs and charges of the said Cities, Boroughes, and Townes, hauing the said bushels and gallons in keeping, vpon pain of twentie pounds to be forfeited to the King, the Forf. same bushels and gallons so sent againe into the kings receipt, to be broken, and with the stuffe and mettall of the same bushels and gallons, other new bushels and gallons by the aduise of the Treasurer and vnder Treasurer of England for the time be-ing, before the feast of All Saints next comming, to be made and sealed according to the said bushell and gallon, which by this present Act is ordained to be new made, and to remaine in the said Treasu- Treasurie rie, at the costs and charges of the same Cities, Bo- Citie roughes,

roughes, and Towne. And that euerie Citie, Borough, and Towne within this Realme, which now haue, or should haue had by reason of the said Act made in the said eleuenth yeare, any of the said new bushell or gallon, doe conuey and carrie before the said Feast of Saint Andrew next comming, into euerie of the same Cities, Boroughs, & Townes, a bushell and gallon newly to be made as is aforesaid, at the costs and charges of the same Citie, Borough, and Towne, there to remaine. And all other bushels, gallons, and measures which be to be made after the forme by this Act ordained, be marked and ordered after the forme and effect of the said Act, made in the said 11. yeare: And in the meane season to vse such bushels & gallons as haue beene vsed last afore the comming downe of the said new bushels and gallons before the making of the said Statute in the said eleuenth yeare. And that all penalties in the first Act expressed, be of none effect vnto the feast of Candelmas, which shall be in the yeare of our Lord God 1417. and after the same feast, the same Act made in the same eleuenth yere, to stand in full strength with his penalties vpon the said bushell and gallons new to be made, as it should haue done vpon the said new bushels and gallons made afore the making of this present Act, if this Act had not beene made. And that it be ordained by the said authoritie, That after the said new bushels and gallons be made according to this present Act, that all other bushels and gallons of brasse remaining as well in the said Treasurie, as in all other places of England, before the feast of Christmas next comming, be damned and broken, vpon paine of twentie pounds to be leuied vpon euerie Citie, Borough, and Towne, or any other

And those that may not there be sold or deliuered within the 15. dayes, shall bee brought to the Ports ordained for the staples, to passe from thence to the parts aforesaid, paying the Customes and Subsidies aforesaid. And that no wols vendible shalbe lodged, Staple shewed, nor sold within three miles of the Staple, but in the same staple, sauing that euery Lord & other man then Marchant, may freely lodge, shew, and sell his wolls, which be of his owne growing, in his owne house and else where shall please him. An. 31. E. 3. cap. 8.

Chancelor Treasorer 8 The Chancelor and Treasorer which for the time shall be, by the aduice of other of the Kings Councell, shall haue power to deferre the terme of passage of wolls, when they see that need is. Anno 31. E. 3. cap. 9.

9 The King by the assent aforesaid hauing regard to the graunt that the commons haue granted now in this Parliament of Wolls, Leather, and Woollfels to be taken for three yeare, will and graunt, that after the said terme passed nothing be taken nor demaunded of the said Commons, but onely the auncient custome of halfe a Marke, nor Customs that this graunt now made, or which hath bene made in times past, shall not be had in example nor charge of the same Commons in time to come. And that the Marchant denizens may passe with their Wolls as well as the foreines, without being restrained. And that no Subsidie nor other Subsidie charge be set nor graunted vpon the Wolls by the Marchants, nor by none other from henceforth, without the assent of the Parliament. Anno 36. Ed. 3. cap. 11.

10 Whereas it was another time ordained in the Statute of the Staple, That no Englishman should passe the Sea with Wolls, Leather, or Transport Woollfels by him nor by other, vpon paine of forfeiture of life and member, lands, tenements, goods, and cattels: It is accorded, that the forfeiture of life and member shall be wholly out. And Forf. that no man be impeached because of such forfeiture of life and member, as well of times past as of the time to come. And the forfeiture of lands and tenements, goods and cattels, shall stand in their force. Anno 38. E. 3. cap. 6.

11 The Staples of Calice &c. shall be wholly Staples put out, and the Staples of Wolls, Woolfels, and Leather of the Realme of England shall be holden in the places vnderwritten, that is to say, at Newcastle, Kingstone vpon Hull, Saint Botulfe, Yermouth, Quenesborough, Westminster, Chichester, Winchester, Excester, and Bristow. And the Staples of Ireland and of Wales shall be in the places where they were first ordained. And moreouer it is ordained, that all Marchants, Strangers aliens and denizens, may freely go through England, Ireland, and Wales, and buy & sell Wolls, Woollfels, and Leather, and all other marchandizes at their will, without impeachment or disturbance, so that no Wolls, Woollfels, nor Leather shall passe out of the Realme of England, Ireland, nor Wales, till they be brought to the Staples, and there weighed, cocketted, and customed. And that all the Wolls that shall be brought to the Staples at Westminster and Winchester, shalbe betwixt Marchant and Marchant, or Marchants and other, lawfully weighed by the Standerd: And euery sacke and sarpler of the same Wolls so weighed, sealed vnder the Seales of the Mayor of the Staple and of the Constables, or Mayor and one of the Constables. And also that all the Wolls so weighed and sealed at the Staples, and Leather and Woollfels that there shall come (the customes of the Staples thereof payd) shall be witnessed by Bill ensealed of the seales of the Mayor of the Staple, and Constables, or Mayor and one of the Constables, and brought from Westminster to the Port of London, and Ports from Winchester to the Port of Southhampton, and there the said Wolls shall be another time weighed in the presence of our Customers and

26 Whereas by a Statute it was ordained, that all the wools and woolfels, hides, lead, and tinne, & diuers other merchandizes passing out of the realm of England, the Lands of Ireland, Wales, & Berwicke vpon Twede, ought to repaire to the staple at Calais, and to none other place beyond the sea to be sold vnder the gouernance of the Maior and Constables of the said staple, vpon certaine paines conteined in the said statute, which pains be so easie and not doubted, that many take in custome to carrie, and do daily to be carried out of the Realme and Lands aforesaid by diuers meanes and waies, a great substance of wools, woolfels, hides, lead, and tinne, and other Merchandizes, which ought to repaire to the said staple into Scotland, & into Flanders, Holland, Zeland, and Brabant, without custome or other charge therof, paying as is paied for wools repairing to Calais. And also by ỳ said wools and Merchandizes so carried to the said parties, there commeth no money into this realme of England, nor the same Realme is in no wise increased, nor the Mint at Calais sustained: And moreouer the same wools and Merchandizes be sold in ỳ said partes at so little price & value, that the merchants Aliens bee so great inforced of the same, that they come not to Calais for to buy woolls and woolfels, as they were accustomed to doe, to the great losse & damage of our soueraigne Lord the King, and the vniuersall dammage of his Realme, and great hinderance of the vtterance of the commodities of the said Realme repayring and being at the said town of Calais, as the same our Soueraigne Lord the King hath conceiued at a grieuous complaint to him made by the Merchants, and commons of the Realm in this present Parliament assembled: Our Soueraigne Lord the K. considering the grieuous losses and damages aforesaid, hath ordained that the value of all such goods so found carried, or to bee carried to the said parts, except those wools & woolfels which by our Soueraigne Lord the King be, or shall bee licenced, if there bee any forf. whereof the same our Soueraigne Lord the King shall haue the one halfe, and the person that espieth & proueth the same by the discretion of the Treasorer and the Barons of the Exchequer, shal haue the other half. 29 Forasmuch as the great number, quantitie, and substance of the wools growing in the Realme of England by these three yeares passed, be shipped and in great ieopardie and doubt come to the town of Calais, there to be sold for ready money, whereof it behoueth the said Merchants sellers to receiue vpon euerie sarpler a certaine of bullion to bee brought to the Kings Mint at Calais, the which readie money and bullion after that they bee forged and coyned, and receiued by the saide Merchants sellers, ought duely and equally to be distributed & departed to euerie one after his portion to be sent into his Realme, for the increase and vniuersall weale of the same, by vertue of certaine Statutes made in the same parliament holden at Westminster the eight yeare of our said Soueraigne Lord the King, and renued in the Parliament holden the eleauenth yeare of his Raigne: which Statutes bee straitly obserued and kept, as by such persons which by vndue meanes do ship Wools in the Creekes, and other suspicious places, and also in diuers other Ports of the Realm, and them carriet to other places then to Calais, and also by such persons which in derogation of the vniuersal weale of the Realme, and in destruction of the good ordinance of partition, and in abatement of the price of Woolles, do purchase licences for their singuler auaile, to Shippe Woolls at Calais, there to be sold before all other wools there being, and be not bound to keepe the price, nor to receiue no bullion, nor to make partition nor distribution of their money, in maner as all Merchants of England there repayring be straitly bound to do by the Statutes aforesaid, by reason whereof the said Merchants by the meanes and licences aforesaid be in point to be destroyed, the said staple to be dilleuered and destroyed, and consequently the said Towne of Calais, which by the said staple hath hitherto bin greatly maintained and inforced, is like to be vndone and lost, and the said Realme in point to be greatly hindered and hurt, as the same our soueraign Lord the King hath conceiued by the grieuous complaint to him made in the same parliament by the commons of the same: Therefore the same our Soueraign L. the King, willing for ỳ same in this case to prouide a remedie, by the aduice of the said L. spirituall and temporall, and at the supplication of the sayd commons, hath ordayned in the same parliament, that no such licence, which is so preiudicial and contrarie to the common & vniuersall weale of his realm, and of his said marchants, and in destruction of the said Towne, and of the said ordinance of partition, & of the price of the wools, shall in no wise be granted. And that euerie man which shippeth, or do to be shipped any wools, or woolfels, to carrie them ouer the Sea in any wise, shal repaire with the same to Calais, & there discharge and sell the said wools, and woolfels, after the tenour of the said Statutes, and after the good rule and ordinance of the sayd Staple, in maintenance and sustentation of the same relieue, & increase of the said towne of Calais,
